

ROYAL GENEALOGIES:

OR, THE

GENEALOGICAL TABLES

OF

EMPERORS, KINGS and PRINCES,

From ADAM to these Times;

In TWO PARTS.

PART I.

Begins with a Chronological History of the World, from the Beginning of Time to the Christian Era, and then the GENEALOGIES of the earliest great Families and most ancient Sovereigns of Asia, Europe, Africa and America, down to CHARLEMAIN, and many of 'em down to these Times.

PART II.

Begins with the Grand Revolution of CHARLEMAIN, and carries on the Royal and Princely GENEALOGIES of Europe down to these Times; concluding with those of the BRITANNIC Isles.

See a more particular Account in the Preface, and in the Contents of the Tables.

S I R,

H O' the World might not be surprized at the Presumption of this Application in an Author, it could not but be very much so at the Reception You have deigned to give it, were not Instances of Your Royal Highness's Humanity, Affability and Condescension, and of your Readiness to encourage even the obscurest Merit, too frequent not to become familiar to it.

I might indeed alledge in Extenuation of the Liberty of this Address, that the very Dignity of this Work forbid me to turn my Thoughts upon any beneath Your Royal Highness for its Patron; for as PRINCES, with their several Rights, Relatives and Pretensions are the immediate and proper Subject of Genealogy, this Science seems to have a natural Claim to their Protection: And tho' Your Royal Highness had not vouchsafed to have patronized this Performance in so publick a Manner, yet the conspicuous Rank You hold in Europe would necessarily have, in some sense, interested You in it; for as no Country affords the Genealogist so ample a Field as the Empire, so neither does any Family of it more frequently, or more deservedly, employ his Attention than That of Your Royal Highness.

DEDICATION.

As for the following Tables, the only Merit they pretend to, Sir, is that of their being the first Attempt in the English Language, and the compleatest yet extant in any, for reducing this extensive and confused Study to Method, and for connecting and embellishing the dry Skeleton of Names and Dates with the proper Ligaments and Colourings of History.

Regular Disposition and Order (which are the great Aids of Memory and the true Secret of Learning, or of dispatching Business of any Kind) are as peculiarly requisite in this Science as in that of Astronomy, where, tho' the Objects which the Eye is conversant about are the brightest and most distinct, yet their Multiplicity would make our Attention despair of comprehending, and our Memory of retaining them, with the respective Times of their shining and disappearing, were they not distributed into separate Constellations, and diversify'd with some enlivening Circumstances from History.

While the proper Business of my own Vocation led me, in compiling this Work, to admire and set forth the standing Miracles of the Divine Wisdom and Providence in propagating the various Nations of the Earth from one common Parentage, and in strengthening this original Relation by subsequent Ties and Renewals of Consanguinity; in making both the Union and Dispersion of Mankind, the Rise and Fall of Empires, the Virtues, and even the Vices of Rulers, with all the numerous Vicissitudes and seeming Inconsistencies of human Affairs, subservient to the steady Prosecution of one regular Plan of unerring Wisdom and Goodness, to the exact Accomplishment of the Predictions of the Old and New Testament, and to the gradual Dispersion of the Light of true Religion into the remotest Corners of the Earth; Your Royal Highness's Knowledge in History and political Affairs will enable You to view this ample Scene in a different Light, and to subjoin to those Contemplations others no less worthy of the High Station to which You are born.

To behold the Sovereigns of all Ages and Nations raised, as it were, from the Death of Oblivion, drawn up in the Order of their Succession, ranged under the Banners of their respective Tribes and Constellations and passing in one compendious Review before your Eyes, distinguished, part of them by their own Good or Ill Actions, and part by Nothing but their Names, or the precarious Stock of Fame borrow'd from either their Ancestors or their Posterity, terminating all alike in the common Mark and Boundary of Mortality, and subject to the incessant Fluctuations of Property, Power and Splendor, will exhibit a Spectacle not unworthy Your Royal Highness's Attention, and apt to inspire great and serious Thoughts.

It will not fail to awaken, in a Mind so well disposed, due Reflections on the Value and Duration of human Happiness and Glory, to put You in Mind that the Stability of Families, and the Welfare of Kingdoms, next under the Blessing of God, depend on the Wisdom, the Application and personal Vertues of Princes; that even the few scatter'd Characters of Heroes, Conquerors, Deliverers, which to vulgar Eyes shine with such a distinguish'd
Blaze

DEDICATION.

Blaze in these wide Records of Antiquity, owed too great a Part of their Lustre to the cloudy, turbulent and calamitous Conjunctions of the Ages in which they appear'd; and that the only Solid Glory flows unforced and unfought for, from a vigilant Improvement of the Occasions of doing Good presented by Providence, and from a Soul rather equal to great Enterprizes than fond of being signalized by them, even that, which neither courting the Applause, nor shrinking at the Censure of the giddy Multitude, dares abide the severe Test of History, and can securely commit itself to the uncorrupt Judgment of unbiass'd Posterity.

As these Thoughts will naturally arise in Your Royal Highness's Mind on a general Survey of this Work, so the examining the particular Tables of your own Family, your tracing your Blood to the dear and venerable Sources of its high Original, the observing it for so many Ages and Descents transmitted and refin'd through the uncorrupt Hearts of Great and Good PRINCES, Fathers of their Country and Friends to Mankind, beloved in their Lives and unfeignedly regretted at their Deaths, renowned above all the Heroes of Europe for that distinguish'd fraternal Union which constitutes the real, intrinsic Strength of Families, and blessed, almost all of 'em, with that Length of Days and Encrease of Possessions, which seem the peculiar Rewards promised by Heaven to Filial Piety; these Reflections will, if possible, furnish Your Royal Highness with new Incentives to persevere in the Course of Vertue traced out by the Footsteps of such Great Ancestors, to keep alive the Lamp of Domestick Glory transmitted through so many Illustrious Hands and to convey down to future Descendants the sacred Deposite of an eminent good Example so long familiar to your House and Name.

These, Sir, are Blessings which we expect and dare securely promise ourselves from a PRINCE framed by Nature and Education to be the Inheritor of the Vertues as well as Titles of his Royal Progenitors; and as the reading of History will greatly contribute to nourish and fortify those generous Dispositions, so give me leave to add, that Your Royal Highness's vouchsafing to patronize these Studies, will excite a noble Emulation in the contemporary Youth of this Nation, to extend their Thoughts beyond the narrow Limits of their own Age and Country, and to form a juster Estimate of the Happiness we now enjoy, by comparing it with That of other Times and Nations; that it will give new Life and Vigour to the wise Institution of Your Royal GRANDFATHER for rendring modern History and Languages more familiar to our Nurseries of Learning, and will wipe off the Reproach cast on us by Foreigners, viz. That while the several Branches of antient Literature are minutely pursued and carried to a greater Degree of Perfection with us than with any other Nation, we are apt to give too narrow a Compass to the general Course of our Education, and either wholly to neglect History, or to fix our Attention and waste the whole Strength of our Minds on the Controversies of our own Age and Island only, as if we were cut off from the rest of the World in Interest as much as in Situation.

I am sensible, Sir, that the various Fruits I have been mentioning can only be raised and gathered in the spacious Fields of just and regular History.

DEDICATION.

History; but I may humbly venture to say, that the having recourse to these Tables will make the reading of any History more entertaining and instructive; and I only presume to offer them to Your Royal Highness as Repositories for recollecting and ranging the Facts and Ideas that are collected from those larger Volumes, which it is well known You make the constant and useful Amusement of your morning Hours. Far from imagining that Your Royal Highness can learn any Thing new from these Tables, I shall think my self sufficiently happy if You detect no considerable Omission or Inaccuracy in them.

The early and rapid Progress which Your Royal Highness made in all the parts of Learning worthy of a Prince, to the evident danger and impairing of Your Health, makes me conscious, Sir, that I pay You but a very low Compliment in celebrating this particular part of Learning, and in saying, that Your Royal Highness is critically vers'd in the Genealogies of all the Princes of Europe; since how few are there so incurious as not to be acquainted with the several Branches and Alliances of their own Family? That this Relation is sufficient to lead Your Royal Highness into the Knowledge of all the most considerable Pedigrees in Europe, I could easily prove by enumerating their several Intermarriages with Your Ancestors, did I imagine those Alliances conferred more Honour to, than they derive from, the Illustrious House of BRAUNSCHWEIG-LUNEBURG.

Nor should I even mention That of Your Royal Highness's GREAT-GRANDFATHER with a GRAND-DAUGHTER of Britain, but that it is too pleasing a Topick to be passed over in Silence by a British Author; since it is to that happy Conjunction that we of these Nations owe our Deliverance from All we dreaded, and the Enjoyment of All we wish, under the just and benign Government of Your Royal FATHER and GRAND-FATHER.

That Your Royal Highness's FAMILY may long be the glorious Instruments of dispensing these Blessings to a thankful People, and may add new Accellions of Lustre to Genealogical Tables, must be the natural Wish of every Friend to Justice, Liberty and true Religion, as well as of,

S I R,

Your ROYAL HIGHNESS's

most dutiful and most devoted Servant,

James Anderson.

P R E F A C E.

The Genealogies of the Families of Domitius, Antony, Julius Cæsar, Augustus, the first six Roman Emperors and Cæsars continued, of Vespasian, Trajan, Adrian, Antonin, Severus, Gordian, Valerian, Constantin, Valentinian, Theodosius, Leo Magnus, &c. of the Ostro Goths and Viso Goths, the Heruli, Vandals, Lombards and Italian Kings; of Heraclius, Basilius and other Easterns; of the Commeni and Angeli, the Courtneys and Palæologi. Then

The Turkish and Tartarian Kings of Persia with the Sophies; the Caliphs of Arabia, Syria and Persia, with the Genealogy of MAHOMET their Prophet; the Turkish Kings of Lesser Asia and others before the Irruption of the Tartars into South Asia; the Turks of Damascus and the Turkish Emperors; the Mahometan Sovereigns of Egypt; the Saracen Caliphs of Africa; and the Christian Kings of Jerusalem and Armenia; the Kings and Emperors of China and Japan, the Tartars, Magors and Great Moguls; the Kings of Abyssinia and of lower African Ethiopia; those of Morocco, Fetz and Barbary; and those of Mexico and Peru in America. Thence returning into Europe, he begins with

The Genealogies of the Kings of Hungary; the Dukes and Czars of Muscovy and Russia; the Princes of Poland, Courland, Radzivil, Olyka, Sapieha, Transilvania, Moldavia and Vallachia; the Heathen and Christian Kings of Denmark, Norway and Sweden, with the various Branches of Oldenburg and Holstein; the ancient Royal Suevi and Goths of Germany, the Amazons, the oldest German Kings and the Princes of the old Saxons till WITTEKIND the Great, ending with Page 447.

PART II. begins with the Grand Revolution made by the Emperor CHARLEMAIN, whose Genealogy is exhibited, and next That of the Saxonian, Franconian and Schwabian Emperors, of those during and after the Great Interregnum, and those of Austria; the Arch-Dukes of Austria from their Three Patriarchs, with other old Families in Tyrol, Carniola, Carinthia, &c. and the six happy Marriages of Austria. Next

The three spiritual Electors of Mentz, Triers and Cologne, with the spiritual Princes; and then the Genealogies of the six temporal Electors, or the various ancient and modern Families of Bohemia, Saxony, Brandenburg, Bavaria, Palatin and Braunschweig; the Princes of Silesia, Mecklenburg, Pomerania, Hesse, Nassau, Orange, Luxemburg, Wurtemberg, Baaden, Anhalt, Salm, East-Friesland, Furstemberg, Cleves, Guelders, Holland, Flanders, Hainault, Brabant, &c. and all the Princely Families of Germany and the Netherlands, or of All North of France, till he reach the Great Houses of Burgundy and Lorraine in their several Branches. Then

All the Kings of France ancient and modern, and the various Princely Families related to them or descended from them; all the Houses of Savoy and Sardinia, Nemours, Montferrat and Genua; the Doges of Venice, the Exarchs of Ravenna, the Houses of Milan, Mantua and Gonzaga, Este and Modena, Farnese and Grimaldi, Pico and Cybo, and many Others in the North of Italy: The old Kings of Italy and Tuscany, with the Grand Dukes and many Others in the Middle and South of Italy, with the Genealogies of several Popes: Next the old Kings of Syracuse; the various Kings of Naples, Sicily and Cyprus, and all the diverse Kings of Spain and Portugal ancient and modern in their various Branches.

At last he returns home to the Royal and Princely Genealogies of the Britannic Isles, or the ancient and modern Kings and Princes of England, Wales, Scotland, Man and Ireland, with those Families that are any Way related to them, by Descent or by Marriage; concluding with a brief Account of all the Peers in England, Scotland and Ireland that he could find upon Record before or since the Norman Conquest, according to their Surnames Alphabetically digested; and also Lists of the present Peers of each Nation according to their Precedency, for which you may see the Indexes.

He could delineate and at full Length the Genealogies of all the Peers and Great Gentry of the Britannic Islands, to complete a Work of that vast Labour and Charge done.

P R E F A C E.

Several Persons have obliged the Author with good Materials and Books in compiling this Work; the Duke of NORFOLK furnished him with the Genealogy of his Family in Manuscript; the Earl of INCHQUIN with the large magnificent Table of the two Princely Families of Thomond and Inchiquin, descended from the ancient Kings of Ireland, delineated by the Chief Herald of Dublin; the Viscount GALLWAY and the Lord DE LA WAR gave him some English Genealogies in Manuscript; the Earl of BUCHAN and his Son Lord CARDROSS, Sir JOHN GUISE Baronet, Sir RICHARD ELLIS Baronet, the Reverend Mr. John Mason Rector of Aswarby in Lincolnshire, the Reverend Mr. Benjamin Andrews Atkinson a dissenting Minister of London and Mr. Zollman F. R. S. have lent him several most useful Books in his Way; the Reverend Dr. Clagget Dean of Rochester got him ready Access to the Earl of SUNDERLAND's Library; Mr. du Thom Envoy from Wolfenbuttel assisted him in the Tables of Esté and Braunschweig; Mr. de Hoppman Resident from Mecklenburg Schwerin revised the Tables of Austria, Holstein and Mecklenburg; Signor Butti Minister of Florence and Signor de Campos of Portugal revised the Tables of their Countries; Mr. Gastaldi of Genua corrected Table 406, and Baron Butschner corrected the present House of Lorrain (both which Corrections are at the End among the Errata) Antony Hammond Esq; lent him an exact List of the English Peers revised by Mr. Green of the Herald's Office. The Works of George Crawford Esq; furnish'd him with the Nobles of Scotland; and Roderick Mackenzie Esq; an exact List of the Scots Peers at the Union; the Lord KINGSALE and the Earl of INCHQUIN revised the Peers of Ireland: For which he returns his hearty Thanks.

The Tables did not afford room to quote all the Authors used in this Work; as indeed They are too many to be mentioned here: For besides the many Books that the Author bought and borrowed, he has consulted those that he could neither buy nor borrow, but found them in publick and private Libraries; and has been at all possible Pains and used all Means to make the Work accurate, copious and plain.

At the Persuasion of judicious and learned Men, he has omitted the Genealogical Questions at first intended for explaining the Tables; for that their Use is well supply'd by the Tables themselves, in which he has endeavour'd not to omit any Chronological Dates, and hath shewn as carefully as he could the Times of the Princes Births, Marriages and Deaths, their Parents, Wives and Children, their Branches and the various Families to which They are or were related.

No Man can pretend to write or print a large Book of this Kind without Errors, occasioned by the Errors of his Vouchers, or by his own Mistakes, or by the Neglect and Carelessness of Journeyman Printers: But he has endeavour'd to take so much Care, that the Defects, or Mistakes, or typographical Errors may be easily corrected by the Pen of the curious Reader, and would be thankful to receive their Corrections in case of another Edition.

He has avoided all Terms and Expressions that may give Offence to any Nation or Family, to any Party or Person; having nothing to do with the National Controversies of Historians, nor with the Ecclesiastical and Religious Debates of Theologians, nor with the Politicks of Statesmen, nor with the private Jangles of the Criticks in a Work of this Kind, but only with Facts and plain Truth: So that he has let every Nation enjoy its own Fable; and if any find Fault, he hopes They will readily excuse him, not having design'd to offend 'em, and is willing to make Satisfaction, if he lives to publish a second Edition.

Many have encouraged this Work as it is an Abridgment of Universal History, and may be used as an Index or Dictionary to all History; nay and a Regulator too of those Histories whose Authors have been either ignorant or negligent of Chronology and Genealogy, without which any History is deficient, imperfect and perplexing; so that as the Learned know how to use this Book upon Occasions, the Learners also may be assisted in reading any History with Profit, by being previously acquainted with these Tables and by comparing them with the History in Hand: For however difficult and laborious the Work has been in the Compiling, it is plain and easy to others, who at one View, and often in one Page, may see the principal Persons and Affairs of many Years in their proper Series and Deduction by Genealogy and Chronology.

P R E F A C E.

The Readers not accustomed to such Tables may take Notice of the following Marks and Characters therein, whereby any Person of the meanest Understanding can read the Genealogies with Ease and Pleasure, viz.

- I. † The Mark like a Dagger signifies Death, or that the Person † died at such a Time.
- II. — This Ruler or Stroke is call'd the Line of Generation if it has this Notch, otherwise not.
- III. — The said Notch is call'd the Punctum Saliens or Point of Generation from which the Offspring descends in the Tables; importing, that He above the said Notch or Punctum is the Father, and that all under it are his Offspring as far as the Line of Generation extends, shorter or longer.
- IV. No Line of Generation has more than one Punctum Saliens, unless two or three in all the Book occasion'd by a dubious Case.
- V. N. N. or Non Novi, signifies that the Person's Name is not known.
- VI.  This Semicircle is the Marriage Mark and sometimes the Union of two Families by Marriage, under which Mark the Punctum Saliens directs to the Children of that Marriage.
- VII. * * These three Stars are the Mark of a new Family, or that the Person under it is not of Blood with the Family of the Table, but coming to be related or ally'd to that Family.
- VIII. | These two perpendicular Strokes are call'd the Bastard Bar, signifying that the Children adjoining to it are of the Mistress or Concubine, and not of lawful Wedlock, tho' They belong to the same Father with the legitimate Issue that are under the same Punctum Saliens and Line of Generation. But sometimes two Strokes are also used to separate two legitimate Families of the same Father.
- IX. | This single perpendicular Line is used only to distinguish the Children of the same Father instead of a Blank, where the Table has not Room for a Blank.
- X. 1. 2. 3. 4. placed above proper Names import that the Person was born of the 1st, 2d, 3d, or 4th Wife of the same Father above the common Punctum Saliens; or sometimes the Children of the 1st, 2d, 3d or 4th Husband of the same Wife.

The Abbreviations are common enough to be understood, as Emp. Emperor, K. King, P. Prince, D. Duke, C. Count, E. Earl, Ld Lord, Vis. Viscount, Fa. Father, Da. Daughter, Br. Brother, nat. Da. natural Daughter, bn born, succ. succeeded, mrd married, and such like; an Example of most of these Marks you have in Table 494, thus

TABLE I.

The Antediluvian PATRIARCHS from Adam to Noah.

In the Beginning of Time JEHOVAH ELOHIM EL-SHADDAL the Eternal God Almighty, created, or made out of nothing, the Heavens and the Earth, and all Things therein; Time beginning in the Imaginary Year of the Jubilee Period 710. on the 23d Day of October, Afternoon, before the Christian Era 4004 Years. And the All-wise God thought fit to perform Creation gradually in the space of Six Days.

1. ADAM the first Man, not born, but made of Red Earth by his Heavenly Father on the 6th Day of Creation; and God breathed into him the Breaths of Life. EVE the first Woman, not born, but made of one of Adam's Ribs by her Heavenly Father on the 6th Day of Creation; and God breathed into her the Breaths of Life.

Male and Female created he them, and join'd them in the sacred Bond of Matrimony; because it was not meet that Man should be alone. He placed them in Paradise, the Garden of Delights, with a Command to multiply their Kind by natural Generation: And being made living Souls, Rational Beings, after the Image of God in Knowledge, Righteousness and Holiness, with Dominion over this lower World, They were capable of submitting rationally to the Laws of their Creator, who promised to them Life and a better Paradise upon their perfect Obedience to the Moral Law written on their Hearts; but threatened Death with all its Consequences upon their Disobedience: And as a Test thereof God separated the Tree of Life, and also the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil; of which last he forbid them to eat under the aforesaid Penalty. But by the Temptation of Satan (the Adversary of God and Man, the first of the Angels that had lately fallen from Heaven by Rebellion against God) speaking through the Throat of a Serpent, EVE was deceived to disobey the Creator in eating the forbidden Fruit, and she tempted ADAM to eat thereof too: And so, 'tis likely, in half a Year's time, They fell into the Condemnation of Satan, or from their State of Innocence, Happiness and Life, into a State of Sin, Misery and Death. Yet, though they were reprov'd, and the Execution of the Sentence suspended for some time, by God's gracious Promise of sending MESSIAH, the blessed Seed of the Woman, to bruise the Serpent's Head, in the Fulness of Time, and to recover from the Fall them and all of their Offspring that should believe in him; They were, nevertheless, banished out of Paradise into the wide World, there to live at hard Labour until by Death they return to their original Dust. And because of the promised Messiah, God repeal'd not the aforesaid first Command for the multiplying of their Kind by Generation; and so our Parents begat a numerous Offspring: For ADAM lived 930 Years, and † before Messiah or Christ was born, 3074 Years, before the Flood 726, before NOAH's Birth 126; but he lived contemporary with all the other Setbite Patriarchs, viz. with Seth ADAM lived 800 Years, with Enos 695, with Kainan 605, with Mahalaleel 535, with Jared 470, with Enoch 308, with Methuselah 243, and with Lamech the Father of Noah 56 Years.

The PATRIARCHS in the Line of Kain, called the Sons of Men.

2. KAIN, if begotten in Paradise, was born Anno Mundi 1, the first Man born of a Woman, signifying a Possession, but he prov'd a Carfe, a proud, envious, wicked Man; for, because God accepted of Abel's Offering and not of his, he was incens'd against God and Abel; and so murder'd his godly Brother in the Field: For which he was mark'd and excommunicated A. M. 128, before Christ 3876. He had, no doubt, been married about 108 Years, had a numerous Offspring, with whom, and with those of his Kindred that affected him, he travelled Eastward from Eden into Persia, called the Land of Shu, or of the Gagaband, or the Land of him who was now become a Vagabond; where he built a City, the oldest upon Record, and his Race was greatly multiplied in the Earth.

3. ENOCH, after whom Kain called his first City Enochia.

4. IRAD.

5. MEHUJAE.

6. METHUSAEL.

7. LAMECH, the first that had more Wives than one, viz. Adah and Zillah. Seth born to him.

8. JABAL, the Father of such Kaimits as dwell in Tents, and had Cattle.

9. JUBAL, the Father of such as handled the Harp and Organ.

10. ZILAH, born to him.

11. TUBAL-KAIN, an Artificer in Brass and Iron.

12. NAAMAH, his Sister.

ABEL, perhaps a Twin with Kain, or born soon after him, a pious and righteous Man, murder'd by Kain, when aged at least 126 Years, being married about 106 Years, and might have had a numerous Offspring; though none of them was chosen to be the Progenitor of Christ.

Other Sons and Daughters, born by Eve to Adam before the Birth of Seth, who by a sober Computation amounted to many Thousands in their Procreations; and who, with the Children of Abel, were enough to make Kain afraid of being slain, to prevent which God was pleas'd to set a Mark upon him.

The PATRIARCHS in the Line of Seth, called the Sons of God.

2. SETH, the Son of Adam and Eve, given in the room of Abel, as the Root of Christ's Progenitors, to enjoy the special Blessings of the New Covenant, was born soon after the Murder of Abel, A. M. 130, before Christ 3874, before the Flood 1526; lived before he begat his Son and Successor Enos 105 Years, lived afterwards 807 Years, begetting Sons and Daughters, in all 912 Years † A. M. 1042, before Christ 2962, before Flood 614, before Noah's Birth 14 Years; after the Translation of Enoch 55 Years, after Adam's Death 112, having reigned so long alone as the Prince and Head of the Sons of God, or Members of the visible Church; and lived contemporary with all the Patriarchs of the Family, except Noah.

Other Sons and Daughters, born by Eve to Adam after the Birth of Seth. And, no doubt, they had a very numerous Offspring, before the Murder of Abel.

3. ENOS, the Heir of Seth's Blessing, born A. M. 235, before Christ 3769, before Flood 1421; liv'd before he begat Kainan his Successor 90 Years, and afterwards 815 Years, begetting Children, in all 905 Years. † A. M. 1140, before Christ 2864, before Flood 516, after Adam 210, after Enoch 153, after Seth 98, and after Noah's Birth 84 Years.

4. KAINAN, the Heir of Seth's Blessing, born A. M. 325, before Christ 3679, before Flood 1331; liv'd before he begat Mahalaleel his Successor 70 Years, and afterwards 840 Years, begetting Children, in all 910 Years. † A. M. 1235, before Christ 2769, before Flood 421, after Adam 305, after Enoch 248, after Enos 95, and after Noah's Birth 179 Years.

5. MAHALALEEL, the Heir of Seth's Blessing, born A. M. 395, before Christ 3609, before Flood 1261; liv'd before he begat Jared his Successor 65 Years, and afterwards 830 Years, begetting Children, in all 895 Years. † A. M. 1290, before Christ 2714, before Flood 366, after Adam 360, after Enoch 303, after Kainan 55, and after Noah's Birth 234 Years.

6. JARED, the Heir of Seth's Blessing, born A. M. 460, before Christ 3544, before Flood 1196; liv'd before he begat Enoch his Son 162 Years, and afterwards 800 Years, begetting Children, in all 962 Years. † A. M. 1422, before Christ 2582, before Flood 234, after Adam 492, after his Son Enoch 435, after Mahalaleel 132, and after Noah's Birth 366.

7. ENOCH, the Heir of Seth's Blessing, born A. M. 622, before Christ 3382, before Flood 1034; liv'd before he begat Methuselah his Successor 65 Years, and afterwards 300 Years, begetting Children, and walking with God, in all 365 Years. Was translated A. M. 987, before Christ 3017, before Flood 669, after Adam 57, before Jared 435, and before Noah's Birth 69 Years.

8. METHUSELAH, the Heir of Seth's Blessing, born A. M. 687, before Christ 3317, before Flood 969; liv'd before he begat Lamech his Son 187 Years, and afterwards 782 Years, begetting Children, in all 969 Years. † about 7 Days before the Flood, A. M. 1656, before Christ 2348, after Adam 726, after Enoch 669, after Seth 614, after Enos 516, after Kainan 421, after Mahalaleel 366, after Jared 234, after his Son Lamech 5 Years, when Noah had entred into his 600th Year.

9. LAMECH, the Heir of Seth's Blessing, born A. M. 874, before Christ 3130, before Flood 782; liv'd before he begat Noah his Successor 182, and afterwards 595, begetting Children, in all 777 Years. † A. M. 1651, before Christ 2343, five Years before the Flood, and before his Father Methuselah, after Adam 721, after Enoch 664, after Seth 609, after Enos 511, after Kainan 416, after Mahalaleel 426, after Jared 229.

10. NOAH, the Heir of Seth's Blessing, born A. M. 1056, before Christ 2948, before Flood 600; liv'd before he begat Japhet 500, and his Successor Sem 502 Years, and after the Birth of Sem until the Flood came 98 Years. See the following Table. He liv'd contemporary with all before him, except Adam, Seth and Enoch.

The PATRIARCHS after the Flood of the Line of JAPHET.

NOAH, the general Patriarch of the New World, born before the Flood 600 Years, A. M. 1056; was in the Ark with his Family during the Flood A. M. 1656; lived after the Flood 350 Years; in all 950. † A. M. 2006, before Christ 1998, two Years before the Birth of Abram, and after the Confusion of Languages at Babel 196 Years.

JAPHET, the eldest Son, born before the Flood 100 Years, A. M. 1556; lived after the Flood perhaps as long as his Brother Sem, viz: 502 Years; in all 602 Years. † A. M. 2158, before Christ 1846 Years, after the Confusion of Babel. 348 The Patriarch of the most Part of the Scythians, Grecians, and the other Nations of Europe and Lesser Asia. He obtain'd a good Share of Sem's Blessing for his Offspring.

Sem or Shem, the second Son.
See Tab. 3.

Ham or Cham,
the youngest Son.
See Tab. 4.

TheGerman Nation is supposedto spring from a Colony ofAskenaz. | RIPHATH The Father of the Riphathor Paphlagonians, fromwhom afterwards camethe Colonies of the Rus-sians and Prussians: Nay,some too of the oldestBritons or Gauls, thatfirst inhabited Great Bri-tain and Ireland; for allthe Britannic Nations firstcame from the Gauls. | TOGARMA The Father of the Cap-padocians and Galati-ans, from whom camethe upper Cilicians,who owned Japhetfor their Father. Butfrom their Coloniesare descended manyNations betweenGermany and Greece,as they think. | ELISHA, or ELISAH The Father of thoseGreeks who werecall'd Ellenes, fromElis in Pelopone-sus.   | TARSHISH The Father of the first In-habitants of the Sea-Coast of Cilicia, wherewas the antient CityTarsus. But the He-brews were wont to callevery Place Tarshish,to which they went bySea, whether by theMediterranean or theRed Sea.   | KITTIM, or CITTIM The Cyprians, La-tins, and first In-habitants of Italy,especially these last :But not the Mace-donians, as somehave thought with-out just Ground.  | DODANIM, or RODANIM The first People in Epirus, whobuilt the City Dodona, andworshipd there JupiterDodoneus, the same withJaban, from whence theytravel'd into other Parts ofEurope. But if it is Roda-nim, it is the first Peoplethat dwell upon the RiverRodanus, in the South andEast of France. |

Some of these are Names in the Dual or Plural Number, which are supposed therefore to be rather the Names of Nations than of particular Men; but That hinders not their being descended from JAPHET: And by these were the Isles of the Gentiles, or the Europeans, divided in their Lands, every one after his Tongue, after their Families, in their Nations, Gen. x. 5. But MOSES recounts not their Births, Ages and Deaths; reserving that Honour for the Family of MESSIAH, as in the following Table.

The lesser and later Nations of Europe are descended of those more ancient Nations, except that several Colonies of the Phenicians, Cushites, and Africans have settled in Spain, Sicily, Sardinia, and other Parts of Europe by Sea.

| 1. SEPHAR , the eldest Son.See Tab. 2.   |   | 2. SEM , or SHEM , the second Son, born before the Flood 98 Years, A. M. 1558; the Progenitor of Messiah , who got the special Blessing of his Father Noah , by a special Grant, about 48 Years after the Flood; lived after the Flood 502 Years, in all 600 Years. + A. M. 2158, ten Years before the Birth of Jacob , and before the Birth of Messiah , or Christ , 1846 Years. The Father of many Nations, particularly of all the Children of Heber .   |  | 3. SHAM , the youngest Son.See Tab. 4.  |   |  |   |
| ELAMFather of the Elamites , or ancient Persians , whose Country joined to Media .  | ASHURFather of the Affrians , on the upper Parts of the Tygris and Euphrates , whose Capital was Sinibeth , which Nimrod built, and there usurped his Monarchy after the Dispersion of the Nations. | 3. ARPHAXADThe Heir of Sem's Blessing, born two Years after the Flood, when Sem was just 100 Years old, A. M. 1658, before Christ 2346; livd 438 Years. + A. M. 2096, before Christ 1908 Years; after Abram left Haran 14 Years, and 11 before the Birth of Isaac . From him a Part of Affria was called Arphaxitis by Heathen Authors; and the Chasdim , or Chaldeans , are called from him rather than from Chesed , the Son of Nabor , the Brother of Abram : For the Chasdim are older than Chesed .   |  | LUDFather of the Lydians near the River Meander , in Little Asia , and of the Carians , Lycians , Pamphilians , where afterwards Cresus reigned, the rich King of the Lydians , a People famous for Antiquity, Wealth, Valour and large Colonies sent into divers Parts of the Earth. | ARAMFather of the Syrians , who to this Day call themselves Arameans , the old Inhabitants of all Mesopotamia , and of the Country of Damascus . |  |   |
| 4. SALAThe Heir of Sem's Blessing, born after the Flood 37 Years, when Arphaxad was 35, A. M. 1693, before Christ 2311 Years. He livd 433 Years, and + A. M. 2126, before Christ 1878 Years, after the Birth of Isaac 18 Years. The Father of the first People at Susiana .  |   | 5. HEBERThe Heir of Sem's Blessing, the immediate Father of the Hebrews , (from whom they were so call'd that spoke his Language) and of many other Nations; born after the Flood 67 Years, when Sala was 30, A. M. 1723, before Christ 2281; livd 464 Years. The oldest Man born after the Flood, and seems to have preserved the Language that was us'd before the Flood, and before the Confusion at Babel . + A. M. 2187, before Christ 1817, after the Deaths of Noah , Sem , Arphaxad , Sala , Peleg , Rehu , Serug , Nabor , Terah and Abraham ; after the Confusion at Babel 377 Years, when Isaac was 79 Years old, and Jacob 19; before the Descent into Egypt 111 Years, and after the Flood 531 Years. |  | UZThe Father of the first Inhabitants of Trachonitis , and the Founder of the ancient City of Damascus .  | HULThe Father of the Armenians : For a Part of Armenia was call'd Cholbeth , or Hul's House, the Country of Gobolbetene .                 | GETHERThe Father of the Geturites , or the Inhabitants of the River Getri , between Armenia and Carduchia . | MASHThe Father of the first Inhabitants of Mount Mafius in Mesopotamia . |
| 6. PELEG , or PHALEGThe Heir of Sem's Blessing, born when Heber was 34 Years old, after the Flood 101, when Nimrod began to build Babel , A. M. 1757, before Christ 2247; livd 239 Years. + A. M. 1996, before Christ 2008, before the Birth of Abram 12 Years; after the Flood 340 Years, after the Confusion 186 Years. In his Days the Earth was divided (or at his Birth) by Father Noah ; but the People would not obey, and loving to abide together in the Vale of Shinar , by the Influence of Nimrod , they imployd themselves in Building the City and Tower of Babel for about 53 Years: But when their Work was stopt by the Confusion of Languages, they willingly disperfed to their several Places of the Earth. Some learned Men think that a Colony of Phaleg travell'd into Greece , and from him were call'd Delasgi . |   |   |  |  |   |  |   |
| 7. REHUThe Heir of Sem's Blessing, born when Phaleg was 30 Years old, after the Flood 131 Years, A. M. 1787, before Christ 2217 Years; livd 239 Years. + A. Shem, the second Son.
See Tab. 3.

H A M, or CHAM, the youngest Son, born before the Flood 96 Years, A. M. 1560, before Christ 2444; lived after the Flood perhaps 502 Years, in all 598; and so † at near the Age of Sem, A. M. 2158, before Christ 1846 Years, after the Confusion at Babel 343 Years. He and his Offspring came under his Father's Curse, when Canaan his youngest Son was a Man, and capable to join with him in mocking his Father, about 48 Years after the Flood. The Father of many great Nations who peopled all Africa, and a Part of Asia.

CUSH

The Father of the old Scimites, calld afterwards Saracens, in Arabia: A large Colony of them travelld into Africa, and mixed with the Offspring of Mitzraim and Phut, who were calld Phurs, or Moors, a People of a tawny Complexion; but their first Settlement was in Arabia only, not in Ethiopia, as is commonly thought: Nor are the Ethiopians, or Blacks, the Descendants of Cush, but of Mitzraim.

| NIMROD  | Seba  | Qabilah   | Raamah, or Regmah   | Qabtrah and Qabtrcha  |
| Or the Rebel, so calld by Moses ; but by his own People Belus , or Bel or BAAL , afterwards worshipped as a God. He seems to be the eldest Son of Cush , and so at the Birth of Peleg , after the Flood 101 Years, he might be 65 Years old, of the same Age with Sale , and so old enough to be at the Head of the Builders of Babel , who carried on the Work for 53 Years, until the Confusion of Languages made the Nations to disperse, and fill the Earth after the Flood 154 Years. But he continued at Babel , was a mighty Man in the Earth, and a mighty Hunter before Yehovah , even to a Proverb; whereby he had gathered Men under his Command, and failing in his Attempts of universal Monarchy, by reason of the Dispersion, he founded a particular Monarchy; and the Beginning of his Kingdom was Babel , Erech , Accad , and Cabneh in the Land of Shinar , Cities that he built: But afterwards his Ambition led him to go forth from Shinar into Assyria Northwards; and, having conquerd the Nation of Assur , the Son of Sem , he built four other Cities, viz. Minibeth , Rebabeth , Calab and Rofen , set up his Throne at Nimrod , which he so calld after his Son Nimrod ; and thus he founded the old Assyrian Monarchy: For Assyria is calld the Land of Nimrod by the Prophet, Mick. v. 6 . And this Monarchy continued in great Grandeur, tho' not in a genealogical Succession, if we reckon from the Confusion of Languages after the Flood 154 Or A. M. ————— 1810 } But we have no certain Account of the Assyrian Monarchy much before Pul , the Father of Sardanapalus .During Years ————— 1446 }Until the Destruction of Sardanapalus , A. |   | Qheba   | Deban   |   |   |
|   | The Father of a People in Arabia , near the Persian Gulph, who abounded in Spices.  | The Father of a People near Seba and Regmah , famous for Trade and Navigation; different from, and more ancient than, the Deban of Idumea . |   |   |
|   | These Cushites that first settld in Arabia , near and upon the Persian Gulph, afterwards did spread themselves through South Arabia , and failed over the Gulph too, into the Country of Carmania , and travelld into India . |   |   |   |

MITZRAIM

The Egyptians. The Name is in the Dual Number, expressing the Upper and Lower Egypt, which is Mitzraim in Hebrew; for Egypt is a Greek Word of much later Date. But the Word is used in the singular Mazor, (Mick. vii. 12.) which seems to have been the Name of the second Son of Cham. Egypt is also calld the Land of Cham, perhaps, partly because Cham went along with his Son Mazor's Colony from Shinar to Egypt, after the Confusion Six Years, A. M. ————— 1816
And Historians relate that Royal Power continued in Egypt during Years — 1663
Until it was conquer'd by Cambyses King of Persia A. M. ————— 3479

| Ludim  | Ananim   | Lehavim   | Neptuchim  | Pathrusim  | Calluhim  | Caphrozin   |
|--|--|---|--|--|---|---|
| The Ethiopian s that settld South of Egypt: For the Ludim were a Colony of the Egyptians , and not of the Cushites . | A People in Africa , West of Egypt, where the Idol Amon was worshipped, and spoke a Language composed of the Egyptian and Ethiopic . | A People that dwell West of Thibais and Egypt , in a sandy and scorched Land, calld the scorched Egyptians . | A People in Africa , near Egypt upon the Coast of the Mediterranean . | The People of Thibais , or Pathrus in Egypt , or adjoining to it. | A People that either at the Dispersion went from Babel , or afterwards went from Egypt into Colchis in Asia , on the East of the Euxine Sea. | A People that went along with or soon after the Cassubim into Colchis , and possessed a Part of Cappadocia near Colchis . |

The Philistines are the Descendants of both, for, Gen. x. 14. they are said to descend from the Cassubim; and Jer. xlvii. 4. it is said, The Lord will spoil the Philistines, the Remnants of Caphor: So, Amos ix. 7. God says, Have not I brought the Israelites from Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphor? The Cassubim and Caphorim might be induced to travel into Colchis and Cappadocia, so far from the other Sons of Mitzraim, from a Desire of finding there Gold and other Metals, which induced many other Nations afterwards to go thither. But finding those Parts afterwards inconvenient, because of troublesome Neighbours, a large Colony of 'em travelld from thence into Phenicia, as Moses informs us, Deut. ii. 23. And the Avims, (a little Tribe of the Canaanites) which dwelt at Hazerim unto Gazah, the Caphorims, which came out of Caphor, destroyed them, and dwell in their stead; long before Abram.

Thus all Africa was peopled by the Offspring of Mitzraim, and by those of Phut; the Lake Tritonis, about the Middle of Africa, being their general Boundary, the first inhabiting East of it, and the second West of it: Tho' afterwards they mingled, as did all contiguous Nations.

PHUT

Father of the Lybians, and of the Mauritanians, or Moors in Africa, from near Egypt to the Atlantic Ocean: From the Word Phut came Phuts, and Fetz, or Fez, the Name of a Country, or Kingdom, to this Day, in the Empire of Morocco in Africa. But tho' the Lybians and Moors mostly descended from Phut, many of them also came from Mitzraim, and in after Days from Cush, whose Offspring made Incursions into Africa, and brought with them the Arabian Language, much used there to this Day.

CANAAN

Might be born four Years after the Flood, and so was 44 Years old when Noah pronounced the Curse upon Ham, and particularly upon Canaan his youngest Son, the Father of the Canaanites, who, in remembrance of that Curse, chose rather to be calld Syrians, but especially Phenicians, and are so calld by the Grecian Historians, who call the Land of Canaan Phenicia: a Country very early famous for Learning, Trade, Navigation, Architecture, and other useful Arts and Sciences too: Nay, it was the Nursery of learned Men for many other Countries, and arrived to very great Wealth, Power, Renown and Fame, till conquerd by Nebuchadnezzar, the Judge and Captain of Israel, when many Colonies of 'em fled by Sea to distant Parts of Europe and Africa; and the rest became Servants to Israel, of the Line of Sem, according to the Promise and Curse of Noah.

The Eleven Phenician or Canaanitic Nations; that dwell from the River of Egypt to Euphrates, or that had Syria on the North, the Desert and Euphrates on the North-east and East, the Stony Arabia on the South, Egypt on the South-west, the Mediterranean Sea on the West. It was but a small Tract of Land, but well filld with many rich People, that sprang from CANAAN, viz.

1. Sidon, or the Sidonians.
2. Beth, or the Hittites.
3. Jebusites.
4. Amorites.
5. Girgassites.
6. Phizites.
7. Archites.
8. Sinites.
9. Arvadites.
10. Zemarites.
11. Hamathites.

All the other Canaanites were but Branches of these Eleven Original Nations.

T A B L E V.
The Postdiluvian PATRIARCHS from TERAH to JACOB inclusive.

T E R A H, the Heir of Shem's Blessing, the Son of Nachor, the Son of Serug, the Son of Rehu, the Son of Phaleg, the Son of Heber, the Son of Sala, the Son of Arphaxad, the Son of Shem, the Son of N O A H. Tab. 4.

TERAH, the eldest Son, born at Ur of the Chaldees, when Terah was aged 70; for Gen. xi. 26. Terah lived 70 Years, and begat (or began to beget) Abram, Nahor, and Haran; mentioned in the same Order with Shem, Ham, and Japhet, A. M. 1948. † at Ur aged 125, five Years before Abram's first Call, viz. A. M. 2073.

Lot, the Son of Haran, born at Ur a little before Sarah; for he was there married; travelled with Abram till he settled at Sodom, where he resided 17 Years, till it was destroyed by Fire from Heaven, the Year before Isaac was born, viz. Peregr. 24. After Flood 451 A. M. 2107. Bef. Exod. 406. Bef. Christ 1897. He was saved from that Conflagration with two of his Daughters, but his other Children and Grand Children perished in the Flames, and his Wife was turned into a Pillar of Salt.

Moss, born to him by his eldest Daughter the same Time with Isaac; the Father of the Meahs.

ISCAH, or SARAI, or SARAH, the only Woman whose Age is recorded in canonical Writ, born at Ur just ten Years after Abram, A. M. 2018, when Haran was aged 70; married at Ur to her Uncle Abram, when she was called Sarai; was barren till aged 89, when she got the Promise of Isaac, to be born next Year, and was called SARAH. † aged 127, about 3 Years before Isaac was married to Rebecca.

AMMON, born to him by his youngest Daughter soon after: the Father of the Ammonites.

MILCAH, the other Sister of Lot, born soon after Sarah; was married at Ur to her Uncle Nahor, and † at Haran. See the Column of Nahor.

ABRAM, the second Son of Terah, born at Ur when Terah was aged 130. For at Terah's Death he was aged 75, viz. after Flood 351, A. M. 2008, after Confusion 199, before Christ 1995, two Years after Noah died.

Married his Niece ISCAH, or SARAI, at Ur, and was there called of God the First Time, to leave his Country and the Idolatry of the Chaldees, A. M. 2078. Aged 70, before Christ 1926.

TERAH likewise obeyed the Call, and so with Abram, Nahor, Lot and their Families travelled from Ur North-west to Haran, (so called from Haran deceased) where Terah †, aged 275, and Abram 75.

Upon Terah's Death ABRAM was called the Second Time; and so leaving Haran to his Brother Nahor, he and Lot, and their Families travelled South-west into the Land of Canaan; when, by a special Grant, God made him Heir of Shem's Blessing, Gen. xii. 1. viz. After Confusion 273, A. M. 2083. After Flood 427, before Christ 1921.

In the 6th Month of this Year, or on the 10th Day of the Month Abib, our 5th of May, the 11th PERIOD or Epoch of the Patriarchs began, reaching to the Exodus of Moses, called the Years of PEREGRINATION. 430

ESAU the elder Twin, born with Jacob, proved a mighty Huntsman and a Warrior, yet sold his Birthright to Jacob for a Mass of Potage, when aged 25, whence he was called Edom; married at 40 to Adah the Horite (called Basemath, Gen. xxvi. 34.) and to Abolibamah the Horite (called Judith, id.) who was cheated by Jacob and Rebekah out of Abraham's Blessing, while Isaac, then blind, was imposed upon, Esau aged 77; and then he married Basemath, the Sister of Nebeth, and Daughter of Ishmael, (called Mahalath, Gen. xxviii. 9.) Upon the Death of Isaac he wholly left Canaan, about An. Pereg. 210, before Exodus 210, before Jacob's Descent into Egypt—05. He conquered the Horites and Hivites in Mount Seir, South of Canaan in Arabia, and became the Prince of a People made up of Horites and his own Offspring, whose Genealogies are briefly recorded in Gen. xxxvi.

All these Patriarchs sent Colonies into several Parts of Arabia, but were swallowed up in the following Monarchy, Gen. xxxvi. 31. where it is said. These are the Kings that reigned in the Land of Edom, before there reigned any King over the Children of Israel, that is, before Moses was King in Jerusalem, viz.

| I. BELAH, the Son of Beor, at the City Dinabab. | II. JOBAB, the Son of Zerah, at Bozrah. | III. HUSHAM, the Son of N. N. in the Land of Temam. | IV. HADAD, the Son of Edad (who wrote Median) in the Field of Moab, at Arith. |
| V. SHANAN at Basfr-kah.                         | VI. SHAUL at Rebooth, by the River.     | VII. BAAL-HANAN, the Son of Ajbor.                  | VIII. HADAR at the City Euz.  |

But they had no Genealogy, being Kings elected, and not hereditary, as appears from their different Families, and the Capitals of their Kingdoms.

As for the 11 Dukes, mentioned after those Kings, They did not succeed to the Kings; for we have no Intimation of it in the Original, and are only the Names of the 11 Dukes, or Principalities of that Monarchy, called after the Dukes that first ruled over them, before they were subjected to the Monarchy, viz the Province or Duchy of Timna, Arab, Jethai, Abolibamah, Elah, Pison, Kenaz, Teman, Midbar, Magdiel, and Iram.

JACOB, the younger Twin, and Heir elect of Abraham's Blessing, born with Esau at Lahairoi, after they had struggled in the Womb, and were ever quite different in every thing, when Abraham was aged 100, Ishmael 74, Laban 45, Isaac 60, Rebekah 40, Before Heber died 19, Before Slem died 10, A. M. 2168, Before Christ 1837, After Flood 51, Before Exodus 345, Before his own Descent 130.

ABRAHAM †, aged 175 in 15, HEBER †, aged 464, in 4, Jacob, aged 24, bought the Birth-right of Esau in 5.

Esau married, aged 4, in 16, Leah born at Haran in 7, Rachel born in 10, An. Pereg. 142.

JACOB, aged 57 at the Birth of Rachel, An. Pereg. 142, ISHMAEL †, aged 137, when Jacob was aged 63, in Chatead Esau of the Blessing, fled from Canaan for fear of Esau's Wrath, had the Vision of the Ladder at Luz, or Bethel, and arrived at Haran, aged 77, in 14.

A. M. 2245, Before Christ 1759, Before Descent 52.

For the Descent happened 215, An. Pereg. 183.

Jacob was married both to Leah and Rachel in a few Months after he arrived at Haran; for he could not have waited 7 Years before Marriage (as many Critics and Chronologers assert) only Jacob covenanted to serve Laban 7 Years for each Wife, and so, aged 77 and two Months, Jacob was married—An. Pereg. 163.

And soon after to Bilhah, and Zilpah, Reuben and his other Sons born at Haran, as in Tab. 6.

JACOB, aged 91, in the 12th Month of An. Pereg. 176, JOSEPH was born, when Jacob's 14 Years Servitude ended. Staid longer in Haran—6.

And then left it, An. Pereg. 182, A. M. 2265, Before Christ 1739, Before Descent 33, Jacob being aged 97, In his Way was rescued from the Revenge of Laban and Esau, obtained the honourable Name of Israel, returned in Peace to Canaan, and settled at Shechem in the first Month of—An. Pereg. 183.

Simeon and Levi murdered the Shechemites in 4, Upon which Jacob moved to Bethel, and thence to Bethlehem, near which Benjamin was born in 1, From thence he arrived with his Families and Flocks at the Tents of Isaac near Hebron, after 26 Years absence, where he resided till the Descent, in the 12th Month of—An. Pereg. 188.

When Jacob was aged 103, JOSEPH was sold in 5, ISAAC †, aged 180, in 2, When Jacob was aged 120, An. Pereg. 205.

TABLE VI.

The Twelve PATRIARCHS of ISRAEL from JACOB'S Flight to Haran, A. M. 2245, to the EXODUS of Moses, A. M. 2513, during 268 Years.

JACOB or ISRAEL, the Son of Ishac, the Son of Abraham, the Son of Terah, having got from Ishac the Blessing of Abraham, fled from Esau aged 77, A. M. 2245, to Haran in Mejopotamia, and in a few Months was there married to his Cousins RACHEL and LEAH; for he could not have waited 7 Yrs. before Marriage, (as is commonly thought) only he covenanted to serve Laban 7 Years for each Wife, or 14 Years for both, at the end of which JOSEPH was born; and, after living there 6 Years more, in all 20, he returned to Canaan with his Families and Flocks, A. M. 2265, when aged 97. I have made another Computation of the Ages of these Patriarchs, upon the Supposition, that Jacob served Laban 7 Years before, in my Chronological Connexion of Saurin's Dissertation on the Pentateuch.

The CHRONOLOGY of ISRAEL in Egypt from the Descent to the Exodus, and from thence to the Death of Moses.

The DESCENT, or Jacob's going down to Egypt with his Family, according to our Chronology, happened when he was aged 130, when Joseph settled them in the Land of Goshen, a Place fit to their Flocks, in Lower Egypt, in the End of the 2d Year of Famine.

JOSEPH, too grateful to the Kings of Egypt, consulting the Grandeur of the Monarchy more than the Good of the People, during the Years of Famine, first amassed all the Money of Egypt and the neighbouring Nations into the Treasury of Pharaoh; and when they had no more Money, they sold their Flocks and Herds for Bread; and at last they sold their Lands and Liberties, and submitted to the absolute Dominion of the King: Nay, Joseph broke their clans, and blended them throughout all Egypt, to prevent the Re-asserting of their ancient Freedom, and obliged them to give to Pharaoh the 5th Part of their Yearly Income; by which mistaken Policy the Israelites, after Joseph's Death, were great Sufferers, when the bloody Tyrants of Egypt took from them their Lands and Liberties; as in this Table.

JACOB a dying blessed his Twelve Sons, and also Ephraim and Manasseh the Sons of Joseph, adopting them into his Family; foretold what should happen to them all; gave a signal Prophecy concerning Shiloh or MESSIAH to be descended of Judah, in an Extasy of Spirit: ordered his Body to be buried in Machpelah; and, aged 157, after living in Egypt—Accordingly his Body embalmed was carried in great State to Canaan, and solemnly interred in the same Grave with Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Rebecca, and Leah.

JOSEPH, upon their Return from the Funeral, was humbly addressed by those Nine Brethren that were guilty of selling him, whom he assured of his Protection.

AMRAM, the Son of Kohath, the Son of Levi, was born in Egypt after the Death of Jacob.

JOSEPH † in full Grandeur in Egypt, aged 110, after the Birth of Amram.

He was exalted by King Nephthar in the 15th Year of his Reign, was Prime Minister till that Pharaoh died, viz. 10 Years; and served next under King Thmofis about 10 Years more, and under King Amenophis about 30 Years more, and died in the 30th Year of Pharaoh Ous, (according to Manetho) in all 80 Years, having rendered himself necessary in all Reigns. The Book of Genesis ends in Joseph's Death, containing the History of 2369 Years.

LEVI †, aged 137, after the Death of Joseph.

Amram married his Cousin Jochabed, (though she is commonly called his Aunt, or the immediate Daughter of Levi, but not of Kohath's Mother, and born to Levi about 7 Years before he died) his Father's Brother's Daughter, either of Gershem or Merari, as others think from some Greek Copies, after the Death of Levi.

KOHATH †, the Son of Levi, the Father of Amram, and Grandfather of Moses, this Year, aged 133; and 2 after Amram's Marriage.

MIRIAM, the Daughter of Amram and Jochabed, the Sister of Aaron and Moses, was born the same Year.

From the Death of Joseph, during 18 Years, under the Kings of Egypt, the Israelites enjoyed Peace and Plenty, until another King arose that knew not Joseph, perhaps a Conqueror or a Foreigner, called RAMESSES MIAUMUN, who observing the mighty Growth of the Hebrews, both in Wealth and Number, made the Egyptians afraid of 'em, and began to persecute them severely in the first Year of his Reign, viz. after the Birth of Miriam.

And this Oppression continued until the Exodus, viz. under this King during 67 Years, and under his Son Amenophis during 19 Years, in all 86 Years.

AARON, the Son of Amram and Jochabed, the Brother of Miriam and Moses, was born after the Oppression began.

This wicked King first ordered Sliphra and Pua, the two principal Midwives, to charge all the other Midwives, to stifle in the Birth all the Males of the Hebrews; and finding they had not, or could not do it, he next made by Proclamation an Order to drown all the Hebrew Male Infants.

MOSES, the Son of Amram and Jochabed, the Brother of Miriam and Aaron, in the sixth Year of the Oppression, was born after Aaron.

When Miriam was aged 14: For when Moses was put into the little Ark among the Bulrushes, she was of age to watch him, and to send for her Mother to nurse him at the Command of THERMUTIS the King's Daughter, who drew Moses out of the Water, committed him to Jochabed to be nursed as her adopted Son, and educated him at Court in all the Learning of the Egyptians. Upon which it is supposed she prevailed with her Father to revoke the barbarous Edict, and to let the Male Hebrew Infants live. But otherwise the Oppression was continued; for though the Males were now saved, they were educated in Bondage, and the King, having robbed them of their Land of Goshen and of their Flocks, employed some of them in making Dikes and Banks to stop the Waters of the Nile, others were trained up in Brick-making, and others in Stone-laying, and in all sorts of Labour: For by their Labours that King built monstrous Pyramids of great Stones well cut, and also two great Cities well fortified, called his Treasure-Cities, Pithom and Raamses. But the more they were oppressed the more they increased.

JOSHUAH the Son of Nun, of the Tribe of Ephraim, was born in the 41st Year of the Oppression, and after the Birth of Moses.

Moses aged 40, in the 45th Year of the Oppression, visiting his oppressed Brethren, saw an Egyptian that was beating an Israelite, and hid him in the Sands; but when it was known at Court, and finding the King intended to punish him for it, (Thermutis perhaps being now dead) he fled from Egypt to Jethro, the Prince and Priest of a Colony of Midianites, near Mount Sinai in Arabia; and there married Jethro's Daughter ZIPPORAH, after the Birth of Joshua.

CALEB the Son of Jephthah of the Tribe of Judah, (see Tab. 11.) being 40 Years old when sent to spy the Land of Canaan, Josh. xiv. 7-10. was born after the Flight of Moses.

Amram †, aged 117, in the 63d Year of the Oppression, 17 Years after the Flight of Moses; and after the Birth of Caleb.

King RAMESSES MIAUMUN †, in the 67th Year of his Reign, and his Son AMENOPHIS came to the Throne after the Death of Amram.

But the Oppression did not with him; for, Exod. ii. 23. though it came to pass in process of Time that the King of Egypt died, yet the Children of Israel sighed by reason of the Bondage, which continued 19 Years under all the Reign of Amenophis till the Exodus.

GOD appeared to Moses in a burning Bush not consumed near Mount Sinai, (where he was chief Shepherd of Jethro's Flocks) and sent him back to Egypt, there to work mighty Miracles, to deliver Israel from Bondage, to inflict the Plagues, to lead them out of Egypt, that is, to make the EXODUS, to lead them through the Red Sea, (in which Pharaoh Amenophis and his whole Army were drowned) and to bring them to Mount Sinai. After the Death of King Rameses Miamun.

Thus the ISRAELITES were in Egypt from the Descent to the Exodus during 430 Years.

And here the III PERIOD of the Old Testament begins, at the Expiration of the 430 Years of Persecution, and reaches to the Founding of Solomon's Temple during 480 Years current. See Tab. 8 and 10.

Moses this Year defeated Amalek, and received the Law from God on Mount Sinai, where the Israelites made a golden Calf. And next Year he erected the TABERNACLE, sent spies to search the Land of Canaan, from Rishmah the 15th Station near Kadesh Barnea, and numbered the fighting Men 603550.

Boaz, Darhan and Abiram rebelled against Moses and Aaron, and were destroyed before JEHOVAH; and Aaron's Rod blossomed at Haradah the 11th Station.

The grand Camp of Israel arrived at Ezion Gobar on the Red Sea, the 32d Station, where they incamped two full Years, and where the Water of Horeb run into the Red Sea.

They left Ezion Gobar in the beginning of the 40th Year, and came to Kadesh of Zin (not Kadesh Barnea) the 33d Station, where Miriam †, aged 122; and where Moses and Aaron were condemned to die in the Desert and not to cross the Jordan, for not glorifying God at the Rock Meribah.

And also in the beginning of this Year they came to the 34th Station, Mount Horeb, where Aaron the Priest, in the Arms of Moses and Eleazar his Succesor, †, aged 123. Next they pitched at Ithamoth the 35th Station, where the PRAETEX SERPENS was erected in the Wilderness, to cure those Rebels that had been bit by the fiery Serpents. From thence, by several easy Marches, they arrived at the Kingdom of Hethon; but King SIMON, refusing them Passage and drawing forth his Army, was totally routed by Moses, who took possession of all his Land from the Arnon to the Jabbok. Then pitching at Mount Abarim, Moses detached an Army and fought the Giant OG, King of Bashan, destroyed his People and possessed his Land. After this glorious Conquest of the Land East of Jordan, which was given to the Tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Half Manasseh, Moses pitched in the 42d and last Station in the Plains of MOAB, along the Banks of the Jordan over against Jericho; when Balaam, under divine Influence, blessed the Camp of Israel from the top of an Hill in Moab; but wickedly advised BALAK King of Moab how to procure God to curse them: Accordingly, to gain that grand Point, King Balak sacrificed the Honour of the Virgins of Acan and Midian, who by their Arts drew the Israelites into Fornication, and also into Idolatry, by worshipping the prophane Idol Baal-peor: for which God smote by a Plague 24000 of his People, until PHINEAS staid the Plague, by zealously striking Jethi on the very Act of Fornication. Then Moses observing that all were dead who came out of Egypt aged above 20, except himself, Joshua and Caleb, he made another Muster of the fighting Men, viz. 603750, sent 12000 armed Men to be avenged of the Amalekites, (not the Amalekites) who cut off the Five Kings of Midian, and Balaam, and all they met with, Man, Woman and Child, except the Virgins, and brought in a very great Booty. At last he recapitulated the Law, or rehearsed the Book of Deuteronomy to the Heads of Israel, took a final leave of his dear Camp, walked up alone to the top of Pisgah on Mount Nebo, had a miraculous View of all CANAAN West of Jordan, and then laid him down to die in the Arms of his God, who buried him in a Valley over against Beth-peor in Moab, aged 120: his Eye was not dim, nor his natural Force abated, and the Israelites mourned for him 30 Days, Deut. xxxiv.

Thus Moses, by an easy and sure Tradition, might be informed of ancient Transactions, having conversed with his Father AMRAM before his Flight 17 Years, who lived with LEVI 32 Years, and he with ISAAC 17, and he with SHEM 50, and he with METHUSELAH 98, and he with ADAM 243 Years. But all their Tradition was confirmed by Divine Revelation.

The CHRONOLOGY of the JUDGES and KINGS of ISRAEL, from the Exodus to the Temple during 480 Years.

The JUDGES of Israel not being Hereditary Princes, but occasionally raised out of the several Tribes, and not having a Princely Genealogy, I exhibit here a CHRONOLOGICAL Table of the Judges and Kings of Israel, from the Exodus to the Founding of SOLOMON'S Temple during 480 Years current, or 479 Years, 1 Month and 2 Days complete, as it is plainly recorded, 1 Kings vi. 1.

This Period is also regulated by Judg. xi. 26. where Jephthab, writing to the King of Ammon, affirms that Israel had possessed the Country of Gilead, Bashan and Heshbon East of Jordan 300 Years; before the Oppression of the Ammonites began.

But the Words of the Apostle PAUL, Acts xiii. 20. (viz. And after That, he gave unto them Judges about the space of 450 Years until Samuel the Prophet) are of no use in this Chronology; because the Apostles intended not to determine exactly the Number of Years belonging to the Judges, but only to specify the Number usually ascribed to those Judges by the Jews in his Time: As Josephus, and generally the whole Jewish Nation, then esteemed the Book of Judges the just Measure of this Period, and that the Years of Servitude and Rest were distinct and successive, and that every Sum was to be added to the foregoing for making up the entire Chronology of this Interval; for from the beginning of Cushan's Oppression to Samuel, by that Addition of the Years of Servitude and Rest, there are just 450 Years, which the Apostle mentions only occasionally, with a Note of Inaccuracy, (as it were, or about, the space of 450 Years, the Number then commonly ascribed to the Judges, which therefore hinders not our stating the Account more exactly according to the express Scripture Proof above mentioned: For, by adding the Numbers, it was no less than 649 between the Exodus and the Founding of the Temple, which is 169 Years more than 480. This has perplexed all Chronologers (even the most accurate Archbishop Usher was mistaken in his new Way) till Sir JOHN MARSHAM cleared the Difficulty (in his Book call'd Canon Chronicus, p. 355.) by allowing Synchronisms or Contemporaries, or that some of the Judges ruled in the East while others ruled in the West.

TABLE IX.

The GENEALOGY of SAUL King of Israel.

BENJAMIN, at the Descent with his Father Jacob, aged 27 Years and 7 Months, (Tab. 6.) brought with him his 10 Sons, reckond among the 70 Souls, Gen. xlv. 21. viz.

1. BELAH. 2. Becher. 3. Ashbel. 4. Gera. 5. Naaman. 6. Elis. 7. Rosh. 8. Muppim. 9. Huppim. 10. Arad. Who all multiplyd in Egypt.

1. ARD, or Addar, born in Egypt, Contemporary with RAM of Judah. 2. Gera. 3. Abihud. 4. Abishuah. 5. Naaman. 6. Abhoah. 7. Gera. 8. Shupham. 9. Huram. 1 Chr. 8. 1, 2, &c.

GIDEONI, born in Egypt, Contemporary with AMMINADAB of Judah, Numb. ii. 22.

ABIDAN, born in Egypt, Contemporary with NAASSON of Judah. He was Prince of Benjamin at the Erection of the Tabernacle of Moses, Numb. vii. 60. and died in the Desert.

1. JEHIEL, born in the Desert, Contemporary with SALMON of Judah. He is calld the Father of Gibeon, that is, of the Country of Gibeon, having settled there when he came into Canaan with JOSHUA, 1 Chron. ix. 35.

About the end of the Anarchy, that happend after Joshua, (see Tab. 8.) the whole Tribe of Benjamin was cut off, Man, Woman and Child, except 600 valiant Men, Judg. xx. 47. of whom this JEHIEL must have been one; for his 10 Sons are mentiond, 1 Chron. ix. 26. which could not be, if he had not out-livd that Overthrow.

2. Gera, the Father of EHUD; Judg. iii. 15. must have been the Brother of Jehiel and Son of Abidan; or at least Contemporary with Jehiel, and one of the 600 Benjamites that escapd the general Havock: For, according to our Chronology, his Son EHUD slew Eglon, King of Moab, just 66 Years after the end of the Anarchy. Tab. 8.

EHUD, a left-handed Man, who slew Eglon and 10000 Men of the Flower of Moab. Tab. 8.

A numerous Offspring, reaching beyond the Babylonish Captivity, 1 Chron. viii. 6, &c.

1. Abdon. 2. Zur. 3. Kish. 4. Baal. 5. NER. 6. Nadab. 7. Gedor. 8. Abio. 9. Zachariah. 10. Mikloth.

APHIA, who seems to have settled in Gibeah of Benjamin after it was rebuilt.

BECHORATH, at Gibeah, Contemporary with BOAZ of Judah.

ZEROR at Gibeah, Contemporary with Boaz.

ABIEL at Gibeah, Contemporary with OBED of Judah.

These four are mentiond in a Line of Generation, 1 Sam. ix. 1.

Shimeam, who dwelt in Jerusalem with his Brethren, 1 Chron. viii. 32.

1. KISH, a mighty Man of Power and Wealth at Gibeah, Contemporary with Jesse of Judah. He is twice in Scripture said to be the Son of NER; only because he was descendd from NER the 5th Son of JEHIEL: For his immediate Father was ABIEL; and his Descent from NER is above deduc'd, as in 1 Sam. ix. 1.

2. NER, the Brother of Kish, the other Son of Abiel, the Uncle of King SAUL; and the Father of Abner, 1 Sam. xiv. 50, 51.

ABNER, chief General to his Cousin King SAUL and to King Ishbosheth; was murderd by Joab, David's General, at Hebron, A. M. 2955, 2 Sam. iii. 27. Tab. 12.

King SAUL, the Son of Kish, born at Gibeah, A. M. 2884, see Tab. 8. and see the Chronology of his Reign, Tab. 10. was married to Abinoam, the Daughter of Abimaaz; and had also a Concubine Rizpah, Daughter of Aiah.

Abinoam bore to him, 1. JONATHAN, 2. Melchishuah. 4. ISHBOSHETH, or Esh-baal, 40 Years old, when Abner made him King at Mahanaim, was murderd, see Tab. 12.

MEPHIBOSHETH, or Merib-baal, born 5 Years before the Battle of Gilboa, when by a Fright and a Fall he became lame, but was handsomely taken care of by King David, see Tab. 12.

3. Abinadab. Both slain at Gilboa. 5. Merab, the Wife of Adriel, the Meholathite. 6. Michal, the Wife of King David, but without Issue. Rizpah bore to SAUL, 1. Armoni, and 2. Mephibosheth, both hangd by the Gibeonites. Tab. 12.

Five Sons hangd by the Gibeonites, 2 Sam. xxi. 8, 9. Tab. 12.

MICAH, whose numerous Offspring enjoyd the paternal Estate at Gibeah till the Captivity, and after the Reduction this Family was very considerable, 1 Chron. viii. 34, &c. of which the Apostle Paul was descendd.

TABLE X.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Reign of King SAUL, and of the first 30 Years of DAVID's Life.

Upon the People's clamouring for a King, SAUL the Son of Kish, the handsomest and tallest young Gentleman in all Israel, when aged 25, was by Samuel anointed privately, and soon after presented to the Tribes at Mizpeh, as King elect of Israel, and approved by the general Voice.

The Spirit of JEHOVAH came upon him, to qualify him for his high Station; for in one Month he raised an Army, beat NAHASH King of the Ammonites, and raised the Siege of Jabesh-Gilead. Upon which, at Gilgal, the grand Assembly made him King, 1 Sam. xi. 15. before the Founding of the Temple.

King SAUL reigned in all—40
Honourably, peaceably, and free from Trouble -- 2 }
Under Oppression, War and Trouble ———— 38 }

VIII. Persecution, again under the Philistines, who oblig'd SAUL often to shift his Quarters without a settled Residence, because he would not submit to the Philistines, that would not allow of one Smith in all Israel, to prevent their use of Arms. This lasted during—13

Mean while SAMUEL was allowed by the Philistines to be the Judge of the People in Civil Affairs; for he is said to have judged Israel all the Days of his Life, 1 Sam. vii. 15.

DAVID, the youngest Son of Jesse, was born at Bethlehem, in the 8th Year of this Servitude. Just 30 Years before the Death of King SAUL, and before the Temple.

In the 12th Year of this Servitude, JONATHAN, the Son of King Saul, aged 18, having smote the Philistine Garrison at Gaba, the Philistines brought their numberless Army, to grub up and depopulate all Israel, next Year.

Then King SAUL blew the Trumpet, and gathered a vast Multitude at Gilgal, but wanting Arms, they deserted and hid themselves, all but 600: Upon which, on the 7th Day, SAUL impatient of SAMUEL's not coming that Day early, with Instructions from God concerning the War, presumed to offer Sacrifices and give Directions himself, contrary to God's Appointment; for which he forfeited his Crown, 1 Sam. xiii. 14.

Yet SAUL march'd his 600 Men to Migron near Gibeon, where JONATHAN only with his Armor-bearer surpriz'd the Philistine Garrison, when Terror from God seiz'd the Philistine Army that lay in the Neighbourhood, so that they slew one another, and the Israelites join'd Saul's little Army, who pursued the Philistines to their Borders.

And so after 13 Years, the VIIIth Persecution ending, SAUL took the Kingdom over Israel, 1 Sam. xiv. 47. That is, having cover'd it from the Enemy, he regarded not his late Forfeiture, but took it himself, without consulting God; and reigned after this, tho' in perpetual War, for 25 Years, 1 Sam. xiv. 52. There was for War against the Philistines all the Days of Saul.

SAUL now begins a new Reign, and was very prosperous for 12 Years, prevailing in War over Moab and Ammon, Edom and the Kings of Zoba, the Philistines and all the Enemies of Israel. At length, in the 12th Year,

God sent SAUL to extirpate Amalek, in pursuance of an old Sentence: But Saul sav'd AGAG their King, and the best Booty, contrary to God's express Charge to him; for which he forfeited his Crown a second time, when Samuel slew Agag, and intirely deserted Saul to the Day of his Death, 1 Sam. xv. 35.

God also deserted him now, rebuked Samuel for his Mourning for Saul, and sent him to the House of Jesse at Bethlehem this same Year, to anoint DAVID.

DAVID was anointed, by God's Choice, to be Saul's Successor in presence of all his Brethren; but without the Knowledge of Saul, 1 Sam. xvi. 1, 2. &c. before the Founding of the Temple.

SAUL now deserted of God, troubled with an evil Conscience, and frequently disorder'd in his Mind, by the Advice of his Servants sent for David to sooth him with the Music of his Lyre; for David was educated to be his Father's chief Shepherd, (Formosi pecoris custos formosior ipse) and so was train'd up to the Use of Arms and also to Poetry and Music, (and to serious Religion too) for which he became famous so early, 1 Sam. xvi. 18. but David soon return'd to his Father before Saul knew of his being anointed, 1 Sam. xvii. 15.

The Philistines renew'd the War, and brought into the Field GOLIATH, the monstrous Giant of Gath, who during 40 Days blasphem'd JEHOVAH, and defy'd Saul's Army, in the Name of Dragon, twice a Day as his Champion, none daring to accept of his Challenge, until DAVID (sent by his Father with some Refreshments for his three eldest Brothers in the Camp) accepted of it; and without Armor advancing between the Armies, with his own Shepherd's Staff and Scrip, DAVID from his Sling did sink a round Pebble in the Giant's Forehead, that made him to stagger and fall, when DAVID ran and stood upon him, and forthwith cut off Goliath's Head with Goliath's own Sword in sight of both Armies: Upon which the Philistines fled, and SAUL and his Army pursued them to their Borders.

And upon their Return the Women and Minstrels of Israel sang and play'd in Dances with this Chorus, viz. SAUL hath slain his Thousands, but DAVID his Ten Thousands, 1 Sam. xviii.

This made SAUL envious, and next Day to attempt to slay him with a javelin, which David twice escap'd, while soothing the King's Mind with his Harp. But SAUL, not yet knowing of David's Anointing, retain'd him at Court, and set him over his Guards; but, conceiving Malice at David, SAUL mov'd him from Court with the Command of 1000 Men to fight against the Philistines, with the Promise of his Daughter Merab for a Wife.

But mean while SAUL gave Merab to Abiath, and when DAVID return'd safe from Skirmishing (to the Grief of Saul) he was offer'd Michal the other Daughter for 100 Foreskins of the Philistines, which David gladly accepted, and for Michal he fought and deliver'd 200 Foreskins.

SAUL at length hearing of David's Anointing, and finding that God was with him, that Michal lov'd him, and that he had the Esteem of all the People, became more afraid of David, and advis'd his Son JONATHAN and his Servants to slay him; tho' in vain: For Jonathan lov'd him, and reconcil'd him and the King this time.

The Philistines renewing the War, SAUL sent DAVID as his General, who beat the Philistines home again, and upon his triumphant Return, SAUL, being really or feignedly troubled with the Evil Spirit, again attempted to slay David with his javelin, while David was diverting him with his Harp: But David escaping, SAUL sent Assassins to murder him a bed. But David escaping again, by the Contrivance of his Wife Michal, and flying to SAMUEL at Ramah. SAUL sent three Sets of Messengers one after another, who, instead of taking David, turn'd all Prophets; say SAUL himself, coming for him, turn'd Prophet too, 1 Sam. xix. Upon which DAVID was again in Favour, but not long; for next Year David, justly afraid of being murder'd, enter'd into a Covenant of Friendship with his beloved JONATHAN, who discover'd his Father's open Resolution at Table to cut him off, and advis'd him to flee for his Life: And so DAVID never return'd to SAUL's Court, but wander'd about 8 Years in Desert and strong Holds, 1 Sam. xx. For

DAVID first with no suitable Retinue ran to Nob near Shiloh, where AHIMELECH gave him the Sword of Goliath for his Defence, and entertain'd him with stale Bread, for which he and 84 other Priests were afterwards cut off by SAUL; none escaping but Abiathar, who came to David with an Ephod in his Hand, 1 Sam. xxi. and xxii.

Then DAVID ran to ACHISH King of Gath, where not finding himself safe, he soon escap'd to the Cave of Adullam in Judah, where he set up his Standard and gather'd 400 fighting Men, of desperate Circumstances like himself. Thence he went to Mizpeh of Moab, where he settled his Parents and Kindred, and where in all likelihood old Jesse died, aged 134. Thence he return'd to Adullam with his Band. Thence to the Forest of Hareth. Thence to the Relief of Keilah, when he rais'd the Siege and spoil'd the Philistines; where SAUL hoped to catch him, tho' in vain: For David, being warn'd of God, retir'd to the Wilderness of Judah with his Men, now 600, and to a Wood near Ziph; and thence to the Hill of Hachilah, on the South of Jeshimon, while SAUL with an Army hunted him unto a Rock in the Wilderness of Maon, where Saul had surrounded him on the Rock, if he had not been diverted by a new Invasion of the Philistines, 1 Sam. xxiii. Then David mov'd to the strong Holds of Engedi, where Saul hunted him (as soon as the Philistines were beat back) with 3000 Men. Here DAVID cut off a Piece of Saul's Royal Mantle, instead of slaying him, while a sleep in the great Cave, where by SAUL was pacify'd once more, and went home, 1 Sam. xxiv.

SAMUEL the Prophet, the Saviour and the Judge of Israel, now 71, aged 88, and was buried in Ramah much lamented, 1 Sam. xxv.

This Year DAVID was going to slay Nabal at Carmel near Paran, and all his Males, for his Ingratitude and ill Manners; but was prevented by the Wisdom of ABIGAIL his Wife, who, upon Nabal's sudden Death, became David's Wife this Year; as a little before he had married Abinoam of Jexreel, because that SAUL had given Michal to Phaltiel.

About the beginning of next Year DAVID mov'd to his old Camp, the Hill of Hachilah, where SAUL again hunted him with 3000 Men. But DAVID with Abishai in the Night, finding Saul and Abner and all the Camp fast a sleep, ventur'd not to slay Saul, but only to carry off his Spear and Cruse; and upon discovering it in the Morning, SAUL acknowledg'd his Fault, and went home again pacify'd, 1 Sam. xxvi.

But DAVID, not trusting more to SAUL's Promises, thought it safest for him to retire to ACHISH King of Gath with his 600 Men, in the 8th Month of—Who gave him the Town of Ziklag for a Garrison, where David relid'd one Year and four Months.

Upon the News of which, King SAUL left off hunting of David, as indeed it was high time: For now the Philistines renew'd the War, and Saul prepar'd to give them a warm Reception.

Mean while DAVID, hating to be idle, march'd against those Geshurites, Gizzites and Amalekites that lay South of Ziklag, and left none alive to tell Tidings: But he told a great Lie to King Achish, affirming he had made an Inroad upon Judah.

At length the Armies fought on Mount Gilboa, where SAUL and JONATHAN were slain. See that Transaction, Tab. 12.

Father Judah was aged . . . . . 34  |  |  | 15  | 200            | 2283  |
| He was aged at the Descent 15 Years and 8 Months, Tab. 6.  |  |  |   |                |       |
| 2. Danul, the youngest Twin with   1. HEZROM, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, born in Canaan when his Father Pharez was aged above . . . . . 14   |  |  | 1   | 214            | 2298  |
| Hezrom, see Numb. xxvi. 21.   He was aged at the Descent 11 Months, (Tab. 6.) which, added to the Column of the Years of Peregrination, make the Total before Descent . . . . . 215  |  |  |   | 215            |       |
| 1. JERAHMEEL. 2. CALEB, or Chelubai, had 3 Wives and 2 Concubins. 4. SEGUB, the fourth Son of Hezrom, by the Daughter of Machir the Son of Manasseh, whom Hezrom married when he was aged 60, 1 Chron. ii. 21, &c.   |  |  | Having no Account of the Years of Generation, nor of the Ages of DAVID's Progenitors, we are left to our own Conjectures in the Chronology of HEZROM, RAM, AMMINADAB, NAASSON, SALMON, BOAZ, OBED, and JESSE, to state their Ages when each begat his Son.Some think those too few, from HEZROM's Descent into Egypt A. M. 2298, to the Birth of DAVID A. M. 9919, during 621 Years; and have therefore imagined two or three of the Name of BOAZ: That so the Patriarchs after Salmon might not appear too old, when their Successors were born.But as there is not the least ground for that Imagination in Holy Writ, where always one BOAZ is mentioned, and no more, nor any Intimation of another; so it will appear by my Chronology, that such an Imagination or Supposition is not needful, only by allowing that BOAZ, OBED and JESSE were each 110 Years old when they begat their Successors, and that JESSE might live to be aged 134: For there are many Instances in History of hail, vigorous old Men of that Age, particularly in England, one Thomas Bar suffered Penance, in Shropshire, for Adultery when aged 105, married his 2d Wife when aged 122, and died aged 152, at London Anno Domini 1635. ThusRAM might be born about 13 Years before the Death of Joseph, and 3 Years after Amram, when Hezrom his Father was aged . . . . . 58For after his Birth his Father Hezrom was twice married, as appears here, under his Sons Segub and Ashur. |                |       |

Judah in the Plains of Moab, Numb. xxxiv. 18, 19. He and Joshua were the only Persons that came out of Egypt, who also passed over the Jordan, or that made both the Exodus and Ingress, without any Diminution of his Vigour, as he owns when aged 85, in the 6th Year after Ingress, Josh. xiv. 2nd whose Offspring possessed the largest and best Share of the Tribe of Judah, viz.  |  |  |   |                |       |
| 1. Shabai, Prince of Kariatbaim. 2. Salma, Prince of Bethleem. 3. Haraph, Prince of Bethgader. 4. Iru. 5. Eliab. 6. Naam. See 1 Chron. iv. 15. 1. Ashub, Wife of Judg. i. 12. and Tab. 8. OTHNIEL, the Judge. See their Offspring in 1 Chron. iv. 13, 14.  |  |  | Fair and his People, that seem to have possessed 23 Cities in Gilead, among the Manassites, 1 Chron. ii. 21, &c. But not the same Fair, that was of the Tribe of Manasseh, Numb. xxxii. 41.   |                |       |
| These three Heads, or Princes, of Families are mentioned, 1 Chron. ii. 50-55. as the Sons of CALEB, the Son of HUR, that is, the Grandson of Hur and immediate Son of JEPHUNNEH; for they inhabited his Lot in the Tribe of Judah. Besides these, the KENITES also, a Colony of Midianites under Debai, the Son of JETHRO, (Moses's Father-in-law) being Profelyts, marched with Israel through the Desert, and settled first in the Lot of Caleb, in the South of Judah near the Wilderness of Paran. But afterwards a Branch of 'em, under one Orber, settled in Naphtali, (whose Wife Zail slew Simeon, Judg. iv. 11) and from him in time came Hemarh, the Father of the House of Rechab, 1 Chron. ii. 55. which Rechab was the Father of Jonadab, who joined with JEHU against the Worshippers of Baal, 2 Kings x. 23. and also instituted a Law in his Family, That none of 'em should drink Wine for ever, nor sow Seed, nor plant, nor possess Vineyards, nor build Houses, but should always dwell in Tents, as their Progenitors had done; which Law we certainly find (from Jer. xxxv. 6, &c.) was most punctually observed in that Family, from that Time till the Days of Zedekiah, during 296 Years. |  |  | 58 58 157 2356  |                |       |
| A M M I N A D A B, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, might be born in Egypt when his Father Ram was aged . . . . . 59   |  |  | 117   | 98             | 2415  |
| ELISHEBAH, the Sister of Naasson, and Wife of AARON, afterwards the High Priest. N A A S S O N, the Progenitor of DAVID and MESSIAH, was born in Egypt when Amminadab was aged . . . . . 59  |  |  | 176   | 39             | 2474  |
| And so at the Exodus of Moses NAASSON was aged . . . . . 39  |  |  | 215   |                | 2513  |
| For that Number and the Ages of Hezrom, Ram and Amminadab make up the Total between the Descent and Exodus . . . . . 215   |  |  | Def. Chritt   |                | 1491  |
| Thus also NAASSON, when Prince of Judah at the Erection of the Tabernacle, was aged 41 2 And having traversed the Desert after that Erection for . . . . . 18 59 He begat his younger Son Salmon, and lived several Years afterwards.  |  |  |   |                |       |

| 1. Elimelech, born at Bethlehem , married Naomi, and becoming poor was forced by Famine to mortgage his Estate, and travelled with his Family into the Land of Moab , in the 10th Year of Judge EHUD's Rule, A. T A B L E XII.
The CHRONOLOGY of the Reign of King D A V I D.

When the Philistian Army marchd against SAUL, Achish King of Gath, took D A V I D and his 600 Men with him into the Field; but the Lords of the Philistins, not inclining to trust him in a Battel against the Israelites, prevaild to send him back to Ziklag; where arriving in three Days, he found a distant Colony of the Amalekites had in his Absence burnt the Town, and carried away Captive all the Women, Children and Goods; upon which David's Men were ready to stone him to death: But he encouragd himself by Prayer, and encouragd his Men, by God's Direction, to pursue and overtake the Enemy, whom he smote a whole Day, recoverd all safe, and returnd to Ziklag loaded with great Spoil. Two Days after his Return, a young Amalekite, escaping out of the Battel of Gilboab, told D A V I D how the Philistins had beat the Israelites out of the Field, and that King SAUL had desired him to slay him, which, he said, he did, and carried off SAUL's Crown and Bracelets, which he presented to David; but that Present did not prevent his being immediately cut off by David's Order, because he had ownd to have slain the LORD'S ANOINTED, whether it was true or false; tho' indeed it was false: For now SAUL being deserted of God, and afraid at the Approach of the Philistian Army, went disguisd to the Witch of Endor, the Day before Battel, to bring S A M U E L up from the Dead, in order to be advisd by his old Friend in this Emergency, because he could get no Advice from God. The Witch raisd a Demon, or fallen Angel, in the old Appearance of Samuel, who, by God's Permission, told SAUL his Fate, even that to morrow he and his Sons should be in the State of the Dead. Accordingly, next Day, when the Battel was fought on Mount Gilboab, the Israelites fell before the Philistins; and when SAUL saw three of his Sons slain, viz. JONATHAN, Abinadab and Melchishuah, and being sore wounded by Arrows, and hotly pursued by the Enemy, he fell upon his own Sword, as did his Armour-Bearer; when the foresaid Amalekite might snatch the Crown and Bracelets, which he brought to D A V I D at Ziklag. Next Day the Philistins found SAUL's Body, cut off his Head, and sent it to be a Spectacle throughout all Philistia, and naild his Body, and the Bodies of his three Sons, to the Wall of Bethshan, and took Possession of many of the Cities of Israel.

| DAVID, upon hearing of the Death of SAUL and JONATHAN, composed an inimitable Song of Lamentation for them (2 Sam. i.) and by God's Direction leaving Ziklag, marchd straight with his 600 Men and some Reinforcements to Hebron.   | ERA of David's Reign | ERA of Exod. | ERA of Ingress. | A. M. and before Christ. | The next half Year was spent partly at Hebron, and partly at the Siege of Jebusi, (that till then was possessd by the Jebusites) of which David took in the Fort of ZION, and calld it the City of DAVID: And Joab having took in Jebusi, DAVID calld it JERUSALEM, made it his capital City, rebuilt it, and well fortified it, 2 Sam. v. 6-9. and 1 Chron. xi. 4.         | ERA of David's Reign | ERA of Exod. | ERA of Ingress. | A. | And at Hebron was anointed by the Men of Judah, while ISHBOSHETH, Saul's Son, then aged 40, was anointed King of Israel by Abner the General at Mahanaim, where he reigned peaceably, 2 Sam. ii. during   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | Before the Founding of the TEMPLE   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | Yet when he had found his Mistake, and that God had blest the House of Obed-Edom for the Ark's sake, DAVID in three Months formd a more solemn Procession, and with great Sacrifices brought it to the Tabernacle, that he had prepard for it in ZION, which is therefore calld the City of God, and from this Time was an Emblem of the Church. Now the Ark had Rest, 1 Chron. vi. 31. and DAVID, clothd with an Ephod, sang with the People, Arise, O JEHOVAH, unto thy Rest, Thou and the Ark of thy Strength: for the Lord hath chosen ZION, &c. as in Psalm. cxxxii. | 44                   | 44           | 407             | 2960                     |
| DAVID mean while thankd the Men of Gilead for their Gratitude to SAUL, in taking his Body and the Bodies of his Sons from the Wall of Bethshan, and for burying their Bones.  | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | Now HIRAM, King of Tyre, sent Envoys to congratulate King DAVID with Cedar Trees, Carpenters and other Masons for building his Palace and Castle of Zion.   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | Next Year DAVID enjoying profound Peace, and sitting in his Palace of Cedars, proposd to Nathan the Prophet to build a TEMPLE for the Ark, and for the other Utensils of the Tabernacle of Moses, that had been lately translated from Shiloh in Ephraim (where Joshua placd it) to Gibeon in Benjamin, not far from Jerusalem, where it was attended by its proper Ministers.  | 44                   | 44           | 407             | 2960                     |
| DAVID strengthnd himself by an Alliance with TALMAI, King of Geshur, whose Daughter Maacah he married, the Mother of Absalom and Sister Thamar.   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | But when all the World saw that David was establishd in the Kingdom of Israel, the inveterate Philistins renewd the War, and enterd Judah with a great Army to hunt him.  | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | But next Day, tho' God sent Nathan to approve of David's good Intention, yet he forbid him to undertake a Work not fit for a Man of Blood, and which was reservd for a peaceable King of his Offspring; withal promising, That his Seed should be Kings to many Generations, 2 Sam. vii.  | 44                   | 44           | 407             | 2960                     |
| At the end of those two Years of Peace, a bloody War ensued between Ishbosheth and David for near 5 Years, in which Ishbosheth daily lost ground; for in the Battel of Gibeon was Abner routed, lost 360 Men, while Joab, DAVID's General, lost but 20, among which was his Brother Asah, slain by Abner in the Pursuit, 2 Sam. ii. 27. | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | Upon which David retir'd from Jerusalem, then in Rubbish, to the strong Hold of Iduliam, and by God's Direction attackd 'em in the Valley of Rephaim, and routed them in the Battel of Baal-perazim, where he burnt their Image-Gods, 2 Sam. v.   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | This was 11 Years before SOLOMON the peaceable was born; which Time King DAVID employd in subduing the Nations round him, and in aggrandizing his Kingdom to the Extent of the Promise made to ABRAHAM, Gen. xv. 18. Even from the River of Egypt, to the great River Euphrates. For  | 44                   | 44           | 407             | 2960                     |
| At last Abner, being affronted by ISHBOSHETH, deserted him and came to Hebron, where DAVID feasted him; and Abner engagd to bring in all Israel to David.   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | Before this Battel, three of David's Worthies, hearing him long to drink of the Water of the Well of Bethlehem, broke thro' the Army of the Philistins, and, in defiance of their Garrison at Bethlehem, brought of that Water to Adullem; rho' David would not drink it, but devoutly pourd it out before Jehovah as an Offering, 2 Sam. xviii. 13-17. 1 Chron. xi. 15-19. | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | 1. He smote the Philistins, and made them Tributaries, after he had recoverd from them Metheg-Ammah, the last of their Garrisons in Israel, 2 Sam. viii.  | 44                   | 44           | 407             | 2960                     |
| But Joab returning from pursuing a Troop, and finding Abner had departed in peace, sent for him back without David's Knowledge, and treacherously murderd him in the Gateway, 2 Sam. iii.   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | DAVID, having now obtaind a general Peace, and finishd the City and Fortifications of Jerusalem, was piously anxious for the Ark of God, that had been takn by the Philistins in the last Year of ELI's Rule, had been sent back in 7 Months, and then lodgd in the House of Abinadab, in Kiriath-Jearim near Philistia in Judah, where it staidly remaind,                 | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | 2. He smote HADAD-EZER, or Hader-Ezer, the Son of Rehob, King of Syria-Zoba near the Euphrates, destroying to him 1000 Chariots, 700 Horsemen, and 30000 Footmen; but reservd 100 Chariots for his own Use, Ibid.   | 44                   | 44           | 407             | 2960                     |
| This intimidated Ishbosheth and all Israel, until Baanah and Rechab, two of his Captains, murderd him on his Bed, and brought his Head to David, who immediately cut them off as Murderers, and buried the Royal Head in the Grave of ABNER at Hebron, 2 Sam. iv.   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | During SAMUEL's Rule before Saul's Anointing 16   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | 3. He smote 22000 of the Syrians of Damascus, that came to succour Hadad-Ezer, and garrisond their Country, and brought to Jerusalem a great Booty, besides the Shields of Gold, that were taken  | 44                   | 44           | 407             | 2960                     |
| After ISHBOSHETH had reigned at Mahanaim and DAVID at Hebron  | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | During SAUL's Reign 40  | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | 4. | Upon this 34000 valiant Men from all the Tribes of Israel came to Hebron, and anointed DAVID King of all Israel, (which was his 3d Anointing) when he took his Coronation-Dath, or made a League with the People before Jehovah, 2 Sam. v. and 1 Chr. xiii.   | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | During DAVID's Reign at Hebron 7  | 33                   | 44           | 404             | 2949                     | See the Continuation.   | 44                   | 44           | 407             | 2960                     |

They march'd not far before they met the Fox in the Forest of Ephraim, (not in the Tribe of Ephraim, but that Wood was fild either from some memorable Acts of the Ephraimites there, or because they had made a Purchase of it for their Cattel, where a bloody Battel ensued, and God gave the Victory to David's little Army, who slew 20000 of the Rebels that Day, and many more of 'em were devour'd by the Wood.

At last the grand Rebel Absolom encountering the Servants of David, his fine long Hair caught hold of an Oak, and he was caught up between Heaven and Earth, while his Mule rode away from under him, leaving him hanging by his Hair; which Joab hearing of, went quick and thrust three Darts into Absolom's Heart, while yet alive in the Oak; and Joab's ten Armour-bearers cut him down, and cast him into a great Pit, and cover'd him with a great Heap of Stones, aged about 30 Years, the handsomest Man of his Time, without Issue.

Then Joab founded a Retreat, and return'd to Mahanaim, where he found David mourning for his reprobate Son Absolom, instead of rejoicing: Upon which his Friends had deserted him, if he had not shewn himself by Joab's Direction, and prepar'd to return with Honour; as he did by the solemn Invitation of the Men of Judah who also met him in Form at Gilgal, (with the Half of Israel, tho' not in Form) who magnificently conducted the King to Jerusalem, where he shut his ten Concubines into perpetual Ward, and where the Men of Israel complain'd to the King, that the Men of Judah had stole him home without acquainting them; to which the Jews replied, that the King was their Kinsman, and that they had put him to no charge; but the Israelites said, that they had ten Parts in the King, and so had more Right in him than one Tribe could have; Why then, said they, did you despise us, that our Armes should not be first had in bringing back our King? 2 Sam. xix.

But a Man of Belial, Achishai, the Son of Bichri, a Benjamite, improving the fierce unguarded Words of the Jews, fomented a Rebellion among the Israelites; and so drawing off from Jerusalem, he blew the Trumpet, saying, We have no Part in David, nor Inheritance in the Son of Jesse, every Man to his Tent, O Israel!

DAVID forthwith made Amasa his chief General, according to his promise at Mahanaim for obtaining the Invitation, and sent him with the other General under him at the Head of the Men of Judah. But Joab treacherously murder'd him on the Road, and took the Command of the Army, pursuing Achishai thro' all the Tribes, and at length besiegd him in Abi-Ber-Naacab in the North Country: But after the Wall was batter'd, a wise Woman sav'd the City, by advising the Inhabitants to cut off Achishai's Head and throw it out to Joab: Which being done, Joab return'd in Triumph, and all the Land had Rest, 2 Sam. xx.

The Harvest of this Year being deficient, a Famine began that continu'd three Years successively, tho' not as a Chastisement of David; for when he enquir'd of JEHOVAH it was found, that God had sent it for SAUL and his bloody House; because in wicked Zeal for Israel he slew many of the Gibeonites, contrary to the Covenant in Jesse's Time, 2 Sam. xxi. 1, 2, &c.

DAVID offer'd an Attonement to the Gibeonites, but nothing would satisfy them, till seven of Saul's Offspring were deliver'd to 'em, and by them hang'd before Jehovah in Gibeah the City of Saul; which was done in the beginning of Barley Harvest in the last Year of Famine, viz. Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two Sons of Rizpah SAUL's Concubine, and the five Sons of Michal's Sister Merab, which she bore to Adriel the Meholathite: But David spard Mephibosheth the Son of Jonathan for his Father's sake; nay, in Reverence to Saul and to Rizpah his Concubine, DAVID took his Bones, and the Bones of Jonathan, and the Bones of the seven hang'd at Gibeah, and buried them altogether decently in the Sepulchre of Kish at Zelah: After which God was intreated for the Land.

During those Years of Famine, and perhaps the Year after too, the Philistines having renew'd the War, DAVID went on in fighting against them wax'd faint, and would have been slain by the Giant Ishbosh, if not rescued by Abishai, who slew that Giant. This was the last Battel that David fought in Person; for his Men swore they would not permit him to take the Field any more, 2 Sam. xxi. 17. But after this his Warriours fought the Philistines three times, and kill'd three other Giants, and finish'd the War.

Next Year being Sabbatical, DAVID became very ambitious, and against all Advice to the contrary, he order'd Joab and other Officers to number all the Men of Israel and Judah above the Age of 20, which was done in 9 Months and 20 Days. 2 Sam. xxiv. 9. those of Israel amounting to 800000 valiant Men, and those of Judah 50000, besides the Levites and the Benjamites, 1 Chron. xxi. 6. where the Number of the People is a Thousand Thousand of Israel, and 100000 Men that drew Sword, and of Judah 40000 that drew Sword: For there might be two Lists, of which this last was made by the Officers under Joab, and the first by Joab himself; because 2 Chron. xxvii. 23, 24. it is said, their Number was not under 20 Years old, and Joab began to number, but finish'd not; because before he finish'd there fell Wrath against Israel, neither was the Number he took put into the Account of the Chronicles of King David: And Author of the first Book of Chronicles might have his Sums from the Records of the Tribes, whereby the Sums differ from those in 2 Sam. xxiv. 9.

But tho' David's Heart smote him, and he humbled himself before Jehovah, confess'd his Iniquity, and beg'd Pardon; yet God shew'd his just Anger, by sending the Prophet Gad with an Offer of three sorts of Punishments; either 1. Famine for 7 Years, that is, 3 Years past, and this 4th. or Sabbatical Year, (in which there was no Harvest according to the Law) and 3 Years to come, 1 Chr. xxi. 12. in all 7 Years; or 2. Three Months Flight before his Enemies; or 3. Three Days Pestilence throughout all Israel. But DAVID in this great Streight wisely chose to fall into the Hands of God, because of his Mercy, and pray'd not to fall into the Hands of Men. And so the Pestilence came, which destroy'd 70000: But when the destroying ANGEL was about to destroy Jerusalem, God stop't him at David's Prayer, who in Sackcloth saw the ANGEL between Heaven and Earth with a drawn Sword in his Hand, just over the threshing Floor of Araunah or Ornan the Jebusite, which David bought for 600 Shekles of Gold, and by God's Direction built there an Altar unto JEHOVAH, upon which he offer'd great Sacrifices, when God answer'd him by Fire from Heaven upon his Altar of Burnt Offering, whereby DAVID knew that this was the very Place where God's TEMPLE must be built, for which he had prepar'd vast Materials.

SOLOMON married to Naamah, a Princess of Ammon, had this Year a Son born by her, (when he was going in his 17th Year) whose Name was REHOBOAM; for Rehoboam was aged 41 when Solomon died, and he began to reign, 1 Kings xiv. 21. For tho' David calls Solomon young and tender, (1 Chr. xxix. 1.) and tho' Solomon owns it himself, (1 Kings iii. 7.) yet David owns that he was a wise Man, 1 Kings ii. 9. and fit for Government, even before he got the special Wisdom from God; and so he was of proper Age to be married.

DAVID, now worn out with Labour and Wars, could not keep himself warm a bed; and therefore got ABISHAG, the fair Shunamite Virgin, to nourish him: But the King knew her not, 1 Kings i.

Adonijah his Son, perceiving his Father's Infirmities, prevail'd with all his Brethren, except Solomon, and with General Joab and the High Priest Abiathar, to assist him in Usurping the Kingdom, and to proclaim him King of Israel at Enrogel near Jerusalem. Then Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the Son of Jehoiadab attend'd BATHSHEBAH, who, going before the old King, told him what Adonijah was doing: Upon which DAVID order'd Zadok the Priest, Nathan, Benaiah, with the Guards, and the mighty Men, forthwith to proclaim SOLOMON King, and to anoint him at Gihon, a Fountain West of ZION at Jerusalem; which was done with the general Huzzas of the People that were heard at Enrogel, and disturb'd the Feast of Adonijah, who fled to the Tabernacle at Gibeon, and laid hold on the Horns of the Altar, to importune Mercy for the sake of God which was granted by Solomon upon Promise of good Behaviour for the future.

Thus SOLOMON reignd conjunctly with DAVID about 6 Months; and the Years of Solomon's Reign comprehend those 6 Months, or are to be reckon'd from 6 Months before his Father died.

At last King DAVID, having assembled his Nobles and mighty Men, exhorted them to fear Jehovah, and charg'd SOLOMON to build the Temple, of which he gave him a Model, with Directions how to dispose of the Priests and Levites in their Ministrations, made great Presents for the Building, as did also the rest of the Assembly; and having thank'd God, they sacrific'd next Day 1000 Bullocks, 1000 Rams, 1000 Lambs, with their Libations, or Drink Offerings, did feast before Jehovah with great Gladness, anointed SOLOMON King the second time, and Zadok to be High Priest; and so King DAVID, having given his last Exhortations and Instructions to King SOLOMON his Son, slept and died in a good old Age, before the founding of the TEMPLE—

The CHRONOLOGY and History of the Reign of King SOLOMON.

SOLOMON, JEDJEDJAH, A. M. 2971
the peaceable, the Beloved of God, was born to DAVID by Bathshebah, Tab. II.
Was married, aged 16, to NAAMAH, a Princess of Ammon, the Mother of REHOB OAM, born to Solomon aged 17
Was in Possession of the Throne of Israel six Months before the Death of his Father, and in Conjunction with him till David died; when SOLOMON began to reign alone the same Year, viz. ————
ADONIJAH his Brother, whose Usurpation had been pardoned, [Tab. 12.] now intreated Bathshebah to sollicite her Son King SOLOMON, to grant him Leave to marry Abithag, DAVID's Virgin Concubine; but Solomon, deeming that Request to proceed from a Design of another Usurpation, ordered Benaiah forthwith to slay him, 1 Kings ii. 13--25.
ABIATHAR the High Priest, of the Race of ELI, for having joind in Adonijah's Usurpation, was not slain, because his Father Abimelech had been slain by Saul for DAVID's sake, and he had attended David in suffering Times: But SOLOMON suspended him from officiating in the Tabernacle, and sent him to Anatboth, his paternal City; when ZADOK was appointed to officiate alone, as High Priest, 1 Kings ii. 26, 27. Thus the High Priesthood returned, from the Family of ITHAMAR, to that of PHINEAS the Son of ELEAZAR, according to the Word of Jehovah, by young Samuel, to old Eli at Shiloh, 1 Sam. iii. 11, &c.
Old JOAB, then fearing the worst, fled to the Horns of the Altar at Gibeon: But SOLOMON, remembring David's Advice on his Death-Bed, sent Benaiah to kill him, even at the Altar, for having basely murderd two better Generals, ABNER and AMASA, [Tab. 12.] and for joining in Adonijah's Usurpation: And Benaiah was made the General, 1 Kings ii. 28--35.
Shimei, who had so bitterly curs'd and affronted David in his Distress, was by SOLOMON con-find to Jerusalem all his Life, and sworn, on Pain of Death, not to pass over the Brook Kidron; but 3 Years after he transgress'd, and was justly put to Death, 1 Kings ii. 36, &c.

HIRAM, or Huram, King of TYRE, David's old Ally, sent Envoys to congratulate his happy Accession to his Father's Throne; and Solomon sent to HIRAM, to inform him of his Intention of building a stately Temple for JEHOVAH, desiring his Assistance in cutting down the Cedars and Firs of Lebanon; which King Hiram undertook to convey by Sea in Floats, upon Condition that Solomon should supply Hiram's Household yearly with 20000 Measures of Wheat, and 20 Measures of pure Oil: And so these two KINGS made a League together, 1 Kin. v. 1-12.
And now they join'd in a Partnership of Trade to the East Indies, from Ezion Giber on the Red Sea, near Eloth in Idumea; which Trade had been begun there by King David, when he conquer'd the Edomites, and planted a Colony of Israelites in that Coast, about 25 Years before.
Before the Temple was built, People were used to worship and sacrifice to Jehovah on the Tops of Hills, or High Places: Therefore SOLOMON went to worship this Year at Gibeon, the High Place of greatest Dignity, where the Tabernacle of Moses was, and all its Utensils, (except the Ark of the Covenant, which was in Zion) and where he offerd 1000 Burnt-Offerings.
While he staid there, God appeard to him in a Dream by Night, and said, Ask what I shall give thee: But SOLOMON only askd Wisdom, and a good Capacity of Ruling well his great People; therefore God gave him not only what he askd, but likewise what he asked not, even Wealth and Honour above all Kings, with a Promise of long Life also, if he perseverd in God's righteous Ways, 1 Kings iii. 1-14.
Upon his Return to Jerusalem, SOLOMON stood before the Ark of God, and offerd, by the Priests, upon the Altar in Zion, Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings, and made a Feast for all his Servants; during which he had an Occasion of discovering his great Wisdom, by the Decision of the Case of the two Women, contending about the living and the dead Child; whereby all Israel submitted to his Authority, and feared him; for they saw the Wisdom of God in him to do Judgment, 1 Kings iii. 15, &c.

For God gave him exceeding much Wisdom, and Understanding also like the Sand on the Sea-Shore, or the Knowledge of innumerable Things, so that nothing was hid from him: He receivd also an enlarg'd Heart, a Magnanimity or Greatness of Soul fit for so great a Prince, so great a Philosopher; for his Wisdom far excelld that of the Wise Men of the East, and all the Wisdom of Egypt, being the wisest of all mere Men before or since, and had no Rival, being wiser than Ethan, Heman, Chalcol, Darda, and the Sons of Mahol, who were then famous for Wisdom, 1 Kin. iv. 29, &c.
The next great Evidence of his Wisdom was, his chusing ten wise Princes under him in the Administration of Government, and twelve Officers or principal Purveyors of Provisions for the Royal Family, each in his Month throughout the Year; who are mentiond, 1 Kings iv. 1-19.
Now JUDAH and ISRAEL were multiplied as the Sand of the Sea, and dwelt safely, every Man under his Vine or Fig-Tree, from Dan to Beershebah, eating and drinking, and making merry all the Days of SOLOMON's happy Reign, who rul'd over all the Kingdoms round Israel, from Philistia on the West to the Euphrates Eastward, and Northward unto Damascus, and Southward to the River of Egypt and the Red Sea, even all the Lands conquer'd by King DAVID, or by him made tributary to the Crown of Israel, to the full Extent of the Promise made to ABRAHAM, Gen. xv. 18. And indeed those two were the only Kings to whom that Promise was fulfilld, 1 Kin. iv. 24.
Naamah, the Mother of Prince Rehoboam being now dead, SOLOMON married the Daughter of Pharaoh, King of Egypt, and brought her to his Father's Palace in Zion.

Now King HIRAM, who was an excellent Architect, sent many Carpenters and Stone-Cutters to SOLOMON, but above all his ingenious Name-sake HIRAM Abif, the most accomplish'd Master-Mason upon Earth, to contrive, oversee and conduct the Building, and the making of all the costly and curious Utensils and Appurtenances of the Temple, in Conjunction with those two MASON-KINGS, 2 Chron. ii. 13, 14. and 1 Kin. vii. 13, 14.
Then SOLOMON rais'd a Levy of Israelites under Adoniram, to work in the Mountains of Lebanon, with the Sidonians and Tyrians by Turns, even ———— 30000
And Thithabbai, Men of Burden, or Labourers ———— 70000
These Burden-Bearers were of the Remains of the Canaanites, 1 Kin. ix. 20, 21. whereby Solomon observd God's Law, Lev. xxv. 24. Thy Bond-Men shall be of the Heathen! And fulfilld NOAH's Curse upon Canaan, Gen. ix. 25. A Servant of Servants shalt thou be!
And SOLOMON gatherd Masons ———— 80000
Who are call'd Thith-Chotzeb, Men of Hewing, also Chiblim, Stone-Cutters and Sculpturers, and Bonai, Builders in Stone, belonging to both the Royal ARCHITECTS, 1 Kin. v. 13, &c.
And Harodim, Chief Officers or Master-Masons, under the great HIRAM-Abif, 3300: But in 2 Chron. ii. 18. they are call'd Menatzchim, or Overseers and Surveyors, and in Number ———— 3600
Being in all 183600
And SOLOMON having purchas'd large and costly Stones well hewn in abundance, with all other necessary Materials past reckoning, He laid the FOUNDATION-STONE of the Temple, in the Place that DAVID, by God's Direction, had appointed, even ———— even in the Grounds of Ornan the Jebusite, on Mount MORIAH in JERUSALEM, on the 2d Day of the 2d Ecclesiastical Month, Zif, of-- Or on the 21st Day of May of this Year compleat; or in the beginning of the Year—480, after the Exodus of MOSES, according to the express Declaration mentiond 1 Kin. vi. i. which is a fixd Land-Mark in CHRONOLOGY.

And here ends the IVth PERIOD of the Old Testament, viz.

From the Exodus to the } Years exact.
Founding of the TEMPLE } 480

That strong and stately Structure was carried on with Joy and Expedition, but without the Noise of Workmen's Tools, (all Things being prepar'd at a Distance) under the Conduct of Almighty God, who inspir'd King SOLOMON, King HIRAM, and HIRAM Abif, in this glorious Erection; (as he had formerly inspir'd MOSES, Besaleel, and Aholiab, in erecting the Tabernacle) the Description of which is left to the curious Enquirers into Architecture: Only if we consider its Dimensions, from the stately Portico and Entry in the East, to the Sanctum Sanctorum in the West, with all its large and convenient Apartments and Courts, its well wrought and costly Materials, and its prodigious Decorations of Gold and precious Stones, its gorgeous Utenfils also, and all its curious Appurtenances, all done exactly according to GEOMETRY and the nicest ARCHITECTURE, we must conclude, it was the most magnificent and glorious Building since the Creation, the Master Piece and Standard of MASONRY in all after Ages to all Nations, and that nothing has been erected like it in the whole World, and perhaps never will be again.

As for the Charge, besides the vast Sums, and rich Materials past reckoning, that King DAVID and the wealthy Israelites in his Time amass'd for it, his richer Son SOLOMON expended more Wealth upon it, than all Europe at this Day can produce; besides the Contributions of all the noble and wealthy Israelites, and of all the neighbouring Nations, who were either his Tributaries or his Allies; for whom he built in the Temple the large outer Court of the Gentiles, and so made it an House of Prayer for all Nations.

While it was a building, God encourag'd SOLOMON, by sending a Prophet with a kind Message to him, 1 Kin. vi. 11, 12, 13. and at the end of 3 Years, after the Fleet sail'd from Ezion-Geber, it return'd from Ophir, (now call'd Ceylon) and brought home for SOLOMON's Share 120 Talents of Gold, which King Hiram his Partner, and Conductor of the Trade, is said to have deliver'd to SOLOMON, 1 Kin. ix. 14. For we cannot poss that Sum to any other Account. And the Supposition of this first Voyage is confirm'd from 1 Kin. x. 11, 12. and 2 Chron. ix. 11. where it is expressly said, that the Ships brought from Ophir great plenty of Almug or Agum Trees, of which the King made Pillars, or Terraces and Stays, for the House of the Lord: But some Time was requir'd to prepare them, and they must have been us'd during the Building, or before the Temple was finish'd.

This first Success in Trade animat'd SOLOMON to go to Ezion-Geber, and there to order a Fleet of his own to be built, 2 Chron. viii. 17, 18. and was further oblig'd to King Hiram in the Building, the Rigging, the Victualling, the Loading, and the Manning of the Ships; for the Israelites had little foreign Trade till now, but the Tyrrians liv'd by it: Therefore, tho' Solomon's Men were Merchants, Factors and Accountants, the Crew of Sailors and Pilots were Tyrrians, until the Youth of Israel were in time educated Navigators, 1 Kin. ix. 26, 27.

King Hiram built a Navy too, which sail'd along with Solomon's Navy from Ezion-Geber, about a Year after the Return of the first Fleet, or three Years after the Founding of the Temple; which in three Years return'd to Ezion-Geber (for not having the Use of the Compass, as Mariners now have, they only coasted it, which made the Voyage so long) about the end of the 6th Year after the Founding of the Temple, richly loaded from Ophir and Tarshish with 420 Talents of Gold for Solomon, many precious Stones, and plenty of Algum Trees, of which he made Harps and Psalteries for the Singers, and adorn'd the Temple with the precious Stones.

Thus King SOLOMON, having Wealth, Materials, and Workmen in abundance, built and finish'd the glorious TEMPLE of JEHOVAH, both Outside and Inside, with all its costly Utenfils, in the short Time of seven Years and six Months, viz. in the 8th Ecclesiastical Month, Bull, of this Year, 1 Kin. vi. 38. Even 228 Years before the first Olympiad; but above the Olympiads we have no History of Greece, only fabulous wild Stories.

SOLOMON did not forthwith dedicate the Temple, but delay'd it about ten Months, till next Year when the Rubbish was clear'd, the Walls well dry'd, and all Things duely prepar'd for that great Solemnity. And so

This Vth PERIOD of the Old Testament is open'd with the DEDICATION of the TEMPLE.

When,

In the Seventh Ecclesiastical Month, Ethanim, or the First Civil Month of this Year Solomon— assembl'd at Jerusalem the Elders, the Heads of Tribes, and the Chiefs of the Fathers of Israel, in order to celebrate, according to the Law, the Feast of Trumpets, the annual Day of Attonement, and the Feast of Tabernacles, and of the Harvest; and now hence forward the Feast of DEDICATION: Therefore SOLOMON certainly chose the fittest Time; for the Males of Israel were oblig'd by the Law to attend the Altar in the Tabernacle, and the Ark of God in Zion, this Month; and as many Females as pleas'd:

They all came to Jerusalem, and the adjacent

Villages, the latter end of the 6th Month; for on the first Day of the 7th Month (the 23d of October, being Peas-Week-Day of the Civil Year) they observ'd the Feast of Trumpets.

And on the 6 following Days,

The Priests and Levites brought the Tabernacle of MOSES in Pieces, and all the Utenfils, from Gibeon to Jerusalem, and lodg'd most of them in an Apartment of the Treasury of the Temple, where they remain'd while the Temple stood.

But on the 8th Day of Ethanim, the 30th of October, the Feast of the DEDICATION of the Temple began, which lasted 7 Days, except the Interruption of the 10th Day by the Fest of Attonement.

In the Morning of the said 8th Day, the Priests brought the Ark of JEHOVAH, from its Tent in ZION to the TEMPLE, resting it at several short Stations, (as when they brought it from the House of Obed-Edom to Zion, 2 Sam. vi. 13.) where they had occasional Altars of Turf, on which the Priests offer'd Sheep and Oxen without Number, that SOLOMON and the grand Assembly brought, with Musick and great Joy; and at length lodg'd it in its proper Place, in the midst of the ORACLE, or Sanctum Sanctorum, under the Wings of two of the large Cherubim there erected, that reach'd to each other and cover'd the ARK above, or the Ark stood under their Wings, facing the Door of the ORACLE; so that when the Door was open, it might be seen with its Staves a little drawn out.

The ARK contain'd nothing but the Two Stone-Tables of the Moral Law that Moses put in it; only its Lid, call'd the MERCY SEAT, had upon it the same two little Golden Cherubim that Moses made for it, which were now cover'd above by the extended Wings of the large Cherubim, and hence God is said to dwell between the Cherubim; and the Pot of MANNA and Aaron's ROD were lodg'd with the Ark.

The ARK was made in the 2d Year of Exodus.

Was lodg'd in the Tabernacle of MOSES, and carried with it through the Desert during ————— 39 0 19.

Priests, upon the Altar in Zion, Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings, and made a Feast for all his Servants; during which he had an Occasion of discovering his great Wisdom, by the Decision of the Case of the two Women, contending about the living and the dead Child; whereby all Israel submitted to his Authority, and feared him; for they saw the Wisdom of God in him to do Judgment,

1 Kings iii. 15, &c.
For God gave him exceeding much Wisdom, and Understanding also like the Sand on the Sea-Shore, or the Knowledge of innumerable Things, so that nothing was hid from him: He receivd also an enlarg'd Heart, a Magnanimity or Greatness of Soul fit for so great a Prince, so great a Philoosopher; for his Wisdom far excelld that of the Wise Men of the East, and all the Wisdom of Egypt, being the wisest of all mere Men before or since, and had no Rival, being wiser than Ethan, Heman, Chalcol, Darda, and the Sons of Mahol, who were then famous for Wisdom, 1 Kin. iv. 29, &c.
The next great Evidence of his Wisdom was, his chusing ten wise Princes under him in the Administration of Government, and twelve Officers or principal Purveyors of Provisions for the Royal Family, each in his Month throughout the Year;
who are mentiond, 1 Kings iv. 1-19.
Now JUDAH and ISRAEL were multiplied as the Sand of the Sea, and dwelt safely, every Man under his Vine or Fig-Tree, from Dan to Beer-shebah, eating and drinking, and making merry all the Days of SOLOMON's happy Reign, who ruled over all the Kingdoms round Israel, from Philistia on the West to the Euphrates Eastward, and Northward unto Damascus, and Southward to the River of Egypt and the Red Sea, even all the Lands conquer'd by King DAVID, or by him made tributary to the Crown of Israel, to the full Extent of the Promise made to ABRAHAM, Gen.
xv. 18. And indeed those two were the only Kings to whom that Promise was fulfill'd, 1 Kin. iv. 24.
Naamah, the Mother of Prince Rehoboam being now dead, SOLOMON married the Daughter of Pharaoh, King of Egypt, and brought her to his Father's Palace in Zion.

Now King HIRAM, who was an excellent Architect, sent many Carpenters and Stone-Cutters to SOLOMON, but above all his ingenious
Name-sake HIRAM Abif, the most accomplish'd Master-Mason upon Earth, to contrive, oversee and conduct the Building, and the making of all the costly and curious Utenfils and Appurtenances of the Temple, in Conjunction with those two MASON-KINGS, 2 Chron. ii. 13, 14. and 1 Kin.
vii. 13, 14.
Then SOLOMON rais'd a Levy of Israelites under Adoniram, to work in the Mountains of Lebanon, with the Sidonians and Tyrians by Turns, even 30000
And Abishag, Men of Burden, or Labourers 70000
These Burden-Bearers were of the Remains of the Canaanites, 1 Kin. ix. 20, 21.
whereby Solomon observd God's Law, Lev.
xxv. 24. Thy Bond-Men shall be of the Heathen! And fulfilld NOAH's Curse upon Canaan, Gen. ix. 25. A Servant of Servants shalt thou be!
And SOLOMON gatherd Masons 80000
Who are calld Ish-Chotzeb, Men of Hewing, also Chiblim, Stone-Cutters and Scul-pturers, and Bonai, Builders in Stone, belonging to both the Royal ARCHITECTS,
1 Kin. v. 13, &c.
And Parodim, Chief Officers or Master-
Masons, under the great HIRAM-Abif,
3300: But in 2 Chron. ii. 18. they are calld Menatzchim, or Overseers and Surveyors, and in Number 3600
Being in all 183600
And SOLOMON having purchas'd large and costly Stones well hewn in abundance, with all other necessary Materials past reckoning, He laid the FOUNDATION-STONE of the Temple, in the Place that DAVID, by God's Direction, had appointed,

Erodus of MOSES, according to the exprefs
 Declaration mentiond 1 Kin. vi. 1. which is a fixd
Land-Mark in CHRONOLOGY.

And here ends the IVth PERIOD of the Old Testament, viz.

From the Erodus to the } Years past
Founding of the TEMPLE } 480

That strong and stately Structure was carried on with Joy and Expedition, but without the Noise of Workmen's Tools, (all Things being prepar'd at a Distance) under the Conduct of Almighty God, who inspir'd King SOLOMON, King
HIRAM, and HIRAM Abif, in this glorious Erection; (as he had formerly inspir'd MOSES, Se- zaiel, and Aholiab, in erecting the Tabernacle) the Description of which is left to the curious Enquirers into Architecture: Only if we consider its Dimensions, from the stately Portico and Entry in the East, to the Sanctum Sanctorum in the West, with all its large and convenient Apartments and Courts, its well wrought and costly Materials, and its prodigious Decorations of Gold and precious Stones, its gorgeous Utensils also, and all its curious Appurtenances, all done exactly according to GEOMETRY and the nicest ARCHITECTURE, we must conclude, it was the most magnificent and glorious Building since the Creation, the Master Piece and Standard of MASONRY in all after Ages to all Nations, and that nothing has been erected like it in the whole World, and perhaps never will be again.

As for the Charge, besides the vast Sums, and rich Materials past reckoning, that King DAVID and the wealthy Israelites in his Time amass'd for it, his richer Son SOLOMON expended more Wealth upon it, than all Europe at this Day can produce; besides the Contributions of all the noble and wealthy Israelites, and of all the neighbouring Nations, who were either his Tributaries or his Allies; for whom he built in the Temple the large outer Court of the Gentiles, and so made it an House of Prayer for all Nations.

While it was a building, God encourag'd SO- LOMON, by sending a Prophet with a kind Message to him, 1 Kin. vi. 11, 12, 13. and at the end of 3 Years, after the Fleet saild from Ezion-Geber, it return'd from Ophir, (now call'd Ceylon), and brought home for SOLOMON's Share
 120 Talents of Gold, which King Hiram his Partner, and Conductor of the Trade, is said to have deliver'd to SOLOMON, 1 Kin. ix. 14. For we cannot post that Sum to any other Account. And the Supposition of this first Voyage is confirm'd from 1 Kin. x. 11, 12. and 2 Chron. ix. 11. where it is expressly said, that the Ships brought from Ophir great plenty of Almug or Agarum Trees, of which the King made Pillars, or Terraces and Stays, for the House of the Lord: But some Time was requird to prepare them, and they must have been us'd during the Building, or before the Temple was finish'd.

This first Success in Trade animated SOLOMON to go to Ezion-Geber, and there to order a Fleet of his own to be built, 2 Chron. viii. 17, 18. and was further oblig'd to King Hiram in the Building, the Rigging, the Victualling, the Loading, and the Manning of the Ships; for the Israelites had little foreign Trade till now, but the Tyrians liv'd by it: Therefore, tho' Solomon's Men were Merchants, Factors and Accountants, the Crew of Sailors and Pilots were Tyrians, until the Youth of Israel were in time educated Navigators, 1 En.
ix. 26, 27.

King Hiram built a Navy too, which saild along with Solomon's Navy from Ezion-Geber, about a Year after the Return of the first Fleet, or three Years after the Founding of the Temple; which in three Years return'd to Ezion-Geber (for not having the Use of the Compass, as Mariners now have, they only coasted it, which made the Voyage so long) about the end of the 6th Year after the Founding of the Temple, richly loaded from Ophir and Tarshish with 420 Talents of Gold for Solomon, many precious Stones, and plenty of Al- gum Trees, of which he made Harps and Psalteries for the Singers, and adorn'd the Temple with the precious Stones.

Thus King SOLOMON, having Wealth, Materials, and Workmen in abundance, built and fi-nish'd the glorious TEMPLE of J E H O V A H, both Outside and Inside, with all its costly Uten- sils, in the short Time of seven Years and six Months,
 viz. in the 8th Ecclesiastical Month, Bull, of this Year,
 1 Kin. vi. 38. —————
 Even 228 Years before the first Olympiad; but above the Olympiads we have no History of Greece, only fabulous wild Stories.

SOLOMON did not forthwith dedicate the Temple, but delay'd it about ten Months, till next Year when the Rubbish was clear'd, the Walls well dry'd, and all Things duely prepar'd for that great Solemnity. And so

This Vth PERIOD of the Old Testament is open'd with the DEDICATION of the TEMPLE.

When,

In the Seventh Ecclesiastical Month, Ethanim, or the First Civil Month of this Year Solomon ————— assembl'd at Jerusalem the Elders, the Heads of Tribes, and the Chiefs of the Fathers of Israel, in order to celebrate, according to the Law, the Feast of Trumpets, the annual Day of Atonement, and the Feast of Tabernacles, and of the Harvest; and now hence forward the Feast of DEDICATION:
 Therefore SOLOMON certainly chose the fittest
 Time; for the Males of Israel were oblig'd by the Law to attend the Altar in the Tabernacle, and the Ark of God in Zion, this Month; and as many Females as pleas'd.

They all came to Jerusalem, and the adjacent Villages, the latter end of the 6th Month; for on the first Day of the 7th Month (the 23d of October, being Pentecost-Day of the Civil Year) they observ'd the Feast of Trumpets.

And on the 6 following Days,

The Priests and Levites brought the Tabernacle of MOSES in Pieces, and all the Utensils, from Gibeon to Jerusalem, and lodg'd most of them in an Apartment of the Treasury of the Temple, where they remain'd while the Temple stood.

But on the 8th Day of Ethanim, the 30th of October, the Feast of the DEDICATION of the Temple began, which lasted 7 Days, except the Interruption of the 10th Day by the Fest of Atonement.

In the Morning of the said 8th Day, the Priests brought the Ark of J E H O V A H, from its Tent in ZION to the TEMPLE, resting it at several short Stations, (as when they brought it from the House of Obed-Edom to Zion, 2 Sam. vi. 13.) where they had occasional Altars of Turf, on which the Priests offer'd Sheep and Oxen without Number, that SOLOMON and the grand Assembly brought, with Musick and great Joy; and at length lodg'd it in its proper Place, in the midst of the ORA- CLE, or Sanctum Sanctorum, under the Wings of two of the large Cherubim there erected, that reach'd to each other and cover'd the ARK above, or the Ark stood under their Wings, facing the Door of the ORACLE; so that when the Door was open, it might be seen with its Staves a little drawn out.

The ARK contain'd nothing but the Two Stone-
Tables of the Moral Law that Moses put in it; only its Lid, call'd the MERCY SEAT, had upon it the same two little Golden Cherubim that Moses made for it, which were now cover'd above by the extended Wings of the large Cherubim, and hence God is said to dwell between the Cherubim; and the Pot of MANNA and Aaron's Rod were lodg'd with the Ark.

The ARK was made in the 2d Year of Erodus.

Was lodg'd in the Tabernacle of MOSES, and carried with it through the Desert

Let thy PRIESTS be clothed with Salvation, and let thy SAINTS rejoice in Goodness, 2 Chron. vi. 41. And, rising from his Knees, he gave a short Exhortation to the People, to keep their Hearts perfect with Jehovah their God, to walk in his Ways, and to keep his Commandments as at this Day, 1 Kin. viii. 61. | Evidence of God's Presence, viz. the HOLY FIRE and CLOUD of GLORY, the People fell prostrate on the Pavement, worshipping and praising JEHOVAH, For that he is good, and his Mercy endureth for ever, 2 Chron. vii. 1, 2, 3.   | The 10th Day of Ethanim, or 1st of November, was observed as a Fast Day, it being the Day of Annual Attonement, when, by the Law of Moses, they were to afflict their Souls, and abstain from all Work, as on a Sabbath Day; and when ZADOK the High Priest carried the Blood of Attonement the first time into the Oracle before the Ark and Mercy Seat; which was a Statute never to be suspended or dispensed with, Liv. xxiii. 27, &c. |

God also then renewed his Covenant made with David, promising to establish the Throne of Solomon, and that of his Offspring over Israel for ever, upon the Condition of Solomon's persevering in the Religion of David; and threatening, that upon the Disobedience and Idolatry of Solomon's Royal Offspring, Jehovah would extirpate Israel, demolish this Temple, and make them and it a Proverb among all Nations, and an Astonishment among all Travellers, who will readily conceive the procuring Cause, even Wickedness and Idolatry, 2 Chron. vii. 12, &c. | Viz.   |

As for the Cloud of Glory or Schekinah, that filld the Inner House, after the first Day, it was contracted within the Oracle, and abode upon the Merop-Seat only.

And when the Multitude of those Sacrifices were offerd, the Priests would, no doubt, take the Holy Fire from the Altar of Moses, and the other Places, and lodge it with the Rest of the Holy Fire on the great Altar, where it was daily fed and preservd till that Temple was destroyd; after which the Jews had no more Schekinah, nor Holy Fire, nor Ark, nor Urim and Thummim, on their Hign Priest's Breast, nor any of the Holy Relicks of Moses.

The 11th, 12th, 13th, and 14th Days of Eibanim, or the 2d, 3d, 4th, and 5th Days of November, were the other Four Days of the Feast of Dedication, when the rest of the Sacrifices were offerd, and all Israel feasted at Jerusalem, from Hamath to the River of Egypt; a great Congregation, besides Profelytes and Strangers also in Abundance, that from all foreign Parts would readily attend the Solemnity, and no doubt would worship and praise Jehovah in the Court of the Gentiles, which was their Priviledge, as they ownd Jehovah to be the Supreme God.

On the 15th of Eibanim, or 6th of November, the Feast of Tabernacles began, with another solemn Assembly (as on the 8th Day) according to the Law of Moses; which Feast lasted seven Days, Lev. xxiii. 34, &c. 2 Chron. vii. 9. during which they offerd great Sacrifices: But

The 8th Day, the 22d of Eibanim, or 13th of November, was observd as a Sabbath by the solemn Assembly, an Holy Convocation, as prescribd Lev. xxiii. 36. In the Evening of which, or in the beginning of the 23d Day of Eibanim, (reckoning the Day from Evening) or 14th of November, even after the Sabbath was over, Solomon dismissd the People, who, on the said Day, blest the King, and went home to their respective Cities and Countries, full of Joy and Gladness, for all the Goodness that Jehovah had done for David his Servant, and for Israel his People, 1 Kin. viii. 65, 66. 1 Chron. vii. 8, &c.

This is the great Improvement of the Mosaic Dispensation, begun by David, and now perfected by Solomon, who, by the Ministration of the Priests, offerd Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings upon Jehovah's Great Altar, and burnt Incense upon his Altar of Incense, in a solemn Manner three Times in the Year, viz. at the three High Festivals, of the Paschover, of the Pentecost, and of the Tabernacles; besides what he offerd at other Times stately and occasionally, before he forsook Jehovah, and also after he repented, 1 Kin. ix. 25. compar'd with 2 Chron. viii. 12, 13. And the Priests and Levites attended their several Offices, according to the Law of Moses, and the Appointment of King David a little before his Death, 2 Chron. vii. 6. compar'd with 1 Chron. xv. 4-24.

Mean while Solomon, about six Months before the Temple was finishd, or at the end of seven Years after it was founded, began to build in Jerusalem,

1. His Two Royal Palaces for himself and his Queen, with convenient Courts, fine Portico's, and lofty Columns of the most curious Orders; and in the Portico of Judgment he erected his Throne, made of the best Ivory, all inlaid and flowerd with Gold, with a round Canopy: The Seat or Chair of State had well wrought Stays or Arms, and a Golden Footstool, adjoining to which were two Golden Lyons, and between them the King sat; unto which Chair he ascended by six Steps, adorn'd (instead of Rails) with six Golden Lyons on one side of the Steps, and six Golden Lyons on the other side.

2. He built Stilts or the Hope's Exchange, (a Place where the People met to consult about the Publick, or to transact Business) by filling up a great Gulph between Mount Zion and Mount Moriah, with curious Arches, upon which Piazas were erected, with stately Columns on both sides: and between them run the Highway from Zion to the Temple.

3. He rebuilt the Wall of Jerusalem, more strong and commodious than David's Wall; for he had more Wealth and Skill in Masonry.

4. He built many Store Houses throughout Israel West of the Jordan, 1 Kin. ix. 19. or Mazazines, where he lodgd all sorts of Stores, especially Provisions for his Family, his Retinue, and his Horses; in order to prevent a Scarcity and Dearth, and to have all Things in due Season, brought by his 12 chief Officers, his Purveyors, each in his Month; whereby Solomon kept a plentiful Table, spending every Day 30 Measures of fine Flower, 60 Measures of Meal, 30 Oxen, 100 Sheep, besides Harts, Roe-Bucks, Fallow-Deer, and fatted Fowl; Barley also, and Straw for the Beasts, 1 Kin. iv.

5. He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon, mostly of Cedars, 100 Cubits long, 50 Cubits broad, and 30 Cubits high, upon 4 Rows of Cedar-Pillars; the stately Tower of which lookd towards the Road that leads to Damascus, Cant. vii. 4. This was Solomon's Summer-House, whether he retir'd from the Heat of Business, to be agreeably amusd in that famous Forest; and this Palace on the North side of his Kingdom was well fortifyd, and made an Arsenal; for there he lodgd his 200 Targets of beaten Gold, each weighing 600 Shekles, and his 300 Shields of beaten Gold, each weighing 300 Shekles.

6. He built several Cities for his 1400 Chariots, his Charioteers, Horses, and Horsemen; several of which lay between Jerusalem and Lebanon, at convenient Stages for expeditious Travelling, and in other Stages to other Borders of Israel round about: For he had 40000 strong Horses, for Carriage and hard Labour, in 4000 Stables, or 10 Horses in each Stable; besides Dromedaries, Asses, Camels, &c. and 12000 fine Horses from Egypt for his Favourites, Attendants and Guards, 1 Kin. iv. 26. compar'd with 1 Kin. x. 26, &c. and 2 Chron. ix. 25.

7. He built Gezer in the Tribe of Ephraim, a City of the Canaanites not conquerd, till Pharaoh King of Egypt got Leave from Solomon to send an Army to take it in; which he did, and made a Present of it to his Daughter Solomon's Queen, 1 Kin. ix. 16. and Solomon rebuilt and fortifyd it.

8. He built Hazor in Nashtai, a strong City.

9. And Magiddo, a City of Manasseh bordering on Issachar, now taken from the Canaanites, that had not been expell'd before, he rebuilt and fortifyd it.

10. Bethhoron the Upper } Both on the Borders
11. Bethhoron the Nether } between Ephraim and Benjamin, he made fenced Cities, with Walls, Gates and Bars.

12. Also Baalath in the Tribe of Dan, near Philistia, he made a regular and fortifyd City.

King Solomon made one warlike Expedition, 2 Chron. viii. 3, 4. even to Hamath-Zobah, (a Country East of Gilead, and South of Syria, near the Euphrates, which David had not conquerd; for its King was David's Ally against Hadad-Ezer, see Tab. 12.) and he prevaild against it, most likely by the ready Submission of the Prince and People, who were now made Tributaries, and so could not hinder Solomon from Building.

13. Tadmor, call'd by the Greeks Palmyra, a City and famous Place in the Desert, the Entry of Hamath-Zobah; the Remains of which are seen by Travellers to this Day.

14. He built also several Stone-Cities well fortifyd on those Confines, for the good of Israel East of the Jordan.

For the Overseeing of these many and distant Erections, Solomon imployd, besides the Master-Masons, 550 chief Officers over the People and Workmen, 1 Kin. ix. 23. who are said to be only 250 in 2 Chron. viii. 10. because the said 250 might be said to be Overseers East of the Jordan, while the other 300 officiated West of the Jordan, and in the Forest of Lebanon.

But all these Erections were not so soon made as the Temple; for, 1 Kin. vii. 12. Solomon spent 13 Years in building them; nor is that a long Time, considering their Nicety and Number: For when the Temple was finishd, Solomon dispersd those 183600 Men imployd about it, into those other Parts of his Kingdom, for carrying on those other Buildings; and all of 'em might be finishd at the end of the said 13 Years, he not wanting Skill, nor Money, nor Materials, nor good Hands, to carry on the grand Design of Architecture throughout all his Dominions at pleasure.

Yet his Masonry made not Solomon neglect his Navigation; for mean while, after three Years, his Fleet returnd from the East Indies richly loaded, with 450 Talents of Gold, and many

This was the third Return of Trade, which now seems to have been regulated and established by Solomon, whose Fleet returned from several Parts of India, every third Year henceforward, and brought home 666 Talents of Gold, 2 Céron. ix. 13. besides precious Stones, vast Quantities of Silver and Ivory, with Apes and Peacocks, and many other things that were curious and rare in the Land of Israel, 1 Kings x. 22. which Trade continued in the Hands of the Kings of Judah till the Days of King Ahaz.

Thus King Solomon excell'd all the contemporary Kings of the Earth in Wealth and Power, as well as in Wisdom and Learning ; for besides what he receiv'd from the Israelites, and from his tributary Countries, and his immense Wealth got by Navigation, he earn'd great Riches by an Inland Trade from Chapmen and Merchants, who dealt in his Goods, and sent them into Egypt, and throughout all Arabia, also to the Nations East of the Euphrates, and thro' Syria into the Northern Nations ; whereby the Land of Israel, with Tyre and Sidon in the Neighbourhood, became the Centre of Trade.

When SOLOMON had built his Palaces, he rewarded HIRAM King of Tyre, by giving him 20 Cities in the Land of Galilee; but when Hiram went with Solomon to view them, he did not like them, and call'd it the Land of Cabul, or the dirty, distreſsing Land: Wherefore Solomon no doubt gave him an Equivalent, most likely in the Way of Trade and Navigation, which was more agreeable to the Tyrians, and having expell'd the Canaanites, who dwelt there before this Time, Solomon rebuilt those 20 Cities of Galilee, and plant-ed Colonies of the Israelites in that Land.

But when his Palaces were built, and he had brought his Quern to her new Palace, and he was exalted in his full Meridian Glory, All the Kings brought every Man his Present, Vessels of Silver and of Gold, with Raiment, Harness and Spices, Horses and Mules, a Rate Year by Year; as if they had been his Tributaries, 2 Chron. ix. 23, 24.

But especially the Queen of SHEBAH in South Arabia, near the Indian Sea, hearing, by Merchants, Travellers, or Navigators, of SOLOMON'S
Glory and most excellent Wisdom, and of his Fame concerning the Name of JEHOVAH, came to Jerusa- lem with a large Retinue, with Camels that bore the finest Spices, and very much Gold, and precious Stones.

She was a Woman eminent for Wisdom, and came to prove SOLOMON with hard Questions, and commund with him of all that was in her Heart. But she was not able to puzzle him; for he answerd all her Questions, until she could ask no more, to her intire Satisfaction and Amazement.

But when she had sufficiently provd his Wisdom and vast Knowledge, had considerd his 3000 Proverbs, and 1005 Songs, his Philosophical Writings also of Beasts, Fowls, Reptiles and Fishes, and of Trees and Plants, from the great Cedars of Lebanon to the Hyssop on the Wall : When she had surveyd his glorious Ascent to the Temple, and the Inside of it, as far as was lawful for a Stranger, and had been gorgeously entertaind in his several Palaces ; had beheld the Æconomy of his Household, the Meat of his Table, the Order and Attendance of his Servants and Ministers of State, his Cup-Bearers and their fine Apparel, his many stately Edifices and strong Cities, and all his Works, and all his Glory, there was no more Spirit in her : And she said to the King, It was a true Report that I heard of thee in my own Land, of thy Acts and of thy Wisdom ! Howbeit, I believed not the Words, until I came and mine Eyes had seen ; and behold the Half was not told me ! for thy Wisdom and Prosperity exceedeth the Fame which I heard : Happy are thy Men, happy are these thy Servants, who stand continually before thee and hear thy Wisdom ! Blessed be J E H O V A H thy God, who de- made be thee King to do Judgment and Justice. By which, it seems, she was a Profelyte of the Gate at least.

The Queen made a Present to SOLOMON of 120 Talents of Gold, and greater Store of fine Spices, than ever was before or since in Jerusalem, beside precious Stones: And when he had made her a Present according to his Royal Bounty, and had given her all her Desire whatsoever she askd, she returnd with her Retinue to Shebah.

But SOLOMON lov'd many strange Women besides his Queen, even the Women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians and Hittites, and he clave unto these in Love, contrary to the Law, Exod. xxxiv. 16. of which he had 700 Wives, and 300 Concubines; and his Wives turn'd away his Heart from God, and from the true Religion, which he had solemnly ownd; for they became his chief Counsellors, and influenced him to neglect his Duty every where, especially in the Temple which he had built for J E H O V A H, the God of Israel; nay, even at last to forsake that Holy Temple, and to build a Temple and an Altar for Chemosh, the abominable Idol of Moab; and another for Molech, the horrid God of Ammon; and another for Ashoreth, the lascivious Goddess of the Zidonians, on the Hills adjoining to Jerusalem; and in other Places he erected Temples and Altars for all the strange Gods of his strange Women, at their Desire and Pleasure: Nor did he stop there, but was so wickedly complaisant, as to attend his Wives to those Temples, and to burn Incense and offer Sacrifices to their strange Gods in his old Age.

for all his Faults never departed from the true Religion) and because his Heart was turn'd from Yehovah the God of Israel, who had appear'd unto him twice, and had blest him above all Mankind with Wisdom, Glory and Wealth, and had expressly warn'd and charg'd him against Idolatry: Wherefore God sent a Prophet to say to Solomon, For as much as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my Covenants and Statutes, I will surely rend the Kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy Servant; tho' not in thy Days, for DAVID thy Father's sake; but I will rend it out of the Hand of thy Son: Howbeit, I will not rend away all the Kingdom, but will give one Tribe to thy Son for David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen. But this did not reclaim him.

J E H O V A H, being thus justly provok'd, rais'd up an Adversary against SOLOMON, Hadad a Prince of Edom, who fled a Youth into Egypt when David conquer'd Edom, and Joab destroy'd the Males of the Edomites. Pbaraob handsomly provided for him, and gave him his own Queen's Sister for a Wife, who bore to him Genubab his Son, that was educated among Pbaraob's Sons. And when Hadad heard that David and Joab were dead, he return'd to his own Country, and gather'd some Remains of the Edomites, became their Captain, and, they revolting from Solomon, in time reviv'd and multiply'd, and made Hadad their King, who did great Mischief to Israel in the latter Days of Solomon; tho' their Kingdom was but small, and they were again made tributary by SOLOMON's Successors.

God also raisd up Rezon the Son of Eliadab, who fled from his Lord Hadad-Ezer, [Tab. 13.] and gatherd a Band of Men, became their Captain, and settling at Damascus, erected there a new Kingdom, who became an Adversary to Israel all the latter Days of Solomon, and reignd without controul over Syria. Thus by the Syrians before, and the Edomites behind, and the strange Women, SOLOMON's Glory was much impaird.

And Solomon not yet repenting, God sent the Prophet AHIJAH the Sbilonite to JEROBOAM an Ephraimite, the Son of Nebat, whose Mother was Zerzab a Widow-Woman, (whereby some think he was a Saffard) who being very industrious and valiant, the King advanced the young Man to be Ruler over all the Charge of the House of Joſeph: And the Prophet, meeting Jeroboam new cloathd alone in a Field, tore the new Garment in 12 Pieces, and ſaid to Jeroboam, Take thee ten Pieces, for thus ſaith Jehovah the God of Iſrael, behold I will rend the Kingdom from Solomon, and give thee ten Tribes, &c. Promiſing, that if Jeroboam ſhould keep God's Statutes, God would make him a ſure Houſe; and that God would afflict the Seed of David, but not for ever!

But when SOLOMON heard of this Prophecy, and that Jeroboam deſign'd to accompliſh it, he ſought to ſlay him; which forc'd Jeroboam to fly to Egypt unto King Shiſhak, where he remain'd until the Death of Solomon:

Now, according to the Egyptian Chronology, this ſame Shiſhak, call'd alſo Seſonchis, aſcended the Throne of Egypt in this very Year; and we may juſtly ſuppoſe, that Jeroboam then run his Country about three Years before SOLOMON's Death.

At length after Solomon had left God, and had join'd himſelf to ſtrange Women about 14 Years, and had worſhip'd ſtrange Gods about 7 Years, he came to himſelf, and repented of his miſchievous Madneſs, the ſame Year that Jeroboam fled to Egypt.

That he repented appears, from ſome Chapters of his Book of Proverbs, and from his Book of Eccleſiaſtes, which is a laſting Monument of his Repentance: For, after a full Survey, he there pronounceth All things to be Vanities and Vexation of Spirit! except the Fear of God, and the Keeping of his Commandments, which he declares to be the Whole Duty of Man, and his chief Intereſt. Beſides, it is ſaid, 2 Cbron. xi. 17. That Reboboam's People walk'd 3 Years in the Ways of David and Solomon; where the Way of Solomon is made parallel to that of David, as a Pattern of Goodneſs; whence we may well conclude, that Solomon was no more finally abandon'd of God than David, but was alſo renew'd by Repentance. Only God has not order'd the ſacred Writers ſo expreſſly to mention his Reformation, nor how long before his Death, as a Punishment on his Memory, for having ſo wretchedly departed from God, and the true Religion: Juſt as Father Adam's Repentance is not expreſſly recorded, tho' plainly concluded from the brief Hints of Mofes.

And ſo SOLOMON having abandon'd ſtrange Women and ſtrange Gods, about 3 Years before his Death, like a true Penitent, return'd to the true inſtituted Worſhip of the true God, to frequent his Temple in due manner, as before his Deſection; and, as the great Preacher of his Time, to exhort all People to fear God, and keep his Commandments, (which is the Whole Duty of Man) and to avoid the Snares of wicked Women, from his own woful Experience.

But it don't appear that SOLOMON ever did recover his former Glorie, or made any great Reformation in his Kingdom, that had been generally corrupted by his bad Example and malign Influence; for God did not honour him ſo far, tho' his Sins were pardon'd by the Merits of the promiſ'd MESSIAH, of whom SOLOMON was an eminent Type.

And ſo, after living in the Fear of God during the Remains of his Life and Reign, he ſlept with his Fathers, and was honourably buried with DAVID in the Royal Sepulchre of Zion Caſtle. And tho' he had many Wives and Concubines, he left no Son upon Record but Reboboam, his eldeſt, born to him by Naamah a noble Ammoniteſs. Thus

SAUL reign'd — 40 }
DAVID reign'd — 40 } In all 120:
SOLOMON reign'd 40 }

At the end of which SOLOMON died, and the Partition of the Tribes commenced, (as in the following Table.) viz.

Years.
After NOAH's Flood — 1373:
After the Exodus of MOSES — 516:

We cannot ſafely recount from Heathen Authors the PRINCES that were contemporary with SOLOMON, nor the Tranſactions of other Nations in his Time; for we have no Heathen Hiſtorian ſo ancient by ſome Hundred Years: And the Accounts that the Gentiles have tranſmitted, before the three famous Chronological Eras, (viz. That of the Olympiads, That of Rome built, and That of Nabonazar;) are either fabulous or uncertain; for without Chronology all Hiſtory is uncertain:

But SOLOMON died before the { First Olympiad . . . . . 199 }
  { Founding of Rome . . . . . 227 } Years.
  { Aſtronomical Era of NABONAZAR 228 }

But from theſe and the following Tables we may conclude, that the moſt illuſtrious Time of the XII Tribes of Iſrael was from the Death of King Iſhbobaſeth to the Death of King Solomon during 73 Years; but eſpecially while SOLOMON reign'd in all his orient and meridian Glory, before his Apoſtacy about 24 Years: For afterwards the Glory of both the Kingdoms, of Iſrael and Judah together, came far ſhort of the Glory of SOLOMON's Reign.

T A B L E XIV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the KINGS of Israel and Judah, from the Partition at SOLOMON'S Death to the Death of King ASA.

Upon SOLOMON'S Death his Son REHOBOAM, aged 41, went to Shechem, where all Israel (with JEROBOAM at their Head, now returned from Exile, see Tab. 13.) appointed to meet him, and to crown him upon certain Conditions or Concessions; for they said, Thy Father made our Yoke grievous, but make thou it lighter, and we will serve thee! Rehoboam, delaying his Answer for three Days, advis'd first with the old Men that had been Solomon's privy Counsellors, who said, If thou wilt be a Servant to this People at this Juncture, and speak good Words to them, then they will be thy Servants for ever! But he neglected this good Counsel, and following the Advice of the young Men, his Contemporaries and flattering Favourites, he answer'd the People roughly on the third Day, saying, My little Finger shall be thicker than my Father's Loins! My Father made your Yoke heavy, and I will add to it! My Father chastisd you with Whips, but I will chastise you with Scorpions! Upon which most impolitic Answer, the People reply'd aloud with one Voice, What Portion have we in David, or Inheritance in the Son of Jesse! To your Tents, Oh Israel! Now see to thine House, David. So Israel departed firmly resolv'd to revolt from Rehoboam, in order to have their Rights and Privileges, their Properties and ancient Freedom, restor'd and secur'd.

Rehoboam sent Aderam his chief Treasurer to reclaim them; but, to shew their Firmness, they stoned the Treasurer to death: And so Rehoboam, not liking his present Situation, and justly fearing their fierce Resentments, made speed to mount his Chariot, and fled fast home to Jerusalem.

Then the Elders of Ten Tribes assembled a great Congregation at Shechem, to which they invited JEROBOAM, and there they crown'd him King, by the general Voice of the People, according to God's Prediction by the Prophet Ahijah, Tab. 13. And so the Partition of the Tribes was made, from which commence the 390 Years of Ezekiel, Chap. iv.

The Kingdom of JUDAH.

Consisted of the Tribes of Judah and Benjamin, who adher'd to REHOBOAM, and of the little Tribes of Simeon and Dan, who were under the Protection of Judah.

KINGS of JUDAH.

I. King REHOBOAM, when returned to Jerusalem, rais'd an Army of 180000 Men, to reduce the Ten Tribes by War; but God interpos'd by Semaiah the Prophet, signifying, that he had made a Partition of the Tribes, and forbidding the Jews to levy War against their Brethren of Israel upon that account; and so they disbanded: Yet, notwithstanding, there was continual War between the two Kingdoms, during the Lives of both those Kings.

REHOBOAM reigned 17 Years current, and began this first Year to establish his Kingdom, and build fifteen Cities of Defence, viz. Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, Bethzur, Soco, Adullam, Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, Adram, Lachish, Azekah, Zorah, Ajalon and Hebron; some of 'em in the heart of his Kingdom for preventing Rebellions, and others in the Frontiers to stop the Motions of Invaders. He fortify'd also the strong Holds, and fill'd them with military Men and good store of Provisions; and in every City he put Shields and Spears, and made them exceeding strong; and so dwelt safely at Jerusalem, and his Kingdom was better fortify'd, tho' not so large in Extent of Ground as that of Israel; nay, it was also better peopled.

For all the Priests and Levites, that were banish'd by Jeroboam, came and settled in Rehoboam's Kingdom; and after them, out of all the Tribes of Israel, they that set their Hearts to seek the Lord God of Israel came to Jerusalem to worship their Father's God, and many of 'em settled in this Kingdom, and strengthened it.

But tho' these things took up at least three Years, they are all assign'd by Chronologers to this first Year; because they were then begun.

During the first three Years of his Reign, REHOBOAM well maintain'd the true Religion, but after once he thought his Kingdom strengthen'd and establish'd, he and most of his Subjects forsook the Law of Moses, and erected also High-Places, and set up Images in Groves on every high Hill, and under every green Tree; nay, they were guilty of Sodomy, and of all the Abominations of the old Canaanites, sinning more heinously than their Fathers.

The Kingdom of ISRAEL.

Consisted of the other Ten Tribes, viz. 1. Ephraim. 2. Manasseh Half. 3. Reuben. 4. Manasseh other Half. 5. Gad. 6. Issachar. 7. Zebulon. 8. Asher. 9. Naphtali. 10. Dan in the North, or the Danites that settled at Lais in the Time of the Anarchy, Tab. 8.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

I. King JEROBOAM, the Son of Nebat, reigned 22 Years current, and this first Year he began to rebuild Shechem, and Tizzab in Ephraim, and Penuel in Gad. But being afraid, that if the People frequented the Temple of Jerusalem, they might be decoy'd to the House of David, and influenced to slay him, he thought it necessary, for his Safety and Settlement, to institute a new Ceremonial and Form of Religion; and so he erected his 2 great Golden Calves, the one at DAN in the North, that had been long famous for Micah's Images; [Tab. 8.] and the other in the South at BETHEL, or the House of God, so call'd by Father Jacob: And JEROBOAM smoothly told the People, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; Behold thy Gods, Oh Israel, which brought thee out of the Land of Egypt! Just as the Israelites said when they got Aaron to erect their first Golden Calf, Exod. xxxii. 4. which now they comply'd with the more readily for that the Heads of Tribes were inrag'd at REHOBOAM, and that JEROBOAM pretended not to worship strange Gods, but the true God under the Similitude of a Golden Calf, the Idol of Egypt; which yet was contrary to the express Letter of the second Command, and an open Contempt of God's Wrath, xxxii. 34. an Introduction to the Polytheism of the Heathen, and for which the Israelites were smartly punish'd: For as they were never reform'd, this was ever laid to their Charge, until they were extirpated. In consequence

He made an House of High-Places or Altars, or many Altars in one House, contrary to God's Institution; and many Temples, not only at Dan and Bethel, but likewise in the Cities of Samarita, in order to make Religion as easy as possible. He appointed a Feast of Tabernacles, not on the 15th of the 7th Month, as in God's Law, but on the 15th Day of the 8th Month, as he had devis'd in his own Heart. As for the Passover and Pentecost, either he neglected them, or observ'd them the same Time with the Jews. He also expell'd the Priests and Levites, for dissenting from his new Form of Religion, and made Priests of the lowest of the People of any Tribe that offer'd themselves; and further erected his assum'd Prerogative in Ecclesiastical Affairs.

Therefore God raised up against REHOBOAM Shishak King of Egypt, who with 1200 Chariots, 60000 Horsemen, and People without Number; with his Auxiliaries the Lubims, the Sukkims, and the Ethiopians, came and took the fenced Cities of Judah, and laid Siege to Jerusalem. Upon which REHOBOAM and his Daughters, having humbled themselves and reformed, God sent the Prophet Shemaiah to assure them, that he would not destroy Jerusalem, nor overturn the Kingdom, only that they should become Servants to Shishak for a time; to let them see the Difference between that and God's Service. So they were obliged to surrender Jerusalem to Shishak, who plundered the Temple and Palace Royal of all their Treasures, and carried off Solomon's Golden Shields into Egypt, which REHOBOAM supplied with Shields of Brass.

After this, Things went well in Judah, tho' not so well as in the first three Years, because the King prepared not his Heart to seek the Lord, tho' he reigned 12 Years more, in all 17 Years: And when he died, aged 58, he was buried in the City of David. And was succeeded by

II. ABIJAH his Son, or Abijam, whose reign is also reckoned to commence from the beginning of the 18th Year of Jeroboam, and reigned 3 Years. He brought into the Field an Army of 400000 Men against Jeroboam, whose Army was 800000. They met at Zemaraim in Mount Ephraim, where ABIJAH, after a serious Rehearsal of Jeroboam's Rebellion and Apostasy, exhorted the Men of Israel to return to their Allegiance to God, and the House of David, tho' in vain; for Jeroboam, confiding in his Numbers, made an ambush mean while, and surrounded ABIJAH's Army. But ABIJAH and his People first pray'd to Jehovah, then shouted for the Battle, bravely attack'd the Enemy, gave Jeroboam a total Rout, and slew 500000 Israelites, the greatest Slaughter mention'd in Story; nay, he hunted Jeroboam, and pursued his Victory, by taking the Cities of Bethel, Jeshanah and Ephraim, with their Towns. This King is said, in 1 Kim. xv. to have walked in all the Sins of his Father, and that his Heart was not upright with God, but, in 2 Chron. xiii. that is not laid to his Charge, and therefore we may suppose he was reformed in the second Year of his Reign; and because he maintain'd the true Religion in its full Decorum, his Reign, tho' short, being only 3 Years current, was very glorious, and he was buried with his Fathers in the City of David; left a numerous Offspring, and many wise Sayings, 2 Chron. xiii. 21, 22.

III. ASA, the Son of Abijah, began to reign in the 20th Year of Jeroboam, and reigned 41 Years. He began well, and follow'd the laudable Example of King David; for which God bless'd him with ten Years Peace without Interruption.

His Reign was open'd with the Xth Great Year of Jubilee.

ASA, during his ten Years Peace, made a great Reformation, destroy'd in his Kingdom the Altars of the strange Gods, and many High Places, brake down the Images, and cut down the Groves; nay, he exercis'd his Authority in obliging his Subjects to seek the Lord God of their Fathers, and to keep his Law. Also he fortify'd his Kingdom with fenced Cities, that had Walls, Towers, Gates and Bars, and prosper'd in his Architecture: Nay, tho' he liv'd now in Peace, he wisely provided against a Storm, by training up in the Military 300000 Jews that bore Targets by executing the Priest's Office with his own Hands, as the High Priest himself.

While he was dedicating his Altar at Bethel, by burning Incense on it, God sent a certain Prophet from Judah to reprove his Idolatry, and to reclaim him; who, with a loud Voice before the King and the grand Assembly, prophesied of King JOSHUA's defiling and demolishing that Altar, (tho' after 350 Years) and confirm'd his Prophecy by three Miracles; first by the altar's being rent, and the Ashes pour'd out; next by the Withering of JEROBOAM's Hand, when beckoning to seize the Prophet; and then by the King's Hand being restord by the Prophet's Prayer for him. The whole Story is in 1 Kim. xiii. and the Accomplishment of the Prophecy in 2 Kim. xxiii. Yet JEROBOAM was not reformed, but continued an obstinate Apostate and Idolater, repairing his rent Altar, and worshipping his Golden Calf, still fearing that the Kingdom should return to the House of David.

But all those Buildings and Innovations in Religion, being design'd and begun in the first Year of his Reign, tho' they could not be perfected so soon, are usually by Chronologers assign'd to this first Year: Only some think, that the Prophecy concerning Josiah was in the second Year of JEROBOAM, which interrupts not our Chronology.

JEROBOAM, not being able alone to ruin Rehoboam, no doubt, instigated his old Friend Shishak, King of Egypt, to invade Judah, (as in the other Column) and rejoiced in his Conquests; or we read not that Shishak offer'd to invade Israel, but return'd with the Spoils of Judah to Egypt.

When his Son Abijah fell sick, he sent his Queen in Disguise to the Prophet Abijah in Shiloh, (who had at the first foretold his Advancement, Tab. 13.) to know whether the Youth should live or die? But the Prophet, warn'd of God, not only told her who she was, even the Wife of JEROBOAM, but also that her Son should die, and that of all the Family he only should be honourably buried, for that in him some Goodness was found; but that all the rest of the Family should be cut off, and not be buried, but eaten by Dogs and ravenous Creatures, because of JEROBOAM's Ingratitude, Unbelief and grand Apostacy: Nay, that for his Sin, and for making Israel to sin with him, God would extirpate that Kingdom, and scatter them beyond the Euphrates, 1 Kings xiv. 1-18.

JEROBOAM, perceiving Abijah, King of Judah, to be a warlike Prince, did also prepare for War, and levied 800000 Men to defend his Kingdom: But he never prosper'd after the Death of Rehoboam; for Abijah gave him a total Rout, as in the other Column.

JEROBOAM never retriev'd his Honour and Grandeur after the great Battel of Zemaraim, (as in the other Column) nor ever recover'd the Cities that Abijah took from him, nor ever turn'd from his Idolatry: For having lost Bethel, he and his People went as far as Dan in the North, to worship before their other great Golden Calf.

JEROBOAM, tho' deliver'd of his Scourge, King Abijah, was not able to recover his Losses, nor to disturb the Peace of Judah under good King Asa: Nay, he seems to have been render'd unfit for Government by some fore Diseases, for Jehovah so struck him that he died, 2 Chr. xiii. 20.

II. NADAB, the Son of Jeroboam, began to reign in the end of his Father's Reign for two Years current; for, 1 Kim. xv. 25, 28. he began his Reign in the second Year of Asa, and he was slain by Baasha in Asa's third Year, and so he reigned a part of two Years. He follow'd his Father's ill Example.

After his Father's Death he rais'd an Army, and laid Siege to Gibbethon in Philistia, during which, one of his Generals, Baasha, the Son of Abijah of the House of Issachar, conspir'd with the Army against him, and slew him, and was proclaim'd King of Israel by the Army.

and Spears, and also 280000 Benjamins that bore Shields and drew Bows, who upon the first Signal could take the Field.

ASA did not disturb Baasha, but let him go on in his Way, having no Call to it, while he quietly possessed the Countries in the Kingdom of Israel, that his Father Abijah had conquered.

Jehoshaphat, the Son and Heir of King Asa, was born this Year: For he was aged 35 when he came to the Throne, 1 Kings xxii. 42. or 35 Years after This.

After the Ten Years Peace

ASA in the beginning, by the Skirmishes of the Israelites, had his conquered Countries a little destroyed; but the War was not fierce for some Years.

Zerah King of the Cushites, or the Ethiopians in Arabia Petraea, and of the Lubans, the beginning of this Year came against Judah, with an Army of a Million of Men, and 300 Chariots; but King ASA raised a little Army against Zerah, to prevent his joining Baasha, and stopt his Motion in the Valley of Zepharbath at Maresbath; where, after earnest Prayer, ASA and his valiant Jews attacked Zerah and his Ethiopians, who fled before him, and were pursued unto Gerar, so vanquished that they could not rally, and so ASA and his People, having smote Gerar and the Cities round it, and the Shepherds Tents, returned to Jerusalem loaded with rich and great Spoil.

On the road the Prophet Azariah, the Son of Obed, met him with a kind Message from God, which encouraged him to make another Reformation, by rooting out the Sodomites, and putting away the abominable Idols out of all his Dominions, and repairing the Altar of JEHOVAH before the Porch of the Temple: And soon after the Victory of Maresbath, the King, in the 3d Month of this Year, about the Time of Pentecost, made a grand Convocation, when they offered part of the Spoil in Sacrifice, viz. 7000 Sheep and 700 Oxen; and then entered into a Covenant to seek the Lord God of their Fathers with all their Heart and Soul, with the Penalty of every Person's being put to death, whether Small or Great, Man or Woman, that did not seek the Lord God of Israel. The People swore unto Jehovah with a loud Voice, with Shouting, with Trumpets and Cornets, and rejoiced at the Oath, and, being very sincere, God was found of them, and gave them Rest round about: By Virtue of which Covenant Maachab, the Widow of Rehoboam, and Grandmother of King ASA, was removed from the State of Queen Dowager to a Place of Retirement; because she had made an Idol in a Grove, which ASA cut down and flung it, and burnt it at the Brook Kidron. And the King brought into the Temple the Silver and Gold, and Vessels, and other valuable things, which his Father and he had dedicated to God.

ASA, upon the Invasion of Baasha, took a deal of the Silver and Gold from the Treasuries of the Temple, and of his Palace, and sent it to Benhadad, the Son of Tabmon, the Son of Hamezi, or Rezon, King of Syria at Damascus, (for Rezon was the first King of Damascus, see Tab. 12.) whereby he bribed Benhadad, to break his League with Baasha, and to invade Israel, in order to divert Baasha from his Projects; as in the other Column.

When Baasha returned home, ASA raid all his Men, and went to Ramah, and from thence carried off the Materials of the Building, wherewith he built Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

At that Time came Hanani the Seer to ASA from God, saying, Because thou hast relied on the King of Syria, and not on JEHOVAH thy God, therefore is the Host of the Syrians escaped out of thy Hand: Were not the Cushites and Lubims a great Host, with many Chariots and Horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on Jehovah, he delivered them into thy Hand: For the Eyes of Jehovah run to and fro through the Earth, to show himself strong in behalf of them whose Hearts is perfect towards him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have Wars. At which the King was enraged, and imprisoned the Prophet, and, instead of submitting to God's Reproof began to be an Oppressor of the People; for Persecutors will readily prove Tyrants.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

K I N G S of J U D A H.

Baafra, who seems to have been a warlike Prince, carried on the War against Asa, and maintained his Father's Conquests during his short Reign, for Elat was cut off by Zimri in the 20 Year of his Reign, and the 27th of Asa's Reign, as in the Chronology.

Thus Asa lived to see an end of Baasha's Family, as of that of Jeroboam, who were both extirpated without any Remnant, while the House of David flourished.

N. B. It is written, 1 Kin. xvi. 23. In the 31st Year of ASA began Omri to reign over Israel 12 Years; six Years reigned he in Tirzah: But the first of these 12 Years was the 27th of ASA, upon the Death of ZIMRI, Ver. 15. 16. as in the Chronology. For Omri reigned in all 12 Years, viz. five Years in Competition with King TIHMI, and seven Years alone after TIHM's Death, which seven Years began in the end of the 31st Year of ASA's Reign.

Asa, during the Competition of Shmri and Tibni, Kings of Israel, took some Cities of Ephraim; for the Israelites, being divided, were not at leisure to hinder him, until the 31st Year of his Reign, when Tibni was dead.

And so the 6th Year of Sam<sup>l</sup> is parallel with the 32d Year of Asa. In which Year also Jehoram, the Son of Prince Jehoshaphat, was born, viz. 32 Years before his Father took him to be Partner of his Throne, 2 Kis. viii 17. as will appear in its Place.

After King Tibni's Death, Asa now had to do with a politic Prince, Omri King of all Israel, who, being a warlike Man, renewed the War against Judah; for Hanan had prophesied that Asa was to be plagued with Wars; Yet we read not that Asa's Kingdom was impaired by Omri, only that the War continued on the Frontiers, and that Omri devised his wicked Statutes to be even with Asa, for his solemn Covenant above-mentioned.

But tho' ASA's Heart was perfect before God, or sincere, yet he made not a thorough Reformation in his Kingdom; for all the High places were not taken away in his Time.

Asa upon the Death of Omri was more at ease from War, because Arhab would make a Cessation of Arms, no doubt, in the beginning of his Reign, which Asa would readily accept of, because of his Age and Infirmities: For

Asa was now, two Years before he died, severely afflicted or diseased with the Gout in his Feet, for which he employd Physicians, which was well done; but his Error was, that he trusted more to their Skill than to Jehovah. And therefore he was never cured, but died of it, And they buried his Body in his own Sepulchre, which he had made for himself in the City of David, and laid him in the Bed fill'd with sweet Odours, and dropt kinds of Preparations by the Apothecary's Art and made a very great Burning for him. And his Reign, his Servant Zimri, the Captain of his Chariots, conspir'd against him at Tirzah, and while ELAH was drinking himself drunk, in the House of Arza his Steward, Zimri went in and slew him : But tho'

IV. JEHOSHAPHAT his worthy Son reigned in his stead.

V. ZIMRI reigned only seven Days, yet the forthwith cut off all the House of Baasha, with his Kindred and Friends, leaving none alive, according to the Word of Jehovah by the Prophet Jehu: So that Baasha and Elah, being as wicked as Jeroboam, were punished in the same manner with Extirpation, by the righteous Providence of God, which also pursued wicked, blood-thirsty ZIMRI; for while he usurped the Throne, the Army of Israel was again besieging Gibbethon of the Philistines; and when the News came to the Camp, the Army was enraged, that ZIMRI should make himself King without consulting them: Therefore the Army forthwith proclaimed their General Omri King of Israel, even where Baasha slew Nadab, and usurped the Throne about 25 Years ago. And

VI. O M R I, leaving the Siege of Gibbeton, and marching with the Army, forthwith laid Siege to Tirzah, and on the 8th Day after Elab's Death, when Shurri saw the City was taken, he shut himſelf up in the Palace, ſet it on fire, and perished in the Flames.

Yet OMRI had not a very quiet Possession; for Israel was now divided, the one Half of the People having proclaimed

VII. TIBNI, the Son of Gimab, their King; and the other Half adhering to OMRI.
 Arhahiah, the Daughter of Arhab, the Son of OMRI, was born by Jezebel his Wife; 42
 Years before her Son Achaziah came to the Throne of Judah.

The Competition lasted five Years, with perpetual War and Bloodshed, no doubt, even till OMRI's People prevaild, and Tibni died; when OMRI came to reign alone for seven Yerrs: For he reigned in all twelve Years, as in the other Column.

This is the last Year that OMRI reigned at Tirzah, as it is written, 1 Kim. xvi. 23. Six Years reigned he in Tirzah only ; for the Palace having been burnt down by Zimri, there was not Accommodation enough at Tirzah for King OMRI, now that his Kingdom was enlarged : Therefore OMRI bought the Hill of Shemer or Shomeron, for two Talents of Silver, upon which he built a City and Palace, which he call'd Samaria, after the old Owner of the Hill, which became the Capital of the Kingdom of Israel.

OMRI was a mighty Prince, but mighty wicked; for he wrought Evil in the Sight of the Lord, and did worse than all that were before him; for we read of the Statutes of OMRI, (Nic. vi. 16.) that were kept by his wicked Successors, and that brought on the utter Defolation of Israel; whereby OMRI was worse than Jeroboam; for he made Israel to sin by Temptation, Example and Allurement only; but OMRI by Statutes, by Compulsion, by Persecution for Conscience sake, having established Iniquity by Laws, which was, to order all his Subjects to worship the Golden Calves under severe Penalties; especially, that none who dissented from the Religion of the State, should have any Place of Profit or Trust under the Crown, and should be treated as Enemies to the Government; which he rigorously executed till he died, and was buried in Samaria. When VIII. ACHAB his Son began to reign over Israel during 22 Years current, who proved more vile than his Father; for he did Evil in the Sight of the Lord above all that went before him: Nay, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the Sins of Jerobam, he first introduced the Worshipping of Baal, having been married to Jezebel the Daughter of Eth-Baal King of the Zidonians: She was a zealous Idolatress, and in her Temper extremely imperious and malicious, addicted to Witchcrafts and Whoredoms, the worst of Women: Upon which account the false Prophetess in Rev. ii. 20. is called Jezebel. And King ACHAB, being wholly under her Influence, built a large Temple and an Altar for Baal in Samaria, and worshipped that God by sacrificing to him, and made a Grove round the Temple, to hide their impure and profane Rituals and Practices there.

TABLE XV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Israel and Judah, from the Death of Asa King of Judah, to the Death of Joram the Son of Achab, King of Israel, during 30 Years.

KINGS of JUDAH.

IV. JEHOSHAPHAT the Son of Asa, the Son of Abiam, the Son of Rehoboam, upon his Father's Death ascended the Throne with an entire Reputation, the better Son of a good Father, aged 35, and reigned 25 Years. His Mother was Azubah, the Daughter of Shibi. He began his Reign at the end of Asa's 41st Year, and of Achab's 4th Year: So that his first Year and Achab's fifth Year are parallel.

JEHOSHAPHAT began to strengthen himself against Israel, placing Forces and Garrisons in the frontier Cities, and in those of Ephraim that his Father Asa had taken during the Competition of Omer and Tizzi, [Tab. 14.]

Jezebel established his Kingdom, and all his Subjects made him large Presents, so that he had Riches and Honour in abundance; because he walked in the first Ways of DAVID, (which indeed were his best Ways) and worshipped not Baalim, as Achab did, but sought to JEHOVAH the God of his Fathers, and walked in his Commands, and not after the Dreams of Israel; for his Heart was lifted up in the Ways of Jehovah, and he removed the High Places and Groves out of Judah.

JEHOSHAPHAT sent his Princes thro' the Land, with the Levites to assist them, who taught the Book of the Law of Jehovah to all the People; which was an excellent Expedient towards a thorough Reformation: While Jezebel excited Achab to slay those that taught it in her Kingdom.

JEHOSHAPHAT enjoyed profound Peace; for the Dread of Jehovah fell upon the Kingdoms round Judah: Nay, some of 'em became his Tributaries, as the Philistines, who brought him Presents and Tribute-Silver; and the Arabians brought him an annual Tribute of 7000 Rams, and as many He-Goats.

He became an exceeding great King, and increased the Wealth of his Subjects, by his foreign Trade in the Indian Seas, and by much inland Trade; for he had brought much Business into the Cities of Judah, where he built Castles and Store-Cities.

Yet he wisely prepared for War, armed all his Subjects, and had several brave Generals, as

1. Asah, who commanded of the valiant Jews . . . . . 300000
2. Jehobanan, who commanded . . . . . 280000
3. Amasiah, who willingly offered himself to the Service, at the Head of 200000
4. Elisha, who commanded of the Benjamites armed with Bow and Shield 200000
5. Jezebad, who commanded Men ready for Battle . . . . . 180000

These were all ready to take the Field on the first Alarm, and by turns attended him as his Guards, whereby he became a formidable Prince.

But JEHOSHAPHAT committed Folly by entering into Affinity with Achab King of Israel; for this Year he married his Son Jezeoram, aged 16, to Atsalah the Daughter of Achab and Jezebel, which proved a very unhappy Marriage to the Royal Family of Judah, as will appear in its Place.

Atsalah, the Son of Prince Jezeoram, was born by Atsalah this Year, for when aged 22 he came to the Throne of Judah, or 22 Years after This, 2 King. viii. 26

We read no more of JEHOSHAPHAT till the 17th Year of his Reign, but we have many Accounts of ACHAB's Reign during those eight Years, which occasions the following large Blank.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

In the beginning of ACHAB's Reign, one Hiel of Bethel, a Man of Power and Wealth went and rebuilt Jericho; but, in laying the Foundation, his eldest Son Abiram was slain; and, when the Gates were set up, his youngest Son Segub was slain; according to the Curse of JOSHUA upon such an Undertaking above 530 Years before, Josh. vi. 26.

King ACHAB, at the Instigation of his Queen Jezebel, slew the Prophets of Jehovah, or those Scribes that were conversant in the Law of Moses, and taught the Israelites the Religion of their Progenitors, who are therefore called Prophets; they are supposed to be the Levites that had not been banished, or that afterwards ventured to reside in Israel; or else they were Simeonites, who were much dispersed thro' Israel as Teachers of Youth and Scribes. But who ever they were, 'tis certain they were a great Eye-sore to wicked Jezebel, the Patroness of the Prophets of Baal, who could not bear that the Law of God should be taught.

But Obadiah the Governour of the King's House, a good Man that worshipped Jehovah as well as he could in his Circumstances, saved an hundred of those Prophets, whom he hid in Caves, and fed them with Bread and Water, until they made their Escape into Judah, while Baal's Prophets lived upon the Fat of the Land, and were retained at Court eating at Jezebel's Table.

ACHAB reigned in Peace or free from War many Years, in which Time he built many Cities, and also a little Palace all of Ivory; but wretchedly departed from God and Goodness, being wholly governed by his wicked Wife, following the Idols of the old Amorites, as if he had sold himself to work Wickedness, even contrary to his better Knowledge.

Yet that he might not pretend Ignorance, in carrying on the Idolatry and Abominations of Jezebel, God raised up in his Kingdom, and duely qualifyd, one of the most eminent Prophets that ever lived, who in a few Years slew Jezebel's Prophets, even ELIJAH, (or Elias) not a Levite, nor a learned Simeonite, nor a Jew, but a Tishbite, an Inhabitant of Gilead in the Tribe of Gad, whose Name signifies God the Lord, or the strong Lord, importing his Commission from Jehovah. He was a Man of strong Passions, and so was fitted by Nature, as well as by Grace, for the rugged and hard Work to which he was calld.

ACHAB prudently strengthend himself by an Affinity with Jezeoram; and

This Year there was great Joy at the Court of Samaria, upon the Marriage of ACHAB's Daughter Atsalah to Jezeoram, the Prince Royal of Judah, when she was aged 19, whereby Jezebel might hope to introduce her Abominations into Judah, as it happened afterwards.

The Birth of Athaziah, the Son of Jezeoram Prince of Judah, this Year, no doubt, would rejoice the Heart of Jezebel and her King: But their Joy and Peace did not last long, for this same Year Elijah first manifested himself to ACHAB, saying boldly to the King, As JEHOVAH the God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be Dew nor Rain these Years, but according to my Word: And so a Famine commenced that lasted three Years and six Months; tho' Elijah told not ACHAB how long it would last, or, indeed, could not tell at that Time.

King ACHAB regarded not the Prediction, till he saw the Accomplishment to his Sorrow, and then he sought for Elijah in every Country far and near, but in vain; for, as a Punishment on Israel, God had hid the Prophet in an obscure Place, the Brook Ocherith East of the Jordan, where he was miraculously fed by Ravens during the Famine: And when that Brook was dry for want of Rain, God directed him to go West of the Jordan, to Zarepta in the Territory Territory of Zidon, where he was fed by a poor Widow, whose Barrel of Meal and Cruise of Oil (according to God's Word by the Prophet) did not fail till God sent Rain; and where he raised from Death the Widow's Son; whereby she and her Neighbours were converted to the true Religion, as some of the first Fruits of the Gentiles.

While the Famine lasted, the Court and People of Israel might greatly be supplied from the Stores of Judah; but King ACHAB went one Way, and Obadiah, the good Governour, another Way thro' the Land, to find out as much Water in the Fountains and Brooks, as might preserve alive the Horses and Mules, and other useful Beasts. At length Obadiah in his Tour met Elijah, who was sent of God to meet ACHAB, and assur'd Obadiah he would see the King. When they met, the King said, Art thou he that troublest Israel? To which Elijah bravely answerd, I have not troubled Israel, but thou and thy Father's House, by forsaking the Commandments of Jehovah, and by following Baalim! Now therefore send and gather to me all Israel unto Mount Carmel, (which is by the Shore of the Mediterranean, a great way from Samaria, or the Palace of Jezebel) and the 450 Prophets of Baal, and the 400 Priests of the Groves, who did eat at Jezebel's Table, while the People of Samaria were a starving. The King readily obey'd for the sake of removing the Famine; and when the People came to Carmel, the Prophet chid them for Halting between two Opinions, charging them to be either for Jehovah or for Baal; and to put the Matter beyond dispute, He propos'd that Baal's Priests should sacrifice one Bullock to Baal, and he would sacrifice another to JEHOVAH; that no Fire should be put under the Wood, and that the GOD who answereth by Fire should be worshipped as the One only, the Living and True GOD: Which all the People approved of as a fair Proposal.

When the Priests of Baal had in vain cry'd to their God, from Morning till the Time of the Evening Sacrifice, and had cut themselves for Madness; but no Voice was heard, no Fire descended on their Bullock: Elijah having sufficiently mocked them and their imaginary God, he bid the People draw near to him; then he repaired an old Patriarchal Altar found there, and erected on it 12 rough Stones, according to the Number of the Tribes, and upon this Emergency did consecrate it an Altar in the Name of Jehovah, (as the Patriarchs were wont to do) and having made a Trench about it, he bid the People pour Water three times on the Bullock and the Wood, till the Altar was all wet, and the Trench fill'd with Water: After this Apparatus, Elijah pray'd to and pleaded powerfully with JEHOVAH, who sent down his Fire that consumed the Sacrifice, the Wood, the Stones, the Dust, and the Water in the Trench? Upon which the People fell on their Faces, saying aloud, Jehovah he is the GOD! Jehovah he is the GOD! But Elijah demanded, as an Evidence of their Sincerity, that they would apprehend all the Priests and Prophets of Baal, and, having brought them to the Brook Kishon, Elijah, in the Name of Jehovah, order'd them to be all slain. Then Elijah bid the King to return Home, and prepare a Feast, for that there would be abundance of Rain, which forthwith happend upon the Prophet's praying on Mount Carmel.

But when King ACHAB return'd to Samaria, and had told his Jezebel what Elijah had done, and how he had slain her Prophets with the Sword, she sent a Messenger to threaten Elijah's Death; who therefore fled for his Life into Judah, tho' it seems he staid not to visit Jehoshaphat, nor to worship in the Temple, but march'd forward to Beershebah, where he left his Servant, and thence travell'd alone into the Wilderness of Arabia, where he benoand himself under a Juniper-Tree, desiring Death, and falling asleep; but was waked by an Angel twice, who gave him Viſuals, telling him, that in the Strength of this Meal he should subsist 40 Days, which he did in travelling to Horeb the Mount of God, where GOD met him with Storms, Earthquakes, and Fires going before his Majesty, and at last, in a still small Voice, said, What dost thou here Elijah? To which the Prophet reply'd, I have been very jealous for Jehovah, because the Israelites have forsaken thy Covenant, thrown down thine Altars, and slain thy Prophets: and I, even I, only am left, and they seek my Life too. But God, having assur'd him that there were 7000 in Israel that had not worshipp'd Baal, not only deny'd his Request of Dying, (nor did he ever die) but sent him about important Business, saying, Go, return to the Wilderness of Damascus, and on thy Way anoint Hazael to be King of Syria, and Jehu to be King of Israel, and Elisha, the Son of Shaphat of Abel-Meholah, to be thy Successor, who shall avenge the Cause of God in their several Stations: Which were afterwards fulfill'd, tho' not at the same Time; for Elijah only anointed Elisha, who, upon Elijah's casting his Mantle over him, left all to follow him as his Servant; but the other two were call'd forth by Elisha to their Work, after Elijah was translated.

ACHAB was deliver'd from the Famine, but reigned not at ease full three Years: For Benhadad King of Syria with a vast Army, commanded by 32 petty Kings, march'd over Israel, and having laid Siege to Samaria, he sent Messengers to ACHAB, demanding his Homage, and all his Silver, and the goodliest of his Wives and Children; which ACHAB agreed to, saying, My Lord, O King, according to thy Saying I am thine, and all that I have. But Benhadad, not contented with that Submission, sent again demanding truth, that his Syrians should to morrow search the Palace and other Houses, and carry off what they pleas'd; which ACHAB, by Advice of the Eeers, refus'd to comply with, yet offer'd to stand to his first Submission. Then Benhadad said in a Rage, The Gods, do so unto me, and more also, if the Dust of Samaria shall suffice for Handfuls for all the People that follow me! To which ACHAB wisely reply'd, Let not him that girdeth on his Harne's boast himself as he that putteth it off.

But while Benhadad prepar'd to attack the City, God rais'd a Prophet in Samaria, to forbid ACHAB to fear the Multitude of his Enemies, for that this Day God would deliver them into his Hands, and he should know that Jehovah is the only true GOD: So ACHAB by the Prophet's Direction musterd 232 Princes of the Provinces, who at Noon made a Sally with 7000 Men behind them, while Benhadad and his Kings were drinking drunk in the Royal Pavilion; nay, as undisturb'd at the News, Benhadad order'd his Officers to take those Israelites Prisoners whatever Jehoshaphat, during these 8 Years past, livd in Peace, maintaind his Reputation, preservd Israel in Time of their Famine, increasd his Family, and abounded in Wealth and Grandeur.

Jehoshaphat, being persuaded to join with Achab in military Preparations against the Syrians, followd his Example in placing his Heir Joram at the Head of the Government, not as Partner in the Throne, but as Coregent, aged 26, just 6 Years before he was made Partner with his Father; for, 2 Kin. i. 17. and iii. 1. it is said, That Joram, King of Israel, did succeed to his Brother Achaziah, in the second Year of Jehoram, the Son of Jehoshaphat, King of Judah; and in the 18th Year of Jehoshaphat's Reign, who reigned 25.

was their Errand. But he soon found his Error, when the Israelites beat up his Quarters, gave him a total Rout, and he narrowly escapd with a few light Horsemen; when Achab marchd forth and smote the Horses, and Chariots, and the Syrians with a very great Slaughter.

Upon this glorious Deliverance, the same Prophet advisd King Achab to prepare for another Bout with the Syrians at the Return of the Year; for Benhadad's Counsellors had advisd him to drop those 32 Kings, and to place Generals in their Posts over such an Army as he had lost, and to fight in the Plains; Because, said they, the Gods of Israel are only Gods of the Hills. So Benhadad brought an Army that filld the Plains of Aphek, where the Israelites pitchd for seven Days over-against them, in two Bodies like two little Flocks of Kids, till animated by a Prophet, on the seventh Day, the Israelites attackt the Syrians, and slew 100000 Footmen in one Day, the Rest flying to Aphek, where the Town-Wall fell and killd 27000 of 'em, while Benhadad fled into an inner Chamber.

But his Servants, hearing that the Kings of Israel were merciful, put Sackcloth on their Loins, and Ropes upon their Heads, and went forth to King Achab, saying, Thy Servant Benhadad saith, I pray thee let me live! To which Achab said, Is he yet alive? He is my Brother: Which Words the observing Syrians quickly catchd, and said, Thy Brother Benhadad, &c. Then Achab having sent for him, and took him up into his Chariot, Benhadad said, The Cities which my Father took from thy Father I will restore; and thou shalt make Streets for thee in Damascus, as my Father made in Samaria. So Achab made this Covenant with him, and sent him home. Upon which a certain Prophet came disguisd to Achab, and by a Parable convicted him, concluding, Thus saith Jehovah, because thou hast let go a Man whom I appointed to utter Destruction; therefore thy Life shall go for his Life, and thy People for his People! This made Achab return to Samaria, not triumphing, but heavy and displeasd. But the Peace lasted 3 Years between Israel and Syria.

King Achab now coveted Naboth's Vineyard, that lay contiguous to his Palace of Jezreel, and offerd to purchase it fairly; which Naboth, refusing; as it was contrary to the Law of Moses to part with the Inheritance of his Fathers, the King fell sick and sullen, and refusd to eat; for the Constitution of his Kingdom allowd him not to take Men's Properties at his Pleasure. But his Jezebel rousd him from his Bed, with the Assurance of getting him the Vineyard; which she accomplishd, by suborning two Sons of Belial to swear Blasphemy and Treason against Naboth, at an High-Day before the Nobles and Elders of his City, who were her Creatures, and who, by her Letters in Achab's Name, carried Naboth out of Town, stoned him to Death, forfeited his Heirs, and sent the News to her: Then she bid Achab go and take Possession of it.

But God sent Elijah to meet Achab in the Vineyard, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, Hast thou killed and also taken Possession? In the Place where the Dogs licked Naboth's Blood shall Dogs lick thy Blood, even thine! Achab replyd, Hast thou found me, O mine Enemy? But Elijah said, I have found thee; for thus saith Jehovah, because thou hast sold thy self to work Evil, behold I will bring Evil upon thee, will cut off thy Posterity, and make thine House like that of Jeroboam and Baasha, and the Dogs shall eat Jezebel by the Wall of Jezreel; him that dieth of Achab in the City shall the Dogs eat, and him that dieth in the Field shall the Fowls of the Air eat!

These awful Words made a deep Impression in the King; for he rent his Cloaths, put Sackcloth upon his Flesh, fasted, lay in Sackcloth, and went solitary. Upon which Jehovah said to Elijah, Seest thou how Achab humbleth himself before me? therefore I will not bring the Evil in his Days, but in his Son's Days.

IX ACHAZIAH, the eldest Son of Achab, is now by his Father made Partner in the Throne of Israel; for, 1 Kin. xxii. 51. it is said, That Achaziah, the Son of Achab, began to reign over Israel, in the 17th Year of Jehoshaphat King of Judah, and that he reigned two Years; even while Achab livd; who thus advanced his Son, because, being engagd in warlike Preparations against the Syrians, he might think it expedient to have his Heir in Possession of the Throne at Samaria, while he himself took the Field.

In the 3d Year of the Peace between Israel and Syria, the War was renewd, and, being left of God, Achab followd the Advice of his false Prophets to his Ruin: Yet he persuaded King Jehoshaphat to come and join him. Accordingly.

Jehoshaphat, having compleated his Levies, marchd his Army to Samaria, in order to have a solemn Interview with Achab, and to concert Measures for conducting the War against Benhadad, who was also ready to give them a warm Reception. Achab royally entertaind Jehoshaphat, and proposd to open the Campaign with the Siege of Ramoth-Gilead, (a City of Israel near Syria, either not deliverd by Benhadad according to Agreement, or lately taken by the Syrians) asking Jehoshaphat's Consent, which he too readily granted, saying, I am as thou art, and my People as thy People, and we will be with thee in the War.

But good Jehoshaphat desird Achab to enquire first at the Word of Jehovah; upon which Achab assembled 400 of his Prophets, to whom he put the Question, Shall I go up to Ramoth Gilead or not? who all answerd, Go up, for Jehovah shall deliver it into the Hands of the King. But Jehoshaphat, justly suspecting those were false Prophets, honestly said, Is there not besides these a Prophet of Jehovah? And Achab replyd, There is yet one Man, Micaiah the Son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, for he never prophesieth Good but Evil concerning me. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the King say so! Then Achab sent for Micaiah, while the two Kings in their royal Robes sat each on his Throne, in a void Place at the Gate of Samaria, and while Zedekiah, one of the false Prophets, put on Horns of Iron, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, with these shalt thou push the Syrians, till thou hast consumed them.

The Messenger told Micaiah, that all the Prophets agreed in their Verdict, and desird him to prophesy good Things also: But he replied, As Jehovah liveth, what Jehovah saith unto me, that will I speak! And when Micaiah came, he first banterd the false Prophets, answering the Question as they had done; but when Achab said, How many times shall I adjure thee in the Name of Jehovah, that thou tell me nothing but Truth? the Prophet seriously answerd, I saw all Israel scatterd upon the Hills as Sheep without a Shepherd, and Jehovah said, These have no Master, let them return

KINGS of JUDAH.

When Jehoshaphat returned from Ramoth-Gilead to Jerusalem in Peace, he was met by the Prophet Jehoiada, the Son of Hazai saying, Shouldst thou help the Ungodly, and have them that hate Jehovah? therefore is Wrath upon thee from before Jehovah, nevertheless there are good things foretold in thee, in that thou hast taken away the Groves out of the Land, and hast prepared thine Heart to seek God.

Yet after this, Jehoshaphat maintained his Friendship with the Family of Ahab, and having made Ship at Solomon's old Harbour of Ezion-Geber on the Red Sea, to pursue the Indian Trade for Gold, Ahabiah King of Israel desired to be his Partner, and to send a Crew of Israelites with the Jews in those Ships; which Jehoshaphat first refused, (1 Kings xiii. 49.) but soon after consented; upon which the Prophet Elihu said to him, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahabiah, Jehovah hath broken thy Work. Accordingly, as those Ships sailed out of Harbour, God sent a violent Storm that dashed them all to pieces on the Rock near Ezion-Geber.

Jehoshaphat now visited his Kingdom from Beer-sheba to Maaseh-Ephraim, and brought them back unto Jehovah, the God of their Fathers: He also set inferior Judges in every City, charging them, Take heed what ye do; for ye judge not for Men but for Jehovah, who is with you in the Judgment, with whom there is no Respect of Persons, nor taking of Gifts. And at Jerusalem the King appointed an High Court of Appeals, made of learned Levites, of Priests, and of the chief Fathers of Israel, for hearing and determining the Controversies that should be returned to Jerusalem; to whom he gave a solemn Charge.

The Syrians, to be revenged of Jehoshaphat, stirred up the Ammonites, the Ammonites, and the Moabites, or Moabites, to invade Judah, who came about by the South Parts of the Dead Sea, and incamped at Hazazon-Tamar near Beersheba, a vast confederate Army, upon which Jehoshaphat proclaimed a general Fast, and in a great Congregation at Jerusalem in the Temple, did most pathetically and powerfully pray to Jehovah, who inspired Jehoshaphat the return every Man to his House in Peace! Then Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, Said I not that he would prophesy no Good but Evil concerning me? To which? Micajah smartly answered, Here thou therefore the Word of Jehovah; I saw Jehovah sitting on his Throne, and all the Host of Heaven standing by him on his right and left Hand; and Jehovah said, Who shall deceive Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead? and one said on this manner, and another said on that manner: But there came forth a Spirit, who standing before Jehovah said, I will persuade him. To whom Jehovah said, Wherewith? And he answered, I will go forth and be a lying Spirit in the Mouth of all his Prophets: and Jehovah said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also; go forth and do so. Now therefore behold Jehovah hath put a lying Spirit in the Mouth of all these thy Prophets, and Jehovah hath spoken Evil concerning thee. But Zedekiah, the false Prophet, smote Micajah on the Cheek, saying, Woeb lay went the Spirit of Jehovah from me to speak unto thee? And Micajah answered, Behold thou shalt know in that Day, when thou shalt go into an inner Chamber to bide thyself.

This plain Dealing so enraged King Ahab, that he committed Obadiah to Prison, saying, Feed this Fellow with the Bread and Water of Affliction, until I return in Peace: But Micajah, not terrified, said, If thou return at all in Peace, Jehovah hath not spoken by me! And when carried off to Prison, he cried aloud, Harken, O People, every one of you!

Jehoshaphat, either moved by a mistaken Notion of Honour, or because Ramoth-Gilead was a City of Refuge that concerned the Jews as well as the Israelites, or excited by his Soldiers, that, having had no Action at home, longed to try their military Skill, marched along with Ahab, contrary to the Warning of God, to Ramoth; where he narrowly escaped the Fate of Ahab.

At Ramoth they met the Syrian Army, covering the Town in good Order, whose King commanded his 32 Generals to fight neither against small nor great, save only against the King of Israel. But Ahab, perhaps afraid of such a Design, disrobed himself, and, in the Habit of a private Officer, drove his Chariot into the Battel, while Jehoshaphat sat in his Royal Robes; so that the Syrians, thinking he was Ahab, were going to surround him, till he cried out, and signify'd, that he was not the King of Israel; when Jehovah helped him, by moving the Syrians to retire from him in quest of Ahab; But tho' they found him not, he did not escape the Hand of God; for a Man drew a Bow at a venture, and smote Ahab between the Joints of the Harness; therefore the King said to his Charioteer, Turn thy Hand, and carry me out of the Host, for I am wounded; being afraid of falling into the Hands of the Syrians: Yet he conceal'd his Hurt from his Army, that they might not lose Courage, and staid in his Chariot, obstinately maintaining the Fight, until Sun set, when he died of an Effusion of Blood in the Midst of his Chariot; the News of which made the chief Officers of Israel to sound a Retreat, and, leaving to the Syrians the Field of Battel, they returned home the shortest Way, brought Ahab's Body to Samaria, where it was buried; and his bloody Chariot being washed in the Pool of Samaria, the Dogs licked up the Blood, according to God's Word by Elijah.

ACHAZIAH, the wicked Son of wicked Ahab, now reigned alone a few Months only; for, falling down thro' a Lattice in his upper Chamber in Samaria, he fell sick, and sent Messengers to Baalzebub, the Idol-God of Ekron in Philistia, Whether he should recover of his Disease? But the Angel of Jehovah directed Elijah to meet those Messengers on the Road, saying, Is it not because there is no God in Israel that ye go to Ekron? Therefore saith Jehovah, Thou shalt not come down from thy Bed, but shalt surely die: And Elijah departed. They returning told the King the Cause why they returned so soon, describing the Prophet as an hairy Man, with a Girdle of Leather about his Loins; whereby the King knew it was Elijah; and sent a Captain of 50 Men to seek for him, and by force to bring him quickly to Samaria; and the Captain, finding him on the top of an Hill, haughtily said, Come down quickly to the King, thou Man of God! To which Elijah answered, If I be a Man of God, then let Fire come down from Heaven, and consume thee and thy 50 Men; which forthwith was fulfilled: And the same Judgment fell upon another Captain and his 50 Men, that came on the same Errand. But the third Captain humbled himself, and begged his Life, and the Life of his 50 Men; wherefore the Angel of Jehovah said to Elijah, Go down with him, be not afraid of him: And when the Prophet came to the King, he denounced his Death as before. So ACHAZIAH died without Issue, and the same Year was succeeded by X JORAM, or JEHORAM, his Brother, viz. in the end of the 18th Year of Jehoshaphat, and the second Year of the Lieutenantcy or Viceroyship of Jehoram, the Son of Jehoshaphat, (as in the other Column) and reigned 12 Years: So that his 1st Year is parallel with the 19th Year of Jehoshaphat.

He was not so wicked and idolatrous as his Parents; for he destroyed the Statue of Baal that Ahab had made: Yet he retained the Calves of Dan and Bethel, and cleaved unto the Sins of Jeroboam I. the Son of Nebat.

KINGS of J U D A H.

the Levite to stand up in the Congregation, and assure them in the Name of Jehovah, That, if they marched to war, they should find the Enemy at the Cliff of Ziz in the Valley of the Wilderness of Jeruel, that they should have no occasion to fight, but to stand still and see the Salvation of God. Upon which the King and all the People bowed themselves before God, and joined in solemn Praise. And so when they advanced in the Morning, singing God's Praises along the Road as far as Tekoa, Jehovah confounded the Counsels of the Enemy, who fell upon each other until none escap'd, and all of 'em lay dead in the Field. Then Jehoshaphat and his Army came to take the Spoil, which was very rich, and so large that they could not gather it in three Days, nor could carry it all off the Field. On the 4th Day they mustered in the Valley of Berzabab, where they solemnly returned God Thanks, and came in good Order to Jerusalem, praising God along the Road. This Appearance of Jehovah in Behalf of Judah, struck Terror into the neighbouring Lands, that Jehoshaphat had rest round about.

Jehoshaphat, having agreed to assist Joram, King of Israel, against Moab, (as in the other Column) thought it expedient to advance his Son Jehoram from being Vice-Roy, to be Partner in his Throne, while he was in the Field with the Army: For 2 Km. viii. 16, &c. it is said, that in the 5th Year of Joram, the Son of Achab, while Jehoshaphat was King of Judah, Jehoram the Son of Jehoshaphat, began to reign, aged 32, and reigned 8 Years in Jerusalem.

Jehoshaphat, before he went to the War against Moab, made his Last Will, and gave to his six younger Sons great Presents of Silver and Gold, with fenced Cities in Judah; but he gave the Kingdom to Jehoram his first Born. But as soon as Jehoshaphat had gone with the Army against Moab, Jehoram, at the Instigation of his wicked Queen Ataliah, the Daughter of Zezabel, slew all his Brethren and some of the Princes of his Kingdom, and never let his Father Jehoshaphat mount the Throne again. For Ataliah governed him, as her Mother Jezabel had governed Achab; so that Jehoram departed from God and Goodness, following the cursed Example of the Kings of Israel; for which he was reproved by Elijah in a Letter, sent a little before that Prophet's Ascension into Heaven, as in the other Column.

When King Esba found the confederate Army was come to his Borders, he raised all the fighting Men of Moab, to put a Stop to their Career, and to give them Battle, in order to prevent their Advancing into the Heart of his Country. But the Confederates could not advance farther for want of Water; which made King Joram say, Alas! that Jehovah hath called three Kings together, to deliver them into the Hands of Moab: But King Jehoshaphat said like himself, Is there not here a Prophet of Jehovah, that we may enquire of Jehovah by him? To which one of King Joram's Servants said, Here is Elisha, who poured Water on the Hands of Elijah, and Jehoshaphat said, The Word of Jehovah is with him. So he and King Joram, and the King of Edom, did not send for him, but went down to him in the Neighbourhood of the Camp.

When Elisha saw them, he said to King Joram, What have I to do with thee? get thee to thy Father's and Mother's Prophets, and Joram insisting on the Necessity of present Relief for three Kings and their Army, Elisha said, As the Lord of Hosts liveth, before whom I stand, verily, were it not that I regard the Presence of Jehoshaphat, the King of Judah, I would not look to ward thee nor see thee: But now bring me a Mistletoe, and while the Mistletoe played some Song of Praise, the Hand of Jehovah came upon him, and he said, Toss just Jehovah, make this Valley full of Ditties; for thou shalt have neither Wind nor Rain, yet that Valley shall be filled with Water for Man and Beast: Nay, this is but a small thing, for Jehovah will also deliver the Moabites into your Hands; and you shall smite every fenced and choice City, shall fell every good Tree, stop all Springs and Wells, and mar every good Piece of Land with Stones. Accordingly,

Next Morning, at the Time of the Meat-Offering, Water came in abundance, not by the Way of Moab, but by the Way of Edom; so that the Country behind the confederate Camp was filled with Water, which, by the Reflection of the Sun, appeared to the Camp of Moab all red like Blood, especially, that the Moabites could not suppose Water to come without Wind and Fire, therefore the King, Thus saith the Lord, The Kings are surely slain, and the Confederates have

KINGS of I S R A E L.

Upon the Death of Achab, the Moabites having revolted from their Allegiance to the Crown of Israel, King Joram lost a considerable Tribute; for Esba King of Moab was wont to pay to the King of Israel 100000 Lambs, and 100000 Rams with the Wool.

But Joram, willing to recover his Dominion over Moab, raised an Army out of all Israel, and sent to desire Jehoshaphat to join him in the War against Moab, which he agreed to, saying, I am as thou art, my People as thy People, and my Horses as thy Horses; because Moab had been subdued by King David, and had lately engaged against Judah in the Quarrel of the Syrians.

So these two Kings and their Armies joined, and by Consent march'd first to Idumea, where they were joined by the King of Edom, who was a Tributary of Jehoshaphat; and having rested there sometime, these three Kings marched round the South Side of the Dead Sea seven Days, till they came to the Borders of Moab.

Mean while Elijah, the great Prophet, wrote a Letter to Jehoram, King of Judah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of David thy Father, because thou hast not walked in the Ways of Jehoshaphat thy Father, nor of Asa thy Grandfather, but in the Way of the Kings of Israel; and hast made Judah to follow the Whoredoms of the House of Achab; and also hast slain thy Brethren, who were better Men than thyself; Behold! with a great Plague will Jehovah smite thy People, thy Children, thy Wives, and all thy Goods; and thou shalt have great Sickness, by being diseased in thy Bowels, until thy Bowels gradually fall out.

Immediately after this Letter was sent to Jehoram, King of Judah, from Gilgal, Elijah travelled thence with Elisha to Bethel, and from thence back to Jericho, (at both which Places the Sons of the Prophets believed Elijah was to be translated) and from thence to the Jordan, which Elijah smote with his Mantle, and the Waters were divided hither and thither; so that they two passed over on dry Ground. Elijah at every Place had desired Elisha to tarry there; but when he found that Elisha would not leave him, as dreading to part with him for ever, Elijah, on the East Bank of the Jordan, said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee: To which Elisha said, I pray thee let a double Portion of thy Spirit be upon me! And Elijah said, Thou hast asked an hard thing; yet, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so. But Elisha did see him; for, as they walked along the East Plains of the Jordan conversing together, behold there appeared a Chariot and Horses of Fire, and parted them asunder, and Elijah went up by a Whirlwind into Heaven! And Elisha, seeing Elijah's triumphal Ascent, cry'd out, My Father, my Father, the Chariot of Israel, and the Horsemen thereof! and when he saw him no more, he rent his Cloaths for Grief; and having took up Elijah's Mantle that fell from him, Elisha walkt to the Jordan, and smote the Waters, saying, Where is Jehovah the God of Elijah? Upon which the Waters parted hither and thither, so that Elisha walkt over dry; whereby he knew that the Spirit of Elijah rested on him; as the Sons of the Prophets at Jericho did soon perceive, when they beheld the Miracle and the Mantle; for which they bowed themselves to the Ground before him.

Elisha carried a little Time at Jericho, where the Prophets sent out 50 Men to search for Elijah dead or alive; but in vain; For he was not, because God took him! and where Elisha, at the Request of the Inhabitants, miraculously cured the Springs and the Ground. From thence he went to Bethel, and on the Road was mocked by a Pack of wicked Children, saying, Go up thou bald Head! But Elisha having cursed them in the Name of Jehovah, two She-Bears came forth of a Wood, and tore 42 of 'em. From Bethel he walkt to Carmel, and from thence to Samaria; where he was directed to travel to the Confederate Camp in Moab, as in the other Column.

Elisha soon left the Camp in Moab, and travelled into the Land of Israel that Year, where a Prophet's Widow complain'd to him of her Poverty, and that her Creditors threaten'd to take her Sons as Bondmen for their Father's Debt, having nothing left but one Pot of Oil: Upon

The Moabites then attackt the Confederates, who rising from their Trenches gave the Moabites a warm Reception, a total Rout, and pursued them into the Heart of their Country, which they ruined exactly according to Elisha's Prophecy, and besieged King Jeroboam in his Capital Samaritan, which he bravely defended; and when he saw himself almost reduced, and the City near taken by the Confederates, like a gallant Man, he made a Sally with 200 Men, designing to break thro' the Edomites, and to escape to the Mountains of Moab: But when repulsed back into the City, like a Man in deep Despair, he took his own eldest Son that should have reigned in his stead, the Prince Royal of Moab, the darling of the Moabites, and offered him for a Burnt-Offering, not in the Temple of Chemosh, his Idol-God, but on the Wall, to terrify the Besiegers, and that they might see what desperate Courses he would take, rather than be taken Prisoner, and how dear he would sell his Life, to exasperate the Moabites against the Confederates, and to raise Indignation among the Jews and Edomites against the Israelites, for driving him to this Extremity, by not offering him honourable Terms of Capitulation. Nor was he disappointed; for the Siege was raised, by reason of the great Indignation against Israel, and the Confederates returned to their Lands, abhorring to turn a brave Man distracted and desperate.

But others think it was the King of Edom's eldest Son, that Jeroboam in the Sally took Prisoner, and upon his Repulse did sacrifice him on the Wall, as intimated Amos ii. 1. which occasioned the Indignation against Israel, and the Raising of the Siege.

King Jehoshaphat, upon his Return with the Army from the Land of Moab, seems not to have been admitted into his Share of Government with his Son Jehoram, who, by Murder, Idolatry, Violence, and his enterprising Wife's Counsel, with the Assistance of his Brother in Law Joazam, King of Israel, strengthen'd himself, and had become absolute. The Loss of his Sons might dispose Jehoshaphat against joining in Government with their Murderer, and rather to chuse a retired Life in the Temple or elsewhere, for lamenting his Losses and Follies, for having been too much engaged in the Quarrels of the House of Acab, for marrying his Son to Acab's wicked Daughter Jehaziah, and for advancing his Son to be his Partner. Nay, some think Jehoshaphat is call'd the King of Israel, 2 Chron. xxi. 2. by way of Reproach, for his Affinity with Acab and his Family, and for taking more Care of that Kingdom than of his own.

which Elisha directed her to borrow many empty Vessels, and to fill them with Oil from that Pot; which she and her Sons believing, did as Elisha had ordered, and the Miracle was performed, whereby she had Oil enough to pay her Husband's Debts, and to subsist her Family.

Elisha travelling often through Shunam, a great Lady there fitted up a Room for him, and courteously entertained him as he passed, for being a holy Man of God. Her Kindness to God's Prophet was well rewarded with a Promise from God, that next Year she should have a Son, for she was Childless, and her Lord an old Man) and with Warning from the Prophet, of providing for herself and Family, against the then begun Famine, assuring her that it should last seven Years in Israel.

The Shunamite Lady and her Lord, upon the Warning, travelled into Philistia, 2 Kin. viii. 27 where she bore her Son, and staid there till the Famine was near gone from Israel. But Elisha went to Gilgal, and resided there in a College of Prophets during the Dearth, where he miraculously cured the deadly Portage; and having got a Present of 20 Barley-Loaves, and some full Ears of Corn in the Husk, sent him from Baal-balisba, (a Rarity at that Time) Elisha miraculously multiply'd them for the feeding of 100 Men; who did eat and left thereof. From thence he went to Samaria, when Naaman, the mighty General of Syria, who was a Leper, being inform'd by his Lady's Maid, an Israelite's Captive, that Elisha could cure him, he came to King Joazam at Samaria, with a Letter from the King of Syria, desiring Joazam to recover Naaman of his Leprosy; upon which Joazam rent his Cloaths, saying to his Counsellors, Am I a God, to kill and to make alive? Wherefore see how the King of Syria seeketh a Quarrel against me. But Elisha sent to King Joazam, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy Cloaths? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a Prophet in Israel. When Naaman came in State to the Door of Elisha, the Prophet sent out to him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven Times, and thy Flesh shall come again unto thee, and thou shalt be clean. But Naaman was wroth, and went away, saying, Behold, I thought he will surely come out to me, and stand and call upon Jehovah his God, and strike his Hand over the Place, and recover the Leper: Are not Abana and Pharpar, Rivers of Damascus, better than all the Waters of Israel? May I not wash in them and be clean? So he turned and went away in a Rage. But his Servants wisely said to him, My Father, if the Prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldst thou not have done it? How much rather then, when he only saith, Wash and be clean. This convinced Naaman, who forthwith obeyed, and the Miracle was wrought in his Cleansing; whereby Naaman was converted from his Idolatry to the true Religion: For he returned from Jordan to Elisha, saying, Behold now I know that there is no God in all the Earth but in Israel! and offered a large Present to the Prophet, which Elisha solemnly refused. Then Naaman requested as much Earth of Israel as two Mules could carry, for making an Altar in Syria, saying, For thy Servant will henceforth offer neither Burnt-Offering, nor other Sacrifice to other Gods, but unto Jehovah! For this thing may Jehovah pardon thy Servant, for that when my Master hath gone into the House of Rimmon to worship there, and he hath leaned upon my Hand, that I have also bowed myself in the House of Rimmon for my worshipping there; may Jehovah pardon thy Servant for this thing! And Elisha assured him of Pardon, by bidding him Go in Peace.

But Gebazi, the Prophet's Servant, being covetous, ran after Naaman all the Way without his Master's Knowledge, and got, by telling a Lie, two Talents of Silver, and two Changes of Raiment,

KINGS of JUDAH.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

King JEHOSHAPHAT died this Year, no doubt, very disconsolate, by beholding the Idolatry and Wickedness of the House of Jerab to prevail in his House and Kingdom, and he was buried in the Royal Sepulchre of the City of David.

King JEHORAM, upon his Father's Death, reigned alone about 5 Years, and carried on his Idolatry and Wickedness, by the Counsel of his cursed Wife, whereby he highly provoked God to punish him; first by the Revolt of the Edomites this Year, who, hearing of Jehoshaphat's Death, would no more be govern'd by a Deputy from Judah, but asserted their Independency, and made a King of their own, just 150 Years after David had subdued them, [Tab. 12.] Upon the News, King JEHORAM went forth with his Princes, and all his Chariots as far as Zair, and, marching in the Night, smote the Edomites that were attempting to surround him, and slew the Captains of their Chariots. Nevertheless the Edomites persisted firm in their Revolt, and were never since that subject to the Crowns of Judah, according to the Prophecy of Father ISSAAC, Gen. xxvii. 40. The same Time did Libnah, a City of the Priests in Judah, revolt from Jehoram, and made themselves a little Republick, under the Protection of some neighbouring Princes; because he had forsaken Jehovah the God of his Fathers.

Raiment, which he hid in the House; yet could not escape his Master's Notice, for when he came home, Elisha said, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? and he saying, Thy Servant went no whither, the Prophet said, Went not mine Heart with thee, when Naaman turned again from his Chariot to meet thee? Is it a Time to receive Money, and Garments, and Oliveyards, and Vineyards, and Sheep, and Oxen, and Men-Servants, and Maid-Servants? The Leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee and unto thy Seed for ever! And he went out from his Presence a Leper as white as Snow. From Samaria the Prophet return'd to Gilgal, where the Sons of the Prophets obtain'd his Consent to enlarge their Building; and while they were cutting Timber for that End at the Banks of the Jordan, one of them dropt his Ax into the Water, which Elisha miraculously made to swim, so that the Man receiv'd it again. From thence he went to Dothan; and This Year the King of Syria warred against Israel, and by Advice of his Counsellors he set Ambushments for intrapping the Israelites at a certain Place; but Elisha sent to King Joram due Notice and Warning thereof, whereby Joram saved himself more than twice. This perplexed the King of Syria, and made him suspect some of his Servants had betray'd his Councils to Joram: But one of 'em said, None of us, my Lord, O King! but Elisha the Prophet telleth the King of Israel the Words thou speakest in thy Bed-Chamber. Wherefore the Syrian King sent a strong Detachment to besiege Dothan, and to bring thence Elisha to him. The Appearance of this Army frighten'd Elisha's Servant, but not himself, who said, Fear not, for they that be for us are more than the Enemy! And after Elisha had pray'd, Jehovah opened his Servant's Eyes to behold the Mountain full of Horses and Chariots of Fire round about Elisha. When the Syrians came to Dothan, and demanded Elisha to be deliver'd up to them, the Prophet pray'd, that God would smite them with Blindness; and the Syrians were so far blinded, that they knew neither Elisha nor the Place where they were: So that Elisha went out himself and told them, This is not the Way, neither is this the City; follow me, and I will bring you to the Man whom you seek: But he led that Army to Samaria, when again he pray'd, that God would open their Eyes; which being done, they were, no doubt, surprized to find themselves in the Midst of Samaria. Then King Joram said to Elisha, My Father, shall I smite them? But Elisha forbid it, saying, Wouldst thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive, with thy Sword and with thy Bow? Set Bread and Water before them, that they may eat, and drink, and go to their Master. So Joram made great Provision for them, and sent them home; which frighten'd the Bands of Syria from their Ambushments and Inroads for a Time.

BENHADAD, King of Syria, finding the Dearth in Israel to continue, marched a great Army with vast Provisions, and besieged Samaria so long, that the Famine prevailing in the City, an Ass's Head was sold for 80 Pieces of Silver, and a Cab of Dove's Dung for five Pieces: Nay, as Joram passed by on the Wall, a Woman cry'd, Help, my Lord, O King! To whom he said, If Jehovah do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the Barn-Floor, or out of the Wine-Press? But asking what ail'd her, she said, This Woman said, Give thy Son, that we may JEHORAM, going on in the evil Counsels of cursed Jezebel and Zibbadi, had erected High-Places in the Mountains of Judah, and caused the Inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit Fornication; nay, by the usual Methods of Tyrants, compelled Judah to those Abominations: Therefore God next punished him this Year, by raising up against him the Spirit of the Philistines on the West, and of the Arabians near the Ethiopians on the South, who the same Time penetrated into the Heart of Judah, carried off his Wives and all his Substance found in his Palaces, slew all his Sons except the youngest, and so gave him Cause to repent of Murdering his Brethren, and of departing from the true God.

King JEHOAM was next punished with a sore Disease in his Bowels, according to the Prophecy in Elisha's Letter above mentioned, of which he was never cured: Therefore, being disabled from Government, he appointed his youngest and only Son ACHAZIAH to be Viceroy, for, 2 Km. ix. 29 it is written, And in the 11th Year of King Joram, the Son of Ahab, began Achaziah to reign over Judah.

But his Father being alive, and reigning but one Year, he must have been only Viceroy this Year, unless we reckon the 11th Year of Joram, the Son of Ahab, from Ahab's Death, as some do, and so it will agree with 2 Km. viii. 25 that mentions Achaziah's coming to the Throne in the 12th Year of Joram, viz. from Joram's beginning to reign, or from the beginning of Joram's whole Reign, which was only the 11th Year of Joram's sole Reign after Ahab's Death: Tho' that seems to be better fitted, by allowing him to be made Viceroy this Year, and King next Year, as in the following Paragraphs eat him to Day, and we will eat my Son to morrow; but she hath hid her Son! Upon which the King rent his Cloaths, and put Sackcloth within upon his Flesh, and said, God do so and more also to me, if the Head of Elisha shall stand on him this Day. But Elisha, sitting in his House with the Elders, said to them, See ye how this Son of a Murderer hath sent to take away mine Head! Look, when the Messenger cometh, shut the Door and keep him out; is not the Sound of his Master's Feet behind him?

When Joram came, he found it not practicable to cut off Elisha's Head, while surrounded and guarded by the Elders, yet Joram declared his Infidelity and Despair, saying to Elisha, This Evil is of Jehovah; why should I wait for Jehovah any longer? To which the Prophet said, Thus saith Jehovah, to morrow about this time, a Measure of fine Flower for a Shekel, and two Measures of Barley for a Shekel in the Gate of Samaria! Then a Lord, on whose Hand the King leaned, answer'd, Behold, if Jehovah would make Windows in Heaven, might this thing be! To whom the Prophet said, Behold thou shalt see it with thine Eyes, but shalt not eat of it!

This wonderful Prophecy was as wonderfully fulfill'd; for four leprous Men thrust out from the Heart of the City, and forced to reside near the Gate, said one to another, Why sit we here until we die! if we enter the City, we shall die of the Famine, and if we sit still here, we shall die also! now therefore let us fall into the Host of the Syrians; for if they save us alive, we shall live, and if they kill us, we shall but die. Accordingly, they ventured out in the Twilight, (for the Guards might be glad to be rid of 'em) and, coming to the Skirts of the Syrian Camp, found no Man there: For Jehovah had made the Syrian Host to hear the Noise of a great Army with Chariots and Horses; which made them say, Lo, the King of Israel hath hir'd against us the Kings of the Hittites, and of the Egyptians, to come upon us! Wherefore the Syrians fled in the Twilight for their Life, leaving their Camp as it stood: So that the Lepers enter'd their Tents, did first eat and drink, and carried thence Gold, Silver and Raiment, which they hid; and then came to the Gate, call'd to the Porter, told the good News, which was soon carried to King JORAM, who arose in the Night, believing it to be only a Feint of the Syrians to decoy the People out of Town; yet was advis'd to send two Horsemen, who went after the Syrians as far as the Jordan, finding all the Way full of Garments and Vessels, that the Syrians had thrown away in their hasty Flight. When the Spies return'd, then

The People went out and spoil'd the Tents of the Syrians; so that a Measure of fine Flower was sold for a Shekel, and two Measures of Barley for a Shekel: And the King having appointed the foresaid unbelieving Lord, to have the Charge of the Gate, the People, mad for Hunger, regarded no Ceremony, but crowding out, they trod him to death in the Gate-Way, whereby the Word of JEHOVAH was fully accomplish'd.

The next Year is the last of the Dearth and Scarcity in Israel; for the Harvest was good, and the good Shunamite, with her Husband and Son, being return'd from Philistia, her Son, above 5 Years old, went out one Morning to his Father among the Reapers, complain'd of a violent Headach, was carried home to his Mother, and sat on her Knees till Noon, when he died. She laid his dead Body on the Prophet's Bed in the old Chamber, and lockt the Door; desir'd her Husband to spare a young Man to ride with her to the Prophet then at Mount Carmel, and importuned Elisha to go with her to Shunam, where he miraculously raised the Boy from Death.

Not long after this, the good Shunamite Lady and her Son went to Samaria, in order to petition King JORAM to have an Estate restored to her Family, that had been possessed by others during her Absence in Philistia: She came opportunely while the King was desiring Gehazi to recount the great Acts of Elisha, and while Gehazi was telling how his Master had restored a dead Body to life, he shew'd the King the Shunamite and her Son: Upon which the King order'd her Estate to be restored. This Account of the Shunamite and her Son belongs to the next Year, or the 11th of Joram.

This Year Elisha travell'd to Damascus, where King Benhadad lay sick, who sent Hazael, his General, with a rich Present to enquire of Jehovah, by the Prophet, saying, Thy Son Benhadad, King of Syria, hath sent me, saying, Shall I recover of this Disease? And Elisha bid him say, Thou mayst certainly recover; yet said further to Hazael, Jehovah hath shewed me, that he shall surely die! Then the Prophet, setting his Countenance on Hazael, began to weep; and Hazael, being shamed, said, Why weepeth my Lord? And he answer'd, Because I know the Evil that thou wilt do unto the Children of Israel, their strong Holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young Men wilt thou slay with the Sword, and wilt dash their Children, and rip up their Women with Child! But Hazael said, Is thy Servant a Dog, that he should do this great thing? To which Elisha reply'd, Jehovah hath shewed me that thou shalt be King over Syria. Thus the Order given to Elisha, for the Anointing of Hazael, is now executed by this Prophecy of Elisha. So Hazael told the King, that the Prophet said, He should surely recover. But next Day he dip'd a thick Cloth in Water, and spread it on the King's Face till he died; and then he reign'd in his stead, having the Command of the Army.

KINGS of JUDAH.

King JEHORAM'S Disease growing worse and worse, he continued in great Misery, dying a thousand Deaths, a wretched Monument of God's Vengeance for the two last Years of his Life, until all his Bowels fell out, who had no Bowels of Mercy to his Brethren, and he expired without being lamented, as he had liv'd without being desir'd, and was buried inglorious in the City of Damascus, but not in the Royal Sepulchres, in the beginning of this Year: And the Inhabitants of Jerusalem crown'd

VL ACHAZIAH, the only Son of Jehoram, the Son of Jehoshaphat, the Son of Aisa, the Son of Achaz, the Son of Rehoboam, King of Judah, who reign'd only one Year, for, 2 Km. viii. 25. 'tis written. In the 12th Year of Joram, the Son of Achaz, King of Israel, did Achaziah, the Son of Jehoram King of Judah, begin to reign.

He is call'd Azariah, 2 Chr. xxi. 6. and Ithorah, 2 Chron. xxi. 17. but a seeming Contradiction must be reconcil'd about his Age: For, 2 Km. viii. 26. he is said to be aged 22 when he came to the Throne; whereas, in 2 Chron. xxi. 2. he is said to be aged 42. Now this is reconcil'd by the Original, which, in the said Book of Chronicles, should be thus translated, viz. ACHAZIAH was the Son of the 42 Years, that is, of the House of Omri; for, in that same Text, his Mother Athaliah is call'd the Daughter of Omri, tho' she was really the Daughter of Achab, the Son of Omri; whereby we are directed to this Solution, viz. That King Achaziah was aged 22 when his Father died, according to our Chronology; but that his Mother Athaliah, the Grand-Daughter of Omri, was aged 42, being born in the 3d Year of Omri's Reign. The like Difficulty shall be solved in its Place about Jehoiakim.

Joash, the youngest Son of Athaliah, was born this Year, who came to be King after his Mother Athaliah's 6 Years Usurpation. See the following Table

ACHAZIAH did Evil in the Sight of Jehovah, walking in the Ways of the House of Achab, for his cursed Mother Athaliah with her Kindred were his principal Counsellors, especially after his Father's Death, and his Accession to the Throne, persuading him to be as wicked as themselves, and to join with his Uncle, King JORAM, in raising an Army, and to go with him to Ramoth-Gilead, from whence he return'd to Jerusalem, when Joram was wounded and return'd to Jezebel.

After this, Elisha sent the young Prophet to Ramoth, to anoint Captain Jehu King of Israel (as in the other Column) who executed God's Vengeance on Athaliah; for the King had gone to visit his Uncle Joram at Jezebel, and went forth with him to meet Jehu, whereby he met his Destruction: For, when he saw his Uncle slain, he fled into Samaria, where he hid himself, while Jehu march'd to Jezebel, made Jezebel Dogs Meat, sent to Samaria for the Heads of Achab's Children, and in his Way to Samaria slew 42 of Achaziah's Kinsmen, met Jonadab, who join'd him, as in the following Table: And when he came to Samaria, Jehu made search for Athaliah, who, being brought before him, Jehu condemn'd him to die as a Branch of the House of Achab; yet did not slay him at Samaria, but order'd him to be carried with a Guard towards Gur near Ibleam, and there to be slain in his Chariot; from whence his Coachman drove him as far as Megiddo, where he died of his Wound; perhaps because in those Parts his Father Jehoram had slain his Brethren, the other Sons of King JEHOSHAPHAT. Thus the different Accounts of his Death, in 2 Km. ix. 27, &c. and in 2 Chron. xxi. 8, 9. are easily reconcil'd: For, in the Book of Kings, it is only said, That Jehu followed after Achaziah, as he fled by the Garden of Jezebel, and said to his Men, Smite him at the Chariot as he goes up to Gur: But it is not said, that Achaziah fled to Gur. And in Chronicles it is said, That Athaliah fled only to Samaria, where he hid himself, till he was brought to Jehu, who order'd him to be carried to Gur, and there slain. And in Kings it is said, That Athaliah fled from Gur to Megiddo before he was dead. From whence his Servants carried his dead Body to Jerusalem, where they buried him in his Sepulchre with his Fathers in the City of Damascus; because he was the Grandson of good JEHOSHAPHAT.

Thus ended the one Year of Achaziah, and the Twelfth Year of JORAM

KINGS of ISRAEL.

King JORAM, in Confederacy with Achaziah, King of Judah, now rais'd an Army against Hazael, King of Syria, and besieging Ramoth-Gilead, he took it in, and plant'd a strong Garrison in it: But he bought it dear; for in the Attack Joram was sore wounded, which made him return home to his Palace of Jezebel in order to be cur'd of his Wounds, while King Achaziah return'd to Jerusalem.

12 Soon after this, Elisha sent a young Prophet to the Garrison of Ramoth-Gilead, who, according to Elisha's Directions, took aside Jehu, the Son of Jehoshaphat, the Son of Nimshi, from among the other Captains into an inner Chamber, and pour'd a Box of Oil on his Head, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, I have anointed thee King over the People of Jehovah, even over Israel! and thou shalt smite the House of Achab thy Master; that I may avenge the Blood of my Servants the Prophets, and of others my Servants, at the Hands of Jezebel: For the whole House of Achab shall perish, and I will cut off from Achab all his Offspring, and make his House like that of Jeroboam and Baasha; and the Dogs shall eat Jezebel in the Portion of Jezebel, and there shall be none to bury her! Upon which the young Prophet open'd the Door and fled, as Elisha had directed him. Thus the Command, that God gave to Elijah, was fulfilled by Elisha and this young Prophet.

When Captain Jehu return'd to the Guard-Room, the other Captains asked him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad Fellow to thee? To whom he said, You know the Man and his Communication: But when they importuned him, he told them all that the Prophet had done and said to him. Then they hasted and took every Man his Garment, and put them under him on the top of the Stairs, and blew with Trumpets, saying, Jehu is King! Even in the Place where Achab was slain, and Joram received his Wounds.

Thus Jehu conspir'd against King JORAM, and forthwith put his Plot in Execution, getting the Consent of the Army to keep all Intelligence from Joram; and, mounting a Chariot, he drov'e straight to Jezebel, where Joram was recovering of his Wounds, and where Achaziah, King of Judah, was come to visit Joram: So that they knew nothing of Jehu and his Troop, till the Centry, or Watchman of Jezebel, spied them at a little Distance, when Joram sent an Horseman to ask in the King's Name, Is it Peace? To whom Jehu said, What hast thou to do with Peace? turn thee behind me: And having dealt so with another Messenger, the Watchman told the King of it, saying further, And the Marching is like the Driving of Jehu, for he driveth furiously. Upon which

King JORAM and King ACHAZIAH mounted their Chariots, and going out against Jehu, they met him in Naboth's Vineyard and Fields near the Palace, and JORAM said, Is it Peace Jehu? To which Jehu reply'd, What Peace, so long as the Whoredoms of thy Mother Jezebel, and her Witchcrafts are so many? Then Joram wrung his Hands and fled, saying, Treachery, O Achaziah! But he could not flee far, because Jehu drew a Bow with his full Strength, and smote Joram between his Arms; so that the Arrow went out at his Heart, and he sunk down in his Chariot. Then JEHU order'd Sidkar, his Captain, to cast Joram's dead Body into the Field of Naboth, saying, For remember, when thou and I rode together after Achab his Father, that Jehovah laid this Burden upon him. And so JEHU justify'd his Conduct by the Prophecy of Elijah above-mention'd.

Hereabouts may be placed the Protection of Lycurgus, about 108 Years before the First Olympiad.

K I N G S of I S R A E L.

King Ahaziah being slain, by Order of Jehu, in the end of this Year, his Servants brought his dead Corpse from Megiddo, where he died, to Jerusalem, and buried it in the Royal Sepulchre. Then

VII. ATHALIAH his Mother, usurp'd the Throne of Judah, during 6 Years; for Jehu having slain 42 of her Grand-Children, the Sons of Achaziah's Brethren, (as in the other Column) she took care to murder all the Children of her Son Ahaziah, and all the Seed Royal, and took upon her the Government.

Only JEHOSHABAH the Daughter of King Jehoram, the Sister of Achaziah, and Wife of JEROBADAH the High-Priest, was protected by the Dignity of her Husband, and, abhorring her Mother Athaliah's Practices, took care to snatch away privately Achaziah's youngest Son JOAH, from falling into the Hands of Athaliah's Cut-throats, and, with her Husband's Assistance, she kept the Royal Infant and his Nurse in a secret Chamber of the Temple, during the Usurpation of Athaliah, without her Knowledge; and Athaliah, not finding him in the Palace, might think him cut off with the rest, and would not readily seek for any of the Seed Royal in the Temple; for she had no ordinary Business there, being a Worshipper of Baal, and either would not chuse to frequent the Temple, or would not be permitted to enter all its Apartments, by Jehoradab and those that guarded the Holy Place: But she might be easy by the Report of her Assassins, that all the Seed Royal were slain, tho' they were her own Grand-Children! O cursed Daughter of a cursed Mother!

ATHALIAH was guilty of Whoredoms as well as of Idolatry, and must have had Children by another Man, even while her Husband King Jehoram liv'd; because it is written, 2 Chron. xiv. 7. For the Sons of Athaliah, that wicked Woman, had broken up the House of God, and also all the dedicated Things of the House of Jehovah did they bestow upon Baalim. Now it may be justly suppos'd, that they were Men grown, and that she lov'd these her Bastards better than her other Children, because they were educated to her Mind; and so to them she design'd to leave the Crown of Judah, when she had cut off her other Offspring that were of the House of David.

She establish'd the Idolatry of her Father and Mother in Judah, even in Jerusalem, erecting a Temple for Baal near the Temple of JEHOVAH.

At length Jehoradab the High-Priest communicated the Secret, of having the true Heir of the Crown in a safe Place of the Temple, to several great Men of his Confidence, and chief Men in the Military; who went throughout Judah, and gather'd the Levites and the chief Fathers of Israel, and met them at Jerusalem to see young Joash, and to follow the Directions of Jehoradab, in the beginning of the 7th Year after the Death of King Ahaziah. When they had seen Joash, they readily enter'd into Covenant with Jehoradab, who thus strengthen'd himself for making the Restoration; and, having prepared the People, Jehoradab assembled a great Congregation in the Temple, where they made a Covenant with the young King, and swore Allegiance to him.

And so on the next Sabbath, Jehoiadab, having deliver'd to the Captains the Spears, Bucklers and Shields, that King David had dedicated, (for the Defence of the Temple then intended) he arm'd all the Priests and Levites, and order'd one Part to attend at the Palace, another at the Gate of Sar, and a third at the Gate behind the Guard-House as Porters, and another Part of 'em to be the King's Body-Guards, to compass him round in going out or coming in, and to slay any that should dare to come within the Ranges, or to enter the Holy Place, except the Priests and Levites: But all the Courts of the Temple were fill'd with the People, the joyful Spectators of that glorious Revolution. When all things were in readiness, Jehoiadab the High-Priest brought forth the Royal Infant,

In the end of this Year, the Royal Family of ACHAB being extinguish'd by the Death of JORAM, slain by Jehu in the Field of Esboth at Jezreel, X. JEHU became King of Israel by the Army, and reigned 28 Years. When he came to the Palace of Jezreel, old Jezebel heard of it, painted her Face, tired her Hair, and look'd out at a Window, saying with Scorn to Jehu, Had Zimri Peace who slew his Master? But he, lifting up his warlike Face, said, Who is on my Side? who? And, seeing two or three Eunuchs or Chamberlains, Jehu said, Throw her down! And, having thrown her down head-long, some of her Blood was sprinkled on the Wall and on the Horses, and Jehu trod her under foot. Then King JEHU enter'd the Palace, and having refresh'd himself, he said, Go, view now this cursed Woman, and bury her; for she is a King's Daughter? But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than the Skull, and the Feet, and the Palms of her Hands; and returning told Jehu of it, who said, This is the Fulfilling of the Word of Jehovah, spoken by Elijah, saying, In the Portion of Jezreel shall Dogs eat the Flesh of Jezebel!

Then JEHU wrote to the Rulers, the Elders, and the Governours of Achab's 70 Sons at Samaria, advising them in Banter to set up one of those Royal Sons, and fight for him: But, they being terrify'd, sent their Answer, saying, We are thy Servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any King: Do thou what is good in thine Eyes! To which he reply'd in a Letter, saying, If you be mine, come to me to-morrow at Jezreel with the Heads of Achab's Sons. Accordingly they slew those 70 Sons, and sent their Heads in Baskets to Jezreel. JEHU order'd the Heads to be laid in two Heaps at the Palace-Gate, and said to all the People, You be righteous! behold, I conspir'd against my Master, and slew him; but who slew all these? Know now that nothing shall fail of the Word of Jehovah, spoken by Elijah. So JEHU slew all that remain'd of the House of Achab in Jezreel, all his great Men, his Kinsfolks, and his Priests, until none remain'd.

JEHU left the Palace, and, marching to Samaria, met by the way 42 Kinsmen of Achaziah, King of Judah, (call'd his Brethren, being the Sons of his Brethren, for his proper Brethren had been slain) going to salute the Royal Family of Achab, and order'd them to be all slain, and thrown into a Pit.

Near Samaria JEHU met Jehonadab, the Son of Rechab, the Descendant of Jethro, Moses's Father in Law, (see Tab. 11) coming to join him, whom he took up in his Royal Chariot, saying, Come with me, and see my Zeal for Jehovah! This is that Jonadab, who made a Law for his Family, mention'd at length in Jer. xxxv. 1—11. He was a good Man and a zealous Enemy of Idolatry, of whom Jehu was fond.

When JEHU came to the City, he slew all that remain'd to Achab at Samaria, and, hearing that King Achaziah was hid there, he made search for him, and condemn'd him to be slain, as in the other Column.

Then, to shew to Jonadab his Zeal for Jehovah, JEHU subtilly said to all the People, Achab served Baal but a little, but Jehu shall serve him much! Now therefore call unto me all the Prophets, Priests and Servants of Baal, let none be wanting, for I have a great Sacrifice to offer to Baal; whoever is absent shall not live. And, having proclaim'd a solemn Assembly for Baal, JEHU sent thro' all Israel for the Worshippers of that Idol, and every one of them came to Samaria, so that the large Temple of Baal was cram'd with them: But JEHU and Jonadab went into the Temple, and made strict Search for any of the Servants of Jehovah, and none being found there, but only the Worshippers of Baal, JEHU plac'd 80 Soldiers without to let none escape, and as soon as the Burnt-Offering was over, and they began their Musick, he sent in upon them a Band of Soldiers

KINGS of J U D A H.

KINGS of I S R A E L.

VIII King JOASH, or JEHOASH, aged about 7 Years, put the Crown upon him, gave him the Testimony, anointed him, and made him King with the Consent of the People, who clasp their Hands, saying, God save the King! And he reign'd 28 Years.

This Solemnity was well kept from the Knowledge of Athaliah, till she heard at the Palace the Noise of the People running and praising the King; when she went forthwith to the Temple, and walkt thro' the People, even within the Ranges; where seeing the Guards standing on the right and left Side of the Temple, and young King JOASH standing at his Pillar, at the Entry of the Holy Place, according to Custom, with the Frises, and hearing the Singers and Trumpets perform their Parts, and all the People rejoice as with one Voice, without paying her the least Homage, she rent her Cloaths, and cry'd out, Treason, a Conspiracy! But Jehoiadab order'd the Captains not to pollute the Temple with her Blood, but to lead her without the Ranges, and to slay all that would follow her: So when they brought her to the Horse-Gate near the Palace, they slew her, the last Branch of the House of Athaliah, King of Israel, and, no doubt, her wicked Bastards perish'd with her, for we read no more of them but as above-hinted.

Jehoiadab then made the King, the Priests, the Frises, and the People, enter into a solemn Covenant to become the People of Jehovah, in Opposition to all other Gods; and, to show their Sincerity, the People went forthwith and broke down the Temple of Baal, beat his Altars and Images to Pieces, and slew Harran the High-Priest of Baal at the Altars.

Mean while Jehoiadab restored the Offices in God's Temple, according to the Distribution of David, with the Sacrifices and the other Parts of Divine Service, according to the L w of Moses, that had been lately impair'd. And when the People return'd from destroying Baal's Temple, Jehoiadab, with the Captains, the Nobles, the Governours, and all the People, brought the King from the Temple through the High-Gate into the Palace Royal, and set him upon the Throne of the Kingdom; and all the Land rejoiced, and the City was quiet, after they had slain Athaliah with the Sword. This was a glorious Day in Jerusalem.

King JOASH, under the Management of Jehoiadab, the good Regent, ruled well; and, even after he came to full Age, he did what was right before God all the Days of Jehoiadab's Life, following his good Instructions: Only the High-Places were not taken away, for in them the People still sacrific'd and burnt Incense.

Jehoiadab, the Regent, observing that Israel and Judah had suffer'd great Mischief by two cursed Queens, Jezabel and her Daughter Athaliah, provided two good Wives for his young King, the first of whom was Jehoadan, a Lady of Jerusalem, who bore to him

Amaziah this Year; for he was aged 25 Years when he succeeded his Father JOASH in the Throne, 2 Kim. xiv. 2. He was born when King Joash was aged 22.

JOASH, observing the Temple to be much out of Repair, (for Athaliah's Bastard-Sons had demolish'd much of it, and had carry'd the dedicated Things to the Temple of Baalim), assembled the Priests and Levites, and commanded them to go throughout Judah, to gather Money of all Israel from Year to Year, and therewith to hasten the Reparations of that glorious Edifice. But when he saw that the Levites did not make hast enough,

JOASH call'd for old Jehoiadab, and the other Priests in the Ninth Jubilee Year, and chid them for not forwarding the good Work, and forbid them to receive any more Money; but order'd a Coffer, with an Hole in its Lid, to be set beside the Great Altar without the Door of the Holy Place: and made Proclamation throughout the Kingdom, for all People to bring to her Money, as they should be able, for the Reparation of the Temple, which the Levites and Soldiers that smote them all with the Edge of the Sword, brought forth their Images and burnt them, broke down the great Image of Baal and his Temple, which became a Draught-House ever after. Thus JEHU destroy'd Baal out of Israel.

Wherefore Jehovah, by a Prophet, said to JEHU, Because thou hast done well, in executing what is right in my Eyes, and hast done unto the House of Achab according to all that was in my Heart, thy Children of the fourth Generation shall sit on the Throne of Israel! Which Promise was fulfill'd exactly; for his Son Jehoachaz, and his Son Jehoash, and his Son Jeroboam II. and his Son Zachariah, came successively to be Kings of Israel.

But JEHU, no doubt, had obtained a more ample Promise, if he had took heed to walk in the Law of Jehovah, the God of Israel, with all his Heart: Whereas, tho' he had destroy'd Baal's Worship, Jehu carried on his Reformation no farther, and departed not from the Sins of Jeroboam, the Son of Nebat, but maintain'd and patroniz'd the Idolatry of the Golden Calves at Bethel and Dan all his Days. Therefore God sent

Hazael, King of Syria, against him, who smote them in all the Coasts of Israel East of the Jordan, viz. the Reubenites, the Gadites, and Half Manassites, from Aroer near the Arnon even to Basban and Gilead: For in those Days Jehovah began to cut Israel short; but permitted Jehu to possess the Land of Israel West of the Jordan.

So after JEHU had reign'd full 28 Years he died, and was buried among the Kings of Israel in Samaria, and was succeeded by

XI. J E H O A C H A Z his Son, who reigned in all 17 Years; and he following also the Sins of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, God punish'd him by sending against him Hazael, the King of Syria, who, having already thresh'd Gilead with Instruments of Iron, (Amos i. 3.) came now invading Israel West of the Jordan, penetrated into the Heart of the Country, and secur'd his Passage thro' Israel even to Philistia, which he invaded, and, having took the strong City of Gath, he became the Terror of all the neighbouring Nations. But in the Land of Israel, Hazael burns

KINGS of J U D A H.

requir'd, until they finish'd the Repairs of the Temple, the King's Secretary and the High-Priest's Officer emptying the Chest every Day; and the King and Jehoiadab paying the Workmen by the Hands of faithful Men that were not call'd to Account, nor was any of the Money employ'd for any other Use, until the Temple was put into its former State and Strength; But then they gave the Remainder of the Money to the King and Jehoiadab, whereof were made Vessels for the House of the Lord that were much wanted; tho' they were soon wanted again.

For Hazael, King of Syria, having subdued Israel and Philistia, and taken Gath, (as in the other Column) publish'd his Resolution to besiege Jerusalem: Upon the News, King JOASH took all the hollow'd Things of the Temple, that he and his Fathers Achaziah, Jeoram and Jebozabab had dedicated, and he took all the Gold found in the Temple and in the Palace, and sent it all to Hazael, whereby the Syrian turn'd Northward from Jerusalem to his Conquests in Israel.

But we may well suppose, that Jehoiadab, the good High-Priest, was dead; else he would have found Ways and Means to preserve the precious Things of the Temple, and to prevent this scandalous Homage of King Joash to the Syrian Tyrant: For it is written, 2 Chr. xxiv. 14. &c. That after the Vessels of Gold and Silver were made for the Temple, They offer'd Burnt-Offerings there continually all the Days of Jehoiadab; who died, aged 130 Years, and was buried in the City of David, among the Kings, for the Good he had done.

After Jehoiadab's Death, the Princes of Judah (those especially that had retain'd their Idolatry in secret) came to King Joash, and, having made flattering Obedience to him, prevail'd with him to hearken to their wicked Counsels, and so He and the Princes left the Temple of Jehovah, the God of their Fathers, and served Groves and Idols; and God's Wrath came up on Judah and Jerusalem for this their Treachery.

Thus Judah, by the Example of their apostate King and Princes, became an idolatrous People. nay, obstinate in their Trespasse. For, tho' God sent several Prophets to bear their Testimony against them, and to reclaim them to Jebovab, they would not give ear.

When JOASH had reigned full 37 Years, in the beginning of this Year, his Nephew Je-hoash, or Jash, began to reign over Israel, as Partner first with his Father Jibachaz.

And now, while the Kingdom of Israel begins to revive, Judah decays apace; for Japhi and his Princes, having forsaken the true God, are forsaken of him, and left to their own Delusions.

At length the Spirit of God came upon Jatharab the Priest, the Son of Jehoadab, called also Berachab, Mat. xiii. 35. who stood above the People, and said, Why marvel ye at the Commandments of Jehovah? Ye cannot profane, for, because ye are Jews, ye have taken for taken you! Which faithful, solemn and reasonable Warning, which no Doubts, often repeated gave great Offence to that apostate People, who conspired against him, and, at the Command of King JOASH, they stoned him to death in the Court of the Temple, and in the Great Court, and the Holy Place, and, when they had thus given him his due, they took up his Bones, and required it! 2 Cor. xii. 21, 22.

burnt their strong Holds, slew their young Men with the Sword, and their Infants with Dabbing, and ripte up their Women with Child; according to the Prophecy of Elisha: So that Jehoachaz could not stand before him, but fled from Place to Place during almost all his Reign; for Hazael sorely oppressed Israel while he liv'd.

At length Hazari, King of Syria, after a long and triumphant Reign, died; yet Benhabad, his Son and Successor, maintain'd his Father's Conquests, and oppress'd Israel after the same manner; tho' not long: For

King Jehoaiah, under his long Affliction, became so wise as to pray at last, not to the Calves of Dan and Bethel, but to Jehovah only, who hearken'd unto him, was gracious to Israel, and had Compassion on them; because of his Covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and would not yet destroy them, by casting them out of his Presence: But gave to Israel a Saviour, tho' they were first forc'y reduc'd, being beat by the Syrians like Dust by threshing, and King Jehoahaz could muster no more than 10 Chariots, 50 Horsemen, and 10000 Footmen, for Benhadad had destroy'd all the other military Men. The Saviour that God rais'd was

XII J E H O A S H, or JOASH, the Son of King Jehoashaz, who in the 16th Year of his Father's Reign, and the end of the 37th Year, or beginning of the 38th of the Reign of Jashb, King of Judah, was advanc'd to be Partner with his Father in the Throne, and reigned 16 Years in Samarra with great Grandeur, to the Support and Comfort of his Father's latter Days.

This young King wisely visited Elisha, then a dying, and wept over the Prophet's Face, saying, O my Father, my Father, the Chariots of Israel, and the Horsemen thereof! as Elisha had said of Elijah at his Rapture. The Prophet well rewarded the King's kind Visit, bidding him take Bow and Arrows, and to put his Hand upon the Bow, and Elisha, putting his Hands upon the King's Hands, bid him open the Window Eastward towards Syria, and shoot, saying, The Arrow of Jehovah's Deliverance, and the Arrow of Deliverance from Syria! for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them! Then Elisha bid the King take Arrows and smite on the Ground, and the King smote thrice, and staid; which offended Elisha, who said to the King, Thou shouldst have smote five or six times; for then hadst thou smitten Syria, till thou hadst consumed it; whereas thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

So the great Prophet Elisha died, and was honourably buried in the Sepulchre of his Fathers at Aksh-Mekelab.

Then King Jeboash, raising his small Forces, began to accomplish the Prophecy of Elisba, and beat the Assyrian Army out of the Field the first Time.

Benhadad, King of Syria, now desirous to give King Jehoshaphat a Diversion, instigated the Ammonites to raise some Bands of military Men, to invade and spoil the Land of Israel; and one of those Bands, marching towards Abel-Meholah, disturbed the People burying a Man, who therefore cast the Corpse hastily into the Sepulchre of Elisba, but when it touched the Bones of Elisba, the Man reviv'd and stood upon his Feet, in the beginning of Jehoshaphat's 2d Year.

King Z. b. b. b. having dispersed the Bands of the Aloabites, drew forth his Army against Borbadad, and obtained the second Victory over the Syrians.

KINGS of JUDAH.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

Thus King Joash remember'd not the Kindness of Jehoiadab, but slew his Son Zachariah. and by 2 Chron xxiv 24. it seems the King shed the Blood of several of Jehoiadab's Sons: But Jehoiadab did amply requite it.

For first Joash was grievously afflicted with sore Diseases, and at the end of the Year, God animated Benhadad to send a small Army of Syrians against Jedab and Jerusalem, and Jehorab deliver'd into their Hands the great Army of Jedab: Thus the Syrians executed God's Judgment against Joash, for they destroy'd all the Princes of the People, and carried off great Spoil to their King at Damascus, leaving King Joash under great Diseases: So that, being unfit for Government.

X. AMAZIAH, his Son, was advanc'd to be his Partner in the Throne, in the same second Year of Jehoash, King of Israel, 2 Kin xiv. 7. But soon after the Syrians were gone home, two of Joash's Servants conspir'd against him, and slew him on his Bed; and the People buried him in the City of David, but not in the Royal Sepulchre.

Therefore, tho' Amaziah began to reign in the 39th Year of his Father, and in the 2d Year of Jehoash, King of Israel; yet the 29 Years of his Reign are not reckon'd from thence, but from the 40th Year of his Father, when he was just 25 Years old, 2 Kin xiv. 2. and began to reign alone 29 Years; that is, 14 Years Contemporary with Jehoash, King of Israel, and 15 Years after the Death of Jehoash, 2 Kin xiv. 17. which regulates the Commencement of his Reign, the last, or 40th Year of King Joash, being the first of King Amaziah.

This King, much like his Father, began well, but ended ill, and made much the same sort of Exit: For he began doing what is right before Jehorab, tho' not with a perfect Heart; and, as soon as the Kingdom was establish'd to him, King AMAZIAH slew the two Servants that had murder'd his Royal Father; but he slew not their Children, according to the Law of Moses, Deut xxiv. 16. Yet the High Places were not taken away, and in them the People still sacrificed and burnt Incense, as well as in the Temple.

AMAZIAH muster'd all the fighting Men in his Kingdom from 20 Years old and above, and found them 300000 choice Men for War, fit to handle Shield and Spear, and made Colonels over Thousands, and Captains over Hundreds, according to their Families.

King AMAZIAH, intending an Expedition against the Edomites, hir'd 100000 valiant Men of Israel, for 100 Talents of Silver: But by a Prophet he was dissuaded from taking those Auxiliaries with him, and rather to lose his 100 Talents than provoke God to desert him, and so the King sent them back to Ephraim, who were therefore very angry, and, in their Return, they fell heavy on the Cities of Judah, kill'd 3000 People, and carried off great Spoil.

At last he march'd his Army into Mount Serr, pitching in the Valley of Salt, and took the Rock Sela by Siege, (which he call'd Joktheel), slew 10000 Edomites, and cast down 10000 more of 'em from the top of the Rock, where they were dash'd to pieces.

But tho' AMAZIAH overcame the Edomites, he was overcome by their Idolatry; for, having brought home their Image-Gods, he bowed down before them, and burnt Incense to them, whereby he provoked the Anger of Jehorab, who sent a Prophet, saying, Why hast thou sought after the Gods that could not deliver thee from the Hand of the Edomites? To which the King said, Art thou a Member of the Privy Council? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? So the Prophet forbore, but at parting said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened to my Counsel. Which Prophecy was soon accomplish'd: For

AMAZIAH too elated by his Victory over the Edomites, sent an insolent Message to Jehoash, King of Israel, saying, As I have done to the Edomites, so will I do to thee, unless thou wilt be my Partner in the Kingdom. which

And now JEHOACHAZ, having manag'd Affairs at home, while his Partner and Son King Jehoash pursued the War abroad, and having seen the Revival of his Kingdom, died in Peace this Year, and was buried in the Royal Sepulchre at Samaria, and left the sole Government to his valiant and worthy Son.

But Benhadad was not so weaken'd yet, as to be unable to distress Judah and Jerusalem by a Detachment of his Army; as in the other Column: Nay, the Syrians, having much recruited their Strength by the Spoils of Judah, rais'd a great Army against Israel, and incamped in the Plains of Aphek; where the valiant King Jehoash attack'd them, and gave them the third total Rout, (according to the Prophecy of dying Elisha.)

So that the Syrians came no more into the Land of Israel, and King JEHOASH recover'd all the Cities, that Pazael and Benhadad took from his Father Jehoachaz, (but not what Pazael took from Jehu his Grandfather) and thus became the Saviour of Israel, delivering his People from the Oppression of the Syrians, and making them dwell securely in their Tents, as in former Times of Peace.

Nevertheless, they departed not from the Idolatry of Jeroboam the Son of Nebat, but worshipped still before the Calbes at Dan and Bethel, and in the Grove at Samaria; which caus'd their Extirpation at last.

Yet King JEHOASH reign'd in great Splendor, and his Kingdom reviv'd and flourish'd apace, his People encreasing and becoming again a very warlike Nation: And for some Reasons of State he advanc'd his Son JEROBOAM II. to be his Partner in the Throne, or to rule at Home, while his Father Jehoash prosecuted his Wars Abroad, or was employ'd perhaps in fortifying his Kingdom round the Frontiers. But though the 41 Years of Jeroboam's Reign are only reckon'd from his Father's Death, or the Years of his sole Reign; yet, because it is written, 2 Kin xv. i. That Azariah King of Judah began to reign in the 27th Year of this Jeroboam, we suppose, that Jeroboam was now made his Father's Partner, for adjusting them 27 Years: Whereby the Interregnum, or Vacancy of the Throne of Israel upon the Death of Jeroboam, will be found to last only 11 Years and 6 Months; whereas they who allow not of Jeroboam's becoming now his Father's Partner, make the said Interregnum to last 22 Years, which is rather too long: Nor is there any Absurdity in this Allowance; for it only makes Jeroboam to have reign'd in all 52 Years, (as Azariah did in Judah) viz. 11 Years as Partner with his Father, not reckon'd in Scripture, and 41 Years after his Father's Death.

King JEHOASH, being provoked by King Amaziah's insolent Message, (as in the other Column) sent him his Answer, The Thistle sent to the Cedar in Lebanon, saying, Give thy Daughter which provid almost his Ruin as in the other Column, having lost his Honour and Wealth by losing the Battel of Bethshemesh; for the Idols of Ecron could not assist him, when Jehovah had abandon'd him to the Domination of Ishbaal King of Israel, who made him his Tributary.

Yet under his Distress he had some Comfort; for mean while his Queen Jethiah bore to him

Uzziah, or Amaziah, his Son; for he was aged 16 when his Father AMAZIAH died: And likewise he was deliver'd from his Homage by the Death of his Enemy Jeboash King of Israel, (as in the other Column, the same Year he was beat at Bethshemesh).

So that the 15th Year of Amaziah is the first Year of Jeroboam's sole Reign.
But tho' AMAZIAH liv'd after the Death of Jeboash King of Israel 15 Years, he reign'd inglorious; nor did his Afflictions work any Reformation in him, but he continued a perverse Idolater, and his Kingdom continued weak and poor, because he turn'd away from following Jehovah.

At last, his People seeing Israel flourish, while they were miserable, and imputing all their Misfortunes to their weak and wicked King, conspired against him at Jerusalem; and Amaziah, discovering their Plot, fled to Lachish. But, before he could gather an Army, the Conspirators pursued him, and slew him at Lachish; yet brought back his Corpse, and buried him with his Fathers in the City of David. And, to shew their Love to the Royal Family, all the People of Judah met, and crowned his Son AZARIAH, or Uzziah, then 16 Years old.

XL. UZZIAH, or Amaziah, the Son of Amaziah, aged 16, began to reign in the 16th Year of the sole Reign of King Jeroboam II. or 27th Year of Jeroboam's beginning to reign, (as above hinted, and as in the other Column, and reigned 52 Years

He did that which was right in the Sight of Jehovah, (as Amaziah his Father had done in the beginning of his Reign) being under the influence of the Prophet Zachariah, who was well skill'd in the Visions of God, and who taught the young King to seek unto Jehovah only, and to abhor Idolatry; and, as long as he sought Jehovah, God made him to prosper. For

King UZZIAH employ'd Jehiel the Scribe, and Maasiah the Ruler, to muster the fighting Men of his Kingdom, and rais'd an Army of 307500, under their Chief 2600, commanded by Hananiah the General; and for them the King prepar'd the military Arms of those Times, viz. Swords, Spears, Helmets, Habergeons, Bows, and Slings to cast Stones.

He also rebuilt that Part of the Wall of Jerusalem, which Jeboash King of Israel had demolish'd in the 14th Year of his Father Amaziah, and built strong Towers at the Corner Gate, at the Valley-Gate, and at the Turrets of the Wall, and fortify'd 'em, and got Engines invented by fine Artists, to be placed on the Towers and Bulwarks, to shoot Arrows and great Stones.

This King, loving Agriculture and Pasture, had many Husbandmen, and also Vine-Dressers in the Mountains and fruitful Fields: and, having much Cattel, he built Towers in the Desert for the Defence of his Flocks, and digged many Wells or Cisterns for their Watering.

His first Attack was upon the Moabites and Edomites, which seem'd to have been (2 Chron xxvi. 2, soon after the Burial of his Father, having beat 'em in the Field, he penetrated as far as the Red Sea, and recover'd from them that Part of the Coast, which had appertain'd to Judah by the Conquest of David, and which King Jehoram had lost when the Edomites recover'd their Liberty, even Ezion-Geber and Elath, the last of which King UZZIAH rebuilt, and renew'd the old East-India Trade there; for Ezion-Geber had lost its Reputation ever since the Ruin of Jeio'soposar's Fleet.

Now God sent Prophets that should testify against Israel and Judah, and consign their Testimony to writing, as Parts of God's Written Word; for though there was a constant Succession of Prophets, there was no Addition made to the Written Word since the Days of Solomon, till now, that Judah had been much corrupted in the late Reigns, especially since the Murder of Zachariah the Priest and Prophet; and that the High Places were not yet removed out of Judah; and that the Israelites, for all their great Mercies, persever'd in the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. Therefore now God sent Prophets to denounce his Judgments, that should consign their Prophecies to Writing, as Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, and Isaiah, who all began to prophesy in the Days of King UZZIAH, and committed their Prophecies in Writing to the Church of the Jews, as Parts of the Sacred Deposit, the Written Word of God.

Hosea was the first of these Prophets; for his Book (Chap. 1. 2.) is call'd The Beginning of the Word of Jehovah by Hosea, who prophesied in the Days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahabaz and Hezekiah, Kings of Judah, a long Time, and saw many of his Prophecies fulfill'd.

Joel and Amos were the next Prophets (as in the other Column,) That the Earthquake, foretold by Joel and Amos, happen'd in Judah as well as in Israel appears from Zech. xiv. 5. — Yea, you shall flee like as ye fled from before the Earthquake in the Days of Uzziah, King of Judah

The Kingdom of Macedonia is suppos'd to begin this Year, under CARANUS the first of the Perarridas, 460 Years before ALEXANDER the Great invaded Asia.

This Year of the Julian Period 3923, in the Feast of Pentecost, and 24th of June, happen'd an Eclipse of the SUN about the Extent of ten Digits, which with other Eclipses (that shall be mention'd in their Time) were foretold by the Prophet Amos, Chap. viii. 9. And it shall come to pass in that Day, saith Adonai Jehovah, that I will cause the Sun to go down at Noon, and I will darken the Earth at cleat Day. This happen'd 190 Years before the first Eclipse foretold by Chales the Greek, who was the first Heathen that calculated Eclipses.

God sent Prophets to reclaim Israel from their Idolatry and Immorality, who consign'd some of their Prophecies to writing, as Parts of God's Written Word.

Israel persevering in the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. for all their Deliverances and Mercies under JEROBOAM II. and proving still obstinate against all Admonitions by the Prophets, God punished them, and also the Jews.

First, With a terrible Earthquake foretold by Joel, Chap. ii. 10. and more particularly by Amos, for the Date of his Book is in the Days of Uzziab and Jeroboam II. Two Years before the Earthquake This, being the first Judgment, could not happen two Years before the Death of Jeroboam, (as some think) but now in his 29th Year.

The Second Judgment was by a great Famine, by Locusts, Caterpillars and Canker-worms foretold by Joel, Chap. i. which he calls the Northern Army, because they came from Hamath and Syria; and keeping in a Body devour'd all the Growth of the Ground till they reached the South, and were famish'd in the barren Ground near the Lake of Sodom. This most affected the Kingdom of Israel, and seems to have been removed at the Prayer of Amos, Chap. vii. 2, 3. But that Joel foretold the Famine before Amos, appears by Amos's complaining, Chap. iv. 6. That the Famine had not brought them to Repentance.

The Third Judgment was by an extreme Drought for want of Rain, Amos iv. 7, 8.

The Fourth Judgment was by Blasting, and Mildew, and the Palmer-Worm, Ver. 9.

The Fifth Judgment was by Pestilence, after the manner of Egypt, Ver. 10. whereby their young Men and their Horses were slain as effectually as by the Sword, and the Stink of their Camps came up into their Nostrils.

The Sixth Judgment was by Fire, which Joel bemoan'd the Prospect of, Chap. i. 19. Ob Jehovah, to thee will I cry; for the Fire hath devoured the Pastures in the Wilderness, and the Flame hath burnt all the Trees of the Field! And Amos viii. 4. — Behold Adonai Jehovah call'd to contend by Fire, and it devoured the great Deep, and did eat up a Part; the Rivers were dried up, and some of their Cities burnt down like Sodom and Gomorrah; (Chap. iv. 11.) which was remov'd by the Prayer of Amos, (Chap. vii. 5, 6.)

But tho' Israel was like a Firebrand pluckt out of the Burning, yet they return'd not from their Idolatry and Immorality unto Jehovah; therefore God sent Amos to denounce

The Seventh and final Judgment, Ch. vii. even their Extirpation, That God would make the High Places of Isaac desolate, and lay waste the Sanctuaries of Israel, and rise against the House of Jeroboam II. with the Sword.

Upon which Amasiah the idolatrous Priest of Bethel sent to the King, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the House of Israel, and the Land is not able to bear his Words: For he saith, Jeroboam shall die by the Sword, (which Amos did not say) and Israel shall be carried captive

KINGS of JUDAH.

King UZZIAH now might march his Army against the Philistines, whom he beat in the Field, took in their strong Forts, dismantled their three principal Cities, Gath, Jabneh and Asdod, and built Cities at pleasure throughout Philistia, 2 Chron. xxvi. 6.

The Prophet Jonah is now sent to preach Repentance to Assur King of Ninveh, and all the People of that great City, saying, Yet forty Days and Ninveh shall be overthrown: Upon which King Assur and all the People repented in Sackcloth; wherefore Jehovah did not then destroy them. But they, returning to their Idolatry and Immorality, were actually overthrown in forty Years, accounting a Day for a Year, under the Government of his detestable Son Sardanapalus.

The Prophet Ebediah lived in these Times; for he is not mention'd at and after the Destruction of Jerusalem, and he foretels not the Captivity of Israel in Assyria, and of Judah in Babylon; but in Zarephath and Seppharad near the Zidonians, viz. Of a small Captivity of Israelites and Jews by the Inroads of the Zidonians, who seem to have sold their Captives to the Edomites, that treated them wretchedly, for which and for their former Insults and Injuries, the Edomites are severely threaten'd by this Prophet.

This Year JOTHAM was born, the Son and Successor of King UZZIAH, by his Queen Saraphah, the Daughter of Zadok; for he was aged 25 when Uzziah died. 2 Ks. ix. 33.

And now, while Israel had no King, we may suppose that King UZZIAH, being well strengthen'd on the Seab and West, by having conquer'd the Edomites and Philistines, began to extend his Arms towards the East, when Jehovah helped him against the Arabians in Bezek, so that the Ammonites, afraid of a military Visit from his victorious Troops, sent Embassadors with rich Presents to UZZIAH, 2 Chron. xxvi. 7, 8.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

capture out of their Land. The King it seems gave Orders to banish the Prophet; for Amasiah said to him, O thou Seer, go, flee to the Land of Judah, and prophesy there; but prophesy no more at Bethel, for it is the King's Chapel and Court! But Amos, having declared his Commission from Jehovah to leave his Flocks in Tekoa, and go to prophecy in Israel, at parting pronounced Amasiah's Doom, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, thy Wife shall be an Harlot in the City, and thy Children shall fall by the Sword, and thy Land shall be divided by Line, and thou shalt die in a polluted Land, and Israel shall surely go into Captivity.

We read no more of King Jeroboam II. but that he slept with his Fathers, and was buried with the Kings of Israel in Samaria. But as this King brought the Kingdom of Israel to its highest Pitch of Grandeur; so from his Death, the Ruin of that Kingdom commenceth: For his Son Zachariah not being of Age, and other great Men aiming at the Crown, and the People foregall'd by the late Plagues, not agreeing in a Successor to the Throne, they fell into anarchy: And so there was

1 An Interregnum, or vacant Throne, during 11 Years and 6 Months, which is necessary to our Chronology, in order to bring in Zachariah to reign 6 Months in the 38th Year of Uzziah. Mean while

2 The Country of Israel is govern'd by Magistrates without a King, whereby Uzziah King of Judah could extend his Conquests a little Eastward, (as in the other Column) but the Syrians and Assyrians now prosper'd apace.

6 Now the Grecians arriv'd to a little Skill in Chronology, by recording the Olympic Games, which Hercules had instituted for the Honour of Jove, in the Fields of Olympia, a Town of Etes in Peloponnesus, to be celebrated every Fourth Year for the training the Youth in Exercises of Activity; and the Victor was crown'd with Olive Branches after five Days contending, which began from the New Moon in July.

9 And this Year Corabus won the Prize, which is reckon'd the First Year of the first Olympiad, though it is the 28th Year after Iphitus had begun those Games. See Græca Eusebiana Scaligeri.

But before this Reckoning, the Grecian History is fabulous and uncertain; for History without Chronology is not worth much: Though yet we don't find, that the Olympiads were used in a general Reckoning till some hundred Years afterwards.

10 HESIOD died about the beginning of the Olympiads, vid. Solinum.

11 At length the Party in Israel, that stood up for the House of Jehu, prevail'd above the other Parties; and so

XIV. ZACHARIAH, the Son of Jeroboam II. mounted his Father's Throne, 2 Kin. xv. 8. in the 38th Year of Uzziah, the fourth and last of Jehu's Offspring, according to the Promise above-mention'd, 2 Kin. x. 30.

But he, following the ill Example of his Fathers, reign'd only 6 Months; for Shallum, the Son of Jabez, conspir'd against him, and slew him before the People, and reign'd in his stead, 2 Kin. xv. 10. Whereby was fulfill'd the Prophecy of Amos, Ch. vii. 9. — And I will rise against the House of Jeroboam with the Sword! And also the Prophecy of Hosea, Chap. i. 4. For yet a little, and I will avenge the Blood of Jezebel upon the House of Jehu.

The CHRONOLOGY of Israel and Judah, from the Slaughter of ZACHARIAH, King of Israel, to the Extirpation of that Kingdom, during 52 Years.

KINGS of JUDAH.

Now the Kingdom of Assyria begins to decline, and that of Sinubith begins to flourish under its mighty King PUL the Great, who conquer'd all the little Kingdoms round him, and became the first Emperor of Assyria, for all the Assyrian Monarchs before him are fabulous, the large Country of Assyria having been divided into little Kingdoms, perhaps ever since the Death of Nimrod, that were never united under one Prince till now. This is the Nation without a Name that God threaten'd Amos vi. 14. to raise up against the House of Israel to afflict them from Hamath to the Desert, whereby we find that they were not raised up, or were not a famous and formidable Nation in the Reign of Jeroboam II. King of Israel, but since that Prophecy God had rais'd up that Nation: And now their King Pul, having nothing to fear from the Country East of the Euphrates, began to invade the Country West of that River; and having first humbled the Syrians and Hamathites. King PUL march'd his victorious Army to the Frontiers of Israel, (as in the other Column)

PUL seems to be the Father of his Successor SARDAN-PUL, or Sardanapalus, as Merodach of Babylon, the Son of Baladan, is call'd Merodach-Baladan, Isa xxxix. 1. But Pul is variously call'd by the Antients, as Acrasanes, Ottazapes, Cyndaraxes, Ana-Cyndaraxes.

And now the Assyrians having made a Way from Nimveh to Canaan, the Israelites are brought into a Dependence upon Assyria to their Extirpation; for which the Prophet (Hos v. 13.) reproves them, saying, When Ephraim saw his Sickness, and Judah saw his Wound, then sent Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to King Jareb; another Name of King Pul, or of one of his Successors: And the same Prophet (Hos vii. 11. and viii. 9.) compares Ephraim to a filly Dove without Heart, and to a Wild Ash, for the same impolitic Conduct.

ROMULUS and Remus born this Year, just 18 Years before the Founding of Rome.

Achaz, the Son of Prince Jotham, the Son of King UZZIAH, was born this Year; for he was aged 20 Years when he began to reign, 2 Kin. xvi. 2. But seeing Achaz reign'd only 16 Years, and that when he died his Son Hezekiah was aged 25 Years, according to this Chronology, Achaz, not born before this Year, could be no older than Eleven Years at most when Hezekiah was born: Therefore some, judging that Age too early for Marriage, have thought the Scripture intimated, that Achaz was 20 Years old, not when he himself began to reign, but when his Father Jotham began to reign. See the foregoing Table at the Year of the World 3226.

Now the great Prophet Isaiah began to officiate and write, for he prophesied under Uzziah, Jotham, Achaz and Hezekiah, Kings of Judah; tho' he has left no more than his first Five Chapters belonging to this Reign; for Chap. vi. 1. In the Year that King Uzziah died, Isaiah had the Vision there mention'd. Perhaps he began in the Year that Achaz was born; and from those Five Chapters we may see, that the People of Judah and Jerusalem were very much degenerated; for Isaiah complains, that they continued impenitent under all the Judgments of God; that, tho' they maintain'd the External of religious Worship, they had not demolish'd the High Places, but worshipp'd the Idols of the Gentiles; that they declar'd their Sin like Sodom, and hid it not; that all sorts of People were immoral, particularly the Woman were vain, proud, immodest and profuse, and had got so much the Ascendant of the Men, that the Government was mostly in their Hands; so that Children were as Wise as Men, and Women ruled over them. For which God was provok'd to denounce

KINGS of ISRAEL.

King Zachariah being slain by Shallum, and the Race of Jehu extinct. XV. SHALLUM, the Son of Jabezb, forthwith usurp'd the Throne in the first Month of this Year; but he reign'd no longer than one full Month: For Benarhem, the Son of Gadi, the Head of another Party in Israel, came with his Forces from Tirzah to Samaria, where he slew King Shallum, 2 Kin. xv. 13. &c.

And because the City Tiphsab open'd not the Gates to him in his Way to Samaria, he return'd and smote all the Inhabitants thereof, and of the Neighbourhood, striking Terror by ripping up all the Women with Child.

But after Benarhem had struggled for the Crown about eleven Months, Pul King of Assyria, or of Nimveh, having made the Syrians tributary, and hearing of the confus'd State of Israel, march'd his victorious Army from Syria to the Borders of Israel; when Benarhem sent to treat with him, and agreed to pay him 1000 Talents of Silver, on Condition that Pul should assist him to mount the Throne of Israel. So Benarhem having rais'd the Money from wealthy Men at 50 Shekels a Man, and Pul having establish'd Benarhem on the Throne, return'd home with his Money; and

XVI. MENACHEM began to reign during ten Years, viz. in the latter end of the 39th, or beginning of the 40th, Year of King UZZIAH, when an Eclipse of the Sun happen'd almost 12 Digits, on the 8th of November, at the Feast of Tabernacles. This Year of the Julian Period 3944 another Eclipse of the Sun happen'd more than 11 Digits, on the 5th of May, at the Feast of the Passover. Both which Eclipses seem to have been foretold by the Prophet Amos, as remark'd in the foregoing Table.

King Pul being dead, his Son Sardanapalus this Year succeeded in the Imperial Throne of Assyria, and reigned at Nimveh 20 Years.

According to an Epitaph from Clitarchus quoted by Strabo, Athenicus and Arrianus, this King Sardanapalus built in one Day Amchialus and Carfus, two Cities in Cilicia in Lesser Asia; the Conquests of his Father Pul extending so far West.

When Benarhem died, his Son PEKAHIAH succeeded to the Crown, and reigned two Years as bad as his Father, following the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. and the Immoralities of former Reigns.

About this Time Halyattes the Elder began to reign in Lydia of Lesser Asia, during 14 Years, where Cresus afterwards reigned.

many fore Judgments against them throughout the 5th Chapter, and particularly to threaten their Captivity.

King UZZIAH in his old Age was too confident of his Power, and his Heart was lifted up to his Destruction: for he transgressed against Jehovah his God, by going into the Temple with a Design to burn Incense upon the Altar of Incense: But Izariah the High Priest, with 80 valiant Priests, followed him, and withstood him, saying, It appertaineth not to thee, Uzziah, to burn Incense unto Jehovah, but to the Priests, the Sons of Aaron, that are consecrated for the Work: Go out of the Sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed, neither shall it be for thy Honour from Jehovah! Then Uzziah was wroth at the Priests; but while he had a Censer in his Hand, attempting to burn Incense, and standing by the Altar, God struck him with Leprosy, which appear'd in his Forehead immediately; and the Priests thrust him out, nay, he hastened out himself, because Jehovah had smote him; nor was he ever cured of it, but dwelt in a separate House, as became a Leper, till he died, and never saw the Temple again. Therefore Jerham his Son was over the King's House, judging the People of the Land during the last Year of Uzziah, 2 Chron. xxvi. 16, &c.

Thus Year the Prophet Isaiah had the Vision of God, as sitting upon the Throne in the Temple, high and lifted up, and his Train filled the Temple; above it stood the Seraphim, each with six Wings, proclaiming to each other, Holy, Holy, Holy is the LORD of Hosts, the whole Earth is full of his Glory! &c. Isa. vi. Job. xii. 40, 41.

This was in the Year that UZZIAH, King of Judah, died, when Isaiah received a Commission to blind the Eyes of the Jews, and harden their Hearts until their Captivity; yet God promised, that they shall not be extirpated like the Israelites, but that a Remnant shall return, as it happened.

N The latter end of this Year King UZZIAH died, and they buried him with his Fathers, not in the Royal Sepulchre, because he was a Leper, but in the Field of the Royal Sepulchre of David. And

XI. JOTHAM, the Son of Uzziah, the Son of Amaziah, the Son of Joash, the Son of Achaziah, the Son of Jerham, the Son of Jehoshaphat, the Son of Asa, the Son of Abiah the Son of Rehobeam, began to reign alone, during 16 Years, in this XIVth Year of Jubilee—being now aged 25 Years, following the good Examples of his Father, and doing that which was right in the Sight of Jehovah; yet the High Places were not taken away, and the People sacrificed and burnt Incense upon them: Yet

JOTHAM, though his Mother was the High Priest's Daughter, presum'd not to enter the Temple, in order to burn Incense, as his Father did, but employ'd himself in Royal Works: For he rebuilt the High Gate between the Palace and the Temple, and on the Wall of Opael he built much. Also he built Cities in the Mountains of Judah, and Castles and Towers in the Forests.

JOTHAM also rais'd an Army against the King of the Ammonites, and, having overcome him, he forced the Ammonites to pay him an 100 Talents of Silver, and 10000 Measures of Wheat, and 10000 Measures of Barley, annually, for three Years current. Thus Jotham became a mighty King, because he had establish'd his Ways before Jehovah his God.

Athasiah, the Son of Prince Achaz, the Son of King JOTHAM, began to reign; for when he came to the Throne he was aged 25 Years. But Athasiah was only aged now 10 Years, if he was but 20 Years old when he came to the Throne, therefore his more plausible suppos'd, that Athasiah was aged 20 Years when his Father Jotham began to reign, as above observ'd.

When XVIII. PEKAHIAH had reign'd two Years compleat, one of his Captains, XIX. PEKAH, the Son of Ramaliab, conspir'd against him, and slew him in the Royal Palace of Samaria, with his principal Officers, and 50 Gentlemen of Gilead, and reign'd in his stead during 20 Years.

N. B. In the Number of the Kings of ISRAEL there is a Typographical Error, beginning at JEHU in Tab. 16, where JEHU should be reckon'd the XIth King; and so

- XV. ZACHARIAH.
- XVI. SHALLUM.
- XVII. MENACHEM.
- XVIII. PEKAHIAH.

Aradus, a City in Phenicia, and Cyzicus, a City in Propontis, were built this Year, as Eusebius testifies. Arbaces, Governour of Media, detesting the Effeminacy of his Master Sardanapalus, conspir'd against him, with Belshazz the Governour of Chaldea; and these two Generals brought an Army against him of 400000 Medes, Persians, Chaldeans and Arabians, who beat him in three Battels; but, the Forces of the Bactrians coming over to him, he surpriz'd the Conspirators in the Night, and beat them out of their Camp.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

7 PEKAH King of Israel, and REZIN King of Syria, now confederate against the King of Judah, in order to make the Son of Tabeal King of Judah, and prepared a formidable Army for that Purpose, designing soon to put their Project in Execution. Some think the Person called the Son of Tabeal was a noble Jew, that had revolted from King Topham.

Firebrands, Resin and Polishing for that year. Confessing, as on 9 March, that we prosper. No. 51—number 65 Years Epitaph. To be extracted, and to be more a subject Nation, in V. 1—p. 5. & the Accomplishment at the Year of the World 222—

Moreover Jeremiah by the Prophet said, Turn ye to ACHAZ, Ask thee a Sign of the Pe'nerance either in the Depth or in the Heights! but Achaz having replied, I will not ask neither will I tempt JEROVAH! the Prophet said, Hear ye now, O House of David! Is it a small thing for you to weary Men, but will ye weary my God also? therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign, behold a VIRGIN shall conceive, and bear a Son, and she shall call his Name IMMANUEL, Isa. vii. 10-14. This is the Promise of the Logos, or Hera incarnated, the great Immanuel, or Theanthropos, GOD-MAN, God with us, or dwelling in our Nature. This Promise, which was not soon to be fulfilled, was much for the present Purpose, because in Immanuel all God's Promises are Yea and Amen, to be fulfilled in him, and for him, and upon his Account, and because Judah, by a special Privilege, is called IMMANUEL'S Land (this you shall see Immanuel was to be born of the House of David, according to the Fifth, and (according to the old Jacob's Prophecy) not before the Scepter should depart from Judah. Which refers the Promise of the Virgin's bearing Immanuel secured the House of David, and the Jewish Nation, from the Fear of being extirpated with Israel in 65 Years Time.

Upon Isaiah's pronouncing this Oracle, God orders him forthwith to foretel the imminent Fall of Rezin and Sisrah; which he demonstrates by pointing to his young son then with him, Sheer-Jasub, (signifying a Remnant shall return) living to ACHAZ. Butter and Honey shall be cut; but before he is of Age, to refuse the Evil and chase the Good, the Land, or Israel and Syria, that thou abhorrest, shall be forsaken of both her Kings; Isa. xii. 15, 16. Which Prophecy was soon accomplished, as in the Sequel on the other Column.

In the End of the same first Year of ACHAZ, Ishab's Wife having born to him another Son Jeiorab commanded him to call the Child Bahrr-ehalel Yash-Bat, signifying, In making haste to the Spoil, he hasteneth to the Prey, for, said God, Before the Child shall have Knowledge, to cry, My Father and my Mother, the Riches of Damascus and Spoil of Samaria shall be taken away by the Servants of the King of Assyria, Isa. viii 1-5.

Thus the Prophet might well say, Isa. viii. 18.) Bebold I and the Children, whom Jehovah hath given me, are for Signs and Wonders in Israel from Jehovah Sabaoth, the God-dallest on Mount Zion

But King Achaz, tho' delivered from present Danger, (as on the other Column was not thankful to his God, his Deliverer; nay, he became impious and immoral, and began to walk in the Ways of the King- of Israel, and made also molten Images for Baalim, and burnt Incense in the Valley of the Son of Hinnem, and made some of his Children to pass through the Fire in Sacrifice to Ashtar, after the Abominations of the Heathen, whom Jeroboam had cast out by the Israelites; he sacrificed also and burnt Incense in the High Places, and on the Hills, and under every green Tree, a Chron. xxviii. 1-5. Wherefore Jeroboam was provoked to send this Year the same Enemies against him, as on the other Column.

mean while King RAZI, having refreshed his Army at Damascus, (as on the orient Column), marched them the shortest Way to the Red Sea, and took the Port of Elath, near Felix-Geter from King Ashtas, which Uzziah had recovered, expelled the Yews out of it, and joined it with Syrians, defizing to ingross the East-India Trade, which Levi the Yew never recovered. Kin. xv. 16. Though the King of Sina claim'd long enjoy it, being San-nev-Ya or Ty-lu-Pu-fer, as on the orient Column, only the Syrians in Elath became the Subjects of Ty-lu-Pu-fer, and carried on the East-India Trade, though it is not certain at what Place he fix'd their principal Mart.

Nord said that Lucifer opened the Eyes of King Arbas to return to the true God, but on the contrary, He sent him into the Gobs of Damascus, and he did not return, saying, "Be a liar, Berazuff, the Goat of the Kings of Syria and Syria, I will go to the King, that they may kill me." But they were the Ruler of him, and of his I said in Obion (XVIII, 23).

KINGS of ISRAEL.

After the Assurance of Deliverance and Safety from Extirpation that God afforded to King Achaz, as on the other Column,

REZIN King of Syria, and PEKAH King of Israel, in this same first Year of Achaz, marched their confederate Army against Jerusalem, to which they laid Siege in vain; for God dispirited the Besiegers, and animated the Besieged: And so the Siege was raised, according to the Word of Isaiah; and the Son of Eabriel was disappointed of his Hopes. But King Achaz being ungrateful to God, Jehovah permitted next Year

Rezin and Pekah, to renew the War against Judah, who divided their Forces into three Bodies, the first commanded by King Rezin, the second by King Pekah, and the third by Zichri, a mighty Man of Ephraim; and they invaded Judah in three different Parts at the same time.

Rezin having ravaged the Country, and taken many Captives, thought it to return with his great Spoils to Damascus; and afterwards marched to the Red Sea, as on the other Column.

Pekab marched directly against King Achaz, who had raised a great Army; and made a good Stand against Pekab; but Achaz, encouraged by the Departure of Rezin to fight Pekab, was routed with a great Slaughter of 120000 in one Day, all valiant Men.

Zichri, upon this Defeat of Achaz, marched his Army to Jerusalem; which he took; where he slew Masfaiab, one of the Sons of Achaz; Azrikam, the Governour of the Palace; and Elkanab, that was next to the King.

King PEKAH and his General Zibri, having loaded their Army with Spoils, and taken 200000 Women and Children captive, returned to Samaria, designing to sell those Captives as Slaves; but were hindered by a certain Prophet called Isaiah, who went to meet the Army near Samaria, saying, Because Jehovah, the God of your Fathers, was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your Hand, and ye have slain them in a Rage reaching up to Heaven! and now you design to sell your Captives for Slaves: But are there not with you, even with you, Sins against Jehovah your God? Now hear +

KINGS of J U D A H.

ACHAZ continuing impenitent, God permitted the Edomites to attack him on the South, who smote Judah, and carried away Captives; while the Philistines on the West invaded the Cities of the Low Country, and of the South of Judah, taking Beth-Jemejb, Ajalon, Gederach, Storcho, Tinnab, and Gimzo, with their Villages, and dwell there. Thus Jehoram brought Joash on because of Achaz, who is called '2 Kin xvi. 19. the King of Israel'; because he lived like the wicked Kings of Israel, by transgressing sore against Jehovah, and making Judah naked.

But Achan would not be reclaimed from his evil Ways, by all these Judgments, nay, instead of returning to God, and trusting to him, he placed all his Confidence in an Arm of Flesh, and had sent Messengers to Eglath-Pulster, King of Assyria, (Arbaces, or Ninus's Janiss, above mention'd) saying, I am thy Servant and thy Son, come up and save me out of the Hands of the Kings of Israel and Syria, who confederate against me. And Achan having sent much of the Silver and Gold that was found in the Treasure, in the Royal Palace, and in the Palaces of his Princes, as a Present to Eglath-Pulster, the Assyrian King hearkened unto him, though not out of Friendship to Achan, but with a View to add Syria and Palestine to his Empire, as on the other Column.

Here, or before this Time, all the Prophecies come in that concern the Ruin of Ifrail and Syria.

ACHAZ, though more distressed by his pretended Friend Tiglab-Pulefer, than by his open Enemies, (as on the other Column) yet found it expedient to overlook all Injuries, fearing otherwise to provoke the Affrians to Wrath; and so carrying on the Compliment, he took a Journey to Damascus, and here paid his Homage to Tiglab-Pulefer, as to his Protector and Sovereign.

While Arban was at Damascus, he saw an Altar in the Temple of the Idol Bammem, which he was so pleased with, that he sent to Uriab, the High Priest of Jerusalem, the Fashion and Pattern of it, according to all the Workmanship thereof, according to which Uriab made an Altar against the King's Return.

Thus all that ACHAZ got, by depending on Tiglath-Pileser, was only a little Improvement in Isabari, for which he had paid dear enough: For, instead of two little Enemies, the Kings of Israel and Syria, he had now to do with the grand Monarch of Assyria.

When King Dabab returned from Damascus to Jerusalem, he removed the great stone of Elia from the Temple and placed it in the Church and the great Temple of Dabab to be placed in the Temple upon which the Temple to me therefore, and restore your Captives; for the fierce Wrath of Jehovah is upon you. Then certain Chiefs of Ephraim stood up against the Army, saying, Ye shall not bring in your Captives hither: For whereas we have offended against Jehovah already, ye intend to add more to our Sins and Trespas; for our Trespas is great, and there is fierce Wrath against Israel. Upon which the Army left the Captives and the Spoil to those Princes, who cloathed the Captives out of the Spoil, arrayed them, and shod them, made them eat and drink, anointed them, put the Feeble upon Asses, and brought them all to Jericho, the City of Palm-Trees, to their Brethren, 2 Chron. xxviii. 6—15.

Tiglarh-Pilefer, King of Assyria, in this 7th Year of his Reign, being bribed by Achaz, King of Judah, to distress the Syrians and Israelites, (as on the other Column) marched an Army against Damascus, and having took it, and slain Rezin, King of Syria, he added that Kingdom to his Empire; according to Isaiah's Prophecy above-mention'd.

Thus the Kingdom of SYRIA, founded by Rezin in the Days of Solomon, ends in Rezin, after it had flourished 250 Years during ten Generations, and with it fell the Kingdoms of Hamath and Arpad to the Affyrian Monarch.

Tiglarth-Pulster then marched against Pekab, and seized all that belonged to Israel West of the Jordan, viz. the Tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Half Manassah; and having forded the upper Parts of the Jordan, the Assyrian possessed himself also of all the Country of Galilee and Naphthali, or all the Northern Parts of Israel; whereby he got all the best Passes and Avenues into Palestine and Arabia.

Then Tiglath-Pileser marched towards Jerusalem, not to assist King Achaz in recovering the Cities taken lately by the Philistines, Edomites, and other Enemies of the Jews; but to extort more Presents from Achaz, which Achaz raised by cutting in pieces the Vessels of the Temple, and melting them: So when the Assyrian had got all he could, he returned to Damascus, and wintered there to refresh his Army, where King Achaz came to pay his Homage, as on the other Column.

When Tiglath-Pileser returned to Nimveh, he carried off many Syrian Captives, and sent them to Kir, a City in the West Part of Media; according to the Prophecy of Amos, Ch. i. 4, 5. I will send a Fire into the House of Hazael, which shall devour the Palaces of Benhadad; I will break also the Bar of Damascus, and cut off the Inhabitants of Aven; and him that holdeth the Scepter from the House of Eden, and the People of Syria shall go into Captivity unto Kir, saith Jehovah! This was foretold in the Days of King Uziah.

Tiglath-Pileser also carried off his Israelite Captives, whom he sent to Chalach, Chabor, Hara, and the River of Gozan in Media more Eastward, according to the Prophecy of Amos, Ch. v. 27. Therefore will I cause you to go into Captivity beyond Damascus; that is, into the Country beyond that into which the People of Damascus were to be carried captive, which is rendered by St. Stephen, (Acts vii. 43.) And I will carry you away beyond Babylon; which is very true; for even Kir was beyond Babylon, and the River Gozan was much farther Eastward.

And from hence 'tis plain, that Media was then subject to the Affryan, and Tiglath-Pulser, or Sinus Junior, and Arbares were not two distinct Kings, (as Dr. Prideaux observes in correcting Archbishop Usher) but one King that had those several Names.

As for PEKAH, King of Israel, having lost the largest Part of his Kingdom, he was reduced lower than he had reduced King Arbaz; and, falling into Contempt, Hoshea, the Son of Elah, conspired against him, and slew him, (in this 20th Year after Jotham began to reign, viz. when his Father Uzziah became a Leper, 2 Kim. xv. 30) Hoshea hoping to be made King by Tiglath-Pulser: But the Affyrian not yet concerning himself in that Affair, the Elders of Israel took upon them the Government at Samaria, during an Interegnum of nine Years.

K I N G S of J U D A H.

have first offer'd and officiated as High Priest, and then expressly charged Uriah to make all the various sorts of Offerings upon this new great Altar only, the King reserving Salomon's Altar for him to enquire by: Nay, he also cut off the Borders or the Bases, and removed the Laver from off them, took down the Sea from off the Oxen, and set it upon a Pavement of Stones; removed the Covers that had been built for the Sabbath, and made horrid Alterations in the Temple, according to his idolatrous Taste: In all which Uriah was the King's most obedient Slave, 2 Km. xvi 10-18 Yet, being afraid of another unwelcome Visit from the Assyrian King, he turned the Entry from the Palace to the Temple another Way.

But of all the Kings of Judah, Jerhas was the greatest Idolater; for amidst all his Distresses he transgressed still the more against Jebovab! This is that King Jerhas, who, perceiving the better sort of People grieved, that the Temple was polluted with the Altar of Damascus, and the worse sort of People to chuse rather their High Places for Worship, first spoiled the Temple of all its Vessels and precious things, and then shut up its Doors; instead of which he made him Altars in every Corner of Jerusalem; and in all the Cities of Judah he made High Places, to burn Incense unto other Gods, and provoked to Anger Jebovab the God of his Fathers, 2 Chron. xxviii. 22-25.

The only good Action of Achaz recorded, was his making a new Sun-Dial, for Lys. xxxviii. 8 we read that God gave a Sign of Hezekiah's Recovery, by bringing back the Shadow of the Sun 10 Degrees upon Achaz's Dial. Perhaps Achaz made it in the 1st Year of his Reign, but supposing he made it not till this Year, or even till the last Year of his Reign, it is the oldest Dial that we have upon Record in all the World: Nor can we suppose it to be the first at Jerusalem; because we find, that God's peculiar People calculated the Years of their Births and of publick Events from the Creation, before and after the Flood, even to a Month and a Day sometimes, as appears by the Ages of the Patriarchs, the Year of the Flood, the Time of the Exodus of Moses, the Israelites Travels through the Desert, the Years of their Judges, the Founding of the Temple, the Ages and Reigns of their Kings, &c. Therefore we must conclude they follow'd the Annual Revolution of the Sun, and the Lunar Months; but especially after Moses instructed their solemn Feasts, fixed on certain Days of the Moon and of the Year, their New Moons and Full Moons, their Hours of Prayer and Sacrifice, and other religious Services, &c. So that they could not observe and preserve their Religion without observing the Revolutions of the Sun and Moon, and their Eclipses, which cannot be affirmed of any other Nation upon Earth. Therefore it may be warrantably supposed, that the Jews had their Sun-Dials before the Days of Achaz; nay, also had certain Tables of Eclipses, and understood Astronomy, better than any other People, more especially from the Days of the wise and learned King Solomon.

But the Tglash-Puljer died this Year, God raised up Salmanser his Son to charife wroind. And he next Year marched against him. And so

King Achaz, at last was deposed by Salmian for the latter end of this Year, as on the other Column, for his certain that the Assyrian marched to Jerusalem, as appears from Isa. x. 23. Sec. where the Prophet says, He is come to Asath, he is passed to Migron: at Migron there hath laid up his Carriages, yea, are gone over the Passage, for Frontiers between Frontiers and Benjamin, there hath taken up their Lodging at Geba, Ramah &c. and Gilead of Samaria said, I will not build, O Daughter of Gilead. Can's it to be said, I will not build. O Daughter of Ashmoth, Mammoth is removed, the Inhabitants of Gilead shall be torn down to the Root. He that shall be torn down at Noon that Day, he shall pass up Hebron against the Mount, the Daughter of Zion, the Hill of Jerusalem!

Mean while Erlesig, or Saladan, or NABONASSAR, King of Chaldea, proved a wise and learned Prince, and set up his Throne in his new City of Babylon, which he built upon the Ruins of a Part of Nimrod's Works, hard by the old great Tower; for from the Days of Nimrod there is no mention made in Holy Scripture, nor in any other Book, of any Town call'd Babylon till now; and the Prophet Isaiah is the first who mentions it, both its Rise and its Ruin, Chap. xxiii. 13. Behold the Land of the Chaldeans; this People was not till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the Wilderness; they set up the Towers thereof, they raised up the Palaces thereof: He brought it to Ruin! Which is thus paraphras'd by Sir John Marsbam, "Behold Babylon, the "splendid Metropolis of the Chaldeans, the Inhabitants of that Town
"not long since wander'd in Deserts, without fixed Abodes, till Nabo- Canon Chron.
"nassar the Assyrian brought thither Men that had dwelt in Tents, Secul. 17.
"fortify'd the Town, erected Castles, and built Palaces in it: Yet,
"however magnificent this Town is, which the Assyrian founded, God shall put
"it in Ruins!" And, as Sir John Marsbam has further observ'd, Kings immediately succeeded in his Catalogue. Indeed many great Authors have ascribed the Building of Babylon, some to Semiramis, and some to Belus, or his Son : But the first sort were imposed upon by the Historian Ctesias, for which they are blamed by Berosus ; and Aristotle affirms he was not worthy to be believed. As for Belus, he only led a Colony of Philosophers from Egypt into the Country of Babylonia, who came to be call'd Chaldees, but built no City call'd Babylon. Nor does Herodotus affirm, that Semiramis built the City, but only that she adorned the Walls and Temples, and made great Heaps or Bulwarks in the Plains, which were wont to be overflow'd by the Euphrates ; and some suppose her to be the Queen of Nabonassar, the true first Founder of the City of Babylon ; about which let Historians contend : Only it is not clear, that from the Time Nimrod left Babel, and built Babyloneh soon after the Dispersal, there was no City call'd Babylon till now.

5 Myrsilus, or Sandaules, the last of the Heracleidae, reigns in Lydia during seventeen Years.

6 NABONASSAR, or Belosis, or Baladan, King of Chaldea, or Babylon, after he had reigned 14 Years, died; and was succeeded, not immediately by his Son Mardoc-Em- 7 padus, or Aerodark-Baladan, but, according to Ptolemy's Cannon, by Nabius, or Nabius, who reign'd two Years, perhaps during the Minority of Max- doc-Empadus.

8 Syracuse, a famous City in Sicily, was founded about this Time.
9 Chinurus and Dorus reign jointly at Babylon during 5 Years.

At the End of the Interregnum, or the 12th Year of Achaz's Reign in Judah, XX HOSHEA at length prevailed to be King of Israel during nine Years.

2. Legality-Bulfer, or Anus Junior, or Arbates, King of Affria, died, after he had reigned 19 Years current; and was succeeded by his Son Shalman, Tifer, or Salmanasar, or Salmanser, said by Tobit Enemessar, and by the Prophet Hosea (Ch. x 14) Shalman, during 14 Years.

3 SALMANESER in this Year of his Reign first marched an Army North-West against Beth Arbel, or the House of Arbela, (afterwards famous for Alexander's Victory over Darius) which he soon reduced; and then marched Southward into Palestine, subjected Samaria to his Dominion, and made King Joshea his Tributary and Vassal, according to the Prophecy of Hosea, (Chap. x. 14, 15) who, upon the News of Salman's spoiling Beth Arbel in the Day of Battel, when the Mother was dashed to pieces upon her Children denounceth Israel's Ruin, saying, So shall Bethel do unto you, because of your great Wickedness: In a Morning shall the King of Israel be utterly cut off! And though this last Part was not yet fulfilled, the first Part was this Year fulfilled,

KINGS of JUDAH.

Yet the Prophet in that Chapter exposeth Salmaneser's Haughtiness, threatens his Pride, Blasphemy and Oppression with Destruction, and promiseh to rescue Judab from his Yoke; as it happen'd in the Reign of Hezekiah, who is said to have rebelled against the Assyrian, (2 Kin. xviii. 7.) which also proves he had been his Vassal, even upon the Deposition of Achaz; when, by Leave of Salmaneser, Hezekiah began to rule, the latter End of this same third Year of Hoshea, King of Israel, 2 Kin. xviii. 1. Thus King HEZEKIAH's first Year is parallel with Hoshea's 4th Year, and Achaz's 16th or last Year, when he was 25 Years old, and reigned 29 Years at Jerusalem, 2 Kin. xviii. 2. for e. g. the 4th Year of Hezekiah is expressly call'd the 7th Year of Hoshea.

Achaz, liv'd obscure with only the Name of King, while HEZEKIAH had all the Administration in his Hand; and so could well dispose the People and prepare Things for a Reformation, even while his Father liv'd.

But Achaz died this Year, and was buried in Zion Castle, tho' not in the Royal Sepulchre, as a mark of Infamy for his Wickedness. And so he reigned in all 16 Years current only.

In the Year that Achaz died, Isaiah received a Prophecy against the Philistines, that had unjustly possessed a Part of Achaz's Kingdom lately, Isa. xiv. 28. &c. He had also the same time a Prophecy against the Moabites, Chap. xv. and xvi. concluding, Within three Years, as the Tears of an Harlot, and the Glory of Moab shall be contemned, &c. Achaz being dead,

XIII. HEZEKIAH, now at Liberty, and reigning alone, did heartily set about a thorough Reformation, both in Church and State; beginning in this first Year of his Reign, towards the latter End, on New Year's Day, or 1st Day of the Month Abib, or Nisan; not the first Month of his Reign, but of the Year current: For this New Years Day happen'd in the latter End of the first Year of Hezekiah's Reign, or after he had reigned about 10 Months. On the said New Year's Day, the 21st of April, being the Sabbath Day,

HEZEKIAH opened the Doors of the Temple, (which Achaz had shut up) order'd them to be repair'd, and brought in the Priests and Levites; exhorting them to sanctify themselves and the Temple, and to cleanse it of all Filthiness, which he pressed in a pious Oration. They that same Day began, gather'd their Brethren together, and sanctify'd themselves in seven Days; and on the 8th Day, or 27th of April; the next Sabbath, they began to sanctify the Temple, during eight Days; removing the Altar of Damascus, purging the Temple of all other Defilements, which they cast into the Brook Kidron, and placing the holy Utenfils in their appointed Order. When we may suppose they found a Copy of Solomon's Præcepts, which the King order'd to be transcrib'd, Prov. xxv. 1.

Having finished all these Purifications on the 16th Day of the first Month, or 6th of May, the next Day, or 7th of May, the King, with the Rulers of Jerusalem, enter'd the Temple early in the Morning, with a Sin-Offering of

- 7 Bullocks
  - 7 Rams
  - 7 Lambs
  - 7 Hegoats
- In all 28

Commanding the Priests, the Sons of Aaron, to offer them in Sacrifice to Jehovah for the Kingdom and the Temple, even for all Israel; and to make Attonement and Reconciliation, by sprinkling the Blood of those Sacrifices on the Altar. And the King having set the Priests in the Temple with the Trumpets, and the Levites with the Instruments of David, Cymbals, Psalteries and *Harp*s, (according to God's Appointment by David, Gad and Nathan the Prophets) they and the vocal Musick began the Song of Jehovah, when the Burnt-Offering began, and continued until the Offerings were finished, when the King and all present bowed themselves and worshipped; and the King and Princes order'd the Levites to conclude this Consecration by singing Praise to Jehovah in the Words of David and Asaph, no doubt, with the old Chorus, For his MERCY endureth for ever!

Then King HEZEKIAH said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves to Jehovah, come near, and bring Sacrifices and Thank-Offerings into the House of Jehovah: Accordingly, the People brought for

- Burnt-Offerings* { 70 Bullocks } And they brought also into the Temple, } 600 Oxen { 100 Rams            } the consecrated Things to be offer'd } and { 200 Lambs.            } afterwards in Sacrifice, viz. } 3000 Sheep.

But the Burnt Offerings, the Peace Offerings, and the Drink Offerings were so many, and the Priests so few who had sanctify'd themselves, that the Levites, who indeed had been more expeditious in their Purification, were call'd to assist them. And thus the Service of the Temple being again set in Order, though very suddenly, Hezekiah and all the People rejoiced, 2 Chron. xxix.

And because the Passover could not be celebrated on the 14th Day of the first Month, for that the Priests, Levites and Temple were not sanctify'd, the King, by the Advice of his Princes and of all the Congregation at Jerusalem, order'd the Passover to be celebrated on the 14th of the second Month, according to the Allowance of the Law of Moses, (Numb. ix. 10, 11.) and sent Letters by proper Messengers not only throughout his own Kingdom, but even throughout all the Land of Israel, saying, Ye Children of Israel, turn again unto Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, and he will return to the Remnant of you that are saved from the Hands of the Assyrian King! and he not stiff-necked like your Fathers and Brethren, who trespassed against God, and were therefore given up to Desolation, as you see; but yield yourselves unto Jehovah, and enter into his Sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever, and serve Jehovah your God, that the Fierceness of his Wrath may turn away from you: For if you do, your Brethren and Children shall find Compassion before them that led them captive, and shall return to this Land;

In the latter End of this Year, SALMANESER marched to Jerusalem, (as on the other Column) deposed Achaz for not paying his Tribute, and set his Son Hezekiah upon the Throne of Judab, as his Vassal and Tributary, and returned to Assyria with great Spoils.

KINGS of JUDAH.

for Jehovah your God is gracious and merciful, if you return unto him. But though many of the Israelites laughed the Messengers to scorn, and mocked them; yet many of them humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem, where they join'd with the Jews in celebrating the Passover, which was the most solemn Passover that had been observed since the Days of Solomon, and the greatest Congregation.

They first removed the idolatrous Altars in Jerusalem, and threw them into the Brook Kidron, and, on the 14th Day of the second Month, they kill'd the Passover, and brought the Burnt Offerings into the Temple, the Levites assisting the Priests; and tho' the Israelites were not sanctify'd according to the Law of Moses, yet the King allowed them to eat the Passover, and prayed for them, saying, May the good Jehovah pardon every one that prepareth his Heart to seek the God of his Fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the Purification of the Sanctuary! And God hearken'd to his Prayer.

And because they had long neglected this Festival, they doubled the Time of observing it, even twice seven Days; and the King gave a 1000 Bulls, and 7000 Sheep; and the Princes gave 1000 Bulls, and 10000 Sheep, for Sacrifices, 2 Chron. xxx. When all was over,

They went throughout the Kingdom of Judah, and brake down the Images, cut down the Groves, threw down the High-places and the Altars, and utterly destroy'd all the Monuments of Idolatry; nay, the Israelites did the same in their Return home, and made a thorough Reformation. And HEZEKIAH, having observed that many had made an Idol of the Brazen Serpent of Moses, by burning Incense to it, he order'd it to be broken in pieces, and, in Contempt, call'd it Nehushtan. The King also restored the Priests and Levites to their several Stations, Courses and Offices, and took care of their Subsistence, by reviving the Law for the First Fruits and Tithes.

In the 3d Month of the Jewish Ecclesiastical Year, or first of the 2d Year of the Reign of HEZEKIAH, the First Fruits and Tithes began to be brought in, and were lodg'd in Heaps with the Priests; and in the 7th Month (when the Gathering of the Fruits of the whole Year was finish'd, Exod. xxiii. 16.) the Offerings of the First Fruits and Tithes were completed, and Hezekiah appointed proper Persons to distribute the same, 2 Chron. xxxi.

The Prophet Isaiah now wrote his Prophecies in Chap. xviii. and xix. against Assyria the Scourge of Israel, and against Egypt the carnal Confidence of Israel.

HEZEKIAH now rais'd an Army while Salmanser was engag'd in the Siege of Samaria, and attackt the Philistines, recovering first all those Cities that they had taken in Judah from his Father Achaz.

And this Year HEZEKIAH march'd into Philistia, subduing all the Country, except the two strong Cities of Gath and Gaza, 2 Kings xviii. 8. whereby Isaiah's Prophecy above-mention'd (Chap. xiv. 28, &c.) was fulfill'd.

The final Captivity of Israel happen'd in the 6th Year of HEZEKIAH, while that good King flourish'd, and became a Terror to all the Countries round him. And now the Tribe of Simeon, who had a very small Border, being increased in Numbers by their Brethren that fled from the Land of Israel, where they had been much employ'd as Scribes and Schoolmasters, they muster'd their Forces, and invaded the Country of the Amalekites that lay next to them about Gerar, whereby they enlarged their Borders.

KINGS of ISRAEL.

HOSHEA, the last King of Israel, was better than all that reign'd before him; for tho' he was not reform'd from the Idolatry of Israel, and is therefore said to have done Evil in the Sight of Jehovah; yet 'tis added, but not so as the Kings of Israel before him, 2 Kin. xvii. 2. And tho' he did not formally concur with King Hezekiah, in the Reformation mention'd on Other Column, yet he was far from opposing it; for he removed the Guards from the Frontiers, that the former Kings of Israel See Seder had placed, to hinder their Subjects from going up to worship at Jerusalem, and gave Leave to all that would to go up thither for Worship: Nay, he encouraged them to obey Hezekiah's Invitation to eat the Passover with him; and when his Subjects, that had been at the Passover, broke the Images, cut down the Groves, demolish'd the High-Places, and all other Monuments of Idolatry, in their Way home, throughout all the Kingdom of Samaria, King HOSHEA did not hinder them, nor so much as forbid them (which he could have done) but at least conniv'd at it, and so far approv'd of their Zeal for Jehovah.

King HOSHEA finding that Sargon, or So, the new King of Egypt, was a very powerful Prince, enter'd into Confederacy with him; hoping that he would assist him against Salmanser, whose Yoke Pashta was willing to shake off: Accordingly, HOSHEA this Year rebell'd against Salmanser, and paid him no more Tribute, nor acknowledg'd the Assyrian's Superiority, 2 Kin. xvii. 4. but sadly found Egypt to be a broken Reed, not fit to be lean'd upon, as Zedekiah King of Judah found it afterwards.

Salmanser in the beginning of this Year, resolving to be reveng'd of HOSHEA, march'd an Army into Palestine; but he first subdued the Moabites, destroying their two chief Cities Arne and Kir-barasch, (according to the Prophecy of Isaiah in the Year that Achaz died, above-mention'd on Other Column) and fortified the Passages into Arabia.

When Salmanser had thus secured himself from being disturb'd by the Arabs, he march'd his Army streight to Samaria, and blockaded it for three Year current, having his Army supply'd by the adjacent Countries, 2 Kin. xvii. 5.

In the End of this 3d Year of the Siege Salmanser took in Samaria, put poor King HOSHEA in Chains, and shut him up in Prison, till he died, at Niniveh; carried the greatest Part of the Israelites captive into Assyria, and sent them into Chalach, and Chabor, and Nebar-Gozan, and the other Cities of the Medes, whither Tiglath-Pileser his Father had sent the other captive Israelites, about eighteen Years ago.

Thus ended the Kingdom of ISRAEL, after it had stood, from the Revolt of Jeroboam I. to the Captivity of HOSHEA, full 254 Years: Nor did they ever return as a Nation, nor were ever a distinct Kingdom any more.

The GENEALOGY of the Kings of Israel, from JEROBOAM the First to HOSHEA the Last King.

N. B. The three Interregna ** signify the Beginning of a New Royal Family.

** Dabbar, a noble Ephraimite in the Days of King SOLOMON, had a Wife or a Concubine call'd Zerubb, a Widow-woman, (1 Kin. xi. 26.) who bore to him

I. JEROBOAM, who became King of Israel A. M. 908, by the Choice of the People, upon the Revolt of the Tribes from REHOBOAM, the Son of King SOLOMON, [Tab. 14.] His Wife N. N. He reigned 22 Years current, and † A. M. 931; was buried at Tirzah, and succeeded by

II. NADAB his Son, who began to reign before his Father died A. M. 908, reigned 2 Years current, till slain by his General Baasha A. M. 928, who gave his Body to the Dogs, and extirpated all the Race of Jeroboam. [Tab. 14.] Abijah his young Son † without Issue A. M. 934.

** III. BAASHA, of Issachar, made King by the Army A. M. 928, reigned at Tirzah 24 Years. His Wife N. N. He † A. M. 974, buried at Tirzah, and succeeded by his Son

IV. ELAH, A. M. 974, who reigned 2 Years current, prov'd worse than his Father, and was slain drunk by his General Zimri, who extirpated all the Family of Baasha.

** V. ZIMRI, King only for 7 Days till besieged by OMRI: when ZIMRI chose to burn himself in the Palace of Tirzah, rather than be taken and slain by OMRI.

** VI. OMRI, the General of King ELAH, upon the News of ELAH's Fate, was proclaim'd King by the Army A. M. 975, he destroy'd ZIMRI, and reigned at Tirzah 5 Years, till his Competitor King TIBNI died; and after TIBNI's Death, OMRI reigned alone 7 Years current, in all 12; made wicked Statutes, [Tab. 14.] built the Palace of Samaria, and made that his Metropolis. His Wife N. N. † A. M. 986, and was buried in Samaria.

** VII. TIBNI, made King by a Party of the People, over whom he reigned 5 Years, contemporary with the first 5 Years of OMRI's Reign, till he † without Issue.

VIII. ACHAB, King A. M. 986, reigned 22 Years current. See his whole Story in Tab. 15. His Wife Jezebel. He was slain by the Syrians in the Battel of Ramoth Gilead, A. M. 917.

IX. ACHAZIAH, made Copartner with his Father in the Throne A. M. 917, reigned 2 Years current while his Father liv'd, and after his Father's Death, reign'd a few Months alone, till he died the same Year with his Father, of a Fall thro' the Lattice of his Chamber, without Issue A. M. 917.

X. JORAM, or Joram, King upon the Death of his Brother Achaziah, began to reign in the Beginning of A. M. 918, and reign'd 12 Years; not so great an Idolater as his Father and Brother, but maintain'd the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. His Wife N. N. Slain by JEHU, and his Body cast into the Field of Naboth to be eaten by Dogs in the End of A. M. 919, and all his Offspring extirpated by Jehu his Successor.

70 Sons slain by the Elders of Samaria, for fear of Jehu, 2 Kin. x.

Atthaliah his Daughter, born A. M. 917, was married to JEHORAM, who afterwards was King of Judah A. M. 906. She was Queen Sovereign of Judah. See her Story, Tab. 16, and in the Genealogy of the Kings of Judah.

** XI. JEHU, the Son of Jehoshaphat, the Son of Nimshi, anointed King of Israel by a young Prophet A. M. 919; upon which the Garrison at Ramoth Gilead proclaim'd him KING, with whom he march'd to Samaria, and destroy'd all the House of Achab, [Tab. 16.] for which God promis'd that his Offspring of the fourth Generation should reign after him. He began to reign A. M. 910, and reigned full 28 Years. His Wife N. N. Yet he departed not from the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. He † A. M. 917, was buried in Samaria, and succeeded by

XII. JEHOACHAZ his Son, A. M. 918, reign'd 17 Years current. His Wife N. N. † in Peace A. M. 934, buried with his Father JEHU. Succeeded by

XIII. JEHOASH, or Joash, his Son, who began to reign in the 10th Year of his Father's Reign A. M. 934, and reigned 16 Years in Samaria; was a Friend of the Prophet Elisha, who assured him of obtaining three great Victories over the Syrians, which he obtain'd, and reigned in great Splendor; and beat Amaziah King of Judah, the Year he died: [See Tab. 16.] But the Idolatry of Jeroboam I. was not removed. His Wife N. N. He † A. M. 938, and was buried with his Fathers. Succeeded by

XIV. JEROBOAM II. his Son, who had reign'd Partner with his Father eleven Years, and began to reign alone 41 Years A. M. 939. He recover'd from the Syrians the Land of Israel that lay East of the Jordan, and possess'd himself of Hamath and Damascus. [See Tab. 16.] His Wife N. N. He † A. M. 929, and was buried with his Fathers. After his Death, there happen'd an Interregnum, or vacant Throne, of 11 Years and 6 Months: But at length he was succeeded by

XV. ZACHARIAH his Son A. M. 929, the last of JEHU's Offspring, slain by Shallum the Son of Jehoiada, after he had reign'd 6 Months, without Issue.

** XVI. SHALLUM reigned A. M. 929 during one Month only, being slain by Adonijah the Son of Gadi, without Issue. Upon which happen'd an Interregnum of 11 Months.

** XVII. MENACHEM began to reign A. M. 929, and reigned 10 Years. His Wife N. N. He died A. M. 939, buried with the Kings of Israel, and was succeeded by XVIII. PEKAHIAH his Son A. M. 939, a Tributary of Sardanapalus, King of Assyria, reigned 2 Years, till he was slain by Pekah, the Son of Remaliab, without Issue.

** XIX. PEKAH began to reign A. M. 939, during 20 Years. [See Tab. 18.] Having lost the largest Part of his Kingdom, that was taken by Tiglath-Pileser, and carried Captive into Media

** XX. HOSHEA came to be King A. M. 939, a Tributary of Sardanapalus, till he was slain by Sennacherib King of Assyria, who took him alive, and carried him to Nineveh, where he died. He was the last and best King of Israel. [See Tab. 18.]

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of JUDAH and their Contemporaries, from the Final Captivity of Israel to the Captivity of Judah, and the End of the 390 Years of HEZEKIEL, during 136 Years.

KINGS of JUDAH.

The Final Captivity of ISRAEL happen'd after HEZEKIAH had reign'd fix Years full, or in the 7th Year of his Reign.

This good King prosper'd in all his Undertakings; and, having conquer'd Philistia, (as in the foregoing Table) he fortify'd his Kingdom on all sides, and rebel'd against Salsmanaser, refusing to pay the Tribute that Asbazz had paid; which was enough to provoke the proud Assyrian, flush with Success, to march towards Jerusalem, but that he had been long from home, wanted to see Nimrod, and settle his publick Affairs there; so that he affected not to attack Hezekiah till he was disincumber'd of his Israelitish Captives, and of his great Spoils; tho' he was afterwards diverted from it all by his Tyrian War, as on the other Column below.

As for the Israelites they justly brought on their Captivity by fearful Sinning against Jebozab their God, who brought them out of Egypt, and had planted them in the Land of Canaan, by walking in the Statutes of the Heathen, and of their own Kings, who all followed the ill Example of Jeroboam I. by their secret Sins, and their High-places without Number; their Images and Groves on every High Hill, and under every Green Tree; by their molten Images, their two Golden Calves of Dan and Bethel, by serving Baal with an Altar, a Grove and a Temple, and by worshipping all the Hosts of Heaven, by causing their Sons and Daughters to pass thro' the Fire in Sacrifice to horrid Bolath, by using Divinations and Inchantments; by rejecting the Statutes and Covenant of Jebozab the God of their Fathers; by following the Vanities of the Nations round them, and by their woful and final Impenitence, obstinately refusing to listen to all the solemn Admonitions of God's Prophets, that from time to time were sent to reclaim them.

But still there was a Remnant of the People left in the Land of Israel, as will appear in the Story of King JOSIAH, who were most of 'em glean'd up afterwards by Eserhaddon, King of Astoria and Babylon, A. M. 3327.

CONTEMPORARIES.

The Final Captivity of ISRAEL happen'd 254 Years after the Revolt of Jeroboam I. from the House of DAVID. This Year Barboly Empadus the Son of the great NABONASSAR, call'd in Holy Writ Merodach-Baladan the Son of Baladan, (which was one of the Names of Nabonassar, as Belesis was another) began to reign at Babylon, tho' several other Princes had reign'd there from his Father's Death till now that he came to be of Age.

In this first Year of his Reign, on the 29th Day of Thoth the Egyptian Month, or 19th of our March, two Hours and a half before Midnight, happen'd an Eclipse of the Moon at Babylon, the oldest remarked by Ptolemy in Magn. Syntax. lib. iv. cap. 6. which was made 120 Years before the first Eclipse foretold by Chales.

This Eclipse happen'd 19 Years after the first Captivity of Israel by Eglath-Pulsefer, and therefore some think the Babylonians learn'd to observe Eclipses from some of the captive Israelites, whom Nabonassar, the old Confederate of Tiglath-Pulsefer, had obtain'd to help to People his new City Babylon: For the Tribes of Israel, from the Exodus to the Death of SOLOMON during 516 Years, observing their Feasts of New Moons and Full Moons instituted by MOSES, were led to observe the Lunar Eclipses: And after the Partition of the Kingdom, tho' Jeroboam erected his idolatry to keep the People from going up to Jerusalem; yet he instituted Feasts of New Moons and Full Moons, like those of Moses, to please the People; only they were not to be celebrated in the same Months, which continued till their final Captivity: So that we must allow the Israelites to have been as good Observers of Eclipses as the Jews; and when they were carried Captive, they would readily oblige their new Lords, by communicating their Knowledge of Eclipses to them, in order to be well esteemed and better used by them.

That this Opinion is feasible appears from what is said by Pliny, lib. 7. cap. 56. where he tells us, That Epigenes, an Author much conversant in Chaldean Affairs, affirms the Chaldeans had made Celestial Observations of 730 Years. Now, it is generally computed, that Epigenes wrote in the ninth Year of the Christian Era, in the latter End of Augustus's Reign, or, according to our Chronology, A. M. 4013; from which if we substract 730, the Remainder is 3283, the very Year of the World when the said first Eclipse mention'd by Ptolemy happen'd at Babylon, An. Nabonass. 27.

Pliny says further, that Berosus, the Priest of Belus at Babylon, dedicated his History of Chaldea to Antiochus Theos; wherein he mentions the Celestial Observations of 480 Years made at Babylon; but Antiochus began to reign A. M. 3743. An. Nabon. 486, and having reign'd 15 Years he died, viz. before Christ 246, A. M. 3758. An. Nabon. 501: But if Berosus wrote in this last Year of Antiochus, we must substract from A. M. 3758

The foresaid Years 480

The Remainder is A. M. 3278, or An. Nabon. 21. which is just fix Years before the said first Observation at Babylon mention'd by Ptolemy, and 14 Years after the first Captivity of Israel by Tiglath-Pulsefer.

But supposing Berosus wrote in the Middle of Antiochus's Reign A. M. 3750, his foresaid 480 Years reckon'd backward will commence at A. M. 3270, or An. Nabon. 14, even the Year when Nabonassar died, and 6 Years after the said first Captivity of Israel, and 13 Years only before the said first Celestial Observation at Babylon. Hence it appears,

1 That the Observations of Eclipses at Babylon, mention'd by Ptolemy, are the most antient that were known in the Days of King Antiochus Theos, and of Berosus, who had a great Attachment to the Glory of his Country, and would have certainly mention'd older one if he could.

2 That what Porphyrius mentions of Calisthenes cannot be true, or is much to be doubted, viz. Calisthenes said, That before Babylon was taken by Alexander the Great, the Babylonians had made Celestial Observations of 1903 Years inscribed on Columns. For this Account not only varies from that of Epigenes, Berosus and Ptolemy, but carries the Thing too far back, even to the 115th Year after the Flood, when Nimrod was busy in Building the Tower of Babel, and before the People were confounded and dispersed, which is most improbable: Therefore either Calisthenes was impos'd upon when at Babylon by some Braggers of Antiquity; or else he did not rightly understand the Language, and the Numbers of the Chaldeans, which is most likely.

3 That NABONASSAR might have got some Israelite Captives from his Friend Tiglath Pulsefer, to help to fill his new City Babylon, in Time enough for them to teach the Babylonians how to observe Eclipses, not only before the said

KINGS of J U D A H.

King HEZEKIAH liv'd at ease, tho' the Army of Salmanser was in his Neighbourhood, in the Land of Tyre and Zidon; for the Affyrian had work enough there at the Siege of Tyre, which he left to the Conduct of his Generals, while he return'd to settle Affairs at Nimreh, (as on the other Column) and never more came into Palestina.

About this Time Isaiah wrote his Prophecy against Tyre, Chap. xxiii. foretelling their Destruction, which was accomplish'd by Nebuchadnezzar afterwards.

HEZEKIAH defied Sennacherib's Demand of Homage and Tribute: and the same Year he fell sick of a pestilential Distemper, when God sent him a Message by Isaiah, to let his House in Order, and to prepare for Death: But God hearken'd to his Prayer, and sent him another Message by the same Prophet, promising to prolong his Life 15 Years, and to deliver him from the Affyrian then marching against him; for the Assurance of which God, at his Request, gave him a miraculous Sign making the Shadows of the Sun to go backward ten Degrees on Achaz's Dial, 2 Kin. xx.

That this happen'd in this 14th Year of his Reign appears, by subtracting these 15 Years from the 29 Years of his Reign, though it is not placed in Scripture till after the Story of Sennacherib's Invasion.

This good King, upon applying a Plaster of Figs to the Boil, recover'd in three Days, went up to the Temple to return God Thanks, and compos'd that sublime Ode or Psalm recorded Isa. xxxviii.

Achaz's Dial was mention'd in Tab. 17. and the Degrees upon it seem to have been Lines for the Shadows of the Gnomon to signify the Hours; C first Eclipse mention'd by Ptolemy, but also before the foresaid Reckoning of Berosus commenced. See Flamstedii Hist. Caelest. Vol. III. in Prolog. pag. 3-7.

Ptolemy says further, That, in this 2d Year of Mardoch-Empadug, two other Eclipses of the Moon happen'd at Babylon; the one on the 18th Day of Tisoth at Midnight, or our 9th of March; and the next after 176 Days, and 20 Hours and a half, on the 15th Day of Phamenoth, or 1st of September, 3 Hours and a half before Midnight.

Glularus King of Tyre, perceiving the other Chaldeans reduced by King Hezekiab, had lately attempted to reduce the Gittites, or Men of Gath, lately revolted from him, under his Dominion; but they applying to Salmanser for Protection, the Affyrian march'd a great Army against the Tyrians, when Zidon, Acon, and other Maritime Towns revolted from the Tyrians, came also under Salmanser's Protection, and furnish'd him with 60 Ships of War, and 800 Rowers: But the Tyrians with only 12 Ships of War beat them at Sea, took 500 Captives, acquir'd great Naval Glory, and were animated to endure a Siege.

When Salmanser had blockaded Tyre this Year, he order'd his Army to distress the besieged by stopping their Aqueducts, and return'd himself to Nimreh: But the Tyrians digg'd Wells, and bravely held out five Years.

King En, or Sabaton, the Ethiopian King of Egypt being dead, his Son Serth reign'd there in his stead during 14 Years, and seems to have been Serthon, the Priest of Vulcan, mention'd by Herodote.

Candaules King of Lydia being murder'd, at the Instigation of his Wife, by his Servant Gyges the Son of Dasyllus the Shepherd, the said

Gyges usurp'd that Crown during 38 Years, the first of the Mermnadae and Progenitor of Croesus. Herodot. lib. i.

The Tyrians alter a Siege of 5 Years were at length relieved by

Salmanser's Death this Year, after he had reign'd 14 Years, when his Son

Sennacherib succeeded, (Tobit i. 18.) and reign'd about 8 Years. He is call'd Sargon by Isaiah, Chap. xx. v. and he is said to be King both of the Affyrians and Arabians, (Herod. lib. ii.) because he and his Fathers had conquer'd much of North Arabia.

Sennacherib, now settled in the Throne, sent to demand of King Hezekiab that Homage and Tribute which his Father Achaz had paid to the Crown of Affyria; and, upon Hezekiab's Refusal, denounc'd War against him, march'd a vast Army into Palestina about the End of this Year, after Hezekiab's Recovery, (as on the other Column) took in several of the fortified Cities of Judah, laid Siege to Lachish, and threaten'd to attack Jerusalem next; but he did not: For, 2 Chron. xxxiii.

King HEZEKIAH repaired the Walls of Jerusalem, fortify'd them with Towers, prepar'd Shields and Darts, and other Artillery for its Defence, instruct'd and marshall'd the People fit for War under experienc'd Officers, stop't all the Wells round the City, and diverted the Brooks and Water-Courses another Way, in order to distress the Enemy, and encourag'd the People with good Exhortations: He also enter'd into an Alliance with the King of Egypt, for their mutual Defence against the Affyrian; but God approv'd not of this Alliance, as appears from Isa. xxx. and xxxi. as it import'd a Distrust in God, who was able and willing to defend them, would ruin the proud Affyrian, and would turn their Confidence in Egypt to their Shame, Reproach and Confusion, as it soon happen'd.

Sennacherib, hearing of Hezekiab's vast Preparations, thought it fit to come to Terms; for Hezekiab was so faint-hearted at this Time as to send to Sennacherib at Lachish, saying, I have offended, return from me, and what thou puttest on me I will bear. Upon which the Affyrian fin'd him in 300 Talents of Silver and 30 Talents of Gold, which Hezekiab rais'd from the Treasures of the Temple and the Royal Palace; for he gave Sennacherib all the Silver found therein, and cut off the Gold from the Doors and Pillars of the Temple for Sennacherib, who gave Hezekiab some Respite.

KINGS of JUDAH.

Day was ten Hours longer than the ordinary Day, and the Night following was so much the shorter; not said to be made by any retrograde Motion of the Sun, but only of the Shadow of the Sun upon the Dial, which might be effected by God's stopping the annual Motion of the Earth, and by other Means unknown to Mankind, whereby the Sun and Moon, and the whole Celestial Frame seem'd to move back. This occasion'd a wonderful Inequality in the Civil Day, but this Inequality was so temperated by the Divine Providence, that the constant and regular Motion of the Celestial Bodies received no Detriment thereby; as appears by the Three first Eclipses mention'd by Ptolemy, spoken of above on the other Column: For their Calculation reckon'd backward from our Days exhibits the same Measure of Time noted by the Chaldeans, as if there never happen'd any such retrograde Motion of the Sun's Shadow.

In this Year that Sennacherib came unto Ashdod, (when Sargar, or Sennacherib the King of Assyria sent him) and took it, did Jeroboam command Isaiah to cast off his propheticall Habit, and to walk naked and bare-footed for 3 Years, for a Wonder upon Egypt and Ethiopia, Isa. xx. saying, So shall the King of Assyria lead away the Egyptians Prisoners, and the Ethiopians Captives, Young and Old, naked and bare foot, even with uncircumcised Buttocks, to the Shame of Egypt. Which was accomplish'd during three Years after this, for now the Assyrians War upon Egypt began. When Sennacherib was gone to Egypt, as on the other Column.

Sennacherib's Saladan the Son of Baladan, (call'd by Ptolemy Sardanapallus) King of Babylon, having heard of Hezekiah's miraculous Recovery, sent Ambassadors with Presents to congratulate him, to enquire into the Long Day that happen'd last Year by the Retrogradation of the Sun's Shadow on Achaz's Dial, (for the Babylonians were now busy in their Astronomical Calculations, and fond of such Enquiries) and also to make an Alliance with Hezekiah against the King of Assyria, whose growing Power was equally terrible to them both, Isa. xxx. x.

HEZEKIAH was glad to see them, and, perhaps willing to render his Friendship the more valuable, shew'd to these Ambassadors all his Riches, Treasures, Armoury, Stores, precious Things, and warlike Strength through out all his Dominions, which he had still remaining after what he had parted with to Sennacherib, and which was encreasing daily; but not without Expressions of Vanity and Pride. Wherefore God sent him a Refuse by Isaiah, saying, Behold the Days come, that all which is in thy House, and what thine Fathers have laid up in Store to this Day, shall be carried to Babylon, nothing shall be left, saith Jehovah. And it is, says that God, that he from thee, though he has no Son yet, shall be carried captive, and they shall be Enslaves in the Palace of the King of Babylon, or Servants of the Royal Household there. Thus Hezekiah's Pride was humbled, and the good King submitted to the Will of God, saying to Isaiah, God is the Word of Jehovah which thou hast spoken, and was thankful that Peace and Truth should be continued in his Days.

When the News came to Jerusalem of the Devastations that Sennacherib made in Egypt, according to the Prophecy of Isaiah above-mention'd, surely the former Words of Isaiah, Chap. xli. 8, 9, 10, were accomplish'd concerning the Jews, saying, And they (the Jews) shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia and of Egypt their Glory, and the Inhabitants of this Country shall say in that Day, Behold such is our Expectation, but there we flee for Help to be deliver'd from the King of Assyria, and now he is escape.

Sennacherib was born the Year to Hezekiah by Hephzibah his Queen, for he was 12 Years old when his Father died, and he began to reign, 2 Km. xxi. 1.

When Sennacherib broke his Agreement with Hezekiah, and sent his three chief Commanders from Lachish to Jerusalem, viz. Tartan, Rabsharis, and Rabshakeh, (as on the other Column) with a strong Detachment, who stood in the Wall by the Corner of the Upper Pool in the Highway of the Fowls Field; and having call'd to King HEZEKIAH, he sent out Salliah the steward of the Household, and a Shebna the Secretary, and Joab, the Son of Asaph, the Recorder, Rabshabab Sennacherib, upon his Agreement with Hezekiah, left the Siege of Lachish, intending to invade Egypt; and to facilitate his Descent he sent Tartan, one of his Generals, with a Detachment to take Ashdod, or Azotus in Philistia; and, having thus open'd the best Passage for his Army, Sennacherib marched, not through the Desert, but in the Merchants Road near the Seaside, down upon Egypt.

Astacus, a City in Bithynia, was now founded. See Biblioth. Photii, pag. 374.

Sennacherib found Egypt an easy Prey; for Sevechus then King of Egypt was an impolitic Prince, had made himself the High Priest of Vulcan, and, being wretchedly addicted to Superstition, he neglected the Office of a King, had taken away the Tenures of his Father's military Men, and disbanded them; so that he had only an Army of new-raisd, undisciplin'd People, that could make no Stand against Sennacherib's Veterans, who easily over-ran the Country, and did what they pleas'd; particularly they ruin'd the great City No-Ammon, or Thebes, famous for its hundred Gates, which was call'd by the Greeks Diospolis, or City of Jupiter, as No-Ammon by the Egyptians, for Saimon was the Egyptian Jupiter. This the Prophet Nahum speaks of historically, Chap. iii. 8, 9, 10. when he speaks prophetically of the Destruction of Nineveh.

Thus the Prophecy of Isaiah on the other Column was accomplish'd concerning Egypt. See Herodot. lib. ii.

Sennacherib, having gather'd many Captives and great Spoils throughout the Land of Egypt, thought of returning homeward; and, to secure his Passage into Egypt another time, resolv'd to possess himself of the strong City Pelusium, the Key and Entry of Egypt: But, after some time spent in that Siege, he was forced to break up and retire, because Tirhakah, King of the Arabian Ethiopia, came with a great Army to the Relief of his Kinsman Sevechus, and Sennacherib durst not abide his Coming; but march'd off into Judea, and again laid Siege to Lachish, renewing the War upon Hezekiah notwithstanding his former Agreement, and sent a great Detachment of his Army against Jerusalem, under the Command of Tartan, Rabsharis, and Rabshakeh his chief Officers, as on the other Column: For though

K I N G S of J U D A H.

Rabshakeh was the Speaker, who seems to have been either a French Runagado, or a Captive Israelite; for he deliver'd his Message in the Hebrew Tongue in the Hearing of the People on the Wall, hoping thereby to draw the People to a Revolt. Rabshakeh denier'd Hezekiah's confiding in JEHOVAH, slighted and blasphem'd the God of Jerusalem, ranking him with the Gods of the Nations, whom his Master Sennacherib had subdued; call'd Hezekiah a Rebel, and the People Fools for believing him, and to trusting to Egypt a broken Reed, whereon if a Man lean, it will go into his Hand and pierce it, so is Pharaoh to all that trust in him: And advis'd the People not to hearken to Hezekiah, &c. as may be seen at large Isa xxxvii. 2 Kin. xviii 2 Chron. xxxii. But the People held their Peace, and answer'd him not a Word, as Hezekiah had advis'd them; and the Assyrians returned to their Master without effecting any thing.

Upon which King Hezekiah rent his Cloaths, cover'd himself with Sackcloth, went into the Temple, and sent Elishah and Simeah, and the Elders of the Priests to the Prophet Ishah, desiring him to pray to God in this Day of Trouble. Rebuke and Blaspemy: And Ishah return'd from God with a very comfortable Message to HEZEKIAH, assuring him that God would send a Blast upon Sennacherib, who should bear a Rumour and return to his own Land, and there fall by the Sword; which was soon fulfilled as on the other Column.

When HIEZEKIEL received Sennacherib's blasphemous Letter, (as on the other Co-lums) he carried it to the Temple and spread it before Jehozab, pouring out his Requests to God in a most earnest and pathetic Prayer, mention'd Iſai. xlii. 17. To which he received a most gracious Answer from God by Iſaiab elegantly expressed a-large from Ver. 22, to Ver. 35. wherein God rebukes the Blasphemy and Holiness of Sennacherib, threatens his Destruction, to put a Hook in his Nose, and a Bridle in his Lips and turn him back by the Way he came; and assures Jerusalem and Zion of Protection against the Aſſyrians, who shall not be allow'd to lay Siege to the Holy City for God's own sake, (whom Sennacherib had blasphem'd); and for his Servant David's sake, and his chosen Reveries.

This answer to Hezekiah's Prayer was given while Sennacherib was on his March towards Jerusalem, ush'd with Victory over Erchahah; and next Night the Angels of Jehovah destroy'd the Assyrian Camp, (as on the other Column; 2 Kin. xix. 35. Thus the Promise of God was soon fulfill'd, and God gave to Hezekiah an Assurance of his future Protection and Blessing, saying, And this shall be a Sign unto thee, ye shall eat this Year such Things as grow of themselves, and in the second Year that which springeth of the same; and in the third Year sow ye, and reap, and plant Vineyards, and eat the Fruits: therefore, 2 Kin. xix. 29. For the Assyrian Army had grub'd up the Country, and stop'd the regular Course of Agriculture, and the second Year was the Jubilee, when there could be no Sowing.

The XVth Year of JUBILEE, the most joyfully celebrated of any since the IXth Year of Jabise, which began at the Dedication of Solomon's Temple; not only because of the late great Deliverance of the Jeus from Sennacherib, which they would thankfully remember, but also that now King HEZEKIAH and his People began to be very prosperous; and many this Year brought Offerings to Jeboab at Jerusalem, not only from Judah and the Remnant of Israel, but even from other Countries, who made rich Presents to Hezekiah; for he was magnified in the Sight of all Nations from thenceforth, 2 Chron. xxxii. 22, 23.

though in Isa. xxxvi. 1, 2. it would seem that Rabsakeb came in the 14th Year of Hezekiah, yet in 2 Chron. xxxii. 9. it is said, After this did Sennacherib send his Servants to Jerusalem; even after the first Threatning in the 14th Year of Hezekiah; and it is also distinguish'd from that in the 14th Year in 2 Kim. xviii. 17.

When Rabsakeb and the others return'd to Sennacherib, they found he had decamp'd from Lachish, and had laid Siege to Libnah; where, hearing that Tirhakah was in full March, pursuing him as a flying Enemy, Sennacherib drew forth his Army from the Siege, marched to meet the Ethiopian, and gave Tirhakah a total Rout, according to the Prophecy of Isaiab, Chap. xx.

But Sennacherib, before he marched from Libnah against Tirhakah, sent Messengers to Hezekiah with a threatening blasphemous Letter, saying, Let not the God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the Hand of the King of Assyria! Behold thou hast heard what the Kings of Assyria have done unto all Lands, by destroying them utterly, and shalt thou be delivered? Have the Gods of the Nations delivered them which my Father destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the Children of Eden in Telassar? Where is the King of Hamath, and the King Arphad, and the King of the City of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivah? Isa. xxxvii. 9—13.

overthrown Tirbakab's Army, (tho' Tirbakab himself escap'd, and became afterwards King of Egypt) Rush'd with Victory he march'd from the Field of Battel straight towards Jerusalem, designing to execute his Threatnings against Hezekiah; but never reached it:

For JEHOVAH, being highly provok'd by the Affyrian's Blasphemy, sent an Angel (the next Night after the gracious Answer to Hezekiah's Prayer on the other Column) who went out and smote, in the Camp of the Affyrians, all the mighty Men of Valour, with the Leaders and the Captains, in all 185000 Men; so that when Sennacherib and his Remnant arose early in the Morning, they found the Army almost all dead Corpses. Upon which the Pride of Sennacherib was abased, and he was so terrified, that he made all the Haste he could out of Judea, after he had triumphed there and thereabouts four Years, and by the Way he came he returned with Shame to Niniveb, where he ended his Days inglorious, (according to the Prophecy on the other Column) and never recover'd the late dreadful Loss of his Army; but fell into Contempt among his Subjects, and several Provinces revolted from him, especially the Province of Media, the largest and richest of all his Empire: For, during his Absence in Palestine, the Medes had shook off the Yoke of the Kings of Affyria, and had erected themselves into a Democratical Government, (as Dr. Prideaux rightly observes, in which he corrects Archbishop Usher) but not agreeing well in the Administration, and being afraid of Anarchy, they chose their Arbitrator Dejoces to be their King next Year.

And so this Year Dejores began to reign over Media at the City of Ekbatana, which he made his Capital, and reigned there 53 Years in great Prosperity; for he began to reign 150 Years before the Beginning of Cyrus, * that is, before Cyrus was made General of the Medes and Persians. See A M. 3445 lib. 2 in the following Chronology; for by substracting from it ———— 150

The Remainder 3295. is the Year of the World, when Dejoces began to reign. Besides, that this Epocha of the Median Kingdom is demonstratèd exact, by the Reigns of the Kings of Media mention'd by Herodotus; and by the Solar Eclipse in the Days of Cyaxares, A. M. 3403. to be seen.

This same Year Mardoch-Empadus, or Merodath-Baladan, after reigning 12 Years, died, and Arrianus succeeded him as King of Babylon during 5 Years. See Ptol. in Reg. Can.

The City Parion in the Mouth of the Hellepont was now founded, or rather repaired, by the Aliaeans.

CONTEMPORARIES.

This Year the Jews began to sow and reap and plant Vineyard, and to eat the Fruits thereof, being the Year after the Jubilee, according to the Promise in God's Answer to Hezekiah's Prayer above mentioned.

In the first Chapter of Tobit, he says, now when Enemessar (or Salmaneser) was dead, Sennacherib his Son reigned in his stead, whose Estate was so troubled that I could not go into Media, (viz. when the Medes were beginning to revolt from Sennacherib) and if I saw any of my Nation dead or cast about the Walls of Niniveh, I buried him: and if the King Sennacherib had slain any when he was returned and fled from Judea, I buried them privately (for in his Wrath he killed many) for which being complained of I was sought to be put to Death, all my Goods were confiscated, and I withdrew my self for fear, with Anna my Wife, and my Son Tobias: but there passed not 55 Days before two of his Sons killed him, and they fled into the Mountains of Ararat (or Armenia) and Sarchedonus (or Esarhaddon) reigned in his stead, Tob. i. 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21.

Hezekiah delivered from all his Fears, flourished in his latter Days and made his Kingdom great. He much improved and embellished Jerusalem, fortified it anew, and built large Magazines and a new Aqueduct. He also employed the Scribes to collate the Law and the other Holy Scriptures, and transcribe Copies of it; and also to gather into one Volume the Proverbs of Solomon.

So after he had reigned in great Prosperity about ten Years, he died this Year in the twenty ninth of his Reign, the same Year that Apronadius began to reign at Babylon, when all Judah and Jerusalem did him Honour at his Death, and buried him in a most solemn Manner, in the innermost Room of the Royal Sepulchre of David, as their worst King since David's Days, and his Coffin is to be seen to this Day; for the Royal Sepulchre still remains. He was succeeded by his Son

XIV. Manasse aged 12 Years, whose Mother was Heptabab (2 K. xii. 1.) and who reigned 55 Years in Jerusalem. He fell into ill Hands during his Minority, that were Enemies to Hezekiah's Reformation, and educated their young King Manasse in the greatest Aversion to it, and in the worst Principles and Practices; so that when he commenced a Man, he proved the greatest Idolater, Debauchee, and Tyrant of all the Kings of either Judea or Israel: for he did more Evil in the Sight of Jeboah than Jeboah and Ahab both, following the Abominations of the Heathen, rebuilding the High Places that his Father had destroyed, rearing up Altars for Baal, made a Grove wherein he worshiped all the host of Heaven; and built idolatrous Altars in the two Courts of Jeboah's Temple, and set up in it a Model or Graven Image of his Grove. He also observed Times, used Incantations, and dealt with familiar Spirits and Wizards; whereby he wrought much Wickedness, and seduced his People to do more Evil than the Nations did, whom God destroyed before

DEJOCES King of the Medes began to beautify and enlarge his Capital City Ecbatana, called in Ezra vi. 2. Schmetba, which is described in the first Chapter of Judith, where it is said to be built by Arphaxad King of the Medes, who is the same with Dejoces; for all other Historians ascribe it to Dejoces, whom the Greeks call the Founder of it.

As for SENNACHERIB, he could not bear his Losses patiently, but shewed his Rage by a tyrannical Administration, and his Revenge against the Jews and Israelites, ordering many of them every Day to be slain and cast into the Streets; whereby his Government became so intolerable, that his two eldest Sons Adramelech and Sharezar, (perhaps afraid of being slain or sacrificed by him) conspired against him and slew him with the Sword, while he was worshipping in the Temple of Belshazzar his God at Niniveh, after he had reigned about 8 Years: nor were the People sorry for him, but let the Parricides escape Northwards into the Land of Armenia, while they crowned his third Son, viz.

ESARCHADDON, or Eserbaddon, or Affaraddin, who now began to reign at Niniveh over Assyria during near 39 Years.

Sevechus or Seibon King of Egypt, after he had reigned 14 Years, now died, and was succeeded in that Throne by his Kinsman, viz.

TIRHAKAH King of the Arabian Ethiopians, (lately defeated by Sennacherib) who began this Year to be King of Egypt, called Tarachus Ethiops * and: * African reigned 18 Years, the third and last of the Ethiopian Royal Race in Egypt.

ARKIANUS King of Babylon after he had reigned ten Years, dying this Year without Issue; thereupon happened an Interregnum of two Years in the Kingdom of Babylon, See Ptol. Reg. Canon.

Belibus (or Belisbus, or Belelus) after the two Years Interregnum, began to reign at Babylon during three Years complete, ibid.

Apronadius succeeded to be King of Babylon, and reigned there during 6 Years, ibid.

Upon the Death of Apronadius, Regibelus came to be King of Babylon for one Year, ibid. after whom Mesessimordachus came to be King of Babylon during four Years, ibid.

Upon the Death of Mesessimordachus without Issue An Interregnum followed at Babylon during 8 Years, ibid.

And Tirhakah King of Egypt dying this Year, after he had reigned there 18 Years

An Interregnum followed in Egypt during two Years, by not agreeing about the Succession.

It is gathered from Herodotus (Lib. I. ch. 139.) that this Year, when the Interregnum at Babylon happened, Dejoces advanced the Empire of the Medes as far as the River Halys, viz. before the End of Astyages 128 Years.

Moreover Manasse shed innocent Blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one End to another, and made one of his Sons pass thro' the Fire to honour Moloch.   | 14                         | 272                         | 327                          | 410                          | 766                         | 685             | 3319       | XXIV. 4      | 64                 | 63 | After the Anarchy in Egypt, there followed the Dodecharchy, or the Aristocratical Government of 12 Princes, who divided Egypt in 12 Parts, and by a Confederacy ruled together during 15 Years.   |
| God sent his Prophets first to reclaim him and his People, and seeing they would not be reclaimed by Warnings, God sent again his Prophets to threaten, that because Manasse had sinned beyond the Amoritish, and had made Judah to sin with his idols: therefore, said Jehoiakim the God of Israel, behold I bring such Evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that shall make the Earth of us that hear it; and I will stretch out my Hand against Jerusalem the City of Samaria, and the Plummet of the House of Ahab, and wipe it like a Dish turning it upside down. and I will forsake the Remnant of mine Inheritance, and deliver them into the Hand of their Enemies; and they shall become a Prey and a Spoil to all their Enemies. &c. 2 K. xx. 11. &c. accordingly God sent against him. | 15                         | 274                         | 331                          | 414                          | 770                         | 681             | 3323       | XXIV. 3      | 67                 | 66 |   |
| Eserbaddon the Emperor of Assyria, (as on the other Column) whose Captains defeat Manasse in the Field; and having hid himself among the Thorns, they found him, bound him in Fetters, and carried him to Babylon to Eserbaddon, who put him in Prison in this 23d Year of his Reign.  | 19                         | 295                         | 352                          | 435                          | 771                         | 680             | 3324       | XXV. 1       | 69                 | 68 |   |
| He humbled himself greatly before the God of his Fathers, and in his Affliction besought Jehovah his God (2 Chron. xxxiii. 11, 12, 13.) praying unto him according, perhaps, to the Prayer recorded in the Apocrypha.  | 22                         | 298                         | 355                          | 438                          | 774                         | 677             | 3327       | XXV. 4       | 72                 | 71 |   |
| Upon which, God was entreated of him, heard his Supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem and to his Throne, in this same 23d Year of his Reign, by influencing Eserbaddon to dismiss him upon Terms, as on the other Column.   | 23                         | 299                         | 356                          | 439                          | 775                         | 676             | 3328       | XXVI. 1      | 73                 | 72 | Eserbaddon in this fourth Year of his Reign over Babylon, now intent upon recovering what his Father Sennacherib had lost in Palestine, marched a great Army into Syria and from thence to Samaria, and sent into Captivity the Remains of Israel, whom Salmaneser had left in the Land about 44 Years ago, and who being much increased had now some Appearance of Aristocratical Government, which Eserbaddon would not permit, and therefore sent them all into Assyria, except a few poor People who were left in the Land of Israel: for that some were left still, appears from the History of King Josiah. But that the Cities and Land of Israel might not be depopulated and desolate, this wise Monarch sent what People he could spare from his Eastern Provinces, upon whom he could depend, to fill the Land, even from Babylon and Cuthab, and Avab and Hamath, and Sepharvaim, 2 K. xvii. 24. which was ordered this Year only, but executed afterwards: And in Ezra, iv. 9, 10. they are called the Societies of the Dinaites, the Apatarsabchites, the Tarpelites, the Apatarsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Sanchites, the Debatites, the Elamites, and the rest of the Nations whom the great and noble Asnapper (or Eserbaddon) brought over and set in the Cities of Samaria. Eserbaddon then sent a Detachment of his Army against Judah, where his Captains overcame King Manasse in the Field, who being forced after the Defeat to flee away, the Pursuers found him hid in a Thicket of Thorns, and sent him bound in Chains to Babylon, 2 Chron. xxxiii. 11. where their Lord Eserbaddon resided after the Campaign was over. But Manasse staid not there long; for upon a Treaty he was taken out of Prison in a few Months and sent home, upon Condition of becoming a Tributary to the Emperor of Assyria and Babylon. See the other Column. Those Eastern Nations that had been lately settled in Palestine, among the small Remains of Israel, being very immoral and idolatrous, not at all fearing Jehovah; God sent among them Lyons that slew some of them, and frightened all the Inhabitants: and it being told to Eserbaddon, that because those new Nations knew not the Manner of the God of the Land, he had sent Lyons to slay them; the Emperor ordered saying, Carry thither one of the Priests whom ye brought from thence, and let him teach them the Manner of the God of the Land. Accordingly one of the Captive Priests was sent back (tho' we cannot fix the Year) and dwelt at Bethel, and taught them how they should fear Jehovah, viz. according to the Rites of King Jeroboam I, no doubt erecting at Bethel a new Golden Calf. Nevertheless, every distinct Nation of those new Inhabitants made Gods of their own, and placed them in the Houses of the High Places, which the Samaritans or Israelites had formerly made; and so the Babylonians worshiped their Idol Succoth-Benoth, the Cuthabites, Pergal the Hamathites Ashima, the Avites Dibbaz and Tarlak, the Sepharvites burnt their Children in Fire to Abram-Melech and Anam-Melech; and they made of the meaner People Priests of the High Places, who offered Sacrifices there: so they feared Jehovah and served their own Gods and their Graven Images, they and their Children and Grand-children, only assuming Jehovah into the Number of their many Gods, 2 K. xvii. 24—41. And in this Polytheism, they continued till Sanballat built the Samaritan Temple on Mount Gerizzim, when many of the Jews joined them, and reclaimed them from this Idolatry to the Worship of Jehovah only. |
| And now Manasse abolished all Idolatry, revived the Reformation of Hezekiah, restored Eliakim (called also in Jewish Tradition, which signifies the same with Eliakim) the High Priest to be first Minister of State in the Room of wicked Seebnat, who died in the Country of Babylon (according to Isa. xlii. 15—25.) extended his Reformation over all his Kingdom, and reigned in Prosperity all the rest of his Life, during 32 Years, which with 23 makes 55, the Total of his Reign.  | 24                         | 300                         | 357                          | 420                          | 776                         | 675             | 3329       | 2            | 74                 | 73 |   |

| There is little mentioned of MANASSEH after his Conversion, nor any Honour done him in sacred History, as a Punishment of his former scandalous Impiety: yet we may safely believe that he made a thorough Reformation both in Church and State, beginning it with the 24th Year of his Reign, upon his Return from Captivity, and in six or seven Years, until the Egyptian War began. Manasseh had Opportunity to carry on his publick Reformation a great Way; so that Religion and Virtue flourished as much in the latter End of his Reign, as in the Reign of his Father HEZEKIAH. | 20                   | 324               | 341                | 424              | 780               | 671               | 3333              | XXVII. 2          | 75                |

| NUMA POMPILIUS began to reign in the 3d Year of the 1st Olympiad, Dionys. Lib. II. He divided the Year into 12 Months, which before was but of 10 Months: and after he had reigned 43 Years, he was succeeded by   | 30                   |                   |                    |                  |                   |                   |                   | 4                 | 80                |
| TULLIUS HOSTILIUS, who reigned 32 Years. MANASSEH being now the Tributary of Esarhadon, and getting the sole and chief Command of Palestine, began to fortify every Place with Bulwarks and Garrisons, raised a good Army for the Defence of the Land against the Egyptians, and kept them from Inroads and from doing any considerable harm, except the carrying on of the Siege of Ashdod, which was covered by the Egyptian Army.   | 31                   | 307               | 344                | 427              | 783               | 668               | 3336              | XXVIII. 1         | 81                |

| MANASSEH seems not to have assisted his new Master Sardanapalus in the War against the Medes, being deeply engaged in defending his own Land against the Egyptians; which was a better Excuse than any of the Western Provinces of the Assyrian Empire could make, for not assisting their Master in the said Median War.  | 42                   | 318               | 355                | 438              | 794               | 657               | 3347              | XXXI. 1           | 92                |

KINGS of JUDAH.

We read no where that the SCYTHIANS, when they invaded Phoenicia, did any harm to Judah; God having protected his young Favourite's Kingdom, who were pillaged the Gentiles: Only when the Scythians returned from the Borders of Egypt, they took Beer-sheva a City of Manasseh West of the Jordan, and kept it while they continued in Asia, which therefore was afterwards called Scythopolis or City of the Scythians.

King JOSIAH had another Wife, Hannat the Daughter of Jeremiah a great Man at Libnah, and she bore to him this Year his Son Shallum, afterwards called Jehoachaz (perhaps because Shallum had been the Name of an unfortunate King of Israel, for he was about 23 Years old when his Father died, and when he was put upon the Throne, 2 K. xiii. 33).

We read 1 Chron. iii. 15. that the Sons of JOSIAH were, the first-born Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum: whereby some have thought that Jehoachaz was the same with Johanan or the eldest; but it is impossible; because when the People set him on the Throne, they anointed him, which was never done to the First-born, and he was aged only 23, while his brother Jehoiakim was aged 25, and so must be older than Jehoachaz whose Name was first Shallum; for he is so call'd, Jer. xii. 11, 12. compared with 2 K. xiii. 33, 34. only we can't always account for the Order of Names in Scripture, the youngest sometimes being the first mention'd: therefore, if Johanan was eldest, there is nothing more said of him; and he might have died in his Minority; but if Shallum or Jehoachaz is mention'd last, it may be because he was the most worthless: tho' I conceive their Order according to Birth was thus, 1 Jehoiakim, 2 Jehoachaz, 3 Zedekiah, 4 Johanan; but of Johanan we read no more.

King JOSIAH being further improv'd in the Knowledge of God and his Laws, began this Year to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the Relicks and Pollutions of Idolatry, or to perfect his Reformation; for he made a Progress throughout all the Land of Judah, and caused in his Presence his Men to break down all the Altars and Groves of Baalim, and to cut in pieces the Sun-Images that were erected before them, with the carved and molten Images; and making Dust of them, he strew'd it upon the Graves of the Idolaters, and burnt the Bones of the deceas'd idolatrous Priests upon their Altars. Nay, having all the Land of Israel subject to him as the Tributary of Assyria, he did the same in Ephraim, and Manasseh, and Simeon, even unto Nephthali round about, and return'd to Jerusalem in Triumph.

JEREMIAH the Prophet is now call'd to the prophetic Office, and Zephaniah too, Jer. i. 2. xiv. 3, 4, 5.

King JOSIAH having purged the Land of Idolatry, was intent upon repairing Solomon's Temple, for which he sent proper Officers to receive the voluntary Contributions of all Judah and Benjamin, and of all the Remnant of the Israelites; who returning to Jerusalem deliver'd the Money to the High Priest Shiliah, and to the Overseers of the Work, for paying the Artificers and Builders.

now Crim Tattar) and marching round Mount Caucasus, broke in upon the Dominions of Cyaxares like a Flood, under their King MADYAS the Son of Protophyas, Herodot. Lib. I. cap. 104, &c. They defeated the Army of Cyaxares and dispossest him of all the Upper Asia, where they triumphed 28 Years; enlarging their Conquests into Syria, even to the Borders of Egypt.

SADYATTES the Son of Acops reigns in Lydia for 12 Years, Herod. Lib. I. c. 16.

The Therians, after they had dwelt at Aziritum about 7 Years, travell'd to Iraca and settled at the Fountain of APOLLO; where having built the City Cyrene, their General BATTUS reigned there 40 Years.

The SCYTHIANS that overcame Cyaxares found nothing to hinder their marching into Syria: but when they drew near to Egypt, King PSAMMITICHUS by Entreaties, Promises, and rich Presents diverted them from invading his Country.

In their Return, the Scythians spoil'd the Temple of Venus at Ascalon; for which the Philistines curs'd them, and gave out that those Spoilers and their Offspring were punish'd with Emrods; for ever since the Philistines were so punish'd for the sake of the Ark of JEHOVAH, they thought it the usual Punishment of Sacrilege.

Chinladanus the Emperor of Assyria and Chaldea, or Babylon, having made himself contemptible by Effeminacy and ill Government, Nabopolassar his General took the Advantage of his Master's Indolence, and set up for himself by his Influence with the Army; and being by Birth a Babylonian, he made Interest to seize that Part of the Assyrian Empire. And so NABOPOLASAR the Father of NEBUCHADNEZZAR the Great, by some call'd Nebuchadnezzar the First, began to reign King of Babylon during 21 Years. See Alex. Polyhist. in Euseb. Chron. and Synell. Thus ended the 22 Years current of the Reign of Chinladanus over Babylon, according to Ptolemy's Canon. But he or his Successor reign'd still at Niniveh, till it was destroy'd about 14 Years afterwards; as will appear in its Place.

Prusias, or Prusa a City in Bitynia was now built. Euseb.

SADYATTES King of the Lydians subdued the Milesians, and spent 6 Years in that War, Herodot. Lib. I. cap. 18.

KINGS of JUDAH.

While Hilkiah was surveying the Temple to see what Repairs were wanting, he found somewhere the authentic Copy of the PENTATEUCH, or Book of the Law of Moses, which ought to have been kept on the Out-side of the Ark of the Covenant, where Moses placed it, in the Sandium Sandarum; but it seems it was hid elsewhere in the Beginning of Manasse's Reign, to preserve it from the Iniquity of the Times. Hilkiah sent it by Shaphan the Scribe to the King, who order'd Shaphan to read to him some Part of it, which happen'd to be (as the Jewish Doctors say) the 25th Chapter of Deuteronomy, where God's Curies are denounc'd against the People, and particularly against the Kings, if they kept not this Law.

JOSIAH, conscious how justly his People had deserv'd the Execution of those Judgments threaten'd, and being fill'd with Fear, Consternation, and Grief, rent his Clothes, and sent Hilkiah and others to the Prophet Hulkah that dwelt in the College, desiring her to enquire of Jehovah concerning him and his People. They return'd with her Answer, viz. That because of the Idolatry of Manasse, the Curies written in the Book were to be executed, even upon Jerusalem and its Inhabitants; but that because King Josiah had humbled himself, he should be gathered to the Grave in Peace before the Execution of the Judgments threaten'd.

Upon this the King summon'd a solemn Assembly in the Temple, where he caus'd the Law of God to be read to them, and then He and the People renew'd the solemn Covenant of their Fathers, engaging to keep God's Statutes with all their Heart and Soul, as at full Length may be seen in 2 K. xlii. 2 Chron. xxxiv.

From this solemn Renewing of the Covenant, we reckon the 30 Years mention'd, Ezek. i. 1. or that the Prophet commenc'd in his Office in the 30th Year after this Covenant: also the 40 Years of the Iniquity of Judah mention'd, Ezek. iv. 6. commence this Year too, as will appear at the Year of the World 3400.

It would seem that neither the King nor the High Priest had ever seen this Original Book of Moses, nor any Copy of it; for it seems the Copies written by order of King Hezekiah, were lost in the wicked Time of Manasse's Reign, except perhaps a few in private Hands. But now by the Care of this good King, several Copies were writ of it, and of the other Holy Scriptures then extant; which were preserved after the Captivity, and from which Ezra made his Collection.

Then this good King made another Progress thro' all the Land of Israel, to purge it of the Remains of Idolatry, (as is at length related in 2 K. xliii.) particularly he burnt the High Place and the Grove that Jeroboam I King of Israel had erected at Bethel, and stamp'd the Altar to Dust; but first polluted the Altar by burning the Bones of the adjacent Sepulchres upon it, according to the Word of Jehovah, by the Man of God, in presence of King Jeroboam 350 Years ago, (page 25.) and JOSIAH finding the Sepulchre of that Jewish Prophet with an Inscription upon it, hard by that of the Samaritan Prophet, he took Care that none should molest their Bones. Thus, having all sweep'd Samaritan and all the Land of Israel clean of all the Dregs of Idolatry, and slain the idolatrous Priests, he returned to Jerusalem, and

In the same 18th Year of Josiah's Reign, towards the End of the Year on the 14th Day of the first Month of this Year of the World, reckoning from the Exodus of Moses, the King celebrated the Passover as it is written, 2 K. xxiii. 21, 22, 23. 2 Chron. xxxv. 1—19. all Judah and all the Remnants of Israel being present at Jerusalem. This was the most solemn Passover ever observed since the Days of Samuel the Prophet, beyond what was celebrated by any of the Kings; for besides the willing Offerings of the Princes, King Josiah gave of his own Substance to the People for the Passover Offerings—

KINGS of JUDAH.

So the Service was prepared; the Priests stood in their Place, and the Levites in their Courses according to the King's Commandment, to keep the Passover and offer Burnt Sacrifices upon the Altar of Jehovah, and to hold the Feast of unleavened Bread seven Days. But the Offerings being so many, they could not in seven Days be burnt all upon the great Altar: therefore no doubt, they used also the Altar of Moses, and the hallowed Pavement for that Service, as Solomon did at the Dedication of the Temple, page 20.

Moreover, the Dealers with familiar Spirits, the Wizards, the Teraphim or Images, the Idols, and all the Abominations that were spied in Judah, and Jerusalem, did Jothab put away, that he might perform the Words of the Law, written in the Book which Hilkiah the Priest found in the Temple, 2 K. xxiii. 24. 5. TARQUINIUS Priscus King of the Romans, who founded the famous Capitol at Rome, began to reign during 38 Years.

In the 14th Year of the Reign of Nabopolassar at Babylon, and about the 23d Year of the Reign of Cyaxares at Ekbatana, NABOPOLASSAR, having some time ago married his eldest Son Nebuchadnezzar to Amittis, the Daughter of Astyages Prince Royal of Media, the Son of Cyaxares, enter'd into a League with Astyages against the Assyrians. Upon this, Cyaxares allow'd his Son Astyages as his Satrapa or Deputy, to try his Fortune against the old Enemies of the Medes; and Astyages raising an Army of Medes, join'd NABOPOLASSAR's Army of Babylonians, who, as the oldest Soldier and worthiest Person, commanded in chief and laid Siege to Nimveh, took in that great City, New Saracus the King, (who is by some thought to be Chiniladanus under another Name) and to gratify the Medes, he utterly demolish'd that ancient City; whereby Babylon became the sole Metropolis of the Assyrian Empire, which may be henceforth call'd the Babylonian or Chaldean Empire.

Thales Miletus now began to flourish in Greece, as an eminent Philosopher. Anaximander Miletus was born in Ionia. See A. M. 3457.

NABOPOLASAR Emperor of Babylon becoming exceeding Great by conquering all Affyria, and being much strengthened by his Amity and Alliance with CYAXARES King of the Medes, and his Son Aflyages; became formidable to all his Western Neighbours: and therefore to put a Stop to his growing Greatness,

Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt, march'd a great Army towards the Euphrates, to make War upon the Medes and Babylonians, who had dissolv'd the Assyrian Empire, as Josephus expresseth it, Antiq. Lib. X. cap 6. See also Herodot. Lib. II. and as his March must be through Palestine, he met King JOSIAH's Army at the Fords of the Jordan, in the Valley of Megiddo near Hadad-Rimmon, as on the other Column.

When

Necho's War, and to give him Battel. But tho' Josiah was warn'd by Necho to desist from his Enterprize, (as on the other Column) yet, not believing that Necho spake from JEHOVAH with whom he was not acquainted, (for in that Text the Word God is only Elohim, which is us'd in Scripture to signify the false Gods, as well as the true God) but only from his own Egyptian Gods, whose Oracles indeed he might have consulted; and Josiah not hearkening to the Words of Necho from the Mouth of his Elohim, and thinking himself bound by his Fealty and Honour to the Crown of Judah, to assist Nabopolassar; nay, regarding Necho as a common and more dangerous Enemy, would not draw off nor turn his Face from him, but disguis'd himself to fight in Person at the Head of his Army.

But in the Battel, the Jewish Army was totally routed by the Egyptians, and King JOSIAH receiv'd his Death's Wound from the Archers that shot at him, when he said to his Servants, bare me away for I am sore wounded; who then took him out and put him into another Chariot, and brought him to Jerusalem where he died, if he was not dead before; and was honourably buried in the Royal burying Ground in his own Sepulchre, among the Sepulchres of his Fathers, after he had reign'd 31 Years, aged 39. See 2 K. xxv. 32 compared with 2 Chron. xxxiv. 24.

Many have affirm'd, that King JOSIAH was to blame in fighting against Necho, and in the Cause of Nabopolassar; which they conclude, 1. From the Words of Necho's Message on the other Column. 2. From the Apocryphal Book 1 Ezdras i. 25. viz. Howbeit, JOSIAH undertook to fight with Necho, not regarding the Words of the Prophet Jeremy spoken by the Mouth of the Lord. But the first Argument is sufficiently answer'd above: nay, even tho' Necho had affirm'd that JEHOVAH had sent him, as Sennacherib presumed to say to Hezekiah, who believed him not; yet, Josiah had no more Reason to believe him, than Hezekiah had to believe Sennacherib, as Dr. Prideaux well observes: No; Josiah took it only as the vain boasting of Necho.

As to the other Quotation from 1 Ezdras, it is not supported by any hint of Canonical Scripture; and that Book is so full of Fable that even the Church of Rome has not receiv'd it into their Canon; therefore we cannot believe that the Prophet Jeremiab ever brought a Message from Jehorab against Josiah's Undertaking. No; the good King was not out of the Way of his Duty.

I. Because 2 Chron. xxxiv. 24, 25. all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him, particularly Jeremiah the Prophet lamented for him, and all the singing Men and the singing Women spake of Josiah in their Lamentations long afterwards, and made them an Ordinance in Israel; and because they are written in the Lamentations, written by Jeremiab, not that in our Bible (for that relates only to the Destruction of Jerusalem which was after Josiah's Death) but that which perish'd with other good Books in the Captivity: This general Mourning was so great and lasting, that it became a proverbial Phrase to express an extraordinary Sorrow; as Zech. xii. 11. the Prophet foretels a Mourning to happen as great as the Mourning of Hadad Rimmon in the Valley of Megiddo. But such Mourning, such Lamentation had not been made for him, if he had died in Rebellion against the Word of Jehorab; for then he had not deserved such Regard to his Memory in after Ages as the Jews paid to it.

II. Because He and his Father Ammon, and his Grandfather Manasseh, had been Tributaries to the Crown of Affyria, ever since Manasseh was releas'd from Captivity by the Emperor Eserbaddon about 67 Years ago; and under that Crown they had also reign'd over all the Land of Israel as well as Judah: therefore JOSIAH was obliged by his Tenure and his Oath to fight against Necho, and all the Enemies of Nabopolassar, who was by Conquest become his Liege Lord. Nay, God expressly condemned Jehoiakim and Zedekiah, for breaking Faith with this same Nabopolassar and his Son Nebuchadnezzar, as will be seen in its Place. But JOSIAH was better taught than to act against his Faith and Conscience: for 2 K. xxiii. 25, 26, 27. like unto him was there no King before him, who turned to Jehovah with all his Heart, and with all his Soul, and with all his Might, according to all the Law of Moses; neither after him will there any like him! Notwithstanding, Jehovah turn'd not from the Fierceness of his great Wrath, wherewith his Anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the Provocations of Manasseh; and Jehovah having said, I will remove Judah out of my Sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this City Jerusalem, which I have chosen, and the House of which I said, my Name shall be there; therefore, as a Prelude to this threatened Catastrophe, Jehorab remov'd good King Josiah at this Time, and in this Manner: tho' he died in Peace with God, not feeling the threaten'd Evil, as the Prophetess Habakkuk had foretold. Upon which the People of the Land assembled and chose for their King, not Jehoiakim the last Son of Jehorab.

Jehorab was the 21st Son of Manasseh, and his Mother's Family very likely, and the first-born was never named Jehorab, but Jehoiakim. See 2 Chron. xxxiv. 24.

CONTEMPORARIES.

When NECHO drew near, he sent Embassadors to JOSIAH, saying; what have I to do with Thee, Thou King of Judah? I come not against Thee this Day, but against the House wherewith I have War; for God commanded me to make haste: forbear Thee from meddling with God, who is with me; that He destroy Thee not! 2 Chron. xxxiv. 21. But JOSIAH not hearkening to the Words of Necho from the Mouth of his Elohim, or Egyptian Gods, a Battel ensued there, wherein NECHO was Conqueror, and defeating the Jewish Army, made his Way over the Jordan, and march'd strait to Carchemish, a great City at the Euphrates, to which he laid Siege expecting the Babylonian Army.

But tho' Necho was a Stranger to JEHOVAH, and had only consulted the Oracles of his Egyptian Elohim or Gods, in undertaking this Expedition, the Event prov'd that the Eternal over-ru'd those Oracles, and the Spirit of Necho too, in Order to bring about his decreed Purposes: for Necho indeed made haste, advanc'd with great Expedition with a firm Belief of Victory, as if he had had a special Call from Jehorab; especially after he overcame Josiah in the Valley of Megiddo.

When Nabopolassar came to the Relief of Carchemish, NECHO flush'd with Victory, beat the Babylonians out of the Field, and then soon made Carchemish to surrender to him, and secured it to himself with a strong Garrison or Detachment of his Army, as the Key of Affyria.

KINGS of JUDAH.

This King was not like his Father, but as Evil in the Sight of the Lord, as his more wicked Forefathers had done; and so could not prosper, because of God's denounc'd Wrath, but for all his Anointing he was dethron'd in three Months by Pharaoh Necho, as on the other Column, who sent for him to Riblah in Syria, and carried him chain'd to Jerusalem; where he saw Necho advance his elder Brother to the Throne, viz. Eliakim, whom Necho call'd Jehoiakim, made King when aged 25, (whereby it appears he was older than his Brother Jehoaiah alias Shallum, as also he had not the same Mother) tho' both those Names signify much the same, viz. the Lord vindicates, or the Lord raiseth up.

King Jehoiakim agreed to pay Homage to King Necho, and an annual Tribute of 100 Talents of Silver, and a Talent of Gold, which he rais'd by a general Taxation amounting to about 52200 Pounds Sterling: upon which Necho return'd to Egypt loaded with Spoils, and carried with him in Chains Jehoaiah or Shallum, who died there according to the Word of Jehurab by his Prophet Jeremiah, Ch. xlii. 10, 11. See also Ezek. xii. 4.

XVIII. Jehoiakim the Son of Josiah, began this Year to reign as the Tributary of Egypt, and he reign'd eleven Years in Jerusalem. He follow'd not the good Example of his Father, but, like his Brother, did what was Evil in the Sight of Jehovah, and let the People return to their old Idolatries and Immoralities: wherefore God sent the Prophet Jeremiah first to the King's Palace, and in the King's Presence exhorted him and his Servants to Repentance, by many Promises and Threatnings, Jer. xlii. 1—9. concluding vs. 10 saying, Weep ye not for the Death (King Josiah) neither bemoan him; but weep sore for him that goeth away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native Country: for thus saith Jehovah, concerning Shallum the Son of Josiah King of Judah, who reign'd instead of Josiah his Father, who went forth out of this Place; he shall not return thither any more, but he shall die in the Place whither they have led him Captive, and shall see this Land no more.

Then God sent Jeremiah to stand in the Porch of the Temple, and to declare to all the People (who came from all Parts to worship God in the Feast of Tabernacles) that if they would repent and be reform'd, God would repent of the Evil denounc'd against them; but if not, that then God would execute his Threatnings against them, and make this House like Shiloh, and this City a Curse to all the Nations of the Earth! Upon which the wicked Priests and the false Prophets rais'd a Mob against him, in Order to put him to Death: but the Princes hearing of it, hasten'd from the Palace to the Temple, and rescued him from the Hands of his Enemies; in which good Office Ahitam was principally concern'd, the Son of Saathai, (and the Father of Gedaliah, who was afterwards made Governor of the Land under the Chaldeans) Jer. xlii.

But another Prophet, Arijah the Son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jerim, who came and prophesied after the same Manner, fared not so well: for King Jehoiachin sought to slay him, and Uryah flying into Egypt, Jehoiachin sent after him and brought him Prisoner to Jerusalem, where he put the good Man to Death, Jer. xlii. 20—23.

Habbakuk also and Zephaniah prophesied about this Time, threatening the same Desolation to Judah and Jerusalem, if they repented not, Hab. i. 1—11.

This Year Nebuchadnezzar being made Partner with his Father in the Throne, the Jews compute from hence the Years of his Reign, even from the End of the 3d Year of Jehoiachin: or that the 4th Year of Jehoiachin is the first of Nebuchadnezzar, Jer. xli. 1. But the Babylonians begin his Reign upon his Father's Death two Years afterwards.

Jeremiah Ch. xli. foretells the two great Calamities of Egypt, the one to fall out next Year in the Battel of Carchemish, as on the other Column, and the other to fall out after the long Siege of Tyre as will appear in its Place.

The Rechabites, or the Offspring of Jonadab the Son of Rehobab, who join'd with King Jehu in his Reformation and who made a Law in his Family, that none of them should drink Wine for ever nor sow Seed, nor Plant, nor possess Houses, but should always dwell in Tents; having strictly obey'd their Father Jonadab's Institutions for about 278 Years, (reckoning from the Beginning of Jehu's Reign) came now from the Pasture Grounds of Israel near the Jordan, to reside in Jerusalem for Shelter, because of the Terror and Havock of the Babylonians and Syrian Troops under Nebuchadnezzar now on his March towards Palestine, Jer. xxxv. See the Descent of the RECHABITES, Table XI. under CALEB.

While King Jehoiakim was continuing impenitent, and secure also, under the Protection of the Egyptian Monarch, upon whom he depended more than upon God; the Prophet Jeremiah Ch. xxv. foretells the speedy coming

CONTEMPORARIES.

After this, NECHO retir'd to Riblah in Syria, in Order to refresh the rest of his Army before they march'd back to Egypt; where hearing that Jehoaiah had assum'd the Royal Dignity without his Leave, sent for him to Riblah, depos'd him and put him in Chains after he had reign'd only 3 Months: and when NECHO came on his Way towards Egypt, he stop'd at Jerusalem, where he exalted Eliakim the eldest Son of Josiah to be King of Judah, changing his Name to Jehoiakim; and having taxed the Land of Israel, as on the other Column, he return'd to his own Kingdom glorious, with many Spoils and Trophies, carrying with him also Jehoaiah or Shallum, the captive King of Judah, bound in Chains, who never return'd but died in Egypt.

Nevertheless Pharaoh Necho did not triumph long; for NABOPOLASAR finding that upon the Loss of Carchemish all Syria and Palestine had revolted to Necho, and finding himself too old and infirm for the Field of Battel, assum'd his Son Nebuchadnezzar into Partnership, conferr'd on him Royal Dignity and the Command of the Army. So

King NEBUCHADNEZZAR having last Year levied a great Army, and marching to Carchemish, he met the Egyptian Army; and having overthrown them with a great Slaughter, he retook that City, Jer. xli. 1—12. where having refresh'd himself a little, he march'd straight with his Army into Syria; and having recover'd that Province, he had an easy Passage into Palestine.

Continuation of TABLE XIX.

coming of Nebuchadnezzar against Jerusalem, the 70 Years Captivity, the Cup of Trembling that was to be handed round the Nations, and the Punishment of the King of Babylon and the Chaldeans, after the Expiration of the said 70 Years. And the Prophet protested against the Jews, that tho' he had prophesied and preached Repentance now 23 Years, viz. ever since the 13th Year of Josiah's Reign (when he commenc'd Prophet) yet they had not hearkened to the Word of Jehovah, but ever since the Death of Josiah had grown worse and worse.

Jeremiah being put into Prison for his faithful and seasonable Warnings, (Ch. xxxvi. 1—8.) sent for Baruch the Son of Neriah his Disciple, who wrote in a Roll from Jeremiah's Mouth, all the Prophecies he had deliver'd against Israel, and Judah, and other Nations from the said 13th Year of King Josiah; which God commanded to be collected, and sent Baruch to the Temple to read the Roll in the Hearing of all the People, then assembled at the great Fast of the annual Atonement on the tenth Day of the 7th Month Tisri, (answering to our September) But the King and People alarm'd by the Invasion of Nebuchadnezzar, did not at this Time shew their Displeasure at Baruch and Jeremiah: tho' none of them were so affected by the Word of God, as good Baruch himself; for which God sent an instructing and comforting Message to him by Jeremiah, in Ch. xlv.

These Predictions of Desolation were soon confirm'd by the Siege of Jerusalem in October, which Nebuchadnezzar after about a Month's Siege, took in on the 18th Day of the 9th Month Kislev, (as on the other Column) or in November, which Day the Jews still observe as an annual Fast; for that King Jehoiachin was then put in Chains, in Order to be carried to Babylon; and tho' upon Submission restor'd, yet, became thus the Tributary of Nebuchadnezzar his Liege Lord.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR while at Jerusalem, sent to Babylon a great many of the Holy Vessels of the Temple, which he order'd to be lodg'd in the Temple of Belus there, and made Enquiry for curious Architects, Artists, and others that might be useful at Babylon, and sent them with vast Numbers of People Captives into Chaldea, so that this is the first Year of the Babylonish Captivity of the Jews, during 70 Years.

He gave also a particular Charge to Aspenes the Master of the Eunuchs, to chuse from out of the Royal Family of Judah, and of the Noble Families, as many Male Children as were of hale Constitutions, fair Countenances and quick Parts, and to send them to Babylon, in Order to breed them to serve as Eunuchs in the Royal Palace there; among whom was the four Youths DANIEL, HANANIAH, MICHAEL, and AZARIAH, whom the Chaldeans call'd BELSHEZZAR, SHADRACH, MESHECH, and ABED-NEGO, who were to be three Years educated in the Language and Learning of the Chaldeans, and then were to be admitted to stand and serve before the Emperor.

This is dated by Daniel (ch. i. 1.) in the 3d Year of Jehoiachin, because he begins his Computation with Nebuchadnezzar's Command of the Army as his Father's Partner; tho' 'tis plain by the Premises, that This could not be till he had taken Jerusalem in this 4th Year of Jehoiachin: therefore, this fourth Year of Jehoiachin, is the first of Daniel's Servitude, and of the 70 Years CAPTIVITY, Jer. xxv. 11. whereby, the Threatning of God to King HEZEKIAH 105 Years ago, began to be accomplish'd. See page 55.

JEHOIAKIM had Cause enough to repent and reform; but on the contrary, after the Chaldeans were gone from Jerusalem, he and the Jews grew worse and worse. The only Appearance of due Concern in them, was the Appointing a Fast this Year kept on the 18th Day of the 9th Month Kislev; because on that Day last Year the City was taken by Nebuchadnezzar, which has been ever since observ'd by the Jews.

During this Solemnity, God order'd Jeremiah to send Baruch again to the Temple, to read the Roll a second Time in the Hearing of all Judah and Jerusalem, which he did from a Window of the Chamber of Gemariah, near the East Gate of the Temple (the Room where the King's Council us'd to meet) to the People passing by below, with an audible Voice. Upon which Michaiah the Son of Gemariah then present, went and told the Princes at the Palace what he had heard, who forthwith sent for Baruch and made him to read the Roll to them, at which they were not a little frightened, and order'd him to leave it with them, saying, Go hide Thee, Thou and Jeremiah, and let no Man know where you be! (for it seems Jeremiah had been releas'd from Prison by the Chaldeans) and the Princes went in to the King and told him all that had happened, at which the King sent for the Roll, and when he had heard three or four Leaves of it, he was so terrified, that he order'd Baruch to hide the Roll, and he and Jeremiah to flee into Egypt. After this, the King order'd Baruch to write all that he had heard, and he did so, and the King read it, and was so terrified, that he order'd Baruch to hide the Roll, and he and Jeremiah to flee into Egypt. After this, the King order'd Baruch to write all that he had heard, and he did so, and the King read it, and was so terrified, that he order'd Baruch to hide the Roll, and he and Jeremiah to flee into Egypt.

lesteine; and having laid Siege to Jerusalem, he soon took it, as being then unprovided, on the 18th Day of the 9th Month Kislev (answering to November) when he put JEHOIAKIM in Chains in order to carry him to Babylon; but upon his humble Petition and fair Promises, and swearing Fealty, NEBUCHADNEZZAR releas'd and restor'd him, (knowing he could reduce him at Pleasure) in order to be at Leisure to prosecute his War against Pharaoh NECHO.

But before he left Jerusalem, NEBUCHADNEZZAR sent captive into Babylon vast Numbers of the Jews, as on the other Column.

And now great Numbers of the best of the People being sent captive into Chaldea, with the Sons of the Royal Family and Nobility to be made Eunuchs and Servants of the Palace, the Vessels of the holy Temple of Jerusalem being sent to the Temple of Bel or Belus at Babylon, King JEHOIAKIM first put in Chains and releas'd only as a Vassal or mean Tributary of Nebuchadnezzar, and the whole Land being brought under the Dominion of the Babylonians; 'tis plain that the 70 Years CAPTIVITY must now commence as was threatned by Jeremiah, ch. xxv. 11. in the Beginning of the 4th Year of Jehoiachin (as on the other Column) and which was executed about 6 Months afterwards in this same Year.

Now also the Scythians were expell'd out of the upper Asia by the Medes, after they had possess'd the two Armenias, Cappadocia, Pontus, Colchis and Iberia for 28 Years past: for the Medes not being able to drive them out by Force, made Peace with them; and having invited the more noble Part of the Scythians to a great Feast, the Medes slew them when drunk, and then easily conquer'd the rest; whereby CYAXARES recover'd all, and again extended his Borders Westward as far as the River Halys, Herodot. Lib. I.

And now Darius King of Lydia espousing the Cause of some other Scythians, that had been much injur'd by the Medes, a War ensued between him and the Medes that lasted five Years.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR leaving Jerusalem this Year, carried on his War against Pharaoh NECHO with such good Success, that he recover'd from him all Syria and Palestine, and

KINGS of JUDAH

God commanded Jeremiah to write the same Words to Baruch, who wrote them in a new Roll with many Additions, particularly with respect to Jehoiachim, JEHOVAH said, I will burn this Roll, saying, why hast Thou written therein that the King of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this Land, and shall cause to cease from thence Man and Beast, therefore Jehoiachim shall have none to sit upon the Throne of David, and his dead Body shall be cast out in the Day to the Heat, and in the Night to the Frost; and I will punish him and his Seed, and his Servants for their Iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the Inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the Men of Judah, all the Evil I have denounced against them! But they hearkened not. About the same Time the Word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah concerning Jehoiachim mention'd, ch. xxii. 13—19. where it is said, They shall not lament for him, saying, ah! my Brother! ah Lord, or ah his Glory! He shall be buried with the Burial of an Ass, and cast forth beyond the Gates of Jerusalem!

DANIEL, and his three noble young Companions Shadrach, Meshech and Abed-Nego, from a Principle of their Mosaic Religion refus'd to be fed with the Royal Food of Babylon, as the other young Eunuchs were fed, but on plain Pulse or Pottage, and yet at the Time of their Appearance at Court when their three Years of Education were near expir'd, they appear'd more plump and fair than the rest, and more sage and expert likewise in all Things requir'd of them, Dan. I. 1—20. for when NEBUCHADNEZZAR had in a Dream seen his great and magnificent Image (as on the other Column) and when either he would not or could not reveal his Dream, and yet demanded of his Magicians to rehearse it, and to give him the Interpretation too, under the Pain of Death; and when none of them could offer to do it, God rais'd up young DANIEL, then aged about 22. to be a great Prophet, and by his Inspiration to rehearse the Dream, and to give its Interpretation too, Dan. ii. for which the Emperor advanc'd him to be the Chief Governor of the Magicians, and chief Ruler of the Princes and Province of Babylon, a privy Counsellor and a constant Courtier; whereby he had Capacity of promoting his Countrymen, particularly Shadrach, Meshech, and Abed-Nego his intimate Companions, who were carry'd captive with him, who signaliz'd themselves afterwards by their Constancy in not worshipping the Golden Image in the Plains of Dura, (as will appear in its Place) and by Daniel's Influence They were now promoted to be Princes in Babylon under him.

This same Year King JEHOIAKIM, after being the Tributary of Babylon very near three full Years, rebel'd against NEBUCHADNEZZAR, refus'd his Tribute, and join'd with his old Friend Pharaoh NECHO against the Babylonians, 2 K. xxiv. 1.

and conquer'd all the Land from the Euphrates, the Boundary of Syria towards the North East to the River of Egypt, the Boundary of Palestine towards the South West; which is not the Nile, but a small River running thro' the Desert towards the Mediterranean near the Entry of Egypt, (the ancient Boundary in the Days of Abraham and Josueph, Gen. xv. 18. Josh. xv. 4.) and thus he reduc'd King Necho to keep within his ancient Limits, 1 K. xxiv. 7.

But when Nebuchadnezzar was ready to enter Egypt about the End of this Year, the News came to him of the Death of his Father Nabopolassar after he had reign'd 21 Years, according to Ptolemy's Canon, and was succeeded by his Son and Partner, even this same

NEBUCHADNEZZAR, who having reign'd jointly with his Father, at least in the Army, these two Years past, began now to reign alone: and so leaving the Army in the South of Palestine, with a Charge to march to Babylon by the High-way as soon as they could with their Spoils, and the Egyptian, Phœnician, Jewish and Syrian Captives, he with a small Retinue went off the shortest Way more Easterly thro' the Desert straight to Babylon, where he forthwith mounted his Imperial Throne.

This great Emperor flush'd with Victory, and reigning over all Chaldea, Assyria, Syria, Palestine and Part of Arabia, during 43 Years; began, in this first Year of his Reign alone, to grow exceeding great at home, and to employ the Jewish, Phœnician, and Syrian Architects, whom he had brought to Babylon, in the beautifying, enlarging and fortifying of that great City, the Metropolis of the Empire ever since the Destruction of Niniveh; tho' the Work was not so very briskly carried on as after his Wars were over, which will appear in its Place.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR now had the Dream of the great Image of excellent Brightness and terrible Form, whose Head was of fine Gold, his Breast and Arms of Silver, his Belly and Thighs of Brass, his Legs of Iron, and his Feet part of Iron and part of Clay, &c. Dan. II. 31, &c. which none could reveal and interpret but DANIEL, who was divinely inspir'd for that Purpose, and prov'd an eminent Prophet, as on the other Column.

But Nebuchadnezzar being deeply engag'd at home, sent to his Lieutenants of the Provinces in and about Palestine, to raise their Posse and join to distress Jehoiakim the Rebel, and his Kingdom.

Accordingly great Hordes of the Syrrians on the North, of the Moabites and Ammonites on the East, and of the Arabians on the South, made perpetual Inroads upon Judah and great Havock, without controul; for NECHO did not assist him or perhaps could not speedily.

Pharaoh NECHO King of Egypt dying this Year (as on the other Columns) JEHOIAKIM King of Judah was destitute of a Confederate; for all the Nations round him were tributary to the Babylonian, except Egypt; and if King Psammis renew'd his Father's Alliance with Jehoiakim, yet he would first settle himself in the Throne and Government, before he would send an Army to the Relief of Jehoiakim; which the foresaid Confederates well knowing, penetrated by concert, from all Quarters, as far as Jerusalem, and there join'd in a great Army at the Bloksade of that City, with a Party of the Chaldeans that commanded the Bloksade, 2 K. II. 2. and this Year they sent 3023 Jews captive to Babylon, Jer. lii. 28.

At length JEHOIAKIM, during the Bloksade, having made a Salley upon the Enemy, was taken Prisoner, slain with the Sword, and his dead Body was by them cast into the High-way near one of the Gates, with all Marks of Disgrace and Contempt, according to the Word of JEHOVAH by Jeremiah above mention'd, viz. Jer. xiii. and xxvi. Tho' with respect to the common Law of Nature he is said to have slept with his Father, 2 K. xxiv. 6.

Mean while the Jehus within the City, upon the Death of Jehoiakim, crown'd his Son

XIX. JEHOIAKIM, call'd also Jeconiah and Coniah, then aged 18 Years: but he prov'd like his Father an Enemy to Reformation, beginning his Reign with doing what was Evil in the Sight of JEHOVAH, in spite of all the Warnings of Jeremiah and the other Prophets; even tho' the Enemy was at the Gate, and God's Judgments were hanging over the Holy City.

Wherefore God by Jeremiah denounc'd a severe Sentence against him, ch. xxv. 2. at Jerusalem, Jer. xxv. 2. and Coniah the Son of Jehoiakim King of Judah shall be taken away from his Kingdom, yet will I place thee there, and I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy Life, whose face thou shalt see, and into the hand of the Medes shall thou be taken, Jer. xxv. 7.

CONTEMPORARIES.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR not being at Leisure to march against Jehoiakim, order'd his Lieutenants in and about Palestine to distress him:

In the 6th Year of the War between the Medes and Lydians, with equal Success on both Sides, there happen'd an Eclipse of the Sun in time of Battle, which frightened both Armies who were ignorant of it, and thinking it ominous, desisted from fighting, and left the Matter in Debate to the Arbitration of Siennesis King of Cilicia, and Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon, upon which a Peace was concluded; Atropates King of Lydia giving his Daughter ARIENA in Marriage to Atropates the Son of Cyaxares King of Media. Yet this Eclipse was calculated and foretold by Thales Miletus to the Ionians, who was the first Grecian that could calculate Eclipses; which is confirm'd by Eudemus in his Astronomical History, by Pliny also and Clemens Alexandrinus: only they differ in the Time. But in the Luna-Solar Tables of Ptolemy, it is recorded to have happen'd in the Reign of Cyaxares in the 4th Year of the XLIVth Olympiad, and of Nubonassar 147th, on the 4th Day of the Egyptian Month Pachon, or 20th of our September, 3 Hours and 25 Minutes before Mid-Day. This Eclipse was of 9 Digits, and lasted almost two Hours.

The Phocaenses sail'd from Ionia and built Maffilia now Marseilles in the Ligurine Sea or Gulph of Lyons, Euseb. Chron.

Pharaoh NECHO died this Year after he had reign'd 16 Years, and was succeeded by

PSAMMIS his Son who reign'd King of Egypt for 6 Years, Herodot. Lib. I. ch. 161.

Cyaxares (call'd afterwards DARIUS the Mede) was this Year born to his Father Atropates (call'd afterwards AHASUERUS) by his Mother ARIENA, who was married last Year to Atropates; for when Belshazzar King of Babylon was slain, this same DARIUS the Mede was about 62 Years old. See Dan ix. 1. v. 30, 31

But the said Atropates gave this Year his Daughter Mandane (whom he had by a former Wife) in Marriage to Cambyses the Son of Achemenes, King of the Persians, Xenoph. Lib. I.

KINGS of JUDAH.

Babylon, and I will cast thee out and the Mother that bare thee into another Country, and there shalt ye die and never return hither. In this Man Cometh a great Tribulation, I will be to him as a Father, wherein is no Pleasure? Thus saith Jehovah, write ye this Man captive, a Man that shall not prosper in his Days; for no Man of his Seed shall prosper sitting upon the Throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah! (The Words also of ch. xliii. seem to have been deliver'd at or near the same Time by Jeremiah) which bitter Sentence was signally and soon executed: for King JEHOIAKIN finding that Nebuchadnezzar had turn'd the Blokade into a regular Siege; that the City was besieg'd on all Sides by the Royal Army of the Chaldeans, now join'd with the Forces of the other Provinces; that the Jews without had been harass'd, plunder'd, and disabled to afford him any Relief; that Phamutis King of Egypt was afraid of the Chaldeans; that the Jews within the City were divided and many of them ready to revolt upon the preaching of Jeremiah; and JEHOIAKIN also afraid of being either deliver'd up to the Enemy, or of being taken Prisoner at the taking of the City, made a Vow of Necessity, and went forth to the Camp of the Belligers with his Attendants, his Princes, Servants and Eunuchs, and surrender'd himself and them into the Hands of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, after he had reign'd in Jerusalem three Months and ten Days.

By this Surrender JEHOIAKIN saved his Life and that of his Friends, but gain'd nothing more by it, for NEBUCHADNEZZAR put him and them all in Chains forthwith; and having enter'd Jerusalem with his Army, he carried out thence all the Treasures of the Holy Temple and Royal Palace, and cut in Pieces the Golden Vessels of the Temple that King SOLOMON had made, and sent them to Babylon with the captive King JEHOIAKIN, and his Mother, and his Wives, and Eunuchs, his Princes and mighty Men of Valour; even the Flower and choicest People of Jerusalem, to the Number of ——— 10000 Men besides all the Craftsmen and Smiths; none remaining in the City, save the poorest Sort of the People of the Land.

And besides those vast Numbers that were carried Captive by the same Nebuchadnezzar, in the first Year of the 70 Years Captivity, being the first of the Jewish Era of Nebuchadnezzar, and 4th of Jehoiakim.

Among those Captives was MORDECAI, a Prince of Benjamin of the Family of Bish, Esther II. 5, 6. Also EZEKIEL the Prophet the Son of Buzi of the House of Aaron; for he calls This his Captivity, and in all his Prophecies he deduceth his Epocha from this Captivity. Ezek. I. 2, 3. xl. 1.

Jehoiakim being sent off to Babylon, where he remain'd in Prison all the Days of Nebuchadnezzar for 37 Years, and afterwards died in Chaldaea, was succeeded by

MATTANIAH his Uncle, the Brother of Jehoiakim and the younger Son of King JOSIAH, whom Nebuchadnezzar set upon the tottering Throne of David as his Tributary and Vassal, who solemnly swore Allegiance or took an Oath of Fealty to that Grand Monarch, or a Covenant which he seal'd and sign'd with his Hand; and as a Badge of Mattaniah's Vassalage, Nebuchadnezzar chang'd his Name to

XX. ZEDENIAH (which signifies the Justice of Jeremiah, in order to put him in Mind of his Oath) now aged 21 Years, who reign'd in Jerusalem 11 Years.

Soon after Jehoiakim or Zedoniah was carried off to Babylon, JEREMIAH under the Vision of the two Baskets of Efigy, foretold the Restoration of those Jews that were now in Chaldaea, and the Ruin of Zedekiah, his Princes and his People by the Sword, the Famine and Pestilence, and by scattering the Remainder into all the Kingdoms of the Earth with Reproach, Jer. xxiv. which were duly fulfill'd.

The same Year JEREMIAH prophesied concerning the Subjection and Exaltation of the Elamites: ch. i. 1. 34—39 for Elam a Kingdom at the River Uai, East of the River Tigris and South of Media, was conquer'd by Nebuchadnezzar and made a Province of the Chaldean Empire, Dan. viii. 1, 2. But afterwards the Elamites joining their Forces with the Medes under CYRUS, who was half Elamite half Mede, by killing Belshazzar, prevail'd over the Chaldeans; and Susa the chief City of Elam became then the Metropolis of the new Persian Empire; for the Elamites from the glorious Days of Cyrus, were call'd PERSIANS, and not before.

Nebuchadnezzar on the Part of the Medes, having with Siennesis King of Cilicia on the Part of the Lydians, made Peace between those warlike Nations, and having settled their Boundaries and his own, and given the necessary Direc- tions about the enlarging and beautifying of his Metropolis Babylon, and having settled all Affairs in the East; even while the Blokade of Jerusalem was carry'd on, He march'd the grand Army of the Chaldeans thro' Syria, and having join'd the Army of his Lieutenants before Je- rusalem, chang'd the Blokade into a close and regular Siege, straitning the City on all Sides until JEHOIAKIN King of Jeru- salem surrender'd all to him, as on the other Column.

While the proud Babylonian triumphs in Judah, laying all below his Foot, tread- ing on the Necks of Kings and Princes, little did he know that this very Year (or the last of King Jehoiakim) a Child was born, who in Time should destroy and extinguish his Family; even CYRUS born to his Father Cambyses King of Persia, by Queen Mandane the Daughter of Astages Prince Royal of Media: for he founded the Persian Monarchy in the Death of Belshazzar, the Grandson of Nebuchadnezzar; and he restor'd the Jews to their City and Temple. He was prophesied of by Name above 130 Years before he was born, by Isaiah ch. xlv. 28, 29. for there God saith of CYRUS, he is my Shepherd and shall perform all my Plea- sure; even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built! and to the Temple, thy Founda- tion shall be laid! and ch. xlv. 1, &c. he is call'd God's anointed, and great Promises made to him; while none living knew who he was, or when he should appear.

Continuation of TABLE XIX.

KINGS of JUDAH.

After Nebuchadnezzar's Departure from Jerusalem to Babylon, King ZEDEKIAH began to cement his Kingdom and to bring his poor People under due Regulation and Government; which he soon effected; and he had been a flourishing Prince if he had not follow'd the ill Example of his Nephew Jehoiach, and of his two Brothers Jehoiakim and Jehoachaz, by doing what was Evil in the Sight of the Lord; not repenting and reforming, but growing worse and worse.

Therefore, when the Ambassadors of the Neighbouring Princes came to consult with him, about the breaking of Nebuchadnezzar's Yoke from off their Necks (as on the other Column) God sent Jeremiah with Bonds and Yokes upon his Neck to Zedekiah and those Ambassadors, to present them with Yokes for their respective Royal Masters; signifying, they should say to their Masters from "JEHOVAH the God of Hosts, the God of Israel, that he had given the Earth and its Inhabitants to Nebuchadnezzar his Servant, that all Nations shall serve him and his Son, and his Son's Son, that the Nation who refuse his Yoke, shall be consum'd with the Sword, Famine and Pestilence; that therefore, they should notarken to their lying Prophets, Diviners, Dreamers, Inchanters and Sorcerers, who lay the contrary and lead them into a dreadful Snare; and that the Nations who tamely come under Nebuchadnezzar's Yoke shall not be carried away captive, but remain in their own Land in Peace." Jeremiah particularly advis'd King ZEDEKIAH "to follow this Counsel sent from Jehovah, and not to listen to his false Prophets, who had presum'd to say, that the Holy Vessels should very soon be brought back to the Temple, and that the Yoke of Nebuchadnezzar should be broken from off their Necks; for that those Prophets had not Power with God to prevent the remaining Vessels and precious Things of the Temple, from being carried off to Babylon, and from remaining there until the determin'd Time of Reduction, Jer. xxvii." This so affected Zedekiah, that he rejected the said Proposal of his neighbouring Princes, till the King of Egypt came into the Alliance; as will appear in its Place.

King ZEDEKIAH this Year sent Elasah the Son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the Son of Hilkiah, his Ambassadors to his Liege Lord NEBUCHADNEZZAR at Babylon; by whom Jeremiah sent a Letter to the Elders, the Priests, the Prophets and People that had been carried captive into Chaldea, before and after King JECONIAH and the Queen, the Eunuchs, the Princes, the Nobility of Judah and Jerusalem were carry'd off, with the Carpenters and Smiths; signifying from JEHOVAH Zebaoth the God of Israel, "that they ought to build, and plant, and marry, and live as formerly when in Palestine, and seek the Peace of the Place of their Residence (for that in its Peace they should have Peace) and not listen to the Dreams of their lying Prophets and Diviners, that made them neglect their proper Interest with the vain Expectation of a speedy Return; for that not before 70 Years Captivity are accomplish'd, could they expect a Reduction; but that then they should certainly return to Jerusalem according to God's faithful Promise: that they could expect no Relief from Palestine; because, God would certainly send after them into Captivity King ZEDEKIAH, and all his People that should escape the Sword, Famine and Pestilence, for their Sins unrepented of, Jer. xxix. 1—19. that God would appear against Ahab the Son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the Son of Maaseiah, two of the Captivity at Babylon to prove them false Prophets, as on the other Column.

When Zephaniah the 2d Priest had read Shemaiah's Letter (as on the other Column) in the Hearing of Jeremiah, the Spirit of Jehovah came upon the Prophet, ordering Zephaniah to send to all in Captivity, signifying that Shemaiah, for being a lying Prophet and deceiving the honest People, should be exemplarily punish'd and his Race extinguish'd, Jer. xxix. 30—32. and the same Time Jeremiah publish'd those Prophecies of Christ and the Church in ch. xxx. and xxxi.

CONTEMPORARIES.

Towards the End of this Year, the Kings of the Cimmerians, Phoenicians, Ammonites, Tyrrians, Sidonians, and of the other Neighbouring Nations sent Ambassadors to congratulate ZEDEKIAH's Advancement, and to propose to enter with him into a League against Nebuchadnezzar, in order to keep him out of Palestine for the future, and to break his Yoke from off their Necks: but by the terrible Prophecy of Jeremiah, he was deter'd from it, as on the other Column.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR finding that Ahab the Son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the Son of Maaseiah at Babylon, had vainly pretended to be Prophets, and had fed the Jews in Chaldea with the vain Hopes of a speedy Restoration; whereby the People were become an unprofitable Burden to the Emperor, by neglecting to build, plant, marry and live like other People; those two false Prophets were brought before him, and being convicted also of lying in the Name of Jehovah, and of Adultery with their Neighbours Wives, he order'd them to be roasted in the Fire before a Multitude of the Jews, according to the Prophecy, Jer. xxix. 20—23.

CRESUS the Son of Halpattes King of the Lydians, was born by Carica his Queen; for he was aged 35 Years when he began to reign, Herodot. Lib. I. See A. M. 3442.

Shemaiah the Nebelamite, or Dreamer, another Pretender to Prophecy among the Captives at Babylon, joining with those other Jews that spoke as they wish'd about a speedy Reduction, and were angry at Jeremiah's Letter; sent, by the Return of the same Ambassadors, a Letter to Zephaniah the Son of Maaseiah the second Priest, and to all the Priests and People of Jerusalem, complaining of Jeremiah's Letter and charging the Priest to reprove him, imprison him, and put him in the Stocks: which Letter Zephaniah read in the Hearing of Jeremiah ch. xxix. 24—29.

CONTEMPORARIES.

In the 5th Month of this Year, Hananiah the Son of Azaz of Gibeon, another false Prophet, met Jeremiah in the Temple and before the Priests and all the People prophesied, that God had broken the Yoke of the King of Babylon, and that within two full Years the Holy Vessels would be brought back to Jerusalem by King Jehoniah and all the Captives.

Jeremiah heartily wish'd his Words might be fulfill'd, but suspended his Belief till the Event. Then Hananiah took the Wooden Yoke from Jeremiah's Neck and brake it, saying, even so will Jehovah break Nebuchadnezzar's Yoke from the Necks of all Nations in two full Years! and Jeremiah went away. But soon did the Word of Jehovah come unto him, signifying, that "the next Yoke must be of Iron, which God will put upon the Neck of every Nation to serve Nebuchadnezzar; that JEHOVAH had not sent Hananiah, and as an Evidence hereof that "God should remove him by Death this Year;" which was fulfill'd in the 7th Month when he died, Jer. xviii.

This same 4th Year of Zedekiah, Jeremiah publish'd his Prophecies in ch. L. and LI. against Babylon and the Land of Chaldea, that it should be ruin'd by the Medes, and Elamites or Persians, and other Nations joining with them, while he comforts the Jews with the Promise of a peaceable Restoration.

King ZEDEKIAH, in this same 4th Year, either went himself to Babylon, or sent his Chamberlain as his Ambassador, viz. Seraiab the Brother of Baruch and the Son of Neriah; and Jeremiah, having written all the Prophecies against Babylon in a little Book, gave it to Seraiab, charging him that he should first read it upon the Banks of the Euphrates to those of the Captivity, and then should bind a Stone to it and cast it into the Middle of that River; signifying, that as the Book and Stone did sink, so should Babylon sink and never again rise: this Prophecy began to be fulfill'd upon the Death of Belshazzar, and has continued to be fulfill'd even to this Day, during 2268 Years, viz. from the Death of Belshazzar to A. D. 1730.

King ZEDEKIAH this Year sent Ambassadors to PHARAOH HOPHRA, or Apries King of Egypt, to make an Alliance with him and other neighbouring Princes against Nebuchadnezzar; and Hophra agreed to send him an Army of Cavalry and much People, to fight the Babylonians in Case of an Invasion; for This is imported in Ezek. xvii. 15. which was reveal'd about that Time as on the other Column.

King

See the Continuation.

Cyaxares King of the Medes, after reigning 40 Years being now dead, was succeeded by his Son

ASTYAGES, call'd Dan. ix. 1. Ahasuerus, who reign'd over the Medes 35 Years, Herodot. Lib. I.

In the 30th Year after King JOSIAH renew'd the Solemn Covenant with all Israel, (which was done in the 18th Year of his Reign) or in this 5th Year of King Jehoniah's or Jehoiakin's Captivity, or of ZEDEKIAH's Reign, in the 4th Month and 5th Day of the Month, the Word of Jehovah came first expressly unto EZEKIEL the Priest the Son of Buzi, while conversing with some of the other Captives by the River Chebar in Chaldea, Ezek. i. 1, 2, 3.

And the same Time God reveal'd to him the 390 YEARS of God's utmost Forbearance with the House of Israel (that commence from the Death of SOLOMON or Partition of the Kingdom) and the 40 Years of God's Forbearance with the House of Judah, (part of the said 390 Years) that commence from the said solemn Renewal of the Covenant in the 18th Year of King JOSIAH. Both which are together completed in the Year of the last Captivity, and extreme Desolation of the Jews and Israelites in the 4th Year after the Temple was burnt; as will appear in its Place, Ezek. iv. v. vi. vii.

This same Year also Ezekiel in a Vision or Trance, was carried to Jerusalem, and shewn all the various Idolatries and Abominations committed by the Jews in the Holy City and the Temple itself; and the Punishments that God would certainly inflict upon them; with large Promises to those of the Captivity that kept themselves pure from such Abominations; how that God would be their Sanctuary in a strange Land, and restore them honourably in due Time, &c. all which the Prophet rehears'd to those of the Captivity, Ezek. viii. ix. x. xi.

This Year also Psammis King of Egypt dying after he had reign'd 6 Years, was succeeded by his Son

Apries, call'd in Scripture PHARAOH HOPHRA, who reign'd 25 Years. He was terrible by Sea and Land, and brought great Spoils to Egypt from the Cyprians, Sydonians, and other Phœnicians whom he conquer'd; and became so elated that he was persuaded no God could take his Kingdom from him: for which God afterwards threatens him, Ezek. xxix.

Ezekiel shew'd to those of the Captivity by Signs and Words from Jehovah, that the Chaldeans should soon take Jerusalem; that ZEDEKIAH should fly from the City by Night, should be taken and his Eyes put out, should be sent in Chains to Babylon, where he should die; that the Jews should be carried captive and their Land made desolate, Ezek. xii. when he had also the Revelations contain'd in the seven following Chapters. And from ch. xiv. 14. 20. it appears DANIEL aged about 32 Years, was now become so eminent in Holiness, that he is rank'd with NOAH and JOB for Prevalency with God in Prayer, as one of the Three.

| King ZEDEKIAH this Year openly revolted from NEBUCHADNEZZAR, breaking his Oath of Fealty which he had sworn in the Name of Jehovah , and his Contract which he had sign'd, Ezek. xvii. 18, 19. for which God sent against him his Liege Lord Nebuchadnezzar , who made him repent of his Perfidy too late.  | 8   | 384              | 421                           | 504                         | 860                    | 591                     | 3413  | XLVII. 2        | 158             | 157                        | 16   | 14   |

And soon after this, Jeremiah deliver'd that Prophecy to ZEDEKIAH, ch. xxxix. 1—7 signifying, "that the King of Babylon should burn Jerusalem , that Zedekiah should not escape, but be brought a Prisoner before NEBUCHADNEZZAR, who should speak to him in condemning him, "and whose Eyes he should see (just before his own Eyes were put out) "and then be sent to Babylon . Accordingly, in the Court of the Prison the Deeds of Purchase were sign'd and sealed in due Form of Law, the Prophet weighing to his Nephew 17 Shekles of Silver; and taking the Evidences , he gave them into the Custody of Baruch before the Witnesses, charging him to put them in an earthen Vessel for their better Preservation, concluding, for thus saith Jehovah Zebaoth the God of Israel , "and Danaiel and Linaiel shall be sign'd again in this Law , which from this is confirmed and extended in ch. xxxii. 1, &amp;c. where it is said to have happen'd in the 10th Year of ZEDEKIAH, when was the 10th Year of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, viz. according to the Jewish | 9   | 385              | 422                           | 505                         | 861                    | 590                     | 3414  | 3               | 159             | 158                        | 17   | 15   |

CONTEMPORARIES.

On the 10th Day of the 5th Month of this Year, or 27th of August, the Elders of the Captivity came to Ezekiel to enquire of JEHOVAH, who order'd the Prophet to declare that he would not hear them, because of the Sins of their Fathers and of their own Hypocrisy: and then declar'd what Calamities would insue upon their following the ill Example of their Fathers, and what Promises belong'd to the penitent and pure among them, Ezek. xx. and the 3 following Chapters.

When the News came to Babylon of Zedekiah's Revolt NEBUCHADNEZZAR began to levy a great Army, in order to reduce him, for all his Alliance with Egypt, and to chastise his Perfidy and Rebellion by Extirpation.

Battus the Founder of the Kingdom of Cyrene dying after he had reign'd 40 Years, was succeeded by his Son Arethas, who reign'd 16 Years, Herodot. Lib. IV.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR with an Army not only of Chaldeans, but of all the many Nations under his Dominion with all the Necessaries of a Siege march'd into Syria, growing as they march'd along, until they enter'd Palestine, where they began to be in Action: for he left the Ammonites, (who had also revolted) on his left Hand; and by the Advice of his Diviners, march'd strait to the Head of the Jordan, and so into the Land of Israel, and laid Siege to Jerusalem on the 10th Day of the 10th Month.

On the same Day that Nebuchadnezzar began the Siege of Jerusalem, came the Word of Jehovah to Ezekiel in Chaldea, bidding him to write the Name of this same Day; for that to Day the King of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem, Ezek. xxiv. 1, 2. Then by the Type, or Sign of a boiling Pot he foretells the Destruction of the Jewish Kingdom, and as another Sign, God remov'd his Wife by Death, in the Evening of that Day, forbidding him to cry or mourn for her: so neither must the Jews in Chaldea mourn for Jerusalem.

KINGS of JUDAH.

Upon the Advance of the Egyptian Army, NEBUCHADNEZZAR rais'd the Siege in order to meet PHARAOH, (as on the other Column) when Jeremiah was sent out of Prison; but He continued to contradict the false Prophets, who said, that the Chaldeans would never return to renew the Siege, and the Jews believing only what they said, forthwith broke their late Covenant of Reformation, and forced their Hebrew Slaves to return to their former Servitude, contrary to the Law of Moses and common Justice: for which God by Jeremiah proclaim'd Liberty to the Sword, the Famine, and the Pestilence to execute God's Wrath upon them, to their utter Destruction, Jer. xxxiv. 11, &c. Yet ZEDEKIAH seems to have had some more Regard for the Opinion of Jeremiah; and therefore sent to him, saying, Pray now unto Jehovah our God for us; but the Prophet's Answer was to assure them in the Name of God, that PHARAOH's Army should return to Egypt hastily, should not assist them, but deceive them like Cowards; and that the Chaldeans should speedily return to the Siege, should take Jerusalem and burn it, even tho' their Army were only wounded Men, Jer. xxxvii. 1—10.

Jeremiah being desirous to avoid the Siege, attempted to retire to his native Place at Anathoth in Benjamin; but was seiz'd at the Gate by Irijah the Captain of the Guard, who charg'd the Prophet with being a Defector to the Chaldeans and brought him Prisoner to the Princes; and they believing the Captain, order'd Jeremiah to be chastis'd, and committed him to the Goal, that had been the House of Jonathan the Scribe, Jer. xxxvii. 11—15.

The Siege of Jerusalem was renew'd by Nebuchadnezzar about the 15th Day of the 3d Month of this 10th Year of ZEDEKIAH, for it lasted 390 Days, as may be gather'd from the Type of Ezekiel, ch. iv. v. vi. vii. or one Year and 25 Days.

King ZEDEKIAH now sent for Jeremiah out of Prison and ask'd him secretly, Is there any Word from Jehovah? Who answer'd, Yes; for Thou shalt be deliver'd into the Hand of the King of Babylon! Then Jeremiah having pleaded not to be sent back to the vile common Goal, fearing to die there, the King sent him only to the Court of the Prison; and order'd him a daily Allowance of Bread out of the Bakers Street until all the Bread in the City was spent, Jer. xxxviii. 17, &c.

ZEDEKIAH being sore press'd by the Besiegers, sent Messengers to Jeremiah again to enquire of Jehovah about the Event of the War; who return'd a very terrible Answer, concluding that they who abode in the City should perish by the Sword, the Famine and Pestilence; but that they who go out and surrender themselves to the Besiegers, shall find Quarter and get their Lives for a Prey, Jer. xli. 1—10. And because Jeremiah utter'd these things in the Hearing of all the People that flock'd to him in the Court of the Prison, some of the Princes complain'd of him to the King, as of one that weaken'd the Hands of the Soldiers, and that was an Enemy to the City: to whom ZEDEKIAH poorly reply'd, Behold he is in your Hand, for the King cannot do any thing against you! Then took they Jeremiah and cast him into a Dungeon that was in the Court of the Prison, letting him down with Cords till he sunk in the Mire, where he must have perish'd, if Cbed Meshlech the Ethiopian one of the Eunuchs, or chief Servants of the King's Court, had not prevail'd with the King to take him out, Jer. xxxviii. 1—13. for which good Office God afterwards sent to Jeremiah by Cbed-Melech, a gracious Promise of being sav'd and deliver'd from the common Calamity, Jer. xxxix. 15—18.

Then ZEDEKIAH again sent for Jeremiah to meet him in the third Entry of the Temple, where the King secretly commanded him to be free with him; and the Prophet being afraid, the King secretly swore to him, that he would not put him to Death for any thing he should say: upon which Jeremiah declar'd as before, the impending Ruin, and only added, that if ZEDEKIAH did go out and surrender himself to the King of Babylon's Princes (for NEBUCHADNEZZAR had gone to Riblah in Syria, as on the other Column) he would save himself and the City; otherwise he would run all. To which the King reply'd, I am afraid of the Jews that have adhered to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their Hand, and they shall make me. But tho' Jeremiah press'd him earnestly to go out, the King would not do so, and desir'd the Prophet to conceal their Discourse, especially, from the Princes, bidding him to tell them nothing, which he did when he came back to the Court of the Prison. And never more saw King ZEDEKIAH, Jer. xlii. 14—&c.

CONTEMPORARIES.

But Pharaoh Hophra perceiving the Resolution of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, and knowing him to be the great and expert Commander of a well appointed Army, began to fear the Event of a Battel, durst not stay for him, and hastily retir'd to fortify the Passages into Egypt, tho' some think he was first overthrown in Battel.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR hearing that Pharaoh had return'd home, did not march further after him, but return'd strait to Jerusalem and renew'd the Siege.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR having again begirt the City of Jerusalem (as on the other Column) committed the Care of the Siege to his Princes, and went himself to Riblah in Syria, where he set up his Court, administer'd Government and diverted himself.

Ezekiel on the 12th Day of the 10th Month of this 10th Year of Jehoiakin's Captivity, receiv'd a Prophecy from God against Pharaoh HOPHRA King of Egypt, for his base deserting and deceiving of ZEDEKIAH, and for his Pride and Perfidy mention'd ch. xxix. and xxx. foretelling the Judgments that would be executed on him and his People, during 40 Years; and that tho' they should be gather'd again, they should only become a base People without a King of their own; which was fulfill'd soon, when Egypt became a Province of the Persian Empire, and was afterwards subjected to the Macedonians, to the Romans, to the Mamelukes, and now to the Turks.

On the first Day of the first Month of the 11th Year of King Jehoiakin's Captivity, Ezekiel receiv'd the Prophecy against the Tyrians for their insulting of Jerusalem in the Day of Distress; shewing that they should also be demolish'd by the same Nebuchadnezzar, ch. xxvi. xxvii. xxviii.

On the 7th Day of the first Month of the same Year, God reveal'd to Ezekiel the Prophecies against Egypt in ch. xxx. y. 20—26.

On the first Day of the 3d Month of this Year, God reveal'd to Ezekiel, that the Egyptians

KINGS of JUDAH.

At Length after 390 Days hard Siege, on the 9th Day of the 4th Month or 27th of July, the Famine raged in Jerusalem, there was no more Bread for the People, and the City was broken up; when all the Princes of the King of Babylon came in and sat in the Middle Gate, even BARGAL-SHAREZER, SHAMGAR-REBO, SAR-SETHIM, KAB-SARIS, KAB-SHAG, and the other Princes in great Splendor as conquering Chiefs. And when ZEDEKIAH look'd at them, He and all his valiant Men had no more Courage left, but fled out of the City by Night thro' the King's Garden, and the Gate between the two Walls, towards the Plains of Jericho, hoping to escape to the Ammonites; tho' he could not: for the Chaldean Horsemen pursued quickly after him, and before he reach'd to the Fords of the Jordan, they overtook him near Jericho, and having scatter'd his Followers, they took him Prisoner, and brought him, not back to Jerusalem, but strait to Riblah in Syria, and presented him, as their Prey, to King NEBUCHADNEZZAR, who put him in Chains of Brass and in Ward, until the Time of Trial, 2 K. xxv. 2, 3, 4. Jer. xxxix. 2, 3. iii. 5, 6, 7.

In the 5th Month and on the 7th Day of the Month, or 24th of August, came Nebuzaradan the Captain of Nebuchadnezzar's Life Guards, to Jerusalem, who having took out all the Vessels and the more valuable things of the Temple, and all the portable Spoil of the City that was left, did on the 10th Day of the Month set Fire to the CITY and TEMPLE, by his Master's Order, until all was consum'd; and He demolish'd all the Palaces, Houses, Walls, Fortresses and Towers thereof, till he reduc'd all to an utter Desolation that remain'd so during 53 Years, till the End of CYRUS for its Rebuilding.

Thus by Calculation the City was burnt in the Year of Captivity 17 } in all 70 Years of Captivity.
And the Decree of CYRUS for its being rebuilt after Years—53 }
The Temple and City were burnt by the Chaldeans on the 10th Day, being the Sabbath Day (and on the same Day of the Month and Year, it was burnt afterwards by the Romans, says Josephus) or the Fire was kindled on the said 10th Day of the 5th Month, which continued burning several Days no doubt. After the Foundation of the TEMPLE 424 Years 3 Months and 8 Days,

And after its solemn Dedication by SOLOMON 416 Years.

The Jews annually observe to this Day a Fast in the 4th Month for the taking of Jerusalem; and a Fast in the 5th Month for the burning of the Temple; tho' from Zach. viii. 19. it appears they ought not to observe those fast Days.

When Nebuzaradan had spoil'd and destroy'd Jerusalem, he carried the Chief Booty to his Master at Riblah, and all the People captive whom he found there; and those that had deserted before; leaving none but a few very poor People to be Vine-dressers and Husbandmen, over whom He set GEDALIAH the Son of Ahikam as Governor of the Land.

As for Jeremiah the Prophet, King NEBUCHADNEZZAR had, by Deserters, heard enough of him not to neglect him, but to give particular Charge to Nebuzaradan to take him and look well to him, and to treat him as he himself should direct: therefore, the Princes and Nebuzaradan forthwith took him out of Goal, and sent him off chain'd with the other Captives in the Way to Riblah, only as far as Ramah in Benjamin, where Nebuzaradan said to him, Jehovah thy God has pronounc'd this Evil upon this Place, and hath brought and done it as he foretold; because you have sinned against Jehovah, and have not obey'd his Voice; therefore, This thing is come upon you: and now, behold, I loose Thee this Day from the Chains upon thine Hand! If Thou pleasest to go with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well unto Thee; but if Thou don't relish it, let it alone: behold, all the Land is before Thee, whither it seemeth good and convenient for Thee to go, thither go; or, if you please, go to Gedaliah the Governor of the Cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the People, or go where you please: so Nebuzaradan having given the Prophet a certain Reward with Provisions, Jeremiah chose to retire to GEDALIAH (whose Father had been his Friend) who was charg'd to take care of him, Jer. xxxix. and xl.

GEDALIAH the Governor gladly and kindly receiv'd Jeremiah; and when the Jews that escap'd in the Plains of Jericho, or had hid themselves in the Fields or in Foreign Lands, heard of Gedaliah's Preference, They flock'd to him from all Parts, and upon his swearing to give them Protection, They settled again in the Land, and gather'd in a plentiful Harvest of Summer Fruits; of whom the Chiefs were Shumai the Son of Nethaniah, Johanan, and Jonathan the Son of Kareab and tians should no more be able to ward off his threatned Judgments, than the Assyrians had been, ch. xxxi.

When the Princes of Babylon with Nebuzaradan and the Army march'd from Ramah to Riblah, They brought the Captives with them, among whom were SERAIAH the High-Priest and Zephaniah the 2d Priest, and 3 Door-keepers and others. But ISHMAEL being of the Royal Seed, design'd to make himself a King by the Assistance of BAALIS King of the Ammonites, who excited him to cut off Gedaliah: yet, when Johanan and the other Chiefs inform'd GEDALIAH of Ishmael's treacherous Design, and offer'd to prevent it by cutting him off, Gedaliah, too indolent, would not believe it, nor permit them to slay Ishmael: and so this wicked Man with his Followers, being invited to feast with the Governor, while the People were scatter'd in gathering their Fruits, rose up against Gedaliah and slew him at his own Table, and all the Jews and Chaldeans present at Mizpah on the 30th Day of the 7th Month; and the next Day finding 80 Men going with Offerings and Incense to the Ruins of the Temple, he slew 70 of them; the others purchasing their Lives by their Stores. Then Ishmael and his Men seiz'd the Daughters of King Zedekiah, and having got many of the People to join him, and captivated others, He departed thence to go over to the Ammonites for present Shelter and Supplies of military Men to execute his Project

But Johanan and other Captains hearing of the horrid Murder, assembled as many as he could, pursued them as far as Gibeon, retook all the Captives, and none escap'd but Ishmael himself and eight of his Men, who went to Ammon.

The modern Jews do still observe the 30th Day of the 7th Month as a Fest, and it was observ'd during the Captivity, Zech. viii. 19.

After this Johanan and the Remnant of the Jews, fearing the Wrath of the Chaldeans, because of the Murder of GEDALIAH, march'd from Mizpab towards Egypt; and in their Way at Bethlehem, desir'd Jeremiah (whom they carried with them) to ask God's Counsel about it, who after ten Days told them from God, that their Safety was in their staying at home; for that then all would go well with them; but that if they went down to Egypt, They should be destroy'd there by the Sword, the Famine, and the Pestilence. But they would not obey the Word of God, told Jeremiah he had not that Word from God but from Baruch, and march'd strait for Egypt with the King's Daughters, Jeremiah and Baruch and the Remnant of Israel, Men, Women and Children; where They staid first at Tabphanes, and where Jeremiah was divinely inspir'd to foretel the Destruction of Egypt, by that very NEBUCHADNEZZAR from whom those Jews had fled, Jer. xl. xli. xlii. xliii. which was actually fulfill'd, as will appear in its Place.

keepers and the Cunith that had been set over the Soldiers, and 7 Men that had been near ZEDEKIAH'S Person, and the principal Scribe of the Hof or Spicer-Master, and 60 Country Gentlemen found in the City, in all 74 Persons, who were all brought in Chains before NEBUCHAD-NEZZAR at Riblah. When they arriv'd there NEBUCHADNEZZAR in his Royal Robes mounted his Tribunal, and having arraign'd before him poor Zedekiah, and prov'd him guilty of Perfidy and Rebellion, condemn'd him to have his Eyes put out, to be bound in Fetters of Brass, to be sent captive into Chaldea, and there to remain in perpetual Imprisonment, a terrible Sentence! nay, to make his Punishment the more terrible, Nebuchadnezzar order'd all those Jews, who had been brought out of Jerusalem, Priests and Noblemen, and Zedekiah's young innocent Sons, to be slain in the Sight and Presence of poor Zedekiah, (none being spar'd but the Deserters) and then order'd that unhappy Prince's Eyes to be put out, that he might never see more; a dreadful Execution!

This might be done about the End of the 6th Month of the 12th Year of Zedekiah's Reign, and then King NEBUCHADNEZZAR and his Princes march'd from Babylah in Syria Eastward to Babylon, in great Triumph, with the captive Jews in Chains (among whom was JEHOZADAK the Son of Seraiah the High-Priest) and the captive King blinded; whereby the Prophecy was fulfill'd, Ezek. xii. 13.—I will bring him (Zedekiah) to Babylon, to the Land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, tho' he shall die there.

JEHOIAKIN, but is suppos'd, at the End of this Year, to have died of Grief and a great Penitenc'd 32 Years; and those of the Captivity much lamented him, having got leave to give him a noble Burial after the Rituals of the Jewish Royal Family, as Jeremiah had foretold.

TABLE XX.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Jews and their Contemporaries from the last Captivity, A. M. 3420. to the Death of King JECONIAH or JEHOIAKIN in Babylon, A. M. 3444. during 24 Years.

The J E W S.

The several Captivities.

The J E W S were carried captive into Chaldea at various Times; for

I. NEBUCHADNEZZAR while Partner with his Father, or in the first Year of his Reign, according to the Jewish Reckoning (for he reign'd near two Years jointly with his Father) in the 4th Year of Jeboiakim, when the 70 Years Captivity began, carried off a vast Multitude of Captives, with Architects, Carpenters, Smiths and other Artizans, whose Number is not given nor any of their Names, except DANIEL, Shadrach, Meshech and Abednego.

II. In the 7th Year of Nebuchadnezzar, of the Jewish Reckoning, or 10th of Jeboiakim, the Lieutenants of the Provinces that join'd to distress Jeboiakim and to blockade Jersalem, sent into Chaldea Jewish Captives— 3023

III. In the 9th Year of Nebuchadnezzar, King Jecomiah and his Mother, his Wives, Princes, Eunuchs and mighty Men, particularly MORDECAI and Ezekiel, even the Flower and choicest Men of Jersalem were carried off to the Number of— 10000

Also, out of the other Parts of Judab, Men of Valour were carried off— 7000

Besides Craftsmen and Smiths— 1000

IV. In the 18th Year of Nebuchadnezzar, or the 11th and last of ZEDEKIAH, besides what Numbers were carried off from other Parts of Judab, Nebuzaradan carried off from Jersalem when it was burnt— 832

Among whom was King ZEDEKIAH and JOSADAK the High Priest the Son of Seratah, who was slain at Riblah.

V. In the 23d Year of Nebuchadnezzar, or the 4th Year after the Burning of the City and Temple, while the King was at the Siege of Tyre, Nebuzaradan glean'd of the remaining Jews and Israelites— 745

This was the last Captivity at the End of the 390 Years of Ezekiel— 22600

The rest of the Jews were either carried captive without Number, or went down to Egypt with Johanan and King Zedekiah's Daughters, the Prophet Jeremiah and Baruch, or fled to foreign Lands, especially, where the Power of Nebuchadnezzar did not reach; or were destroy'd by the Sword, the Pestilence, and Famine, according to God's Word by the Mouth of his Prophets.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR planted many of the Jews and other Captives in the City of Babylon, which he had much enlarg'd: and those Jews that were not confin'd, planted Vineyards, built Houses, till'd the Ground, or were Merchants or Craftsmen, and became exceeding rich, according to God's Promise; being well esteem'd by the Chaldeans as good Subjects, and useful People.

In the 25th Year of JECONIAH's Captivity and 14th Year after the Temple was burnt, in the 5th Month and 10th Day, Ezekiel was brought in the Visions of God into the Land of Israel, and receiv'd the Descriptions of Solomon's Temple, and the Constitution of the Kingdom of Israel, that presaged and signified the Restoration of the Church by Mesetah, with its Ampleness, Dignity and Excellency: which Prophecies begin with ch. xl. and are continued to the End of the Book.

CONTEMPORARIES.

CYRUS near 16 Years old now first wore Arms, upon Occasion of an Incursion into Media, made by Cull Merodach the Son of Nebuchadnezzar, with a little Army of Horse and Foot at a Hunting Match, while going to marry his Wife Nitocris. For ASTYAGES rais'd a Body of his Medes to give him Sport, and with his Son Cyaxares and his Nephew Cyrus, gave the Babylonians or Assyrians a Repulse, Xenoph. Instit. Cyri. Lib. I.

And from thence was by his Father recall'd home to Persia, from whence Astyages could never decoy him to return, and where he liv'd from his 17th to his 27th Year among the Persian Youth, Deipnosophist. Lib. XIV.

Some of the Cnydeans and Rhodians, offended at the rigid Government of the Asiatic Kings, sail'd under Pentachlus to Sicily, while the Aegeans and Selinuntii were at War there, in which Pentachlus was kill'd; when the rest were forc'd to retire and settle in the Island Lipara, Diod. Lib. V.

Arcefilaus King of Cyrene in Lybia now dying after reigning 16 Years, was succeeded by his Son Battus II. call'd Endemon, to whom resorted a vast Multitude of Greeks, by order of the Delphic Oracle that seiz'd on the Lands of the neighbouring Lybians, tho' the first Cyrenian Colony were only Therians that came thither 56 Years ago under their General Battus I., Herod. Lib. IV. cap. 159.

Tarquinius Priscus after reigning at Rome 38 Years being dead, was this Year succeeded by his Son-in-law Servius Tullius King of the Romans, who reign'd 44 Years.

While the Siege of Tyre was carried on, Nebuzaradan the Babylonish General march'd with his detach'd Army against the Ammonites, destroy'd Rabbah their Capital and their Country by Fire and Sword, and carried their King and Princes, and most of their chief Men Captives into Chaldea. Thus their Concern in the Murder of Gedaliah was punish'd, Jer. xlix. 1—6. where the Restoration of the Ammonites is also promis'd, Ezek. xxv. 1—7. and Amos I. 13, 14, 15.

The Moabites also, and the Edomites, the Philistines and Zidonians, were harass'd and broken by the Chaldeans, according to the Prophecies against them in Jer. xxvii. xxviii. xxix. Ezek. xxv.

CONTEMPORARIES.

Mean while NEBUCHADNEZZAR return'd to his Army in Palestine and took in the City of Tyre, after his Army had lain round it Thirteen Years. But the Inhabitants wisely withdrew their best Substance into a neighbouring Island, and built New Tyre; so that the Chaldeans getting no Booty worth while, their inrag'd King slew the few Tyrans he found and demolish'd the old City, the Siege of which is describ'd by Ezekiel ch. xxvi. and King Jthobal being slain during the Siege, the Tyrans made BAAL their King in New Tyre, who reign'd ten Years.

On the first Day of the first Month of the 27th Year of JECONIAH, Jehonah said to Ezekiel in Chaldea, Son of Man, Nebuchadnezzar caus'd his Army to serve long against Tyre, till every Head was made bald, and every Shoulder was peel'd; yet, had he no Wages nor his Army: therefore, I will give the Land of Egypt unto him, and he shall take her Multitude, Spoil and Prey to be Wages for his Army; because they wrought for me, Ezek. xxix. 17—20. which was this very Year fulfill'd, as on the other Column.

DANIEL WAS NOW the Master of the Magicians, in greater Esteem than any of the Jews, and became a great Favourite for his faithful Interpretation of Nebuchadnezzar's Dream, Dan. iv. accordingly

At the End of 12 Months after he had that Dream, NEBUCHADNEZZAR, while walking in his Palace or else in his Hanging Gardens on the uppermost Terras, taking a large View of the whole City, began to triumph in his own Achievements, and boasting of his Magnificence said aloud, Is not this Great Babylon, that I have built for the House of the Kingdom by the might of my Power, and for the Honour of my Majesty?

But while the Words were yet in his Mouth, a Voice fell from HEAVEN, saying, O King Nebuchadnezzar, to Thee it is spoken, the Kingdom is departed from Thee, and they shall drive Thee from Men, and thy Dwelling shall be with the Beasts of the Field: They shall make Thee eat Grass as Oxen, and Seven times shall pass over Thee; until Thou shalt know that the most High ruleth in the Kingdom of Men, and giveth it to whomsoever He will! The same Hour the Thing was fulfill'd upon Nebuchadnezzar; for immediately He turn'd mad, and, losing his Sense and Reason, He was driven from among Men into the Fields among the Beasts; where he did eat Grass with the Oxen, and his Body was wet with the Dew of Heaven, till his Hairs were grown like Eagles Feathers, and his Nails like Birds Claws. Dan. IV.

Thus NEBUCHADNEZZAR, the greatest and most magnificent Prince that reign'd before him, and few greater since, who had beat the Nations to Dust and had triumph'd over the known World, was for his Pride and Blasphemy, and other Sins, reduced to the abject State of a Beast without Sense and Reason; until God's appointed Time according to the Vision of the Great Entee.

During Nebuchadnezzar's seven Years Brutality, his Son Evil-Merodach is suppos'd to rule the Empire, but not well, being justly call'd Evil-Merodach, or foolish Merodach.

This Year also the Prophecies against Pharaoh HOPHRA, or Apries King of Egypt abovemention'd began to be fulfill'd: for the Cyrenians having taken from the Lybians a great Part of their Country (as above noted) the Lybians apply'd to APRIES for his Protection, with a full Surrender of themselves and their Land to him: upon which Apries sent an Army against the Cyrenians, who beat his Army in the Field with a great Slaughter, and left very few to escape to Egypt; which occasion'd a great Revolt of the Egyptians from Apries. He sent Amasis a Minister of State to pacify the People; but while Amasis was haranguing them, they put on his Head the Ensigns of Royalty and proclaim'd him King of Egypt.

AMASIS accepted and increas'd the Revolt. Then APRIES sent Paterbemis, another of his chief Men, to bring Amasis to him a Prisoner; and because he did not (which indeed he could not) Apries in a Rage caus'd the Nose and Ears of Paterbemis to be cut off; the News of which unheard of Indignity to a Person of his Worth and Station, made all the People to join the Conspirators, and APRIES was forc'd to flee into the upper Egypt near Ethiopia, where he had a Sort of Dominion for some Years, while AMASIS rul'd over the lower Egypt, Herodot. Lib. II. and IV. Diod. Lib. I. Part 2.

CYRUS NOW near 27 Years old, leaves the Society of Youths, and, according to the Customs of the Elamites or Persians, is rank'd among grown Men, Xenoph. Lib. I.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR this Year, after the Siege of Tyre, having no Enemy in Palestine, and hearing of the Rupture in Egypt, and the Division of the Kingdom by Apries and Amasis, and perhaps being invited by Amasis; march'd his bold Veterans Southward and invaded Egypt.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR march'd thro' and conquer'd all the Land of Egypt, from Migdol at the Arabian Entry, to Syene at the Borders of Ethiopia, slaying all that stood in his Way and many that stood not (especially the Jews, who fled thither after the Murder of Gedaliah; many of them being either slain or carried captive into Babylon, according to the Prophecy of Jeremiah; and the rest fled out of Egypt, and wander'd till the Decree of CYRUS, when they return'd to Judea) and having drove Hophra or Apries out of Egypt, and distress'd the Country so much, that it did not recover itself in 40 Years, He appointed AMASIS to be his Deputy or Viceroy, loaded himself and his Army with great Spoils, and departed towards Palestine again.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR having now finish'd all his warlike Expeditions, return'd to Babylon, which he had much beautify'd and enlarg'd beyond Imagination, too large to be here describ'd, as may be seen in many antient Histories of those Times: but while at rest and quiet in his Palace, he had that wonderful Dream of the great Tree that was to be cut down, recorded with its Interpretation in Dan. ch. iv.

Old Pharaoh HOPHRA, or Apries, now left his hiding Places and retir'd to the Mediterranean Sea Coast of Libya, where hiring an Army of Carians, Ionians and other Foreigners, march'd against AMASIS and gave him Battel at Memphis, in which Apries was beat and taken Prisoner; and being carried to the City of Sais, he was strangled in his own Palace. Thus ended the Pride and Blasphemy of Hophra, exactly according to the Prophecies against him by Jeremiah and Ezekiel; and so

AMASIS without Opposition reign'd King of Egypt 44 Years from the Death of Apries: This is the Amasis so much celebrated by Plato in Timæo.

Abydenus relates (see in Eusebii Lib. IX. prepar. Evang. cap. ult.) that NEBUCHADNEZZAR before he died prophesied of the Overthrow of the Babylonian Kingdom by CYRUS, saying, A Persian Shule shall come, who by the Help of your own God's fighting for him, shall bring Slavery upon you, whose Assistance herein shall be the Mede, for Cyrus was half Persian half Median, this same Shule: and the Mede was CYAXARES his Uncle call'd DARIUS the Mede, by Daniel.

XVIII. Year of JUBILEE, tho' it could not be observ'd by the Jews in Chaldea: but it is remarkable for the releasing of the captive King of Judah JECONIAH or JEHOIAKIN out of Prison, on the 25th Day of the 12th Month of the 37th Year of his Captivity (as on the other Column) and on the 27th Day of the said 12th Month, or 17th of April, EVIL-MERODACH King of Babylon, in the Year that he began to reign, chang'd JEHOIAKIN's Prison Garments, spake kindly to him; and set his Throne above the Thrones of the tributary Kings at Babylon, and as his chief Favourite, he did eat continually with the Emperor all the Days of his Life, and had an Allowance or Pension settled upon him to support his Dignity and daily Expences! 2 K. xxv. 27, 28, 29

At the End of seven Years, NEBUCHADNEZZAR was restor'd, as Daniel expresseth it, v. 34, &c. At the End of the Days, I Nebuchadnezzar lift up mine Eyes unto Heaven, and my Understanding return'd unto me; and I blessed the most High, and prais'd and honour'd him who liveth for ever, whose Dominion is everlasting, and his Kingdom from Generation to Generation; and all the Inhabitants of the Earth are reputed as nothing, and he doth according to his Will in the Army of Heaven and among the Inhabitants of the Earth, and none can stay his Hand or say unto him what dost thou? At the same Time my Reason return'd unto me; and for the Glory of my Kingdom, mine Honour and Brightness return'd unto me; and my Counsellors and my Lords sought unto me; and I was establish'd again in my Kingdom; and excellent Majesty was added unto me! Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of Heaven, all whose Works are Truth, and his Ways Judgment, and those that walk in Pride he is able to abase!

NEBUCHADNEZZAR upon his Restoration (according to the Jewish Traditions) put his Son Evil-Merodach, for his Male-administration, in the same Prison with the captive King of Judah Jeremiah, where they contracted Friendship: but the GRAND MONARCH outlived not his Restoration above one Year, a good Man, a true Believer in the one only living and Eternal God, the God of Heaven, being converted both from his Pride and his Idolatry; and after he had reign'd in all 45 Years by the Jewish Reckoning, and 43 Years alone after his Father's Death, he died the End of this Year in Peace, and was succeeded by his Son

EVIL-MERODACH taken out of Prison, and now set upon his Father's Throne again, a little before the 25th Day of the 12th Month of the 37th Year of JECONIAH's Captivity (or 15th of April) for Jer. lli. 31. it is said, that then Evil-Merodach King of Babylon in the first Year of his Reign lifted up the Head of Jehoiakin (or Jeconiah) King of Judah, and brought him forth out of Prison. He reign'd two Years. Babylonic King of Lydia being dead after he had reign'd 57 Years, was succeeded by his Son

CONTEMPORARIES.

Seeing it is said Jer. iii. 33. That King Jehoiakim or JECONIAH was fed by the Emperor EVIL-MERODACH the Days of his Life, it is generally concluded, that they both died this Year at the same Time, Jeconiah being, very likely, slain with the Emperor as a special Favourite of his, agreeable to the Prophecy against him, Jer. xxii. 30. Thus saith Jehovah, write you this Man childless, a Man that shall not prosper in his Days: for no Man of his Seed shall prosper sitting upon the Throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah! but this Prophecy had not been fulfill'd if Jehoiakim (call'd ver. 28. CONIAH) had died in full Possession of all that Prosperity and Splendor conferr'd upon him by Evil-Merodach: and whereas in the said Prophecy he is denounc'd Childless, that is explain'd in the following Words, importing only that none of his Seed shall ever mount the Throne of David, but not that he should have no Children; for we read (Mat. I. and also 1 Chron. iii. 17.) that SALATHIEL, the Head or Prince of the Captivity after him, was the Son of JECONIAH, being carried with him captive an Infant into Babylon, was there married and was the Father or Grandfather of ZERUBBABEL the Prince of the Reduction: But seeing SALATHIEL is also call'd the Son of NERI (Luc. III.) of the Branch of NATHAN the other Son of DAVID from whom Messiah is also descended; It is usually thus reconcil'd, viz. NERI dying at Jerusalem without Issue, young JECONIAH the Son of King Jehoiakim married his Widow according to the Law of Moses, to raise up seed to NERI then his nearest Kinsman, and the said Widow of NERI bore to Jeconiah, SALATHIEL the Son of Jeconiah by Nature, and also the Son of Neri by Law or according to the Law of Moses: for otherwise the Promise made to SOLOMON concerning the Messiah would be void.

All the Grecian Sages flock'd to the Court of Cæsus, and particularly Solon the Athenian Lawgiver or Philosopher, to whom Cæsus expos'd all his immense Wealth, vainly expecting that Solon would pronounce him the happiest of all Men: but upon Discourse with the King, Solon plainly told him, that he could pronounce no Man happy while he liv'd, because we cannot foresee what Evil may happen before Death! which unexpected Reply made vain Cresus to neglect good SOLON tho' he minded him afterwards with a Witness.

Esope also the famous Author of the Fables was sent for by CRASSUS, and this same Year going to Delpbi poor Esope was unjustly condemn'd and thrown down a Rock, Herodor. Lib. II. cap. 134.

EVIL-MERODACH is reported (by Berosus the Chaldean Historian and others) to have so wallow'd in Lufts, to be so given up to all Wick- edness, that he became intolerable: therefore, a Conspiracy was soon form'd against him by ~~Perigittus~~ his Sister's Husband; who put him to Death and reign'd in his stead.

Astages King of Media died also this Year (Tobit xiv. 17.) after he had reign'd glorious 35 Years; and was succeeded by his Son

He is call'd by Daniel Darius the Mede, and reign'd at Ekkatana and at Byblyon both, in all 25 Years.

Solon about this Time, died in Cyprus aged 80 Years as may be gather'd from Plutarch and Laertius.

TABLE XXI.

The GENEALOGY of the Kings of JUDAH from King REHOBOAM to King ZEDEKIAH and JECONIAH inclusive: or from the Death of SOLOMON, A. M. 3029. to the Death of JECONIAH A. M. 3444. comprehending 415 Years.

DAVID the Son of Jesse anointed King of Judah at Hebron upon the Death of SAUL, A. M. 2949. where he reign'd 7 Years: and after the Death of ISHBOSHETH, A. M. 2956. was anointed King of all Israel, and reign'd 33 Years, or in all 40 Years, † aged 70 Years, A. M. 2990. before Christ 1014. See Tab. X. XI. and XII.

SOLOMON, King A. M. 2989. reign'd 40 Years and † 3029. before Christ 975. aged 58 Years. See Tab. XIII.
his Wife Naamah a Princess of Ammon.

NATHAN the full Brother of Solomon. See his Table of the Progenitors of Messiah.

I. REHOBOAM born A. M. 2988. See Tab. XII. began to reign A. M. 3030. being 41 Years old, and reign'd 17 Years. † aged 58 A. M. 3046. before Christ 958. his Wife Michaiab the Daughter of Uriel in Gibeab, 2 Chron. xiii. 2. See his History Tab. XIV. buried in David's Royal Grave in Zion Castle.

II. ABIJAH began to reign A. M. 3046. viz. in the Beginning of the 18th Year of Jeroboam I. King of Israel, and before his Father died, or in the 17th Year of his Father's Reign conjunctly with him. He reign'd glorious 3 Years having defeated Jeroboam, and slain in one Battel 500000 Israelites, the greatest Slaughter in one Day upon Record. † A. M. 3048. ending before Christ 956. He was married, before he was King, to Maschab the Daughter of Abisbalom, who was the Mother of King Ala; but he had in all 14 Wives: was buried in the Royal Grave. See his History Tab. XIV.

III. ASA began to reign A. M. 3049. beginning in the 20th Year of Jeroboam, and reign'd 41 Years. † A. M. 3089. before Christ 915. in the 4th Year of Achab King of Israel, his Wife Azubah the Daughter of Shilbi, who was the Mother of King Jehoshaphat 1 K. xxii. 42. was buried in the Royal Grave. See his Hist. Tab. XIV. 22 Sons and 16 Daughters, of whom nothing more is recorded.

IV. JEHOSHAPHAT aged 35 Years began to reign A. M. 3089 ending or 3090 begun; so that his first Year and Achab's fifth Year are parallel; and reign'd 25 Years. † aged 60 Years, A. M. 3114. before Christ 890. his Wife N. N. Tab. XV. was buried in the Royal Grave.

V. JEHORAM aged 32 Years began to reign in the 5th Year of Joram King of Israel, the Son of Achab, and in the 23d Year of his Father Jehoshaphat's Reign, being made Partner with his Father in the Throne, 2 K. viii. 16, &c. viz. A. M. 3112. and reign'd 8 Years currant. † aged 40 A. M. 3119. before Christ 885. of a most miserable Disease in his Bowels for the two last Years of his Life; was buried in Zion Castle, but not in the Royal Grave. his Wife Athaliah the Daughter of Achab, and Jezebel the King and Queen of Israel. He was married A. M. 3096. a curs'd Marriage! See Tab. XV. and the Arabians having slain all Jehoram's Sons but the youngest, he was succeeded by him, viz.

AZARIAH, JEHIEL, ZECHARIAH, AZARIAH, MICHAEL, SHEPHALIAH, these 6 Sons of Jehoshaphat were slain by their Brother King Jehoram 2 Ch. xxi. 2, 3, 4.

VI. ACHAZIAH, call'd also Azariab and Jeboachaz, made Vice-Roy the last Year of his Father's Life, began to reign alone aged 22 Years in the 12th Year beginning of his Uncle Joram's Reign over Israel, 2 K. viii. 25. A. M. 3119. and reign'd but one Year: for he was slain by order of Jehu at Gur, and died at Megiddo this same Year: his Wife Zibeab of Beersebab, Tab. XV. and XVI. He was buried in the Royal Sepulchre for his Grandfather's sake

Jehoshebab the Wife of Jehoiadab the High Priest.

When he was dead, his Mother Athaliah the true Daughter of Jezebel, forthwith imploy'd a pack of Cut-Throats to murder all his Children, and all the Branches of the Royal Family of Rehoboam, except Jehoshebab the Daughter of King Jehoram and Sister of Achaziah, the Wife of Jehoiadab the High Priest, who was protected by the Priests; and except Joash an Infant, the youngest Son of Achaziah, whom his Aunt Jehoshebab snatch'd away with his Nurse, and hid him in the Temple; during the Usurpation of Athaliah.

* VII. ATHALIAH began to reign A. M. 3120. and reign'd (like her Mother Jezebel) at Jerusalem, during the first 6 Years of Jehu King of Israel. † A. M. 3126. beginning. She was slain by order of Jehoiadab the High Priest, Tab. XVI.

VIII. JOASH when aged near 7 Years was taken out of his Retirement, solemnly crown'd, anointed, and proclaim'd in the Temple by Jehoiadab the High Priest, in the 7th Year of Jehu King of Israel, A. M. 3126. before Christ 878. reign'd 40 Years, and was slain by two of his Servants on his Bed, † aged 46 Years, A. M. 3165. before Christ 839. was buried in Zion Castle, but not in the Royal Grave; because of his Ingratitude and Murders: His Wife Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

IX. AMAZIAH aged 24 Years in the 39th of his Father, and the 2d Year of Jehoash King of Israel, was made his Father's Partner; but the 25 Years of his Reign are to be reckon'd from the next Year, viz. the 40th of his Father's Reign, which was the first of his Reign, A. M. 3165. and having reign'd 29 Years, he † aged 54. A. M. 3193. before Christ 811. was murder'd by Conspirators at Lathish, who yet brought his Corps back to Jerusalem where it was buried in the Royal Grave. His Wife Jecholiah of Jerusalem. Table XVI.

X. UZZIAH or Azariah, aged 16 Years, began to reign in the 16th Year of the sole Reign of Jeroboam II. King of Israel, A. M. 3194. reign'd 52 Years, and aged 68, he † in Peace A. M. 3245. before Christ 759. he was buried in the Field adjoining to Zion Castle, that belong'd to the Royal Grave; because he was a Leper. His Wife Jerushab the Daughter of Zadok. See Tab. XVI. and XVII.

XI. JOTHAM aged 25 Years, began to reign in the 2d Year of Deftah King of Israel, A. M. 3246. and reign'd 16 Years. † A. M. 3261. before Christ 743. in the Year of Nabonassar 5. He was aged 41 Years, and was buried in the Royal Grave. His Wife, N. N. Tab. XVII.

XII. ACHAZ, when aged 20 Years (tho' some compute to him more Years, supposing the Meaning of the Scripture to be, that ACHAZ was 20 Years old, not when he came to the Throne, but before that, in order to make him more than eleven Years old when he begat Hezekiah) according to our Chronology, his Reign commenc'd in the 18th Year of Deftah King of Israel, A. M. 3262. Nab. 1975. made the famous Sun Dial, the first we read of in Story; reign'd or liv'd 16 Years currant, was depos'd by S Salman Esfer King of Assria, and aged 36 Years. † inglorious A. M. 3278. His Wife Abiah the Daughter of Etharab. Tab. XVII.

Continuation of TABLE XXI.

XII. ACHAZ King of Judah † A. M. 3277. before Christ 727.

XIII. HEZEKIAH, born when his Father was only eleven Years old, and when aged 25 Years began to reign in the 4th Year of Dostia the last King of Israel, and in the 16th Year of his Father Achaz being set up by Saiman-Efer, A. M. 3277. He reign'd 29 Years and aged 54 Years, he † glorious A. M. 3305. before Christ 699. Nabonassar 49. He was buried in the chief Place of the Royal Grave with special Marks of Honour. His Wife Hephzibah, 1 K. xxi. 1. Tab. XVII. and XIX.

XIV. MANASSEH aged 12 Years began to reign A. M. 3306. He reign'd 55 Years and † aged 67, A. M. 3360. before Christ 644. Nabonassar 104. buried in his own Garden call'd the Garden of Uzzah, and not in the Royal Grave. His Wife Mesbullemeth the Daughter of Haruz in Joiab. Tab. XIX.

XV. AMMON aged 22 Years began to reign A. M. 3361 beginning, reign'd two full Years and aged 24 † A. M. 3362 ending, before Christ 642. Nabonassar 106. slain by his Servants in his own House, was buried with his Father in the Garden of Uzzah. His Wife Jedidah the Daughter of Adaiab of Bosath. Tab. XIX.

XVI. JOSIAH, born when his Father was aged 16 Years, and when he was aged 8 Years began to reign, A. M. 3363. Nabonassar 107. reign'd 31 Years; was aged 39 Years. He † A. M. 3394. before Christ 610. Nabonassar 138. slain at Hadaad-Rimmon in Battel against Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt, much lamented. He was buried in the Royal Sepulchre or Grave of DAVID in Zion Castle, the last King who was there buried; and with him ended the Glory of the Jewish Kingdom. His Wives 1 Zebudah the Daughter of Pedaiab of Ramah. 2 Hamutal the Daughter of Jeremiab of Libnah. Table XIX.

XVII. JEHOACHAZ aged 23 Years, upon his Father's Death, was anointed King of Judah by the Interest of his Mother's Friends: for he was only the 2d Son and born by the 2d Wife. He reign'd three Months only, till Pharaoh NECHO, when returning from Carchemish in Triumph, depos'd him and carried him Captive in Chains to Egypt, where he died without Issue. Tab. XIX.

XVIII. JEHOIAKIM (so call'd by Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt, who set him on the Throne as his Tributary, his former Name being Eliakim) began to reign A. M. 3395. Nabonassar 139. being aged 25 Years, which shews he was older than Jehoachaz; for he was the Son of the first Wife. He reign'd xi Years.

In the 4th Year of his Reign (which was Nebuchadnezzar's first Year according to the Jewish Reckoning) NEBUCHADNEZZAR, having beat the Egyptian Army, retaken Carchemish and conquer'd all Syria and Palestine from the Hands of the Egyptian, he laid Siege to Jerusalem and took it, put Jehoiakim in Chains in order to send him Captive to Babylon, but releas'd him, and set him up afresh as his Tributary: and NEBUCHADNEZZAR having carried many of the Jews Captive with him to Babylon with many of the Holy Vessels of the Temple, the 70 Years Captivity begins this Year, A. M. 3398 Nabonassar 142.

Before Christ 606

In the 7th Year of his Reign Jehoiakim rebell'd against NEBUCHADNEZZAR, and enter'd again under the Protection of his old Friend Pharaoh Necho, who yet did not assist him, for NEBUCHADNEZZAR sent to his Lieutenants in and about Palestine to raise their Posse, and distress Jehoiakim on all Quarters; which they did, sent many Jews captive to Babylon, and at last met together at Jerusalem and blokaded it.

JEHOIAKIM, during the Blokade, in a Salley was taken Prisoner, and slain with the Sword by the Besiegers, who cast his dead Body like a dead Ass, contemptuously in the High-way near one of the Gates (according to Jeremiab's Prophecy) in the 11th Year of his Reign aged 36 Years. A. M. 3405. before Christ 599. Nabonassar 149. His Wife Nebushta the Daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. Tab. XIX.

XIX. JEHOIAKIN, or Jeconiah, or Coniah, aged 18 Years was set upon his Father's Throne by the Jews within the City: but he reign'd only three Months and ten Days; for NEBUCHADNEZZAR came in Person with a fresh Army, and having turn'd the Blokade into a regular Siege, JEHOIAKIN could not stand it out, but went forth and surrender'd himself, his Mother, his Wives, his Princes, Eunuchs and Servants into the Hand of Nebuchadnezzar, who carried them and many thousand Jews Captives to Babylon, where JEHOIAKIN remain'd in Prison till Nebuchadnezzar died, during 37 Years when EVIL-MERODACH the Emperor releas'd him, and exalted his Throne above the Thrones of the other Kings that resided at Babylon; till they both were dead, which was much about a Time, viz. A. M. 3444. before Christ 560. Nabonassar 188. in the 46th Year of the 70 Years Captivity, and 39 Years after he surrender'd himself to Nebuchadnezzar, JECONIAH was at his death aged 57 Years. His Wife, N. N.

SALATHIEL concerning whom See the GENEALOGICAL Tables of the Progenitors of Messiah, according to St. Mathew and St. Luke in their proper Places.

XX. ZEDEKIAH (so call'd by Nebuchadnezzar when he set him on the Throne, his former Name being Mattaniah) began to reign in the room of Jehoiakim by Virtue of a solemn Contract with Nebuchadnezzar as his Tributary A. M. 3406. Nabonassar 150. and reign'd 11 Years. In the 8th Year he broke his Contract with Nebuchadnezzar and rebell'd. In the 9th Year NEBUCHADNEZZAR besieg'd Jerusalem. In the 10th Year he rais'd the Siege to offer Battel to Pharaoh HOPHRA King of Egypt. In the 11th Year he renew'd the Siege, and by his Princes took in Jerusalem, and burnt it with the Temple while he stay'd at Riblah in Syria, whither ZEDEKIAH was brought Prisoner before him, who put out his Eyes and carried him in Chains to Babylon, where he died aged 32 A. M. 3416. before Christ 588. Nabonassar 160. in the 19th Year of the 70 Years Captivity, and in the 11th Year of Jeconiah's Captivity.

Several Sons slain by Nebuchadnezzar just before his Eyes were put out. Several Daughters carried into Egypt by Johanan after the Murder of Gedaliah, and there lost.

| King JECONIAH or Jehoiachin being dead, the Jews in Chaldaea paid voluntary Homage to his Son SALATHIEL as Prince of the Captivity, who was the legal SON of NERI, of the Branch of NATHAN the Brother of SOLOMON, King Jeconiab having married the Widow of Neri as above observ'd, to raise up Seed to his Kinsman Neri (who died without Issue) according to the Law of Moses; therefore, SALATHIEL was the natural Son of Jeconiab, and the legal Son of Neri, and thus the Promise made to SOLOMON concerning the Messiah was not defeated, and CHRIST is descended from him by natural Generation.   | 30                           | 559                | 3445  | LV.        | 2            | 190                | 189                              | 22                  | 48                             |
| But tho' none of David's Offspring henceforward ever sat upon the Throne of Judah; yet one of them was always honour'd by the Jews as a Prince with some Jurisdiction, as far as was consistent with their Subjection to foreign Princes, from whom sometimes a Ratification was obtain'd of the Authority of the said Descendant of DAVID, as in the Case of Zerubbabel the Prince of the Captivity and Redaction. Nay, 'tis reported that the modern Jews keep up the Ceremonial still, in order to answer the Christians with respect to Jacob's Prophecy, affirming the Scepter is not departed from Judah, but is preserv'd by this Head of the Captivity or Dispersion; and that they have their Nasi or Prince of the Sanhedrim their Lawgiver from between the Feet of Judah or descended from him. But this is ignorant Obstinacy; for they have lost all their Genealogies, cannot prove themselves to be Jews, and far less that any of them are of the House of David. | 31                           | 558                | 3446  |            | 3            | 191                | 190                              | 21                  | 49                             |
| But this same SALATHIEL is mention'd as the Captain of the People or Jews in Chaldaea, 2 Esdras v. 16. and the Apocryphal Author of that Book asserts, that Ezra or Esdras had the Revelation mention'd in his Dialogue with the Angel Uriel at Babylon, in the 30th Year after the Ruin of the City of Jerusalem, ch. iii. 1. But if SALATHIEL was then the Head of the Captivity, his Father Jeconiab must have been dead the Year before, according to our Chronology.  | 32                           | 557                | 3447  |            | 4            | 192                | 191                              | 20                  | 50                             |

Upon the Death of Evil-Merodach NERIGLISSAR his Sister's Husband or the Son-in-law of Nebuchadnezzar, began to reign at Babylon, who reign'd 3 Years and 3 Months. He was a Man of Valour and forthwith prepar'd an Army against the Medes this Year.

CYAXARES King of Media hearing of the Babylonian's Preparation for War, began to prepare too, by raising an Army of Medes, and sent to Persia for his brave Nephew, viz.

CYRUS then 40 Years old; who with 30000 Persians march'd into Media to the Relief of his Uncle, and this Year commence the 30 Years of CYRUS's Reign, beginning now to be King of the Medes while his Uncle was King of the State.

Neriglissar, upon the News of CYRUS's March into Media, sent Ambassadors to CRESUS King of Lydia and to the Cappadocians, to both the Phrygians, to the Carians, Paphlagonians, Cilicians, Indians and other neighbouring Nations, to join with him against the Medes and Persians the common Enemy; and They form'd a great Confederacy for maintaining the Ballance of Power in Asia.

The King of Armenia, being a Tributary of the Crown of Media ever since he was conquer'd by Astages, thought This a fit time to shake off the Yoke, and so refus'd to pay any more Tribute or to send his Quota of auxiliary Forces to CYAXARES against the Confederates. But CYRUS afraid that such a Precedent might be soon follow'd by other Parts, invaded Armenia, under the Pretence of an Hunting-match, with a great Body of Horse; and having surpris'd and overcome the Armenian King with his Son Tigranes, he made them Prisoners and so brought the Armenians to his Terms: upon which the captive King was restor'd, the Tribute and the Auxiliaries were promis'd, the Hills towards Chaldaea were fortify'd and garrison'd, and CYRUS return'd glorious to Media from this first Achievement.

And now CYAXARES and CYRUS march'd their Army against NERIGLISSAR, CRESUS and the other Confederates, and beat them out of the Field; in which Battel NERIGLISSAR was slain, and CRESUS with the rest escap'd by the Help of the Night: But the conquering CYRUS, by the Direction and Assistance of the Hyrcanians (who had then deserted to him) pursu'd CRESUS, and next Day gave him a total Rout, and took all their Baggage except that of Cresus, which had been sent off with his Women the Night before, and Cresus follow'd them as fast as he could into his own Kingdom; leaving the Kings of the Cappadocians and Arabians to be put to Death by the Hyrcanians: but CYRUS spar'd the rest, Xenoph. Lib. III. and IV.

Upon the Death of the wise and brave Neriglissar in the Beginning of his 4th Year, his fourth Son succeeded, viz.

LABOROSOARCHOD, the Grandson of Nebuchadnezzar by his Mother, who reign'd only 9 Months or the Remainder of the 4th Year of Neriglissar, and is therefore not mention'd in Ptolemy's Canon.

Among his other Follies, he slew the only Son of Gobrias (a Governor of a Province) at Hunting, only because the Youth darted better than he; and he order'd Gadates, another Governor, to be castrated, only because one of his Concubines had prais'd him as an handsome Man: therefore, these two influenc'd their Provinces to join them in a Revolt to CYRUS, who forthwith took Possession of those Provinces, and beat Laborosoarchod's Army in the Province of Gadates: nay, tho' the Babylonians cut off the Cadusians a Detachment of the Medes, yet CYRUS forc'd Laborosoarchod to retreat to Babylon, before the Walls of which the Conqueror twice appear'd to provoke the Babylonians to Battel, or their King to a Duel, tho' in vain: therefore he march'd back towards Media, and having took some Fortresses on the Frontiers, he put his Army into Winter Quarters there, and sent for CYAXARES to consult about the next Campaign, Xenoph. Lib. V. and VI.

Laborosoarchod being freed from CYRUS, as he thought, indulg'd himself in all his wicked and tyrannical Inclinations, till he became odious and intollerable to his own People, who conspir'd against him and slew him in the ninth Month of his Reign. He was succeeded by

CONTEMPORARIES.

DANIEL had this Year the Vision of the four Monarchies, and of the 5th Monarchy or the Messiah's Kingdom that was to follow them, Dan. vii.

DANIEL had now the Vision of the Ram and He-goat, that prefigur'd the Fall of the Persian Monarchy by ALEXANDER the Great, and foretold the Persecution of the Jews by Antiochus Epiphanes King of Syria, Dan. viii. He had this Revelation at Shusan in the Palace of Belshazzar in that City, where he attended as a Minister of State. Whereby it appears that this Metropolis of Elam was then possess'd by the Babylonians.

But three Years afterwards Abradates the Vice-Roy of Shusan revolted to CYRUS, and thenceforward it belong'd to the Empire of the Medes and Persians; for the Elamites join'd the Medes in the Siege of Babylon as it was foretold, Isa. xxi. 2. and now the Elamites recovering, by the Medes, their ancient Liberties that the Chaldeans had depriv'd them of, Elam was restor'd according to the Prophecy, Jer. xlix. 39. and the People of that and some neighbouring Provinces having been train'd of late by CYRUS to Boistering were from thence call'd PERSIANS. See Bochart. Phaleg. page 254.

About the End of this first Year of the 5th Olympiad the famous Thales Miletius died, (as Laertius relates from Socrates) and Anaximander Miletius now first observ'd the Obliquity of the Zodiac, as Pliny relates from others, Lib. I. cap. 8. tho' Plutarch intimates, that it was not unknown to his Master Thales, Lib. II. de placitis Philosophorum, cap. 12.

In the second Year of this Olympiad, A. M. 3447.

Anaximander Miletius, aged 64 Years, died, as Laertius relates from the Chronicles of Apollodorus the Athenian; adding from the History of Pavorinus, that Anaximander first invented the Gnomon, and set it up at Lacedemon to catch the Shadow, and made Horoscopes to shew the Solstices and Equinoxes: for these Dials were different from the Gnomons or Hour Dials.

But Pliny Lib. II. cap. 76. says, that the Gnomon was invented by Anaximenes Miletius, the Disciple of Anaximander and his Successor in the School of Thales, and, that he first set up an Horologe or Dial at Lacedemon. But Herodotus, Lib. II. cap. 109. affirms, that the Grecians learn'd the Pole and the Gnomon, and the 12 Parts of the Day from the Babylonians: and I have above alledg'd that the Babylonians learn'd their Astronomy or their calculating of Eclipses first from the Israelitish Captives, and afterwards improv'd it from the Jewish Captives; for ACHAZ's Dial at Jerusalem was near 200 Years older than this at Lacedemon: and that the Babylonians had it from the Israelites. See Tab. XVII. Page 49. and Tab. XIX. Page 53.

As for Pythagoras, when his Masters Thales and Anaximander were dead, he travell'd into Egypt, as Thales had advis'd BELSHAZZAR call'd by Ptolemy Nabonadius, by Berosus Nabonnedus, by Megasthenes Nabonnidochus, by Herodotus Labynitus, and by Josephus Nabonadelus, who saith, He is the BELSHAZZAR of Daniel; for upon his Death, the Kingdom was translated to the Medes and Persians: he is call'd in Scripture the Son of Nebuchadnezzar, that is, his Grandson; for he was too young to be his immediate Son, but was the Son of CUB-HERODACH by his Queen Nitocris; whereby the Prophecy of Jeremiah (ch. xxxvii. 7.) was fulfill'd, that the Eastern Nations were to serve Nebuchadnezzar, and his Son and his Son's Son; and he was the last of the Race, a very indolent and wicked Prince: therefore, his Mother being an ingenious and manly Woman, took upon her the Administration in his Name during the 17 Years of his Reign; and being wisely afraid of the enterprising Genius and growing Greatness of CYRUS, she so well fortify'd Babylon within and without, that it was impregnable, and could not have been taken but by a Surprise, Herodot. Lib. I.

CYRUS and CYAXARES agreed at a Council of War in the Camp in the great Nerglissar's Tent, not to ravage the Country of the Chaldean Empire, but to take in all the Strong Holds and Cities they could, whereby they would enlarge their Empire; in which they were employ'd the first seven Years of Belshazzar.

Belshazzar, alarm'd by the Successes of CYRUS, travell'd with much Treasure to his Confederate, King CRESUS at Sardis in Lydia, where he hir'd a very numerous Army of Egyptians, Greeks and Thracians, and of all the Nations of Lesser Asia, and having appointed CRESUS to be their General, and sent him to invade Media; he return'd to Babylon.

CYRUS by one of his Spies, knew all that pass'd at Sardis, and seasonably prepar'd to meet CRESUS, who got the great Army ready, and this Year march'd to the River Halys that divides Lydia from Media, which he pass'd over without a Bridge by the Direction of Thales Miletius, and march'd into Cappadocia; taking the City Pteria and wasting the Country. But before he could advance farther, CYRUS came up with him, gave him Battel and defeats that great Army; so that CRESUS retreated with his Remains as well as he could to Sardis; where he forthwith dismiss'd his Auxiliaries, ordering them to return in the Spring; and sent to all his Allies to raise more Forces for the next Year's War; not fearing his Want of them in the Winter: but he was mistaken; for CYRUS had follow'd him into Lydia, just as he had dismiss'd his Auxiliaries.

CRESUS, however, got ready a good Army of his Lydian Horsemen, and encounter'd CYRUS in Battel, but CYRUS mounted many of his Foot upon Camels, and the Horses of CRESUS not bearing the Smell of the Camels were soon disorder'd; which forc'd the Lydians to quit them, and fought on Foot; but being overpowered by CYRUS's Veterans, they fled to Sardis their Capital; where CYRUS forthwith shut them up in a close Siege.

During the Siege, CYRUS celebrated the Funeral of Abradates Prince of Elam, and Panthea his Wife, who had lately revolted to him and had been slain in the last Battel; and made a stately Monument for them near the River Pactolus.

Cresus had sent to his Allies for Succours, but before any could come

CYRUS vigorously attack'd the City, and in 14 Days took it and Cresus in it, whom CYRUS condemn'd to be burnt alive. But while Cresus was set upon the Pile of Wood, and the Fire put under it for his Execution, He sigh'd and cry'd aloud, Solon, Solon, Solon! and CYRUS sending to know the Cause, had the whole Story related to him, how Cresus too late found his Mistake in slighting that wise Man; for that in his own sad Experience he found, no Man could be call'd happy before his Death! which had such an Influence on CYRUS, that he forthwith order'd Cresus to be taken off the Pile, allow'd him an honourable Subsistence, made use of him as an intimate Friend and Counsellor all his Life; and at his Death recommended him to his Son CANBYSES, to be his chief Adviser.

Cresus now sent his Fetters to Delphi complaining of being deceiv'd by the Oracle, that had encourag'd him at first to undertake this War, by saying, that he should never be in Danger till a male reign'd over the Medes, and that he should overthrow a great Empire if he pass'd over the Halys: but the Heathen Priests answer'd him, that CYRUS was the Male, and that Lydia was the Empire. Thus poor Cresus was deceiv'd.

advised him, and was recommended to AMASIS King of Egypt, by POLYCRATES King of the Samos, and about there 22 Years among the Egyptian Priests, till CLEARCHUS conquer'd Egypt. See more of him at A. M. 3479.

The Rumour of CYRUS's Approach, reach'd the Ears of the King and People of Babylon according to the Prophecy, Jer. l. 46. and let your Hearts faint (speaking to the captive Jews) as ye hear the Rumour that shall be heard in the Land: a Rumour shall come one Year, and after that a Rumour in another, and Violence in the Land; Ruler against Ruler.

By CYRUS's Siege of Babylon was fulfill'd the Prophecy in Jer. l. 27. 28. Set ye up a Standard in the Land, blow the Trumpet among the Nations, prepare the Nations against her, call against her the Kingdoms of Ararat, Minni and Ashchenaz, appoint a Captain against her, cause the Horses to come up as the rangle Caterpillers; prepare against her the Nations with the Kings of the Medes (Cyaxares and Cyrus) the Captains thereof, and all the Rulers thereof, and all the Land of his Dominion. And the Land shall tremble and sorrow; for every Purpose of Jehovah shall be perform'd against Babylon, to make the Land of Babylon a Desolation without an Inhabitant: one Post shall run to meet another, and one Messenger to meet another, to shew the King of Babylon, that his City is taken at one end: and that the Passages are stopp'd, the Reeds burnt, and the Men of War affrighted. The Violence done to me, and to my Remnant, be upon Babylon, shall Zion say; and my Blood upon the Inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say: therefore, thus saith Jehovah—I will dry up her Sea, and make her Springs dry—I in their Heat I will make their Feet, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice and sleep, and never wake!

DANIEL's Account differs not from that of Herodotus and Xenophon; for ch. v. he acquaints us that BELSHAZZAR the King, made a Feast to a Thousand of his Lords, his Wives and Concubines, and that he and they drank Wine in the golden and silver Vessels, that had been carried out of the Temple of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar; and as they drank, they praised the Gods of Gold, and Silver, of Brass and Iron, of Wood and of Stone. When the Candles were lighted, came forth Fire from a Man's Hand, which wrote over against the Candlestick upon the Plaster of the Wall. And the King seeing part of the Hand that wrote, his Countenance was chang'd, his Teeth rattled him, the Joints of his Loins were loosed, and his Knees smote one against another. Upon which he call'd aloud to bring in the Astrologers, the Chaldeans and Sorcerers, which required some Time to come; and while he waited, he saw the Lightenings, and heard the Thunder, and the Earth trembled, and the Walls of the City were shaken.

CONTEMPORARIES.

CYRUS continued in lesser Asia, till he had reduc'd all its Nations to his Obedience from the Egean Sea to the Euphrates; and march'd into Syria and Arabia and the upper Parts of great Asia, conquering all before him: whereby many People left their old Habitations and travell'd into distant Parts, where they settled their Colonies in order to live at rest from the Terror and Havock of the Medes; as may be seen in the Histories of Herodote, Xenophon, Diodorus Siculus, Plutarch, Justin, &c.

CYRUS at length return'd into Affria, leading his Army against BELSHAZZAR, strait towards Babylon his Capital, the only Place unconquer'd or unsunder'd; but his Motion was stopp'd by the River Gyndes that runs into the Tygris, where one of the sacred White Horses of the Medes perish'd in attempting to cross it. This vex'd CYRUS, and not being provided with Boats, he resolutely employ'd his Army to cut the River into 360 Parts, that it might be forded by Women without touching their Knees, as he had threatn'd; in which laborious undertaking he spent the whole Summer, Herodot. Lib. I. and V.

But next Year he reach'd to the High Walls of great Babylon with his whole Army of Medes and Persians, and of many other Nations, when BELSHAZZAR encounter'd him in Battel, but was beat out of the Field by CYRUS, and the Babylonians fled straight into the City.

This happen'd in the ninth Year after the taking of Sardis, and in the 16th Year of Belshazzar, when CYRUS begett the City, drawing a Line of Circumvallation broad and deep round the Walls.

The Siege prov'd the hardest Work he had undertaken since he left Persia; for the Walls were high and impregnable, with a vast Number of arm'd Men to defend them, well furnish'd with all Sorts of Stores for 20 Years, and they could have Bread from the void Ground within the Walls: therefore, they scoffed at CYRUS from the Top of the Walls for attempting to take an impregnable City. But still he went on (confiding in his chosen Veterans, all resolute like himself to subdue the whole World, and conquer all Difficulties) raising many watch Towers higher than the Walls, hoping so to take the Place by a general Assault. But not finding that practicable soon, he resolv'd to starve the Babylonians into a Surrender: and that he might not over fatigue his Army, he divided them into 12 Parts, and order'd Each part to watch and guard the Trenches a Month by turns. Yet

CYRUS had now spent near two Years without being nearer to his grand Purpose; and might have spent 20 Years more in vain, if Providence had not discover'd a fit Stratagem, and a fit Season for executing it: for the Babylonians in his Army having inform'd him, that the great yearly Festival in the City was approaching, when the People spent the whole Night in Drink and Frolick; CYRUS rightly judg'd that Night a fit Season to surprise them: accordingly, he sent a Party of Men to the Head of the Canal, that leads from the River to the great Lake (that Queen Nitocris had built 420 Furlongs wide) and set Men to break the Banks or Dams between the Canal and the River at the Time appointed, in order to turn the whole Current of the River thro the Canal into the Lake, and also into the Trenches that were open'd to receive it: mean while he posted one Body of Men under Gobrias close to the Place where the River run into the City, and another great Body under Gadates at the opposite Side where the River runs out of the City, (for it run thro' the City) with orders to enter as soon as the River was fordable. So about Midnight the River being almost empty, both Parties enter'd by the Channel; and finding the Gates open leading down to the River (which at other Times were shut) thro' negligence, they ascended into the City, and both the Bodies met at the Palace, according to Concert, and slew the Out-guards; the Noise of which causing those within to open the Palace Gates, Gobrias and Gadates rush'd in upon them, and took the Palace; where they saw King BELSHAZZAR valiantly fighting for his Life, and all that were with him in Revenge. At Length they slew him, and all his Family, and on a Proclamation of Safety to all that would bring in their Arms, the whole City forthwith yielded to CYRUS the Conqueror, after a War of 21 Years from the Time he began to lay Siege to it. Herodotus and Xenophon agree in this, nor after the first of the month of Chuning, they came to the City of Babylon, where the World were in it with in Chaldean Letters, but in the old Hebrew now call'd the Samaritan Character. But the News reaching the Apartment of Nebuchadnezzar, the King's Chamberlain, who was a Man of State under her, and of the King's Business in the Palace; but the indolent King being only conversant with the Ministers of his Pleasures, had never notice of it, and knew not when after some Time he came in and stood before him, for the King said, Art thou that Daniel of the Captivity of Judah? And having told him the Case, the King promis'd the Reward above mention'd, if he could read those Words and shew their Meaning. Then DANIEL answer'd, Let thy Gifts be to thy self, and give thy Rewards to another, yet I will read and interpret the Writing: and so Daniel having told him how God gave to his Father (or Grandfather) NEBUCHADNEZZAR a Kingdom, and Majesty, and Glory, and Honour; and how God humbled him among the Beasts for his Pride, till he knew that the most High God ruled in the Kingdom of Men, and that he appointed over it whomsoever he will, and Thru his Son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine Heart, tho' Thou knewest all this, but hast lifted up thine Heart against the Lord of Heaven, and they have brought the Vessels of our House before Thee, and Thou and thy Lords, thy Wives and thy Concubines have drunk Wine in them, and Thou hast prais'd the Gods of Silver and Gold, of Brass, Iron, Wood and Stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose Hand thy Breath is, and whose are all thy Ways, hast Thou not glorify'd! This is the Interpretation of those Words, Mene, Mene, Tekel Upharsin, God hath number'd thy Kingdom and finish'd it! Thou art weigh'd in the Balances and art found wanting, the Kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians! Upon which the King commanded his Servants to clothe Daniel in Purple, and put a Chain of Gold about his Neck, and they solemnly proclaim'd him the Third Ruler in the Kingdom.

Now all these things would take up a good Part of the Night; and we may suppose that as soon as Daniel was proclaim'd in the Banqueting-House the Third Ruler, it was near Midnight when Gobrias and Gabates pass'd through the Champs, ascended into the City, enter'd the Palace, and slew King BELSHAZZAR according to Herodotus and Xenophon; for Dan. V. 30, 31. In that Night was Belshazzar King of the Chaldeans slain, and Darius the Median took the Kingdom, being about 62 Years old.

Thus ended the Race of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, and the Babylonian or Chaldean or Assyrian Empire, from the Death of Sardanapalus 209 Nabonassarian Years.

AFFAIRS of the JEWS.

No doubt the Jews met with good Usage from CYAXARES and CYRUS because of Daniel, whose Fame for Wisdom had been long establish'd, and was now heightened by his reading and expounding the Writing on the Wall, after all the Wise Men of Babylon had given it over; for the Event immediately happening, must soon reach the Ears of CYRUS, who therefore advis'd with Daniel at that Revolution in settling the Government, and agreed with CYAXARES to make him the first of the three Presidents; because of his Age, Wisdom, and Experience, having been a chief Minister of State to the Kings of Babylon now full 65 Years: for his Exaltation is ascrib'd to Cyaxares call'd Darius in Dan. vi 1, &c. It pleas'd DARIUS to set over the whole Kingdom 120 Princes, and over them 3 PRESIDENTS, of whom DANIEL was the first; because an excellent Spirit was in him, and the King resolv'd to set him over the whole Realm, as on the other Column. But his Exaltation made the other Princes and Courtiers envious; and not finding Occasion against him in his Administration of Government, they were resolv'd to destroy him by laying a Snare for him: and King DARIUS or Cyaxares, being now alone at Babylon in the Absence of CYRUS, (as on the other Column) They artfully prevail'd with him to sign a written Decree of their compelling, to forbid all Men to pray either to God or Man for 30 Days, except to the King only, under the Penalty of being cast into the Lions Den; and they knew conscientious Daniel would disobey it at all Hazards: for tho' he knew the Decree was made an unalterable Law, according to the Usage of the Medes and Persians, he went to Prayer with open Windows (which he us'd not to do) to his God three times a Day, looking toward Jerusalem. When the Princes by their Spies found their Snare successful, they accus'd him to the King, who labour'd to deliver him all Day till Sunset. (for the King lov'd him) but in vain; for the Princes argued, that no Law establish'd by the King of the Medes and Persians could be dispens'd with or alter'd: nay, when at Sunset they prevail'd in Law to get Daniel in their Power, and to cast him into the Lions Den, the King encourag'd Daniel, saying to him, Thy God, whom Thou servest continually, will deliver Thee! And, when the Great Stone was laid to the Mouth of the Den, and according to Law the King had seal'd it with his Signet, the King slept not, but fasted all Night, and early in the Morning went in haste to the Lions Den, calling with a mournful Voice, O Daniel, Servant of the living God, is thy God, whom Thou servest continually, able to deliver Thee from the Lions? To which Daniel reply'd, O King live for ever! My God hath sent his Angel, and hath shut the Lions Mouths, that they have not hurt me; for as much as I adore him Innocence was found in me, and I have done Thee, O King, like I have done no Hurt.

Then the King, exceed'ng glad, commanded to take Daniel out of the Den, and no manner of Hurt was found upon him, because he believ'd in his God. Upon which the King first order'd Daniel's Accusers with their Wives and Children to be cast into the Den of Lions, who immediately devour'd them; and

Upon the Death of Belshazzar and all his Family CYAXARES King of Media, call'd by Daniel DARIUS the Mede, who had join'd his Nephew CYRUS in all his Wars, was forthwith proclaim'd King of Babylon; for tho' brave CYRUS had the best Title, he yielded the Post of Honour to his Uncle from dutiful Respect, being satisfy'd with his Empire over the Army, whereby the Administration was mostly in his Hands (Xenoph. Lib. V.) and therefore Ptolemy mentions him as the immediate Successor of Nabonadius or Belshazzar, without naming Darius, assigning to him 9 Years Reign.

As soon as the new Government was settled at Babylon according to the Laws of the Medes and Persians, CYAXARES return'd to Ekbatana to look after his ancient Kingdom of Media, and CYRUS travell'd into Persia to visit his Father and Mother then both alive; but not staying long there, he travell'd to Ekbatana, where he was forthwith married in great State to the Daughter, and only Child of CYAXARES and his own first Cousin. But in order to finish his grand Undertaking of the Universal Monarchy, he soon left Media, and with his QUEEN and Father CYAXARES, came in great State and Splendor to Babylon, where they agreed to divide the whole Empire into 120 Provinces, over which they set those as Governors, who had born the Burden of the War with them, over whom they set 3 Presidents, as the chief Ministers of State, of whom Daniel was the First. See the other Column. While this was doing by Cyaxares, next he wrote to all People, Nations and Languages in all the Earth, saying, Peace be multiply'd unto You! I make a Decree that in every Dominion of my Kingdom, Men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God and steadfast for ever; his Kingdom shall not be destroy'd, and his Dominion shall be unto the End! He delivers and rescues and worketh Signs and Wonders in Heaven and in Earth, who hath deliver'd Daniel from the Power of the Lions. So that Daniel was the first Minister of State in the Reign of DARIUS or Cyaxares, and also in that of CYRUS his Successor.

CYRUS having gather'd and muster'd all his Forces, found them to consist of 120000 Horse, 2000 Sitt'd Chariots and 600000 Foot; and having well recruited his Garisons, he left CYAXARES in Babylon, and march'd with the rest

Nor was Daniel negligent of his Nation in his exalted State; for towards the End of this first Year of DARIUS the Mede (or Cyaxares) Daniel understood by Books, that the 70 Years Captivity foretold by Jeremiah the Prophet were near expir'd; and therefore, first he thought it his Duty to be earnest with God in ardent Prayer for the Pardon of the Sins of his People, and for their being restor'd to their own Land according to the Promise, Jer. xix. 12. for thus saith Jehovah, that after 70 Years are accomplish'd at Babylon, I will visit you and perform my good Word towards you in causing you to return to this Place.

And so we may well suppose that in this second Year of CYAXARES or Darius the Mede at Babylon, began the 70th Year of the Jewish Captivity, viz. of the first Captivity that began in the 4th Year of Jehoiakim.

The Substance of Daniel's Prayer is recorded in ch. ix. 1—19. And while he was at Prayer, God sent the Angel GABRIEL to fly swiftly and touch him about the Time of the Evening Oblation, saying, O Daniel—70 Weeks are determin'd upon thy People and upon thy holy City, to finish the Transgression, and to make an End of Sins, and to make Reconciliation for Iniquity, and to bring in everlasting Righteousness, and to seal up the Vision and Prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy! Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the Commandments to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the MESSIAH the Prince, shall be seven Weeks; and threescore and two Weeks the Street shall be built again, and the Wall, even in troublous Times; and after threescore and two Weeks shall MESSIAH be cut off, but not for himself: and the People of the Prince that shall come, shall destroy the City and the Sanctuary, and the End thereof shall be with a Flood, and unto the End of the War Desolations are determin'd. And he shall confirm the Covenant with many for one Week; and in the midst (or one half) of the Week shall he cause the Sacrifice and the Oblation to cease: and for the overspreading of Abominations, he shall make it desolate, even until the Consummation, and that determin'd shall be pour'd upon the Desolate, Dan. ix. 20—&c.

This Prophecy of the Era of 70 Weeks or 490 Years (allowing a Day for an Year according to the prophetic Style) concerning the State of the Jews after the Captivity, untill the Death of MESSIAH the LORD JESUS CHRIST, is to commence from the going out of the Decree of ARTAXERXES Longimanus, to restore and build Jerusalem by Ezra, (as will appear in its Place) and not from the first Decree of CYRUS; for Daniel knew not yet of CYRUS's Decree, nor does he mention what Decree, and has therefore left us to pitch upon that Decree, which answers to 490 Years before the cutting off of MESSIAH the Prince.

CYAXARES King of Media and Babylon order'd a great many fine Gold Coins to be made, call'd Darics and half Darics, each to the Value of 25 Shillings Sterling or the half, so call'd from his other Name DARIUS, which were afterwards highly esteem'd in all Countries.

CYAXARES, or Darius the Mede, after he had reign'd 23 Years King of Media, and 2 Years King of Babylon, died much lamented. And

CAMBYSES King of Persia dying the same Year, CYRUS upon the News that his Father and Father-in-law were both dead, march'd with a Detachment of his Army strait to Babylon; where he was proclaim'd the Heir of Media and Persia, and King of Babylon. And so

This is the Commencement of his seven Years Reign over all the new Empire, as the Founder of the Persian Monarchy that lasted 207 Years.

And now CYRUS made his Decree for the Restoration of the Jews, as recited Ezra I. 2, 3, 4.

| ERA from burning of TEMPLE. | ERA from Reboasam. | ERA before Christ. | A. M. | OLYMPIADS. | Era of Rome. | Era of Nabonassar. | Year of Jehoiakim's or first Captivity. | Year of Darius or Cyaxares. |

| 53                          | 439                | 536                | 3468  | LXI. 1     | 213          | 212                |   | 1                           |

Thus the first Captivity of the JEWS began in the 9th Month of the Jewish Year in the 4th Year of King Jehoiakim, or in the 10th Month of the 20th Year of Nabopolassar, or the first Year of NEBUCHADNEZZAR, after the Jewish Reckoning, A. M. 3395. in November—
And so we reckon the 70 Years Captivity thus, viz. of this Year we reckon ——— Years Months Days
——— add to it the remaining Years of Nebuchadnezzar after the Jewish Reckoning, viz. 44 0 0
——— next add the Reign of Evil-Merodach, viz. 02 0 0
——— then the Reign of Neriglissar, viz. 03 3 0 ——— and the Reign of Labojosoarchod, viz. 00 9 0
——— That of Belshazzar ——— 17 0 0
——— and the Reign of Cyaxares or Darius the Mede at Babylon ——— 02 0 0
——— so that in the 9th Month of the Jewish Year, or the 10th Month of this first Year of CYRUS, the 70 Years Captivity are compleatly ended, when this first Decree was publish'd for the Reduction and Restoration of the Jews: for thus in the Middle of November they prepar'd to return, and in December began their Journey towards Syria, and Syria, during four Months (the time being spent towards Ezra spent in the 14th March) by easy Journeys; for in November they were at their Month's Journey, the Jews are found at Jeru-

TABLE XXIII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Persian MONARCHY, of the JEWS, and of their CONTEMPORARIES from the Decree of CYRUS, A. M. 3468. To the Decree of ARTAXERXES Longimanus, A. M. 3446. during 78 Years, or to the Beginning of Daniel's 70 Weeks, or the Era of 490 Years before the Death of CHRIST.

Kings of PERSIA and Affairs of the JEWS.

CYRUS the Emperor, upon his Return from Syria after the Death of Cyaxares, began this Year to reign alone; and no doubt, was much influenc'd by Prince Daniel in making the Decree for the Restoration of the Jews; for his Reputation being rais'd still higher by his late miraculous Deliverance from the Lions Den, CYRUS continued to respect him as much as Cyaxares had done, Dan. vi. 28. and therefore, as Daniel had interceded with God by earnest Prayer for the Restoration of the Jews, page 88. We may justly suppose he would intercede with CYRUS also, shewing him the Prophecies of Isaiah, ch. xlv. 28. and xiv. 1, &c. wherein he was mention'd by name 150 Years before he was born, and 193 Years before this Time, to be the Restorer of the City and Temple, as Josephus affirms; (Lib. II. cap. 1.) and it is intimated Ezra I. 2. and who was more fit than Daniel to shew to CYRUS those Prophecies?

Besides, CYRUS in his late Expedition, saw the miserable Desolation of Palestine, and might be dispos'd to wish that once flourishing Country again inhabited; for it was a prudent Wish upon many Accounts; and as none were more fit to people it than its former Inhabitants, who had been led captive by Nebuchadnezzar in order to people his beloved Babilon; so CYRUS having no such View, but rather on the contrary, disregarding Babilon, might be induc'd thereby to send back the Jews. But whatever were his Motives, God influenc'd the grand CYRUS to publish his Decree in the 10th Month of his first Year, as recorded in 2 Chron. xxxvi. 22, 23. and in Ezra I. 1—4. Now in the first Year of CYRUS King of Persia, (that the Word of Jehovah by the Mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfill'd) JEHOVAH stir'd up the Spirit of CYRUS King of Persia; that he made a Proclamation throughout all his Kingdom, and put it also in Writing, saying, Thus saith CYRUS King of Persia, JEHOVAH the God of Heavens hath given me all the Kingdoms of the Earth, and he hath charg'd me to build him an House at Jerusalem in Judah: who is there among you of all his People, his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the House of Jehovah the God of Israel, (HE IS THE GOD) which is in Jerusalem: and whosoever remaineth in any Place where he sojourneth, let the Men of his Place help him with Silver, Gold, Goods and Beasts, besides the Free-will Offering for the House of God that is in Jerusalem!

Upon which the JEWS that had been captivated by Nebuchadnezzar and their Offspring } assembled out of the several Parts of Chaldaea to the Number of 42360 Men besides their Male and Female Servants 7337 and also singing Men and Women 200

This is the Reduction of ZERUBBABEL (the Son of SALATHIEL the Son JECONIAH King of Judah) whom CYRUS call'd Sheshbazzar, and made him his Deputy or the Artaxartha or Governor of the Land by his Commission: and next to him was JESHUAH the High Priest, the Son of Josedech, who was carried captive when his Father Seraiah was slain at Riblah, and next to the Prince and Priest were the other Leaders of the People, viz. Nehemiah (not he that wrote the Canonical Book) Seraiah, Reelaiah Mordecai, not the Uncle of Queen HESTER) Bilshan, Miffar, Rigvai, Rehum, and Baanah, the eleven chief Leaders.

The particular Numbers reckon'd by Families in the Books of Ezra and Nehemiah, when sum'd up, don't amount to the Total there mention'd, because those particulars belong only to the Tribes of Judah, Benjamin and Levi, and the rest were some of the Idumaeans that had been either formerly captivated by the Kings of Assyria, or along with the Jews by the Kings of Babilon, and who had adher'd to the true Mosaic Religion as far as was practicable in their Situation; but were now all comprehended under the

The Persian Monarchy was ordain'd by the Eternal to last until ALEXANDER the Great, the Macedonian, should overturn it; and therefore I am now to trace his Predecessors the Kings of Macedonia, as contemporary with the Persian Monarchy.

I have said already page 42. (from Euseb. Chron.) that the Kingdom of Macedonia is suppos'd to begin, A. M. 3210 } 18 Years before the first Olympiad. Before Christ 794 } when CARANUS the first of the Heraclidae was made King, before this first of CYRUS 258 Years; and before the Destruction of the Persian Monarchy in the Death of DARIUS Codomannus about 464 Years, viz. A. M. 3674 from which deduct 464

the Remainder is 3210 the Year of the World when CARANUS began according to Eusebius, And so the common Denomination of JEWS and are so even to this Day. Nor were these the greatest Number, nor the wealthier Sort of JEWS that now return'd; but the poorer Sort with a few wealthy People that had a Zeal for God and his Temple at Jerusalem: for few of the JEWS that had made good Settlements in charming Chaldea, and had gather'd much Wealth, thought it worth while to return to a forlorn and desolate Country; therefore, at least during the Persian Monarchy, the JEWS in Chaldea and thereabouts were far more numerous than those in Palestine.

CYRUS also order'd all the Vessels to be restor'd to the JEWS, that Nebuchadnezzar had carried off from the Temple of Solomon, and had lodg'd in the Temple of Belus or Bel in Babylon, and which were fairly deliver'd up by Misbaredach the Treasurer to ZERUBBABEL the Prince, who brought them home to Jerusalem, viz.

| Other Vessels   | 1000 |

2499 These were brought back by ZERUBBABEL: but 2901 were afterwards brought back by Ezra: for in Ezra I. 11. is the total Sum of all those Vessels, viz. 5400 not of all that Zerubbabel brought back, these being specified in the foregoing Verses.

Of the 24 Courses of Priests, only four return'd, viz. Those of Jedaiah, Immer, Pashur (the Son of Malebijah) and Sarai, who divided themselves each into six Parts in order to keep up the Number of 24 Courses as appointed by King DAVID.

CYRUS having publish'd his said Decree in the 10th Month of the first Year of his sole Reign or middle of November, ZERUBBABEL, no doubt, in a Month's Time took Journey with his good, religious, poor JEWS, who had only 736 Horses, 245 Mules, 435 Camels, and 6720 Asses, to carry them, their Women and Children, and all their Baggage: but they were under the Protection of God and Cyrus; and after easy Journeys, perhaps during four Months, (for Ezra afterwards led his Colony so long ch. vii. 8.) thro' Mesopotamia and Syria, they arriv'd safe at Jerusalem in Nisan or April, the first Ecclesiastical Month of the JEWS, for the 2d Month of next Year is said to be in the 2d Year after their Return, Ezra iii. 8.

They soon dispers'd themselves according to their Tribes and Families to take Possession of their ancient paternal Inheritances, to rebuild their Cities, and to cultivate their Lands that had lain unmanur'd ever since the Burning of Jerusalem, and the Murder of Gedaliah, during full 52 Years, which is suppos'd to be the Number of the Sabbatical Years, neglected to be observ'd by the JEWS in their former Prosperity, and which making 52 Weeks of Years, they amount to 364 Years, which deducted from this Year of the World, viz. A. M. ————— 3469

the Remainder is the Year of the World that coincides with the 16th of Jehoshaphat, viz. ——— 3105 See page 30 when we may suppose the JEWS began to neglect the Observance of their Sabbatical Years, contrary to God's Law, and for which they had been punish'd by Exilement until the Land did enjoy her Sabbaths.

After they had spent six Months in Cultivation and Reparation, and had repair'd the Great Altar for Burnt Offerings (Ezra iii. 6.) in the old Situation. They met in Tisri the 7th Month at Jerusalem (the first Month of their Civil Year) and on the first Day of the Month, or New-Years-Day, they solemniz'd the Feast of TRUMPETS: for tho' from Nisan or Abib all their Festivals were reckon'd, as the first Ecclesiastical Month ever since the Exodus; yet from this as their New-Years-Day all their Bills and Bonds, Acts and Contracts, Jubilees and Sabbatical Years are dated and computed. And having prepar'd for the Priests 100 Garments

The 10th Day was the Day of annual ATONEMENT according to the Law of Moses, which the HIGH PRIEST perform'd for all the People of Israel in the best Manner he could without a Temple or Tabernacle.

At length the great Benefactor of the Jews even CYRUS, aged 70 Years, died, after he was declar'd the Imperator; of the Persian and Median Army ————— 30
 — after he had dethron'd Cresus King of Lydia ————— 18
 — after he took Babylon ————— 39

— after he had reign'd alone upon the Death of DARIUS the Mede.
 The Manner of his Death is diversely related by ancient Authors.

For Herodotus, Justin and Valerius Maximus, affirm that CYRUS having march'd an Army of 200000 Men against THOMYRIS Queen of the Maj-
scages or Scythians, he was defeated and slain in Battle, and that she order'd his dead Body to be expos'd naked, and his Head to be cut off and thrown into a Vessel full of human Blood, saying with Reproach, that she now would satiate him with human Blood, who was before insatiable.

Diodorus Siculus, Lib. II. affirms, that he was taken alive and by THO-
 MYRIS was order'd to be crucify'd

Ctesias, Lib. II. says, that CYRUS was wounded in the Thigh by a Dart from an Indian in a Battle against the Derbicans, (a people near the Hyrcan- ians) and died of his Wound on the third Day

John Malela of Antioch from a forg'd Writing of Pythagoras the Samian, affirms, that CYRUS was kill'd in a Sea Fight against the Samians.

But Xenophon (Instit. Lib. 8.) relates that CYRUS died in his Bed of a gentle Death in Persia, and on his Death-bed charg'd his Sons to bury him soon, but neither in Gold nor Silver nor in any other Thing but plain Earth; and should invite the Persians his old Companions to his Funeral, and treat them solemnly, which seems to be the true Account; for

All the Writers of the Affairs of ALEXANDER the Great, as Curtius, Plutarch, Arrian agree that CYRUS was buried at Pasargada in Persia. nay, Strabo (Lib. V. Geograph.) writes that ALEXANDER commanded Aristobulus to inspect his Tomb, which had this Inscription. O Man, I am CYRUS, who constituted the Empire of the PERSIANS and was King of ASIA: therefore don't envy me this Monument and from Onesicritus the said Geographer subjoins another Inscription, viz.

Εἰς τὴν αὐτὴν ἐκταφὴν ΚΥΡΟΥ βασιλέως Περσῶν

CYRUS ego, Rex olim Regum, conditus hic sum.

I Cyrus, once the King of Kings, am buried here.

But if he had perish'd in Syria, how could his Body be brought to be interr'd at Pasargada? Or how could he have left the whole Empire in profound Quiet, as he did to his Son and Successor, viz.

II. CAMBYSES, who being an ill Man and unprecious, could not have maintain'd and enlarg'd the Empire, if his Father had not left it in Peace and good Order?

AMASIS King of Egypt now revolted from CYRUS, when a great Multitude of captive Egyptians return'd to their own Land, at the End of 40 Years after Nebuchadnezzar had carried them off, according to the Prophecy, Jer. xvi. 26. Ezek. xxix. 11—16.
 an ancient Kingdom now restor'd to Part of its former Grandeur, and to its Independency in these last days of Amasis, which it did not long enjoy. Upon occasion of this Revolt

The Egyptians got Presidents over them that were Foreigners, HIROM's 20 Years being ended, who is the last in the Catalogue of Josephus of their Judges or Vice-roys that were Natives.

Some ancient Authors tell us that CYRUS had sent to AMASIS King of Egypt, for his Daughter to be one of his Wives, and that Amasis deceiv'd him by sending NITETIS the Daughter of old King APRIES or Pharaoh Hophra, who prudently conceal'd her true Parentage and for a Time pass'd for the Daughter of Amasis; until she had fully secur'd herself in CYRUS's Affection by bearing several Sons to him, among whom was CAMBYSES; and then she perswaded CYRUS to revenge her Father's Wrongs upon Amasis, who revolting also from CYRUS, had been severely punish'd by him, if Death had not prevented it. But seeing Herodotus says, (Lib. II. cap. 1.) that Cambyse's Mother was CASSANDANA; and seeing we have not so distinct an Account of the true Cause of the Egyptian War, we shall only conclude it was owing to the Revolt of Amasis, who was now busy in restoring the Glory of his Kingdom, tho' in his old Age. And whatever Preparations CYRUS made for this War, 'tis certain that

CAMBYSES had it near at heart from his first ascending the Imperial Throne; and after he had settled himself in the Government and order'd all Things at home to his own Mind, viz.

Kings of PERSIA and Affairs of the JEWS.

CONTEMPORARIES.

The Samaritans, knowing this King to be of a different Temper from his Father, instead of opposing the Jews privately and craftily as formerly, now openly address Cambyzes to put a Stop to their Buildings, Ezra iv. 6. and in the Beginning of the Reign of Ahasuerus (the same with CAMBYSES) wrote they unto him an Accusation against the Inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. But tho' the King would not revoke his Father's Decree, yet, he otherwise discourag'd the Jews; so that the Work went on but slowly all his Reign. This was the second Sabbatical Year after the Reduction.

The Lybians, Cretians, and Barceans hearing of CAMBYSES's Success, sent Ambassadors with Presents to make their Submission to him. From Memphis he went to Sais the Place of the Royal Sepulchre, where he order'd the Body of Amasis to be taken out of the Grave, to be treated with many Indignities before him, and then to be burnt in the Fire; whereby it seems Amasis was the Cause of this War.

He desired to subdue the Carthaginians, but let it alone: because he was not able to do so. He was also desirous to reduce the Ethiopians, but he was not able to do so. He was also desirous to reduce the Indians, but he was not able to do so.

In the second Year of his Reign, he made vast Preparations for a Descent upon Egypt, both by Sea and Land; engaging the Cyprians and Phœnicians to help him with their Fleets, and the Greeks, Ionians and Eolians to recruit his great Army.

In this 3d Year of his Reign, CAMBYSES march'd his grand Army through Syria and Palestine towards Egypt; but he could not have march'd forward thro' the Deserts of Arabia, down to Egypt the shortest Way, for want of Water, if Phanes an Halicarnassian a chief Commander of some Grecian auxiliaries in Egypt, had not revolted from Amasis and fled to him in Palestine, and had not only reveal'd to him the Affairs of Amasis, but likewise the Nature of the Country: nay, he gave CAMBYSES the sound Advice to contract with an Arabian King to furnish his Army with Water, while marching thro' the dry Desert, which the Arabians brought by Camels to his Camp.

And so in the 4th Year of his Reign, CAMBYSES made his Descent upon Egypt, and at the Borders had the News of the Death of King AMASIS, after he had reign'd 44 Years, and that he was succeeded by his Son, viz.

PSAMMENITUS, call'd by Ctesias Amyrtæus, who reign'd only 6 Months, and had got an Army ready to oppose the Invader. But CAMBYSES laid Siege to Pelusium the Key of Egypt, and finding the Garrison were all Egyptians, he order'd a great Number of Dogs and Cats, Sheep and Cows, and other Animals (accounted sacred by those Phanaticks) to be plac'd in the Front of the Assault; and so the Egyptians not daring to throw a Dart for fear of hurting their Gods, CAMBYSES's Men took the City without Opposition.

By this Time PSAMMENITUS came up with his Army and fought a bloody Battel. Before the Engagement the Greeks of his Army, to be reveng'd on Phanes for his Revolt, slew his Children (whom he had left in Egypt) on the Front of the Army, and drank their Blood; which did so enrage the Persians, that they fought like Desperadoes, defeated the Egyptians, and cut most of them in pieces, while the Remains fled to Memphis, whither CAMBYSES pursu'd them, and sent an Herald by a Ship on the Nile to summon them to Surrender; and they having in a wild Rage tore him and his Crew to pieces, CAMBYSES laid close Siege to that City, soon took it and reveng'd their Death by hanging up ten principal Egyptians for each of those, among whom was the eldest Son of Psammenitus. CAMBYSES spar'd the King himself, and gave him an honourable Subsistence; but Psammenitus not contented, was forming Projects for the Recovery of his Crown: wherefore CAMBYSES order'd him to be put to Death by drinking Bull's Blood, and so All Egypt submitted to the Conqueror in the 5th Year of his Reign.

Pythagoras had been now residing among the Egyptian Priests for 22 Years past, and had even been initiated in their sacred Rituals for which Cause he was persecuted, and being admitted into their sacred Places, He learn'd their Mystical Philosophy, being taught especially by Sanchides the Sage, the Arch-Prophet of Egypt (who had been Solon's Master before) the Doctrine of the Transmigration of Souls into the Body of some other Animal; and being conversant with the Language and Letters of the Egyptians, He search'd

Things of PERVA and Affairs of the Jews.

The following information was obtained from the work of the group and mark the dots for a number of the European and a Deaf of hearing on Deaf.

When they returned None of the Perpans could bend and unbend it, until SMIL his the King's Brother came within two Fingers breadth of it; for which the King was jealous and sent him back to Perpax and not capable to brook the Ethiopian's Message, CAMBYSES forthwith order'd his graze Army to march into Ethiopia, without minding how they were to flourish, leaving his Greeks to keep the Egyptians in awe. On his March, he sent from Thebes a Detachment of 50000 Men to destroy the Hammomans, and to burn the Temple of JUPITER HAMMON: but on their March half way they were overwhelm'd in one Day by the Sand blown over them. Mean while CAMBYSES march'd on against the Ethiopians as far as the Island Seroe in the Nile (which he so call'd from his Wife's Name, who was also his Sister, as in the old Maps) till his Army had eaten up all their Beasts, and were decimating their Men to be eaten for want of Provisions: by which he began to be convinc'd of his Error; and so after great Loss he march'd the Army back to Thebes and from thence to Memphis; where he found the People all in Mirth, because their God Apis (call'd also Ofris and Mnevis) had then appear'd among them, viz. a Black Bull with a Square Spot of White on his Forehead, with the Figure of an Eagle or Half-Moon on his Back, a double List of Hair on his Tail and a Knot under his Tongue, which they worship'd in the Temple of Daris; and the lost Bull being lately dead, They had hunted every where for another with those Marks; and having at this Time found one, they were all glad and brought him into the Temple with Shouting. This Idolary was ancient and seems to be the Original of the Golden Calf of Aaron and of King Jereboam I.

But CAMEYSES being jealous that they triumph'd in his Misfortunes, sent for the Magistrates and put them to Death for telling a Lie, tho they told him the Truth; then sent for the Priests, who told him the same; and then sent for Apis their God, at the Sight of which being justly inrag'd, he run his Dagger into his God's Tomb, reproaching the Priests for their Stupidity in worshipping a Wote, order'd them to be instantly whipt for their Priestcraft, and all Men to be slain who should dare to rejoice for finding Apis, who was carry'd back to the Temple and died of his Wound.

CAMBYSES dreaming one Night that an Herald came to acquaint him that Smerdis reign'd in a Throne reaching to Heaven, and he taking it for his own full Brother the other Son of CROISUS, whom he had sent back to Persia, sent Prexaspes after him into Persia to put him to Death, which he did: and when upon the News of his Death Smerdis lamented it, CAMBYSES gave her a Blow in the Belly that made her miscarry and die: she was the Wife also as well as the Sister of CAMBYSES, who would have her right or wrong, after the Persian Judges had told him, that tho' the Law of Persia did not allow of such a Marriage; yet it allow'd the King to do what he pleas'd, a cowardly Decision.

He also threw an Arrow thro' the Heart of his Favourite Prexaspes's Son while drinking with him, only to shew his Skill at Archery; and next Day he caus'd 12 principal Perfians to be buried alive with their Heads downward, without any Fault alledg'd, to shew his Sovereignty: nay, He order'd Cyrus, once King of Lydia, to be slain, only for admonishing him friendly against those Barbarians: but the Executioners delay'd it: yet, tho' CAMBYSES repented and was glad that Cyrus was alive, he put to Death those that had disobey'd his Command by saving him. He caus'd ancient Sepulchres to be open'd, only that he might look upon the Dead: he enter'd the Temple of Vulcan, and ridicul'd his Statue, and entering the Temple of the Cabyrans, he caus'd the Images thereof to be burn'd, burning also and destroying with Fire and Sword all the Egyptian Temples and Chelists, Herodot. Lib. III. Strabo, Lib. XVII. Thus having reign'd at a wild monstrous Rate three Years in Egypt, CAMBYSES in the Beginning of the eighth Year of his Reign, left Egypt in order to return to Persia, leaving Arpandus the Prefect or Governor of Egypt: but when he came into Syria, an Ortelus met him from Shusan, who proclaimed in the Army SMERDIS the Son of CYRUS King, and commanded all Men to obey him and not CAMBYSES. The Meaning of it is, CAMBYSES upon his March towards Egypt had left the chief Power of all Affairs in Persia with one Pausirhes a Magian, whose Brother's Name was Smerdis, and who resembled the true SMERDIS very much; much; and Pantistes showing the true SMERDIS had been murder'd, tho' few else knew it; and that CAMBYSES had become intolerable and hateful, plac'd his Brother in the Throne, giving out that he was SMERDIS the Son of CYRUS, and forthwith sent Heralds to proclaim him in all Parts.

CAMBYSES by examining the Herald and Prexages too, who saw his Brother, found it was only Smerdis the Magian; and immediately order'd the Army to march with all Expedition to punish the Usurper: but as he mounted his Horse for the March, his Sword falling out of his Scabbard, gave him a Wound in the Thigh of which he died a few Days after at a Place in Syria call'd EXBATANA, according to the delusive Oracle of Watus in Egypt, which he had consulted, which the King took for Ekbatana in Media: and when CAMBYSES found the Place was so call'd, and that he must die there, he call'd his noble Persians to him, and acquainted them with the true State of the Case, that his Brother was certainly dead and that the Usurper was only the Magian, exhorting them not to submit to the Cheat, for that thereby the Sovereignty would be translated from the Persians to the Medes, the Magian being a Mede, but to set some noble Persian in the Throne. And so he died after he had reign'd 7 Years and 5 Months, and the other seven Months of this Year are reckon'd to the false SMERDIS the Usurper.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Egyptian KINGS.

The Egyptians Mythology has led their Historians into Fable, together with an Ambition of having their Nation esteem'd the oldest and the Mother of other Nations. Therefore, from Syncellus we find they affirm'd, that first the Gods reign'd in Egypt and next the Half Gods, and then the Offspring of MENES or MITZRAIM.

| 7. Typhon          | 29                 |

And they make the Total 969

Tho' the known particulars amount not to that Sum, but Manetho the Historian relates, that Vulcan reign'd 9000 Years, and others affirm, that Sol reign'd 30000 Years, and the other Gentry reign'd 3984 Years.

And that from Osiris and Isis to ALEXANDER the Great, there elaps'd above 10000 Years, or, as others write, little less than 23000, All fabulous Mythology.

But MITZRAIM or Menes coming into Egypt, as above mention'd, became the first King; and his Offspring divided Egypt into four Kingdoms, viz.

1. THEBAIS. and 2. THIS, 3. MEMPHIS. and 4. HELIOPOLIS, or the Kings of the Thebans and Chinitans in upper EGYPT.

Their Names are dubious and Historians have assign'd some more, some less Time, but all too much; for they reign'd Contemporary no longer than till the Hyc-sos, or Shepherd Kings of Arabia broke in upon them, seiz'd Memphis and all the lower Egypt towards the Mediterranean, A. M. 1920. before Christ 2084; where they erected a Kingdom that lasted 260 Years, commencing after the Flood 264. after MITZRAIM came from Shinar to Egypt 104. and while his Offspring reign'd in upper Egypt, call'd by Eraosthenes, the Theban Kings.

Contemporaries.

THEBAN Kings in upper Egypt, besides former ones, (for whom we can find no Contemporaries) Eraosthenes recites the following, viz.

2. Rameses Mithras or Menes, rais'd 450000 Men, includ'd the Hyrc-Sos in Abartim and blokad'd them: but wisely advis'd them a Captiv: to be, viz. that leaving Egypt, the Hyrc-Sos should have leave to go safe whither they pleas'd. Accordingly, they in Number 240000 with all their Luggage, march'd this Year from Egypt thro' the Desert towards Syria: but seeing the exorbitant Power of the Assyrians, they retreated into Canaan, and built the City afterwards call'd Jerusalem: for so Gub. Panetho in Issethu, Lib. I. call'd Appion. and from the Annals of Mendesius, it is said to be in the Days of INACHUS King of the Argives, which Account being by many understood as a blind Account of the Israelites being Shepherds, and of their marching from Egypt to Canaan, they have run into the Mistake of making MOSES and INACHUS Contemporary; tho' Cassubius places the first Year of INACHUS with the first Year of Jacob's Life. KINGS of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

* Call'd by Æchylus MARDUS, by Ctesias SPENDADATES, by Justin ORAPASTES, and by Ezra ARTAXERXES.

acted all by his Eunuchs or Ministers of State.

To him the chief Samaritans sent Letters against the Jews, petitioning that Jerusalem and the Temple might not be rebuilt; for that it had been a rebellious City, and they had been Enemies to All Kings but their own; and if restor'd, They would pay no more Tribute to the Kings of Persia, which would be an ill Example to the other Provinces, Ezra iv. 7—16.

Upon which ARTAXERXES Smerdis, being by Principle an Enemy of the Jews, sent an Order to the Samaritans to cause the Jews to desist from their Buildings; who forthwith came to Jerusalem and put it in Execution: and so the Building of the Temple was retarded for about two Years, till the second Year of the next King Darius Hystaspes.

But SMERDIS was very indulgent to all his other Subjects, granting them Freedom from Taxes and military Services for three Years: and in order to river him in the Throne, He married ATOSSA the Daughter of CYRUS, and the Widow of her Brother CAMBYSES: for He had married her as well as Meroc his other Sister.

But tho' these Arts tended to render him suspected, He continued unknown, till OTANES a noble Persian imploy'd his Daughter Phrydyma (the favorite Concubine of SMERDIS) to search for his Ears; and she informing her Father that the Emperor had no Ears, the whole Fraud was detected; for OTANES and all the World knew that Smerdis the Brother of Patizites had had his Ears cropt by order of CYRUS for some Crime. Therefore OTANES took to him Six other noble Persians call'd by Herodotus, HYDARNES, MEGABYSUS, GOBRIAS, ASPATHINES, INTAPHERNES and DARIUS the Son of Hystaspes the Prefect of Susa; who without Delay enter'd the Palace and slew the Usurper, and his Brother the Contriver of the Fraud, and bringing out their Heads to the People, the Princes declar'd the whole Imposture. But the People were so inrag'd that They slew all of the Usurper's Sect They could find that Day, and agreed to observe it as an annual festival for many Years, calling it Magophonia or the Day of the Slaughter of the Magians, for that Sect then first got that Name from the Usurper, whom the People call'd in Scorn Mage-Gush or Cropt-Card; and the Sect became so contemptible, that They had been extirpated, if they had not been afterwards reviv'd by the Reformation of Zoroastres. See more of the false SMERDIS and what happen'd in his Reign, in Herodotus, Lib. III. Justin. Lib. I. Ctesias, &c.

Mean while the said 7 Princes on the sixth Day, resolv'd to establish the Government as CYRUS had left it; but his Male Offspring being extinct, They agreed to meet on Horseback next Morning, and that He whose Horse should neigh first, should be the EMPEROR. But Darius got his Groom to tie a Mare to the Place where where they were to meet, and to make his Horse cover the Mare the Night before; and so when they met next Morning at Sunrising, DARIUS's Horse remembering the Place where he had cover'd the Mare over Night, ran thither and loudly neigh'd: upon which the other Princes saluted him as their KING, and returning to the City, plac'd him in the Throne; call'd by Historians

4. DARIUS Hyaspes, who in the Beginning of January (now the first Month with them) began his Reign of 36 Years and married first Atossa the Daughter of CYRUS, the Widow of her Brother CAMBYSES and of Smerdis the Magian; and next he married her Sister ARTISTONA; and then PARMYS the Daughter of the true SMERDIS (in honour to Cyrus and to strengthen his Title to the Crown of Persia) and also PHEDYMA the Daughter of OTANES, who had discover'd the Cheat of the Magian: and by these Wives He had a great Issue of Sons and Daughters. But his first main Business was to settle the Government, and he readily granted high Honours and special Privileges to those said Persian Princes, who were to be his hereditary chief Counsellors; and from this Time the Persian Monarchs of this Line had always 7 prime Ministers, as we read in Ezra vii. 14. and Esth. I. 14.

DARIUS sent, by Bagarus, his Royal Orders to those 1000 Persian Soldiers that were the Life-Guards of Oroctes the bloody Governor of Sardis, to cut him off, and to bring his Effects to Susa; which was done: and among the Slaves of Oroctes was brought Democedes the Crotonian Physician; who signaliz'd himself by curing the Emperor of a sore Foot, after the Egyptian Physicians had in vain tortur'd him for 7 Days; upon which DARIUS and his Queens greatly enrich'd Doctor Democedes, advanc'd him to sit at Table with him and gave him all possible Encouragement, only forbidding him ever to return to Greece: nay, tho' DARIUS could have hang'd the Egyptian Physicians, he pardon'd them. But Democedes wanted to see Greece the more that he was forbid; for having cur'd Queen Atossa of a sore Breast, he got her to persuade her Husband to march an Army against the Grecians, who not being rash chose rather to send 15 noble Persians to attend Democedes in viewing all the maritime Places of Greece, and to bring him back safe to Susa: but when He got to Croton his native Place, he married the Daughter of Milo the famous Wrestler, and would not return to DARIUS. But hereby the Persians first knew the Way to Greece.

Upon the Death of SMERDIS the Magian, his Decree against the Jews died with him; and because they neglected to resume the Work of the Temple, God smote the Land of Judah with Barrenness this Year: but on the first Day of the sixth Month (about the Middle of August) in the second Year of DARIUS, and the third Sabbatical Year after the Reduction, the Word of JEHOVAH by Haggai came to ZERUBBABEL the Governor of Judah, and to Jeshuah the High Priest, to inform them of the Cause of this Judgment, to exhort them to renew the Work, and to comfort them in carrying it on: and so on the 24th Day of the same sixth Month, they obey'd the Word of God in beginning to provide again all proper Materials for the Building: and on the 21st Day of the seventh Month (the Beginning of October) Haggai from God assur'd them of prospering in the Work, and promis'd that the Glory of this Temple should in Time exceed the Glory of the former, which was only accomplish'd by the Presence of the promis'd CHRIST in It; for in all other Respects It was vastly inferior. See Haggai I. and II.

In the EIGHTH Month, God sent by Zechariah the Prophet to exhort the Jews to Repentance with many Promises; and on the 24th Day of the ninth Month (the Beginning of December) God sent again by the Prophet Haggai to assure the Jews, that because they had heartily renew'd the good Work, He would remove the Stroke of Barrenness, and send them Plenty: particularly, that It should go well with ZERUBBABEL for his Zeal, Hag. II.

In the Beginning of the next Year, being the third Year of Darius according to the present Reckoning of the Persians (who now began their Year with our January) but the second according to the Jewish Reckoning (who counted now from Nisan about eleven Weeks after the other) the Samaritans hearing the Jews went on with the Temple, renew'd their malicious and subtle Practices to put another stop to it: and so they first complain'd to TATNAI the Prefect of Syria and Palestine; suggesting, that the Jews acted without Authority and against the Interest of the Crown.

Mean while on the 24th Day of the 11th Month (the Beginning of our February) God gave to Zechariah the Revelations contain'd from the 7th Verse of Ch. I. to the 9th Verse of Ch. vi. to shew God's Love to his returning People, and his Vengeance against their Persecutors.

Upon the Remonstrance of the Samaritans, TATNAI with Shetharboznai (the Governor of Samaria) came to Jerusalem, survey'd the Work, and demanded to know by what Authority they proceeded: but the Jews having produc'd a Copy of CYRUS's Decree, Tatnai peaceably retir'd, and only wrote to DARIUS the plain Matter of Fact, advising that Search might be made among the Archives, whether CYRUS granted such a Decree.

Accordingly Search being made, the Original Decree of CYRUS was found among the Rolls at Ekbatana, and DARIUS being CYRUS's Son-in-law, confirm'd it by a Decree of his own, threatening, that whoever should alter the same or hinder its due Execution, should have his House pull'd down, and should be hang'd on a Gallows made of the Timber thereof. This new Decree was sent to TATNAI and Shetharboznai to put it in full Execution, Ezra v. and vi.

Some Time must be allow'd for Tatnai to write, and for the Search to be made for the Original Decree of CYRUS, and for an Answer to be return'd with the new corroborating Decree of DARIUS: and therefore we cannot suppose this new Decree could be publish'd at Jerusalem before this Year, viz. after the Burning of Jerusalem and the Temple just 70 Years.

Thus as the first Captivity by Nebuchadnezzar began in the 4th Year of Jehoiakim, and ended after 70 Years by the Decree of CYRUS; so from the Captivity of Zedekiah, 18 Years after the first, to this Decree of DARIUS, viz. 18 Years after that of CYRUS, are just 70 Years. And so both ways the Prophecy of Jeremiah is accomplish'd.

And now that the Jewish State was restor'd, and the Building of the Temple went on briskly, the Jews in Babylon sent Sharezzer and Regem-Melech to Jerusalem to ask the Priests, if they must observe still those four fasts, which they had observ'd for 70 Years past, viz. 1. On the tenth Day of the tenth Month, when Nebuchadnezzar laid Siege to Jerusalem in the 9th Year of Zedekiah, (2. K. xxv. 1. Jer. lii. 4.) 2. On the 9th Day of the 4th Month; because on that Day the City was taken (2. K. xxv. 3, 4.) 3. On the tenth Day of the 5th Month; because then the City and Temple were burnt, (Jer. lii. 12, &c.) 4. On the third Day of the 7th Month when Gedaliah was slain, (Jer. xli. 1, 2.) to which God gave Answer by Zechariah the Prophet mention'd ch. vii. and viii. Thus Ptolemy's Canon and the Scripture Chronology agree in making it just 70 Years

KINGS of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

Years from the 17th of Nebuchadnezzar (according to the Babylonish Reckoning or 19th according to the Jewish Reckoning) to this fourth Year of DARIUS Hystaspes. But the modern Jews still keep those four Fasts, tho' not exactly on the same Days; because their Calendar is alter'd by Rabbi Hillel, Anno Christi 360.

Pindar the famous Greek Poet was born this Year, if he was aged 40 Years about the Time of Xerxes's coming into Greece.

The Inhabitants of Babylon, not brooking the Neglect of the Persian Monarchs who had made Susa the Capital of the Empire, and taking the Advantage of the Revolutions in Persia upon the Death of Cambyses and the Slaughter of the Magians, began to revolt and set up a King of their own (as they had before revolted from the Affyrians and set up Nabopolassar) in the Beginning of this Year.

But the Jews in that City knowing the many Predictions of God's Prophets against It, and being warn'd by Zechariah, ch. ii. 6—9. to remove from it; which Warning was brought to them last Year by Sharezer and Regem-Melech: and seeing the Babylonians run into Rebellion, they left it and retir'd to more secure Quarters before the Storm came on; which was not long a coming: for immediately DARIUS laid Siege to it during 20 Months.

When the Babylonians saw themselves begirt by the Grand Royal Army, they desperately and barbarously murder'd all useless Hands, Men, Women and Children, except only one Wife for one Man and a Maid Servant; whereby they themselves fulfill'd the dismal Prophecy against them, Isa. xlvii. 9. But these two Things shall come to Thee in a Moment, in one Day, the Loss of Children and Widowhood in their Perfection. At length Zophrus one of the Persian chief Officers, having cut off his Nose and Ears and mangled his Body with Stripes, fled into the City as a Deferter for such cruel Usage, and was by them so far trusted as to be made their General, and so betray'd the City into the Hands of his Master DARIUS, which otherwise was impregnable, because of the Strength and Height of its Walls, its great store of Provisions and the large Ground within the Walls fit for cultivation.

BUT DARIUS beat down their 100 Gates, and lower'd their Walls from 200 Cubits to 50 Cubits, (for all Writers after Herodotus mention only 50 Cubits) slew 3000 of the most active Inhabitants in the Rebellion; and pardon'd the rest, to whom he order'd 50000 Women to be sent out of other Countries, because they had slain their own Women and wanted to be recruited.

And thus the Punishment of Babylon kept pace with the Restoration of Jerusalem, according to the Prophecy, Jer. xxv. 12, 13. for when the 70 Years Captivity from the 4th of Jehoiakim were ended, Babylon was taken and its King Belsbazar slain, and CYRUS made his Decree for the Restoration of Jerusalem and the Temple: so when the 70 Years Captivity from the Burning of the Temple were expir'd, Babylon again is humbled by DARIUS Hystaspes, while Jerusalem and the Temple are rebuilt: whereas Babylon was never restor'd to its former Glory, but languish'd a while and at length ended in a perpetual Desolation, according to the Prophecy of Jeremiah, fulfill'd to this Day.

In the 6th Year of DARIUS according to the Jewish Reckoning, and on the 3d Day of the 12th Month (which answers to part of the 3d and 4th Month of the Babylonish Year beginning with January; and consequently in the Beginning of the 7th Year of Darius after the Babylonish Reckoning; the second Temple of Jerusalem being finish'd, the Dedication of it was solemniz'd just 20 Years after it was founded by the Children

Children of Israel, who offer'd 100 Bullocks, 200 Rams, 400 Lambs, and for a Sin Offering 12 He-goats for All Israel, according to the Number of the Tribes: which plainly shews, that some Israelites of each Tribe return'd with the Jews and Benjamites: but the rest remain'd in Affyria and Chaldea, and in Time were lost by being blended among the Nations.

In the next Month Nisan or first Ecclesiastical Month of the Jewish Year, on the 14th Day of the Month, the second Temple being fitted for divine Service, the first Passover was solemniz'd according to the Law of Moses by all the Children of Israel, with great Joy; for Jehovah had made them joyful, and turn'd the Heart of the King of Affyria unto them, Ezra vi. 22. (for Babylon the Capital of Affyria being reduc'd by DARIUS, He is justly call'd by Ezra the King of Affyria) and thus also from the last Captivity by Nebuzaradan at the End of the 390 Years of Ezekiel, Page 77. to this first Passover, are just 70 Years.

The Samaritans now refus'd to pay their Tribute into the Hands of the Jews, alledging, that the Emperor had ordain'd it only for the rebuilding of the Temple; and that being finish'd, they would pay it for the Future to the Emperor himself. Upon which ZERUBBABEL the Governor, with Mordoccai and Ananias, two principal Men, travell'd this Year to Susa, and complain'd to DARIUS, who forthwith sent his Royal Order to his Officers at Samaria, strictly charging them to pay their Tribute for the Use of the Temple of Jerusalem as formerly; nor do we find any Contest about this Affair till the Days of Sanballat long afterwards. Joseph. Antiq. Lib. XI. cap. 4.

After DARIUS had reduc'd Babylon, He intended to invade Scythia, and having this Year march'd an Army of 700000 Men to the Thrasian Bosphorus, which He pass'd over by a Bridge of Boats, He conquer'd all Thrace, and from thence march'd to the Ister or Danube, where he appointed his Fleet to meet him, which consisted of Grecians: and having cross'd that River by a Bridge of Boats, He landed in that Scythia, which is now call'd Moldavia and Wallachia. But the Scythians led him a Dance for three Months thro' their Woods and Defarts, till the Half of his Army was destroy'd by Counter-Marching and Fatigue; when he was glad to retreat with the other Half, which would have also perish'd, if Hestiaeus Prince of Miletus had not persuaded the other Grecians to stay for him with their Ships, by whose Help He return'd to Thrace, where he left Megabysus Governor, and repassing the Bosphorus, He winter'd at Sardis. This is the XIX JUBILEE.

Megabysus having reduc'd all Thrace came to DARIUS at Sardis: and the Emperor having left his Brother Artaphernes Governor of Sardis, and Otanes Governor of Thrace, He return'd to Shusan or Susa about the End of this Year.

The Scythians in revenge cross'd the Danube, and ravag'd Thrace as far as the Hellepont, and drove Phil- tiades the Prince of the Thracian Chersonesus out of his Country; but on the Retreat of the Enemy, He return'd, Herodot. Lib. V.

DARIUS having built some Ships at Casspatyrus on the upper Parts of the River Indus near the Asiatic Scythia, gave the Command of that Fleet to Scylar a Grecian of Caryandria in Caria; and sent him down the River, in order to discover India, who sail'd into the Ocean, and steering Westward return'd thro' the Straits of Babel-Mandel into the Red Sea, and landed in the 30th Month at the same Place of Egypt, from whence PHARAOH Pecho had formerly sent a Fleet of Phenicians to sail round the Coast of Africa (who turn'd the Cape of Good Hope, and coasted to the Straits of Gibraltar, and return'd thro' the Mediterranean to Egypt about about 2100 Years before the Portuguese, by the Use of the Compass, discover'd the said Cape, A. D. 1497. See Page 63.) and when Scnjar had accomplish'd his Voyage, He left his Fleet and return'd by Land to Susa, and laid his Discoveries before DARIUS, about 2006 Years before the Portuguese discover'd the Cape of Good Hope.

After this, DARIUS march'd an Army into India, and subdu'd that large Country, made it the 20th Præfecture of his Empire, and from thence receiv'd an Yearly Tribute of 360 Euboic Talents of Gold, (according to the Number of the Days of the Persian Year at that Time) amounting to about 1095000 Pounds Sterling.

The ROMANS having banish'd their King TARQUINIUS Superbus, and his Wicked Family, began to be govern'd by CONSULS; and this Year JUNIUS BRUTUS and VALERIUS POPLICOLA were the first.

AMULIUS Sylvius defeated the Succession of his elder Brother Numitor; and while Numitor liv'd retir'd, his Daughter a Vestal Virgin in the 7th Year of Amulius's Reign, brought forth Twin Sons call'd ROMULUS and REMUS, for which she was buried alive: but the Infants expos'd or drop'd at the River Tiber, were found by Fausulus the King's Shepherd: He made a Present of them to his Wife Atia Laurentia, who was nick-nam'd Lupa or the Wolph, and she lov'd the pretty Infants and nurs'd them. When they grew up to be Men, they gather'd a Band of Shepherds, and Thieves or loose People, and became powerful enough to kill Amulius at Alba, and to restore their Grandfather NUMITOR, who reign'd only one Year. They erected this new Government of Annual CONSULS, who during 463 Years had the chief Government of the Commonwealth of Rome, till JULIUS CÆSAR was made perpetual Dictator, Anno Urbis Conditæ 703. A. M. 3959. Before Christ 45.

KINGS of Persia, the JAWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

DARIUS finding he had been preserv'd from perishing in Scythia, by the Conduct of Hesfiacus Prince of Miletus (abovemention'd) sent for him, and offer'd him what Reward He should desire; and he desir'd the Edonian Myrcinus a Territory on the River Strymon in Thrace, in order to build a City there, which was granted him readily, and he had gone about his Undertaking; but by Advice of Megabyses, the Emperor found it dangerous to his Interest, and therefore had artfully sent for Hesfiacus to Sardis, and carried him into Persia, pretending He wanted so able a Counsellor and so faithful a Friend. Upon which Hesfiacus had appointed Aristagoras his Deputy at Miletus.

In Naxos, the greatest Island of the Cyclades, the Mob arose and banish'd the wealthiest Inhabitants, who fled to Miletus, and begg'd the Assistance of Aristagoras to restore them; which he readily promis'd, tho' with a View to make himself Master of Naxos, or to oblige DARIUS with it. Therefore, He went to Sardis and communicated the Matter to Artaphernes, telling him, that by having Naxos, DARIUS would soon have all the Cyclades Islands, from whence they could safely sail to Euboea, an Island as big as Cyprus, and take it easily; whereby He would have an open Passage into Greece: for all which Service Aristagoras requir'd only 100 Ships.

This Proposal pleas'd Artaphernes, and upon the Approbation of DARIUS, He sent to Aristagoras 200 Ships under the Command of Megabates, a noble Persian of the Achemenian or the Royal Family. But the haughty Persian not brooking to be commanded by an Ionian (for by his Commission he was to obey Aristagoras) a Dissention arose, and Megabates in revenge to Aristagoras betray'd the Project to the Naxians, who being provided with all suitable Stores, the Persians, after they had four Months besieg'd the chief City, were forc'd to depart shamefully for want of Stores; the Blame whereof being laid upon Aristagoras by Megabates (who, to be sure, was better heard and more believ'd than the other) Artaphernes demanded of Aristagoras all the Charges of the War. But not being able to pay it, He had no way to prevent his utter Ruin, but the desperate Course of Revolting from DARIUS; to which he was also advis'd the same Time by a Letter from his Principal, Hesfiacus, who being weary of the Persian Court, and longing to be at home, wish'd for a Rebellion in Ionis; that so he might prevail with DARIUS to send him to quash it; as it came to pass: for Aristagoras being confirm'd by the Opinion of Hesfiacus, communicated his Design to the Chiefs of the Ionians, who all agreed to it, and so Preparations were made for putting it in Execution.

The Etrians after Nebuchadnezzar had demolish'd their old City, (Page 79.) and they had gone to their new City in the Island, had continued in a servile and low Condition under a foreign Ruler or Governor during 70 Years, which being expir'd according to the Prophecy, (Isa. xxiii. 15. 17.) They are this Year restor'd to their former Privileges, and allow'd to have a King of their own Nation, even until the Wars of ALEXANDER the Great; because they were necessary to DARIUS's naval Forces against the Ionians; and being now Independent, they recover'd their ancient Glory by their large Traffick to all Parts, and again became the chief Mart of the East.

Aristagoras, to oblige the Ionians at this Juncture, restor'd the People to their ancient Liberty, and beginning first with himself, He abolish'd his own Authority and reinstated the People in the Government, and forc'd all the other Tyrants or Princes of Ionis to do the same: whereby he united them, and being at the Head of the Confederacy, He declar'd open War against DARIUS this Year.

Continuation of TABLE XXIII.

KINGS of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

Aristagoras could not prevail with the Lacedemonians to join him in this War, but with the Athenians he did; because He came to Athens when the People were inrag'd against the Persians, for that Artaphernes had entertain'd Hippias their Exile, and had sent them Word, that if they would be safe they must receive again Hippias for their Prince: therefore, they order'd 20 Ships for his Assistance: He got also 5 Ships from Eretria a City in the Island of Eubœa.

In the third Year of the War, the Ionians and their Confederates sail'd to Ephesus, and landing they march'd and took Sardis, which accidentally was burnt down the Temple and all except the Castle, where Artaphernes defended himself, until sufficient Forces of Persians and Lydians came to relieve him, upon which the Ionians fled towards their Ships, but before they reach'd Ephesus, they were overtaken and overthrown with a great Slaughter. The Athenians went aboard and sail'd home, nor could be ever persuaded by Aristagoras to join him again. When DARIUS heard of the burning of Sardis, and that the Athenians were concern'd therein, He resolv'd on a War against Greece, which afterwards was carried on for several Generations, until it ended in the utter Destruction of the Persian Monarchy. This Year Anaxagoras the Philosopher was born at Clazomenæ. See Diog. Laert.

The rest of the Fleet sail'd to the Hellepont and Propontis, and reduc'd the Byzantines and most Grecian Cities thereabouts; and in their Return got the Carians and Cyprians to come into their Confederacy against DARIUS. Upon which the Persians in Cilicia aboard a great Phenician Fleet sail'd against Cyprus, but were defeated by the Ionian Fleet: tho' the Persian Army having first landed, had conquer'd the Cyprians; so that the Ionians reap'd no Advantage of their Victory at Sea: for the whole Island was reduc'd to DARIUS, and in three Years the Cyprian Fleet came along with the Persian Fleet against the Ionians, and help'd to ruin them.

DARIUS sent three of his Sons-in-law, Daurises, Hymæes and Otanes with an Army, who march'd three several Ways against the Revolters: the first two reduc'd the Carians, and the Cities of the Hellepont and Propontis, and of all the Ilian Coast. But Artaphernes and Otanes attack'd the Enemy's Great Strength, took Clazomenæ in Ionia, and Cyma in Æolia, and oblig'd Aristagoras in Despair to leave Miletus, who getting a good Number aboard with him, sail'd to the River Strymon in Thrace, and laid Siege to Myrcinus (the Place formerly given to Hæstiacus) where next Year He was slain and all his Army cut off.

Daurises overthrew the Carians in two Battels; but they drew him at last into an Ambush and cut him off with all his Army this Year.

Artaphernes and Otanes resolv'd to reduce Miletus the Head Quarters of the Confederacy. Upon which the Ionians resolv'd to have no Land Army, but to strengthen their City for a long Siege, and to fight the Persians only at Sea, and mann'd 353 Ships of War. Tho' the Persian Fleet was double their Number, they were afraid of an Engagement till they had by Emissaries corrupted the Samians, Lesbians and others, who at the Beginning of the Battel deserted and sail'd home, and left the Ionians to be destroy'd. Upon which Defeat their belov'd Miletus was besieg'd by Sea and Land, was soon taken and utterly demolish'd; in the first Year of the War.

The Milesians were carried off and were sent to DARIUS, who sent them to inhabit the City Amphæ at the Mouth of the Tygris and Euphrates, where they join and run together into the Persian Gulph, near the present City Basra, where they continued a Grecian Colony for many Ages.

KINGS of Persia, the Jew- and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

After taking Miletus and reducing all the Carians, the Persian Fleet (which consisted mostly of Phenicians, Cyprians and Egyptians) took in Samos, Chios, Lesbus and the rest of the Islands; while the Land Army conquer'd the Cities of the Continent, which they burnt with their Temples, made Eunuchs of their finest Boys, and sent their Virgins into Persia as Merchandize: As for Hestiacus, He had lately deceiv'd DARIUS to send him to quell the Revolt in Ionia, and had been guilty of many Plots and open Rebellion from the Time He left Persia: for when he arriv'd at Sardis, He drew several Persians into a Plot; but fearing Artaphernes, he fled in the Night to the Island of Chios: but the Chians were at first jealous of him, and put him in Prison till they were sure he was an hearty Enemy to DARIUS; and then convoy'd him to Miletus: but the Milesians having got Possession of their Liberty by Aristagoras, would not hear of parting with it, nor let him come into their City; nay, having repuls'd him by Force, He return'd to Chios; from whence he sent Word to the Ionians, that he had engag'd in the War to preserve the Ionians from being transplanted into Phenicia, and the Phenicians into Ionia, as DARIUS had design'd: which was a political Lie; whereby the Ionians were influenc'd to hazard all. From Chios he sail'd to Lesbus, where he got eight Ships of War, and sail'd to Byzantium, where he turn'd Pirate at the Bosphorus, and became very powerful. But hearing of the taking of Miletus, he left his Affairs to his Lieutenant, return'd to Chios and made himself Master of the Island: and from thence with a great Army of Ionians, he sail'd to Thasus an Island on the Thracian Coast, but soon left it to defend Lesbus against the Persians; and from thence landing on the Continent to plunder the Country, his Army was beat by Harpagus a Persian General, who took Hestiacus Prisoner and sent him to Sardis, where Artaphernes had him publicly crucify'd without consulting DARIUS, lest such a dangerous Enemy should have been pardon'd, as he well conjectur'd; for DARIUS was much griev'd when his Head came to him, and order'd it to be honourably buried; because of his former Merit. He was the most able Politician of his Age, tho' not the most Fortunate.

After the Land Armies and the Phenician Fleet in the Persian Service had subdu'd all the Greek Islands on the Asian Coast, Artaphernes sent them to subdue those on the European Coast. But when they reach'd as far as Tenedos, Miltiades the Prince of the Thracian Chersonesus would not stay their coming, but pack'd up his All on board five Ships, and sail'd for Athens his native Place, only in the Way one of the Ships and his Son Metiochus the Commander was taken by the Phenicians, and being sent to Susa, DARIUS treated him generously, married him to a noble Persian Lady, and gave him a suitable Estate; and he never return'd from Persia. But his Father Miltiades got safe into Athens with his other four Ships, of whom I exhibit here the following Genealogy, DARIUS having recall'd his other Generals, now sent another Son-in-law, Artabanus a noble Persian to command in those maritime Parts, to invade Greece and punish the Athenians and Eretrians for burning Sardis. He march'd from the Hellespont thro' Thrace into Macedonia with an Army, where all the People submitted to him: but not securing his Camp well, the Thracians fell upon him in the Night, wounded him and slew a vast Number of his Men: so that he was disabled, and quickly retir'd to the Coast to go aboard his Fleet, which he had order'd to take in Thasus and to attend him; but he only found the Remains of it; for while doubling the Cape of Mount Athos (now call'd Capo Santo) 300 of their Ships were destroy'd by a Storm, and above 20000 of their Men. So Artabanus retreated into Asia without gaining any Honour.

Next Year DARIUS to try which of the Grecians would submit, sent Heralds to demand Earth and Water, the Symbol of Submission; and many Grecian Cities, dreading the Power of the Persians, submitted: but the Athenians and Lacedemonians in a Rage, flung the one Herald into a Well, and the other into a deep Pit, bidding them fetch Earth and Water from thence; whereby They violated the Law of Nations, and afterwards repented of it.

When DARIUS heard of the ill Success of Artabanus, he recall'd him, and sent Datis a Median and Artabanus a Persian (the Son of Artaphernes late Governor of Sardis) to punish the Athenians and Eretrians for burning Sardis.

And now the famous ZOROASTRES the Magian and his Sect flourish'd, He is call'd by the Persians Zardusht or Zaratush. the greatest Improver except MAHOMET that ever appear'd, and a very learned Man; whereas Mahomet was an ignorant Man.

Upon the Slaughter of the false Smerdis, and those of his Sect, then first call'd Magians, their Religion was almost lost at Court, where most People profess'd the Sabian Religion in Opposition to Smerdis: but the Magian being the old Religion of the Medes and Persians, it was capable of a Revival by artful Zoroastres, by way of Reformation; for being a Jew and once a Servant of some Jewish Prophet, he was well skill'd in the Jewish Learning, and reform'd the old Magian Religion much after the Mosical, first in Media, and then in Bactria, under the Protection of HYSTASPES the King's Father and the Governor, who had still adher'd to the Way of the Magians, and erected the Great Fire-Temple for the Archimagus ZOROASTRES at Balch the Governor's Residence in Bactria. See Dr. Prideaux's historical Connexion. And now ZOROASTRES came from Balch to Susa, the Court of DARIUS, this Year, where in Spite of the great Opposition of the principal Sabians, the other great Sect, he soon made DARIUS his Profelyte, and his Sons too, with the Courtiers, the chief Nobility, the eminent Gentry and wealthy People; whereby, it became the Religion of the Empire, and so continued for many Ages, till it was much suppress'd by Mahometanism; but still a Remnant of them are found among the Persians, the Mogolians and other Indian Nations, who have preserv'd his Book that contains their Religion, which is by them rever'd as the Bible by the Christians, or the AlKoran by the Mahometans. He call'd his Book Zendabestia or Zend, signifying a Fire-Kindler, containing his Liturgy and other Parts of his Religion; which, he said, he had from Heaven, and presented it to DARIUS bound in 12 Volumes, each of 100 Skins of Vellum, the Persians then using to write on Skins. The Book is preserv'd still in the old Persian Language and Character, by transcribing a Copy of it to be kept in every Oratory and Fire-Temple among them, even to this Day. One of the greatest Errors in it, was an Allowance of all Sorts of Incest, on purpose to gratify the Persians, which prevail'd untill ALEXANDER the Great made a Law against it.

Datis and Artaphernes arrived on the Coast of Ionia this Year, and gathered an Army of 300000 Men and a Fleet of 600 Ships. They rendezvous'd their Fleet, with the Army aboard, at Samos, and sailing to Naxos, burnt the chief City of the Naxians and all their Temples: And having reduced all the other Islands, They sail'd to Eretria, took their chief City in seven Days, burnt it and captivated all they found. From thence They sail'd to Attica, and by the Guidance of Hippias, the exil'd Prince of Athens, They drew up in the Plain of Marathon; where the brave MILTIADES met them at the Head of 10000 Athenians and 2000 Plataeans, who with so small a Force gave the Persians a total Rout with the Slaughter of 6400 Men on the spot, among whom was Hippias, and the rest fled to their Ships, and sail'd back to Ionia with Disgrace, having lost in this Expedition 200000 Men: only they sent the captive Eretrians to DARIUS, who sent them to inhabit a Village in Cissia about a day's Journey from Susa, whose Descendants were long after found there by Apollonius Tyanus. On the 3d Day of Tili, or 25th of our April of this Year, half an Hour before Midnight, an Eclipse of the Moon was observ'd at Babylon, Ptol. Mag. Synt. Lib. IV. cap. 9.

DARIUS was not discouraged by the Defeat of his Generals, but rather excited to prosecute his Purpose against the Athenians even in Person, and sent Orders through all his Provinces to arm the whole Empire for a Descent upon Greece. But after Three Years Preparation for this War

KINGS of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

In the fourth Year Egypt revolted; which gave DARIUS a double Trouble: Yet he was resolved to overcome both, by sending a part of his Forces against Egypt, and to lead the other part himself against the Grecians.

After ZOROASTRES had established his Religion in Persia, He return'd as Archimagus or Head of the Sect to Balch in Bactria, and reign'd in Spirituals as DARIUS did in Temporals thro' all the Empire, whereby some Authors have call'd him King of Bactria. But having endeavour'd to make a Profelyte of Argasp King of the Oriental Scythians, and strengthen'd his Arguments with the Authority of DARIUS, Argasp a zealous Sabian and hating Authority in arguing, invaded Bactria, defeated the Forces of DARIUS, slew HYSTASPES and Zornasires and the So Priests of his Grand Fire-Temple, and destroy'd all the Fire-Temples there, in the 35th Year of the Reign of DARIUS.

DARIUS was soon aveng'd of the Scythian, before he made his Retreat, by a great Slaughter, rebuilt the Fire-Temples, and became the Archimagus himself; tho' he enjoy'd not that Spiritual Dignity above one Year; and at his Death order'd it to be engraven on his Tomb, that he was the Master of the Magians or Head of the Church; and from hence forward the Persian Monarchs were reckon'd to be of the Sacerdotal Tribe, and were initiated into the sacred Order of the Magians before they were crown'd.

The Greeks esteem'd ZOROASTRES as the great Master of all human and divine Knowledge; for he instructed the Priests of his Order in Physiology, Astronomy and other Mathematical Studies of the Indian Brachmans; whereby their Credit was advanc'd, when in time a learned Man and a Magian were equivalent Terms; till at length the Vulgar, by wrong Apprehensions, thought them under the Influence of supernatural Powers, and call'd them Conjurers or Magicians, corruptly for Magians, whereas the true and eminent Magians were only fine Scholars.

When Pythagoras was sent from Egypt captive to Babylon (as on Page 94. and 95.) he came acquainted with ZOROASTRES, and by him was instructed in many useful Parts of Knowledge, and fitted to set up for himself at the Head of a new Sect upon his Return to Greece; tho' he was not so pure as his Master, mixing the Doctrine of the Soul's Immortality with that of the Transmigration, which he had learn'd in Egypt.

But before DARIUS would take the Field, He settled the Succession, according to Custom; especially, that a Controversy happen'd between Artabasanus (or Artemines or Ariamenes) his eldest Son by the Daughter of Gobrias, and Xerxes his eldest Son by Atossa the Daughter of the Grand CYRUS: the first pleaded his Right of Primogeniture; but Xerxes pleaded his Right by Descent from CYRUS the Founder of the Monarchy, and that tho' Artabasanus was the eldest Son of Darius, yet, He was the eldest Son of the KING, his first born after he became King, and produc'd a Precedent from the Lacedemonians, suggested to him by Demaratus the exil'd King of Lacedemonia, then residing at the Persian Court: and his Mother Arossa having the whole Ascendant of DARIUS, prevail'd with him to declare XERXES his Successor. This was the most amicable Contest for a Crown that was ever heard of: for the Brothers treated each other with all Decency and Affection the whole Time; and after the Decision did Xerxes insult or Artabasanus repine, but cheerfully wish'd his Brother Joy and ever faithfully adher'd to his Interest, till he died in his Service in the Grecian War.

KING of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together,

BUT this Year DARIUS fell sick and died, and left both the Egyptian and Grecian War to be carried on by
5. XERXES, who quietly succeeded in the Throne.

This HISTORY growing larger, swells the Book beyond my Intention; and therefore I must shorten It; but shall not omit any material Things, nor any Chronological Dates for the sake of the Genealogical Tables and Catalogues; leaving the Reader to consult the Authors quoted for the ample History of the Things here mention'd.

XERXES employ'd the first Year of his Reign in settling the Government, in preparing for the Egyptian War, and in confirming to the Jews at Jerusalem the Privileges granted by his Father, especially their having the Tribute of Samaria for furnishing Sacrifices and supporting the Divine Service of the Temple.

But in the second Year, XERXES marched against the Egyptians, whom He thoroughly conquered soon and brought them under more heavy Bondage than ever; and leaving Achemenes his Brother the Governour of the Province, He return'd at the End of the Year to Susa.

The same Year was Herodotus the famous Historian born at Halicarnassus in Caria; for he was 53 Years old when the Peloponnesian War began. Aul. Gell. lib. XV. cap. 23.

And now XERXES, flush'd with Success and prompted by Artabanus his Brother-in-law, resolved upon a War with the Grecians, and began now to prepare for it during three Years.

The same Year JOSHUAH the High Priest of the Jews died at Jerusalem in the 53d Year of his Office, or after his Father died, and was succeeded by his Son Jehoiahim. See Chronicon Alexandrinum, and Neb. xii. 10.

In order to prosecute his Grecian War, XERXES engaged the Carthaginians into a League with him; that they might attack the Sicilians and Italians the Descendants and Confederates of the Greeks, and so to keep them from helping each other; and the Carthaginians employ'd Hamilcar to be their General, who by the Money of XERXES rais'd an Army of Africans and of others from Spain, Gaul and Italy of 300000 Men with a good Fleet, Diod. Sic. Lib. II. according to the Prophecy of Daniel, chap. xi. 2. having by his strength and great riches stirred up all against the realm of Grecia. And so XERXES, in the 10th Year after the Battel of Marathon, marched his grand Army from Susa to Sardis, where he winter'd and refresh'd his Troops.

XERXES early in the Spring cross'd the Hellespont by two Bridges of Boats with an Army of 2317610 Men in all by Sea and Land, having 1207 Ships of War, besides 3000 Gallies, Transports, Victuallers and Tenders; besides 300000 Land Men he got from the Grecian Countries on this side that submitted to him, and 220 Ships, aboard which were 24000 Men: So that when he reached the Straits of Thermopylac, his Army consisted of 2641610 Men, besides Eunuchs, Women, Servants, Sutlers, &c. that were computed to be as many more: So that the whole number of People that follow'd him were at least five Millions. See Herod. Lib. VII. Plutarch. in Themistocle. Isocrat. in Panathenaico, which is esteemed a juster Account than that of Diodorus, Pliny and Aelian, because Herodotus liv'd in that Age, and is the most ancient Writer of this War; and it best agrees with the Monuments of the Grecians slain in this War, and with the general Account of the Antients, who all esteem'd this the greatest Army that was ever brought into the Field. Continuation of TABLE XXIII.

KINGS of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together

How Ironidas King of the Spartans was slain in bravely defending the pass of Thermopylae against XERXES; how XERXES then enter'd the Country of the Athenians, who left their City and went all aboard their Fleet, securing their Wives and Children in distant Cities out of his Reach; how the Grecian Fleet harra's'd That of the Persians; how Themistocles the Athenian General with only 300 Ships of War, defeated, took and destroy'd the Great Fleet of the Persians at the Straits of Salamis, and forc'd the Remainder to shear off to the Asian Coast, which forc'd XERXES to retreat in haste to the Hellepont, for fear the victorious Grecian Fleet should obstruct his Passage, and leaving Mardonius with 300000 Men to carry on the War in Greece, XERXES shamefully pass'd over and winter'd at Sardis: How at the very same Time, the Carthaginians, who had invaded Sicily, were more wretchedly defeated by Gelo King of Sicily, &c. may be seen at length in the above cited Authors.

Mardonius winter'd in Thessaly and Macedon; and early in the Spring march'd his Army into Bæotia; sent Alexander I. King of Macedon with Proposals of Accommodation to the Athenians; which They reject'g, He march'd into Attica, sack'd Athens and ruin'd the Country. But the Athenians (who had fled as before) being join'd by the best Forces of all Greece at the Isthmus of Corinth, Mardonius retreated to Bæotia and encamp'd by the River Æsopus, whither the Greeks amounting to 120000 Men march'd under the Command of Pausanias King of Lacedæmon and Aristides the Athenian General; and near the City of Plataea gave Mardonius a total Rout, slew him and cut his Army of 350000 Men in Pieces, except Artabazus, who fearing the Event, escap'd in Time with 40000 under his Command to Byzantium, and from thence into Asia.

In the Afternoon of the same Day that the Battel of Plataea was fought, the Persian Fleet at Mycale on the Asian Coast was destroy'd by the Grecian Fleet, commanded by Arctichides the other Lacedemonian King and Antippos the Athenian, who were invited by the Ionians to deliver the Greek Cities of Asia from the Persian Yoke; and the Ionians revolting to the Grecians when landed, They beat the Remains of the Persian Army, took the Rampart and burnt all their Ships.

Thus in about a Year, all XERXES's vast Army was destroy'd except the Troops of Artabazus, many of whom died of Diseases, &c. after which the Persians never came into Greece.

Upon these Defeats XERXES left Sardis, and in all haste return'd to Persia. But his vast Loss in this unhappy Expedition was made up by the vast Spoils of the Grecian and Asiatic Temples, which he had demolish'd, all except that of DIANA at Ephesus; and in his Return to Susa He went to Babylon, where he spoil'd and destroy'd their Temples exactly as was foretold long ago in Isa. xxi. 9. Jer. L. 2. and li. 44. 47. 52. and took away the Treasures of many Ages. But XERXES pleaded it was all done from a Principle of Religion; for he was a Magian, had Ostanes (then the Archimagus) as his Captain in the Army with him: but the Magians detesting the worshipping of God by Images, influenc'd him to demolish all the Idol Temples in his Way. Cicero de Legibus, Lib. II.

The Grecian Fleet sail'd to the Hellepont to demolish the Bridges of XERXES; but found They were gone by the Storms; only a few Materials were found, They brought to Athens to be laid up as Monuments. The Ionian Cities in Asia now revolted from the Persians, and maintain'd their Liberty by the Help of the Greeks.

KINGS of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

The Greeks having settled their Affairs, sent Pausanias the Lacedemonian King and Aristides the Athenian with a Fleet to Cyprus, where They beat the Persian Garrisons out of the Grecian Cities, and restor'd them to their ancient Liberty, Diod. Lib. II. Plutarch. in Aristide. About this Time Aeschylus the Tragedian flourish'd, Euseb.

Mean while XERXES having at Sardis fallen in Love with the Wife of his full Brother Darius, and finding her Virtue impregnable, He next fell in Love with her Daughter Artayuta and gain'd her; which Damastiris his Queen perceiving, and believing it all owing to the Mother's Contrivance (who was wholly innocent) begg'd of XERXES on his Birth-day to have that Lady in her Power, which XERXES, after a Struggle, basely granted: and L. being seiz'd by the Guards, Damastiris forthwith caus'd her Breasts, Tongue, Nose, Ears and Lips to be cut off and thrown to the Dogs before her Face; and then sent her home thus mangled. When Masistes came home, he immediately mov'd off with all his Family for Bactria, where he was Governor; but on the Road They were all cut off by a Party of Horse sent by XERXES; O cruel, barbarous Lust and Murder, owing to Arbitrary Power in a single Person! Herodot. Lib. IX. This same Queen Damastiris another Time, caus'd 14 noble Persian Boys to be buried alive as an Offering to the Infernal Gods; whereby it appears, that she could not be Queen ESTHER the Jewess, as some very learned Men have thought from the Similitude of the Name.

After the Murder of Darius, XERXES appointed his second Son Dystaspes to be Governor of Bactria. The Grecian Fleet sail'd from Cyprus to the Hellepont and took in Byzantium, where Pausanias treacherously sent off the eminent Persians there taken, pretending They had made their Escape; for by them he sent a Proposal to XERXES of betraying Greece to him, upon Condition of getting one of his Daughters in Marriage: and Pausanias now affecting the Pomp and Tyranny of the Persians, disgusted his Lacedemonians, who call'd him home and publickly censur'd him, and put their Fleet under the Direction of the Athenians, who thus obtain'd the chief Command at Sea in all Greece for many Years.

Yet Pausanias in a private Ship, without Commission from the States, sail'd to the Hellepont, on pretence of fighting against the Persians as a Volontier; but really to be near Artabazus now made Governor of the Propontis on purpose to treat with him, which being discover'd, the Lacedemonians sent for him home, imprison'd him and put him to Death, Thucyd. Lib. I. Plutarch. in Aristide and Themistocle, Corn. Nep. in Paulania.

After King Gelo, Hieron reign'd at Syracuse in Sicily, and next Year Pindar the famous Poet flourish'd, Euseb.

Themistocles having been a great Instrument in raising the growing Grandeur of Athens, drew on him thereby the Rage of the Lacedemonians, who now accus'd him of being a Confederate of Pausanias in his Treason against Greece: but They could not prove it and he was acquitted. But next Year

Themistocles was banish'd Athens, not for any Crime, but by Ostracism, or for securing the publick Peace and Liberty: for thus overgrown Men were banish'd for a certain Time. See in the above cited Authors, how He retir'd to Argos, how the Lacedemonians accus'd him before the General Council of all Greece, and forc'd him to run his Country and to surrender himself at Susa to XERXES; who first paid him 200 Talents as what he had set upon his Head, and gave him all Protection and Encouragement.

Mean while Cimon the brave Son of Miltiades sailing from Athens with a Fleet, conquer'd Æione on the Stramon with other Parts of Thrace; and then the Island of Seyrus and Naxus. And next Year

Cimon sail'd with 200 Ships to the Coasts of Asia, where he was join'd by 100 Sail of Allies, and took in all the Sea Coasts of Caria and Lycia: then sail'd to the Mouth of the River Eurymedon, where he took a great

Continuation of TABLE XXIII.

KINGS of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

Perſian Fleet and 20000 Men aboard; and that ſame Day, landing his Men ſluſh'd with Victory, he defeated a great Perſian Army aſhore that had been there muſter'd for ſome great Expedition: then ſail'd further and deſtroy'd 50 Ships in a Phenician Harbour, that were bound to join the Fleet in the Eurymedon; and ſo return'd glorious to Athens. And now Sophocles the Tragedian flouriſh'd, Euseb.

Next Year he ſail'd to the Helleſpont, drove the Perſians out of the Thracian Cherſoneſus; and again ſubjected that Country to the Athenians; ſubdu'd Thrace and all the Countries as far as Macedon; and for not ſubduing that Kingdom too, He was, when return'd, try'd for his Life, and narrowly eſcap'd Condemnation.

And now XERXES quite daunted by a Series of Loſſes, gave over all Thoughts of the Grecian War, ſent no more Fleets and Armies into thoſe Parts, and gave himſelf wholly over to Luxury, Luſt and Eaſe; whereby he became contemptible; ſo that Artabanus the Captain of his Guards got Orithridates the Eunuch to aſſiſt him, enter'd the Royal Chamber and ſlew XERXES aſleep in Bed: then acquainted ARTAXERXES the King's youngeſt Son, that his elder Brother Darius had murder'd his Royal Father, who with the Help of Artabanus forthwith ſlew his Brother in juſt Revenge, as he thought: and his other Brother Dystaspes, the next Heir, being in Bactria at the Head of his Government, ARTAXERXES was plac'd in the Throne by Artabanus, who deſign'd He ſhould be no longer King than till he had form'd a Party ſtrong enough to be King himſelf. But ARTAXERXES coming ſoon to the Knowledge of all by Megabytes, (who had married one of his Siſters) he was beforehand with Artabanus and cut him off; after he had reign'd, according to Eusebius, 7 Months the latter Part of the 21ſt Year of XERXES. And ſo removing this grand Obſtacle,

6. ARTAXERXES, call'd by the Grecians Μακρόχρως Longimanus or Longhanded, got peaceable Poſſeſſion of the Throne and reign'd 41 Years, call'd alſo AHASUERUS, the Husband of Queen ESTHER the Jewess; as Dr. Prideaux has well prov'd. Yet the ſeven great Sons of Artabanus headed the ſtrong Party their Father had form'd, and drew into the Field; but ARTAXERXES defeated them and puniſh'd all concern'd in the Murder of his Father XERXES, particularly Orithridates who was boated, or put to Death between two Boats. When this was over, the King ſent an Army into Bactria againſt his Brother Dystaspes, who fought a bloody Battel and maintain'd his Ground this Year.

But next Year ARTAXERXES rais'd the Grand Poſſe of the Empire, overthrew Dystaspes and well ſetled his Government. See Cteſias, Diodorus Siculus, Plutarch, Strabo. After theſe Succeſſes

ARTAXERXES Longimanus or AHASUERUS appointed a ſolemn Rejoicing at Shuſan or Suſa in Feaſtings and Shows during 150 Days; at the End of which He made a great Feaſt during ſeven Days for all his Princes and People; as his Queen VASHTI did in her Apartment for the Women. And here comes in the History of the Book of Eſther: for VASHTI on the 7th Day reſuſing to come to ſhew her Beauty before the King and his Princes, was degraded and divorc'd; and the King by Advice of his ſeven Counſellors made a ſtanding Law, that all Wives ſhould obey their Huſbands, and that every Man ſhould rule in his own Houſe; and Orders were given to gather the faireſt Virgins out of all the Provinces to Suſa; that from among them the King might chuſe another Queen.

Among them the fair Vir in HADASSAH the Couſin of Orondetai of the Tribe of Benjamin reſiding at Syca was taken and committed to the Care of Hagai the Chamberlain, who had the Cuſtody of the Virgins: and after ſhe had been puriſh'd about 12 Months, ſhe was, among the firſt, brought into the King's Preſence, and ſo won his Heart that ſhe became his darling Concubine, but not Queen yet.

KINGS of Persia, the JEWS and CONTEMPORARIES all together.

This Year the Egyptians revolted from the Crown of Persia, and made Inarus Prince of the Lybians their KING, and got the Athenians to assist them.

ARTAXERXES sent his Brother Archamenes with an Army of 300000 Men against Egypt, who incamp'd on the Banks of the Nile. But the Athenians having destroy'd the Persian Fleet, sail'd up the Nile, landed their Forces with their General Charitimus, who join'd Inarus, overthrew the Persian Army with a Slaughter of 100000 Men, among whom was Archæmenides himself, and the rest fled to Memphis, but were pursu'd by Inarus, who took in two parts of that City, and blokaded the Persians in the third call'd the White Wall, where They defended themselves near three Years till they were reliev'd.

The King, irrag'd at the Athenians, endeavour'd in vain to bribe the Lacedemonians against them; and therefore He rais'd an Army and equipt a Fleet against them, and order'd Themistocles to take the Command thereof, and to chastise the Athenians: but rather than fight against his Country, and not knowing how to decline the Command, he invited his Friends together, sacrific'd a Bull, drank a large Draught of his Blood, and so died, after he run his Country 13 Years, the Beginning of this Year, much about the Time that ARTAXERXES made a Decree to restore and settle the State and Church of the Jews, according to their own Laws, with which the next Table begins.

Continuation of TABLE XXIV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Persian Monarchs, of the Jews, and of their Contemporaries from the Beginning of Daniel's 70 Weeks, upon the first Decree of ARTAXERXES Longimanus, A. M. 3546. To the End of the first 7 Weeks of Daniel, or the End of the holy Scriptures of the old Testament, A. M. 3595. during 49 Years.

ARTAXERXES Longimanus.

THE Prophecy of Daniel's 70 Weeks or 490 Years is mention'd on Page 88. They now begin this Year and reach to the Death of MESSIAH the Prince, or the Crucifixion of our Lord JESUS CHRIST, which was in the Month Nisan in the Year of the Julian Period 4746. From which deducting 490

It follows that in the same Month Nisan, these Years began upon the Decree of ARTAXERXES to restore Jerusalem, An. Per. Jul. 4256 for the executing of which Decree, the said Emperor and his Counsellors gave an ample Commission to Ezra the holy Priest and learned Scriba, the Grandson of Seraiah the High Priest that was slain at Riblah by Nebuchadnezzar, Ezra vii. and this extraordinary Favour seems to be obtain'd by the Solicitation of ESTHER the King's favourite Concubine; tho' she was not yet made Queen, nor had avow'd her being a Jewess, by the Direction of her good Cousin Mordecai the Benjamite.

EZRA rendezvous'd at Babylon all the Jews, Benjamites and Israelites, that were willing to return to Palestine with him to the Number of 1754 Males, besides the Heads of Families and the Women; with whom he began his Journey from Babylon on the first Day of the first Month Nisan, or about the Middle of March, and safely arriv'd at Jerusalem on the first Day of the fifth Month, or in four Months; and having deliver'd up to the Temple the Offerings of the King and his Nobles and of the Jews and Israelites that did not return, amounting to 100 Talents of Gold, with 20 Golden Basins worth 1000 Daries, with 650 Talents of Silver, and Silver Vessels weighing 100 Talents; EZRA shew'd his Commission to the King's Lieutenants in those Parts; whereby he was empower'd to settle both the Church and State of the Jews according to the Law of Moses, Ezra viii. and he began to execute it very faithfully during 13 Years, even till Nehemiah came with a new Commission for the same Effect.

On the 10th Day of the tenth Month Tebeth, of the Jewish Year beginning with Nisan, or in our December at a solemn Feast, call'd ESTHER'S Feast, the King put the Royal Diadem upon her Head, and proclaim'd her QUEEN in the Stead of Vashti in Presence of his Princes; and in Honour to her releas'd the Provinces of Taxes, and gave great Presents to all about him that solemn Day, Esth. ii. The News of which would greatly encourage Ezra to carry on his Reformation.

EZRA this Year assembled all the Men of Israel at Jerusalem, to make them part with their foreign Wives according to the Law of Moses, Ezra ix. 10. and about this Time Bigthan and Teresh, two Eunuchs or Servants of the Door of the Palace of Susa, conspir'd against the Life of ARTAXERXES, being very likely the Favourites of the late Queen Vashti; and would have slain him, if Mordecai had not timely discover'd it and acquainted ESTHER with it, who in his Name acquainted the King; for which Attempt the two Traitors were crucify'd, and the History of the whole Matter was enter'd on the publick Registers or Annals of the Kingdom, Esth. ii.

Empedocles and Parmenides the Poetasters now flourish'd, Euseb. Chron.

Megabytus this Year march'd an Army to Memphis, while Artababius Commander of the Persian Fleet met him up the Nile, whereby the Persians blockaded in the White Wall were reliev'd. and joining the fresh Army, Megabytus defeated Inarus with a great Slaughter: but Inarus retreated with the Athenians to Biblus in the Island Prosopitis surrounded by the Nile, where the Athenian Ships drew up in a safe Creek, and were besieg'd by the Persians about 10 Months: but the rest of the Egyptians submitted, except Amyrtaeus, who reign'd many Years in the Fens, where the Persians could not fight him. Zend flourish'd and Pharecydes the Historian, Euseb.

At length the Persians, by making many Channels, drain'd that Branch of the Nile where the Athenian Fleet lay, and made an open Passage to the Island; upon which Inarus and the Athenians capitulated, upon Condition of saving their Lives: but the far greater Part of the Athenians perish'd in this Expedition; nay, and 50 Ships of War more that were sent to the Relief of Biblus, sailing up the Nile after the Capitulation, were shut in by the Persian Fleet, and almost all destroy'd in this sixth Year of the War, when Egypt was again reduc'd under the Persian Yoke during all the Reign of ARTAXERXES, Thucyd. Lib. i. Ctesias, Diad.

Jochim the High Priest of the Jews being dead, was succeeded by his Son Chasib this Year, during 40 Years, Chron. Alex. Neb. 2. 23. ## ARTAXERXES Longimanus.

that all the Jews, Men, Women and Children, be that Day cut off throughout the Empire; he got the Scribes to write Copies of it, and on the 13th of Nisay He sent them to the King's Officers in all the Provinces to put it in Execution. But to obviate the Objection against it, with respect to the Taxes, Haman offer'd 10000 Talents of Silver, which if only Babylonish Talents, amount to 2119000 Pounds Sterling, to make up the King's Damage, but if Jewish Talents amount to twice as much; but the King very generously declin'd it, and granted all he desir'd without any Equivalent. Upon this Mordecai and all the Jews in Susa mourn'd, and he engag'd his Cousin Queen ESTHER to intercede with the King for the reverting of that cruel Decree; as is well narrated in the sacred Book of Esther: but the Decrees of the Persians not being reversible, all she obtain'd was another Decree on the 23d Day of the 3d Month, to empower the Jews every where to cut off their Enemies that should offer to execute Haman's Decree; Copies of which were sent throughout all the Provinces.

Mean while Megabysus having reduc'd all Egypt to ARTAXERXES (except the Fens where Amyrtaeus reign'd) He made Sartamas the Governor of Egypt and return'd to Susa, carrying with him Inarus and his Grecian Prisoners, which the cruel Queen Mother Damesiris demanded to be put to Death, for the Loss of her Son Achamenides; but the King would not yield, and confirm'd the Capitulation of Megabysus.

When the 13th Day of Adar drew near, the Enemies of the Jews prepar'd to execute Haman's Decree; and the Jews prepar'd to execute ESTHER's Decree: but the Governors, Rulers and other Officers of the Provinces, hearing that Haman had been hang'd on the Gallows 50 Cubits high, which he had erected for hanging Mordecai the Jew, that ESTHER was his Cousin, and that Mordecai was advanc'd in Haman's Room to be the prime Minister; They countenanc'd the Jews, who slew on that Day 75000 of their Enemies throughout the Empire, and in Susa 800 with the ten Sons of Haman, who were hung up on their Father's Gallows. And in Commemoration hereof, ESTHER and Mordecai instituted an annual Fast on the 13th of Adar, and an annual Feast on the 14th and 15th, which the Jews observe to this present time.

The Athenians sent Cimon with 200 Sail against Cyprus, who took some Towns there, and sent 60 of his Ships to the Assistance of Amyrtaeus in Egypt.

Cimon now fell upon Artabazus, destroy'd many of his Ships, took 100 and pursu'd the rest to the Phenician Coast, and on his Return he landed in Cilicia, and defeated Megabysus with a great Slaughter of his numerous Army; and sail'd back to Cyprus with a double Triumph.

ARTAXERXES weary of the War, made Peace with the Grecians, the Terms of which are recited by Dind. Lib. II. and Plutarch in Cim.

The Emperor being incessantly importun'd for five Years by his Mother Damesiris to deliver up to her Inarus, and the Athenians, at length yielded; and the cruel Woman caus'd Inarus to be crucify'd, and the Heads of the rest to be struck off; without any Regard to publick Faith. Upon which Megabysus, greatly offended, retir'd to Syria his Province where he rais'd an Army and rebell'd, Thucyd. Grekes.

ARTAXERXES sent Otiris at the Head of 200000 Men to suppress that Rebellion; but Megabysus defeated him in Battel, wounded him and took him Prisoner and put all his Army to flight; yet at the Request of ARTAXERXES he releas'd him and sent him home; and next Year the Emperor sent another Army thither commanded by Menastanes his Nephew, the Son of Artarius; who being totally routed by Megabysus, the Emperor sent his said Brother Statius, and his Sister Amytis the Wife of Megabysus, by whose Mediation the Difference was made up, Megabysus was pardon'd and return'd in safety to Court. But the old Grudge in the King, upon the first slipper Occasion, shew'd itself most violently, for at Hunting, Megabysus having in Zeal struck at a Lyon ramping against the King, ARTAXERXES alledg'd it was Treason in him to strike the Beast first or before him; and therefore order'd his Head to be struck off; and his Wife Amytis and her Mother Damesiris with much Difficulty prevail'd with the inrag'd absolute King to get the Sentence chang'd to perpetual Banishment: and so he was sent to Cyra on the Red Sea, where he resided about five Years.

Ezra continu'd till the End of this Year in the Government of Judah, reforming and settling the State and Church of the Jews according to the Law of Moses, as may be seen at length well drawn forth in Dr. Prideaux's Connection.

Rehemiah the next Governor was one of the King's Capbearers, a Native of Susa, whose Forefathers were Inhabitants of Jerusalem, which he calls the Place of his Father's Sepulchres; and he obtain'd a Commission, by the Influence of Queen ESTHER, to be the Governor of Judah, and particularly to rebuild the Walls and Gates of Jerusalem, which Nebuchadnezzar had demolish'd: so that tho' his Commission did supersede that of Ezra, yet under his Authority Ezra went on in his good Work as briskly as before; because Rehemiah tho' not so learned, was as hearty for the Reformation as Ezra. But how he rebuilt the Walls and Gates of Jerusalem, like a good Architect, in about 52 Days with great Expedition; how he struggled with false Prophets and Cowards within the City, and defended himself against Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite, Geshem the Arabian, the Samaritans, the Moabites, and all their Confederats the bitter and irreconcilable Enemies of this good Work, who expected to make a Prey of Judah, as formerly during the Captivity, if Jerusalem should not be fortify'd: how he eas'd the People of the exorbitant and illegal Burden of paying Usury, about 12 per Cent. per Annum to their rich Brethren; how he settled the Government in the Hands of good Men, and then return'd to the King at Susa according to Order; may be all seen in the Canonical Book call'd by his Name.

Rehemiah this next Year return'd with a new Commission to Jerusalem, and first set about the peopling of the City, obliging the great ones to build Houses in it, whose Example was follow'd by other People; so that it soon recover'd its ancient Splendor; for some Time after this, Herodotus the Historian travell'd thro' Judah, and describes it Lib. III. by the Name of Eadytis, comparing it to Sardis the great great Metropolis of Iesser Asia. 'Tis true his History was approv'd at Athens the Year before, according to Eusebius; and Dionysius Ha- licarnassensis, Pliny, Strabo and Diodorus Siculus mention his going this very Year (being the 310th Year of Rome according to the Varronian Reckonings, and 12 Years before the Peloponnesian War) with a Colony of Athenians into Italy to inhabit Thurium a City newly built where Sitaris formerly stood: from which it may seem, that he had finish'd his Travels for the composing of his History. But it was only the first Draught of it that was approv'd at Athens the Year before, and it was not compleated till about 33 Years after; for Lib. VII. and IX. He mentions Affairs done in the second and in the 19th Year of the Peloponnesian War about 33 Years after his History was approv'd at Athens, when he was aged 39 Years only, tho' he liv'd 72 Years in all. For at Thurium he revis'd his Book, from which Pliny concludes that he compos'd it there: but from thence he travell'd into the East to enable him to complete it, and to gather Materials for another Book by him design'd about Assyria and Babylon, to which he refers in his first Book, tho' it is not extant; and in those Travels he went thro' Judab and view'd Jerusalem.

Continuation of TABLE XXIV.

ARTAXERXES Longimanus.

Jeremiah also purg'd the Jews of false Brethren, by revising and fixing their Genealogies, and order'd all Israel to come to Jerusalem, and celebrate the Fest of Trumpets and the Fest of Tabernacles according to the Law of Moses; which Law Esra did then publicly read and explain to the People; and having now got many Copies of it transcrib'd, They sent one to every City with a Levite to read and explain it to the Inhabitants at certain Times; for which end They soon erected Synagogues; for till now there were no such Edifices.
And now thro' all the known Earth there was profound Peace, as Diodorus Siculus affirms this Year. —————
Spegybates now return'd from his Banishment, disguis'd in the Habit of a Lepor, to his House at Susa after five Years Absence; and by the Intercession of his Wife was reconcil'd to ARTAXERXES, who receiv'd him again to his Table. The Samians and Milesians began a War for the Town of Priene in Caria, to which they both had an equal Pretence; but the Samians refusing to refer the Controversy to the Athenians, these join'd the Milesians and sent Pericles with 40 Ships against Samos, which he soon reduc'd and changed their Government by Nobles into a popular Government. Thucyd. Diod. but after Pericles departed, the Nobles and their Party procur'd 700 Men from Philocles Governor of Sardis to join them and revive their Government; professing themselves the open Enemies of the Athe- nians: but these reduc'd them again by Pericles after a Siege of 9 Months. —————
Spartacus now became King of the Cimmerian Bosphorus in this 3d Year of Olympiad 85. Diod. —————
Seleucus succeeded Spartacus in the Kingdom of Bosphorus. —————
Jeremiah after he had govern'd Judab with great Honour, and at his own Cost 21 Years, return'd this Year to the Persian Court. Neb- and Meton the famous Athenian Astronomer, observ'd and fix'd the Summer Solstice on the 21st Day of the Egyptian Month Phame- notis or 27th of June in the Morning: from which time the Greeks ever afterwards celebrated their Olympic Games, on the first full Moon after the 27th of June every fifth Year. And thus Meton invented and instituted the Cycle of the 19 Years, call'd Enneadecaeteris, which is the Circle of the Moon, beginning it on the 15th Day of July this Year, being the new Moon that first follow'd this Summer Solstice, Protem. Mag. Synt. Lib. III. cap. 2. Diod. Sic.
This Cycle was us'd by the Christians after the Council of Nice, in settling the time of Easter, and after them by the Jews in settling the time of their Pasover.
The Peloponnesian War, between the Athenians and Lacedemonians, began the latter end of this Year, and lasted 27 Years, Thucyd.
Arcefilaus King of the Cyrenians was now by them slain, and They expell'd his Son: and so the Cyrenian Kingdom, after it had lasted 200 Years, is at an end. It had been rul'd by four of the Name of Battus, and four of the Name of Arcefilaus, alternatively succeeding each to other, Herodot. Lib. IV. cap. 163.
In the first Year of the Peloponnesian War, on the 3d of August at 5 a Clock after Noon, the Sun was eclips'd at Athens to ten Digits; so that the Stars were seen, Thucyd. Lib. II. Plutarch. in Pericle, Val. Max. Lib. VIII. cap. 2. and now three noble Historians flourish'd, viz. Hellanicus aged 65 Years, Herodotus aged 53, and Thucydides aged 40, Axi. Gell. Lib. XV. cap. 23. and Thucydides has given us an accurate History of this War to the 21st Year of it.
About the same time a most horrid Pestilence begun in Ethiopia, which overspread all the known World. This Plague is mention'd by Thucydides, Lucretius, Hippocrates the eminent Phylician, who refus'd the great Offers of ARTAXERXES to come to Persia, as his Townsmen in the Island Cos defy'd his Threatnings and would not deliver him up: but next Year the Plague reaching to Athens, Hip- poocrates went thither. —————
Jeremiah having said at Susa about five Years, obtain'd of the King to be sent back to Jerusalem with a new Commission to reform many Abuses which happen'd in his Absence. See Prideaux: and about this Time Isaiah prophesied; for he complains of some of these Abuses. —————
Jeremiah was also sent to the King of the Ammonites having married the Daughter of Sebban King of the Ammonites and to settle his Son Sebban to the Throne of Ammon, the Son of Herachab another great King of Ammon who had been slain in the War of Ammon in the Year of Ammon his Absence, and Chiasib the High Priest to provide him Lodgings in the Temple of Ammon at Rabban. Jeremiah also ejected Isaiah an old inveterate Enemy, and settled the Affair of Matrimony between Isaiah and Jeremiah and to settle the Sacerdotal Office: and this Year Plato the Philosopher was born.

| 1. In the 10th Year of the Peloponnesian War, the Plague again broke out at Athens; and much People being destroy'd by it, They made a Law for Bigamy or two Wives to every Man that would. Socrates the Philosopher us'd first that Privilege then aged 43 Years, and was deservedly plagu'd by a couple of vile Scolds, Athenians, Lib. XIII. Laert. in Socrat. In the 7th Year of that War ARTAXERXES sent Artaphernes his Ambassador with Letters to the Lacedemonians, Thucyd. Lib. IV. and next Year They sent their Ambassadors to Susa, who when They landed at Ephesus return'd home; because They heard there that ARTAXERXES was dead, which was in the third Month of his 41st Year; and was succeeded by 7. XERXES his only Son by Queen Esther, who reign'd only 45 Days, till he was slain asleep in his Bed-chamber by his Bastard Brother, viz. 8. SOGDIANUS or Secundianus, who prov'd a wretched Tyrant and reign'd 6 Months and 15 Days, till he cowardly submitted to another Bastard of ARTAXERXES call'd Ochus the Governor of Hyrcania, who came with an Army to dethrone him and to revenge the Death of XERXES; and getting Sogdianus once in his Power, Ochus cast him into Aches till he died: this Manner of executing great Offenders is describ'd, 2 Mac. xiii. 5, 6. An Eclipse of the Sun is mention'd by Thucydides, Lib. IV. on the 21st Day of March before Noon, whereby the Sun was darken'd about the half of its Diameter as appears by the Prutenical Tables. When Ochus mounted the Throne the end of this Year He call'd himself 9. DARIUS NOTHUS who reign'd 19 Years, being plac'd in Ptolomy's Canon next to ARTAXERXES Longimanus. Arctes this King's full Brother, rais'd an Army to dethrone him, and was join'd in the Rebellion by Artaphilus the Son of Megaby- sus; but the King in time defeated them, got them in his Power, and by Advice of his political and cruel Queen Barpatis, He cast them into Aches, with Pharnaces and Monsathenes the Eunuchs, for their Hand in the Death of poor XERXES. The Delians expell'd by the Athenians got from Pharnaces Agramptium in Asia to dwell in, Diod. but Next Year the Athenians, warn'd by the Oracle of Delpbi, restor'd to the Delians their Island, Thucyd. The Byzantines, Chalcidians and Thracians, committed great Massacre and Havok in Bithynia, Diod. This is the XXIst Year of JUBILEE, the last that the Prophets of the Old Testament saw; for we read of no Prophet after Malachi till John the Baptist of whom he prophesied, Mal. iv. 5, 6. This JUBILEE was transacted in the 38th Year of Eliashib the High Priest the Father of Joiabab, the Father of Johanan, the Father of Jadduah or Jaddus, now an Infant and the Heir of the High Priesthood; for he is mention'd Neb. xii. 22. as recorded in the Days of Eliashib among the Family of the High Priests; tho' Jadduah did not enter upon the Office till his Father Johanan died before Christ 342 about 73 Years after this Year. But after the Prophets, the Men of the Great SYNAGOGUE succeeded to direct the Jews, or the Sanhedrim. This Year Pisuthnes Governor of Lydia rebell'd against DARIUS, and set up for himself by the Help of the Greeks, but the King sent Artaphernes against him, who craftily drew the Greeks to his Side; upon which Pisuthnes surrender'd himself on promise of Pardon; but the King call him into Aches: tho' after his Death, his Son Amorgas continu'd in Arms about two Years till taken by the Peloponnesians and deliver'd to Tisaphernes, who put him to Death. DARIUS next put Artocrates to Death, the Chief of the Eunuchs for a Conspiracy. But the greatest Misfortune of DARIUS was the Revolt of Egypt this same Year, which he was never able to reduce; for Amyrtaeus the Sise finding the Egyptians weary of the Persian Yoke, left his Fens, rais'd an Army, drove the Persians out of the Country, and reign'd King of Egypt during six Years, Ensch. Chron. Herodot. About this time also Diagoras the Melian was condemn'd at Athens for Atheism. In this 19th Year of the Peloponnesian War, an Eclipse of the Moon happen'd at Syracuse on the 27th of August at ten a Clock after Noon; which so terrify'd Aristas the Athenian General, who was to draw off his Army from Syracuse this Night, that slipping the Tide, he and his Army were cut off. See Thucyd. Lib. VII. Polyb. Lib. IX. and the other Authors. And now ELIASHIB the High Priest of the Jews being dead after he had officiated 40 Years, he was succeeded by his Son Joiaba this Year, who also officiated 40 Years. Artaphernes Governor of Lydia, and Pharnabazus of the Hellespont, both crafty Men, made the best Advantage They could for their Master of the Peloponnesian War, sometimes aiding the Athenians, and sometimes the Lacedemonians; in order to keep a Ballance and to weaken both; till Cyrus came to be Governor of the Asian Provinces. In this 20th Year of the Peloponnesian War, it was carried on hotly, as may be seen in Thucyd. Lib. VIII. And next Year a League was made between the Lacedemonians and DARIUS: but the continuing Grecians made strange Havok upon each other both by Sea and Land, as Thucydides relates, whose curious History ends here. See Diod. in An. 2. Olymp. 92. Continuation of TABLE XXIV.

ARTAXERXES Longimanus.

And now the first seven WEEKS of Daniel's SEVENTY WEEKS, end, being 49 Years; for the Restoration of the Church and State of the Jews in Jerusalem was completed by the last Act of Achemiah's Reformation Ch. xiii. 23, &c. Just 49 Years after Ezra began it in the 7th Year of ARTAXERXES Longimanus. This Reformation was the Removal of all unlawful Marriages, which Corruption, after the mix'd Multitude had been expell'd, prevail'd among the People; nay, even in the sacred Pontifical House, which of all others ought to have been kept free of impure Commixtures: for one of the Sons of Jotada the High Priest (call'd by Josephus Sanasleus) had married the Daughter of Sanballat the Heronite, whereby an ill Example was given. Therefore zealous NEHEMIAH exerted his utmost Power to reform this Enormity, and forc'd all the Jews, who had married strange Wives, either to part with them or to depart the Country. Upon which Sanasleus unwilling to part with his Wife, departed with her to Samaria with all that were in his Circumstances, and settled under the Protection of Sanballat his Father-in-law then Governor of these Parts. And DARIUS very likely coming into Palestine this Year, to give Directions for the War against the Egyptians, Sanballat obtain'd from him a Grant to build on Mount Gerizzim near Samaria a Temple like That of Jerusalem, and to make Sanasleus his Son-in-law the High Priest of it: They chose that Mount, because it had been long consecrated by the Sacrifices and Altars of ABRAHAM and JACOB, and thought that God might be worship'd according to his own Mosaicall Institution, as well there as at Jerusalem; for that Jerusalem is never spoken of by Moses, and is not the only Place in the Holy Land appointed for divine Service.

THE CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE of the Persian Monarchs, of the Jews, and of their CONTEMPORARIES from the 14th Year of DARIUS Nothus, A. M. 3594. To the Death of Darius, or the Beginning of the End of the PERSIAN Monarchy, or to the Beginning of the GRECIAN, A. M. 3674. during 80 Years.

DARIUS NOTHUS and ARTAXERXES Mnemon Kings of Persia.

THE Temple of GERIZZIM or SAMARIA being founded by Sanballat, who made Sanasseh the High Priest of it, Samaria now became the Asylum of all Malescontent and refractory Jews, who, when call'd to Account, fled from Discipline to Samaria, where They found Reception: so that in time the greatest Part of the Samaritans were made up of Jews; for the Cutheans and other Nations that had been planted there by Sennacherib, being now made Profelytes to the Mosaiscal Religion, could not in some time be distinguish'd from the Jews; but being a mix'd People, were in general call'd Samaritans. But the Jews of Jerusalem abhorr'd them more than the Heathen, curs'd them in the Name of Jehovah, would never eat nor drink, nor traffick, nor marry with them, and even declar'd They had no Part in the Resurrection of the Dead to eternal Life. This Opposition was known in the Time of Christ's Ministry, as we read in the Evangelists; for the Jews said to Christ, Thou art a Samaritan and hast a Devil!

When NEHEMIAH died, we know not: and after him, Judah had no peculiar Governor, but was annex'd to the Government of Syria, under whose Prefect the High Priest of Jerusalem regulated all Affairs there. And now the Prophets and the Old Testament-History are at an end, We must trace the Transactions of Providence thro' the Remains of other Histories. About this time Sophocles died at Athens: and Dionysius dominiee'd in Sicily, Euseb.

While DARIUS was engag'd in War against the Egyptians, the Medes revolted but were soon reduc'd. And Next Year Amyrtæus being dead, was succeeded in this new Throne of Egypt by NEPHERITES who reign'd 6 Years, says Eusebius, but Herodotus Lib. III. affirms, it was PAUSIRIS the Son of Amyrtæus, who succeeded by the Favour of the Persians; which imports that the Persians had again subdu'd Egypt and set up this Tributary King.

And now DARIUS, by the Influence of his Queen Parysatis, sent his younger Son Cyrus born by her, to Sardis as the supreme Governor of lesser Asia, tho' aged only about 16 Years, with a particular Charge to help the Lacedemonians against the Athenians; contrary to the wise Conduct of Tissaphernes, who was for keeping the Ballance between them.

Spartacus being dead, his Son Satyrus succeeded to be King of the Cimmerian Bosphorus, during 14 Years. While Cyrus imprudently assists the Lacedemonians, and the Athenians grow weaker and weaker; an Eclipse of the MOON is mention'd by Xenophon (Hellen. 1.) on the 15th of April about the third Hour after Sunset; as is also prov'd by the Calculation of Astronomers.

CYRUS at Sardis put to Death two of his own Cousins, his Father's Sister's Sons; only because They did not wrap their Hands in their Sleeves at meeting him, as Men did when They met the King: upon complaint of their Parents, DARIUS recall'd him to Susa, pretending Sickness and that he wanted to see him before he died. But before he took Journey, Cyrus gave such large Sums to Lyfander the Lacedemonian General, as enabled him to pay, rig out and strengthen his Fleet; whereby he gain'd the memorable Victory over the Athenians at the Goats Ribet in the Hellespont, and totally demolish'd the State of Athens: for They were not able to hinder him from subduing all their Cities and Countries, and at last Athens itself, which was this Year besieged by the Lacedemonians.

The Athenians at last were forc'd to a Surrender, upon the hard Conditions of dismantling their City, and giving up their Fleet; Alexius being then Archon at Athens, viz. on the 14th of April (according to Plutarch in the Life of Lyfander) whereby the Government of All Greece was vested in the Lacedemonians, after They had contended for it, in a very insarp War, full 27 Years, call'd the Peloponnesian War, curiously narrated by Thucydides and Xenophon. And soon after the End of this War

DARIUS Nothus died, after he had reign'd 19 Years and a few Months: for the End of that War and the Death of Darius happen'd in the Beginning of next Year, or in the first Year of his Successor, viz.

10. ARTAXERXES Mnemon. Cyrus had reached Susa before his Father's Death; and his fond Mother Parysatis endeavour'd, tho' in vain, to get DARIUS to declare him Successor; but he only got his former Government, the old King leaving the Crown to Artaces his eldest Son, whom DARIUS advis'd on his Death-bed, so do all things just both towards God and Men! Artaces took the Name of ARTAXERXES, and the Greeks call'd him MNEMON for his great Memory. He order'd Cyrus to be put to Death for conspiring to murder him in the Temple of Pergada, when he was to be inaugurated according to ancient Custom: but their Mother Parysatis obtain'd his Pardon, and he was sent to his Province: tho' he carried with him the same Ambition and traiterous Design. And this Year also the King was prevail'd upon by his Queen Statira to put Utiages in her Power; and she order'd his Tongue to be drawn out of his Neck till he died, for his having slain her Brother Teriteuchmes, as the whole tragical Story is related by Ctesias.

Nebuch Lib. II. Hellenicorum, informs us that this Year happen'd an Eclipse of the Sun, which by Calculation of Astronomers must have been on the third of September in the Morning.

Abiabates the brave Arabian General was unjustly put to Death, at the Request of the Lacedemonians by Pharnabazus the Persian Governor, who had come to him in order to go to Persia, and to discover to the King the Designs of Cyrus against him, in employing Clearchus

Continuation of TABLE XXV.

ARTAXERXES Queenon King of Persia.

Clearchus the Lacedemonian to raise an Army of Greeks, on pretence to fight the Thracians, but really to dethrone ARTAXERXES: and in his Death ended all the Athenians Hopes of a Restauration.

Cyrus got over to him the Cities under Tissaphernes, wrote Letters against him to the King, and in shew to go to War against him, rais'd more Forces; nay, and got the Lacedemonians cunningly to order their Fleet to join that of his own, and to be directed by Tanus his Admiral.

About this time Isocrates the Orator flourish'd, and Democritus the Philosopher died, Enseb.
Cyrus at last with 100000 Persians and 15000 valliant Greeks, pass'd the Straits of Cilicia (which Sinnesis the King of Cilicia could not defend, because Cyrus's Fleet diverted him) and bravely march'd to the Plains of Cunaxa in Babylon; and ARTAXERXES (being warn'd by Tissaphernes, who had gone to inform him of all) met him with an Army of 900000 Men, where the Matter came to a decisive Battel. in which ARTAXERXES was wounded, but Cyrus was slain, just as the Greeks had almost got the Victory for him on the other Wing: but upon his Death the Persians prevail'd; only the Greeks at such a vast Distance from home, had no way of returning but by breaking thro' the Enemy and marching thro' their Country; which they resolv'd upon next Day, and bravely accomplish'd it thro' innumerable Difficulties, by the way of Pablagaza; the longest and most famous Retreat that ever was made thro' an Enemy's Country, being 224 Miles, till They got safe into Greece: as is describ'd by Xenophon the Historian, who was also their General and conducted the whole Retreat; Clearchus having been cut off in the Beginning of this War. See Diod. in An. 4. Olymp. 94. Isocrat. in Panegyrico. ARTAXERXES rewarded Tissaphernes with the Government of Cyrus, and gave him his Daughter in Marriage: but the King did ill in letting his Mother Parysatis cruelly torment to Death all that had any hand in the Death of her belov'd Cyrus: Nay, she poison'd his dear Queen Statira, for an old Grudge, by poisoning a Knife on one side, with which a rare Bird was cut in two at Supper; and that Part of the Fowl which touch'd the poison'd side of the Knife being given to Statira, she died in a few Hours. 'Tis true, upon the Discovery, the King banish'd Parysatis to Babylon, but in some Years he permitted her to return to Court, and she never more cross'd him in any thing, Enseb. Plutarch. in Artax.

This Year Sapphites being dead, Achoris succeeded to be King of Egypt during 12 Years, Enseb. call'd Psammitichus by Diod. Lib. XIV.
Tissaphernes now settled in his Government, began to bear hard upon the Grecian Cities in Asia, who pray'd the Protection of the Lacedemonians; and They sent Timbro with an Army against Tissaphernes: but observing no Discipline and distressing those he came to protect, He was recall'd and banish'd; and They sent Dercyllidas the famous Engineer, who prudently making Peace with Tissaphernes, march'd against Pharnabazus, took several Cities from him, forc'd him to a Peace upon good Terms and winter'd in Bithynia, Diod.

Conon, one of the Athenian Generals, had fled out of the Battel of the Goats River (when he saw the Cause lost) with 9 Ships, sent one to Athens with the bad News, and sail'd with the rest to Cyprus; where he was well entertain'd by EVAGORAS King of Salamin; with whom ARTAXERXES was then at Enmity, for having expell'd Abdymon the Persian Governor of Salamin, and reigning in his stead. About this time, Conon, by his old Friend Ctesias, obtain'd Peace from ARTAXERXES for Evagoras. This Ctesias had been Physician to Cyrus, and after the Battel of Cunaxa, had cur'd ARTAXERXES of his Wounds, and was therefore retain'd at Court as chief Physician for 17 Years; during which time, having inform'd himself of the Histories of those Countries, he digested them into 23 Books; the six first containing an Account of the Empire of the Assyrians and Babylonians, from NINUS and SEMIRAMIS to the Grand CYRUS, and the other 17 Books were of the Persian Affairs from the Beginning of CYRUS to the 3d Year of the 95th Olympiad, (which is the next Year) as Diodorus tells us it ended. He wrote also an History of India: of both which we have only some Extracts written by Photius; in which Ctesias often contradicts Herodotus, and differs in some things from Xenophon: Aristotle and Plutarch count him fabulous; but Diodorus, Strabo and Tragus Pompeius have follow'd him.

Socrates the famous Philosopher now 70 Years old, was this Year put to Death by the Athenians for contemning their Gods, and died a Martyr to the Being of one God only: of which They afterwards repented and put to Death all his Prosecutors, Laert. in Socrat. Plato in Socrat. Diod. Lib. XIV. Stanley's History of Philosophy Part III.

Dercyllidas, after he had made a Truce with Pharnabazus, march'd his Army from Bithynia to the Thracian Chersonesus, where he built a Wall at the Libanus, which includes Eleven Grecian Cities to secure them from the Inroads of the Thracian Free-Booters. But Pharnabazus went to Sals and accus'd Tissaphernes for making a scandalous Peace with Dercyllidas, and advis'd the King to equip a great Fleet, and to give the Command of it to Conon the Athenian, in order to secure Asia and to curb the Lacedemonians; which was order'd to be done.

Dercyllidas, after he had declar'd Athens manly'd into Greece, where it was drove to great Straits by the joint Armies of Tissaphernes and Pharnabazus, who chose a Truce than a Battel, contrary to the Opinion of Conon, who was for going to Sea, and sent in the first Ship to Greece to inform the Athenians of the Affairs of Asia. Dercyllidas was one of those Kings to Lysias, with 1200 Foot and 400 Horse, who went to the Hellespont, where they met the Persian Fleet, upon which Tissaphernes play'd a Truce.

a Truce and obtain'd a Truce with the Persians for when he had got his Auxiliaries he broke the Truce, and threatn'd War against Agessius, which he did with success. But Agessius nothing daunted, march'd into Perrygia, and returning into Ionia with great Spoils winter'd at Ephesus.

The Lacedemonians were now sent to the King of Egypt (call'd by Diodorus NEPHEREUS the Successor of Psammitichus, who is said to reign 6 Years, call'd by Justin and Origen HARTECHUS, but according to Eusebius it was ACHORIS) to sollicite his Aid against the Persians, who sent them 100 Gallies and 60000 Bushels of Corn: while Pharax the Lacedemonian Admiral with 120 Sail besieged Conon, who had 40 Sail at Carmus in Caria: but the Persian Army reliev'd him and forc'd Pharax to retire; and Conon getting a Fleet of 80 Ships sail'd to the Doric Chersonese, but was soon recall'd by the Rhodians, who being weary of the Insolence of the Lacedemonians, drove them thence and came under his Protection: and the Ships with the Corn from Egypt, not knowing of it, put in at Rhodes and were all seiz'd by Cyren, the enemy near City and his Fleet were well stor'd; and 90 Ships from Phenicia joining him; He was able to do any thing if he had not been hinder'd by a Mutiny of his Soldiers for want of pay.

Mean while, Agessius finding the Horse of Sisaphernes without the Fort, attack'd and beat them in Lydia, and became Master of the Field: and Conon going to Susa and accusing Tithraustes of not remitting Money to pay his Soldiers, the King was so inrag'd that he sent Tithraustes to take the Government of Iesser Asia, and to send him the Head of Sisaphernes. Tithraustes offer'd to restore Liberty to the Grecian Cities in Asia, and made Agessius quiet by a Present of 30 Talents. The Lacedemonians now sent him a new Commission of Generalsissimo by Sea and Land; and He made Pisander his Wife's Brother Admiral of the Fleet, while he himself march'd into Perrygia, and then into Paphlagonia by the Invitation of Spithriates a Persian Revolter, where he made a League with King Coty's; and returning into Perrygia he winter'd in the Palace of PHARNABAZUS at Dascylium. But Tithraustes brib'd Thebes, Athens, Argus and Corinth and other Cities of Greece to confederate against the Lacedemonians, in order to draw Agessius out of Asia and furnish him Work at home.

And so the Lacedemonians were oblig'd to send for Agessius, while he had made Peace with Pharnabazus, and design'd to march into the Heart of the Persian Empire; complaining at his Departure that the Persian Daries had drove him thence, Plutarch. Xenoph.

But Conon returning with Money, equipt the Fleet, took Pharnabazus aboard, sail'd to Cnidus, where he totally beat the Lacedemonian Fleet, in which Daniel Pisander was slain and 50 Ships were taken, and by which the Empire of the Lacedemonians in those Parts ended, Arrian. for now Conon and Pharnabazus took in all the Cities of the Lacedemonians in the Isles and Sea Coasts of Asia, except Sestus and Myra in the Hellepont.

Next Year Conon and Pharnabazus sail'd and took in the Island Melae, and from thence invaded Laconia the Country of the Lacedemonians, which they ravag'd and spoil'd. But when Pharnabazus return'd home, Conon obtain'd of him 80 Ships and 50 Talents to go and rebuild the Walls of Acroia, in order to its being again the Rival of Lacedemon; which he effected with great Dexterity and Expedition, and restor'd the City to its pristine State, giving the Money among his fellow Citizens, and so became the second Founder of Acroia. Upon which the Lacedemonians sent Anaxibides their Ambassador to Tiribazus the Persian Governor at Sardis, while the Confederates sent also their Ambassadors thither, among whom was Conon from Athens: Anaxibides offer'd to the King all the Grecian Cities of Asia, which the others opposing, the Treaty was ineffectual. Therefore the Lacedemonians spitefully accus'd Conon of purloining the King's Money in building of Athens, and of designing to take Eolis and Ionia from the Persians to be again Subject to Athens: which Tiribazus believing, clapt the brave Conon in Chains, went to Susa and acquainted the King of it, who sent for Conon and there put him to Death: Strabo for his Country! Herodotus but Emilius Probus and Dion write that He escap'd and got home.

Darius being dead, Leteus his Son succeeded to be King of the Cimmerian Bosphorus, during 40 Years, Diod. in An. 4. Olymp. 96.

While Tiribazus was at Court, the King sent Strabus to take Care of the Sea Coasts of Iesser Asia; where finding the Havok made by the Lacedemonians, he abhor'd them, and so became a Friend of the Athenians: upon which the Lacedemonians sent Thymbro into Asia; but the Persians cut him off and dissipated his Forces. Then They sent Deiphobus and others, but to no Purpose; for They never prosper'd after the Battle of Cnidus: so that at last they were forc'd to give up all in Asia by a Peace dishonourable to Greece.

ARTAXERXES being now almost free from the Grecian War, turn'd his whole Power against EVAGORAS King of Salamin, who had made him self Master of almost all Cyprus except the Anastusians, the Schani and the Citians, whom ARTAXERXES assist'd with 50000 Talents, or 500000 Millions Sterling, Herodotus.

The Athenians being formerly oblig'd to EVAGORAS, and referring the Death of Conon, equipt ten Ships of War, and sent them to his Assistance under the Command of Pausanias: but They were all taken by the Lacedemonian Fleet at Rhodes: thus the Enemies of the Persians destroy'd those that were engag'd against the Persians, Xenophon.

ACHORIS succeeded Psammitichus in the Kingdom of Egypt, and reign'd 12 Years according to Diodorus, Lib. XV.

But according to Eusebius this Year Psammitichus succeeded Achors for one Year, and NEPHEREUS for four Months.

Plato is now acknowledg'd a Philosopher.

ARTAXERXES Sonnen King of Persia.

not a Son, and the Impediment must be removed. NECTANEBS gather'd sufficient Forces to harraße the Persians till the death of the King, who was killed by a Persian, and having lost a great Part of their Army, the Persians were forc'd to retire. The King's Son, who was call'd CONON, went aboard of a Ship and got safe to Athens.

ELACORAS King of Sabea, was succeeded by his Son ENACHIS, and NICOCLES his Son succeeded in the Throne, the same for whom Ihera is compos'd one of his Oracles. And now Josada the High Priest of Jerusalem being dead, his Son JOHANAN, call'd also Johanan, succeeded him in that Office and held it 32 Years.

The Thebans, not agreeing to the Peace of Antalcidas, fell upon the Lacedemonians whom They routed in the Battel of Leuctra, under the Direction of EPAMINONDAS, slaying Chloridas one of their Kings and 4000 Citizens of Lacedemon, the greatest Loss They had receiv'd in many Ages; for the Thebans pursuing their Victory came into Laconia and laid Siege to Lacedemon, which was difficultly preserv'd from falling into their Hands.

Upon which the Lacedemonians sent Agessilaus into Egypt, and Antalcidas to the Persian Court to sollicite Succours: but Antalcidas not succeeding, broke his Heart and starv'd himself to Death, Plutarch in Agessilaus & Artaxerxe.

HOWEVER, ARTAXERXES sent Philiscus to compound the Differences of Greece, who finding the Thebans too high in their Demands sent 2000 Auxiliaries to the Assistance of the Lacedemonians and so return'd.

Seuenchis King of Egypt being Dead, was succeeded by Etho who reign'd 2 Years, Euseb.

The Thebans sent to ARTAXERXES their Ambassadors, as did also Athens and the other Cities of Greece, by whom the King sent Letters, charging the Lacedemonians to let Messena be a free City, which was the Cause of their War with the Thebans: but when the Cities of Greece met by their Delegates, They would not comply with the King's Order; and ARTAXERXES could not at this time execute his Threatnings.

Etho King of Egypt being dead, was succeeded by NECTANEBUS, who reign'd 18 Years, Euseb.

ARTAXERXES sent another Embassy to the Greeks, whereby he prevail'd to make them cease from War, tho' not to subscribe to his Terms, Diad.

About this time Jehozab the Brother of JOHANAN the High Priest of Jerusalem, having obtain'd a Grant of the High Priesthood from Bagozes the Persian Governor of Syria and Peenicia, came with it to depose his Brother, and to take Possession of the Office, which occasion'd a Battel in the Inner Court of the Temple in which Johanan slew Jehozab, whereby the Holy Place was profaned. This drew Bagozes to Jerusalem, who in spite of the Jews enter'd into the Holy Place, and finding the Fact to be true, He impos'd a Mulet on the Temple, to pay out of the publick Treasury 50 Drachms for every Lamb sacrific'd, which might amount to above 2000 Pounds per Annum, which was exacted for about 7 Years while he was Governor, Joseph. Antiq. Lib. II. cap. 7.

This fell out in the XXII<sup>d</sup> Year of JUBILEE.

EUDOXUS the Philosopher now flourish'd with PLATO.

CLEARCHUS now treacherously obtain'd the Kingdom of Heracles in Pontus, and cruelly reign'd there during 12 Years, vic.

A new War breaking out in Greece between the Arcadians and Ælians, the one Party was assist'd by the Thebans under EPAMINONDAS, and the other by the Lacedemonians and Athenians under AGESILAUS, which produc'd the famous Battel of Maninea, where the Lacedemonians were defeated; but the Thebans lost more by the Death of EPAMINONDAS, for with him expir'd the Vigour of their State that never after flourish'd. Upon which all the Grecian States came to a general Peace, and restor'd the Messenians to their Liberty.

MITHRIDATES King of Pontus being dead, ARTAXERXES appointed Artobarzanes Governor of Phrygia to mount the Throne, where he reign'd 26 Years, Diad.

Usser and Præstant agree, that after the Death of Reganebus, TACHOS succeeded this Year in the Throne of Egypt, so call'd by Pyrrhus, Lib. VII. Strabon and Thamus by Arctus, Lib. I. Oeconomic, and by Julius Africanus he is call'd TAOS and TEOS. See also Corn. Nep. Plutarch in Agessilaus Lib. XV. and He is said to reign two Years. But according to Eusebius, This is the 3d Year of King NECTANEBUS, as above noted. Those who Historians relate how TACHOS got AGESILAUS, with an Army of Lacedemonians, to assist him against the Persians, how Tachos del. Agessilaus for his mean Appearance; for which he join'd with those Egyptians that revolted from Tachos, and set up his Kinsman NECTANEBUS: how another Pretender got 10000 Men to assist him and shut up Reganebus: how AGESILAUS by his Prudence and Valour went forth and defeated the Besiegers, and having sedd NECTANEBUS in the Throne, he set forth a Fleet, out of which he was driven into Africa, where he died aged 84 Years. This Year Dionysius the Son of CLARCHUS King of Heracles was born, he liv'd 55 Years, Athenian, Lib. XII. Memnon in Excerptis Phisic.

And now the Sons of ARTAXERXES began to quarrel about the Succession; for he had 115 Sons by his Concubines, and 3 by the Queen, viz. Darius, Artabazus, and Dorys. ARTAXERXES declar'd Darius his Successor, allow'd him the Name of King and the Royal Tiara, but joining with Artabazus in a Conspiracy to cut off his Father, he was discover'd and with all his Accomplices was cut off.

ARTABAZUS was now Heir, but his Brother Dorys for his share in the things as if sent by his Father, that the credulous Prince falling to meet with his Brother Darius his Father's Son, intended to assist him. And Ochus having no Rival but ARSAMES, who, tho' the Son

Continuation of TABLE XXV.

OCHUS King of Persia.

OCHUS was greatly beloved of his Royal Father for his rare Endowments: therefore OCHUS got Harpates the Son of Tiridates to be his Successor. His Death being sudden, broke the King's Heart and he died of Grief, aged 64 Years; and OCHUS's death was the Cause to continue his Father's Death about six Months, acting in his Name and sending a Decree to proclaim OCHUS King and to give to the Partians what he had left his Father's Death, openly ascended the Throne, and took the Name of Artabazus, but he did not change the Name of the Nation.

OCHUS, a potent Prince, reigned for many Years; but he was not so successful in the latter Asia, Syria and Pœnicia revolted; and if They had been true to one another. They had ruled the Persian Empire, but Ochus and Rœconitres their Chiefs betray'd the others, and so this King soon was more fully settled in the Throne than he desired, and to prevent any Rivals, he cruelly put to Death all the Royal Family, without regard to Sex or Age, or nearness of Blood, and all the Nobles that were not well affected towards him. See Ctesias, Plutarch in Artabazus, Diad. Lib. XV. P. 1. c. 1. Lib. VII. T. 1. c. 3. Lib. IX. cap. 2. Q. Curt. Lib. X. cap. 8.

About the Middle of Summer, this Year, ALEXANDER the Great was born at Pella in Macedonia to his Father King PHILIP: upon which the Magians at Ephesus could not sit still, That this Day the great Plague and Destruction of Asia was born. And on the same Day the Temple of DIANA at Ephesus was burnt by fire, only for the sake of being talk'd of. It was the most glorious Building among the Heathens for curious Architecture, being reckon'd one of the seven Wonders of Art. Artabazus now revolted in lesser Asia, and was assisted by the Athenians, and beat the King's Army; nay, after the Athenians deserted him, the Thebans assisted him to gain another Victory.

Leuco King of the Cimmerian Russeus being dead, his Son SPARTACUS succeeded during 5 Years, Diad. ad An. 3 Olymp. 106.

And now MAUSOLUS King of Caria died, for which his Wife and Sister too ARTEMISIA mourn'd exceedingly, and built a Monument for him at Halicarnassus, that was reckon'd one of the seven Wonders of Art, from which all fine Monuments are still call'd Mausoleums. She reigned near three Years, till she died herself of Grief, and was succeeded by INDRIUS her Brother, who had married ADA his Sister.

The Syrians and other Pœnicians now revolted, by the Instigation of the King of Egypt, who sent Mentor, the Rhodian with 4000 Grecs, who drove the Persians out of Pœnicia. The Cyprians also revolted under Evagoras the Son of Sitocrates, (who had been expelled by his Uncle Praxagoras from Salamis) and the 5 Kings or the 9 Cities of that Island. But OCHUS being resolv'd to reduce Egypt in Persia, march'd an Army of 30000 Foot and 3000 Horse towards Sidon the high Road to Egypt; upon which Mentor and TEUNES King of Sidon betray'd the City into his Hands: but the intrag'd People set Fire to their Houses, and 40000 Men, besides Women and Children, perish'd in the Flames; and OCHUS caus'd King Teunes to be put to Death. This terrible Overthrow of Sidon frightened the other Pœnicians into a Submission, but he took Jerusalem and captivated many Jews, whom he planted in Hyrcania on the Caspian Sea. OCHUS also redress'd the Grievances of the Cyprian Kings, and confirm'd them in their Tenures. And now being join'd by 10000 Grecs, OCHUS march'd from Pœnicia down to Egypt and encamp'd near Pelafium, which he belieg'd by one Detachment, and by other two, He penetrated into Egypt, got the People to desert Nectanebus their King, who gather'd all the Treasure he could, fled to Ethiopia and was never more heard of: the last Egyptian that ever reign'd in Egypt. Here MANETHO ends his Commentaries of the Egyptian Affairs, an Epitome of which is preserv'd in Synceus.

ARSES King of Media

OCHUS sent Pyrrhus King of Epirus, and Antiochus King of Syria, to Babylon loaded with Spoils and Glory; and rewarded well his Auxiliaries, especially the brave Antiochus, with many rich Presents and the Government of lesser Asia, who had Interest enough to reconcile to OCHUS his Brother Memnon and Artabazus his Brother-in-law, and brought them back to Court from Macedonia; whither they had fled to be shelter'd by King Philip the Father of ALEXANDER the Great.

Plato the famous Head of the Old Academy of Philosophers at Athens, died this Year, and was succeeded by Spycusippus, Laert. in Pistone.

Aristotle upon his Master Plato's Death, went to HERMIAS King of Atarna in lesser Asia, married his Niece, and liv'd with him three Years; where he improv'd much by the Conversation of a learn'd Jew, Laert. in Aristot. Joseph. Lib. I. contra Appion.

OCHUS, now free from Wars, gave himself wholly up to Ease and Luxury, leaving all Management to Bagoas in upper Asia, and to Menon in Lower Asia, Diod.

SATYRUS King of Heraclea in Pontus dying this Year, left all to TIMOTHEUS the eldest Son of Clearchus, who immediately made his Brother DIONYSIUS his Partner, Memnon in Excerptis, cap. 3.

Menon deceiv'd HERMIAS King of Atarna into his Clutches, and sent him Prisoner to the Persian Court, where OCHUS put him to Death.

Upon which the two Philosophers Aristotle and Xenocrates the Chalcidonian, fled out of the Reach of the Persians; Aristotle retir'd to Macedon, and from thence to the Court of Philip King of Macedon; where he became the Preceptor of ALEXANDER the Great, now aged about 12 Years, where he staid about 8 Years.

DORIEUS King of Caria died, and was succeeded by his Wife and Sister ADA, who rul'd four Years, Diod. ad An. 1. Olymp. 109.

Johannau the High Priest of Jerusalem died, after he had rul'd 32 Years, and was succeeded by his Son Jadduah or Jaddus, who held 21 Years.

PHOXODARUS the youngest Son of Peratomnus, expell'd his Sister Ada and became King of Caria, during five Years, and made ORONTABATES the Persian his Partner, and gave him in Marriage his Daughter ADA, born by Aphneides a Cappadocian Lady, PHILIP King of Macedon now laid close Siege to Perinthus, a City of Thrace at the Propontis; but it was reliev'd by the Persians, which ALEXANDER the Great afterwards pleaded, as one of the Causes of his invading Asia in his Letter to DARIUS, Arrian. Lib. I.

At last OCHUS after he had reign'd 21 Years, was poison'd by his Favourite Bagoas the Eunuch, the Governor of upper Asia, an Egyptian by Birth; in Revenge of his Country's Ruin, and of OCHUS's sacrificing their God Apis to an Ass, and dressing his Flesh to be eaten by his Attendants: therefore, Bagoas having caus'd another Body instead of the King's to be solemnly buried, He cut the true Carcase of the King in Bits to be eaten by Cats: and made of his Bones Handies for Swords, Ptol. Can. Diod. Aelian Lib. VI. cap. 8.

And Bagoas murder'd all the Royal Seed, except the King's youngest Son ARSES, whom he set on the Throne, Diod.

TIMOTHEUS King of Heraclea died with an excellent Character, and was honourably buried by his Brother and Successor DIONYSIUS Memnon in Excerptis, cap. 4.

12. ARSES had only the Name of King; for Bagoas rul'd all. And this Year Philip King of Macedon having routed the Athenians and Thebans in the Battle of Chæronea, call'd an Assembly of the Grecian Cities and States at Corinth, where he caus'd himself to be chosen Captain General of all Greece, for a War against the Persians, Dion. Justin.

ARIOBARZANES, after he had reign'd in Pontus 25 Years, died: to whom MITHRIDATES succeeded and reign'd 35 Years, Id. Ibid.

King PHILIP had sent Parmenio, Amintas and Attalus his three chief Captains, into Asia, to begin the War against the Persians, on the Pretence of restoring the Grecian Cities of Asia to their Liberty, and was preparing to follow them with an Army, as soon as he had celebrated the Marriage of his Daughter CELEOPATRA with ALEXANDER King of Epirus; but as he pass'd in great Pomp to the Theatre to finish the Solemnity of the Marriage, he was publicly slain by Pausanias a young Nobleman of his Guards, for not doing Justice on his Favourite Attalus, who had abus'd Pausanias.

Bagoas fearing that ARSES knew his Villanies, and would avenge him justly, was beforehand with the King and cut him off with all his Family, much about the time of King Philip's Death; for Dionysius makes the Death of Philip in this Year: when he was immediately succeeded in the Throne of Macedon by his brave Son ALEXANDER now just 20 Years o'd. And about the same time Bagoas the Eunuch plac'd in the Throne of Persia CONOMANES, who tho' not the Son of a King, yet of the Royal Family descended from Darius the Northward Son of Cyaxares (kill'd by King Ochus) had a Son call'd Artanes, who having married Spygambis his own Sister, the daughter of CONOMANES, and receiv'd the first Elements of the Royal Family; was at first only Post-Master-General under King Ochus, but afterwards, for bravely slaying the Cathian Champion in Combat, that had defy'd the whole Persian Army, was by OCHUS rewarded with the Government of Armenia; and by the Means of Bagoas now advanc'd to be Emperor of Persia, changed his Name of

Continuation of TABLE XXV.

DARIUS CODOMANNUS the last King of Persia.

13. DARIUS III. but Sagoas, not finding him for his Purpose, design'd to dispatch him by a Cup of Poison; of which the King being inform'd, he caus'd Sagoas himself to drink it; and so he died unlamented, Plutarch in Artax. Dind. 2. Curtius. This K 47 was preparing for a War against the Greeks as King PHILIP died, and being a valiant Man, had reduc'd them under the Persian Yoke, if God had not fore-ordain'd him to be the last Persian Monarch, and ALEXANDER to be Founder of the third universal Monarchy, against whom nothing could stand, for before DARIUS was scarce warm in his Throne, ALEXANDER the 2nd King of Macedon, call'd the General Council of all Greece to Corinth, where he got himself chosen his Father's Successor as Imperator of the Army against Persia, by all except the Lacedemonians: while he flew Northwards first to subdue the Illyrians and Thracians as far as the Danube, the Acenians, Thebans and other Greeks confederated against him; but when he return'd Conqueror, he got the Thebans to join him, pass'd the Straits of Thermopylae with his victorious Army, terrify'd the Athenians and others into a Submission, laid Siege to Tebes, took it by Storm, utterly ruin'd it, slew 90000 Thebans, and sold 30000 of them into Slavery. This terrible Execution terrify'd all Greece to meet in another General Council, and unanimously to chuse him their Captain General, or Imperator of the Grecian Army against the Persians, and having at Corinth visited Diogenes the Cynic Philosopher, he return'd home to raise a chosen Band of his truly Macedonians: and if we can believe Josephus, Lib. II. Antiq. cap. ult. ALEXANDER in a Dream saw the Appearance of the High Priest of Jerusalem, who encourag'd him to march against the Persians.

PEXODARUS King of Caria being dead, his Son-in-law ORONTOBATES succeeded in that Throne by the Assistance of DARIUS. Aristotle having left his Pupil ALEXANDES, return'd to Athens and there introduc'd the Peripatetic Philosophy; which he taught in the Lyceum for 12 Years.

ALEXANDER early in the Spring, march'd to Sestus, where he pass'd the Hellepont, and march'd into Asia with his little Army of 30000 Foot, and 5000 Horse; with which he conquer'd all the Persian Empire and India too: nay, he set forth with the small Stock of 70 Talents. scarce enough to support his Army a Month; but he depended upon Providence, and was not disappointed; for in a few Days he gain'd a glorious Victory over the Persian Army, tho' five times his Number, at the River Granicus; whereby he got Possession of DARIUS's Treasure at Sardis, and of all the Provinces of lesser Asia, where he spent the rest of this Year.

DARIUS was advis'd by Memnon his best Officer to carry the War into Macedonia, and accordingly gave Memnon the Command of that Expedition, wherein he would have been join'd by the Lacedemonians and others that hated the growing Grandeur of ALEXANDER; but it was crush'd in the Bud by the Death of Memnon at the Siege of Mytelene, which was the Blasting of that Design, and prov'd the Ruin of the Persian Monarchy: For DARIUS having rendezvous'd his Eastern Army at Babylon 600000 Men, and march'd to meet the Enemy; ALEXANDER hasten'd thro' Cilicia to get Possession of the Straits into Syria, where he waited for DARIUS, and where DARIUS, contrary to the Advice of his good Officers, and by the Advice of his empty Courtiers, fought ALEXANDER, but was totally routed by him at Issus in the East Parts of Cilicia, the Beginning of November: DARIUS himself escaped, but his Mother, Wife and Children were taken Prisoners in his Tent, and all his Bag and Baggage, with the Loss of 100000 Men left dead upon the Field. The News reaching to Damascus, the Governour sent to ALEXANDER to come and take Possession of that City and of all in it; and ALEXANDER sent Parmenio, who found there Darius's Treasure and his most valuable Moveables, 329 of his Concubines, and a great many other Ladies, the Wives or Daughters of Persian Nobles, whom he made all Captives: But one of 'em, the beautiful Barsena, the Widow of the valiant Memnon, at first captivated ALEXANDER, who fell in Love with her, to whom she bore afterwards a Son called HERCULES.

ALEXANDER having by this Victory secur'd all his former Acquisitions behind him, and Syria before him, he could safely march along the Sea Coast into Phoenicia, where the New Sidonians gladly submitted to him. His Design was upon Egypt, but he was stop't at Tyre; for Tyre would be at Peace with him, but not his Subjects: therefore he would try his military Skill in besieging it: and tho' it was built upon a little Island, ever since the Days of Nebuchadnezzar; He carried on a Bank from the Continent to the Island half a Mile long in 7 Months Time, and so took the City, burnt it down to the Ground, slew 8000 in the Sackage, crucify'd 2000 Prisoners in revenge of their obstinate tho' brave standing out, and sold 3000 for Slaves; tho' many of them were sav'd by the Sidonians, and others escap'd to Carthage: but he plant'd it again with new Citizens from the Neighbourhood, in order to be esteem'd the Founder of that City.

Plutarch Lib. II. cap. 5. relates that ALEXANDER went next to Jerusalem; but other Historians make no mention of it, and It seems to be a mistake. He march'd from Tyre to Egypt: therefore I pass it, and continue to speak of his march into Egypt, which was the last of the Persian Empire, and which was bravely defended for two Months by Ptolemy, the Governour of that Kingdom, who was kill'd for which he butcher'd 10000 of his Men, sold the rest for Slaves, and the Isis was carried off to Alexandria. Plutarch says that Ptolemy was kill'd by a Boar, and by a Cord to be tied to the Back of a Chariot, and that ALEXANDER was so much surpris'd that he sent for the Boar, and kill'd it himself. Plutarch also says that Ptolemy was kill'd by a Boar, and that ALEXANDER was so much surpris'd that he sent for the Boar, and kill'd it himself. Plutarch also says that Ptolemy was kill'd by a Boar, and that ALEXANDER was so much surpris'd that he sent for the Boar, and kill'd it himself.

Continuation of TABLE XXV.

DARIUS CODOMANUS King of Persia.

After the Battle of Issus, Darius fled to the Temple of Jupiter Hammon in Lebes; and from thence to the Sea Coast, by Diodotates the famous Architect (who built now by the Turcs Scandaria) the Plan of which being shown him, he said he would have perished for want of Water, if he had not been miraculously relieved by a shower of Rain, and he came to the Temple, and having bribed the Priests, They pronounced him the Son of Jupiter Hammon; which Title he assumed ever after in all his Deeds and Decrees. In his Return he order'd his new City Alexandria to be well supplied, and so winter'd at Memphis.

Ptolemy the Africanus, being a Native of Alexandria, begins the Reign of ALEXANDER the Great over the East from the Founding of Alexandria: but I have delay'd it till the Death of DARIUS Codomannus.

Having settled Egypt, ALEXANDER in the Spring hasten'd Eastward to meet DARIUS. When he came into Palestine, and found the Samaritans had burnt his Favorite and Lieutenant Andromachus in his own House, he order'd those concern'd in it to be put to Death, drove the rest out of Samaria, and planted it with a Colony of Macedonians: but the Samaritans settled at Shechem near Mount Gerizim, which now became the Metropolis of the Samaritan Sect. But he sent the 3000 Samaritans in his Army to settle at Thebais in Egypt.

Having stay'd a little time at Tyre to settle his former Acquisitions, he march'd to Thapsacus, where he cross'd the Euphrates, directing his Course towards the Tigris in quest of the Enemy. Mean while DARIUS, having three several times in vain solicited ALEXANDER for Peace (whose Terms were all or Nothing) prepar'd for another Battle, rais'd his Army at Babylon much bigger than the former, and march'd towards Nisibis; whither ALEXANDER follow'd him with 50000 Men, and in October at the Village Gaugameh, within twelve Miles of Arbela the next City, totally vanquish'd: a Persian Army 20 times bigger, even in an open Plain; whereby the Fate of the Persian Empire was determin'd. DARIUS fled into Media to raise another Army, and ALEXANDER pursu'd him no farther than Arbela, where he kill'd him, but got his Treasure and Royal Equipage of great Value, and so return'd to his Camp; where having refresh'd his Men, he march'd thence to Bactria, which with the Castle was readily surrender'd to him, where he got the greatest Part of DARIUS's Treasure; and having stay'd 30 Days there, He march'd, with Victory by his side, to Sasa, which he took, and from thence to Persopolis the Capital, which he gave up to be sack'd by his Army, reserving the Castle and Palace to himself, about the Middle of December, when the poor Inhabitants were butcher'd and barbarously us'd. From thence with a Detachment he rang'd over the Neighbourhood, which readily submitted to him, and after 30 Days Ramble he return'd and winter'd in Persopolis.

And now ALEXANDER gave himself up to Feasting and Drinking with his chief Commanders, and their Misses; and in one of those Revels, Thyis, the Miss of Ptolemy (who was afterward King of Egypt) prevail'd with the drunken Monarch ALEXANDER to set Fire to Persopolis and the Palace, which was forthwith executed and burnt to the Ground, and which he repented of when he recover'd his Senses, tho' too late. Mean while DARIUS at Ekbatana gather'd his broken Forces, and rais'd others to join him: but ALEXANDER in the Spring marching into Media, made DARIUS first think of going into Bactria; but altering his Mind, DARIUS resolv'd to try his Fate in another Battle with 40000 Men, that he had gather'd there. But while that King was preparing to meet ALEXANDER in the Field, Bessus Governour of Bactria, and Sabares a Persian Nobleman, conspir'd to seize the unfortunate Prince; and having put him in Chains, They shut him up in a close Cart, and led with him towards Bactria; designing either to purchase their Peace by delivering him up to Alexander, if he pursu'd after them; or if Alexander did not pursue them, then to kill DARIUS, to divide the Kingdom and to renew the War. ALEXANDER at Ekbatana finding DARIUS was gone Eight Days before, pursu'd hard after him for Eleven Days together as far as Rogers in Media; where he halted to refresh his Army, and to settle the Affairs of Media, of which Oribates a noble Persian the Governor, and then march'd into Parthia; where hearing of DARIUS's unhappy Situation, he left the Body of the Army with Craterus, and with a Detachment he flew after DARIUS, with a View to rescue him from those Tyrants: while He was advancing, They order'd DARIUS to Mount on Horseback, for his more speedy Flight with them; but he refusing, They stabb'd him and left him a dying in his Cart, in which Condition he was found by the foremost of ALEXANDER's Men, but expir'd before ALEXANDER came up; who at the melancholy Sight of his Corps, could not forbear shedding Tears, cast his Cloke over the Royal Body, order'd it to be wrapp'd up therein, and carry'd to his Mother Sisygambis at Sga, to be bury'd by her with a Royal Funeral among the Kings of Persia; and receiv'd Orates the Brother of DARIUS among his intimate Friends, and with him ended the great Persian Monarchy, which had lasted in its Lustre from the first Year of CYRUS, A. M. 3413. A. D. 207 Years.

So that this Monarchy lasted just 207 Years from the first of CYRUS to the last Year of DARIUS CODOMANNUS, after whose Death the Third or Grecian Monarchy began, in the Person of its Founder ALEXANDER III. King of Macedon, whose Predecessors are in the other Catalogue.

The Catalogue of the Kings of Macedon from CHARANUS to ALEXANDER the Great inclusive, begun Page 90, now corrected and finish'd according to Eusebius, who says, that this Kingdom commen c' 37 Years before the first Olympiad, or according to our Chronology, A. M. 3191. the 27th Year of AMAZIAH King of Judah, or 13th of JEROBOAM II. King of Israel, before Christ 813, before the first of CYRUS 277; and before the Death of King PHILIP the Father of ALEXANDER the Great 476. for if from A. M. 3667 when King PHILIP was slain we deduct the said Sum of 476

The Remainder is the Year of the World when the Macedonian Kingdom began, viz. 3191

A CATALOGUE of the Kings of Assyria from NIMROD to Sardanapalus inclusive.

Upon the the Confusion of Speech at BABEL, the People dispers'd from Shinar to replenish the Earth, and left the great Architect NIMROD or BELUS with those that lov'd his Jurisdiction, at Babel, where he began to reign, and was the Founder of the first or the Assyrian Monarchy, A. M. 1810. After Flood 154. and reign'd 207 Years, dying A. M. 2017. after Flood 361. for Eusebius in his Chronicle makes the Kings of Assyria to have reign'd, from the Beginning of NINUS the Son of NIMROD to the End of SARDANAPALUS, 1240 Years; but SARDANAPALUS dying just before the Beginning of the very first Year of the Nabonassarian Era, A. M. 3257. if we deduct from thence the said Sum of 1240, the Remainder is 1017, or the first Year of NINUS according to our Chronology, after Flood 361, when ABRAM was 8 Years old; tho' Eusebius only begins the Years of Abram's Life, with the 2nd Year of NINUS's Reign about 58 Years difference.

Thus from the Confusion at Babel, A. M. 1810 To the Fall of SARDANAPALUS, or the first Year of Nabonassar, are Years 1446 Which added together, make the last Year of Sardanapalus, or A. M. 3257 For the Nabonassarian Era began, as on Page 46. A. M. 3257 But Scaliger in his Animadversions on Eusebius's Chronicle, observes, that Eusebius has omitted four Kings whom others mention, and has added to some of these mention'd a Year or two. So just as mentions but the first four; because the rest have nothing recorded memorable of them: but the whole Series may be seen in Scaliger's Appendix to Eusebius. King PUL is He to whom Jonah preach'd at Nineveh. But tho' the Son SARDANAPALUS was destroy'd, the Monarchy was not, but only divided a while in three, as in the following Catalogue.

A Catalogue of the Kings of ASSYRIA after the Partition.

SARDANAPALUS having burnt himself in his Palace, the Possessors of Nineveh, viz. his Brother Arbaces and Belshis divided the Empire, together with the People of the Province of Media, thus

| 13. BELSHAZZAR reign'd at Babylon  | 17 | 20  |

So that the Race of NABOPOLASAR ended in this Year of the Nabonassarian Era 209 after He and they had reign'd at Babylon 87 Years.

And now began the Second or Persian Monarchy, tho' it is dated usually 20 Years after the Death of Belshazzar, during which 20 Years CYAXARES King of Media was the General Monarch: but when he died and without Male- Issue, He left all to his Nephew and Son-in-law the Grand CYRUS, who inclin'd to be Emperor of the Army had conquer'd almost all; therefore from the Beginning of CYRUS, the Persian Monarchy began, as in the Persian Catalogue.

Kings of MEDIA.

This Country was one of the largest and best Provinces of the old Assyrian Empire, and upon the Death of Sardanapalus, the STATES met and became a Republick hating to submit to ARBACES, against whose Kingdom They had ever an implacable Enmity, till at last They join'd with NABOPOLASAR to destroy his Capital and his Race. But after They had found it inconvenient to want a King, about 38 Years after the Death of Sardanapalus, They chose the wise and brave DEJOCES to be their King, in the 6th Year of SENNACHERIB King of Assyria, and the 18th Year of HEZEKIAH King of Judah, Page 56. TABLE XXVII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Sicyon, Argos, Athens, Corinth, Lacedemon and Latium according to Eusebius, with Synchronisms and Contemporaries.

Eusebius governs his Chronicle by the Years from ABRAM's Birth, which he placeth in the 22d Year of EUROPS King of Sicyon, and after the Flood 294, or after Creation 1950, whereas I place it A. M. 2008, after Flood 352 or two Years after Noah's Death; whereby his Years of the World and after Flood, are generally 58 Years short of ours: but his Years of ABRAM being exact, by adding to them 1950. before Abram, and then 58, the Produce will be exactly our Year of the World.

Kings of SICYON. Thus according to Eusebius ÆGIALEUS began to reign 73 Years before Abram's Birth; for he reign'd 52 Years, and EUROPS had reign'd 21 Years before it, and -3 added to A. M. 1877. makes 1950, and 73 added to 221. makes 294. after Flood, when ABRAM was born according to Eusebius; but 58 added to 1950. makes A. M. 2008, and 58 added to 294. makes 352. after Flood, the true Year of ABRAM's Birth according to our Chronology.

1. ÆGIALEUS from whom the Country was call'd Ægialea began to reign there according to Eusebius, A. M. 1877.

- Years
after Flood ——— 221
and reign'd ——— 52
2. EUROPS ——— reign'd 45
3. Telchimus ——— reign'd 20
4. Apis ——— reign'd 25
5. Chelrion ——— reign'd 52

In his 12th Year, CRES first reign'd in Crete his native Country, so call'd after him. He was one of the Curete, that hid and nourish'd young JUPITER.
In his 6th Year ABRAM aged 75 and left Charran, when the 430 Years of Peregrination began after Flood 369. A. M. 2025. but by adding to each 58,

6. Argydrus ——— reign'd 34
7. Churimachus reign'd 45

It will be after Flood 427, and A. M. 2083. according to our Chronology.
——— In his 6th Year the Kings of ARGOS began, viz. Anno Abrami 161. A. M. 2111. after Flood 455. or by adding 58, A. M. 2169. after Flood 513.

8. Arucippus ——— reign'd 53
9. Arclapus ——— reign'd 47
10. Cratus ——— reign'd 46
11. Pleminacus reign'd 48
12. Orthopolis reign'd 63

Years
1. INACHUS ——— reign'd 50 In his first Year JACOB was born, when his Father ISAAC was full 60 Years old, or 61, according to Eusebius.
2. Phoroneus ——— reign'd 60 In his 26th Year a fine Virgin appear'd, whom the Greeks call'd MINERVA: and Ogyges built Eleusina in Attica.
3. Apis ——— reign'd 35 In his 12th Year JOSEPH aged 30 stood first before PHARAOH, was exalted to the chief Station in Egypt, A. M. 2232, or adding 58 A. M. 2290.
4. Argus ——— reign'd 70 In his second Year JACOB aged 147 died An. Abrami 307, and of Peregrination 232.
In his 26th Year, Prometheus flourish'd, who, by reforming the Barbarians, made them Men that were like Brutes before.
In his 56th Year, JOSEPH aged 110 died in Egypt, An. Abrami 361, and of Peregrination 286. Before Exodus 144.
5. Criasus ——— reign'd 54 In his first Year Callithynja the Daughter of Piranthus first exerted the Priestly Office at Argos.
In his 4th Year Atlas the Brother of Prometheus was a famous Astronomer, and was therefore said to support the Heavens.
In his 50th Year MOSES was born, viz. An. Abrami 425. Peregr. 350. Before Exodus 80, after Descent 135.
——— In his 52d Year the
Kings of ATHENS began, viz. An. Abrami 461. An. Peregrin. 386. Before Exodus 44.

13. Demetrius reign'd 55

Phoroneus ——— reign'd 35

Eusebius says, that some think the Stories of BACCHUS, of the Indians, of LYCURGUS, Altaon and Pentheus, were in his Reign.

In his 3d Year the Fables concerning Daedalus come in. In his 13th Year Orpheus the Thracian was famous. In his 22d Year come in the Stories of Sphinga and Oedipus, of Hercules, Asclepius, Castor and Pollux.

In his 23d Year Carthage was built by a Colony of the Tyrians. In his 29th Year Anno Abrami 811. HERCULES exhibited the Olympic Games at least 439 Years before the first Olympiad, according to Eusebius. In the last Year of MENETHUS King of Athens, TROY was taken and burnt by the Greeks An. Abrami 835. A.M. 2785. according to Eusebius, or 406 Years before the first Olympiad: but adding the two last Sums together the first Olympiad must happen A.M. 3191. whereas the true Year of the first Olympiad is A.M. 3228. or 38 Years more than that of Eusebius, and according to Africanus 408 Years after the burning of TROY, according to which TROY was really burnt A.M. 2820, or in the 12th Year of Calah the Judge of Israel, after Exodus 307. before SAUL 89. See Tab. VIII.

In his 3d Year or 3 Years after the Burning of Troy, a new Kingdom in Latium or Italy was erected.

And ceas'd in the 35th Year of Alcimenes the last King of LACEDEMON, and 18th Year of AMULIUS Spilvius King of the Latins.

After This The Corinthians chose their chief Magistrates annually, call'd Prptanes.

These Athenian Princes for Life ceas'd in the 43d Year of AMULIUS Spilvius the last King of the Latins; in the 20th Year of Turimas King of Macedon; in the 25th Year of Ardysus the first King of Lydia; in the 27th Year of Bocchoris King of Egypt; in the 3d Year of the VIth Olympiad; and in the 4th Year of ACHAZ King of Judah; An. Abami 1263. which added to 1950. the Years before Abram (according to Eusebius) makes A. M. 3213. But it being only 23 Years later than the End of the Lacedemonian Kings, we must conclude, It happen'd A. M. 3250. which by our Calculation is just the 3d Year of the VIth Olympiad, and 5th Year of JOTHAM King of Judah; before Christ 754. See Page 45.

When these Ten-Year-Kings ceas'd, the Athenians, like their Neighbours of Corinth, chose an annual Magistracy call'd Archons (much like the Roman Consuls afterwards) who immediately commenc'd in the 31st Year of NUMA the second Roman King; and in the 2d Year of Argeus the 5th King of Macedon. The CHRONOLOGY of the Third Monarchy, call'd the Kingdom of the Greeks, and of its Contemporaries,
From the Death of DARIUS Codomannus the last Emperor of Persia, A. M. 3674.
To the Death of ANTIGONUS King of lesser Asia, A. M. 3703. during 29 Years.

ALEXANDER the Great.

ALEXANDER still pursu'd after Bessus the murdering Traitor, till He found ne was gotten too far to be overtaken: and therefore he return'd to Persia; and having regulated the Affairs of that Province and of his Army, He march'd into Hyrcania, which also yielded to him: also Nabarzanes surrender'd himself to the Conqueror with great Presents, and obtain'd his Pardon, as did the Mardians, Arians, Drangians, Aracansians; and other Nations; over which he flew with Victory swifter than others could travel, and conquer'd them before They could get into a Posture of Defence, according to the Description of him in the Prophecy. Dan. vii. 6. viii. 5. from thence He march'd Northward still, tho' in the Winter, conquering as far as Mount Caucasus, where he founded a City which he call'd Alexandria, as he had call'd several others.

This Year is reckon'd in Ptolemy's Canon the 3d Year of the Grecian Monarchy, viz. from the founding of Alexandria in Egypt, from which Ptolemy reckons; but from the Death of his Father PHILIP it was the 7th Year of his Reign over Macedonia, and from the Death of DARIUS Codomannus, It was the first Year of his Empire over the Persian Dominions; or the first Year of the Grecian Monarchy, when he truly commenc'd ALEXANDER the Great.

In Sogdiana, ALEXANDER remounted his Cavalry, where the Sogdians, Dabians and Massagers gave him hard Work for a whole Year before they were conquer'd. This Country lay East of the Caspian; the capital City of it was call'd Maracanda, a great City near ten Miles round (and now call'd Samarkand the Capital of the Uzbeks, Tartars) and took up his Winter Quarters at Nautara.

While he lay there he married ROXANA the Daughter of Orpates a noble Persian, the most beautiful and the most wicked Woman upon Earth: and he encourag'd his Macedonians to marry Persian Ladies likewise.

And here in cold Blood he put to Death Calisthenes the Philosopher, only for admonishing him against receiving divine Honours; tho' It was his Business to give him sound Advice, having been sent by Aristotle to attend him for that End.

Early in the Spring ALEXANDER pass'd over the Indus by a Bridge of Boats, and the Kingdom of Taxiles readily submitted to him; thro' which he march'd and cross'd the Hydaspes, when he came into the Kingdom of PORUS a valiant and powerful Prince, who with a great Army, soon gave him Battel; tho' after Eight Hours hard Work, PORUS's Army was routed, and he taken Prisoner. When ALEXANDER's Men would march with him no further (as on the other Column) He erected on the Banks of the Hyphasis twelve large Altars, for a Memorial of his having been there, and return'd to the Hydaspes, founded the City Nicara in the Field where he vanquish'd King PORUS, and another near it which he call'd Bucephala; because his Horse Bucephalus there died.

See the Continuation.

After the Murder of DARIUS, the Traitor Bessus fled into Bactria, and proclaim'd himself King of Persia by the Name of Artaxerxes; and Nabarzanes his Accomplise fled into Hyrcania.

While ALEXANDER was among the Drangians, He discover'd a Plot against his Life, in which Philotas the Son of Parmenia was concern'd, who was therefore put to Death with all his Accomplices: and ALEXANDER believing either that Parmenio, his best General, and chief Confident, was in the Plot, or that he would revenge his Son's Death, sent to Ekbatana (where he lay to guard the Treasure) and order'd him to be put to Death.

In the 13th Year of Jadduah High Priest of Jerusalem, ALEXANDER early in the Spring march'd after Bessus, and having driven him out of Bactria he settled that Province under his Obedience, and follow'd Bessus into Sogdiana now call'd Cowaresmia, separated from Bactria by the great River Oxus, where Bessus destroy'd the Boats, and other Means of ALEXANDER's passing over. But when the Followers of Bessus found that the Conqueror had surmounted that Difficulty, and was hotly pursuing them, They seiz'd Bessus, and deliver'd him bound to ALEXANDER, who deliver'd him into the Power of Dratres the Brother of DARIUS; who order'd him to be crucify'd where he murder'd his Royal Master. ALEXANDER while at Maracanda, in a drunken Rage, basely murder'd Clitus one of his best Friends, after his Nose and Ears were cut off; for which he afterwards blam'd himself.

ALEXANDER now projected his Expedition into India, only for the sake of imitating Bacchus and Hercules the Sons of JUPITER; for he call'd himself the third Son of that imaginary God. And now he demanded divine Honours, and order'd All to address him as the Persian Monarchs had been address'd. Having secur'd all behind him, and augmented his Army to 120000 Men, he spent this Year in subduing the Indians on this Side the River Indus, partly by Force, and partly by Submission; but none pleas'd him so much as those Nations that welcom'd him as the Third Son of JUPITER; and CLEOPHIS the beautiful Queen of the Affacans redeem'd her Kingdom by prostituting her Body to ALEXANDER's Lust, to whom she bore a Son whom she call'd ALEXANDER, who afterwards reign'd in those Parts, the Father of a long Race of Kings, as Paulus Venetus relates.

When PORUS was forcibly brought before ALEXANDER, his Magnanimity under his Misfortune so took with the Conqueror, that he generously restor'd him and augmented his Kingdom; for having pass'd the River Acesinis, that lay East of PORUS's Kingdom, ALEXANDER conquer'd the Country between that and the River Hydraotes, which he gave to the brave PORUS, and having cross'd the Hydraotes he march'd to the Hyphasis, intending to cross it, in order to reach to the Ganges; but his Soldiers being weary of his Knight Errantry, He was oblig'd there to stop his Eastern Progress.

When he return'd to the Hydaspes, He order'd his Fleet to draw near him in order to sail into the Indus, and to carry on his Conquests to the Ocean.

When

Continuation of TABLE XXVIII.

ALEXANDER the Great.

When return'd. He and his Army went aboard the Fleet, and when He came to the Ocean at the Mouth of the Indus, He landed his Men, ferled his Indian Conquers, sent Nearchus with the best Ships thro' the Ocean into the Persian Gulph, with Orders to sail up the Euphrates, and to meet him at Babylon, towards which Place he march'd over Land with his Army.

He return'd thro' the Southern Provinces of Persia, march'd in Triumph thro' Carmania (now call'd Kerma) in imitation of Bacchus; where he punish'd with Death those Officers of Provinces, that had oppress'd the People in his Absence.

He march'd from thence to Pasargada, and then to Persepolis, where he lamented his former drunken Folly in burning that fine City and Palace: and from thence to Susa, and in his way thither he met Nearchus with the Fleet, upon whom he conferr'd great Honours, and offer'd Sacrifices to the Gods for his Successes.

Having sail'd (as on the other Column) from Susa to Opis, He march'd over Land from Opis to Ekbatana in Media, where Hephestion drank himself into a Fever and died; as many more had died of Drinking before by following the King's foolish Example. He mourn'd for his Favourite and gave him a solemn Funeral, and caus'd his Physician to be crucify'd; tho' it was well known that Hephestion would not obey the Doctor's Rules, and was his own Murderer.

ALEXANDER to divert his Grief, led his Army against the Cossians the Highlanders of MEDIA, who had never been conquer'd by the Persians; but he conquer'd them in 40 Days: and then crossing the Tigris He march'd to Babylon; where he gave Audience to many foreign Ambassadors, and sent them all off well pleas'd, and where he staid near a Year till he died, and where he projected great Designs, such as, to send a Fleet from the Persian Gulph round Africa to return thro' the Streights of Hercules Pillars, or Gibraltar; likewise a full Discovery of the Caspian Sea and of the Nations round it: he projected also to conquer the Arabians and also the Carthaginians, and all the Nations as far as Hercules Pillars; for he was ambitious to imitate that Hero. He also design'd to make Babylon his Capital, for which end, he began to improve it, to repair the Damage of the River done by CYRUS, by filling up the Banks that had been broken down when CYRUS besieg'd it; and also to rebuild the great TEMPLE of Belus, that had lain in Ruins ever since it was demolish'd by XERXES upon his Return from Greece: but he could not half remove the Rubbish, and perished nothing; but only began his Works before he died, as on the other Column.

Seven Days after the Death of ALEXANDER the Great, his Followers agreed that ARIDÆUS, his bastard Brother, should be Emperor; and that if ROYANA, then 8 Months pregnant, should bear a Son, He should be crowned Emperor, with Perdicas the General to be Guardian, for Aristobolus was then 10 Years old, and it was thought that he was too young to govern. They chang'd his Name to ANTIOCHUS.

From thence the Persepolis Era commenc'd, which the Egyptians call'd the first Day of that Reg. and in which the Alexandrian Era began, and the first Day of that Reg. which is the first Day of the Month of Nivember, which is the first Day of the Persepolis Reg.

When his Admiral Nearchus came with the Fleet, consisting of 2000 Vessels, he put his Army on Board, sail'd down the Hydaspes into the Acesinis and thro' that into the Indus; but in his Way found it hard to subdue the Oxidracians, and the Mallians, being forc'd to scale their Walls, and in the Attack was grievously wounded. Then he sail'd down the Indus into the Southern Ocean, conquering the Nations on both Sides of that River.

Nearchus having coasted from the Indus to the Persian Gulph, arriv'd at the Island of Harmuzia (now call'd Ormus) within 5 Days Journey of ALEXANDER; to whom He went and laid before him his Journal, his Discoveries and Observations, with which the King was delighted, and sent him to sail up the Euphrates and to meet him at Babylon, while he pursu'd his March.

When he came to Pasargada, He tortur'd the Magians to know, who had robb'd the Sepulchre of the Grand CYRUS in his Absence, and unjustly put to Death Dines the Governor, who was not guilty of it; but was accus'd spitefully by Bagoas the favourite Eunuch and Catamite of ALEXANDER; because Dines had slighted that vile Creature.

When he came to Susa, ALEXANDER married STATIRA the eldest Daughter of DARIUS, and gave DRYPETIS the other Daughter to Hephestion his prime Favorite, and caus'd about an hundred of his chief Commanders to marry noble Persian Ladies, with a View to unite the Nations: and having celebrated all these Nuptials together for five Days, He left his main Army to Hephestion's Care, and going aboard his Fleet at the Euleus (call'd by Daniel Ulai) near Susa, He sail'd down into the Persian Gulph, and from thence up the Tigris to the City Opis, where Hephestion met him with the Army; and where his Macedonians mutinied, being disgusted at his favouring the Persians so much: but he very wisely cur'd them of their Discontent, and reconcil'd himself to them again. From Opis he march'd to Ekbatana, conquer'd the Cossians and came to Babylon (as on the other Column) where he spent his time, not in Royal and vertuous Amusements; but in the immoral Pleasures and Luxuries of the Place; especially in Feasting and Drinking; till at length like his late Favourite Hephestion, he drank himself into a Fever, the great Bowl, or Herculean Cup that held six English Quarts dropt from his Hands, and he fell down and died in a few Days: tho' some suspected he had been poison'd: in the 33d Year of his Age, 13 Years after his Father King Philip was slain; 11 Years after he invaded Asia, and six Years after DARIUS.

ALEXANDER's Generals not agreeing to submit to any one of themselves agreed the rather upon ARIDÆUS, contented themselves with the Name of Governors, till They thought fit to call themselves Kings; as indeed They had Kingly Power from the Death of Alexander; for being sent to their several Provinces, They all went to War against each other, till They were reduc'd at last to four; as will appear by the sequel of this Table.

Sisygambis the Mother of DARIUS famish'd herself to Death for Grief at ALEXANDER's Death, who had treated her as if she had been his Mother. Royana fearing that Queen STATIRA was with Child, took Care to have her and her Sister murder'd and cast into a Well, fearing lest the Child of Statira should prove a Competitor with her Child.

In the Distribution of the Governments Eumenes, late Secretary of State to Alexander, got That of Cappadocia and Pontus, and Perdicas (to reward Eumenes for discovering the Delights of Leucanor).

PHILIPUS and Ptolemy King of Macedon, and PTOLEMAEUS Lagi King of Egypt.

...the Death of ALEXANDER the Great, who was the last of the Ptolemy Line, and the first of the Seleucid Line, before the Death of ALEXANDER. And this Year ROMANA was the first of a new cycle.

ALEXANDER, whose Name was joined with PHILIP's Name in the Government; tho' They had no more than a Name, for ALEXANDER's chief Captains usurp'd the Power; viz.

- 1. PTOLEMY the Son of Lagus, who obtain'd the Government of Egypt, where he rul'd and reign'd from the Death of ALEXANDER 40 Years, and in time subdu'd Libya, Arabia, Palestine and Coele-Syria. Therefore some Chronologers compute his first Year to be this very Year. But in the Canon of Ptolemy the Astronomer, the first Year of King PTOLEMY is 19 Years after the Death of ALEXANDER.
- 2. CASSANDER obtain'd Macedonia and Greece.
- 3. LYSIMACHUS obtain'd Thracia and the Parts near the Hellespont.
- 4. SELEUCUS obtain'd all the rest of that vast Empire in Asia.

But before They were settled in their new Kingdoms, They were involv'd in great Contentions and bloody Wars, even until Alexander's other Captains were dead or destroy'd, viz.

- 5. PERDICCAS the Guardian of the two nominal Kings
- 6. ANTIPATER. 7. CRATERUS. 8. MELEAGER. 9. EUMENES. 10. LAOMEDON. 11. LEONATUS. 12. PITHON. 13. PHILETAS. 14. CRATERUS. 15. SELEUCUS. Who all endeavour'd to be Kings, but were swallow'd up of the first four, as will soon appear, according to the Prophecies of Daniel that foretold of FOUR HORNS arising out of the broken Horn, when broken, viz. out of ALEXANDER the Great.

Next Spring PERDICCAS having conferr'd on EUMENES the Government of Caria, Lycia and Phrygia, added to his former Employments, and made him Captain General from the Hellespont to Mount Taurus, march'd his Army thro' Palestine down to Egypt with the two Kings to countenance his Conduct; in order to defeat first his more formidable Enemy PTOLEMY, before he went against Antipater and Craterus in Greece.

But the Macedonians dislike'd Perdiccas, and much affected Ptolemy, who by mild Government had got the Hearts of all Egypt, and Perdiccas in attempting to cross the Nile near Memphis, having lost 1000 of his Men by the Stream and the Crocodiles, his Army mutinied against him, and slew him in his Tent, two Days before the News came of Eumenes's Victory, as on the other Column.

PTOLEMY went over to the Camp, lamented for the Death of Craterus, join'd with them to declare Eumenes an Enemy to the Macedonian Empire, and to appoint Antipater and Antigonus to make War against him; retir'd the Guardianship of the King, which he left to Pithon the General, and to one Antidocus, who took Care of the Corps of ALEXANDER the Great, had brought it in great Solemnity from Babylon to Memphis, from whence it was carried to Alexandria and there deposited.

PTOLEMY not prevailing with Laomedon, the Governor of Syria, Phoenicia and Parthia, to join him and Seleucus; sent Antiochus with an Army against him, who he beat with a Fleet to the Phoenician Coast, and Antiochus having defeat'd Laomedon, and taken him prisoner, PTOLEMY landed and laid Siege to Jerusalem, the only Place that stood out against him, which he took on the third Day, because the Jews would not fight on that Day: PTOLEMY carried 10000 Jews captive into Egypt; but afterwards and they were truly and Leonatus, march'd an Army and the two Kings against Ariarathes King of the Cappadocians, defeat him in Battel, and having given Eumenes full Possession, he took in Isaurus and Laranda two Cities in Pisidia, and then winter'd in Cilicia; where he projected to put away or divorce his Wife Nicaea the Daughter of Antipater, and to marry Cleopatra the full Sister of Alexander the Great, and the Widow of Alexander King of Epirus, who then resided at Sardis in Lydia; to whom Perdiccas sent Eumenes to propose it; whereby he design'd to gain a Title to the whole Empire.

Antigonus, discovering this Project, and that he was to be cut off in order to facilitate it, fled to Antipater and Craterus in Greece, who were Collegues in that Government; and clapping up a Peace with the Aetolians, They forthwith march'd to the Hellespont to watch the Designs of Perdiccas; and got Ptolemy Governor of Egypt into their Confederacy.

Mean while Perdiccas sent Eumenes into his Province to be ready to assist him, and charg'd him to look sharp after Neoptolemus Governor of Armenia; for Perdiccas had reason to be jealous of him.

While Eumenes provided an Army, Antipater and Craterus invaded lesser Asia, endeavour'd in vain to persuade Eumenes to join them and desert Perdiccas; but got Alcetas the Brother of Perdiccas to be Neuter, and Neoptolemus to join them. But Eumenes first routed Neoptolemus, who escap'd only with 300 Horse, with whom he join'd them, and march'd with their Army into Cilicia, from whence Antipater sent Craterus and Neoptolemus into Cappadocia against Eumenes; but he wisely defeated their Army, and they both were slain in the Battel.

Upon the Death of Perdiccas, as on the other Column, Pithon and Antidocus the two new Guardians of the two Kings, were wearied with the Importunities and Follies of Euridice the Wife of King Philip to have all under her Direction; and therefore when they led back the Army at Triparadisus in Syria, they resign'd the Charge, which the Army conferr'd on Antipater, who made a new Partition of the Governments, excluding the Party of Eumenes and Perdiccas, and conferring the Government of Babylon upon Seleucus; and Antipater having sent Antigonus against Eumenes, He return'd into Macedonia, leaving his Son Cassander with Antigonus.

This Year JADDUAH the High Priest of Jerusalem being dead was succeeded by ONIAS his Son, who liv'd in that Station 21 Years.

Early next Spring Antigonus defeated Eumenes, who was deserted in the Battel by Apollonides the General of his Horse, and was afterwards besieg'd at Nera a whole Year.

Continuation of TABLE XXVIII.

and their People. He chose 30000 of them to keep his best Garrisons; and having lately conquer'd Cyrene and Lybia, He planted many of them there, from whom came the Cyrenean Jews, of whom was afterwards Jason, who wrote the History of the Maccabees, of which the 2d Book of Maccabees is an Abridgment.

ANTIPATER worn out with Age, died in Macedonia after he had appointed Polyperchon, the oldest of Alexander's Generals alive, to be Guardian of the Kings, and Governor of Macedonia, at which CASSANDER his Son was highly offended, declar'd against the new Guardian, and engag'd PTOLEMY and ANTIGONUS on his side; tho' They aim'd at their own Interest therein.

Mean while Polyperchon appointed Cumenes Captain General for the Kings, with Orders to Texamus and Antigenes to join him with their Argyraspides, or the Men with Silver Shields, old Macedonian Soldiers, that had got Silver Shields from ALEXANDER about 3000 Men, who join'd Cumenes in Cilicia where He winter'd.

Polyperchon sent Clitus with a Fleet to assist EUMENES, but ANTIGONUS's Fleet destroy'd it; upon which ANTIGONUS march'd a great Army against Eumenes, who wisely and timely fled thro' Cele-Syria, pass'd the Euphrates and winter'd at Carrhe in Mesopotamia, or Charran where ABRAM once liv'd, now call'd by the Turks Barran; famous once for being the prime Seat of the Sabians.

Cumenes while at Carrhe sent to Pithon Governor of Media, and to SELEUCUS Governor of Babylon to join him: but tho' They profess'd to like the Cause, They dreaded him and would not join him; having also Designs of their own, which his Wisdom and Valour might blast.

ANTIGONUS pursu'd Cumenes into Mesopotamia, where, missing him, He was forc'd to winter, and where he concert'd the Measures of the next Campaign with SELEUCUS and Pithon.

Mean while Olympias the Mother of ALEXANDER the Great, with King Alexander her Grandson and Roxana his Mother, had fled from Macedon to Epirus for fear of ANTIPATER, and he being dead, They return'd, and getting Power into her Hands, she put to Death poor King ARIDEUS with Euridice his Wife, also Strano, the Brother of Cassander, and 100 more of his best Friends. And now

ALEXANDER Aegus the Son of Roxana, about 7 Years old was King alone of the Macedonian Empire; to whom Ptolemy the Astronomer in his Canon reckons 12 Years, tho' he reign'd not above 7 Years, as will appear.

When the Army of EUMENES return'd from the Pursuit, and saw, that their Wives, and Children, and all their Baggage had been carried off, as on the other Column; They were much surpris'd at EUMENES, bound him, sold him to Antigonus, and returning to his Army, he and his Wife and Children were carried off all the Baggage, Wives and Children out of Eumenes's Camp, before he was perceiv'd, because of the great Dust rais'd in that sandy Field of Battel.

ANTIGONUS upon the Death of Antipater, being left by him the Governor of all the lesser Asia, with 70000 Soldiers and 30 Elephants, now design'd to be Master of all the Empire: and having turn'd out Arideus from his Government of Phrygia, and Clitus out of Lydia, and made other Reforms for his Purpose, He endeavour'd to decoy Eumenes to his Party, of whom he was most afraid. But Cumenes was too cunning for him; for he got out of the Castle of Nora, with his 500 Men, upon a Treaty with Antigonus, and rais'd 2000 of his trusty Cappadocians to wait a better Chance, declaring for Olympias the Mother of Alexander the Great, and the two Kings, against Antigonus. But Menander made him scamper with his 3000 Men over Mount Taurus into Cilicia.

EUMENES being there supply'd with 20000 Men, took the Field in the Spring and struck Terror into all his Enemies: and neither PTOLEMY nor ANTIGONUS could decoy the Argyraspides from him with all their Arts; because of his Prudence, and of his appearing for the Family of ALEXANDER: and so he march'd into Syria and Phenicia to dispossess PTOLEMY; but chiefly to open a Correspondence with Polyperchon in Greece by Sea, which would have carried all, if it had been obtain'd. See the other Column.

XXIII<sup>d</sup>. Year of JUBILEE transacted under Ontas the High Priest. Cumenes being forc'd to flee to Carrhe, as on the other Column, march'd now towards Babylon, and narrowly escap'd being over flooded by the Euphrates, SELEUCUS having cut its Banks. But SELEUCUS dissembled with him and let him pass thro' his Province to Susa, from whence He sent Messengers to all the Governors of the upper Asia, who were found All together at the Head of an Army of 25000 Men, just after They had beaten Pithon Governor of Media out of the Field, and made him flee to Babylon for shelter: and They perceiving that ANTIGONUS was acting the same Part in lower Asia, even putting Governors to Death in order to aggrandize himself; They readily join'd Cumenes, whereby He was a Match for ANTIGONUS.

In the Spring ANTIGONUS and Cumenes by Insinuat march'd towards each other, both great Men: but tho' Cumenes was much hinder'd, by the Ambition and Pride of the Governors with him, from exerting himself; he manag'd them with great Prudence, beat Antigonus in two Encounters, and obtain'd the best Winter Quarters. During the Winter

ANTIGONUS thought to have surpriz'd Cumenes, but could not, and in the Spring these two great Generals join'd in a decilivé Battel, wherein EUMENES gain'd the Victory in the Field; but ANTIGONUS in his Retreat, by a Party carried off all the Baggage, Wives and Children out of Eumenes's Camp, before he was perceiv'd, because of the great Dust rais'd in that sandy Field of Battel.

And now SELEUCUS fearing to meet with Pithon's Fate, as on the other Column, fled from Babylon to PTOLEMY in Egypt, whom he soon convinc'd of the formidable Power of Antigonus; and They wrote to LYSIMACHUS and CASSANDER, who join'd them.

| ANTIGONUS finding that PTOLEMY, LYSIMACHUS and CASSANDER had been inclin'd by SELEUCUS to confederate against him, soon return'd to Cilicia, and then march'd into Syria and Phœnicia; in order to dispossess PTOLEMY, and raise a naval Force: for Ptolemy had carried most of the Phœnician Ships to Egypt. D. 1740. when They were drove out of the East and settled in Europe, and learn'd from the Christian Chronologers to compute from the Creation or the Era of Anno Mundi; tho' it is not wholly disus'd by them still. The Arabs use it and call it Haric Dilmamain , or the Era of the two Horn'd, and by some ignorantly call'd the Era of Alexander, tho' it began 12 Years after his Death; and was so call'd, not from the two Horns on the Coins of Alexander; but from those on the Statues of SELEUCUS. It is call'd in the Books of the Maccabees, the Era of the Kingdom of the Greeks; and the first Book begins it from the Spring of this Year, but the second Book from the following Autumn, as did the Syrians, Arabs and Jews, and all others except the Chaldeans, who begin it from the Spring of the next Year. | 1                 |  |  |  |  |                   |                          |       |            |                            |                 |              |
| ANTIGONUS having recover'd Phœnicia, Judea and Cale-Syria, (as on the other Column) sent Athenus with an Army against the Nabathæan Arabs in Petra near Sinai; who first spoil'd them, but They pursu'd him and recover'd All. Then He sent DEMETRIUS, but he could not prevail against them, and was forc'd to make a Peace; and then was sent by his Father against SELEUCUS at Babylon, while the Father march'd against the Confederats to the Coast of lesser Asia, appointing a time for his Son's Return. SELEUCUS being in Media, DEMETRIUS met with no Opposition at Babylon; for Patrocles the Governor, and the People had desert-ed it; only He took one of the Cities, the other holding out against him, till the time appointed for his Return: and 10 after he had plunder'd all the Provinces, whereby he alienated the People's Hearts, Demetrius return'd to his Father and SELEUCUS enter'd Babylon in great Pomp.   | 2                 | 13   | 6  | 10   | 225  | 4403              | 311                      | 3693  | 2          | 437                        | 438             | 148          |
| And from this Year the Chaldeans begin the Era of SELEUCIDÆ, or of CONTRACTS.  |                   |  |  |  |  |                   |                          |       |            |                            |                 |              |
| And now ALEXANDER Ægus near 14 Years old, and his Mother Roxana were murder'd by Order of Cassander, in the Castle of Amphipolis, where he had kept them Prisoners: but Ptolemy the Astronomer's Canon reckons to him 5 Years more, even till the first Year of King PTOLEMY Soter in that Canon.   | 3                 | 14   | 7  | 11   | 226  | 4404              | 310                      | 3694  | 3          | 438                        | 439             | 149          |

ANTIGONUS having order'd his Fleet to be got ready, left his Son Demetrius in Phœnicia, and march'd himself into lesser Asia against Cassander, whom he soon reduc'd to mean Terms: yet Cassander repenting of them, held on to make a Diversion, till PTOLEMY gain'd Ground upon Antigonus in Phœnicia.

Upon PTOLEMY's Success in Phœnicia, as on the other Column: He gave SELEUCUS 1000 Foot, and 300 Horse, to go and recover his Government of Babylon; which he bravely did with so small a Force; because he had formerly exercis'd a very gentle Administration, while Antigonus's Administration was too severe: therefore, the People open'd their Gates to him, and came out to meet him with Joy; nay, and rais'd an Army for him, whereby he was enabled to go forth beyond the Tygris, and fight Aricano, Governor of Media, storming his Camp in the Night upon which Nicanor with a few Friends fled to Antigonus, but the Body of his Army submitted to SELEUCUS, who now took Possession of Media, Susiana and the neighbouring Parts, and establish'd his Jurisdiction by the Goodness of his Government, and by his Clemency and Justice arriv'd from so small a Beginning to be the greatest of all the Successors of ALEXANDER the Great, call'd therefore Nicator, or the Conqueror.

Mean while PTOLEMY becoming again Master of all Phœnicia, Judea and Cale-Syria, sent his General Cilles to drive DEMETRIUS out of the upper Syria; but Cilles being careless in his Camp, was routed by Demetrius: upon the News of which Victory ANTIGONUS left Phrygia, march'd to join his Son in Syria, and made Ptolemy retreat down to Egypt, leaving his Conquests again to Antigonus, but carrying with him all the Riches and a great Number of the People, who chose to go with him (because of his good Government, and fearing the Severity of Antigonus) with whom Ptolemy peopled Alexandria. Among them was Hezekias, a most learn'd Jew, who instructed Hecateus the Græek Historian in all the Affairs of the Jews, as mention'd by Euseb. Prepar. Evang. Lib. IX. and by Joseph. Antiq. Lib. I. cap 8. & cont. App. Lib. I. But PTOLEMY and his Confederats endeavour'd to distress Antigonus in the Coast of lesser Asia, and laid Siege to Halycarnassus; until DEMETRIUS return'd from Babylon (as on the other Column) and rais'd the Siege: when by a Treaty of Partition, ANTIGONUS and the Confederats made a Peace, which was forthwith broken: for the growing Power of Antigonus was their Terror.

PTOLEMY took from Antigonus several Cities in Cilicia, which were by Demetrius retaken: only Ptolemy by cutting off Nicolas King of Paphos, secur'd Cyprus wholly to himself.

| ANTIGONUS finding that PTOLEMY, LYSIMACHUS and CASSANDER had been influenc'd by SELEUCUS to confederate against him, soon return'd to Cilicia, and then march'd into Syria and Phœnicia, in order to dispossess PTOLEMY, and raise a naval Force: for Ptolemy had carried most of the Phœnician Ships to Egypt. While he incamp'd on the Coast, SELEUCUS aboard 100 Sail of Ptolemy's Ships insulted him; but he soon rigg'd out a superiour Fleet before the End of the Year.   |                | 10                            | 3                              | 7                          | 222              | 4400           | 314                | 3690  | 3          | 434                | 435          | 145       |
| And now Antiochus the General of ANTIGONUS took in Tyre after a Siege of 18 Months.  |                | 11                            | 4                              | 8                          | 223              | 4401           | 313                | 3691  | 4          | 435                | 436          | 146       |
| PTOLEMY in his March into Phœnicia was obstructed at Gaza by Demetrius, where They fought a fierce Batel in which PTOLEMY gain'd a great Victory, slaying 5000 and taking 8000, and drove Demetrius out of all Phœnicia and Cœle-Syria.  |                | 12                            | 5                              | 9                          | 224              | 4402           | 312                | 3692  | CXVII. 1   | 436                | 437          | 147       |
| From this retaking of Babylon by SELEUCUS Nicator, the famous Era of the SELEUCIDÆ begins.   |                |                               |                                |                            |                  |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |           |

| Polyperchon who rul'd in Peloponnesus pretended to revenge that Murder, and set up Hermolus the Son of ALEXANDER by Barbus the fair Widow of Memnon; but CASSANDER complying with his Terms, induc'd him to cause Hercules and his Mother to be put to Death, as CASSANDER had ALEXANDER and Roxana; and so an end was put to the Race of ALEXANDER the Great. PTOLEMY now invaded Pamphylia, and Lycia, and other maritime Parts; and took from Antigonus the Cities of Phaselis, Cannus, Mindus and others; and then sail'd into the Ægean Sea, now call'd Archipelago. Next Year he took in the Island of Andros, and from thence he sail'd to Sicyon and Corinth, which he took Possession of and of the neighbour-hood: while here, PTOLEMY corresponded with CLEOPATRA the Sister of Alexander the Great, and Widow of Alexander King of Epirus, re-siding at Sardis in Lydia; and persuaded her to leave the Dominions of Antigonus, and to reside in his Dominions: but on the Road she was catch'd, brought back and privately put to Death by order of Antigonus, who afterwards put to Death the Women that murder'd her, and gave her a solemn Funeral in order to avoid the Infamy: but all the World blam'd him still. DEMETRIUS the Son of Antigonus came with an Army to Athens, and expell'd Demetrius Phalerus the good Governor, who retir'd to Cy-zander. Demetrius the Conqueror finding at Athens EURIDICE the fair Widow of Ophellus, descended from Mithridates (who after her Husband's Death had retir'd to her native Place) fell in Love with her and mar-ried her. DEMETRIUS having conquer'd Cyprus (as on the other Column) He and his Father ANTIGONUS proclaim'd themselves Kings, wore each a Dia-dem and Royal Robes, and us'd the Royal Title in all their Deeds. ALEXANDER Epus King of Macedon.

made Peace with Antigonus and Demetrius in the 19th Year of his Age. He returned to Babylon in the 20th Year of his Age.

ANTIGONUS, who had invaded Lyfimachus, (as on the other Column) who was celebrating solemn Games at Antigonia, a new City built by him in upper Spuria; and having forthwith Antigonus's People, he march'd over Mount Taurus into Cilicia, where he augmented his Forces, and haten'd directly against Lyfimachus, who not being strong enough, stood upon the Defensive till Seleucus and Ptolemy should join him: for next Year

SELEUCUS march'd a great Army from Babylon to Cappadocia; upon the News of which ANTIGONUS sent for DEMETRIUS from Greece, who arriv'ing at Ephesus, recover'd that City with other Places which had revolted.

At length the Forces of SELEUCUS and Lyfimachus being join'd on the one Side, and those of ANTIGONUS and DEMETRIUS on the other Side, They came to a Decision in the Battel of Ipsus in Phrygia; in which ANTIGONUS, aged about 84, being slain, and his Army routed, the Confederates gain'd a total Victory.

DEMETRIUS escap'd to Ephesus with 9000 Men only out of 90000, and went aboard his Fleet; but was never able to recover his Father's Dominions, flitting from Place to Place for 17 Years; till at last He died in Prison under SELEUCUS, as will be accounted for.

But when he found Demetrius's Terms exorbitant, even a total and absolute Resignation to the Will of ANTIGONUS, CASSANDER consulted Lyfimachus, and They sent the Case to SELEUCUS and PTOLEMY; who being convinc'd of the Design of ANTIGONUS and Demetrius to suppress all the Captains of ALEXANDER, and to usurp the whole Empire, enter'd into a strict Alliance with the other two, who began the War in the Hellepont. Lyfimachus pass'd into Asia with a great Army, and reduc'd Phrygia, Lydia, Lycaonia; and most Parts from the Propontis to the River Meander were either subdu'd, or else revolted.

PTOLEMY, upon the March of ANTIGONUS out of Syria (as on the other Column) march'd out of Egypt with an Army, and recover'd Phenicia, Judea and Cale-Syria, except Tyre and Sidon: but hearing a false Rumour of Antigonus's Victory over Seleucus and Lyfimachus, Ptolemy broke up the Siege of Sidon, and return'd to Egypt.

Now upon the Death of Antigonus in the Battel of Ipsus (as on the other Column) the Confederates made a new Partition of the Grecian Monarchy. PTOLEMY got Egypt, Lybia, Cyrene, Arabia, Phenicia, Judea and Cale-Syria. CASSANDER got Greece and Macedon: Lyfimachus got Thrace and Bithynia, and the Parts near the Hellepont, and Bosphorus; and SELEUCUS got All the rest. These are the 4 HORNS of the HE-GOAT, or the 4 Heads of the Leopards mention'd in the Prophecies of Daniel.

I have brought down the Years from the Death of ALEXANDER the Great only to 19 Years, or the Year when Antigonus, Demetrius, Ptolemy, Seleucus, Cassander and Lyfimachus first assum'd the Title of King: and the next Year being the first Year of PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt (according to the Canon of Ptolemy the Astronomer) by adding to it 19, you have always the Total from the Death of ALEXANDER; and by adding 6 Years more, you have the Total from the Death of DARIUS Codomannus, or the Commencement of the Grecian Monarchy, according to our Computation, and by adding two Years more, you have the Commencement of the Grecian Monarchy, according to Ptolemy's Canon, who begins it upon ALEXANDER's founding of the City Alexandria in Egypt, two Years before the Death of DARIUS.

Some also compute the Reign of PTOLEMY Soter from the Death of ALEXANDER, which may be easily adjusted by adding 19 to the first Year of his Reign: and tho' SELEUCUS's Reign should begin the same Year with that of PTOLEMY Soter, it is usually reckon'd to begin with the Era of Seleucus, when he retook Babylon.

TABLE XXIX.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Egypt, and Syria, and their Contemporaries, upon the Partition of the Grecian Monarchy, viz.
From the Death of ANTIGONUS, 4th Year of PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt, or 12th Year of SELEUCUS King of Syria, A. M. 3703.
To the Death of PTOLEMY Auergetes King of Egypt, or first Year of ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria; during 79 Years.

PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt.

THE Grecian Monarchy consisting of four Parts, according to the Prophecy of Daniel, suffer'd various Revolutions till it gave Place to the Roman Monarchy.

Onias the High Priest of Jerusalem being dead was succeeded by SIMON the 3rd his Son, who liv'd in that Office 9 Years.

CASSANDER now reign'd in Peace King of Macedon, whose Wife was Thessalonice the other Sister of ALEXANDER the Great, who had bore to him three Sons, Philip, Antipater and Alexander.

LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace now married Arinoe Daughter of PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt, by Queen Eurydice; and married his Son Agatharchus to Lysandra the full Sister of Arinoe. Upon which Lysimachus's first Queen Amastris (who had been the Widow of Dionysius King of Heraclea) deserted him, retir'd to their native City Heraclea, and built the City Amastria on the Ægean Coast.

About this time Megasthenes flourish'd, who wrote an History of India. He was the Confident of Seleucus, and having treated for his Master with Sandrocottus King of India above mention'd, He resided there some time, and gather'd the Materials of his History, which is now lost except some Fragments in Iosephus and Eusebius, and some Quotations in other Authors: so that the Book publish'd by Alexius of Trerbo under the Name of Metasthenes (which he mistook for Megasthenes) in the 15th Century, is a mere Forgery.

CASSANDER having reign'd in Macedon 19 Years from his Father's Death, died this Year of a Dropsy, and his Son Philip died soon after, leaving that Crown to be contested for by the other two Sons Antipater and ALEXANDER.

PYRRHUS King of Epirus having been kept out of his Kingdom by Neoptolemus the Usurper, had follow'd Demetrius in all his Wars very young, till the Marriage of SELEUCUS with Stratonice; when Seleucus made Peace between PTOLEMY and Demetrius, and PYRRHUS was deliver'd as the Hostage of Demetrius, and carried by Ptolemy into Egypt; where behaving himself like a wife and brave Prince, Ptolemy gave him to Wife Antigone the Daughter of Berenice his best belov'd Wife. PTOLEMY's other Wife was Eurydice the Daughter of ANTIPATER and Sister of CASSANDER, who brought with her into Egypt this same Berenice as a Companion, the Widow of one Philip a noble Macedonian, who so captivated the Heart of Ptolemy, that he married her too and lov'd her best: and now Pyrrhus having married her Daughter, whom she had born to her said first Husband, she prevail'd with Ptolemy to assist her Son-in-law in recovering his Kingdom.

SELEUCUS Nicator King of Syria.

Upon the Death of ANTIGONUS, the four Confederats, viz. SELEUCUS, PTOLEMY, CASSANDER and LYSIMACHUS made a Partition of the Grecian Empire, fix'd their several Bounds, and made a League to which their Successors appeal'd, as to their Original Charter, in all their Contests.

SELEUCUS now founded the City of Antioch in upper Syria on the River Orontes, about 20 Miles from the Fall of that River into the Mediterranean, the Mid-way by Land between Constantinople and Alexandria in Egypt, about 700 Miles distant from each; so call'd from the Name of his Father and of his Son. He built other 16 Cities of the same Name, one of which is mention'd Act. iii. 14. but This on the Orontes became the Mistress of the East. He built also in Syria the City of Seleucia, and Apamia so call'd from his Wife Apama the Daughter of Ariabazus the Persian; and the City of Laodicea from Laodice his Mother; all three near Antioch, from which the Country was call'd Tetrapolis, or the Country of four Cities, also call'd Seleucia. About 5 Miles from Antioch at Daphne SELEUCUS erected a Globe ten Miles in Compass, and in the Middle of it a Temple to APOLLO and DIANA; a lovely Place, but afterwards wholly devoted to Bacchus and Venus, and a Nursery of Impiety.

SELEUCUS married the fair Stratonice Daughter of King Demetrius, which he had by Phila the Sister of CASSANDER. Demetrius was glad of the Proposal, and carried her with his whole Fleet from Greece; but first made a Descent upon Cilicia then held by Philearchus the Brother of Cassander, plunder'd his Treasures which he carried aboard, and sail'd thence to Orassus in Syria, where he met SELEUCUS; and there having celebrated the Nuptials, Demetrius sail'd back to Cilicia, and conquer'd all that Country; whereby his Power in Asia began to revive, having Possession also of Cyprus, Tyre and Sidon.

SELEUCUS offer'd to buy Cilicia of Demetrius, who would not sell it, which made Seleucus angry, and he demanded Tyre and Sidon as a Part of the Syrian Kingdom belonging to him; but Demetrius scorn'd the Demand, went and strengthen'd those Places with good Garrisons, and baffled the Designs of Seleucus.

Now Macedon was all in Confusion by the Contests of the Competitors for the Crown, the two Sons of Cassander, who were increasing their separate Interests with the People.

Demetrius from Tyre, either by himself or his Lieutenants, wasted the Country of the Samaritans, Euseb. Chron. and after he had reduc'd the Mes-senians, he march'd to Athens.

| When PTOLEMY had conquer'd Cyprus and took in Salamine, (as on the other Column) he took Care of Demetrius's Mother, his Wife and Children then in Salamine, and sent them to him without Ransom, with all the Persons and Effects that belong'd to them; nay, with several magnificent Presents and great Marks of Honour.   | 10           | 6                       | 241       | 164           | 4419               | 295   | 3709       | 2                  | 453          | 454              | 18 |
| Tis most likely that now also Tyre and Sidon fell into the Hands of PTOLEMY; and that SELEUCUS now also took Cilicia from Demetrius; for these Transactions cannot be assign'd to a fitter time.  |              |                         |           |               |                    |       |            |                    |              |                  |    |
| Upon Antipater's murdering his Mother (as on the other Column) Alexander his Brother call'd in Demetrius to revenge it; and before he reach'd the Borders, all Men detested and deserted Antipater, who fled into Thrace alone, where he soon perish'd. Alexander now rid of his Brother, contriv'd how to be rid of DEMETRIUS by cutting him off: but the King being inform'd of it, was beforehand and cut off Alexander at an Entertainment, just as Alexander had plotted to slay him; and so DEMETRIUS obtain'd the Crown of Macedon, where he reign'd 7 Years, till a cross Turn of Fortune expell'd him; as will appear in its Place.                                  | 11           | 7                       | 242       | 165           | 4420               | 294   | 3710       | 3                  | 454          | 455              | 19 |
| PTOLEMY King of Egypt, being an excellent Scholar, founded a Museum, or College of learned Men at Alexandria, for the Improvement of Learning; for which End He gather'd a Library of Books, that was daily increasing at Brachium, a Place near that City, near the Palace; to which he was advis'd by Demetrius Phalerens the late learn'd Prince of Athens, who had been ejected by King DEMETRIUS, and had liv'd with CASSANDER till he died; and upon Antipater's murdering his Mother Thessalonice, Phalerius thought it best to retire into Egypt, where PTOLEMY made him his prime Counsellor; and by whose Advice he built the Museum, and erected the said Library. | 12           | 8                       | 243       | 166           | 4421               | 293   | 3711       | 4                  | 455          | 456              | 20 |
| SIMON the Just High Priest of Jerusalem died this Year, and his Son Jaddias being an Infant, Simon was succeeded by his Brother Eleazar, who officiated 15 Years.   | 13           | 9                       | 244       | 167           | 4422               | 292   | 3712       | CXXII. 1           | 456          | 457              | 21 |
| SIMON was the last of the 120 Elders, or Men of the Great Synagogue, who had begun to form themselves at the Reduction from the Captivity with EZRA at their Head, for the restoring of the State and Church of the Jews, and for making a true Collection of the Holy Scriptures, which SIMON finish'd by adding to the Canon, the two Books of Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther and Malachi.  | 14           | 1                       | 245       | 168           | 4423               | 291   | 3713       | 2                  | 457          | 458              | 22 |
| The warlike Preparations of DEMETRIUS (as on the other Column) alarm'd PTOLEMY, SELEUCUS, LYSIMACHUS and PYRRHUS to confederate against him. And so while Lysimachus invaded Macedon on the one side. Pyrrhus invaded it on the other side, and took the great City Beroia, where Demetrius's Soldiers had their Families and Effects; which made them all desert to Pyrrhus, whom they made their King: but he reign'd only about 7 Months, for Lysimachus took the Kingdom of Macedon, and reign'd about 5 Years, there as well as in Thrace.   | 15           |                         |           |               |                    |       |            |                    | 458          |                  |    |

SELEUCUS Nicator King of Syria.

For the Athenians having also revolted from him, he besieg'd them straitly, and by a Famine They were forc'd to a Surrender. Having resettled Athens, DEMETRIUS design'd to subdue the Lacedemonians, and beat them in two Battels: but as he was just upon assaulting the City of Lacedemon, he desisted and rais'd the Siege upon the News that LYSIMACHUS had invaded and taken his Territories and Cities in Asia, and that PTOLEMY had subdu'd all Cyprus except Salamine, which he besieg'd and soon took it, as on the other Column.

Antipater the eldest Son of CASSANDER perceiving his Mother Thessalonice, to favour most his younger Brother Alexander, by her Interest with the People, was highly intrag'd, impiously fell upon her, and slew her with his own Hands, while she begg'd her Life by shewing him her Breasts that suckled him; tho' in vain: and as the Offspring of ALEXANDER the Great had been extirpated by the Murder of Alexander and Hercules his Sons; so now the Offspring of PHILIP his Father was extirpated in the Murder of Thessalonice, and in the Death of her two Sons without Issue (as on the other Column) nay, Philip and ALEXANDER the Great his Son, and all their Relatives, died violent Deaths.

SELEUCUS now founded Seleucia on the West Side of the Tigris, over against where Bagdad now stands on the East Side; which He made the Metropolis of his Provinces East of that River (as Antioch was of those West of that River) about 40 Miles South of old Babylon; which now was drain'd of its Inhabitants to people Seleucia, and became in some time a Desolation even to this Day, according to the Prophecy, Isa. xlii. 19—21.

This new City became exceeding great, and was by foreign Writers call'd Babylon, was afterwards the Palace of the Parthian Kings, and after that of the Persian Kings, that held it till the Cities Ctesephon and Almadoyen were built, which quite exhausted Seleucia, which became a Desolation as well as Babylon, till Abu Jassar Almanzur the Caliph, or Emperor of the Saracens began to reign A. D. 754. when nothing remain'd of it, but the Cell of a Christian Monk call'd Dad, with a Garden call'd Bagdad, or the Garden of Dad; where Almanzur founded a new City to be the Capital of his Empire, A. D. 762. But it was soon transported to the other Side of the Tigris, where Bagdad now stands.

About this Time, ANTIOCHUS the Son of Seleucus fell sick in Love of Queen STRATONICE his Mother-in-law, which Erasistratus his Physician discover'd to Seleucus, who, to save his belov'd Son's Life, consented to give him Stratonice in Marriage, and she became the Wife of the Son, after she had born Children in lawful Wedlock to the Father, who also crown'd them King and Queen of upper Asia, and sent them to rule there.

DEMETRIUS having settled his Affairs, as he thought, in Greece and Macedon, rais'd 100000 Men, and rigg'd out 500 Ships, in order to recover his Father's Dominions in Asia.

Demetrius having lost his Army (as on the other Column) fled alone privately to Greece; and having committed his Affairs then to the Care of Antigonus his Son, he rais'd 11000 Men, went aboard his Fleet, and sail'd into Asia to push his Fortune; but his Wife Phila the Sister of CASSANDER poison'd herself for Grief of her Husband's Misfortunes.

But when he arriv'd at Miletus and had took it, he was there married to Ptolemais the Daughter of PTOLEMY, brought to him by her Mother Queen but Agathocles the Son of Lysimachus coming against him with a superior Force, Demetrius retired All and march'd Eastward, where he was distress'd for want of Provisions; and a great Sickness among his Men; and because Agathocles coasted him all the Way, he attempted in vain to pass Mount Taurus, for Agathocles had seiz'd the Passes; and therefore march'd backward to Tarsus in Cilicia, from whence he sent to SELEUCUS for Subsistence for him and his remaining Forces, which was granted for some time: but Seleucus afraid of his vast Genius and military Skill, thought fit to crush him at once and march'd an Army against him.

SELEUCUS having got Demetrius in Prison (as on the other Column) sent him often kind Messages and a Promise of Release as soon as ANTIOCHUS and STRATONICE should come to his Court. But before they came, Demetrius, idle in Confinement, spent his Time in Eating, Drinking and Gaming, till fill'd with noxious Humours he contracted Sickness, and died in three Years, aged 54 Years.

PTOLEMY Soter the Son of Lagus having reign'd in Egypt from the Death of Alexander the Great, 39 Years, and from his taking the Title of King, 20 Years, and from the Death of Antigonus, 16 Years; was influenc'd by his second Queen Berenice, his best lov'd Wife, to make his Son by her the Partner of his Throne, viz.

2. Ptolemy Philadelphus, in order to prevent Quarrels after his Death. The Tower of Pharos at Alexandria, or the most famous Light-House that ever was built, being one of the Seven Wonders of Art, begun by PTOLEMY Soter, was now finish'd by PTOLEMY Philadelphus, and by his Architects Demetrius of Cnidus, and his Father Demetrius who built the Heptastadium, or Bank of 7 Furlongs, for joining the Island of Pharos to the Continent, while his Son rear'd the Tower.

PTOLEMY Soter at length died, aged 84 Years, accounted the wisest and best of all his Race: and now none of ALEXANDER's Captains remain'd, but SELEUCUS and LYSIMACHUS, who, tho' about 80 Years old, made War upon each other, to the Destruction of them both. The Occasion was that Antioch the Daughter of PTOLEMY Soter by Queen Berenice, and Queen of LYSIMACHUS, fearing that her Son-in-law Agathocles (who had married Lysandra the Daughter of PTOLEMY Soter by Queen Euridice) by Ceraunus's Means should be too strong for her and her Children, when Lysimachus should die, influenc'd her Husband, by false Accusations, to cast him into Prison, and there cut him off: upon which Agathocles's Widow Lysandra, and her Children and Ceraunus fled to SELEUCUS.

SELEUCUS having slain Lysimachus (as on the other Column) was the only surviving Captain of ALEXANDER the Great, and now seems to have acquir'd the Title of Nicator, or the Conqueror, tho' he had assum'd it before. But his Triumph lasted not long.

For as he was marching to take Possession of Macedon, where he intended to pass the Remainder of his Days, He was basely murder'd by PTOLEMY Ceraunus at Argos near Lysimachia: after he had reign'd from his retaking of Babylon 33 Years, and from his wearing a Crown 25 Years, but Ceraunus did not go long unpunish'd; for next Year

SELEUCUS Nicator King of Syria.

Queen Euridice his last Wife's Sister: and Ptolemais bore to him afterwards a Son call'd Demetrius, who in time became King of Cyrene.

Demetrius being reduc'd to great Straits (as on the other Column) and hearing at Tarsus that SELEUCUS was on his March against him, seiz'd some Forts in Mount Taurus, and again sent to Seleucus requesting leave to pass into the East, and to seize some barbarous Country, where he might end his Days in Peace: but that Message encreasing the Jealousy of Seleucus, he order'd him to be gone after two Months Winter Quarters. But Demetrius finding himself beset by Agathocles and Seleucus, he fell upon Seleucus's Forces that guarded the Mountains, and got into Syria.

There he lay Sick 40 Days, and when recover'd he desperately resolv'd to Storm Seleucus's Camp in the Night; but his Design being discover'd, prov'd abortive; and at last being near starv'd in the Woods, he was forced to surrender himself to Seleucus, who sent him Prisoner to the Syrian Chersonesus. Upon which SELEUCUS join'd the lesser Asia to his Syrian Kingdom.

Upon the Promotion of PTOLEMY Philadelphus to his Father's Throne, his eldest Brother Ptolemy Ceraunus (born by the first Queen, Euridice the Daughter of Antipater and Sister of Cassander) fled to LYSIMACHUS, whose Son Agathocles had married Lysandra the full Sister of Ceraunus, and was very kindly receiv'd there.

A little before PTOLEMY Soter died, the Image of Jupiter was brought from Synope in Pontus to Rhacotis near Alexandria, which the Egyptians call'd Serapis, whom They now first worship'd and built a famous Temple for him call'd the Serapeum; at which a new Alexandrian Library was erected afterwards, when the Museum at Brachium was once fill'd with 400000 Manuscripts. The Serapeum came to hold 300000 Volumes, in all 700000. The Brachium was burnt down in the Wars of JULIUS CESAR, and all its Volumes consum'd; but the Serapeum remain'd unburnt, to which Cleopatra added 200000 Volumes of the Library of Pergamus given her by Antony; and it became as large and famous as the former, till it was burnt and destroy'd by the Saracens, A. D. 642.

PHILETARUS the Eunuch, the Governor of the City of Pergamus and Treasurer of LYSIMACHUS, being griev'd for the Death of Agathocles, and finding Queen Antioch design'd to cut him off too; now revolted, and under the Protection of SELEUCUS he founded the Kingdom of Pergamus, where he reign'd 20 Years.

SELEUCUS having prepar'd an Army, march'd into lesser Asia, and took Sardis from Lysimachus where his Treasures lay.

LYSIMACHUS march'd an Army over the Hellepont, and fought a Battel with Seleucus at Cojupedion in Phrygia; wherein LYSIMACHUS was slain; whereby SELEUCUS got all the lesser Asia.

Ptolemy Ceraunus having murder'd SELEUCUS, as on the other Column, headed the Army and got himself declar'd the Successor of LYSIMACHUS, King of Thrace and of Macedon, murder'd the two Sons of Antioch, and poorly banish'd her into Samothracia: but his Triumph was very short, as on the other Column.

Continuation of TABLE XXIX.

PTOLEMY Philadelphus King of Egypt.

The Gauls invading Macedonia, defeated him in a Battel, took him Prisoner and tore him to Pieces, as he deserv'd: upon which Sosthenes took the Kingdom, and reign'd 2 Years, having defeated the Gauls. But before he reign'd Meleager the Brother of Ceraxus reign'd two Months, till the People expell'd him and set up Antipater the Nephew of CASSANDER, who reign'd only 45 Days before Sosthenes.

Arinoe the Widow of LYSIMACHUS now retir'd into Egypt, where her Brother PHILADELPHUS fell in Love with her, and marry'd her; having convicted his first Wife of a Plot against his Life, and banish'd her into upper Egypt: her Name was also Arinoe the Daughter of LYSIMACHUS, who had born to him two Sons.

Stenurus and Archonius with their Gauls 152000 Foot, and 61200 Horse, again invaded Macedon and defeated Sosthenes: but designing to conquer Greece, They were mostly destroy'd, as related by Polybius, Lib. I.

But the Remainder of the Gauls under Leonorius and Lutbarius pass'd the Bosphorus and Hellepont, and enter'd into the Service of Nicomedes King of Byzania, by whose help he defeated Zipates his Brother, and assign'd them the Country to dwell in, call'd by some Gallo-Gracia, and by others Galatia, and their Offspring were call'd Galatians. Sosthenes King of Macedon now died.

Eleazar the High Priest being dead, he was succeeded by Manasseh the Son of Jaddasb the Uncle of Onias the Son of SIMON the Just, because Onias was still under Age.

This Year PHILADELPHUS King of Egypt caus'd the Pentateuch, or 5 Books of Moses to be translated into Greek, by the 72 Interpreters; as afterwards the rest of the Books of the Old Testament were translated, commonly call'd the Septuagint Bible.

ANTIGONUS artfully disappointed the Gauls of his Treasure and Furniture, by carrying it to the Woods. Upon which They return'd to their Ships; but on the Shore They were met with, and destroy'd with a great Slaughter; whereby the Credit of Antigonas was rais'd high. But the Gauls in Asia laid all the Country West of Taurus under Tribute, and Pyrrhus sent into Greece and Asia for Succours, but in vain

The ROMANS now sent their Consul Carius Dentatus with an Army against PYRRHUS, who slew 23000 of the Enemy drove, Pyrrhus to Tarentum, and at last after a six Years War forc'd him back to Epirus. Upon which PTOLEMY Philadelphus sent Ambassadors to Rome to desire their Friendship; which They were so pleas'd with, that next Year

They sent Q. Fabius Garges, Cn. Fabius Pictor, and Q. Ogulnius their Ambassadors to PTOLEMY in Egypt: as may be seen in Livy, Eutropius Val. Max &c.

Upon the Death of Pyrrhus &c. as on the other Column the Carthagenian War ended, Ptolemy having deliver'd the City Tarentum to the Romans. Straton the Master of the Perseus the Son of Antigon being dead, was succeeded by Apion &c.

ANTIOCHUS Soter King of Syria

2. ANTIOCHUS Soter the Son of SELEUCUS Nicator (by Apama the Daughter of Artabazus the Persian) who had married STRATONICE his Mother-in-law, being possess'd of the Government succeeded to his Father, and reign'd 19 Years.

He forthwith sent his General Patrocles with an Army into lesser Asia, who march'd against the Heracleans a Colony of the Greeks in Pontus on the Euxin Sea: but coming to a Treaty with that Commonwealth, He invaded Bitbynia, where he and all his Army were by a Stratagem cut off.

ZIPATES was then King of Bitbynia, who died for Joy of this Victory, aged 76; after he had reign'd 48 Years, and was succeeded by NICOMEDES his eldest Son, who murder'd two of his Brothers; but the third call'd Zipates escap'd and made War against him. But Nicomedes being threatn'd by ANTIOCHUS also, invited the Gauls to his Assistance; which was the Occasion of their first coming into lesser Asia.

Upon the Death of Sosthenes King of Macedon, (as on the other Column) ANTIOCHUS Soter claim'd that Kingdom: but

ANTIGONUS Gonatas the Son of the Great Demetrius (who died in Confinement) having reign'd in Greece about ten Years, ever since his Father's unfortunate Expedition into Asia, was at Hand and took Possession of Macedon.

ANTIOCHUS rais'd an Army to dispossess ANTIGONUS; and in his March quarrell'd with Nicomedes his Confederate; but They came to Terms: and because ANTIGONUS married Phila the Daughter of STRATONICE by Seleucus, Antiochus quitted his Claim to Macedon, where ANTIGONUS reign'd 34 Years, and his Offspring long reign'd there till the last of them PERSEUS was conquer'd by Paulus Aemilius, when Macedon became a Province of Rome.

And now ANTIOCHUS march'd against the Gauls in Asia, that had become great Oppressors of their Neighbours; and having routed them in Battel, ANTIOCHUS obtain'd the Name Soter the Saviour.

PYRRHUS, tho' baffled in Italy (as on the other Column) upon his Return, defeated ANTIGONUS Gonatas, and beat him out of all his Dominions.

PYRRHUS now design'd to conquer Greece and Asia, and first march'd to Laconia, while Areus King of the Lacedemonians was absent, and helping the Gortynians in Crete: but Acrotatus the Son of AREUS with the Women of Sparta defended that City till Areus return'd. Mean while ANTIGONUS recovers Macedon, and leads an Army into Peloponnesus, at the Return of Areus: and while PYRRHUS march'd to Argos, Diocestus a brave Cretean in Areus's Army murder'd Ptolemy, the Son of Pyrrhus in Battel; and at Argos the valiant PYRRHUS was slain by a poor old Woman, upon which his Army dispers'd, and so Antigonus recover'd All again.

| XXIV. Year of UMBELI mentioned under MANASSAH the High Priest.MAGAS the Son of Antiochus Soter , and of Ptolemy Philadelphus , had been made Lieutenant or Governor of Cyrene and Lybia upon the Death of Opocillas , and had married Apame the Daughter of ANTIOCHUS Soter ; and having been long in that Government, design'd to make himself Master, not only of those Provinces where he now reign'd, but even of all-Egypt ; and having rebell'd,   | 1                                       | 9              | 265                               | 191          | 4446             | 265                             | 3736  | CXXVIII. 1 | 480                       | 481             | 45                       | 12                        | ANTIOCHUS King of Macedon now became formidable to all Greece ; upon which the Athenians and Lacedemonians , and PTOLEMY Philadelphus confederated against him; but They did nothing material, nor could They hinder him from seizing Athens , in which he put a Garrison.   |
| MAGAS march'd an Army towards Alexandria , but was call'd back on the Road to suppress the Marmarides that had revolted from him.And Philadelphus having march'd a great Army to the Borders against him, was forc'd also to return, in order to suppress 4000 Gauls , who had conspir'd to seize Egypt ; but were seiz'd themselves and put upon a barren Island in the Nile , till They were all starv'd to Death.   | 18                                      | 10             | 269                               | 192          | 4447             | 267                             | 3737  | 2          | 481                       | 482             | 46                       | 13                        | Patroclus the Egyptian Admiral this Year, in his Return from Greece , found at Caunus the leud Poet and Sodomite Sodates , whom he cast into the Sea, for reflecting on his Master the King of Egypt , upon his Marriage with Antioe his Sister.  |
| Pythodates King of Pontus died after he had reign'd 36 Years, and was succeeded by ARIOBARZANES his Son.  | 20                                      | 12             | 271                               | 194          | 4449             | 265                             | 3739  | 4          | 483                       | 484             | 48                       | 15                        | MAGAS engag'd his Father-in-law, ANTIOCHUS Soter , in his Design; which PHILADELPHUS being inform'd of, grievously distress'd the maritime Towns of Antiochus , and kept him from helping Magas , who therefore could not safely carry on his Project.   |
| Now began the first Bunic or Sicilian War by the Romans against the Carthaginians , who had possess'd Sicily , which lasted 24 Years; and now the Romans first carried their Wars out of Italy , and first began to fight at Sea, when They took Syracuse .  | 21                                      | 13             | 272                               | 195          | 4450             | 264                             | 3740  | CXXIX. 1   | 484                       | 485             | 49                       | 16                        |  |
| Nicomedes King of Bithynia now built Nicomedia , that afterwards became the Seat of the Roman Emperors in the East .  | 22                                      | 14             | 273                               | 196          | 4451             | 263                             | 3741  | 2          | 485                       | 486             | 50                       | 17                        | PHILETÆRUS Founder of the Kingdom of Pergamus now died, and being an Eunuch was succeeded by his Nephew EUMENES .Antigonus of Socho died also, the President of the Sanhedrim at Jerusalem ; in whose time the Sect of the Sadducees began by Sadoc one of his Scholars.   |
| The Romans beat the Carthaginians at Sea, and took from them an hundred Towns in Lybia , Euseb .   | 23                                      | 15             | 274                               | 197          | 4452             | 262                             | 3742  | 3          | 486                       | 487             | 51                       | 18                        | ANTIOCHUS Soter now design'd to seize on the Kingdom of Bithynia , but was bravely repuls'd by EUMENES in a Battel near Sardis ; whereby he enlarg'd his Dominion.   |
| Berolus the Babylonian a Priest of Belus , who was a young Man in the Days of Alexander the Great , dedicated now his History to ANTIOCHUS the third King after Alexander , of which we have only Fragments in Josephus and Eusebius . Pliny saith It contain'd Astronomical Observations of 480 Years; which reckoning from the Commencement of the Nabonassar Era, will end about 8 Years before this, when his Book was finish'd.   | 24                                      | 16             | 275                               | 198          | 4453             | 261                             | 3743  | 4          | 487                       | 488             | 52                       | 19                        | ANTIOCHUS Soter upon his Return to Antioch , put to Death one of his Sons for a Conspiracy in his Absence, declar'd the other Son his Heir, viz. Antiochus born by STRATONICE ; and soon after died, being succeeded by his said Son, viz.   |
| PTOLEMY Philadelphus now built Myos Hormus near Berenice at the Confines of Ethiopia on the Red-Sea ; by which Means he drew all the East-India Trade from the Tyrians , and brought it to Alexandria that became the Staple of it; till the Portuguese found the way by the Cape of Good Hope .   | 25                                      | 17             | 276                               | 199          | 4454             | 260                             | 3744  | CXXX. 1    | 488                       | 489             | 53                       | 1                         | 3. ANTIOCHUS Theos or the Divine , who now married Laodice his Sister, the Daughter of his Father. He was call'd Theos by the Milesians , for delivering them from the Tyranny of Timarchus , who being Ptolemy's Governor in Caria (for Ptolemy possess'd Caria , Cilicia , Lycia and Pamphilia ) revolted and fix'd at Miletus . |
| MAGAS King of Cyrene and Lybia made Peace with his Brother PTOLEMY Philadelphus , by marrying his only Child Berenice to Ptolemy's eldest Son, who was declar'd the Heir of Magas .  | 26                                      | 18             | 277                               | 200          | 4455             | 259                             | 3745  | 2          | 489                       | 490             | 54                       | 2                         | I had forgot to remark that the Periods of Calippus began on the 28th of June , with the new Moon of the Summer Solstice , that next insu'd the Overthrow of DARIUS in the Battel near Arbela , An: Nabonassar . 418 the first Callippic Year: and it consists of four of Ptolemy's Cycles of 19 Years each, which make 76 Years for the Period.                             |
| MAGAS dying, Apame his Queen not liking the Match, sent to Macedon to Demetrius the Son of the late King DEMETRIUS by Ptolemy's Daughters, the Daughter of PTOLEMY Soter , He was half Brother of ANTIGONUS Gonatas : upon his Arrival Apame fell in Love with him, which made him neglect the Daughter, and behave himself insolently. Therefore Berenice rais'd a Possé, and led them to the Door of her Mother's Bed-chamber, where They kill'd him in Bed with her. Then Berenice sent | 27                                      | 19             | 278                               | 201          | 4456             | 258                             | 3746  | 3          | 490                       | 491             | 55                       | 3                         | The Philippean Years, mention'd by Ptolemy , Clemens Alexandrinus , Eusebius , Censorinus , Alphonsus , Albategnius and others, are of the same Form with the Years of Nabonassar , and computed from the Death of ALEXANDER the Great ; and the Year of Nabonassar 425. is the first Philippean Year. See Page 138.                                    |
|  | 28                                      | 20             | 279                               | 202          | 4457             | 257                             | 3747  | 4          | 491                       | 492             | 56                       | 4                         | So that this Year, when King MAGAS of Lybia died, was the 74th Year of the first Period of Calippus , and the 67th Philippean Year. The Callippic Periods will shew the Years of the Grecian Monarchy from the Battel of Arbela , and the Philippean Years from the Death of Alexander .  |

| PTOLEMY coveted a fine Statue of Diana , which he saw in one of her Temples, which Antiochus gave him, and it was brought into Egypt. But his Queen Arfinoe falling sick, fancied it was owing to the Injury done to Diana , and therefore Ptolemy sent it back with great Presents; tho' Arfinoe recover'd not, but languish'd to Death this Year.   | 34              | 26           | 285                | 208      | 4463          | 251            | 3753  | CXXXII. 2  | 497                | 498          | 4                                   | 73                 | 62               | 10              | The Carthaginians take 50 Roman Ships in Sicily , when They beat Metellus the Consul.ANTIOCHUS Theos being so deeply engag'd in his War against PHILADELPHUS , had no time to look after his Eastern Provinces: and therefore   |

But he discountenanc'd the carping and satirical Zoilas . PHILADELPHUS was also a curious Architect, rebuilt Ace a famous Port on the Sea Coast of Palestine , which he call'd Ptolemais , call'd afterwards Acon and now by the Turks Acce . He also rebuilt Rabbah the old Capital of the Ammonites , which he call'd Philadelpbia : nay, he left behind him so many Monuments of curious Architecture in stately Cities, magnificent Temples, and Palaces, and other publick Edifices; that all accurate and sumptuous Architecture was wont to be call'd Philadelphian , or after the Style of PHILADELPHUS . |

BERENICE his Queen was carried to Constantinople by the Emperor of Har to the Temple of the Zephaniah in Constantinople. But by Ptolemy's return, she was restored to her father accordingly: and when it was told out of the Temple, Commemoration of a famous Astronomer, made her and the King call by offering it was caught up to Heaven, and was become a Constellation, call'd to this Day Coma Berenices.

In his Return He gave great Sacrifices to be offer'd in the Temple of Jerusalem to JEHOVAH for his great Victories, and carried home great Spoils, among which 2500 Images, the Egyptian Idols that Cambyfes had carried away, which now PTOLEMY restor'd to their ancient Temples; for which the Egyptians call'd him Euergetes, or the Benefactor.

PTOLEMY finding that ANTIOCHUS was to join his Brother SELEUCUS with his Army, clapt up a Peace with Seleucus for ten Years, whereby Seleucus thought himself disingag'd from his Contract with Antiochus, which produc'd a War between them, as on the other Column.

ANTIGONUS Gonzalus, after he had reign'd in Greece 44 Years, and in Macedonia 34, now died, aged 80 (as Medius and others say, or 83 as Porphyry says (in Græc. Enchiridion Page 229) and was succeeded by his Son

DEMETRIUS, who reign'd ten Years. He came to be possess'd of Cyprus and Lycia in Africa. Justin writes (Lib. XXVIII.) that he married first the Sister of Antiochus Hierax; but that he divorc'd her and she went to her Brother in Asia, when DEMETRIUS married Phibia the Daughter of Alexander and Olympias, who were the Son and Daughter of PYRRHUS late King of Epirus, as well as Husband and Wife.

EUMENES King of Pergamus took the Advantage of these Divisions, beat both Antiochus and the Gauls, and over-ran all the lesser Asia; but after he had reign'd 22 Years, he died next Year of hard Drinking, without Issue, and was succeeded by his Cousin Germanicus.

ATTALUS the Son of Attalus his Father Phileterus's younger Brother, who totally subdu'd the Galatians, and was the first that assum'd the Title of King of Pergamus.

In this 4th Year of Olympiad 134, Lacydes the Cyprian was Principal of the new Academy; for which King ATTALUS had openly erected a School in a Garden, Laert. in Lacyd.

Mean while PTOLEMY apply'd himself to cultivate Learning, and to enlarge the Royal Library at Alexandria, and on the Death of Zenodotus the first Librarian, he put the learned Crates to the to destroy poor Berenice and her young Son; and these two unfortunate fled to the Asylum in Daphne, where they were besieged and both murder'd.

4. SELEUCUS Callinicus upon his Accession to the Throne, finding the Cities of lesser Asia had revolted from him, rigg'd out a great Fleet to reduce them; but he lost all his Ships and Men in a violent Storm, none escaping but himself and a few of his Retinue. Upon which the revolted Cities began to pity him, and return'd to their Obedience.

SELEUCUS again possess'd of lesser Asia, rais'd an Army to recover the rest of his Dominions from Ptolemy; but was totally beaten out of the Field by PTOLEMY, and narrowly escap'd to Antioch with a few Friends. Upon which he invited his Brother to join him, viz. ANTIOCHUS Hierax then aged 14, yet at the Head of an Army: he was call'd by some Historians King of Syria, as well as Seleucus was, and call'd Hierax or the Hawke for being of a rapacious Temper.

But tho' SELEUCUS had made Peace with PTOLEMY (as on the other Column) ANTIOCHUS continu'd his Preparations for War in order to be possess'd of lesser Asia as Seleucus had promis'd him: therefore the two royal Brothers came to a Battel near Ancyra, in which SELEUCUS was overthrown, and hardly escap'd Death: and the Gauls or Gallatians of ANTIOCHUS's Army hearing that Seleucus was slain, design'd to cut off their Master ANTIOCHUS in order to be Masters of All: but ANTIOCHUS redeem'd his Life by giving them all his Treasures.

ARSACES Tridates now join'd Hyrcania to Parthia, and made a League with THEODOTUS II. King of Bactria (upon the Death of his Father) for mutual Defence against the Seleucids. But for all that, the two royal Brothers carried on their War against each other, which was carried at last into Mesopotamia, when the Battel at Babylon happen'd, in which (as Judas Maccabeus says, 2 Mac. viii. 20.) 8000 Babylonish Jews join'd with 4000 Macedonians under SELEUCUS, vanquish'd the Gallatians and slew 120000 of them; at length ANTIOCHUS was broken, fled with his Remains to Ariarathes King of Cappadocia, whose Daughter he had married, and who order'd him to be cut off: but Antiochus escap'd and fled to Egypt, where PTOLEMY kept him in Prison several Years, till he broke Prison, and in his Flight from Egypt he was slain by a Gang of Thieves.

that Office, who wrote the Catalogue of all the Theban Kings in Egypt, from MENES or MIZRAIM to the Trojan War, still extant in Strabon, Page 91, &c. which supplies the Defect of Manetho, whose Catalogue of the Theban Kings begins only where this ends.

Onias the High Priest of Jerusalem, an old, covetous and inconsiderate Man, had neglected to pay the annual Tribute of 20 Talents to the King of Egypt his Superior therefore PTOLEMY Euergetes sent Asbenion his Ambassador to demand the Arrears and punctual Payment for the Future.

Upon which Onias and the Jews sent Joseph the Son of Tobias, by the Sister of Onias their Ambassador to PTOLEMY, who made up the Matter, and by that King was made the Farmer of the Crown's Revenues in Cele-Syria, Phenicia and Judea, in which Office he continued 22 Years, Joseph. Antiq. Lib. XII. cap. 4.

PTOLEMY having no Wars in the North, was at Leisure to extend his Dominions Southward, making himself Master of both Coasts of the Red-Sea down to the Streights into the Ocean; whereby he cultivated his Navigation and India Trade.

PTOLEMY Euergetes died this Year much lamented, and was the last good King of that Race. Some gave out that he was murder'd by his Son and Heir PTOLEMY Philopater. See the following Table.

This Year a violent Earthquake threw down the Walls of Rhodes, and the Houses, and the great Colossus erected in the Mouth of the Harbour, one of the seven Wonders of Art, a Statue of Brass 105 Foot high dedicated to the SUN, between whose Legs the Ships enter'd the Harbour. It was made by the ingenious Chares of Lindus, in 12 Years, and had stood 66 Years, and it lay in Ruins 894 Years, till Anno Domini 672; when MOAWIAS the sixth Caliph of the Saracens sold it for old Brass to a Jew, who loaded 900 Camels with it.

SELEUCUS now deliver'd from his Brother and well recruited, march'd an Army Eastward to reduce ARSACES; but he effected nothing, being soon call'd back to settle Commotions: but as soon as he could, He return'd against ARSACES, who beat him in a great Battel and took him Prisoner.

The Day of that Battel was long observ'd annually by the Par- thians, as the first Day of their Freedom; and from thence ARSACES assum'd the Title of KING, and from him and his Brother all his Successors took the Name of ARSACES.

SELEUCUS Callinicus tho' a Prisoner was handsomely maintain'd in Parthia till he died this Year of a Fall from his Horse. Athen. and Justin. By his Wife Laodice (the Daughter of Andromachus his General) he left two Sons, Seleucus and Antiochus, and a Daughter, who was married to Mithridates King of Pontus, who got Phrygia for her Patrimony.

5. SELEUCUS Ceraunus being eldest, succeeded his Father in the Throne, and call'd himself Ceraunus the Thunderer, tho' he de- serv'd it not, for he could do nothing if he had not been support- ed by his Mother's Brother Achaëus, who got him an Army to march against ATTALUS King of Pergamus: but Seleucus could not dispossess Attalus from his Conquests in lesser Asia; and grow- ing contemptible in the Army, Nicanor and Apaturius two of his Generals poison'd him while he incamp'd in Phrygia. But Achaëus reveng'd the Murder by cutting off those Traitors, and tho' he was invited by the Army to be King, he declin'd it and generously proclaim'd his other Nephew, viz.

6. ANTIOCHUS Magnus then aged 15, and educated at Babylon, from whence Achaëus sent for him to Antioch, where he mount- ed the Throne of Syria, and reign'd 36 Years. Achaëus sent one half of the Army under the Command of Epigenes to attend the King in Syria, and kept the other half to fight King ATTALUS in lesser Asia; and soon recover'd All that Attalus had taken from the Crown of Syria, reducing him to his old Borders again.

TABLE XXX.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Egypt, and Syria, and their Contemporaries, from the Death of PTOLEMY Euergetes King of Egypt, or the first Year of ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria, A. M. 3782.

To the 15th Year of PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt, or the 10th Year of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria, or the first Year of JUDAS Maccabaeus Prince of the Jews, A. M. 3838. during 56 Years.

PTOLEMY Philopator King of Egypt.

4 PTOLEMY Philopator, or a Lover of his Father, deserv'd not that Name; for having poison'd his Father Euergetes, he thought it convenient next to cut off his Mother Berenice and Magas his only Brother; that so he might meet with no Controul or Check in the Pursuit of his Lusts and Tyranny, nay, because Cleomenes the Spartan had advis'd against the Murder of Magas, he was cast into Prison, and when he got out, not being able to excite the Alexandrian to rebel and assert their Liberties, He and his Followers kill'd themselves, rather than fall into the Hands of PHILOPATOR and his vile Favourite Sybilas. Cleomenes had been King of Sparta, but was driven out of Greece by ANTIGONUS King of Macedonia, and had fled to the Egyptian Court in the Days of Euergetes, who us'd him well.

PTOLEMY married his own Sister Antioe, but was more infatuat'd by his Whore Agastoclea than by his Wife, and his Court became a Bawdy-house, for he was addicted to all Sorts of Lust.

PTOLEMY misinform'd, order'd Theodorus Governor of Caele-Syria to come to Egypt and answer an heavy Accusation against him, for not doing his Duty against ANTIOCHUS. But tho' Theodorus was acquitted upon a Hearing, he design'd to deserve the Accusation by leaving his Master and going over to Antiochus.

ACHAUS having rescu'd all the lesser Asia from ATTALUS King of Pergamus, became envy'd at the Syrian Court, where the Statesmen forg'd Letters of Correspondence between him and PTOLEMY Philopator; which Achaus hearing of, found it necessary to do now what he was falsely accus'd of; and so declar'd himself King of Asia.

XXVth Year of JUBILEE.

PTOLEMY not being prepar'd to resist ANTIOCHUS, offer'd a Truce for six Months, which was accepted: but at the Treaty neither Side would yield their Pretensions in Caele-Syria and Phoenicia; therefore They renew'd the War next Year, when PTOLEMY made Diolias an Egyptian his General in those Parts, and sent Beriganes with a Fleet to assist him, who fought Diogenus the Admiral of Antiochus, the same time that Nicola fought at Land, and in Sight of each other, but it was a drawn Battel at Sea tho' not at Land, as on the other Column.

ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria.

ANTIOCHUS had sent Molon and Alexander two Brothers into the East, the first to be Governor of Media, and the other of Persia, but They both revolted and declar'd themselves Kings: but tho' his wife General Epigenes advis'd ANTIOCHUS to march a great Army against those Rebels in the East, yet Hermias his prime Favorite prevail'd to make him prepare first for the Recovery of Syria from PTOLEMY: and so he sent his Generals Eastward, and he march'd into Caele-Syria. But when he heard that They were routed by the Rebels, and saw how bravely he was resisted by the Egyptian Governor Theodorus an Etolian, who had well fortify'd the Mountains of Libanus and Antilibanus, ANTIOCHUS retreated and resolv'd to march in Person against Molon and Alexander, as Epigenes had well advis'd (who was cut off this Year by a sham Plot forg'd by Hermias in revenge of thwarting his Opinion) and even strait march'd into Mesopotamia, where he join'd his other Forces and went into Winter Quarters. And so next Spring

ANTIOCHUS cross'd the Tigris, and in a Battel totally routed Molon, who slew himself, as did Alexander also in Persia upon the News of Molon's death, having first slain all his Family: and the King having resettled those Provinces, and made old ARTABAZES to submit, who was King of the Astropatians West of Media in the Country now call'd Georgia; and having privately cut off his dangerous Favourite Hermias, for his intolerable Insolence, He return'd with his Army into Syria, where he winter'd. And in the Spring

ANTIOCHUS march'd against Seleucia on the Orontes, and having reduc'd it out of the Hands of the Egyptian Garrison (that had held it ever since Euergetes came to the Relief of Berenice) He march'd into Caele-Syria by the Invitation of Theodorus the Governor, who had declar'd for Antiochus, and put into his Hands Tyre, Ptolemais, and Damascus.

Nicolas Ptolemy's General having obstructed the March of Antiochus at the Streights of Libanus near the Sea, was beat from his Posts, and forc'd to retire to Sidon whither ANTIOCHUS follow'd him; but not being able to take it in soon, Antiochus march'd into Galilee, and from thence to Gilead as far as Rabbab or Philadelphia; which he took in, and all the Cities in those Countries, and return'd to his Winter Quarters at Ptolemais.

ANTIOCHUS after he was beaten in the Battel of Raphia (as on the other Column) gather'd up his Remains, return'd to Antioch and left the Prize to PTOLEMY, who made a Progress thro' those

| Scipio having invaded Africa , overcame Hannibal, and put a glorious End to the second Punic War.   |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  | PHILIP having unjustly invaded Pergamus without good Success, was forc'd to retire, and was also miserably beaten at Sea by the Rhodians , and the Fleet of King ATTALUS. But ANTIOCHUS conquer'd all Cale-Syria and Palestine .   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| And now the Romans sent three Ambassadors to Antiochus and Philip, to let them know that They had taken the Guardianship of young PTOLEMY, and that They would make War upon All who should molest their Pupil. And then M. C. Milius Lepidus one of the Ambassadors went to Alexandria , regulated Egypt, and appointed Aristomenes an Acaruanian to be Regent, who forthwith sent Scopas his General to raise 6000 stout Asians for recreining the Army: and the Romans sent Sulpitius Galba the Consul with an Army and Fleet against Philip of Macedon, who had now destroy'd all the People of Aegyus . |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  | PHILIP greatly distress'd the City Abydus ; and ATTALUS with the Rhodians sent Ambassadors to Rome to complain of the Injuries done them by Philip.  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| But tho' the Egyptians were beat out of Palestine (as on the other Column) ANTIOCHUS wanted to be at Peace with them; and therefore propos'd to marry his Daughter Cleopatra to young King PTOLEMY, and upon Marriage to restore Cale-Syria and Palestine to the Crown of Egypt, or to allow him the half of the Revenues.  |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  | The Athenians also, distress'd by King Philip, complain'd of him to the Romans, and to many other Powers; who declar'd War against him.  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| F. Quintus Flaminius the Roman General (with his Confederates, King ATTALUS and the Rhodians ) was waging War against PHILIP King of Macedon.   |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  | ANTIOCHUS having march'd an Army into lesser Asia against ATTALUS King of Pergamus, the Egyptians thought it a proper time to advise  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| ATTALUS at Thebes haranguing the Beotians too vehemently, fell down as dead, and was carried home to Pergamus, where he soon died aged 72 Years; having reign'd 44 Years, and left behind him four Sons, Eumenes, Attalus, Philoeterus and Antiochus, and was succeeded by EUMENES the Founder of the famous Library at Pergamus.   |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  | Aristomenes the Regent of Egypt to send Scopas with an Army into Palestine , who took several Cities, reduced all Judea , put a Garrison into the Castle of Jerusalem , and return'd against Winter to Alexandria with great Spoils.   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| The Romans routed Philip in the Battle of Cynocephalus flew 8000 of his Men, and took 5000 Prisoners; but fearing the Power of Antiochus coming into Thrace (as on the other Column) They made Peace with Philip.  |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  | But ANTIOCHUS having made Peace with Attalus by the Mediation of the Romans, march'd into Palestine , totally routed Scopas at Paneas near the Fountains of the Jordan, drove him to Sidon with 10000 of his Men, besieg'd them and famish'd them to a Surrender upon the sole Condition of Life, and They return'd naked to Egypt. ANTIOCHUS finding the Jews hearty in his Interest gave them many Privileges.  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Scopas in Egypt conspir'd with his Asians to destroy the young King, and set up himself; but had not Courage to execute his Plot in time; and it being discover'd to Aristomenes the Regent, Scopas and his Accomplices were put to Death, and the rest of the Asians were sent home.  |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  | ANTIOCHUS having secur'd All in Peace behind him, now went into lesser Asia aboard a great Fleet, and sent an Army by Land under Ardyes and Mithrydates two of his Sons, and having taken the Asiatic Cities that belong'd to the Crown of Egypt, he winter'd at Ephesus. But Smyrna and Lampachus sent to the Roman Army for Protection against Antiochus, who now march'd over the Hellespont, seiz'd the Thracian Chersonesus, and was beginning to rebuild Lyfimachia to be the Capital of a new Kingdom he was to erect for Seleucus his second Son. The Roman Ambassadors came and had Audience of him at Selymbria in Thrace; but They could not agree at all: and |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Antiochus I. King of Parthia being dead, was succeeded by Artabanus PHRAAPATIUS his Son, who reign'd 15 Years.   |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  | ANTIOCHUS hearing that PTOLEMY Epiphanes was dead, left his Son Seleucus with the Army at Lyfimachia, and sail'd towards Egypt with a View to be Master of it; and in his Way hearing the Report was false, (as on the other Column) he steer'd towards Cyprus to seize that Island, but in vain; for all his Ships were lost or scatter'd by a violent Storm, and he was glad to get any how to Antioch, where he winter'd.   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| PTOLEMY Epiphanes now 14 Years old was according to the Usage of Egypt, declar'd to be out of his Minority, the Government was put into his Hands, and his Installation or Inthronization was celebrated with great Pomp.  |             |                        |       |               |               |       |            |                  |              |                          |                    |                  |                 |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

| Simon the High Priest of Jerusalem being dead, was succeeded by Onias III. his Son.   |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  | In the Spring ANTIOCHUS travel'd to Ephesus, whither Hannibal came to him, and determin'd his Mind for making War upon the Romans; for which Hannibal had been unjustly accus'd at Carthage, and had fled from thence to deserve the Accusation.   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Flamininus the Roman with EUMENES King of Pergama, and the Rhodians carried on a Successful War against the Lacedaemonians, and their Tyrant Nabides, Liv.  |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  | ANTIOCHUS, perceiving the Jews to have great good Will towards him, sent them kind Letters and many rich Presents, granted many Immunities to the City and Temple of Jerusalem, and brought 2000 Jewish Families out of Mesopotamia into Phrygia and Lydia, whom he trusted to keep that Country in Peace, Joseph. Antiq. Lib. XII. and from those were descended the many Jews in lesser Asia, that we read of in the New Testament.  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Cratosthenes the Librarian of Alexandria died, aged 52 Years, and was succeeded by Apollonius Rhodius in that Office.   |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  | ANTIOCHUS having married two of his Daughters (as on the other Column) return'd to Ephesus in the depth of Winter. And   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| PTOLEMY Epiphanes was married to Cleopatra the Daughter of ANTIOCHUS Magnus at Raphia, who gave for her Dower the half of the Revenues of Caele-Syria, and Palestine, and ANTIOCHUS on his Return to Antioch, married Antiochis another of his Daughters to ARLARATHES King of Cappadocia; and offer'd a third Daughter to EUMENES King of Pergamus, who would not accept of it, because of his Attachment to the Romans. |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  | In the Spring march'd an Army against the Pisidians; but the News of his eldest Son Antiochus's Death brought him back to Ephesus to mourn his Loss, tho' he was counted only a mock Mourner, being suspected of ordering his Son to be poison'd. And now the Aetolians having sent Thoas to invite him into Greece against the Romans, with the Assurance of being join'd by Philip of Macedon, Nabis of Lacedemonia, and other Princes and States; He refus'd the wise Counsel of Hannibal to carry the War into Italy, and march'd strait into Greece with only 10000 Foot, and 500 Horse, and there by Hannibal's Advice sent for his Syrian Troops. |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| EUMENES sent his Brother ATTALUS to Rome, to acquaint the Senate with the March of ANTIOCHUS into Greece (as on the other Column) and the Senate forthwith sent ACILIUS Glabrio their Consul with an Army, who began his Expedition on the 5th of the Nones of May, Livy.   |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  | But while he winter'd in Eubaea he fell in Love with his Host's Daughter, married her and squander'd his time in nuptial Feasts, till rous'd by the News of the March of Aelius the Roman Consul thro' Thessaly; upon which he march'd to guard the Straights of Thermopylae, where  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Aelius came into Thessaly before ANTIOCHUS heard of it, and to pass the Straights of Thermopylae, sent Cato one of his Generals over the Mountains (in the old Tract of XERXES and Brennus;) with a strong Detachment, who cut to Pieces the little Army of Antiochus, and forced him to flee aboard his Fleet with only 500 Men, as on the other Column.   |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  | ANTIOCHUS's Men being cut to pieces (as on the other Column) he narrowly escap'd to Chalcis with only 500 Men, with whom he went aboard his Ships, and sail'd to Ephesus, where Hannibal advis'd him to sail to the Thracian Chersonesus to re-intorce Lyfimachia, Sestus and Abydus, in order to keep the Romans out of Asia; and then returning to Ephesus, he sent his Admiral to fight the Roman Fleet, but he was beat (as on the other Column) and fled to Ephesus with the Remainder; which Antiochus refitted, and added more Ships, and sent Hannibal to bring the Syrian and Phenician Fleets into the Eugean Sea.                             |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Mean while C. Libius the Roman Admiral arriv'd in the Eugean Sea, and beat Polyxenidas the Admiral of Antiochus, sinking 200 and taking 13 Syrian Ships, near Mount Corycus in Ionia.   |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  | Polyxenidas by a Trick surpriz'd the Rhodian Fleet at Samos, and destroy'd 29 Ships of War. But the Rhodians rigg'd out a better Fleet, and joining the Roman Fleet, sail'd first to Elea where they reliev'd King EUMENES; and from thence to the Coast of Pamphilia, where They intirely routed Hannibal with the Syrian Fleet. Nay, ANTIOCHUS having refitted his Fleet at Ephesus, sent it once more to try his Fortune, and It was again beaten by Emilius at Myonnesus in Ionia; and being no longer Master of the Seas, Antiochus most imprudently recall'd all his Troops  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| This Year the Senate of Rome recall'd Aelius, and sent Lucius Scipio their Consul to command the Army in Greece with his Brother Scipio for his second Lieutenant, and C. Aemilius their Consul for his third Lieutenant.   |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Lucius Scipio march'd into Macedonia, and order'd to pass the Hellespont into Asia, when he came thither, He found no Opposition, because Antiochus had recall'd his Troops (as on the other Column) say, had sent all his Stores of Ammunition, with which the Roman Army, consisting of 30000 Men, were   |               |                  |           |                |                    |       |            |                    |              |                            |                    |                  |                 |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

| Simon a Benjamite (suppos'd to be one of the surviving Brothers of Hyrcaeus the Son of Joseph , the Son of Tobias ) Govern- or of the Temple quarrell'd with Onias the High Priest ; and being driven out of Judea , He brought Heliodorus the Treasurer of SELEUCUS to rob the Temple of its Treasure, 2 Mac. ch. iii. and iv.  | 5               | 20           | 360                     | 283       | 4538           | 176                | 3828  | CLI 1      | 572                | 573          | 3                            | 148                 | 137                | 11              |
| Epiphanes the Son of Joseph , the Son of Tobias , perceiving ANTIOCHUS to begin well, and fearing to be punish'd by him for his Cruelties against the Arabs , slew himself by his own Hand, and Antiochus became his Heir by Seizure.   | 6               | 1. 21        | 361                     | 284       | 4539           | 175                | 3829  | II         | 573                | 574          | 4                            | 149                 | 138                | I               |
| This Year the Cretans desisted from their bloody Civil Wars, during 6 Months; and the Lycians by the Incitement of Eumenes quarrell'd with the Rhodians , and a War ensu'd.  | 7               | 2. 22        | 362                     | 285       | 4540           | 174                | 3830  | 3          | 574                | 575          | 5                            | 150                 | 139                | 2               |
| CLEOPATRA now died, the Mother of PTOLEMY Philometor , the Daughter of ANTIOCHUS Magnus , and Sister of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes , who had been Queen Regent; and now the Government was lodg'd in the Hands of Lentulus a Nobleman, and Eulaeus a Eunuch, who immediately demanded Cele-Syria and Palestine of ANTIOCHUS; which he not yielding, a long War insu'd, and PHILOMETOR now 14 Years old was solemnly intronized according to Usage. | 8               | 3 23         | 363                     | 286       | 4541           | 173                | 3831  | 4          | 575                | 576          | 6                            | 151                 | 140                | 3               |
| EUMENES King of Pergamas went to Rome to complain of PERSEUS King of Macedon , and was honourably treated by the Senate ; and on his Return, going up to Sacrifice in the Delphic Temple , he was almost kill'd by two great Stones thrown down upon him by Men hir'd by King PERSEUS; but he got home and recover'd, and vigorously prepar'd for War against Perseus .  | 9               | 1. 24        | 364                     | 287       | 4542           | 172                | 3832  | CLII. ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria.

PERSEUS King of Macedon married Laodice the Daughter of SELEUCUS Philopator; and the same time PRUSIAS King of Bi- thynia married the Sister of Perseus.

SELEUCUS sent his Son Demetrius to Rome for Education, and for exchange of his Brother Antiochus as an Hostage (as above related) but Heliodorus the Treasurer finding both the Heirs of the Crown now absent, poison'd King Seleucus, and set up himself.

ANTIOCHUS on his Return from Rome, heard at Athens of Se- leucus's Death, and apply'd himself to Eumenes King of Perga- mas, by whose Assistance he suppress'd Heliodorus's Party, and got quiet Possession of the Throne, calling himself

8. ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, or the Illustrious; tho' he deserv'd not that Title, being suppos'd by some to be a Fool, and by others a Madman, and was therefore call'd in mockery Epimanes or Madman, and became the first Persecutor of God's peculiar People; beginning with displacing Onias the High Priest from his Office, and selling it to Jason his Brother, who also prevail'd with Antiochus to send Onias a Prisoner to Antioch, and got leave to erect a Gymnasium and Ephebeum, to train up the Youth after the Manner of the Greeks: and next Year

Jason having introduc'd Heathen Rites into Jerusalem, sent to Tyre 3300 Drachms to be expended on Sacrifices to Hercules the Idol of Tyre at the Quinquennial Games: but his Messengers gave the Money to the Tyrians for the repairing of their Fleet.

When Phrahates died, he cut off the Succession of his Sons by his last Will, and left the Kingdom to his Brother

6. MITHRIDATES who reign'd glorious 37 Years.

ANTIOCHUS's Son and Successor was born, call'd Antiochus Eupator; and he sent Apollonius his Ambassador first to Rome, and then to Alexandria; and upon his Return, ANTIOCHUS went into Palestine to prepare for a Descent upon Egypt.

Jason sent his Brother Menelaus to Antioch with the Tribute, who supplanted Jason, and bought the Priesthood of ANTIOCHUS, promising also to conform to the Religion of the Greeks: upon which Jasen fled to the Ammonites.

Menelaus not taking Care to pay the Money contracted, and Sostratus the Captain of the Castle of Jerusalem and Receiver of the Tribute, were both summon'd to answer for it at Antioch: but the King being gone to reduce Mallas and Tarsus two Cities in Cilicia that had revolted, Menelaus had time to raise the Money, by getting his Brother and Deputy Lyfimachus to convey to Tyre and other Places, the Golden Vessels of the Temple, where They were fold, and the Money sent to Menelaus at Antioch where good Onias resided: and because Onias reprov'd Menelaus for his Avarice and Sacrilege, Menelaus brib'd Andronicus to slay Onias, for which ANTIOCHUS upon his Return caus'd Andronicus cut to be slain in the same Place: and about the same time the enraged People of Jerusalem slew Lyfimachus, 2 Mac. iv.

ANTIOCHUS makes his first Descent upon Egypt, and having defeated the Egyptian Army near Pelusium, he secur'd Palestine on that Side, and return'd to Tyre into Winter Quarters; and while there Three Delegates of the Sanhedrim or Senate of the Jews, came before him complaining against Menelaus, and prov'd their Allegations: but Menelaus brib'd Ptolemy Macron the King's Favorite, who prevail'd with Antiochus to absolve Menelaus, and to put to Death the Delegates.

ANTIOCHUS makes a second Descent upon Egypt, gains another Victory on the Borders, took Pelusium and march'd into the Heart of the Country; and because he had been merciful in the Field of Battel, the Egyptians yielded Memphis to him, and all except Alexandria: nay, PHILOMETOR himself came into his Hands, whom he treated with much Friendship, pretending to be his Guardian. But a false Rumour of Antiochus's Death in Egypt coming into Palestine, Jason came with 1000 Men to Jerusalem, drove Menelaus into the Castle, join'd his old Party there and exercis'd great Cruelties on his Adversaries.

The News of this made ANTIOCHUS leave Egypt; and having taken Jerusalem, he slew in three Days 40000 Persons, and took as many Captives whom he sold: nay, Menelaus conducted him into the Temple, and even into the Holy of Holies; and he desil'd the Altar of Burns-Offerings by sacrificing on it a Sow, with the Broth of which he order'd the Temple to be sprinkled all over: and then leaving Philip a Phrygian Governor of Judea, and Andronicus Governor of Samaria, and wicked Menelaus at Jerusalem, he return'd to Antioch with the Spoils of the City and Temple, which he gutted of all that was valuable, and which together with the Spoils of Egypt, amounted to an immense Treasure. As for Jason, to be sure, he durst not stay the Approach, but fled back to the Ammonites; and wander'd a Vagabond till he died in Lacedemonia, without any Friend to bury him.

ANTIOCHUS this Year makes his third Descent upon Egypt, pretending to restore PHILOMETOR; and having beat the Alexandrians at Sea, he march'd his Army by Land strait to that City, but could not take it in.

PHYSCON and his Sister CLEOPATRA sent Ambassadors to Rome for Protection, while ANTIOCHUS seiz'd Pelusium as the Key of Egypt, and then return'd to Antioch. But heard that the two PTOLEMIES had blasted his Design by agreeing.

The Roman Legates sent to ANTIOCHUS were C. Pomptilius Lenas, C. Decimius and C. Hostilius, who left Rome on the 3d of the Nones of April.

ANTIOCHUS early in the Spring seiz'd Cyprus by his Fleet, and made his 4th Descent upon Egypt against both his Nephews, designing an intire Conquest; and having no Obstacle but Alexandria, he march'd strait to besiege it.

who cut them all off on the Sabbath Day: because they would not fight on that Day, which Mattathias and his Followers hearing of, came to a Resolution that the Law of the Sabbath should be dispensed with in such a Case of Necessity, and gave Notice of it through the Deacons, that They should fight on the Sabbath Day; for else They had been all destroyed in the same Manner.

Mean while Mattathias lay close in the Fastnesses of the Mountains with his Company, and many resorted to him, particularly the Asideans or Chasidim, valiant Men, zealous for the Law: At Length he sallied forth with his little Army, and going round the Cities of Judah, he cut off the Apostates and Persecutors that he found, circumcised the Children, pulled down the Heathen Altars, restored the true Worship as far as he could, recovered from the Heathen several Copies of the Law, caused it to be read in the Synagogues, and now first introduced the Reading of the Prophets, as well as the Books of Moses in Publick.

EUMENES King of Pergamus was oppressed by the Galatians, but relieved by the Mediation of the Romans.

The Rhodesians also were a little reconciled to the Romans.

But MATTATHIAS worn out by Age and Fatigue, died in the 146th Year of the Era of Seleucus, 1 Mac. ii. 70. Before his Death he called to him his Five Sons, exhorted them to Courage and Constancy in the good Cause, appointed his third Son Judas Maccabaeus to be their General, and Simon his second Son to be their Counsellor, and dying, They buried him at Modin in the Sepulchre of his Fathers, with great Lamentations: Tho' the Loss was well made up in Judas Maccabaeus.

ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria.

ANTIOCHUS hearing his Commands were disobeyed, came in to Judea, and exercised great Cruelties on the disobedient Jews wherever he found them; particularly he martyr'd old Eleazar a principal Scribe, and the brave Mother with her Seven Sons, as it is recorded in 2 Mac. VI. and VII.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Egypt and Syria, of the ROMANS, JEWS, and other Contemporaries, from the first Year of JUDAS Maccabaeus the Prince of the Jews, which is the 15th Year of PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt, and the 10th Year of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria.
To the Death of PTOLEMY Physcon King of Egypt, during 50 Years.

PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt.
ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria.
JUDAS Maccabaeus Prince of the Jews.

JUDAS Maccabaeus now the General of the Jews, raised a little Army of brave zealous Men, and set up his Standard with this Hebrew Motto, from Exod. iv. 11. viz. Mi Camo-ka Baelim Jehovah, Who is like unto Thee among the Gods, O Jehovah! not in Words at Length, but in the initial Letters, which made the artificial Word Maccabi; and hence by Historians all They were called Maccabees who were engaged in this Cause, and who had suffered 50 Years before this Time, and who afterwards suffered for asserting the Law of God. He began to fortify the Cities of Judea, and to complete the Reforms that his Father had begun, slew Apollonius the Governor of Samarita in Battel, and Seron the Deputy of Cele Syria in another Battel.

The News of which diverted ANTIOCHUS from his foolish Festivals at Daphne, who raised a very great Army to extirpate the whole Nation of the Jews: But finding his Treasury exhausted by his Profuseness, he left one Part of his Army with Lysias, a Nobleman to whom he committed the Education of his Son; and with the other Part marched into the East to subdue Artaxias King of Armenia, and to gather the Arrears of Taxes to fill his Treasury.

PRUSIAS King of Bitynia, with his Son Nicomachus came to Rome, where he was royally entertained, and congratulated the Senate upon their conquering PERSEUS King of Macedon, and GENTIUS King of Illyria, Livy Lib. 45. but the Senate would not let EUMENES King of Pergamus come to Rome for politic Reasons.

Sempronius Paulus having subdued all Macedonia, did celebrate Games at Amphipolis on the Strymon; which ANTIOCHUS hearing of, endeavoured to rival him with Games at Daphne near Antioch, described by Polybius, Lib. 31.

The Senate sent Tiberius Gracchus to ANTIOCHUS, who entertained him nobly, and declared his Constancy in his Friendship with the Romans.

Pytho the Ambassador of King PRUSIAS, and others from the Grecian Cities, came to Rome complaining of King EUMENES.

The Romans allowed the Rhadians their Friendship, while ANTIOCHUS march'd into the East.

Lysias, by Advice of Ptolemy Macron the Governor, sent into Judea Bucanor and Gorgias, with 40000 Foot and 7000 Horse, to extirpate the Jewish Nation; but JUDAS Maccabaeus with only 3000 Men attackt them in the Night at Emmaus, and obtain'd a complete Victory. Then he crossed the Jordan, and in a great Battel slew 20000 Men of the Army that Timotheus the Governor of those Parts, and Bacchides had raised against him; whereby the Jews were enriched with Spoils, and full furnished with Instruments of War.

Lysias enraged, marched a chosen Army of 60000 Foot and 5000 Horse into Judea: But JUDAS met him at Bethsura, between Jerusalem and Hebron with 10000 Men, and beat him out of the Field, slew 5000 Syrians, put all the rest to Flight, and forced Lysias to retreat with his bailed Army to Antioch.

EUMENES King of Pergamus sent Attalus and Athenaeus his Brothers to Rome, who vindicated him before the Senate, of all the Crimes he had been accused of. Yet the Senate still suspecting him, sent Salpustius Gallus into Asia to make Enquiry, who imprudently gave Leave to all the Grecian Cities, to come and accuse EUMENES publicly at Sardis.

Then JUDAS marched to Jerusalem, expell'd the Heathen, restored the City and Temple within and without, to their former Glory, with all Expedition, purged the Temple of all the Profanations of the Heathen, and instituted a Feast of Dedication for the Altar, and other new holy Things, which was observed on the 25th Day of Kislev for Eight Days, about the Winter Solstice, beginning the very same Day on which Three Years before it had been profaned, just Three Years and Six Months after Apollonius had made the City and Temple desolate, and in this Second Year of the Rule and Command of JUDAS Maccabaeus, after his Father's Death.

He did not then take in Mount Sion, or the Castle built by David on Mount Sion, but he secured the Temple and the City that enter'd in from the South of the Mount, by a great Wall and Towers, and fortified Bethan as a bulwark against the Pharisees or Sadducees, that during the Babylonish Captivity had been drove out of the Idumea by the Nabathians, and had there killed in the South of Judea, during the Babylonish Captivity.

Mean while ANTIOCHUS was sent by Demetrius from the East Temple, at Jerusalem, when attempt to plunder it, and return'd to Antioch, where he died, and was succeeded by his Son Seleucus, and on the growing Strength of Maccabaeus, upon which he hastened homeward to extirpate the Jews, but died on the Road at Taba. in the Mountains of Paratene, in the Province of Babylon, in great Pain, and of a loathsome Disease, yet owning the Justice of God for his persecuting the Jews: And was succeeded by his young Son, viz.

9. ANTIOCHUS Eupator about Nine Years old, under the Regency of Lysias. Mean while JUDAS Maccabaeus hearing the neighbouring Nations had confederated to extirpate the Jews, marched his Army first against the Edomites, and slew 20000 of them in Arabatene; and again of the Edomites of Beza he slew above 20000. Then marching against the Ammonites, he took the City Jazer and her Villages, and returned to Jerusalem. Upon which Timotheus the Governor marched a great Army into Judea: But JUDAS discomfited him, and slew 25000 Foot, and 600 Horse, near Gazara in Ephraim, whither Timotheus fled, and JUDAS pursuing him took the Place, and slew him with his Brother Chareas, and Apollopheus one of his Leaders. Then JUDAS with his Brother Jonathan marched into Gilead, where he beat the Enemy in every Encounter, destroyed their Forts, and rescued the Jews from Oppression: While his Brother Simon was as successful in Galilee. But another Army of the Jews were defeated by Cozias, with the Loss of 2000 Men. Simon brought all the Jews out of Galilee, to inhabit the desolate Places of Judea.

DEMETRIUS the Son of Seleucus Philopator, residing at Rome, and aged now 23 Years, petition'd the Senate to be restored to his Father's Kingdom, as the Son of the elder Brother of Epiphanes: But the Senate thought him too long bred up at Rome for their Purpose; and therefore decreed to confirm EUPATOR in the Throne.

Lysias highly enraged at the Successes of the Maccabees, raised an Army of 50000 Men, and 80 Elephants, and marching into Judea laid Siege to Bethjura: But there JUDAS fell upon him, slew 11000 Foot, and 1600 Horse, and put the rest to Flight. This made Lysias hearken to Terms of Peace, to rescind the cruel Decree of Epiphanes, and to allow the Jews to live every where according to their own Law.

This Peace was made in the 148th Year of the ERA of Seleucus, according to the Style of Chaldaea, or the 149th Year, according to the Style of Syria, which did not end till about Three Months after the Beginning of the Julian Year, before Christ 163, which is parallel to the Year of Seleucus 150.

But as soon as Lysias returned to Antioch, the Neighbours broke the Peace. Therefore JUDAS first burnt the Shipping of Joppa and Jamnia, for having drown'd 200 Jews. Then being again called to help the Jews in Gilead against Timotheus, the Son of the former Timotheus, JUDAS marched thither, subdued in his Way the Amad, or wandering Arabs, took the City Caspis, and destroyed it, left Dositheus and Susipater with a Detachment to take in the fenced Cities of Tob, who effected it, and slew 10000 Men that garrisoned them; while he himself with the main Army overtook Timotheus near Carnion, at Raphon on the Jabbock, incamped with 120000 Foot, and 2500 Horse. But JUDAS not afraid of Numbers, attack'd and beat him, with the Slaughter of 30000 Men, and many of them flying to Carnion, JUDAS besieged and took it, burnt the Temple of Atargatis their Goddess, and all that had shelter'd themselves in it, and destroy'd that City, slaying in it 25000 Men more, and brought all the Israelites out of Gilead, to inhabit the desolate Places of Judea; and in his Return took Ephron by Storm, slew 25000 Men there, and having raised the City, he marched over the Bellies of the Plain, repass'd the Jordan; and returning to Jerusalem at Pentecost in great Triumph, and with many Spoils, he and his Men went up to the Temple to thank God for these Victories, obtain'd without the Loss of one Man.

Then JUDAS obtain'd a Victory over Cozias near Odollan; and marching against the Edomites, smote Hebron their Capital: and marching into Philistia smote Azotus or Ashdod, and destroy'd their Temples and Altars, and return'd with great Spoils; when he laid Siege to the Castle of Aera on Mount Zion: during which Eupator, with his Tutor Lysias, marched into Judea with 100000 Foot, 20000 Horse, 300 armed Chariots, and 32 Elephants, and laid Siege to Bethjura: but tho' JUDAS beat him in Skirmishes, in which his Brother Eleazar was slain, yet the King's Army took in Bethjura by Surrender, upon Terms of Safety to their Persons; and then laid Siege to the Sanctuary of Jerusalem, which had been also taken for want of Provisions, if Lysias had not been called away to rescue Antioch from one Philip who had seized it, as the Tutor or the young King appointed by Epiphanes deceas'd; and so Peace being made upon honourable Terms, the King was admitted within the Sanctuary; but seeing the Strength of its Fortifications, he order'd them to be all demolish'd, contrary to the Articles he had sworn to; and then marched off towards Syria. Menelaus the wicked High Priest, attended the King on the March, in Hopes of regaining his old Station, but Lysias believing him to be the Author of all these unfortunate Wars, got him condemn'd to be cast headlong into a Tower of Athes, where he justly perished, and the Office of High Priest was given to Alcimus or Jacimus, one as wicked as the former: upon which Lysias, the Son of ONIAS III. whose Right it was, fled from Antioch to the Court of PTOLEMY Philometor in Egypt EUPATOR and Lysias defeated Philip, and slew him.

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt.
ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria.
JUDAS Maccabaeus Prince of the Jews, and JONATHAN.

Josephus begins this Year, the Era of the Maccabees, or the Principality or Kingdom of the Asmonaeans, which lasted 126 Years: but it may be said as well to begin with the first Year of JUDAS Maccabaeus, and so it lasted 129 Years, even till HEROD took in Jerusalem and ANTIGONUS, the last of the Asmonaeans was cut off, before Christ 37.

PHYSCON now expell'd PHILOMETOR from his Share in the Throne of Egypt: upon which PHILOMETOR travell'd to Rome in mean Habit, and a few Attendants, where the Senate clothed and entertained him like a King, and sent him back with Quintus and Caecilius their Ambassadors, who compounded the Matter between the Brothers, assigning to PHYSCON Lybia and Cyrene, and to PHILOMETOR Egypt and Cyprus.

The Senate sent Octavius, Laetinius, and Aurelius, their Ambassadors to Antioch, to reduce EUPATOR's Fleet and Elephants, to the Number agreed to by ANTIOCHUS Magnus, after the Battel of Sipylus; upon which the People rose and murder'd Octavius, (he had been Consul, and was the Progenitor of Octavius AUGUSTUS the Emperor) but Lyfias sent Ambassadors to excuse it at Rome.

DEMETRIUS the Son of King SELEUCUS Philopator, laid hold of this Occasion, and by Advice of Polybius the Historian, stole away from Rome by Sea, landed at Tripolis in Syria; and giving out that he was sent by the Senate, the Syrians forthwith deserted EUPATOR, and the Soldiers delivered him and Lyfias to DEMETRIUS, who put them to Death; and so

10. DEMETRIUS Euter, or the Saviour, began to reign, who was so called by the Babylonians, for delivering them from the Tyranny of Timarchus and Heraclides, two Favourites of the late King Epiphanes. Alcimus and the apostate Jews, craftily influenced DEMETRIUS to send Barchides, Governor of Mesopotamia, into Judaea with an Army, who confirm'd Alcimus in his Office, and destroy'd many Jews whom They had decoy'd into their Power. But when Barchides return'd, JUDAS took the Field, revenged those Wrongs, and drove Alcimus away to Antioch, where again he influenced DEMETRIUS to send another Army under Nicanor: but Nicanor knowing to his Cost the Prowess of JUDAS, made Peace with him, and convers'd friendly with him, till Alcimus influenced the King not to ratify the Articles, and to order Nicanor to renew the War.

Mean while PTOLEMY Physcon went to Rome, and courted Cornelia the Mother of the Gracchi, to be his Queen; but she scorn'd it, as being the Daughter of Scipio Africanus: but he prevail'd with the Senate to get Cyprus annex'd to his Kingdom; cho' Philometor did not consent, for which he was declared to be no more the Ally of the Romans.

Sitans, marched to Jerusalem, endeavoured in vain to decoy JUDAS into his Power, who slew 5000 of Nicanor's Men at Capharsalama. Then Nicanor return'd to Jerusalem, threatened to burn the Temple, and blasphem'd the God of Israel; but left it in order to meet JUDAS, who slew him in Battel, and all his 35000 Men, on the 13th Day of the Month Adar, which is commemorated by the Jews to this Day.

Hepparchus of Nicaea in Bithynia, the famous Astronomer, observed this Year the autumnal Aequinox, Ptol. Lib. 3. Cap. 2.

JUDAS sent Jason and Eupolemus his Ambassadors to Rome, who obtain'd a Decree of the Senate to declare the Jews their Allies, and a Letter requiring DEMETRIUS to desist from molesting them, as their Friends; but before the Ambassadors return'd, JUDAS Maccabaeus was dead: for mean while DEMETRIUS had sent Barchides and Alcimus with a great Army into Judea, and JUDAS having rashly attack'd him with only 800 Men, was overpower'd and slain in Battel. JONATHAN and Simon his Brothers carried off his dead Body, and buried it in his Father's Sepulchre. And now the apostate Jews joining the Syrians, a greater Persecution followed than what was ever heard of before; which made the oppressed to flock to

2. JONATHAN, whom They made their Captain. He and Simon, and their new Forces, incamped near the Jordan: but their Brother Jabe was slain by the Arabs, and Barchides drove JONATHAN and his Men over the Jordan, and return'd to Jerusalem to fortify Mount Aera. Here ends the History of the Second Book of Maccabees.

Alcimus now dying of a violent Palsy, Barchides return'd to Antioch, being recall'd by DEMETRIUS, who had now received the Senate's Letter, and so the Land had rest for two Years: for DEMETRIUS courted the Friendship of the Romans, and obtain'd it: And next Year

He sent a large and rich Crown of Gold to Rome by Menochares, with Thanks for his good Usage while an Hostage there.

DEMETRIUS since Galapbatnes, the pretended elder Brother of ARIARATHES, to recover the Kingdom of Cappadocia. EUGENES and Pergamene, after he had reigned 25 Years, sent it to his Brother ATTALUS, who reigned 26 Years, with a provision that should succeed him. ATTALUS married Stratonice, the Sister of ARIARATHES, the Widow of his Brother EUGENES, and generously adopted his said Nephew her Son.

DEMETRIUS was again influenced to send Barchides with an Army into Judea, who besieged Simon in Bethbasi, while JONATHAN attack'd the besiegers in Skirmishes, till Barchides was weary of the War, and made Peace with Jonathan, and departed. Jonathan then sent his Brother JUDAS to the Government at Mithras, nine Miles North of Jerusalem, and returned to Bethbasi.

PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt.
DEMETRIUS Soter King of Syria, and ALEXANDER Balas.
JONATHAN Prince of the Jews.

ARIARATHES came to Rome, where the Senate decreed He should jointly reign with his Brother Hecphernes, but ATTALUS King of Pergamus expelled Hecphernes, and restor'd ARIARATHES: Hecphernes retired to Antioch, with a great Sum of Money that he had lodg'd with the Priemians, who were singularly just to him.

PHYSCON being wounded by some of his oppress'd Lybian Subjects, went to Rome to complain of PHILOMETOR as the Cause of it: upon which the Senate would not hear Philometor's Ambassadors, but sent them away, and sent their own Ambassadors to give PHYSCON Possession of Cyprus: and next year

PHYSCON getting an Army, invaded that Island, but was beaten by PHILOMETOR and taken Prisoner, nay pardon'd also, and honourably restor'd to his Lybian Kingdom. Thus the War ended between them. PHILOMETOR left Archias Governor of Cyprus, who bargain'd with DEMETRIUS to deliver up the Island to the Syrians; but being discover'd, He hang'd himself to escape Punishment.

DEMETRIUS being now a constant Drunkard, neglected his Government, and the People conspired against him, being supported in it by PHILOMETOR, ATTALUS and ARIARATHES, who employ'd Heracides (the late Treasurer of Babylon) to suborn one Balas a mean Rhodian Youth, as the Son of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, who was forthwith own'd as such by those three Kings. Then Heracides carried him to Rome, with Laodice the true Daughter of Epiphanes; where the Senate own'd him, decreed to assist him, and sent him to Syria, while ATTALUS the Son of the late King Eumenes, and Demetrius the Son of King DEMETRIUS Soter were at Rome.

Balas having got Forces, seiz'd Ptolemais in Palestine, where he set up his Throne, under the Name of Alexander the Son of Epiphanes King of Syria. This made DEMETRIUS rouse himself and court the Friendship of Jonathan the Prince of the Jews, whom he constituted his General in Judea, who now releas'd the Hostages that Bacchides had put in Mount Aera, rebuilt forthwith the Wall round the Temple, and seal'd at Jerusalem: on the other hand, Alexander sent him a Crown of Gold, a Purple Robe, and a Commission to be High Priest; and tho' DEMETRIUS offer'd him twice as much, JONATHAN now declar'd for Alexander, and getting the Peoples Consent on the Feast of Tabernacles next, He put on the Pontifical Robe, and officiated as High Priest, the Office being vacant about Seven Years after the Death of Alcimus: which Office was heritably possessed by his Family of the Ammonians, till HEROD subjected it to arbitrary Will and Pleasure.

Both the Syrian Kings came into the Field, and DEMETRIUS had the Advantage in the first Battel; but Alexander being well recruited by his powerful Allies, DEMETRIUS sent his two Sons, Demetrius and Antiochus, to Cnidus to the Care of a Friend, in case Fortune should not favour him.

About this Time one Andronicus of Adranitium in Mysia, as mean a young Fellow as Alexander Balas, pretended to be the Son of PERSEUS late King of Macedon, taking the Name of Philip, and applying to DEMETRIUS he sent him Prisoner to Rome: but the Senate despising him, he made his Escape into Macedon, and raised there a War that cost the Romans much Blood and Treasure.

At length the Syrian Kings came to a decisive Battel, in which DEMETRIUS was overcome and slain: and so
II. ALEXANDER Balas obtain'd the whole Syrian Empire, married Cleopatra the Daughter of PTOLEMY PHILOMETOR King of Egypt, at Ptolemais, where these two Kings met at the Wedding; and JONATHAN was invited, where BALAS clothed him in Purple, and highly honoured him among the first of his Princes.

Onias the Priest, the Son of Onias III. of the right Line of Josedech, who fled to Egypt when Alcimus was made High Priest, having by his Wisdom and Bravery obtain'd the highest Post both in the Court and Army of Egypt, obtain'd also a Licence to build a Temple for the Egyptian Jews near Heliopolis, like that of Jerusalem, and to build there a City call'd Onon from his Name; where he officiated as High Priest, and had the same Order and Worship as at Jerusalem. This Temple a little after the Destruction of Jerusalem, was destroy'd by the Command of VESPASIAN, after It had stood 222 Years.

This Year began the Third Punic War, wherein MITHRIDATES Euergetes, the first King of Pontus that had Friendship with Rome, supply'd the Romans with Ships against the Carthaginians. Scanius the Consul commanded the Army, and the other Consul Censorinus the Fleet, with private Instructions to destroy Carthage.

Andronicus the Pretender found Means to be posses'd of all Macedonia, defeating Juventius the Roman Praetor, and proclaim'd himself King; and would have seiz'd on Tiberias, if the Arabs had not helped the Romans.

Strumedes the Son of PRUSIAS, King of Bithynia, fearing his Father design'd to cut him off, left Rome, where he had been educated, and by the Help of ATTALUS King of Pergamus, made War upon his Father.

ALEXANDER Balas giving himself wholly up to vice Pleasures, left the Administration to his Favourite Ammonius, who prov'd an insolent Tyrant, and murder'd Queen Laodice the Sister of the late King DEMETRIUS the Widow of PERSEUS late King of Macedon; he murder'd also Antigonus the Son of Demetrius, who had been left in Syria, when his two Brothers Demetrius and Antiochus

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLEMY Philometor King of Egypt, and PHYSCON.
BALAS King of Syria, and DEMETRIUS Pirator.
JONATHAN Prince of the Jews.

Antiochus were sent off to Cnide; whereby he made himself and his King odious. Demetrius, the Son of Demetrius hearing of it, landed in Cilicia with a Band of Cretans, and there getting a great Army, took Possession of that Country, and got Apollonius the Governor of Coele Syria to declare for him, who assembled a great Army at Jannia, and challeng'd JONATHAN to fight him. But JONATHAN came and took Joppa in sight of his Army, and then beat him out of the Field, pursuing him to Azotus, which Jonathan took, and destroy'd the Temple of Dagon there, and return'd to Jerusalem loaded with the Spoils of that Country. Upon which BALAS sent him a golden Buckle, the Ensign of one of the Royal Family, and gave him the City of Ezer with its Territory.

The Romans trised with PRUSIAS, and therefore he shelter'd himself in the Temple of Jove in Nicomedia, but in vain; for his Son Nicomedes and Attalus sent Men that slew him there. Prællus the Prætor marching into Macedonia, totally routed the Pretender Antiochus, who flying to Byzes Prince of Torace, was by him deliver'd up to Metellus.

P. Cornelius Scipio the Roman Consul went to Sea with the Roman Ships and those sent by MITHRIDATES King of Pontus, and beat the Carthaginian Fleet under the Walls of Carthage.

Alexander BALAS called in his Father in Law Ptolemy Philometor to his Assistance, who march'd an Army into Palestine, receiv'd JONATHAN kindly, and came to Ptolemais; where finding that Ammonius had laid a Plot to murder him, Philometor march'd to Seleucia on the Orontes, to demand the Traitor: but BALAS refusing to deliver Ammonius, PHILOMETOR concluded him a Party in the Plot, took his Daughter from him and gave her to Demetrius, with a Resolution to restore him to his Father's Throne. upon which the Antiochians rose in a Tumult and slew Ammonius, open'd their Gates to PHILOMETOR and offer'd him the Kingdom, which he refused, but got them to receive DEMETRIUS, whom They placed on the Throne.

This brought BALAS from Cilicia to a Battel near Antioch, where he was totally routed, and fled with 500 Horse to Zabdiel an Arabian Prince, where he was forthwith slain, and his Head sent to PHILOMETOR, who yet did not triumph long; for being sore wounded in the late Battel, he died in a few Days after.

This Year also Carthage was taken, and destroy'd by Scipio Africanus junior, after a three Years War, call'd the Third Punic War, while Cn. Lemulus and L. Junnius were Consuls: and Junnius this same Year being sent to finish the Achaean War, took the Command of the Army in Greece from Metellus, defeated the Achæans at the Isthmus, and in three Days march'd into Corinth, which he burnt and destroy'd; and the Brass there being melted in the Burning with other Metals, the Mixture made the famous Corinthian Brass. Here ends the History of Polybius, with the Commonwealth of Achæa, that was made up of several States, who were all become subject to the Commonwealth of Rome.

12. DEMETRIUS called himself Pirator the Conqueror, and had full Possession of his Father's Throne: but the Succession in Egypt was not soon settled; for Cleopatra the Sister and Widow of PHILOMETOR, set up her young Son, while others declar'd for PHYSCON who now came to Alexandria. ONIAS the High Priest rais'd an Army of Jews, for the Son of Philometor; and by the Mediation of Sernius the Roman Ambassador, PHYSCON agreed to marry Cleopatra, to reign while he lived, and to leave the Crown at Death to her Son by Philometor: but on the nuptial Day, Physcon murder'd the Son in his Mother's Arms; and as he began, so he went on with Murders all his Reign.

7. PHYSCON again called himself Ptolemy Euergetes II. and this was the first Year of his sole Reign in Egypt.

DEMETRIUS acted as foolishly in Syria, by the Influence of his insolent Favourite Laßbenes; for He order'd the Egyptian Garrisons in Phenicia to be murder'd, whereby the other Egyptian Soldiers in his Pay, that had set him upon the Throne, return'd home in Disgust: nay he disbanded all his Veterans, except the Cretans and a few other Mercenaries. He came to Ptolemais, and there summoned Jonathan before him, who by his rich Presents was confirm'd in his Office, and got three Eparchies added to his Government, and for 300 Talents got the whole Land freed from Taxes. Jonathan strongly besieged Mount Acta, but in vain, therefore he sent to DEMETRIUS at Antioch, to pray him to withdraw that Garrison; which the King promised, upon Condition that Jonathan would send him some Forces against his mutineering Antiochians: Jonathan sent thither 3000 Men, who slew about 10000 of the Rebels, and having reduced the Antiochians They return'd with Spoils. But DEMETRIUS thinking he had no more Use for Jonathan, sent him word, that he was ready to kill, confiscate, and banishing his Soldiers, till his whole Kingdom was ready to revolt.

Demetrius sent Euphran, one of Alexander Balas's Officers, observing the Ill Situation of Demetrius, prevail'd with Zabdiel the Arab Prince, to deliver him from Antiochus the Tyrant Son of Balas, and brought him into Syria, thion got an Army for him, beat Demetrius, and took his Kingdom, and was proclaimed King.

DEMETRIUS Soter King of Syria, and ANTIOCHUS Sideres.
Simon Prince of the Jews.

Jonathan was invited to join Antiochus, got all his former Privileges confirm'd, with an Addition of new ones, and of a 4th Tetrarchy; and he raised a great Army that secured the Country as far as Damascus, defeated the Forces of Demetrius in Galilee, while Simon took in Bethsara. JONATHAN also renew'd his League with the Romans and Lacedemonians, and reduced all round him to the Obedience of ANTIOCHUS, fortify'd Jerusalem and all Judea, and built a strong Wall before Mount ACRA, whereby that Garrison was blokaded. But Tryphon not liking Jonathan, as not fit for his Designs, decoy'd him from his Army to Ptolemais, and soon after murder'd him at Bascama in Gilead.

3. SIMON his Brother took upon him the Command and kept Tryphon from relieving Mount Acra that was still blokaded, sent for the Bones of Jonathan, and buried them in his Father's Sepulchre at Modin; over which he erected an high and famous Monument of white Marble, one of the finest Pieces of Architecture in the World.

14. TRYPHON having murder'd young Antiochus, declares himself King of Syria, sent to Rome to be own'd by the Senate; but in vain; while They honourably receiv'd Simon's Ambassadors, and renew'd the League with the Jews.

Serpelion one of Demetrius's Captains was beaten out of the Field by TRYPHON's Men near Ptolemais; while DEMETRIUS at Ladicea was glotting himself in all vile Pleasures. However Simon sent to Demetrius, who gave him all he had bargain'd with Jonathan, and also made him a Sovereign Prince: upon which SIMON made a Progress thro' the Land, and fortify'd Bethsara as a Magazine, and Joppa as a Sea Port for Jerusalem's Trade, and Gazara which he planted with Jews, and where he built a Palace. And now in the 170 Year of Seleucus, the Jews being freed from the Yoke of the Gentiles, no longer dated their Instruments and Contracts by the ERA of Seleucus, or Syrian Kings, but by the Years of their King and High Priest SIMON, and his Successors, 1 Mac. xiii. 35.—42. Joseph. Lib. xiii. Cap. 11

At length the Garrison of Mount Acra in the City of DAVID, by the long Blokade wanting Provisions, did surrender the Fort, and march'd out of Judea; after It had been a dreadful Thorn in their Side, ever since It was built in the Time of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes: and that no Enemy for the future might lodge there, SIMON demolish'd and levell'd the Hill equal with the Mount of the Temple, which he now fortify'd, and built a Palace on it: and perceiving his Son JOHN (afterwards call'd Hyrcanus) to be a valiant Man, he made him his General, and sent him to reside at Gazara. This Year Antiochus (call'd Grypus) was born to DEMETRIUS, by his Queen Cleopatra the Daughter of PTOLEMY Philometor; for he lived 45 Years.

MITHRIDATES I. King of Parthia, having conquer'd all from the Indus to the Euphrates, the Macedonian Race in the East, earnestly invited DEMETRIUS to come and deliver them from the Tyranny of the Parthians. He raised an Army, passed over the Euphrates, was soon join'd by the Elymians, Persians, and Bactrians, and beat the Parthians in many Conflicts; till by Proposals of Peace, the Parthians drew him into a Snare, cut off all his Army, and took him Prisoner. MITHRIDATES first carried him for a Show in Chains round his Provinces; but then he struck off his Chains, allow'd him a Royal Maintenance in Hyrcania, and gave him Rhodaguna his Daughter in Marriage; where he lived as well as a captive Prince could hope for, till the Reign of Phraates the Son of MITHRIDATES. And thus the Parthian Kingdom was establish'd, and greatly extended

And now in a general Assembly of Elders, Priests, and People at Jerusalem, on the 18th Day of Elul this Year, the Jews unanimously conferr'd on SIMON and his Heirs the princely Dignity, and the High Priesthood, by a publick Deed engraven on Tables of Brass, repositied in the Treasury of the Temple, and a Copy of it was hung up in the Porch.

While Demetrius was thus a Captive in Parthia, Cleopatra his Queen shelter'd herself in Seleucia on the Orontes, to whom many of TRYPHON's Soldiers deserted, because of his cruel Temper discover'd only unce the Captivity of Demetrius: but still fearing Tryphon, CLEOPATRA hearing Demetrius was married in Parthia, offers the Crown and herself in Marriage to her Husband's Brother Antiochus then at Rhodes, who accepted of it: and so

15. ANTIOCHUS Sideres, or the Hunter, declares himself King of Syria, wrote a kind Letter to SIMON confirming all former Grants, and owning his Sovereignty in Judea, 1 Mac. xv, and the Beginning of this next Year He landed in Syria, married Cleopatra, and march'd against TRYPHON, whose Soldiers daily deserted to Antiochus, till his Army was increas'd to 120000 Foot, and 3000 Horse. Therefore Tryphon retreated to Dora near Ptolemais in Phenicia, where ANTIOCHUS besieg'd him; but he escap'd by Sea, came to Ortobesia, and from thence to Apamia his native City, where he was taken and put to Death.

SIMON the High Priest, and Prince of the Jews, having sent his Ambassadors with a rich Present to Rome, was recogniz'd as such by the Senate, who order'd L. Cornelius Sulla the Consul, to write Letters to Ptolemy King of Egypt, Attalus King of Pergamu, Ariarathes King of Greece and Lesser Asia, to acquaint them that the Jews were their Allies. and under their Protection.

But the Letters not being directed to ANTIOCHUS, He broke his Covenant with SIMON, demanded the Restitution of Gazara, Joppa, and Mount Acra or Fort of Jerusalem, and sent his General Condebars with an Army against SIMON.

Continuation of TABLE XXXI.

PTOLEMY Physcon King of Egypt.
ANTIOCHUS Sidetes King of Syria.
SIMON Prince of the Jews, and JOHN Hyrcanus.

SIMON forthwith rais'd 20000 Men, and gave the Command to his Sons Judas and John, who beat Gendebaus out of the Field, clear'd that Country of the Serians, and return'd in Triumph to Jerusalem.

PTOLEMY Physcon, a vicious, cruel and foolish Prince, would have lost his Kingdom, but for his wife Minister Hierax an Antiochian: and Attalus King of Pergamus being dead, was succeeded by his Nephew ATTALUS Philometor, the Son of Eumenes by Stratonice the Daughter of Ariarathes King of Cappadocia, who prov'd a Monster of Cruelty and egregious Folly.

But ANTIOCHUS Sidetes having slain Tryphon, scilicet his Kingdom, and began to recover what had been lost in the late Distractions; while Attalus left his Throne and turn'd Gardener; and while Physcon's Cruelties dispos'd the Alexandrians to leave their Houses, and transport themselves into Greece and Lesser Asia, where They reviv'd all Sorts of Learning that had been almost extinguish'd there, ever since ALEXANDER the Great, and had been quite lost, but for PTOLEMY Soter and Philadelphus, who patroniz'd it by the College and Library of Alexandria; which City now was drain'd of learned Men, and fill'd with Foreigners from all Parts. Mean while the Senate sent Publius SCIPIO Africanus junior, Spurius Mummius, and L. Metellus, to Egypt, Syria, Asia, and Greece, to inspect all Affairs in those Parts. And this Year MITHRIDATES Euergetes King of Pontus, had a Son born call'd afterwards MITHRIDATES the Great, and Dionysius or Bacchus, and Eupator. He was born at Sinope, which he made his Capital, (Appian. in Misbrid. Strabo Lib. 12.) when a great Comet appear'd, mention'd by Seneca Lib. 7. cap. 15. Natur. Quæst. for Mithridates lived 72 Years.

MITHRIDATES the wife and valiant King of Parthia, after he had conquer'd all from the Ganges to the Euphrates, and made a fine Body of Laws from a Collection of the best Laws he found in those Countries, for the Government of his large Empire, died in a glorious old Age, having reigned 37 Years, and was succeeded by his Son

7. Arsaces PHRAHATES II. who reign'd 9 Years.

SIMON with two of his Sons Judas and Mattathias, made a Progress thro' the Land, and coming to Jericho were invited to an Entertainment by PTOLEMY the Son of Abubus, who had married his Daughter, and were by him there murder'd, at the Instigation of King Antiochus, who had promis'd that Government to Ptolemy. But

4. JOHN his Son, call'd afterwards Hyrcanus, hearing of it, drew forth his Army at Gazara, and cut off all Ptolemy's Army that came to seize him; and coming to Jerusalem, was declared High Priest and Prince of the Jews, while Ptolemy sent to Antiochus, and fled to Zeno Cotys the Tyrant of Philadelpbia, or the ancient Rabbah of the Ammonites. Here ends the History of the first Book of Macchabees, which indeed should be call'd the second Book.

ANTIOCHUS march'd an Army into Judea, drove Hyrcanus out of the Field and shut him up in Jerusalem, where he besieg'd him till the Feast of Tabernacles, when ANTIOCHUS gave him a Truce, and sent him in Beasts for Sacrifices and Terms of Peace, viz. that Jerusalem should be dismantled, and a Tribute paid for Joppa and other Places out of Judea, and 500 Talents in Lieu of Mons Acta; which HYRCANUS gladly accepted of, being reduced to the last Extremity; and it was owing to the Generosity of ANTIOCHUS, that the whole Jewish Nation was not cut off.

This Year Matthias Apblias, a Priest of the Course of Joarib, married a Daughter of JONATHAN, late Prince of the Jews, who bore to him Sathias Curtus, the Father of Josephus, the Father of Sathias, the Father of JOSEPHUS the Historian, who was born in the first Year of CALIGULA, Anno Domini 37.

The Slaves in several Parts of the Roman Empire made Insurrections, especially in Sicily, where Eunus a Syrian Slave set up for a Conjuror, and rais'd an Army of Slaves, who crown'd him their King, and call'd him Antiochus. This Rebellion was left to the Care of C. Fulvius the Consul, while Scipio Africanus the other Consul, march'd his Army to the War of Numantium in Spain.

Attalus the foolish King of Pergamus, now took a Fancy to be a Founder; but while he laboured in melting Brass in hot Weather, he fell into a Fever, of which he died in seven Days; leaving a last Will, wherein he bequeathed all his Goods to the People of Rome; by virtue whereof They seiz'd his Kingdom as his Goods, and made it a Roman Province. Cudemus a Pergamonian brought to Rome the Testament of Attalus, his Royal Crown and Purple.

But Tristonicus the Brother of Attalus and Son of Eumenes by his Concubine, declared the Will was false and forg'd, rais'd an Army, and took Possession of the Kingdom. Against him the free Cities assist'd the Romans, as did also Nicomedes King of Bithynia. Ariarathes in Cappadocia, Plynacnes of Paphlagonia, and Mithridates of Pontus.

This is the 38th Year of Ptolemy Euergetes II. or Physcon, from the Time he began to reign jointly with his Brother Philometor, viz. in the 11th Year of Philometor; and this Year Jesus the Son of Sirach, came from Jerusalem to Egypt, and translated from the Hebrew into Greek his Grandfather Jesus's Book, call'd Ecclesiasticus. See the second Prologue of that Book.

P. Rupilius the Consul defeated the Rebels in Sicily, and gloriously finish'd the first Servil War.

PTOLEMY Physcon King of Egypt.
 ANTIOCHUS Sidetes King of Syria, and DEMETRIUS Nicator.
 JOHN Hyrcanus Prince of the Jews.

P. Licinius Crassus the Consul and High Priest of ROME, commanded the Army against Aristonicus in Asia, while ANTIOCHUS Sidetes, pretending to rescue his Brother Demetrius Nicator from Captivity, march'd an Army of above 80000 Men against PHRAATES King of Parthia, whom he overcame in three Battels, and reduc'd Phraates to his Parthian Limits: and JOHN the Prince of the Jews, at the Head of a Jewish Body of Men in the Syrian Army, being chiefly concern'd in beating the Hyrcanians, obtain'd the Name of Hyrcanus, and leaving ANTIOCHUS triumphing in the East, He return'd to Jerusalem with Glory at the End of the Year.

But the rest of the Army winter'd in the East; and there being about 300000 idle People, besides the military Men, They were forced to disperse at great Distances for Subsistence; of which the oppressed Inhabitants taking the Advantage, join'd the Parthians, and by Concert, They cut off the Syrians all in one Day, before They could draw together, and slew ANTIOCHUS himself.

Mean while PHRAATES had releas'd DEMETRIUS, and sent him to Syria to regain his Kingdom, in order to divert Antiochus from the East; and upon obtaining this Victory, PHRAATES sent a Body of Horse after DEMETRIUS to bring him back; but DEMETRIUS made haste home, and recover'd his Kingdom after ten Years Captivity; and so This is the first Year of the second Reign of DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria.

PHRAATES put the Body of Antiochus into a Silver Coffin, and honourably sent it to Syria to be buried; and finding among the Captives one of his Daughters, PHRAATES married her: but he was diverted from marching into Syria, as he design'd, by a Scythian Army he had hired to come to his Assistance, who would not return without their Hire; and he was forced to stay at home to defend his own Country against them.

Crassus being totally routed by Aristonicus, and taken Prisoner, provok'd his Keeper to kill him, that he might not survive the Disgrace: but M. Perperna the Consul came suddenly into Asia with a fresh Army, found Aristonicus unprovided, defeated him, besieg'd him in Stratonice, took him Prisoner, and brought him to Rome in Chains, where he was led in the Triumph of Panthus Aquilius the Preconsul of Asia, four Years after this, and was then order'd by the Senate to be strangled in Prison.

JOHN Hyrcanus took the Advantage of the Losses and Divisions of Syria, to enlarge his Dominions, and make himself independent; and never more was He or any of his Race subject to the Syrian Kings. He now took in Shechem, and destroy'd the Samaritan Temple on Mount Gerizzim, after it had stood 279 Years, from its being founded by Sanballat, Page 120. But They have kept an Altar still there even to this Day. Mean while Ptolemy Physcon, having divorced Cleopatra his Wife and Philometor's Widow and Sister of them both, He married Cleopatra her Daughter by Philometor, exercis'd unheard of Cruelties, caused his bloody Mercenaries to cut off the Youth of Alexandria: but the injur'd People rose in a general Tumult, burnt his Palace, and made him flee to Cyprus with his new Cleopatra and his Son Memphitis; while the People put the Government into the Hands of Cleopatra the divorced Wife.

PHYSCON at Cyprus sent for his Son the Governor of Cyrene, and put him to Death; for fear that the Alexandrians should make him the King of Egypt in his Stead: upon hearing which, the Alexandrians inrag'd, demolish'd all his Statues: but PHYSCON believing it was done by Order of CLEOPATRA the Queen; in revenge of her, He caus'd his and her Son Memphitis to be slain, and his Body in Pieces put into a Box, and sent to his Mother CLEOPATRA, to be presented to her among the Dishes of Entertainment, on her approaching Birth-Day; which being done, it turn'd the Festival into Mourning, fill'd all People with Detestation of the Royal Murderer, and an Army was rais'd under Marfyas the Queen's General.

HYRCANUS having conquer'd the Edomites, or Idumeans, made them all Profelytes of Righteousness to the Jewish Religion; whereby They were incorporated into the Jewish Nation, and their Name at last was swallow'd up in the Name of Jews, about Anno Domini 100.

PHYSCON sent his General Hegelochus with an Army against the Alexandrians; He beat Marfyas, took him Prisoner, and sent him to Physcon; who now weary of his Cruelties, let Marfyas go unhurt. CLEOPATRA sent to her Son in Law DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria, (who had married her eldest Daughter by Philometor) to come and take the Crown of Egypt; which he accepted of, and forthwith laid Siege to Pelusium.

HYRCANUS sent Ambassadors to Rome, where the Senate readily renew'd the League with the Jews, own'd them to be independent of Syria, and assur'd them of Assistance, if any Enemy should attack them.

PHRAATES having foolishly employ'd the Grecian Mercenaries taken from Antiochus, They, at joining Battel, went over to the Scythians, and help'd them to overthrow the Parthians with a great Slaughter, wherein PHRAATES himself was cut off, and was succeeded by his Uncle, viz.

S. Arsaces ARTABANUS II. who reign'd three Years. See Vaillant's Arsacidarum Imperium.

Jannaeus the Son of HYRCANUS was this Year born: and Hyrcanus sent again his Ambassadors, to thank the Senate for their Decree of last Year, and sent them a Golden Cup and Shield worth 50000 Gold Pieces.

PTOLEMY Physcon King of Egypt.
DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria, and ZEBINA and GRYPUS.
JOHN Hyrtanus Prince of the Jews.

While DEMETRIUS was warring in Egypt, the Antiochians and others revolted from him; which made him leave Egypt: upon which CLEOPATRA having none to protect her against PHYSCON, put all her Treasure on Shipboard, and fled by Sea to Ptolemais in Pœnicia, to her eldest Daughter Cleopatra Queen of Syria, which Daughter had been first the Wife of Alexander BALAS, next of DEMETRIUS Nicator, next of ANTIOCHUS Sidetes, and now of DEMETRIUS again. Upon the News of her Flight, PHYSCON return'd to Alexandria without Opposition, re-assum'd the Government, and set up an Impostor against DEMETRIUS, call'd Alexander Zebina, the Son of an Alexandrian Broker, but feigning to be the Son of Alexander BALAS; and as such, PHYSCON sent this Pretender with an Army into Syria, where Multitudes join'd him without examining his Title, not caring who was King if They could only get rid of Demetrius, who now brought his Army into Coele-Syria, where he was vanquish'd by Zebina, in a Battel near Damascus, and fled to his Wife at Ptolemais: but the resenting his marrying of Rhodaguna, shut the Gates upon him; and flying to Tyre, he was there slain, by Direction, as is thought, of his Wife Cleopatra, who reign'd at Ptolemais, while

16. ZEBINA reign'd in Syria, who made a strict Alliance with the Jews, and HYRCANUS wisely made Advantage of these Divisions of Syria: and in this 188th Year of the Era of SELEUCUS, the Jews of Jerusalem sent to the Jews of Egypt, Letters desiring them to observe the Feast of reforming or repurging the Temple on the 25th Day of the Month Kisleu, as They did.

Dorylaus being sent by MITHRIDATES Euergetes King of Pontus, to levy Soldiers in Crete, was made the General of the Cassians there, against the Goryniacs, and soon and successfully finish'd that War.

Artabanus King of Parthia, being slain by the Scythians in War, was succeeded by 9. Asfages MITHRIDATES II. his Son, who reign'd 37 Years.

17. SELEUCUS the eldest Son of Demetrius Nicator, now about 20 Years old, put on a Crown, and reign'd in a Part of Syria one Year, till his Mother Cleopatra got him in her Power, and with her own Hands thrust a Dart thro' him, and slew him; for she fear'd he would revenge his Father's Death upon her.

ZEBINA shew'd himself a generous Prince in pardoning some Revolters after he had taken them.

MITHRIDATES Euergetes King of Pontus and Lesser Armenia, being slain by the Treachery of his Domesticks, was succeeded by his Son MITHRIDATES Eupator 12 Years old; for he liv'd 72 Years, and reign'd 60 Years. Eutrop. As a great Comet appear'd at his Birth, so another at his Accession to the Throne, that shin'd Night and Day for 70 Days, as if it was going to set the Heavens on Fire; it transcended the Sun in Splendor; its Tail cover'd a fourth Part of the Heavens, or 45 Degrees of the upper Hemisphere, and was four Hours in rising, and as long in setting. Justin.

Queen CLEOPATRA sent for Antiochus, her second Son by Demetrius, now near 20 Years old, then at Athens for his Education; and on his Arrival, she proclaim'd him King of Syria, tho' she design'd he should not have much more than the Name of King, and she was to govern all: and so

18. ANTIOCHUS Grypus or hook Nose, call'd by Josephus Phylometor, call'd himself in his Coins Cpiphanes, began to reign this Year; while ZEBINA refusing to hold his Crown in Homage of PHYSCON who set him up, provoked Phylcon to pull him down: for agreeing with his Niece Queen CLEOPATRA, Phylcon gave his Daughter Tryphena in Marriage to Grypus; and now PHYSCON sent an Army into Syria to assert the Claim of GRYPUS; upon which a Battel ensued, wherein Zebina being routed, fled to Antioch; and being drove from thence by the Mob, He wander'd from Place to Place, till he was taken and put to Death. Some say he was kill'd in Battel, and others that he poison'd himself.

This is the XXVII Year of JUBILEE, celebrated by JOHN Hyrtanus at Jerusalem.

In Italy the famous Opimian Wine, so much mention'd by the Poets, was now made, and so call'd from L. Opimius the Consul this Year. Some of it was preserv'd 200 Years.

Queen Cleopatra finding her Son GRYPUS capable of Government, and herself eclipsed by him, prepar'd a Cup of Poison which she offer'd him cunningly; but he being forewarn'd, forced her to drink it up herself: and so there's an End of the Plague of Syria, a cursed Woman, yet the Wife of three Kings of Syria, and the Mother of four.

PTOLEMY Physcon the most vicious and cruel King of Egypt, now died, leaving three Sons: to the eldest APION, born by a Concubine, he left the Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia, and that of Egypt and Cyprus he bequeath'd to Cleopatra his Wife and Niece, and her two Sons by him, Antipater and Alexander, with a Power in her to chuse which of them she pleas'd to be her Partner in the Throne: she would have had Alexander the youngest; but the People oblig'd her to recall the eldest from Cyrene, and He became King, call'd, by Athenians and Pausanias, Phylometor, and at his Inauguration he call'd himself Soter: but all History he is best known by the Name of

PTOLEMY or Leucurus, that is, the Pea, having perhaps a Mark or Excrescence like a Pea on his Face.

A Catalogue of the Kings of PERGAMUS in Lesser Asia.

- I. PHILETÆRUS a Paphlagonian, an Eunuch of a very liberal Education, Governor of the City of Pergamus under LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace, and his Treasurer, finding that Arsinoë his Queen design'd to cut him off (as on Page 147) revolted; and under the Protection of SELEUCUS Nicator King of Syria, He founded the Kingdom of PERGAMUS, and began to rule as a Sovereign Prince, — A. M. 3721 Before Christ 283 and reign'd 20 Years † A. M. 3740 aged 80 Years. But having no Son he was succeeded by his Nephew.
- II. EUMENES I. the Son of Eumenes, the Brother of Philetærus, — began 3741 ————— 263 and reign'd 22 ——— † without Issue ——— 3763 He overcame the Gauls and ANTIOCHUS Heirax, and took from SELEUCUS Callinicus the greatest Part of Lesser Asia, and was succeeded by his Cousin, viz.
- III. ATTALUS I. the Son of Attalus the other Brother of Philetærus, — began 3763 ————— 241 and reign'd 44 ——— † ————— 3807 the first of them that wore a Crown, was famous for his Alliance with the Romans, and lived 72 Years. By his Queen Apolloniades he left four Sons, Eumenes, Attalus, Philetærus and Athenæus, and was succeeded by
- IV. EUMENES II. his eldest Son, the Founder of the famous Library of — began 3807 ————— 197 and reign'd 38 ——— † ————— 3845 Pergamus: by his Wife Stratonice, the Daughter of ARIARATHES King of Cappadocia, He left a Son, Attalus, a minor, but he left the Crown to his Brother
- V. ATTALUS II. call'd Philadelphus, — began 3845 ————— 159 and reign'd 21 ——— † ————— 3866 He married his Brother's Widow Stratonice, and generously left the Crown, not to his own Son, but to his Brother Eumenes's Son, viz.
- VI. ATTALUS III. call'd Philometor, who prov'd a foolish Prince, — began 3866 ————— 138 and reign'd 05 ——— † without Issue ——— 3871 He left all his Goods by Will to the Romans, upon which They seiz'd his Kingdom. But the Will was said to be forg'd, therefore
- VII. ARISTONICUS his Bastard Brother rais'd a Party and usurped the Crown, — began 3871 ————— 133 and reign'd 04 till he was overthrown by the Consul Perperna, A. M. 3875. when that Kingdom became a Roman Province.
- He was brought Prisoner to Rome by Aquilius the Consul, and four Years afterwards He was led in Triumph, and then order'd by the Senate to be strangled in Prison.

| 9. PTOLEMY Soter or LATHYRUS, was this Year proclaim'd King of Egypt : but before his Mother CLEOPATRA allow'd him to reign, she made him to divorce his beloved Wife and Sister Cleopatra , and to marry his younger Sister Selene . Justin . GRYPUS was preparing for a War against the Jews , but was prevented by an Insurrection at home by Antiochus Cyzicenus his half Brother, the Son of his Mother Cleopatra , by Antiochus SIDETES, whom she had sent to Cyzicus , a City on the Propontis in lesser Myfia , to be educated by Craterus a faithful Eunuch, from which he was call'd Cyzicenus ; and hearing that GRYPUS design'd to poison him, He arm'd in his own Defence, openly asserted his Right to the Crown, and having seiz'd Part of the Syrian Kingdom,   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  | 2                     | 21                                   | 421                              | 344         | 4599             | 115                      | 3889  | 2          | 633                        | 634            | 64                                    | 209                       | 198                      | 9                     |                            |
| 1. ANTIOCHUS Cyzicenus is reckon'd to begin his Reign this Year as King of Damascus . Cleopatra whom LATHYRUS had divorce'd, went to Cyprus , rais'd an Army there, and march'd to the Assistance of CYZICENUS, who forthwith married her: and so the two Brothers join'd Battel, in which Cyzicenus was defeated, and fled to Antioch , where he left his Wife, and went to recruit his Army. But GRYPUS took the Place, and his Wife Tryphaena , contrary to his Protestations, got Soldiers to go into the Temple where Cleopatra had shelter'd herself, and there to slay her, tho' she was her own full Sister. | ALEXANDER the younger Brother of Lathyrus , is sent to be King of Cyprus by his Mother Cleopatra Queen of Egypt . CYZICENUS having recruited his Army, fought another Battel, and having beat GRYPUS out of the Field, drove him out of Syria , and made him flee to Aspendus in Pamphilia : and having found Triphena , Cyzicenus put her to Death as she deserv'd. Hyrcanus was born to Alexander Jannaeus the Son of John Hyrcanus by his Wife Salina call'd also Alexandra . GRYPUS return'd with an Army, and recovering Syria , agreed to a Partition of the Empire with his Brother CYZICENUS, who now set up his Throne at Damascus , reigning over Coele-Syria and Phenicia , while GRYPUS at Antioch reign'd over the rest. John Hyrcanus sent two of his Sons Aristobulus and Antigonus to lay Siege to Samaria ; and Cyzicenus coming to raise the Siege with a great Army, was routed by the two Brothers, and pursued as far as Scythopolis . CYZICENUS having receiv'd 6000 Auxiliaries from LATHYRUS King of Egypt , again attempted to relieve Samaria , but in vain; for he durst not venture a Battel, and retiring to Tripoli , left Callimander and Epicrates his Generals to pursue the War: but the first was cut off with all his Party, and Epicrates for a Sum of Money deliver'd Scythopolis and all the Neighbourhood to HYRCANUS, who forced Samaria to a Surrender, which he rais'd to the Ground; and now became one of the most considerable Princes in his Day, and enjoy'd the Remainder of his Time in Peace, from foreign Wars. The People of Seleucia in Syria near Antioch , having made themselves independent, began to compute their Times from this Year. The Pharisees unjustly affirming, that the Mother of HYRCANUS was a Captive taken in War, and that therefore He was not fit to be High Priest ; He deserted their Party, and encouraged the Sadducees ; whereby he lost the Affections of the Populace who were mostly Pharisees . HYRCANUS died this Year, leaving five Sons, viz. Aristobulus , Antigonus , Alexander , Abfolom , and another whose Name is not mention'd. Joseph. Antiq. Lib. xiii. 19. xiv. 8. And Lathyrus having offended his Mother CLEOPATRA, by sending 6000 Auxiliaries against the Jews her Friends, she falsely accused him of attempting to kill her, and rais'd a general Uproar of the Alexandrians against him, that made him flee by Sea for his Life, when she was from him his Wife Selene , who was bore to him two Sons, sent for her Son ALEXANDER King of Cyprus , and made him her Partner as King of Egypt , and forc'd Lathyrus to be content with Cyprus in his Room: and so |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  | 4                     | 23                                   | 423                              | 346         | 4601             | 113                      | 3891  | 4          | 635                        | 636            | 66                                    | 211                       | 200                      | 11                    | 2                          |

Ptolemy ALEXANDER I. King of Egypt, and LATHYRUS at Cyprus.
Antiochus GRYPUS King of Syria, and Antiochus CYZICENUS King of Damascus.
ARISTOBULUS I. Prince of Judea, and ALEXANDER Jannaeus.

Prison for claiming a Share in the Kingdom, and imprison'd his three younger Brothers, but at first allow'd his Brother Antigonus a Share in the Government.

Then He march'd against the Itureans, a Part of Coele Syria, North East from the Land of Israel, between the Half Tribe of Manasseh and the Territories of Damascus; so call'd from Itur one of Ishmael's Sons, call'd Itur in the English Bible; and the Country is sometimes call'd Auranitis: and having conquer'd the Itureans, He forced them to become Proselytes to the Jewish Religion, and to be incorporated with his Nation, (in like Manner as HYRCANUS had forced the Idumaeans) and return'd to Jerusalem, leaving Antigonus to finish the War: but when Antigonus return'd in Triumph to Jerusalem, Aristobulus was influenced by his Queen Salome and her Party, to concur in the Murder of Antigonus; as related at large by Joseph. Antiq. Lib. xiii. cap. 19. and Bell. Jud. Lib. i. cap. 3. But Aristobulus, then sick, began soon to repent of it, and his Conscience terrifying him for the Murder of his Mother and Brother, his Disease was increas'd to a vomiting of Blood, of which he died in an Agony of Remorse. Then Salome releas'd the three Brothers from Prison, and

6. ALEXANDER Jannaeus the eldest took the Kingdom, who forthwith caused his Brother next to him (whose Name is not mention'd) to be put to Death for a Plot, but he spared Abisalom for being a quiet Man.

While the two Brothers, GRYPUS and CYZICENUS were harrassing each other in War, Tyre, Sidon, Ptolemais, Gaza, and other Cities resumed their Liberty; and little Tyrants took Possession of other Cities, as Theodorus of Gadara, and Amathus beyond the Jordan, and Zoilus of Dera, and Stratons Tower. And this Year

Cneius POMPEIUS Magnus, and Marcus Tullius CICERO were born.

Alexander Jannaeus having settled his Government, march'd an Army and laid Siege to Ptolemais, but LATHYRUS coming from Cyprus into Phenicia with 3000 Men, oblig'd him to raise the Siege. Jannaeus craftily promised to pay LATHYRUS 400 Talents of Silver, if Lathyrus would deliver to him Zoilus and his Towers: but Lathyrus finding Jannaeus was underhand exciting Cleopatra Queen of Egypt to send an Army into Phenicia, Lathyrus broke with him and resolv'd to be his Enemy.

Accordingly Lathyrus laid Siege to Ptolemais, and with the rest of his Army march'd against Jannaeus, who met him with 5000 Men at Asophus near the Jordan, where a fierce Battel was fought, in which Jannaeus was vanquish'd with the Loss of 30000, and must have been utterly ruin'd if Cleopatra had not come to his Relief next Year.

MARIUS the Consul going against the Cimbrians in Gallia, desir'd Nicomedes King of Bithynia to send him Auxiliaries; but the King sent Word that most of the Bithynians were scatter'd abroad in Slavery, by the Roman Publicans or Tax Gatherers: upon which the Senate decreed that none of the Friends of Rome should be made Slaves in any Province. The Neglect of duly executing this Decree in Sicily, produced the Second Servil War there.

The People of Ascalon obtaining Independency, began to compute their Times from this Year.

CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt rais'd an Army under the Command of her two Favorites Chelkias and Ananias (Sons of that Onias who built the Jewish Temple in Egypt) and going aboard her Fleet with them, she landed in Phenicia, forced LATHYRUS to raise the Siege of Ptolemais, and to flee into Coele Syria; and while she besieg'd Ptolemais, Chelkias pursu'd Lathyrus, but lost his Life in the Expedition; which being thereby defeated, LATHYRUS wheel'd about and march'd straight to Egypt, hoping to find that Country unprovided: but he was mistaken; for

The Forces that CLEOPATRA had left there, kept him in Play till a Detachment came from her Army to their Assistance; and so LATHYRUS was forced to retire and take Winter Quarters at Gaza. This is the first Year of the 4th Period of Calippus.

Mean while CLEOPATRA took in Ptolemais, where Alexander Jannaeus waited on her with rich Presents, and returning to Jerusalem he recruited his Army, and march'd over the Jordan to the Siege of Gadara, which he took: and Syria was much harass'd by the Jews and Arabians.

L. Licinius Lucullus was sent by the Senate with an Army into Sicily to prosecute the Servil War, and Antony (the Grandfather of M. Antony the Triumvir) finish'd the Pyrratical War of the Cicilians.

LATHYRUS return'd to Cyprus, and CLEOPATRA to Egypt, where She hearing that Lathyrus was treating with CYZICENUS at Damascus, to assist him in another Descent upon Egypt, She gave her Daughter Selene, (whom she had taken from Lathyrus) to GRYPUS in Marriage, with large Sums of Money, and many auxiliary Troops to enable him to fight Cyzicenus; so that Cyzicenus could not assist Lathyrus. Her other Son ALEXANDER could hardly be persuaded to reign with her, because of her Ambition and Cruelty.

Continuation of TABLE XXXII.

Ptolemy ALEXANDER I. King of Egypt, and LATHYRUS at Cyprus.
Antiochus GRYPUS and SELEUCUS Kings of Syria, and Antiochus CYZICENUS King of Damascus.
ALEXANDER JANNÆUS Prince of Judea.

MARIUS the Consul finish'd the Cymbric War, and utterly destroy'd them. They came from Cymbrica Chersonesus or the Country of Jutland, Sleswick and Holstein, in great Numbers of valiant Men, and had penetrated into Italy, threatening Rome with utter Destruction: wherefore MARIUS is reckon'd the Third Founder of Rome, as ROMULUS and CAMILLUS were the two former. And whereas formerly the Romans used four Ensigns, viz. the Minotaur, Boar, Wolf, and Bear; MARIUS abolish'd them, and first consecrated the Eagle to be the only Roman Standard at the Head of every Legion. When those Cymbrians left their Country, the Mac from between the Euxine and Caspian march'd thither, and took Possession of it, from whom the ANGLES descended, who with the lower Saxons came into Britain about A. D. 450. and call'd their Part of the Island England, or Land of the Angles. Hicessii Thesaur.

Alexander Jannæus next took in Amathus, where he got the Treasure of Theodorus the Son of Zeno Cetylus Prince of Philadelpia: but on his Return Theodorus beat him in the Field, recover'd his Treasure, took all Jannæus's Baggage, and slew 10000 of his Men: so that Jannæus return'd with Loss and Disgrace to Jerusalem, where the Pharisees made the People hate him.

Yet finding Phenicia was now defenceless, Jannæus march'd and took in Raphia and Anthedon, whereby he block'd up Gaza.

Aquilius the Pro-Consul finish'd the Second Servil War in Sicily, in which more than an hundred Myriads of Slaves perish'd in four Years Time.

MITHRIDATES King of Pontus endeavour'd by his Legats to corrupt the Senate of Rome with large Sums of Money; but Saturninus a Tribune of the People prevented it, by raising the Mob against them: yet the Senate found Means to cut him off as an Incendiary this same Year.

MARIUS now the sixth Time Consul, obtain'd to banish Q. Metellus Numidicus, who went to Rhodes where he became a close Student: but after two Years, his Son Metellus humbling himself to the People, by Prayers and Tears obtain'd his Father's being recall'd.

Upon which MARIUS was highly offended, and fall'd into Cappadocia and Galatia, where he was honourably receiv'd by MITHRIDATES King of Pontus, and excited him to a War against the Romans.

Jannæus having laid Siege to Gaza last Year, it was bravely defended by apollonides, till this Year Lyfimachus his own Brother, thro' Envy, slew him and surrender'd the City to Jannæus, who kill'd, plunder'd, and raz'd the City, tho' with great Loss of his Men; for the Gazens fought to the last Man.

Antiochus GRYPUS King of Syria, was this Year murder'd by Heracleon his Servant in the 45th Year of his Life, leaving five Sons, viz. 1. Seleucus. 2. Antiochus, and 3. Philip Twins, these Three were born by Tryphena the Daughter of Physcon King of Egypt, 4. Demetrius Eucharus, 5. Antiochus Dionysius: who all attempted to reign in their Turns.

19. Seleucus succeeded his Father; tho' CYZICENUS mean while seiz'd Antioch, Ptolemy Apion the Bastard Son of Physcon, dying without Issue, left his Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia by Testament or last Will to the Romans; who not accepting of it, but restoring Liberty to the Cities, occasion'd the Rise of many Tyrants, and much Calamity to the People, till the Country was afterwards reduced to a Roman Province.

Pharnaces the Son of MITHRIDATES Expator King of Pontus was born, who lived 50 Years.

Tigranes the Son of TIGRANES King of Armenia, an Hostage in Parthia when his Father died, was releas'd by Arsaces MITHRIDATES II. King of Parthia, and honourably sent home to succeed his Father; for which the Parthians received a Part of Armenia: for he had reign'd 25 Years before he join'd with Mithridates King of Pontus against the Romans, Plut. in Lucull.

Alexander Jannæus while officiating at the Altar in the Feast of Tabernacles, as High Priest, was pelted with Citrons by the Pharisees, calling him Slave, harping on the old false Story of Hyrcanus's Mother being a Slave: upon which he fell upon them with his Soldiers, and slew 6000 of them.

Jannæus now march'd against and beat the Arabians, and made the People of Moab and Gilead tributary. Seleucus now march'd against Cyzicenus, beat him in a Battel near Antioch, and took him Prisoner: upon which Cyzicenus kill'd himself, (says Porphyrius), or was kill'd by Seleucus (says Josephus) who now became Master of Antioch and of all Syria; but could not long keep it all: for Cyzicenus was succeeded by his Son.

Antiochus EUSEBES or PIENIS, who escaping out of Antioch, was crown'd at Aradus as King of Damascus; and aspiring at the whole Empire of Syria, rais'd an Army, beat Seleucus out of the Field, and made him flee to Mopsuestia; where the People drag'd at his Effigies, set on a Mob and burnt him in his House.

Prolemy ALEXANDER I. King of Egypt, and LATHYRUS at Cyprus.
PHILIP King of Syria, and Antiochus EUSEBES King of Damascus, and Demetrius EUCHERUS.
ALEXANDER JANNIUS Prince of Judea.

2. Mutius Scævola having last Year laid down his Office of Proconsul of Asia, and his Legate Pub. Rutilius Rufus one of the best Men that ever lived, being unjustly condemn'd by the Roman Knights for Bribery, retired from Rome, and was honourably receiv'd in Asia by all the noble and the learn'd this Year.

Antiochus and Philip the Twins, raised an Army and raised Mopsuestia to the Ground: but on their Return They were beaten by EUSEBES near the Orontes, where Antiochus was drown'd; but Philip made a safe Retreat and soon recruited his Army.

Jannaeus again march'd against Amathus; but Theodoros the Son of Zeno Cotylas, carried off his Treasure, and let him take the City, which he rais'd to the Ground. Mean while

20. PHILIP, having a good Army, was now King of Syria, and EUSEBES married Seleue the Widow of GRYPUS, which offended Lathyrus her first Husband, who therefore set up Demetrius Eucæstus the fourth Son of GRYPUS, as King of Damascus. This was contriving while Philip and Eusebes were in the Field against each other, and could not hinder it. At length They came to a decisive Battel, in which Eusebes was routed, and forced to flee into Parthia for Safety, leaving the Prize to King PHILIP, who agreed that his Brother

3. Demetrius EUCHERUS should be King of Damascus: and so They had all Syria between them. Mean while Jannaeus having last Year lost all his Army on the East Side of the Lake of Genesareth, in a Conflict with Obedas an Arabian Prince, the Jews rebelled against him; and this Year a civil War in Judea began that lasted Six Years.

MITHRIDATES Eupator King of Pontus, upon the Death of ARIARATHES King of Cappadocia, murder'd the two Sons of Ariarathes, tho' They were his Nephews born by Queen Laodice his own Sitter, and seiz'd on that Kingdom, making his own younger Son Ariarathes, a Minor, King of Cappadocia, and one Gordius his Tutor. Upon which NICOMEDES King of Bithynia fearing Mithridates should grow too powerful, suborn'd a Youth to call himself the Third Son of the late ARIARATHES, and gaining Laodice to own him, sent him with her to Rome, to put in his Claim to that Kingdom. The Senate condemn'd his Claim, and that of Mithridates too, decreeing that the Cappadocians should become a free People: but They would not be free, and declaring They must have a King, the Senate order'd them to chuse whom They liked best; and They electing ARIOBARZANES a noble Cappadocian, L. Cornelius Sylla was order'd to go from Cilicia to put him in quiet Possession; but not long: for MITHRIDATES resolving to be reveng'd on the Romans, enter'd into a League with TIGRANES King of Armenia, to whom he gave his Daughter Cleopatra in Marriage; and TIGRANES forthwith expell'd Ariobarzanes, and brought back Ariarathes to reign in Cappadocia.

Asaces MITHRIDATES II. King of Parthia, sent Drobazus a Parthian Prince to Sylla to make Friendship with the Romans; which was the first Intercourse between those Nations.

NICOMEDES Philopator King of Bithynia dying, MITHRIDATES King of Pontus seiz'd that Kingdom, to the Exclusion of Nicomedes the Son of the deceas'd. Upon which the Senate of Rome decreed the Restoration of the two deprived Kings Ariobarzanes and Nicomedes, and sent Manius Aquilius and Marcus Albinus to see it executed.

This King of Pontus had greatly enlarg'd his Dominions in Lesser Asia, and besides Tigranes, had got most of his Neighbours to promise him Assistance against the Romans, had 25 Nations under his Dominion, and a very great Army and Fleet; yet he permitted NICOMEDES, now restored, to invade his Country, and carry off great Spoils; nay sent Pelopidas his Orator to Rome to complain of it to the Senate, and to the Roman Generals in Asia, but in vain; for They both threatned him, and order'd his Legate forthwith to depart; which was what he wanted: for he artfully delay'd the War till he should be highly provok'd.

At length the Romans in Asia began the first Mithridatic War, forming three Armies of 40000 each, the first under Cassius, second under Aquilius, and the third under Oppius, without waiting for Orders from Rome.

Nephtolemus and Archelzus, with a Detachment of Mithridates's Army, first overthrew Nicomedes with a great Slaughter, and made him flee into Paphlagonia: then MITHRIDATES march'd against Aquilius, gave him a total Rout, and made him flee to Pergamus. MITHRIDATES having generously sent home all his Prisoners to their own People, gain'd the Favour of all the great Cities and Islands for his Bravery and Humanity, and all of them declar'd for him as the common Savior of Asia, except Rhodes: and Nicomedes retiring to Italy, MITHRIDATES seiz'd all Bithynia, enter'd Phrygia with a great Army, where he lay in the Bed of ALEXANDER the Great, and over-ran the Roman Provinces, as far as Caria and Lycia, which he subdued, and Pamphilia too as far as Ionia, and beat Phylæmenes King of Paphlagonia out of his Country, for being a Friend of the Romans: The Athenians sent Athenio the Philosopher their Ambassador to him: He got the Laodiceans, near the River Lycus, to deliver up to him Oppius the Proconsul of Pamphilia, whom he carried about in Triumph as a Show: the Mysiæneans also deliver'd

Continuation of TABLE XXXII.

PTOLEMY Lathyrus King of Egypt.
PHILIP King of Syria. DEMETRIUS Euthaerus, and ANTIOCHUS Dionysius Kings of Damascus.
ALEXANDER JANNÆUS Prince of Judea.

deliver'd up Aquilinus to him, whom he set bound upon an Ass, and forced him to proclaim to the People, I am Aquilinus the Author of the War; and after many Cruelties he caused melted Gold to be poured hot into their Mouths at Pergamus. And so he conquer'd all before him in those Parts in one Year.

CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt designing to reign alone, plotted the Death of ALEXANDER; which coming to his Knowledge, He prevented it by cutting her off: yet the People of Alexandria could not bear the Fact, and having banish'd him, sent to Cyprus for LATHYRUS, who now reign'd in Egypt till he died.

Alexander Jannæus during his civil Wars had so enraged the People, that They sent for DEMETRIUS King of Damascus, who came into Judea with 40000 Foot, and 3000 Horse, fought Jannæus, gave him a total Overthrow, and forced him with his Remains to flee to the Mountains, where he had been utterly ruin'd, if 6000 of his Subjects had not relented and join'd him. Upon which Demetrius fearing They would all follow that Example, wisely left Judea, and march'd into Syria against his Brother PHILIP, took Antioch, and besieg'd Philip in Berrhaa, (now Aleppo) but STRATON Prince of that Place, got Zizus an Arabian King, and Mithridates a Parthian Commander, to march to the Relief of PHILIP; and They having vanquish'd Demetrius, and took him Prisoner, sent him for a Present to MITHRIDATES II. King of Parthia, where he soon died.

Upon the Retreat of Demetrius Euthaerus, Jannæus got an Army and defeated his Rebels in every Conflict; yet could bring them to no Terms.

King Alexander of Egypt had got some Ships, but was beat by the Egyptian Admiral Tryphus, and fled with his Wife and Daughter to Myra in Lycia; from whence he made this Year a Descent upon Cyprus, but was beat and slain by Admiral Charea, after he had reign'd over Cyprus 26 Years, and over Egypt 19 Years: and so this next Year may be reckon'd the first Year of King LATHYRUS alone, who reign'd 7 Years more. Tho' all the Years are assign'd to him from his Father's Death.

MITHRIDATES King of Pontus prevail'd with all Governors and Magistrates of Cities in Lesser Asia, to cut off by a Massacre, in one appointed Day, 80000 Romans and Italians, in a cruel Manner, some say double the Number, tho' many of them escap'd, (especially the honest Rustilius Rufus in Disguise) and were shelter'd at Rhodes.

MITHRIDATES invaded the Island Cos, where he got a vast Treasure that CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt had sent thither with Alexander her Grandson, the Son of her Son ALEXANDER her Partner, when she warred against LATHYRUS in Phenicia, to be a Reserve against all Events. He also found 800 Talents lodg'd there by the Jews. But He generously took Care of young Alexander the Egyptian Prince, and gave him Education. Then he attack'd Rhodes with his Fleet; but was beat off with Loss and Disgrace by the Rhodians. But being Master of Asia, He sent Archelaus with 120000 Men into Greece, who set up his head Quarters at Athens, and brought most of the States of Greece into his Master's Interest. He sent one of his Sons to govern his ancient Kingdom of Pontus, and sent the other, Ariarathes, to subdue Thrace and Macedon, while Archelaus subdued all the Islands and Sea Coasts.

In this Situation, SYLLA sent from Rome, found Matters upon his Arrival in Greece; who first laid Siege to Athens. —

Mithridates II. King of Parthia dying, was succeeded by the Son of Phraates I. viz.

10. Arsaces MNASKIRES, who reign'd 11 Years. Antiochus EUSEBES having been sent back into Syria by the Parthians, seiz'd some Part of the Syrian Kingdom: but while PHILIP was imploy'd in the North against Eusebes, his Brother

4. Antiochus DIONYSIUS the youngest Son of Grypus seiz'd Damascus, and reign'd King of Cæle Syria three Years.

Jannæus came to a decisive Battel with his Subjects, gave them a total Rout, and closely besieg'd the Remains of them in Bethome. And having taken the Place next Year,

He carried 800 of them to Jerusalem, and crucified them all together in one Day, slaying their Wives and Children before their Faces, while They hung bleeding on the Crosses, and while He with his Wives and Concubines at an Entertainment beheld the horrid Scene. Thus ended the Six Years War of the Jews.

Sylla sent to Rhodes for a Fleet, and about the End of this Year took in Athens, and slew Aristio the Tyrant of it. Magnesia the only City of Asia that adher'd to the Romans, stood out bravely against Mithridates. The Rhodians not daring to send Ships to Sylla, because Mithridates was Master of the Seas, advis'd Lucullus (that came from Sylla) to sail privately to Syria, Egypt, and Lycia, where he might pick up a good Fleet to join them. Lucullus came to Cyrene, and gave them Laws fit for a Republick; then came to Alexandria, where LATHYRUS royally entertain'd him, and sent him off with a Fleet to Cyprus, where, and at several other Places he gather'd a good Fleet, and sail'd safe to Rhodes. Mean while Cinnus the Consul sent his Collegue Valerius Flaccus with two Legions into Asia, to assist Sylla if he was true to the Senate, if not, to fight him. Flaccus not being a great Soldier took Fimbria with him an expert Soldier.

Continuation of TABLE XXXII.

PTOLEMY Pithagoras King of Egypt.

PHILIP and TIGRANES Kings of Syria. ANTIOCHUS Dionysius, and ARETAS Kings of Damascus.

ALEXANDER JANNÆUS Prince of Judea.

But tho' MITHRIDATES had sent into Greece Archelaus with 120000 Men, and Taxiles with 110000, and Dorylaus with 80000, in all 310000 Men; yet Sylla with only 15000 Roman Foot, and 1500 Horse, vanquish'd them in three Battels, slew 160000 of them, and forced the rest to flee out of Greece.

MITHRIDATES frightened at Sylla's Success, raised a new Army and cut off all he suspected to be his secret Enemies, distress'd the Chians by Zenobius, whom the Ephesians intrapt, and cut him off, and fortify'd their City against Mithridates, as did also many other Cities. But he sent his Favourite Dorylaus (the Son of Phileerus; the Brother of Dorylaus Tacticus) and Archelaus with 90000 Men against Sylla, who met them at Urbemennus, and first slew 15000 of them, and in the next Battel 20000, besides 20000 that were drown'd in a Lake, and as many drove and kill'd in the Water, which was stain'd with their Blood. Archelaus by a Ship got to Chalcis, and Sylla, having spoil'd Boeotia, winter'd in Thessaly, expecting Lucullus with a Fleet; but not yet bearing of him, Sylla tamper'd with Archelaus, who betray'd his Master's Fleet into the Hands of Sylla.

Fimbria having excited the Soldiers to mutiny against their General Flaccus, was dismiss'd in Bithynia, and sent home to Rome; but in his Way at Byzantium he gain'd the Soldiers there to his Side, and with them he repass'd the Hellepont, pursued Flaccus, who fled privately to Nicomedia, where Fimbria took him hid in a Well, cut off his Head, threw it into the Sea, and left the Trunk of the Body unburied.

And now the best People of Asia were massacred by Fimbria and Mithridates, whose Son Spithriates fought Fimbria, and made him retreat: but Fimbria soon afterwards crost a River, and finding Mithridate's Army asleep, destroy'd most of them; but the Prince escap'd with the Horsemen to his Father at Pergamus, from whence Fimbria made that King flee to Patani, where he blockaded him by Land; but wanting Ships, and Lucullus in the neighbouring Seas, refusing, from a Pique, to send him any of his Fleet, MITHRIDATES escap'd by Sea to Mitylene, who otherwise must have been taken. But Fimbria did not use People well, destroying their Cities and Temples.

MITHRIDATES, terrify'd by his late Danger and his many Losses, sent Archelaus to Sylla to make Peace on any Terms, which were, that He should restore Bisbynia to King NICOMEDES, Cappadocia to ARIOBARZANES, and the rest to the Romans, paying them 3000 Talents for the Charge of the War, and yielding to them 70 of his capital Ships: which Mithridates accepted of; and so an End was put to the first Mithridatic War; which SYLLA would not have consented to, but that many of the Senators had fled from Rome to his Camp, assuring him that a Civil War was like to break out in Italy, which made his Return very necessary.

SYLLA then march'd against Fimbria, demanding him to give up his usurped Command; which he refusing, Sylla prepar'd to attack him: and Fimbria finding his Soldiers to desert him, fled to Pergamus, where he stab'd himself dead.

While Antiochus was warring against ARETAS King of Arabia Petraea, his Brother PHILIP seiz'd Damascus, by the Help of Milefius the Captain of the Castle; but not rewarding him, Milefius shut the Gates upon Philip, when abroad for his Diversion, and restor'd it to DIONYSIUS, who made another Expedition against ARETAS, marching through Judea into Arabia, where he was slain, and all his Men cut off. Upon which

5. ARETAS was chosen King by the People of Damascus, in Opposition to Ptolemy, the Son of Menneas Prince of Chalcis, who set up for it. ARETAS overcame Jannaeus in a Battel near Addida, but forthwith made Peace with him.

SYLLA having restor'd NICOMEDES and ARIOBARZANES, and settled Asia, and severely fined the rebel Cities, return'd to Italy, and brought with him ALEXANDER the Son of Alexander late King of Egypt: but Brutus Rufus would not return. And so leaving Spurius and Lucius in Asia, SYLLA sail'd from Ephesus, and when he came to Athens seiz'd the Library of Apellica, where were the Works of Aristotle, and brought them to Rome.

JANNÆUS march'd over the Jordan, and reduced many Places that had revolted from him. —————

MITHRIDATES return'd to his ancient Kingdom, and reduced many little Nations that had revolted, beginning with the Colechians, who, to prevent War, desir'd his Son Sithribates to be their King: this made the Father jealous, and cut-off the Son. And Archelaus being afraid, fled to Bithenia, and excited him to renew the War against MITHRIDATES, call'd the second Sithribatic War.

The Syrians quite tired with the Race of SELEUCUS, deposed them all at once from the Throne, and chose

21. TIGRANES King of Armenia, who came and took Possession of the Syrian Kingdom. Upon which Eusebes retir'd to Mount Taurus, where he lived obscure till he died: but SELENE his Queen retain'd Ptolemais and some Parts of Phenicia and Coele Syria, where she reign'd many Years, and royally educated her two Sons, Antiochus Asiaticus and Seleucus Cybisthes, Sons of Eusebes. As for King Philip, true History is silent about him; and therefore it is conjectur'd He was

Continuation of TABLE XXXII.

Ptolemy LATHYRUS and ALEXANDER II. Kings of Egypt.TIGRANES King of Syria and Armeina.JANNAEUS and his Widow ALEXANDRA Princes of Judea.

cut off by TIGRANES: and ARETAS seems to have return'd to Petraa, not being able to maintain Damascus against Tigranes; for we read of him afterwards only there. TIGRANES is said to have reign'd King of Syria 18 Years, till POMPEY made it a Roman Province, tho' he only reign'd 14 Years, as will appear by the Sequel.

MITHRIDATES sent Ambassadors to SYLLA and the Senate, complaining of Murena, and both endeavour'd in vain to get the Heracleusians to join them; for They would be neuter.

Murena cross'd the Halys, and over-ran 400 Towns of Mithridates, who would not stir till his Legates return'd from Rome: and so Murena return'd to Phrygia and Galatia loaded with Spoils: but he soon return'd to the War, and in a great Battel was totally routed by MITHRIDATES, and forced to flee back to Phrygia: upon which all Cappadocia revolted to Mithridates.

ALEXANDER Jannaeus in his late Expedition, having enlarg'd his Conquests beyond the Jordan, became this Year Master of the Valley of Asiathus, and the strong Fort of Gamala; and carried the Prince of it, one Demetrius, Prisoner with him to Jerusalem, where JANNAEUS was received with great Joy, after he had been absent three Years. And now enjoying full Peace, Jannaeus gave himself up to Luxury and Drunkenness that gave him a Quartan Ague.

SYLLA created Dictator, made at Rome a glorious Triumph over Mithridates, and sent Gabinus into Asia, to cause Murena to cease from War. And so ended the second Mithridatic War: but the Romans did not sign the Articles till he resign'd Cappadocia to Ariobarzanes.

SYLLA having recall'd Murena from Asia, sent thither M. Ebermus.

Ptolemy LATHYRUS took Thebes in upper Egypt, after a Siege of three Years, and quite ruin'd that famous Place: but upon his Return to Alexandria he died, having reign'd ten Years with his Mother in Egypt, eighteen in Cyprus, and eight alone in Egypt, after his Mother's Death, and was succeeded by

12. CLEOPATRA his Daughter, and only legitimate Child, who reign'd about six Months: Her proper Name was Berenice; but all the royal Females of Egypt were call'd Cleopatra, as all the Males were call'd Ptolemy.

MITHRIDATES now subdued the Cimmerian Bosphorus, and made his Son MACHARES King of it: while Murena triumph'd at Rome for his Victories in Asia; and C. JULIUS Caesar now bore Arms under Ebermus in Asia, who gave him a Crown of Oak at the sacking of Mitylene.

SYLLA now sent ALEXANDER into Egypt, the Son of Ptolemy Alexander the Matricide, to claim the Crown as the male Heir of Ptolemy; and the Alexandrians, willing to please All, advis'd ALEXANDER to marry their Queen CLEOPATRA; which he did, but in 19 Days he murder'd her: and so

13. Ptolemy ALEXANDER II. reign'd alone King of Egypt 15 Years; while Cn. Dolabella is sent Pro-Consul into Cilicia, who carried with him Verres his Legate, that robb'd the Temples, and other publick Places of Asia, of their finest Pictures and sacred Ensigns.

Alexander JANNAEUS, tho' labouring still under his Quartan Ague, march'd an Army over the Jordan against Ragaba, a Castle of the Geraeni, where he died, leaving two Sons, Hyrcanus and Aristobulus, but leaving the Government in the Hands of his Queen

7. ALEXANDRA; who, by her dying Husband's Advice, reconcil'd the Pharisees to herself, and thereby reign'd in Peace, called by some Salina.

She took in Ragaba, and returning to Jerusalem, she made her eldest Son Hyrcanus the High Priest, he being then about 33 Years old; but she put all the civil Administration into the Hands of the Pharisees, who got her to revoke the Decree of John Hyrcanus, against their Traditions which were now restor'd and propagated.

SYLLA the Dictator now died, when Cicero sail'd from Athens into Asia in quest of Rhetoric, and JULIUS Caesar leaving Cilicia, hasten'd to Rome.

MITHRIDATES, upon Sylla's Death, excited his Son in Law TIGRANES King of Syria and Armenia to invade Cappadocia, whence he carried 300000 People to inhabit his new City Tigranocerta in Armenia, between Ioeria and Zengma at the Euphrates; besides the many thousands he brought thither from all Parts.

ALEXANDER II. was oblig'd to allow the Pharisees grievously to oppress all that were not of their Sect. While Cicero became excellent in Oratory under the best Masters or Iesser Asia, P. Servilius Proconsul of Cilicia, subdu'd the People of Isaura and Lycaonia with his Cities, march'd over Mount Olympus, and was the first Roman that led an Army over Mount Taurus, and triumph'd over all the Enemies of Rome in those Parts.

MNASENES King of Parthia being dead, was succeeded by

11. Aspater SINATROCKES the Son of Mithridates I. who reign'd seven Years.

PTOLEMY Alexander II. King of Egypt.
TIGRANES King of Syria and Armenia.
ALEXANDRA Princess of Judea.

NICOMEDES King of Bithynia dying, left the Romans his Heirs, who made it a Roman Province; and APION twenty Years ago having left them his Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia, They now made that a Roman Province too.

Upon which MITHRIDATES made great Preparations to renew the War with the Romans, and so the Third Mithridatic War began, that lasted near 12 Years: for MITHRIDATES now seiz'd Bithynia and Paphlagonia; and most of the Roman Provinces in Asia revolted to him, in order to be deliver'd from the exorbitant Exactions of the Roman Publicans and Usurers.

JULIUS Caesar now aged about 25 Years, left his Studies at Rhodes and came into Asia, where he began first to signalize himself in keeping the Cities firm to the Roman Interest.

LUCIUS LUCULLUS and Marcus COTTA the Consuls, were sent from Rome to manage this War. Cotta arriving first, being more ambitious than skillful in War, attack'd MITHRIDATES, but was overcome with great Loss at Chalcedon, and the Roman Fleet was destroy'd: then MITHRIDATES laid Siege to Cyzicus (a strong City on the Propontis, and the Key of Asia) with 300000 Men, in ten Camps by Land, and 400 Ships by Sea: but LUCULLUS soon marching his Army, incamp'd by him, and without a Battel, by obstructing his Supplies, and by falling on his Foragers and Detachments, MITHRIDATES was so distress'd that he was forced to raise the Siege, after he had lost the greatest Part of his Army.

SELENE Queen of Ptolemais, sent her two Sons Antiochus and Seleucus to Rome, to solicit her being made Queen of Egypt as Sister to Lathyrus; but after two Years They were poorly sent back to her, for the Senate receiving vast Sums from Alexander, confirm'd him in the Possession.

In this XXVIII Year of JUBILEE Herod the Great was born; for he was 25 Years old, when he was first made Governor of Galilee before Christ 47, his Father was Antipas a noble Idumean, and his Mother Gyrpus a noble Arabian. Antipas called himself Antipater, and his Father Antipas had been Governor of Idumaea under Alexander Jannaeus, and by Religion a Jew, as all the Idumeans now were.

Mean while MITHRIDATES having fled to Nicomedia, and from thence by Sea into Pontus, LUCULLUS fell upon the Remains of his Fleet, and 10000 of his best Men cut them off at Tenedos and Lemnus, where he took three of his Generals, viz. 1. Marcus Spurius a Roman Senator, (who had been sent by Sertorius from Spain to the Assistance of Mithridates) whom LUCULLUS did forthwith put to Death. 2. Alexander of Paphlagonia, whom Lucullus reserv'd for his Triumph; and 3. Dionysius a Eunuch, who poison'd himself.

LUCULLUS having cleared the Sea Coasts, next reduced Bithynia and Paphlagonia, and then march'd into Pontus, where he found MITHRIDATES had lost most of his Fleet and Army, by Tempests in the Euxin, and was now raising new Forces, and had sent for Assistance to Tigranes, Artares, the Scythians, and other Nations; but to no good Purpose.

MITHRIDATES raising another Army at home, took the Field; and LUCULLUS leaving Murena to carry on the Sieges of Amisus and Empactoria, march'd with the rest of the Army to give him Battel. LUCULLUS was beat in the two first Conflicts, but in the Third He gave MITHRIDATES a total Rout, who fled in Haste with 2000 Horse into Armenia, to pray the Protection and Assistance of Tigranes, who, tho' his Son in Law, would not vouchsafe to speak to him for 20 Months. And so all Pontus yielded to the Romans. MITHRIDATES in his Flight sent Bacchides the Eunuch to Pharnacia, where his virgin Sisters Roxana and Statira, his Wives Berenice and Monima, and his Concubines resided, and order'd him to slay them out of Hand. They readily poison'd themselves, or offer'd their innocent, lovely Throats to be strangled: but his Sister Opella was taken and saved by LUCULLUS: while Cotta besieged Heraclea, and made Friendship with the neighbouring Nations.

But Marcus Antonius the Prator (the Father of the Triumvir) making a Descent upon Crete for their assisting Mithridates, was miserably beat at Sea, and died of Grief.

Ptolemy the Son of Mennaeus Prince of Chalcis, at the Foot of Mount Libanus, being a troublesome Neighbour, ALEXANDRA Queen of Judea sent her younger Son Aristobulus with an Army to suppress him, and seize Damascus; the last he did, but not the first, being more intent upon making a Party for himself in the Army, in order to mount the Throne upon her Death.

Queen SELENE, upon the Return of her Sons from Rome without Success, endeavour'd to seduce the Cities of Syria, and to regain the Syrian Empire: but King TIGRANES prevented it by marching 500000 Men, and besieging her in Ptolemais, where he took her Prisoner, and at Seleucia in Mesopotamia, in his Way home to Armenia, he caused her to be put to Death. She had been the Wife of three Kings, first of her Brother LATHYRUS, next of GRYPUS, and then of EUSEBES.

While TIGRANES was at Ptolemais, ALEXANDRA sent Presents to him, as justly afraid of him; for if the Progress of the Roman Army had not called him back, he had been Master of all Palestine.

LUCULLUS having taken Amisus and Empactoria, return'd to the Province of Asia, which he clear'd of the Oppressions of Publicans

Continuation of TABLE XXXII.

PTOLEMY Alexander II. King of Egypt.
TIGRANES and ANTIOCHUS Asiaticus King of Syria.
ARISTOBULUS II. Prince of Judea.

Publicans and Usurers; for which and other good Offices They instituted the Lucullian Games, annually celebrated for several Years after.

When TIGRANES return'd from Ptolemais to Antioch, LUCULLUS sent Clodius his Wife's Brother with a Letter to him, demanding Mithridates to be deliver'd to him, or that War should be declar'd against him. Tigranes was highly offended at the Freedom of Clodius's Speech, and at Lucullus's directing only to King Tigranes without styling him the King of Kings, (a Title he much affected; because he kept some petty Kings, he had captivated, as his Servants and Lackeys) therefore He refused to deliver Mithridates, and wrote only to Lucullus, without styling him the Imperator of the Army; and so Clodius declar'd War. Upon which LUCULLUS having seized Pontus, and left Sornatius with 6000 Men there, He march'd with only 12000 Foot and 3000 Horse thro' Cappadocia to the Euphrates, which he cross'd in the midst of Winter, and continued his March to the Tigris, which having cross'd, He march'd directly to Tigranocerta a little farther, and came to the Doors of TIGRANES (lately return'd from Syria) before the Tyrant heard of his March; for none durst tell him, having slain one for that Boldness before, and had San Zartienus King of the Gordienians, with his Wife and Children, for being suspected to correspond with Lucullus.

A little before the March of Lucullus, ALEXANDRA Queen of Judea died, aged 73. SALOME the Widow of Aristobulus, the elder Brother of Jannæus being also call'd Alexandra, some have thought those two the one and the same Person, as if she had been first the Widow of Aristobulus, and then the Wife of Jannæus; but Herennus, the eldest Son of Jannæus, being born by her about five Years before the Death of Aristobulus, proves the contrary. When she died the Pharisees set up their Friend

8. HYRCANUS II. the eldest Son of Jannæus to be King and High Priest: but Aristobulus his Brother got his Father's Friends together, and the best military Men, the Enemies of the Pharisees; and at their Head, He beat Hyrcanus out of the Field near Jericho, and forced him to resign those Offices, and to be satisfy'd with the Station of a private Gentleman, after he had reign'd only three Months: and so

9. ARISTOBULUS II. was King of Judea, and High Priest of Jerusalem for six Years, till deposed by Pompey. ——— TIGRANES had, upon his Return, admitted MITHRIDATES to a Conference; the Result of which was, that Mithridates with 10000 Horse was sent into Pontus to raise a new Army for the Assistance of Tigranes against Lucullus: but the Roman Eagles being at the Gate unexpected, Tigranes left Tigranocerta, and rendezv'z'd his Forces at Mount Taurus 360000 Men, and marching to the Relief of Tigranocerta, LUCULLUS left a few Men with Spurena at the Siege, and with the rest about 11000 met TIGRANES, and gave them a total Rout, tho' twenty Times more numerous: nay the Romans never fought at such Disadvantage, nor ever obtain'd a more glorious Victory.

TIGRANES narrowly escaped, and in his Flight met MITHRIDATES coming to his Relief, to whom Tigranes left the ordering of the War, who wrote to the Parthians and others for Assistance; and Tigranes called his Lieutenant Megadates out of Syria with all his Forces to strengthen him at this Pinch: upon which Evacuation

22. ANTIOCHUS Asiaticus the eldest Son of Antiochus Eusebes by Queen Selene, the next Heir of the Seleucida, took Possession of some Parts of the Syrian Kingdom, where he reign'd four Years in Peace.

Mean while LUCULLUS return'd to the Siege of Tigranocerta, and took it, where he found 8000 Talents of coin'd Money; sent all the press'd Inhabitants gladly home to their own several native Countries, and reduced that monstrous City to a Village. But had LUCULLUS rather persw'd Tigranes, he might either have catch'd him, or prevented his recruiting, and at once finish'd the War, as the Romans thought at Rome; for which They resolv'd to recall him, but not yet.

Sinatroches King of Parthia being dead, was succeeded by his Son

12. Arsaces PHRAHATES III. who reign'd nine Years.

Mithridates and Tigranes sent to Phraabates for Assistance, as did also Lucullus: but he promis'd fair to both, and help'd neither. But by recalling Megadates his Lieutenant, with the Army out of Syria, and by other Means, TIGRANES and MITHRIDATES got an Army of 70000 choice Men, exercised in the Roman Way, and took the Field, resolving to incamp well, and wear out Lucullus without a Battle: but LUCULLUS perceiving their Design, march'd straight to besiege Artaxata, the old Metropolis of Armenia, where Tigranes's Wives, Children and Treasure were. This made Tigranes decamp, and gaining four Days March, posted himself on the River Araxes to block the Passage of Lucullus, where it came to a Battel; Mithridates, terrified at the Sight of the Roman Legions, beat a retreat out of the Field, and let Lucullus obtain another glorious Victory. Lucullus would have march'd to the Araxes, which would have finish'd the War; but the Winter coming on, his Soldiers would not follow him so far North: that he march'd Southward over Mount Taurus into Mesopotamia, and took from the Parthians the strong City Nisibis, where he was met by Clodius his Wife's Brother, began to foment a Mutiny in his Army against him.

Yet Lucullus, with Difficulty, prevail'd with his irascible Army to march into Pontus against Mithridates; but too late: for MITHRIDATES had vanquish'd Phraates, and obtain'd a glorious Victory over Tigranes. But the Romans would not fight any more PTOLOMY Alexander II. King of Egypt.

TIGRANES and ANTIOCHUS Asiaticus Kings of Syria.
ARISTOBULUS II. King of Judea.

under Lucullus, who was forced to keep in Camp while MITHRIDATES recover'd Pontus, and TIGRANES ranged at large in Cappadocia, but next Year

POMPEY came with a new Commission, to whom Lucullus deliver'd the Army, and return'd to Rome, leaving Pompey to reap the Laurels of his Victories. LUCULLUS brought to Rome a great Number of Books, of which he made a fine Library for the Use of the Learned. JULIUS CESAR now Questor in Spain, aged 34 Years, groan'd at the Sight of Alexander the Great's Statue in the Temple of Hercules at Gades; for that he was so old and had done nothing like Alexander.

Pompey first drew PHRAHATES into a Confederacy with him, and offer'd Peace to Mithridates, whose Men would not permit him to accept of it, and who distress'd Pompey by Delays, forcing him for want of Provisions to march into lesser Armenia, and pursu'd him thither; till POMPEY, by a Night's March, turn'd and surpriz'd Mithridates with a sudden Attack, slew most of his Army, and made him flee Northward for Safety: then POMPEY having order'd in the Place of Battel, a City to be built called Nicopolis, or the City of Victory, he march'd straight against TIGRANES in the greater Armenia, who was then at War with Tigranes his own Son, by Cleopatra the Daughter of Mithridates: for this Son, after the Father had cut off his two elder Brothers for slight Causes, fled to Parthia, married a Daughter of PHRAHATES, and now return'd with an Army to besiege Artaxata; but being routed by the Father, and hearing of Mithridates's Defeat, the Son cast himself into Pompey's Hands, who receiv'd him kindly, and by his Guidance, Pompey march'd straight to Artaxata. But old Tigranes not being able to withstand him, came to the Roman Camp, took off his Crown, and fell prostrate at POMPEY's Feet, who rais'd him, put on his Crown, and set him on his right Hand, and his Son on his left Hand; and having order'd the Father to pay 6000 Talents for the Charge of the War, and to resign all his Conquests on this Side the Euphrates, POMPEY restor'd him to his ancient Kingdom, and decreed the Son to reign in two Provinces of it till the Father's Death; which the old King thankfully accepted of: but the Son refusing, and being detected of tampering with the Armenian Nobility and the Parthians, to renew the War, POMPEY made him Prisoner, and reserv'd him for his Triumph.

Thus ended the Syrian Kingdom conquer'd by the Romans, and resign'd by TIGRANES, after it had stood 247 Years, according to the Era of Contracts or of Seleucus. What came of Antiochus Asiaticus and his Brother, the last of the Seleucide, is mention'd in the following Tables.

A Catalogue of the ARSACIDAE Kings of Parthia, till They became illustrious by their Wars with the Romans.

I have mentioned (Page 150.) the Rise of the Parthian Kingdom: for while the Eastern Provinces were neglected by ANTIOCHUS Theos King of Syria, and oppress'd by his avaricious, tyrannical Deputies, a noble Parthian called

1. ARSACES put himself at the Head of the Parthians and Persians (much the same Sort of People) slew Agathocles the Governor, and founded a new Kingdom; who (according to the Coins of the ARSACIDAE, collected by Vaillant in his Book of Arsacidarum Imperium) began to reign or rule

But according to the Varronian Account, It was Anno Urbis Condite 498.

And by this Catalogue may be corrected what I have said Page 150. of ARSACES I.

From him his Successors were all called ARSACES. Died without Issue.

2. Arsaces TIRIDATES his Brother succeeded ARSACES the Founder his Wife N. N.

3. Arsaces ARTABANUS I. his Wife N. N. began to reign

4. Arsaces PHRIAPATIUS his Wife N. N. began to reign

5. Arsaces PHRAHATES I. his Wife N. N. began to reign

6. Arsaces MITHRIDATES I. the Brother of Phrahates I. and Son of PHRIAPATIUS, his Wife N. N. began to reign

7. Arsaces PHRAHATES II. no Issue, he began to reign

8. Arsaces ARTABANUS II. the Uncle of the last King, and the Brother of Mithridates I. and the Son of PHRIAPATIUS, his Wife N. N. began to reign

9. Arsaces MITHRIDATES II. called the Great, no Issue, began to reign

10. Arsaces MNASKIRES the Son of PHRAHATES I. no Issue, began to reign

11. Arsaces SINATROCKES the Son of MITHRIDATES I. and the Brother of Phrahates II. and the Grandson of Phriapatus, his Wife N. N. began to reign

12. Arsaces PHRAHATES III. his Wife N. N. began to reign

In the 4th Year of his Reign the Era or Period of SELEUCUS ends, being in all 247. when the Seleucidae were laid aside by POMPEY, who made the Syrian Empire a Roman Province.

After which the ARSACIDAE will be more taken Notice of in the following Tables.

TABLE XXXIV.

A CATALOGUE of the Kings of Bithynia in Lesser Asia.

This Kingdom had Paphlagonia on the East, the Pontic Sea on the North, the Propontis on the West, and Mysia with Lesser Phrygia on the South.

IT was called first Croxia, then Thessalis, and afterwards Mariandine, says Pliny, Lib. V. Cap. 32. But Appian in Mithrid. says, that the Greeks thought the Thracians who fought at Troy under Rhesus, after he was lost, retired to the Mouth of the Pontus, not far from Thrace, and wanting Ships, remained there, calling the Country Bebricia: that a Colony of them afterwards passed over to the Country above Byzantium, near the River Bisbya, and afterwards by a Famine, were forced to return to Bebricia, and changed its Name to Bithynia, so called from the said River Bisbya: that others affirmed Bithis or Bithynus, the Son of Jove and Thyate, first reign'd here, from whom the Country had its Name. But Strabo Lib. XII. says, that the first Inhabitants were Mysians and called Bithynians, from a Colony of the Thracians called Thynians, who travelled thither: for Cleod. 2. in Entrop. sings, Thyni Thracas erant, quæ nunc Bithynia fertur.

1. DOEDALSUS so called by Strabo, and called by Memnon DYDALSUS, is reckoned the first King of Bithynia, in the 22<sup>d</sup> Year of Artaxerxes Mnemon King of Persia, began But according to the Varronian Account of the Founding of Rome, Anno Urbis Condita 371. There is nothing more said of him, but that the Asbenians gave him the City Astacus, which he beautified, but by some is supposed to have reigned five Years, his Wife N. N. See Vaillant. Achæmentarum Imperium.

2. BOTIRAS or BOYRUS, lived to be 75 Years old, his Wife N. N. See Casauboni Comment. in Lib. XII. Strabonis.

3. BAS, He defeated Caranus (called by Memnon Calanus) one of ALEXANDER's Generals, after the Battel of Ganicus, and then kept the Macedonians from invading Bithynia, in the 44th Year of his Reign, viz. And died in Peace, aged 76 Years, his Wife N. N.

4. ZIPOETES called by Diodorus ZIBYTES, began to reign in the second Year of ALEXANDER the Great, after the Death of DARIUS, had various Conflicts with Lyfimachus and Seleucus, two of Alexander's Successors; maintained his Ground against all his Enemies, reigned glorious, and died in Peace, aged 76 Years, his Wife N. N. who bore to him four Sons, Nicomedes, Zipoetes, and two more. Hereby may be corrected what is said of the King of Bithynia, Page 148.

5. NICOMEDES I. began in the 4th Year of Ptolemy Philadelphus King of Egypt, and 32<sup>d</sup> Year of Seleucus Nicator King of Syria, He assisted Antigonus Gonatas in taking Possession of Macedon. He slew two of his Brothers, but his Brother Zipoetes took Possession of the Thracian Bithynia, and being also threatned by Antiochus Soter King of Syria, in Revenge for the Loss of his Army lately in Bithynia, NICOMEDES invited the Gauls from Byzantium (whither They had retired after the Defeat of their General Brennus) to come to his Assistance, who were afterwards called Galatians, and by their Help he overcame Zipoetes, and confirmed his Kingdom, viz. He married first Ditizeles a noble Phrygian, who bore to him his Son and Successor Zelas. When she died, He married Etazeta, who bore to him a Son Zibates, and several other Children. She got her Son in Law Zelas banished the Court, who fled to the Court of Armenia, while NICOMEDES declared his Children by Etazeta his Heirs, leaving Ptolemy Euergetes King of Egypt, and Antigonus Gonatas King of Macedon, their Curators or Trustees; and died in Peace. He built the famous City Nicomedia.

6. ZELAS or Zeilas, upon his Father's Death returned from Armenia with an Army to Bithynia, where he found Etazeta his Mother in Law was married to his Father's Brother Zipoetes, who in Defence of her Children got the Command of the Army from the Curators, and kept ZELAS from the Throne about three Years; till Cumenes King of Pergamus died, the grand Adversary of ZELAS, in the 4th Year of Olymp. 134. when ZELAS got peaceable Possession, and his Brother Zibates fled into Macedonia. But in the Flower of his Age he was insnared, and slain by the Gauls his Neighbours; his Wife N. N.

7. PRUSIAS I. aged about 13 Years at his Father's Death, began to reign in the 16th Year of Ptolemy Euergetes King of Egypt. He beat the Gauls in many Battels, and fully revenged his Father's Murder upon them, and delivered all the Neighbourhood of the Hellepont from the Terror of them. He also brought the Byzantians and Rhodians to Terms, upon the Death of his Uncle Zibetes, in his Expedition from Macedonia against him. He join'd Philip King of Macedon, against the Etolians, who were supported by Attalus King of Pergamus and the Romans; till by his Mediation, Philip gave Peace to the Etolians Anno of Rome 544. and then by Philip's Help he defeated the Chians, and destroyed their City Cius, and restored it with the Name of Prusiades. He was wounded at the Siege of Heraclea, from whence he was called Claudus, or the Hasting. He declined the Confederacy of Antiochus Magnus King of Syria, for that of the Romans, being influenced by the Letters of the two Scipios: and died in Peace the same Year that Antiochus Magnus died; his Wife Apama Daughter of Philip King of Macedonia. Vaillant says, He reign'd 45 Years, but by his own Chronology he reign'd 43 Years.

8. PRUSIAS II. called Vexator, or the Hunter, began to reign in the first Year of Seleucus Philopator King of Syria, and 10th Year of Ptolemy Epiphanes King of Egypt. Hannibal not residing safely in Crete, retired to PRUSIAS, whom he excited to make War upon Cumenes King of Pergamus, who beat PRUSIAS out of the Field; but by the Cunning of Hannibal, PRUSIAS beat Cumenes out of the Sea. Cumenes having sent his Brother Asbenus to Rome his his Ambassadors, the Senate sent their Legate Flaminius to PRUSIAS, who prevailed with the King to deliver up Hannibal: but the brave Hannibal finding his House beset with the King's Soldiers, took Poison and died, aged 70 Years, viz.

Hannibal was buried at Libyssa near his House, according to an Oracle which he always misunderstood of Lybissa in Africa. PRUSIAS interceded with the Romans for giving Peace to Perseus King of Macedon, but in vain; and after Perseus was overthrown, PRUSIAS went with great Magnificence to Rome, and congratulated the Romans upon their Conquest of Perseus and of Genusus King of the Illyrians, where he was royally entertained 30 Days, and he left his Son Nicomedes to be there educated: but They despised the King for his abject Spirit, humbling himself to the Senate below the Dignity of a Prince. When he return'd, He made War upon Attalus King of Pergamus, who was supported by the Romans, and They at last reconciled these two Kings. He sent Menas to Rome to murder his Son Nicomedes; but Menas with 2000 Bithynians join'd Nicomedes in Italy, and sail'd to Attalus, who gladly received the young Prince, and demanded for him some Part of the Kingdom at present. But PRUSIAS having reply'd, he would shortly give his Son the Kingdom of Pergamus, Attalus and Nicomedes invaded Bithynia, to whom the People flock'd, till PRUSIAS had none he could trust but 500 Thracians, with whom he shut himself up in the Castle of Nicea, till he sent to Rome; and the Romans trifling in their Mediation, he went to Nicomedia, where the Inhabitants betray'd him into the Hands of Nicomedes, who, with Attalus, ordered PRUSIAS to be slain, while sheltering himself at Jove's Altar. His Wife 1. Spame, the other Daughter of Philip King of Macedonia, and Sister of King Perseus, who bore to him his Son Nicomedes. 2. N. N. the Daughter of Diegyltes King of Thrace, who bore to him several Children. Vallart says He reign'd 41 Years, but according to his own Chronology he reign'd only 37 Years.

9. NICOMEDES II. Cypharus began to reign in the 33<sup>d</sup> Year of Ptolemy Philometor King of Egypt, and 3<sup>d</sup> Year of Alexander Balas King of Syria, made no great Wars, only contended with Antiochus the Great, King of Pontus, about the Kingdom of Cappadocia, which the Romans preserved from them both. At last he was murder'd by his Son Socrates Chrestus, who fled to Mithridates. His Wife 1. Laodice, the Sister of Mithridates, and Widow of Ariarathes King of Cappadocia. 2. Rufa famous for Dancing, who bore to him his Son Nicomedes; she is called also Confinge.

10. NICOMEDES III. called Eupator, began to reign in the 25th Year assigned to Lathyrus King of Egypt, and first of Philip King of Syria — was at Rome when his Father was murder'd, was honourably called home to take Possession of the Kingdom, and confirmed by the Senate of Rome. Antiochus having set up his Refugee Socrates Chrestus, expelled NICOMEDES till the Romans restored him, and also Ariobarzanes King of Cappadocia: but Antiochus bravely defeated the Romans, and their Ally NICOMEDES, who fled to Italy till he was restored by Sylla, upon the Peace concluded with Mithridates, and was not disturbed till Quintus the Roman General renewed the Mithridatic War, and NICOMEDES after he had reign'd 12 Years died without Issue, in the last Year of Lathyrus King of Egypt. While JULIUS CESAR, then about 19 Years old, resided at his Court, and was blamed for wicked Familiarity with him.

NICOMEDES by Will left all to the Romans, after this Kingdom had stood from its first Erection. — And after four Years the Will was brought to Rome, when Bithynia was declared a Province of Rome, and committed to the Administration of M. JUNIUS Silius, then Proconsul of Asia, who began

This was one of the Provocations of MITHRIDATES the Great, to begin the 3<sup>d</sup> Mithridatic War, that lasted near 12 Years, who now seized Bithynia and Paphlagonia, till reduced by the wise and brave LUCULLUS, in his glorious Victories over MITHRIDATES the Great.

But the Romans had not quiet Possession of this Province, till POMPEY reduced Tigranes King of Armenia and Syria, and made all the Syrian Empire a Roman Province. When the Kingdom of Pontus and that of Bithynia was made one Province. —

TABLE XXXV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Kings of Egypt and Judea, and of the Roman Republick, with their Contemporaries.
From the last Year of PTOLEMY Alexander II. King of Egypt, or the first Year of POMPEY in Asia, to the Battel of Pharsalia, containing 18 Years.

POMPEY the Roman General in Asia.
PTOLEMY Auletes King of Egypt. Arsaces PHRAHATES III. King of Parthia.
ARISTOBULUS II. King of Judea.

POMPEY having in his March against Mithridates last Year, conquer'd the Albanians between the Caspian and the Euxin, (where he winter'd) early this Year subdued the Iberians their Neighbours, (who had never been conquer'd before) and the Colchians, whose King OLTRACES he reserved for his Triumph. But MITHRIDATES marching Northward round the Euxin, got into the Cimmerian Bosphorus, (now Crim Tartary) where he had placed his Son Phathares as King, who slew himself for fear of falling into his Father's Hands; because he was at Peace with the Romans. POMPEY not being able to follow him, marched Southward, subdued Darius King of Media, and Antiochus King of Commagena; and having by Scaurus reduced Cale Syria, and by Gabinus all the Country towards the Tigris, He return'd to Damascus, de throne'd poor ANTIOCHUS Asiaticus, and made all the Syrian Empire a Roman Province. Mean while

The Alexandrians having rebelled against ALEXANDER their King, expelled him, and chose

13. PTOLEMY Auletes or the Piper, the Bastard Son of Lathyrus, called Dionysius Neos, or the New Bacchus, a weak effeminate Prince. Alexander went and appealed to POMPEY, who not meddling in it, as not in his Commission, Alexander retired to Tyre, and there died. He is not mentioned by Ptolemy the Astronomer among the Kings of Egypt; for in his Chronological Canon he begins the Reign of AULETES from the Death of LATHYRUS, tho' from Cicero and Sueton it appears, that ALEXANDER reign'd 15 Years from the Death of Lathyrus: but perhaps, as his Brother Ptolemy, another Bastard Son of Lathyrus, was from his Father's Death possessed of Cyprus, so AULETES might be of some Parts of Egypt, till the Expulsion of Alexander.

Antipater the Father of HEROD, the Idumean, excited HYRCANUS to renew the War against his Brother ARISTOBULUS, got Aretas King of Petrea to join him with 50000 Men, who, with the Jews of Hyrcanus's Party, defeated Aristobulus, and besieged him in the Mount of the Temple: but by Aristobulus's Promises to Scaurus and Gabinus, these Roman Generals forced Aretas to retire, whom Aristobulus pursued, and beat him at Papyrius with a great Slaughter, in which many of Hyrcanus's Party fell, particularly Caphalion the Brother of Antipater.

While POMPEY lay at Damascus he was attended by 12 Kings, besides Ambassadors from all Parts, particularly from PHRAHATES III. King of Parthia, whom POMPEY offended, by not calling him in his Letter the King of Kings, and by sending Gabinus to seize the Country of the Gordyeniens, that had formerly belonged to Tigranes. The Egyptians sent him a Crown of Gold worth 4000 Pieces, and the Jews sent him a Vine of Gold worth 400 Talents. From thence He marched into Pontus, and took in New Castle, where he found the Treasure of MITHRIDATES, and his private Memoirs, and his medicinal Commentaries; for he was an excellent Physician, and discovered the Medicine called Mithridate after him, even to this Day. And having settled all those Countries, and station'd the Roman Navy, so as to prevent Mithridates from getting Supplies of Provisions, POMPEY return'd to settle the new Province of Syria, with a View of extending his Conquests to the Red Sea, as he had before extended them to the Atlantic Ocean in Africa and Spain, and lately to the Caspian Sea. He summon'd before him those petty Kings that had set up themselves upon the Declension of the Syrian Empire; some of whom he put to Death for their Cruelty, Others he deprived, and made the rest Tributaries, particularly Ptolemy the Son of Mennans, Prince of Chalcis, who presented Pompey with 1000 Talents. At Damascus Antipater appear'd from HYRCANUS, and Nicodemus from ARISTOBULUS, each praying Pompey's Patronage, who order'd the Two Royal Brothers to appear before him: but before They could come, POMPEY left Syria, and marched again into Pontus to provide against the Designs of Mithridates; who having offer'd to hold his Kingdom as a Vassal or Tributary of the Romans, as Tigranes held his, was rejected, unless he would come to POMPEY in Person as Tigranes had done; which MITHRIDATES scorning to do, prepared for a vigorous War, and resolv'd to march his Army thro' the East Parts of Europe, and then over the Alps into Italy to assault the Romans, like Hannibal, at their own Doors: but the Length and Dangers of that proposed March frightned his military Men into a Revolt, and They made his Son PHARNACES their King, who would not let his Father escape elsewhere: therefore the old King afraid of his Son's making Peace with POMPEY, by delivering him up, and mortally abhorring to be led in Triumph at Rome, poison'd and stabb'd himself, after he had lived 72 Years, and reign'd 60 Years, the wisest, bravest Prince that ever warred against the Romans; of great Learning, Resolution, Activity, and of an unconquerable Spirit: but without Ambition, cruel and lustful, as Historians have characterised him. Thus ended the Third Mithridatic War.

PHRAHATES III. King of Parthia, now warred successfully against TIGRANES King of Armenia; nor did POMPEY concern himself in it, being afraid to march thither, and so They two amicably agreed in Opposition to the Romans the common Enemy.

ARETAS King of Arabia Petrea having invaded Syria, POMPEY return'd to Damascus to oppose him, where Hyrcanus and Aristobulus appear'd before him, to make good their several Pretensions; and POMPEY promised to come to Jerusalem, there to decide the Controversy: but Aristobulus, suspecting Sentence would go against him, return'd in an Hurr, and prepar'd for War. Then POMPEY march'd against Aretas, who submitting upon Terms, Pompey return'd from Petrea thro' Judea, forced Aristobulus to deliver up his Castles, who fled to

POMPEY the Roman General in Asia.
PTOLEMY Muletes King of Egypt. PHRAHATES III. and MITHRIDATES III. Kings of Parthia.
HYRCANUS II. King of Judea.

Jerusalem, and again prepared for War, and POMPEY marched after him, pitching his Camp at Jericho, where Messengers brought him the News of the Death of MITHRIDATES, and that PHARNACES his Son submitted himself and his Country to the Roman Common-wealth.

Then POMPEY marched towards Jerusalem, when Aristobulus came forth and surrender'd himself, promising a Sum of Money; but when Gabinus went with a Detachment to receive it, he found the Gates shut, and the People from the Walls declared They would not stand to the Agreement: whereon POMPEY clapt Aristobulus in Chains, and marched to Jerusalem, was let in by the Party of Hyrcanus, while the Party of Aristobulus retired to the Fort called the Mount of the Temple, where They were besieged three Months; but It was taken at last, and 12000 of them cut off; when Aristobulus was deposed, and HYRCANUS II. was restored.

Dr. Budeaus says, That the Temple was taken in about our Midsummer, on the Day which the Jews kept as a solemn Fast for the taking of Jerusalem, and the Temple by Nebuchadnezzar. But Archbishop Usher says, It was taken in the 3<sup>d</sup> civil Month Kisleu, and 28th Day answering to our 20th Day of December, when the Fast was kept for Jehoiakim's burning Jeremiah's Roll, and on the Jewish weekly Sabbath, on the same Day that Nebuchadnezzar first took in Jerusalem and the Temple of Solomon, and put Jehoiakim in Chains, 543 Years ago, or in the 79th Year after the Jews were freed from the Yoke of the Gentiles: for that was Anno Seleuci 170. A. M. 3861. when SIMON the Asmonæan became a Sovereign; for no longer were the Jews an independent People. See Page 167.

POMPEY with several Romans went thro' all the Temple, even into the Holy of Holies, which the Jews grievously resented. Tho' he took none of the 2000 Talents of Money repositied there, and order'd the Temple to be cleansed, and restored the divine Service as formerly: but he demolished the Walls of Jerusalem, made Hyrcanus a Tributary of Rome, but would not allow him to wear a Diadem, nor extend his Borders beyond Old Judea, adding all the rest to the New Province of Syria, of which he made Scaurus the President.

The People of Philadelpia (the old Rabbah of the Ammonites) now began their Epochæ. And this Year Catilin's Conspiracy broke out at Rome, as related by Salust.

This Year Quintus AUGUSTUS Caesar was born (to his Father Quintus by his Mother Julia, the Sister of JULIUS CESAR) on the 9th before the Kalends of October, Cicero and Antonius being Consuls. And LUCULLUS made his Triumph at last with universal Applause.

POMPEY leaving Syria, came to Amisus in Pontus; whither PHARNACES sent to him the Body of his Father MITHRIDATES with many Gifts; and POMPEY generously order'd the Body to be buried at Sinope, in the Royal Sepulchre with great Solemnity: and having granted to Pharnaces the Kingdom of Bosphorus, and declared him an Ally of Rome, he carried off immense Treasures from Pontus, and marched to Ephesus where he wintered. Mean while

Scaurus was engaged in War with Aretas, and had been starved in Arabia, but for the Assistance of HYRCANUS; which made Scaurus, by the Mediation of Antipater, give good Terms of Peace to Aretas; and then Scaurus left that Province to his Successor Marcius Philippus. And POMPEY in the Spring setting sail from Ephesus, arrived at Brundisium, and came to Rome, where, upon the Recital of his mighty Conquests, the Senate decreed his Triumph, which he deferred till his Birth Day next Year, when aged 45 Years.

And now POMPEY the Great had the greatest Triumph that ever was before at Rome, for two Days together in great Pomp and Glory, leading in Triumph ARISTOBULUS King of Judea, and his Son Antigonus, OLTHACES King of Colchos, Tigranes the Son of TIGRANES King of Armenia, with five Sons and two Daughters of MITHRIDATES King of Pontus, and above 300 more of noble Captives, of whom he put none to Death, and sent them all home, except Tigranes and Aristobulus.

PHRAHATES III. King of Parthia was murdered by his two Sons Mithridates and Orodes, and was succeeded by 13. Asaces MITHRIDATES III. his Son, who reign'd seven Years, at least seven Years elapsed before his Death, and this Year he renewed the War in Armenia.

Dionorus Siculus the famous Greek Historian now flourished; for he brought his History to this Year, and lived afterwards to the Middle of the Reign of Augustus.

Ptolemy the eldest Son of ACLETES King of Egypt was born; for he was but 13 Years old, when Pompey fled to him out of the Battel of Pharsalia; but his Sister Cleopatra was older.

LUCULLUS, CATO, Metellus, and others, raised a great Party in the Senate against POMPEY, who was forced to apply for Shelter to the Tribunes of the People, till JULIUS CESAR came to Rome to obtain the Consular Dignity, with whom POMPEY and CRASSUS made a Triumvirate, confederated by Oath, and ingrossed the whole Power of the Commonwealth, till by their Contentions and Wars the old Constitution was changed. Lentulus Marcellinus was sent to succeed Marcius Philippus in the Government of Syria, and next Year

JULIUS CESAR was made Consul, who confirmed all the Acts of POMPEY, made a Cypher of his Colleague Bibulus, raised vast Sums from foreign Princes and States, for admitting them into Alliance with Rome, and by a Decree of the People he obtained for his Province at the End of the Year, all Gallia and Illyricum, during five Years, with four Legions, which was the Beginning of his great Power, and where he begins his Commentaries.

Orodes the Brother of MITHRIDATES King of Parthia, raised Sedition, but was beaten, and fled out of the Country.

HYRCANUS II. King and High Priest of Judea.

MITHRIDATES III. King of Parthia.

Clodius having renounced his Nobility, or Patrician Order, and now become a Tribune of the People, obtained of them to decree to the Consul Gabinus, the Province of Syria and the Country East of it, and to the other Consul Piso the Grecian Countries, and another Decree for seizing the Kingdom of Cyprus, and deposing PTOLEMY its King, the Bastard Son of Lathyrus and Brother of AULETES, who had reigned there from the Death of Lathyrus, tho' he was an Ally of Rome; but he had formerly neglected Clodius, and was become very rich: And ALEXANDER late King of Egypt and Cyprus, when he died at Tyre, having made the Romans his Heirs, Clodius made the People think it a sufficient Ground of that unjust Decree; and he got them to send CATO the justest Man in Rome to execute it, who being gone upon that Expedition, Clodius got them to banish CICERO from Rome and Italy, only because, while Consul, he had put to Death some of Catilin's Conspirators, by Order of the Senate, without a Trial before the People; tho' truly because CICERO had given his Evidence against Clodius in a late Trial. CATO sent from Rhodes to PTOLEMY, advising him to resign, promising him the High Priesthood of VENUS at Waphos; but he rather chose to poison himself, and left all his vast Treasure to be seized by CATO, who brought it honestly to Rome next Year. Clodius also released young TIGRANES, and sent him off in Spite to POMPEY.

MITHRIDATES King of Parthia was expelled for his Cruelty, and ORODES recalled.

PTOLEMY Auletes refusing to demand Cyprus, to be restored to the Crown of Egypt, the Alexandrians banished him, and set upon his Throne his Daughter

14. Berenice, who married first SELEUCUS Cybiosactes the Brother of ANTIOCHUS Asiaticus, the last Branch of the Seleucidæ, and next 2-Kin to the Crown of Egypt, by their Mother Selene; but being soon weary of him, she put him to Death: and his Brother ANTIOCHUS Asiaticus dying last Year, the whole Race of Seleucidæ was extinct. Then she married ARCHELAUS High Priest of Comana in Pontus, the Son of Archelaus that had deserted from Mithridates to the Romans. But AULETES, contrary to CATO's Advice at Rhodes, went to Rome to solicit his Restoration, tho' without Success; and then retired to the Temple of Diana at Ephesus

Alexander the eldest Son of Aristobulus, having made his Escape from POMPEY in his Way to Rome, now raised 10000 Foot, and 1500 Horse in Judea, and seized several strong Places, upon which HYRCANUS sent to Gabinus now in Syria, who, with Mark Antony his General of Horse, (afterwards the famous Triumvir of Rome) came into Judea, beat Alexander out of the Field, and besieged him in Alexandrium: but by the artful Mediation of his Mother, Alexander obtained his Pardon, delivering the Fort to Gabinus, who raised it. Then Gabinus marched to Jerusalem, restored HYRCANUS to the High Priesthood, but reduced the civil Government to an Aristocracy, creating five Courts or Sanhedrims, each with sovereign independent Power, viz. at Jerusalem, Jericho, Gadara, Amathus, and Sepphoris, which he made the Capitals of five petty Provinces: This he did to please the People, that ever since the Tyranny of Alexander Jannæus, had been weary of Monarchy. Towards the End of this Year ARISTOBULUS and his Son Antigonus escaped from Rome, raised an Army in Judea, and rebuilt Alexandrium; but Gabinus sent Sisenna his Son with Antony and Servilius, who defeated ARISTOBULUS in the Field, took him and Antigonus in Macharus, and sent them back to Rome. But Gabinus having wrote to the Senate, that he had promised to the Wife of Aristobulus the Release of her Children, They were accordingly dismissed, and Aristobulus only kept Prisoner at Rome.

Mithridates the nominal King of Parthia, being bear out of Media by his Brother King ORODES, fled to Gabinus, and persuaded him by the Prospect of great Spoil, to invade Parthia: but

Gabinus on his March was overtaken by AULETES with Letters from POMPEY; and Auletes offering him 10000 Talents for his Restoration, Gabinus deserted MITHRIDATES, and by Advice of Mark Antony marched from the Euphrates thro' Palestin straight to Egypt. MITHRIDATES got some Arabians to assist him in seizing Seleucia near Babylon, where ORODES long besieged him.

CICERO was recalled from his Banishment.

Mark Antony General of the Horse, marched before with a Detachment to secure the Passes, and took Pelusium the Key of Egypt; upon which Gabinus followed with the grand Army, and marched into the Heart of Egypt in the Middle of Winter, when the Nile was lowest.

King ARCHELAUS opposed the Invaders all he could in many Conflicts, till his effeminate Egyptians were beaten by the valiant Romans, and He was slain in Battle fighting like an Hero, whose Body was royally buried by his old Friend Mark Antony. Thus Egypt was soon reduced, and AULETES again mounted his Throne, put his Daughter Queen Berenice to Death, and most of the rich Men of her Party, that by confiscating their Effects he might raise the 10000 Talents for Gabinus, who was obliged to return quick into Syria, then infested by Thieves and Freebooters in his Absence. In his Way he fought a bloody Battle with Alexander the Son of ARISTOBULUS near Mount Tabor, who brought 30000 Men into the Field, but was vanquished with the Loss of 10000. Then Gabinus marched against the Nabatheans, and having overcome them, he returned to Syria, to prepare for his Return to Rome.

For POMPEY and Crassus, this Year Consuls, had obtained a new unheard of Decree of the Roman People, that POMPEY should have Spain and Africa for his Consular Province, during five Years, and Crassus should have Syria and the East for the same Time, with full Authority to employ what Forces They pleaſed, and to make War againſt whom They pleaſed, without waiting for any Orders or Directions from the Senate or People of Rome. And Cabinus was recalled. The News of which made CÆSAR think of his returning from his Wars in Gallia and Britain.

Craſſus, Pompey and Cæſar.

Ptolemy AULETES King of Egypt.
HYRCANUS II. King and High Priſt of Judea.

Craſſus having ſignified his Reſolution of making War upon the Parthians, the Tribunes of the People were much againſt it; and ſeeing They could not reverſe their Decree, nor limit it, becauſe of the military Forces he had raiſed, They followed him on his March out of Rome with dreadful Curſes; and he proſpered accordingly.
When He came into Syria he began to ſariate his Covetouſneſs, by marching to Jeruſalem, in order to ſeize the Riches of the Temple, and took the Bar of Gold, which Cleazar the Treſurer gave him on his Oath that he would take no more; but not regarding his Oath, he ranſackt the Temple, and took out of it to the Value of 10000 Talents, above two Millions Sterling. Being thus furniſhed with Money, Craſſus marched his Army over the Euphrates againſt the Parthians, who expected no War, having given no Provocation; and They being unprovided, He over-ran a great Part of Mefopotamia, till Winter obliged him to go into Quarters; during which the long Siege of Seleucia being over, and ſithionates having ſurrendered himſelf to his Brother ORODES, who put him to Death, and
14. Arſaces ORODES, now the ſole King of Parthia, during 17 Years, having gather'd a conſiderable Army, ſent to Craſſus to know the Reaſon of the War; and receiving no ſatisfactory Answer, he divided his Army, marching at the Head of one Half towards Armenia, whereby he diverted King ARTABAZES (the Son of old TIGRANES) from ſending Succours to Craſſus; and ſent the other Half under his General Surenas into Mefopotamia: but Craſſus infatuated, would neither follow the Advice of Artabazes, to march thro' Armenia into Parthia, nor of Cæſar his Queſtor, (afterwards one of the Murderers of JULIUS CÆSAR) to march to Seleucia along the Banks of the Euphrates, but ſuffer'd himſelf to be decoy'd into the Plains of Mefopotamia, by the Craft of Agbarus an Arabian Prince, who was ſent by Surenas to deceive him; where the Parthian Horſe had Room to act their Part: and ſo in the Month of June near Carrhar, (the old Charan of the Scripture) Surenas fell upon him, and routed the whole Roman Army with a great Slaughter, in which the Son of Craſſus was ſlain: the reſt fled to Carrhae, and Craſſus endeavouring to make his Retreat from thence, was overtaken by Surenas, and ſlain with many other noble Romans, the ſevereſt Blow ſince the Battel of Canar; for 20000 Romans were ſlain, and 10000 taken Priſoners. But Cæſar at the Head of 500 Horſe, made a gallant Retreat from Carrhae into Syria, where he gather'd thoſe that had privately eſcaped, and was thereby enabled to defend that Province.
ARTABAZES finding Craſſus was poſting to his Deſtruction, wiſely made Peace with ORODES, and gave one of his Siſters to PACORUS the Son of Orades in Marriage; and while the Nuptials were celebrating, a Meſſenger from Surenas brought the Head and right Hand of Craſſus, when ORODES in Mockery, order'd melted Gold to be poured into its Mouth. But ORODES envious of Surenas's Glory, and jealous of his Power, ſoon put him to Death, of whom there is a glorious Account given by Plutarch in Craſſo.
And now Craſſus being cut off, the whole Power of Rome was in the Hands of CÆSAR and POMPEY; but Pompey being averſe to have any Collegue or Equal to him, and Cæſar abhorring a Superior, the Foundation of the ſubſequent civil Wars was laid.

Nec quemquam jam ferre poteſt, CÆSARTE priorem POMPEIUSQUE parem—Lucan Lib. I.

And now CÆSAR having ſubdued moſt of all Gallia, invaded Britain this Year in Autumn the firſt Time, but made no Settlement: yet the Credit of his Conqueſts and new Discoveries greatly animated his Party at Rome. But
This next Year CÆSAR returned from Gallia, and made a ſecond Deſcent upon Britain, defeated CASSIBELAN and ſeveral other Britannic Princes, whom he made Tributaries: and taking with him ſeveral Hoſtages, He left the Iſland, and returned to Gallia; and having ſettled and garrifoned that Country, he marched the Flower of his brave truſty Veterans into Italy, in order by their Help to puſh his grand Deſign, which, by the Death of CRASSUS became ripe for Execution.
The Parthians invaded Syria with a ſmall Army, but were bravely repulſed by Cæſar; and when They retired, Cæſar ſettled Affairs at Tyre, took Tarichea on the South Side of the Gennesareſh, made Slaves of all there found, for being of the Faction of Ariſtobulus, but put to Death their Head Pitobulus: and having forced Alexander the Son of Ariſtobulus to Terms of Peace, He marched to the Euphrates to oppoſe the Parthians.
Marcellus and Sulpitius being Conſuls, the Romans renew'd their League offensive and defensive with the Rhodians. CICERO was ſent to govern Cilicia, and Vibulus got Syria, tho' not going ſoon thither, Cæſar continued there, and ORODES ſent his Son PACORUS, with his General Diſates, and a great Army into Syria, and beſieged Cæſar in Antioch. CICERO hearing by ANTIOCHUS King of Commagena, of the Diſtreſs of Cæſar, came ſeaſonably to his Relief, tho' not ſo far as Antioch, and cut off a great Detachment of the Parthian Horſe in Cilicia, and forced them to raiſe the Siege: then They ſat down before Antigonia, but Cæſar drew his Forces from Antioch, and drawing the Parthians into into an Ambush, gave them a total Rout with great Slaughter, in which Orfaces was slain, and the rest run home; yet having recruited, They return'd and winter'd in Cyrrhestica, a District in the North of Syria. Mean while Sibulus arriving, Callius resign'd the Government, and return'd to Rome.

CICERO hearing the Parthians had left Antioch, marched against the Inhabitants of Mount Amanus, who were subject to no Government, and subdued them: then he subdued the Eleutero-Cilices, or Free Cilicians, that pretended They had never been conquer'd: upon which he was saluted Imperator by his Army, and for which, upon his Return, he was offer'd a Triumph, but waved it, because of the civil Wars then breaking out, before which, on the 7th March this Year, had happened an Eclipse of the Sun of 10½ Digits.
PTOLEMY Soteles dying last Year, left by Will his Crown to his eldest Son and eldest Daughter, ordering them to be married according to the Usage of the Egyptian Royal Family, viz.
14. PTOLEMY DIONYSIUS. ?
15. CLEOPATRA his Sister. ?
This was the handsome fair CLEOPATRA, famous afterwards for her Amours with Mark Antony the Roman Triumvir: she was now aged 17 Years.
The Parthians return'd and block'd up Sibulus in Antioch, who, instead of sallying upon the Enemy, had sent Agents to Ordonopantes a noble Parthian, disgusted by ORODES, to rise in Rebellion; upon which the Parthian Army was called home, and Syria was delivered from War.
When Sibulus and CICERO return'd to Rome, They found the Differences between CÆSAR and POMPEY so great, that the Sword could only decide them; and had each got their Parties formed: for CÆSAR would not obey the Senate's Decree, to lay down his Arms, and dismiss his Legions then about him, but with them pass'd the Rubicon contrary to the Decree; whereby he openly declar'd War, took in the Cities in his Way, and firmly marched towards Rome: upon which POMPEY with his Party hastened to Brundisium, whither CÆSAR pursued him, but could not hinder his Passage over to Epirus: for POMPEY on the 3<sup>d</sup> of January sailed thence to the other Side of the Adriatic; and CÆSAR having in 60 Days reduced all Italy, came to Rome, comforted the People with fair Promises, released ARISTOBULUS, and sent him home with two Legions to oppose POMPEY: but on his Way he was poison'd by Pompey's Party; and POMPEY sent to Q. Metellus Scipio, then Proconsul of Syria, who brought Alexander the Son of Aristobulus to a formal Trial at Antioch, and after Sentence caused his Head to be cut off with an Axe.
From Rome CÆSAR marched thro' Gallia into Spain, the Province of POMPEY; which having reduced, He return'd to Rome at the autumnal Equinox, was elected Cæsar with Mauricius for the Year ensuing, marched to Brundisium, sailed over the Adriatic with 7 Legions, and leaves the rest to be brought over by Mark Antony.
The Antiochian Era begins on the 24th of September this Year.
POMPEY had raised a great Army and Fleet out of Greece and Asia, and in the Spring CÆSAR being reinforced by the Arrival of Antony with the rest of the Army, these two great Men incamped each other at Dyrachium, (now Durazzo) where POMPEY gave CÆSAR a great Defeat, and had utterly undone him, had he seen his Advantage, and pursued it; for CÆSAR was much distressed for want of a Fleet, which POMPEY had, and was thereby well supply'd. But CÆSAR having pass'd the Night without Sleep, grievously perplexed in his Mind, marched next Morning into Greece, in order to decoy POMPEY after him, or else to attack Scipio his Father in Law, who had raised a good Army in Asia, and had come as far as Macedonia, in order to join POMPEY, who marched the shortest Way after CÆSAR, and join'd Scipio, while Calpurnius join'd CÆSAR with a little Army, and both at length met in the Plains of Pharsalia in Thessaly, where the Empire of Rome was decided in a fierce Battel: for tho' CÆSAR had only 22000 Foot, and 1000 Horse, and POMPEY had 45000 Foot, and 5000 Horse, yet CÆSAR's Veterans soon broke them, (by the special Help of Mark Antony his Lieutenant) slew 15000, took 24000 Prisoners, and scatter'd the rest, that were gather'd up by Pompey's Friends, CATO and CICERO at Dyrachium, who with Scipio and young Pompey sailed into Africa.
POMPEY fled in Disguise by Sea to Mytelene, and finding no Shelter to be expected in Asia, nor in Syria, nor in Parthia, He got some Ships in Cilicia, and 2000 Men, and 60 Roman Senators that escaped out of the Battel, and with them he sailed towards Egypt. But there Matters were in Confusion: for PTOLEMY had expelled his Sister CLEOPATRA, who had raised an Army of Syrians and Phœnicians for her Restoration, encamping near Pellus, and PTOLEMY nearer the Shore incamp'd with an Army to oppose her.
POMPEY sent to PTOLEMY for Protection but being a Miser, his Tutor Pharbus, with Achillas his General, decoy'd POMPEY ashore in a Boat, and cut off his Head in the 57th Year of his Age, in Sight of his Wife Cornelia, and his younger Son Sextus, who escaped to Tyre, and thence to Cyprus, and thence to Africa: but the rest of the Ships were taken by the Egyptian Gallies, and all on board were slain, particularly Lucius Lentulus the last Year's Consul, who was the chief Promoter of the War, by rejecting CÆSAR's Proposals of Peace.

CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.

HYRCANUS II. King and High Priest of Judea.

CÆSAR after the Battel of Pharsalia, leaving his Army in Greece and Lesser Asia, (where Cassius yielded up his Fleet to him, and obtained his Pardon) went aboard some Ships with 800 Horse, and 3200 Foot, pursued POMPEY into Egypt, and arrived at Alexandria just upon the News of POMPEY's Death, where he was presented with his Head, at which he wept, and order'd it to be honourably buried. CLEOPATRA came to CÆSAR tied up in Bedding carried on a Servant's Back, for fear of being discover'd, and stopt by PTOLEMY there: she lay with CÆSAR all Night, (and afterwards bore to him a Son called Cæsarion) and next Morning He espoused her Cause, pressing PTOLEMY to receive her upon her own Terms. PTOLEMY raised the Mob, which CÆSAR with Difficulty appeased, and, as the Roman Dictator, order'd, according to AULETES's Will, that They should reign jointly in Egypt, and their Brother and their Sister Artunoe in Cyprus: but Pothinus got Achillas to bring the Army to Alexandria against CÆSAR, who defending himself well, They projected to seize his Fleet at Anchor; but CÆSAR seized the Tower of Pharos, and burnt the Egyptian Fleet, the Fire of which inflamed the Houses near the Shore, burnt down Bruchium, and the glorious Library there, the Collection of many Ages, containing 400000 Volumes in Manuscript.

Mean while the Senate made CÆSAR Consul for five Years, Dictator for one Year, and Tribune for Life.

CÆSAR having thus secured the Port, next fortified that Part of the City where he lay, still detained the King in his Quarters, and caused Pothinus to be put to Death for writing to Achillas to push on the War.

Canine another Eunuch justly fearing the same Fate, fled with his Pupil Artunoe to the Army, got the Soldiers to cut off Achillas, as if he had betray'd the Fleet, took the supreme Command upon him, and distressed CÆSAR much by spoiling all the fresh Water in Alexandria, thro' the Conduits to the Nile, which made CÆSAR have Recourse to deep Springs. And hearing that the Legion sent by Calpurnius was arrived in Lybia, CÆSAR sailed thither; and Canine sent the Egyptian Fleet to intercept him on his Return, which produced a Sea Fight; but CÆSAR conquer'd, and safely brought his Legion of Veterans into the Port of Alexandria. Canine gather'd another Fleet from all the Mouths of the Nile, fought again, and was again beat by CÆSAR; but in Pursuit of that Victory, landing at Pharos, and attempting to take the Town in that Island, and the Mole, CÆSAR was beaten off with the Loss of above 800 Men; nay finding the Ship in which he attempted to escape, ready to sink by the Crowd got into it, CÆSAR threw himself into the Sea, and swam to his next Ship in the Port, swimming with one Hand, and carrying some valuable Papers in the other.

After this Loss, CÆSAR was persuaded to allow King PTOLEMY to go to his Army on a Promise of Peace; but then They pressed the War with more Vigour, and by their Fleet stopt all Succours from him by Sea, till Cæsar's Fleet beat them off. At length Spithibates of Pergamus, arrived at the Borders of Egypt with a Syrian Army, raised by the Help of Antipater the Idumean, who commanded under him, and who first mounted the Walls of Pelafium, which They took by Storm, and from thence marching into the Province of Onion, Antipater got all the Jews there to come over to Cæsar's Party, as did also the People of Memphis: when Spithibates marched into Delta, he was opposed by a Detachment of PTOLEMY's Army in a Battel, but by the Valour of Antipater he gain'd a great Victory: upon which PTOLEMY marched against them with his whole Army, and CÆSAR soon join'd them, and in another Battel CÆSAR gain'd a compleat Victory; when PTOLEMY endeavouring to escape in a Boat, was drown'd in the Nile.

CÆSAR returning in Triumph to Alexandria about the Middle of January, settled the Kingdom under his Mistress CLEOPATRA, and her surviving Brother, then only eleven Years old: yet her Charms detained him there till the End of April. Nay He would not have left her so soon, but that he heard how PHARNACES King of the Cimmerian Bosphorus, (who had took the Advantage of the Roman civil Wars, to recover his Father's Dominions in Asia) had defeated Calpurnius, and had Possession of Pentus, Bithynia, and Cappadocia, and was preparing to march into the Province of proper Asia. Therefore CÆSAR left Egypt, carrying Artunoe his Captive, came into Syria, rejected the Remonstrances of Antigonius the Son of Aristobolus, abolish'd the Aristocracy establish'd by Gabinus, decreed the High Priesthood and the Principality of Judea to HYRCANUS and his Heirs, and appointed under him Antipater to be Procurator of Judea, who by his Wisdom and Prowess had made himself necessary to all Roman Governors, and to whom CÆSAR ow'd his Deliverance from Egypt; Antipater had by his Wife Cyprus four Sons now Men, viz. 1. Phasaelus. 2. HEROD. 3. Joseph. 4. Pheroras, and a Daughter Salome.

CÆSAR having made Sertius Cæsar his Kinsman the President of Syria, hastned northward against PHARNACES, and in his Way deposed Archelaus (the Son of ARCHÆLAUS late King of Egypt) from the High Priesthood of Samaria in Cappadocia, and ordained it for Hiomedes a noble Bithynian. When he came near Pentus, Desotarus the Tetrarch of Gallo Grecia, threw off his Royal Attire, and in the Habit of a Criminal begged his Pardon for being in Pompey's Army; which CÆSAR granted, and restored him to his Royal Habit and Dignity, only he took Lesser Armenia from him, and gave it to ARIOBARZANES King of Cappadocia.

Continuation of TABLE XXXVI.

JULIUS CÆSAR the Roman Dictator and Imperator.
Arsaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HYRCANUS II. King and High Priest of Judea.

PHARNACES sent him Ambassadors, promised to leave all his Conquests, and to cultivate good Friendship: but tho' CÆSAR spoke fair to them, he marched quick towards the Camp of Pharnaces, and saying to himself, Ergo jam non dabit poenas Patricida? Shall not that Murderer of his Father be now punished? Without refreshing his Army, He fell on forthwith, and gave PHARNACES a total Rout at Mount Scotus (where his Father Mithridates defeated Triarius the Roman General) as CÆSAR wrote of it to his Friend, Veni, Vidi, Vici, I came, I saw, I overcame. PHARNACES return'd home to Bosphorus with only 1000 Men: but ASANDER his Lieutenant getting him in his Power, put him to Death, and reign'd in his Stead: but CÆSAR had decreed that Kingdom to Mithridates of Pergamus, (who afterwards lost his Life in endeavouring to dispossess the Usurper Asander) the SON of MITHRIDATES the Great by a Concubine. Then CÆSAR having settled all Affairs in those Parts, went through Greece to ROME, where he was made Dictator for the Year ensuing. Mean while Antipater having settled the Civil Government of Judea under HYRCANUS, exactly as before the Innovation made by Gabinius, appointed his eldest Son Phasaël to be Governor of Jerusalem, and Herod his second Son to be Governor of Galilee, then aged 25 Years, who defeated and put to Death a Gang of Thieves that infested his Neighbourhood, for which he was summon'd before the Sanhedrim, and had been condemn'd, if HYRCANUS had not advised him to withdraw in the Night; and coming to Damascus he obtained the Protection of Sextus Cæsar, and let the Sanhedrim know he was no more subject to them: nay for a Sum of Money he obtained of Sextus the Government of Cæle-Syria, where next Year he raised an Army, marched into Judea, and would have cut off HYRCANUS and the Sanhedrim, if Antipater and Phasaël had not interposed, and got him to return.

CÆSAR having sailed into Africa the latter End of last Year, rendezvouz'd his Forces about the Middle of January this Year, and forthwith marched against CATO, Scipio, and JUBA King of Mauritania, who were at the Head of Pompey's Party; and in the Beginning of February gave them a total Overthrow; after which CATO slew himself at Utica. JUBA and Petreus killed each other in Despair, Africanus, Sylla, and Scipio were taken by Sittius and killed, and CÆSAR having settled that Province, and ordered Carthage to be rebuilt, he returned to Rome, and ordered Corinth to be rebuilt, which were both filled with Roman Colonies, just an hundred Years after They had been demolished.

At Rome CÆSAR triumphed four Days, 1. over Gaul. 2. over Egypt when Arsinoe was led in Triumph, but afterwards dismissed into Asia. 3. over PHARNACES with the Motto Veni, Vidi, Vici. And 4. over JUBA, instead of whom his young Son Juba, then a Lad, was led in Triumph, and was educated at Rome, where he became a very learned Man. Mean while

In Syria Cecilius Bassus a Roman Knight, who had fled out of the Battel of Pharsalia to Tyre, having artfully got Conspirators and a little Army, gave out that CÆSAR was slain in Africa, and took the Field as the appointed Governor of Syria; but tho' he was beaten by Sextus Cæsar, he found Means to get Sextus murdered, and the Army to declare for him, except a few that marched into Cilicia under Lucius Vellus, who being assisted by those of the Cæsarian Party, and Auxiliaries from Antipater, drove Bassus out of the Field, and blockaded him in Apamia

CÆSAR having been long High Priest of Rome, now reformed the Roman Calendar, by forming his Julian Year, in which he was assisted by Sosigenes an Astronomer of Alexandria, and Flavius a Roman Scribe. He abolished the Lunar Year of 355 Days, and introduced the Solar Year of 365 Days and six Hours, with a Leap Year, as we have it still, and was every where used till A. D. 1582. Pope GREGORY XIII. finding that the first of January had been fixed by CÆSAR to the Winter Solstice, and that his Year was eleven Minutes longer than the natural Solar Year, and that these Minutes make one Day in 120 Years, or that in every 120 Years the first of January in the Julian Calendar over-runs the Winter Solstice one whole Day; proposed a New Stile, called from him the Gregorian, (as the Old Stile is called the Julian) which now begins eleven Days before the Old Stile, and is now observed in most Parts of Christendom, except in the Dominions of the King of Great Britain. But CÆSAR in reducing this Year was obliged to make it of 445 Days by Intercalations, which was therefore called the long Year of Confusion. But all being reduced into Order

CÆSAR ON New Year's Day, the Calends of January, of the first Julian Year, began his 4th Consulship; and soon after passing into Spain, defeated Pompey's Party in the Battel of Munda, slaying Cneius, Pompey's eldest Son, with Labienus and Attus Varus: and having settled that Province he returned to Rome in October, made a Triumph, issued out an Act of Oblivion, or general Pardon, for all that had been guilty of Crime, was made Consul for ten Years, perpetual Dictator and Censor, was stiled the Savior and Father of his Country, and was called Imperator; got the sole Command of Men and Money, and all Magistrates were made subject to him; whereby the whole Power and Authority of the Roman Republick was vested in him; and thus without the Name he truly became the Sovereign Prince or EMPEROR of Rome. Mean while CÆSAR sent Statius Murcus to be President of Syria with three Legions, who joined Antistius, and again shut up Bassus in Apamia, till he was joined by some Arabians and Parthians, when he forced the Cæsarians to quit the Siege.

JULIUS CÆSAR Imperator. Octavianus, Antony, and Lepidus Triumvirs.
Brutus and Cassius. Arsaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HYRCANUS II. King and High Priest of Judea.

CÆSAR on New Year's Day enter'd upon his fifth and last Consulship, when, upon the Request of Hyrcanus, he allowed the Walls of Jerusalem to be rebuilt, and Antipater forthwith began to fortify it as strong as ever. The Senate now in Honour to CÆSAR changed the Name of the Month Quintilis into Julius. Mark ANTONY was Consul with him, but CÆSAR soon resigned his own Consulship to Dolabella, (the Husband of Tullia, the Daughter of Cicero) because he designed a War against the Parthians to revenge the Battel of Carrhae, and to open a Way thro' Hyrcania into Scythia, and from thence thro' Germany into Gaul, and from thence home to Rome: but he never began that grand Undertaking; for

The Senators being offended at his Ambition and growing Pride, and being grieved for the Loss of their good old Constitution, look'd upon him as a Tyrant, and the great Enemy of Rome's Liberty: therefore 60 of them conspired to kill him, tho' most of them had been made by him. CÆSAR perceiving he laboured under Envy, determined to leave Rome on the 4th of March;

But BRUTUS and CASSIUS, both Prators, and others at the Head of the Conspirators, on the Ides, or 15th of March, having decoy'd CÆSAR to the Senate House (notwithstanding his and his Wife Calpurnia's horrible Dreams, and the Warning of Sparina the Conjuror) upon Pretence of doing him more Honours; and as soon as he was seated, began to fall upon him, and by 23 Wounds kill'd him, while he sunk down in Pompey's Court at the Foot of POMPEY's Statue, in the 56th Year of his Age, in the 5th Year after he was first created Dictator, in the 4th Year after the Battel of Pharsalia, in the second Julian Year, or of his perpetual Dictatorship, after he had fought 50 Battels without missing of Success in any of them, except at Dyrrachium, and once at the Pharos of Alexandria; and after having slain in these Battels no less than 1192000 Men. Many saw him attackt, but none assistd him, and there his Body lay for some Time untouched by Friend or Servant, and unlamented; tho' one of the most learned, artful and brave Commanders that ever liv'd.

BRUTUS ANTONY the other Consul with CÆSAR, at the Head of the Cæsarians, at CÆSAR's Funeral harrang'd the People against the Murderers, that They all left Rome, and ANTONY governed all, till OCTAVIUS, then about 19 Years old, came thither from Apollonia on the Grecian Side of the Adriatic, whither CÆSAR had sent him six Months before to prepare the Army, and to march with him into Parthia. He pleaded his Adoption by CÆSAR, and now changed his Name into Cains Julius Cæsar OCTAVIANUS, had the Soldiers flocking to him, and enter'd Rome with a numberless Number of Roman People, about the End of April. He soon obligd ANTONY to leave Rome, who marched into Gallia Cisalpina, to dispossess Decimus Brutus of that Province, while Marcus BRUTUS seized Greece and Macedonia, and CASSIUS seized Cilicia, Syria, and the East, all preparing for hot War.

CLEOPATRA cut off her Brother and Husband Ptolemy by Poison, then aged 15 Years, and reigned alone.

When Virginius and Vaula had begun their Consulship on New Year's Day, ANTONY was declared a publick Enemy by the Senate, for besieging Decimus Brutus in Mutina, (now Modena) where OCTAVIANUS and both the Consuls came to the Relief of Brutus, defeated ANTONY in a fierce Battel, who fled over the Alps. The two Consuls being slain, OCTAVIANUS got the sole Command of the Army; and ANTONY was joined by Lepidus and his Army in Gallia Transalpina.

CASSIUS mean while arriving in Syria, before Dolabella (who had been sent thither by JULIUS CÆSAR) found Mureus and Crispus at the Siege of Apamia, who join'd him forthwith, and Bassus with his Soldiers too; so that CASSIUS got eight Legions, and all Syria submitted to him.

He then marched into Phenicia, where he found Illienus with four Legions sent from CLEOPATRA to Dolabella, whom he forced to join him. To subvert these 12 Legions CASSIUS raised Contributions in Phenicia, while Dolabella was doing the same in proper Asia. Dolabella took Tarsus, and being repulsed from Antioch, resided at Laodicea, where CASSIUS besieged him by Land, and Mureus by Sea, till Dolabella caused his Servant to cut off his Head, and Marsus killed himself; whereby that City came into the Hands of CASSIUS. Mean while Salichus an eminent Jew poison'd Antipater, and seized the Government of Jerusalem; but HEROD got Leave from CASSIUS to cut off his Father's Murderer.

The Senate at length hearing of CASSIUS and BRUTUS, were influenced by CICERO to commit all Things in Greece and Asia to their Care, and to refuse a Triumph to OCTAVIANUS for the Battel of Mutina. OCTAVIANUS fearing that Pompey's Party must prevail, wrote to Mark ANTONY and Lepidus, who now made a New Triumvirate: OCTAVIANUS now married Claudia the Daughter of Fulvia by Clodius deceas'd, which Fulvia was now the Wife of Antony. OCTAVIANUS by his military Force was now made Consul, being scarce 20 Years old, on the 19th of August, and Q. Pedius was his Collegue, who made a Law to condemn all the Murderers of CÆSAR, tho' absent; one of whom, Decimus Brutus endeavouring to escape to Marcus BRUTUS, was betray'd by Sequanus, and his Head sent to ANTONY. Nay the Senate decreed that OCTAVIANUS should have a Power of raising Forces at his Pleasure, should have the chief Command of Rome, and to govern it according to his his Pleasure, without Regard to the old Laws; and therefore many reckon this Year the first of AUGUSTUS, assigning thus to him in all 56 Years; tho' he got not the Name of AUGUSTUS till five Years after the Battel of Actium, and after that Battel he reign'd as Emperor 44 Years.

While BRUTUS was marching from Macedonia to Asia for more Recruits, the Triumvirs met privately near Bononia, and having divided the Roman Empire among them, They marched to Rome, where a Law was made to give them the Care of the Republick for five Years with Consular Power, in which Office They commenced on the 5th before the Calends of December. Cicero left Rome upon their Approach; but was pursued by the Emisseries of ANTONY, who slew him, and brought his Head and Hands to be erected on the Rostrum.

The Triumvirs having proscribed 300 Senators, and 2000 Knights of Pompey's Party, from whose Families They raised great Sums; and having made great Levies, OCTAVIANUS laid down his Consulship to Lentinius, and leaving Lepidus at Rome, OCTAVIANUS and ANTONY sailed over the Adriatic, marching against BRUTUS with 40 Legions. Upon the News, BRUTUS sent to CASSIUS, who leaving his Nephew with one Legion in Syria, marched with the rest to Smyrna, where he join'd BRUTUS, and forthwith subdued the Rhodians by Sea and Land, while BRUTUS subdued the Lycians; whereby all from Macedonia to the Euphrates was in their Possession, but not long.

For as They marched over the Hellespont with 100000 Men, to fight OCTAVIANUS and ANTONY, These with a greater Army met them near Philippi in Macedonia, where the Cause was decided by two terrible Battels; in the first, CASSIUS was beaten out of the Field, and retiring to an Eminence saw BRUTUS retreat, upon which CASSIUS killed himself: and in 20 Days in the second Battel BRUTUS was defeated, and then killed himself too, both with their own Swords with which They had killed CESAR. See Plutarch, Appian, Dion, and other Historians.

OCTAVIANUS returned to Rome to oppose Sextus Pompeius in Sicily; and Mark ANTONY marched into Asia to reduce the Eastern Provinces, and raise Contributions for the Army.

Mean while, after CASSIUS left Syria last Year, the Faction of Galichus rose in Arms, to revenge his Death upon the Sons of Antipater, and got HYRCANUS in their Interest, but without good Success; for Herod and Phasaël by the Help of Fabius the Roman Governor of Damascus, defeated their Designs: and Herod proposing to marry Mariamne the Grand-daughter of Hyrcanus, They became Friends.

But this Year the suppressed Faction got at their Head Antigonus the Son of King ARISTOBULUS II. who claimed the Government by hereditary Right, being also assisted by Spartan King of Tyre, out of Hatred to Herod, by Fabius, for a large Sum of Money, and by Ptolemy the Son of Menneus Prince of Chalcis, who had married Alexandra the Sister of Antigonus: but HEROD overthrew them all, and enter'd Jerusalem in Triumph.

Nay when the Faction complained to ANTONY, he would not hear them; because Herod bribed him well, and also ANTONY remember'd the Favours done him formerly by Antipater: but ANTONY at the Request of Hyrcanus, restored to the Jews all the Lands taken from them by CASSIUS, and all the Jewish Slaves were set free. While ANTONY lay at Tarsus

CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt, came to him upon his Summons, and so charm'd him by her Wit and Beauty, that he became her Slave as long as he lived, which prov'd his Ruin and her's too in the End. She prevail'd with him to cause her Sister Arsinoë, then residing in Lesser Asia, to be put to Death. When he came into Syria he deposed the little Kings or Tyrants that CASSIUS had made; and after the Jews had an Hearing, ANTONY made Herod and Phasaël both Tetrarchs, and committed to them all the Affairs of Judea. Palmyra, called Tadmor in Scripture, built by Solomon, about 127 Miles Eastward of Damascus, within a Day's Journey of the Euphrates, now again called Hadmor, and only famous for its magnificent Ruins, being then a rich Place, ANTONY sent all his Horse to take the Plunder of it for their Pay: but the Palmyrians hearing of it, carried their Families and Riches over the Euphrates, till the Romans returned, and coming under the Protection of the Parthians, partly occasioned the second Parthian War.

CLEOPATRA left ANTONY at Tyre; but he leaving Plancus in Lesser Asia, and Saxe in Syria his Lieutenants, made haste after her to Egypt, where he spent the Winter with her in Love and Folly.

Mean while the Tyrants deposed by ANTONY, the People of Syria and Phenicia grievously oppressed by Taxes, and the Palmyrians, all joined the Parthians to pass the Euphrates with an Army, under Pacorus the King's Son, and Labienus a Roman General of Pompey's Party, who dividing their Forces, Pacorus subdued all Syria and Phenicia except Tyre, while Labienus defeated and slew Sura in Cilicia, drove Plancus out of Lesser Asia, and subdued All to the Hellespont and the Egean Sea. Nay at Rome, ANTONY's Wife Fulbia a Virago, and his Brother Lucius, raised Tumults against OCTAVIANUS, who forthwith divorced her Daughter Claudia, and the Breach came to open War. Lucius was besieged in Persia, and when OCTAVIANUS had took the Place, he banished him and Fulbia out of Italy.

Octavianus, Antony, and Lepidus Triumvirs.
Ventidius the Roman General in Asia. Arsaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
ANTIGONUS King and High Priest of Judea.

This News roused Mark ANTONY from his Lethargy of Love; he sailed into Italy, where hearing that Fulbia was dead at Sicily, he was well advised to make up all Differences by marrying Octavia the Sister of OCTAVIANUS, and the Widow of Marcellus: upon which the Triumvirs made a new Partition, Lepidus got Africa, OCTAVIANUS got Spain, Gaul, Sardinia, Dalmatia, and ANTONY got the Eastern Provinces, to whom the Parthian War was committed; while OCTAVIANUS had the Charge of the Sicilian War against Sextus Pompeius, and Italy was common to all the Three.

Mean while Ptolemy sent a Detachment against Jerusalem, who got Phasaël and HYRCANUS in their Power, made Herod flee from thence, and made

10. ANTIGONUS King of Judea, who caused HYRCANUS's Ears to be cut off, in order to incapacitate him for being High Priest, and They carried him a Prisoner into the East; while Phasaël killed himself, and Herod had no nearer Shelter than Egypt, from whence he sailed to Antony to get ARISTOBULUS (the Brother of his betrothed Wife Mariamne and Grandson of Hyrcanus) declared King of Judea, and he to act under him, as his Father Antipater had acted under Hyrcanus.

But ANTONY did more for him, having prevailed with OCTAVIANUS and the Senate, to make HEROD King of Judea, in Consideration of his Father's great Services to JULIUS CESAR in Egypt, and that it was convenient for carrying on the Parthian War. HEROD the Edomite had the Royal Dignity of Judea conferred on him, by the unanimous Suffrage of the Senate; and between OCTAVIANUS and ANTONY was conducted into the Capitol, where he was solemnly inaugurated, and the Decree recorded: which being all over in seven Days, He returned to his Ships at Brundisium, and sailed to Ptolemais, where he landed Three Months after he had fled from Jerusalem.

Asinius Pollio and Domitius Calvinus being Consuls, the Son of Pollio was born, upon whose Birth Virgil composed his 4th Eclog about the Golden Age.

ANTONY sent Ventidius with an Army against the Parthians, who soon made Labienus retreat out of Lesser Asia to Mount Taurus, where he waited to be relieved by the Parthians; and They presuming to fight Ventidius before They join'd Labienus, were miserably overthrown by him: upon which Labienus's Soldiers deserted, and he fled in Disguise, till discovered and put to Death. Ventidius having thus recover'd all Cilicia, marched to Mount Amanus, and gain'd another great Victory over the Parthians, whereby he recover'd all Syria, which Ptolemy left, and with all his remaining Forces return'd to Parthia. Mean while

King HEROD raised the Siege of Massada, where his Brother Joseph and all his Friends were shelter'd, was assisted by Ventidius in reducing Joppa, and in the Sackage of Jericho, when the Romans went into Winter Quarters: but HEROD kept the Field with his Men, and having sent Joseph to secure Idumæa, and settled his Family at Samaria, He marched into Galilee, reduced all there to his Obedience, and cleared the Country of Thieves or free Booters.

ANTONY at Athens with his new Wife Octavia, hearing of Ventidius's two great Victories, passed from thence into Asia; but before he arrived, Ventidius gained a Third Victory greater than the former two, in Cyrrhestian Syria, on the same Day in June that CRASSUS was defeated at Carrhae, slaying near 30000 of the best Parthians, with their General Ptolemy the King's Son. Ventidius fearing to offend ANTONY, pursued not his Victory, but marched only against ANTIOCHUS King of Commagene, and while he beseged him in Samosata his Capital, ANTONY arrived, received the Army from him, and sent him to Rome, where VENTIDIUS, who at first had been led in the Triumph of Strabo the Father of POMPEY, when a Child, now triumph'd with universal Applause, the first and last that ever triumphed over the Parthians.

HEROD attackt Jerusalem; but not being duly assisted by the Romans, He left Joseph to command in Judea, and marched to the Assistance of ANTONY at the Siege of Samosata, where ANTIOCHUS offered 1000 Talents for his Peace, which Antony rejecting, made him and his People desperate; so that Antony was at length glad to accept of the Third Part, and move off; and leaving the Government and the Army to the Care of Sepsis, sailed to Athens, and from thence to Brundisium; where not finding OCTAVIANUS as he expected, He set sail for Alexandria, and winter'd with Cleopatra after the old Manner.

Mean while Joseph was beaten and slain by the Antigoniens near Jericho, and many in Galilee and Idumæa revolted from HEROD; who upon his Return soon reduced Galilee, but was defeated and wounded by the Antigoniens near Jericho: yet getting more Forces, HEROD marched against Pappus the General of ANTIGONUS, defeated him in Battel and slew him; when HEROD's Men went into Winter Quarters.

Calvinus having reduced Spain under the Power of OCTAVIANUS, the Spaniards began their Era from the Calends of January of this Year.

Continuation of TABLE XXXVI.

Octavianus, Antony, and Lepidus Triumvirs.
Arfaces ORODES King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
ANTIGONUS King and High Priest of Judea.

Early in the Spring, ANTONY sailed from Alexandria to Athens, took aboard his Wife Octavia, and with 300 Ships landed at Tarentum, offering with that Naval Force to assist OCTAVIANUS against Sextus Pompeius in Sicily: but OCTAVIANUS not accepting his Offer thro' Jealousy, They had for that and other Matters openly quarrelled, if Octavia had not made them Friends again. And now the Triumvirs by their own Authority, continued themselves in their Office for other five Years to come. Then ANTONY, committing Octavia and his Children to the Care of OCTAVIANUS in Italy, returned into Syria.

OCTAVIANUS having divorced his Wife Scrubonia for her ill Temper (who had bore to him his Daughter JULIA) now married Libia Drusilla (the Daughter of Livius Drusus, who had slain himself after the Battel of Philippi) first the Wife of Tiberius Nero (to whom she bore Liberius Caesar the Successor of AUGUSTUS) who being of Julia's Faction fled from Italy; but after the Pacification, returned with his said Wife Livia and Son Tiberius; and OCTAVIANUS falling in Love with her, the Husband yielded her to him, and she became the Wife of OCTAVIANUS, tho' then big with Child; for in three Months she bore her Son Drusus to his Father the said Tiberius Nero, and Liberius dying soon after, the said Drusus and his elder Brother Tiberius were educated by OCTAVIANUS: and LIVIA tho' she bore to him no Children, continued his Wife all his Days, and commanded his Affections to the last.

CLEOPATRA now erected a new Library at Alexandria, upon the old Foundation, to which ANTONY is said to have bestowed the famous Library of Pergamus, that consisted of 200000 Volumes. Mean while HEROD with a great Army laid Siege to Jerusalem, and while that was carried on, He went to Samaria and consummated his Marriage with Marianne, (whom he had betrothed four Years before) the Daughter of Alexander the Son of King ARISTOBULUS; her Mother was Alexandra the Daughter of King HYRCANUS II. Upon HEROD's Return to the Siege, Sofus with an Army join'd him; so that now no less than eleven Legions, and 6000 Horse, besides the Syrian Auxiliaries were pushing on the Siege. The besieged made a desperate Resistance, and held it out six Months; but They were not so well skilled in the Art of War as the Romans; and therefore It was taken by Sofus and HEROD on the Calends of January, in this Year of the Julian Period 4677, or on Saturday the 28th Day of Kislev, (the Third Month of their Civil Year) on which the Jews formerly kept the solemn Fast for Jehoiakim's burning the Roll of Jeremiah, on the same Day that first Nebuchadnezzar took it from Jehoiakim 570 Years ago, and on which also POMPEY took in the Temple, 26 Years before. See Page 187. When Vipsanius Agrippa, and Caninius Gallus enter'd on their Consulship at Rome; and which is also reckoned the first Year of King HEROD's Reign, two Years after he was created King, who reign'd in all 36 Years, and from this Time 34 Years.

| 8. SIMON the Just began in the 5 th Year after PTOLEMY Soter had declared himself King of Egypt.   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his first Year PTOLEMY was possessed of Judea and Cale Syria , and SELEUCUS of the Upper Syria , where he built Antioch .SIMON was the last of the 120 Elders of the Great Synagogue , and their President, who made a true Collection of the Holy Scriptures , and he finish'd the Canon by adding to it the two Books of Chronicles , and the Books of Ezra , Nehemiah , Esther , and Malachi . After him the learned Antigonus of Socho was made the President of the Jewish Sanhedrim . SIMON left a Son Onias under Age; and therefore               |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| 9. ELEAZAR the Brother of Simon, began in the 14 th Year of PTOLEMY Soter King of Egypt.   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 8 th Year PTOLEMY Philadelphus began to reign.   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 11 th Year LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace was slain in Battel by SELEUCUS Nicator King of Syria , who next Year was murder'd by Ptolemy Ceraunus .  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 15 th or last Year the Hebrew Bible began to be translated into Greek , by Order of PTOLEMY Philadelphus .   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| 10. MANASSEH the Son of Jadduah , the Brother of Onias I. and Uncle of Simon the Just, because Simon's Son Onias was under Age, began in the ninth Year of PTOLEMY Philadelphus .   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 3 <sup>d</sup> Year the Romans drove PYRRHUS out of Italy , and next Year They made an Alliance with Ptolemy Philadelphus .  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 14 th Year began the first Punic War ; and Antigonus of Socho died.  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 17 th Year ANTIOCHUS Theos I. King of Syria began to reign, and the famous Historian Herodotus the Babylonian flourished.   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 21 st Year ARSACES I. founded the Kingdom of Parthia .  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 23 <sup>d</sup> Year Philadelphus filled and adorned his Museum and Library with Books, Pictures and Statues, by the Help of Aratus the Sicyonian .   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| 11. ONIAS II. the Son of Simon the Just, began in the 35 th Year of PTOLEMY Philadelphus .  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 4 th Year PTOLEMY Philadelphus died, and was succeeded by his Son Euergetes .   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 12 th Year EUERGETES greatly enlarged his Library , and made Cratosthenes , the learned Historian, the Keeper of it.   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 25 th Year ONIAS having neglected to pay the annual Tribute of 20 Talents to the Crown of Egypt , sent his Sister's Son Joseph the Son of Eobias a Benjamite to Alexandria , who compounded the Matter, and was made the Farmer of the King of Egypt's Revenues in Palestine and Cale-Syria , and became Governor or Protector of the Temple .  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 29 th Year ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria began to reign.   |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 30 th Year Ptolemy Euergetes being dead, was succeeded by Philopator .  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| 12. SIMON II. began in the 5 th Year of PTOLEMY Philopator King of Egypt , who now beat ANTIOCHUS Magnus in the Battel of Raphia , and recovered all Phenicia , came to Jerusalem . He gave many Sacrifices to be offered in the Temple , was hinder'd by SIMON to enter into the Inner Temple , and while attempting to enter by Force, was prevented by a sudden Terror of Mind: for which Philopator became a great Enemy of the Jews ; for next Year when he returned to Alexandria , he would have destroyed all the Jews there, if he had not been providentially hinder'd. |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 14 th Year PTOLEMY Epiphanes King of Egypt a Minor, began to reign after the Death of his Father Philopator .  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |
| In his 15 th Year ANTIOCHUS Magnus beat the Egyptian Army in the Battel of Panacas , seized all Cale-Syria and Palestine , took in the Castle of Jerusalem , and soon repaired that City.  |                    |                                  |                       |                          |  |                 |                             |

The Jews are now the Subjects of the Crown of Syria.

13. ONIAS III. began in the 25th Year of ANTIOCHUS Magnus King of Syria, when Hannibal came to Antiochus for Protection. In his 3<sup>d</sup> Year ANTIOCHUS married his Daughter Cleopatra to PTOLEMY Epiphanes King of Egypt, and for Dower gave Epiphanes the Half of the Revenues of Cale-Syria and Palestine; whereby the Crown of Egypt were in Part repossessed of that Country. In his 9th Year Joseph the Collector of the Revenue, sent his youngest Son Hyrcanus to Egypt, to congratulate the high Birth of Philometor, the Son of PTOLEMY Epiphanes by Cleopatra; and Hyrcanus, supplanting his Father, became the Collector. Antiochus Magnus was slain at Elymais. In his 10th Year SELEUCUS Philopator King of Syria began to reign. In his 20th Year Simon the elder Brother of Hyrcanus the Collector, succeeding to his Father Joseph as Protector of the Temple, quarrelled with ONIAS for securing in the Temple the Treasure of Hyrcanus, and informed the King of Syria of it; who sent his Treasurer Heliodorus to seize it, and bring it to Antioch; but God prevented it in a strange Manner, 2 Mac. iii. and iv. and Simon's Party having committed Murder and Violence, ONIAS went to Antioch to complain thereof to King SELEUCUS Philopator, who had took the Advantage of PTOLEMY Philometor's Minority, to expell the Egyptians out of Cale-Syria and Palestine, and had the sole Possession of that Country. But King SELEUCUS died this Year, while ONIAS was at Antioch, and was succeeded by his Brother ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria, who forthwith deposed ONIAS, confined him to dwell at Antioch, and sold the High Priesthood for 360 Talents to his Brother Jalsus, who called himself

14. JASON, He was an Apostate, and began in the 21st Year of ONIAS III. and first of King ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, and ruled three Years. In his second Year he introduced Heathen Rites, and sent Offerings to Hercules of Tyre.

15. MENELAUS, another Apostate, the Son of Simon II. and Brother of Onias III. and of Jason, being sent by JASON as his Ambassador to King Antiochus, supplanted him, and for 300 Talents more, bought the High Priesthood of that King, who soon made Jason to flee to the Ammonites for Shelter. MENELAUS began in the 24th Year of Onias III. then residing at Antioch. MENELAUS made his Brother

16. LYSIMACHUS, another Apostate, his Partner or Deputy, who in the second Year of their joint Rule, was slain at Jerusalem by an Insurrection of the People, for carrying out of the Temple the golden Vessels which were sold at Tyre, to raise Money for MENELAUS then at Antioch, which Menelaus had contracted to pay to King ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, who being then at some Distance from Antioch Menelaus bribed Andronicus the King's Favourite to put to Death his good Brother ONIAS III. because he was an Eye-sore to him, and had rebuked him for that Sacrilege. But the King when returned to Antioch, upon the Address of all Sorts of People, ordered Andronicus to be put to Death in the same Place where he had murdered ONIAS, even at Daphne, whither Onias had fled to be sheltered in the Asylum, and from which Andronicus had by fair Promises decoy'd him. While King ANTIOCHUS lay at Tyre, Three Delegates of the Sanhedrim came there, and proved heavy Allegations against Menelaus: but the crafty Priest bribed one Ptolemy Macron the King's Favourite, to intercede for him; whereby he escaped, and also got the three honest Delegates put to Death. This is the first Year of MENELAUS alone, the Year after the Death of ONIAS III. who had officiated 20 Years at Jerusalem, and in the 5th Year of his Residence at Antioch, was murdered by Andronicus. While ANTIOCHUS was warring in Egypt, Jason hearing that he was dead there, came with 1000 Ammonites to Jerusalem, and joining his Party, took the City, drove Menelaus into the Castle, and slew all his Enemies he could find. Upon which the Syrians thinking it a general Revolt, ANTIOCHUS returned from Egypt, took in Jerusalem, slew 40000 People there, and sold as many for Slaves, and was conducted by Menelaus into the Temple, the Holy Place, and even the Holy of Holies: nay he sacrificed a Sow upon the Altar of Burnt-Offering, polluted the Temple, and spoiled it and the City of all the valuable Things he found therein, which he carried to Antioch; leaving Philip a Phazian as Governor of Judea, and MENELAUS as High Priest. 2 Mac. v. Jason upon the King's Approach had fled back to the Ammonites, and afterwards was forced to flee from thence to Egypt, and from thence to Lacedemonia, where he died, hated of all Men, without a Friend to bury him. King ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes having been baffled in Egypt, by the Mediation of the Romans, vented his Revenge upon the Jews: for He sent Apollonius with a Detachment of 22000 Men to Jerusalem, who on the Sabbath Day slew all the Men Jews he could find, made the Women and Children Captives, burnt the City in many Places, pulled down the Walls; and with the Ruins He built the strong Castle of Acra in the City of DAVID that commanded the Temple: so that now for three Years and an half, there was none permitted to worship in the Temple, till it was restored by JUDAS Maccabaeus. ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, now resolved to extirpate the whole Jewish Nation, began that severe Persecution mentioned Page 160. and 161. upon which Mattathias the Asmonean Priest took up Arms, till he died.

Mean while ONIAS the Son of Onias III. living at Antioch, being much offended that Lysias put him by from succeeding to his Father, and that King DEMETRIUS had thus confirmed Alcimus, left Syria, and travelled to the Court of Egypt; where, being a brave Soldier and a profound Statesman, he prevailed with King PROLEMY Philometor, and his Queen Cleopatra, to have leave to build a Temple at Heliopolis like That of Jerusalem, for the Use of the Jews in Egypt and Cyrene, whose High Priest he became, and his Sons after him. He founded it A. M. 3555. before Christ 149. and it stood during 222 Years, till it was destroyed soon after the Temple of Jerusalem. See Page 165.

Thus while the Old Family of JOSEDECH were High Priests in the Egyptian Temple of ONIAS the Son of Onias III. there was in the Temple of Jerusalem no High Priest of that Line.

But a new Race were High Priests, the Family of the ASMONEANS or Maccabees. See the following Table.

Thus the HIGH PRIESTS of the House of Josedeck ruled from the 2<sup>d</sup> Year of CYRUS King of Persia, when the Temple of ZEROBABEL was founded,
To the Expulsion of Menelaus by the Maccabees or ASMONEANS 369 Years.
To which add the Six Years of JUDAS Maccabaeus. ---- 06
And one Year for Alcimus. ----- 01

The Total is ----- 376

TABLE XXXVIII.

A CHRONOLOGICAL Catalogue of the Asmonacan or Maccabacan Princes and High Priests of Judea, Till King Herod destroy'd the Family.

The Family of Asa of Asarib was the 5th Class of Priests of the Son of ELIAZAR, the SON of AARON the High Priest, according to the D. S. of DAVID, 1 Chron. xiii. 1.

Some Time after the Captivity there was one of that Course called

ASMON the Priest, from whom the Family were called Asmonacans, who was the Father of

Simon the Priest, who was the Father of

John the Priest, who was the Father of

Sattathias the Priest, who dwelt at Modin, and bravely opposed the persecuting Officers of ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes King of Syria, with armed Force, till he died.

Sattathias left five Sons, viz. 1. Johanan or John called Kaddis. 2. SIMON called Tbaffi. 3. JUDAS called Maccabaeus. 4. Eleazar called Avaran. 5. JONATHAN called Apphus. Upon the Death of Sattathias his glorious Son

1. JUDAS Maccabaeus became the General and Prince of the Jews against the Syrians.

In his 2<sup>d</sup> Year ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes was slain in the East.

In his 3<sup>d</sup> Year ANTIOCHUS Eupator a Minor. began to reign under Lysias.

In his 4th Year JUDAS brought Lysias to Terms of Peace; and when Lysias returned to Antioch, He ordered wicked Menelaus to be put to Death, and made ALCIMUS High Priest. See the foregoing Table.

In his 5th Year DEMETRIUS Soter King of Syria began to reign.

In his 6th Year JUDAS slew Nicanor in Battel, but was afterward slain in Battel by Bacchides another Syrian General, who restored ALCIMUS to the High Priesthood. But he dying next Year, that Office was vacant seven Years. Mean while

2. JONATHAN did succeed his Brother Maccabaeus in the Civil Government, in the 3<sup>d</sup> Year of DEMETRIUS Soter King of Syria, the same Year that Alcimus the High Priest died.

In his 3<sup>d</sup> Year Bacchides made Peace with JONATHAN, who now settled the State of the Jews.

In his 7th Year ALEXANDER Balas an Impostor, pretending to be the Son of the late ANTIOCHUS Epiphanes, being owned by three Kings, proclaimed himself King of Syria, in Opposition to DEMETRIUS Soter: and Balas to gain the Jews, constituted their Prince the High Priest of Jerusalem.

The New Race of HIGH PRIESTS at Jerusalem.

JONATHAN, who began to officiate as High Priest in the 8th Year of his Civil Government, in the 10th Year of King DEMETRIUS Soter: three Years before Balas conquered DEMETRIUS, and four Years before ONIAS founded the Temple of Helopolis. And the double Office of Prince and Priest continued in this Family till King HEROD finished it.

In the 1st Year of his High Priesthood, or the 8th Year of his Princely Reign } He reformed the Temple and its Worship, and officiated as High Priest during 10 Years.

In his 4th and 11th Year Demetrius being slain in Battel, BALAS mounted the Throne of Syria.

In his 5th and 12th Year ONIAS the Son of ONIAS III. (the true and only Heir of the Race of JOSHUA the High Priest the Son of Josedech) founded his Temple at Helopolis in Egypt.

In his 6th and 13th Year JONATHAN fought well for BALAS, destroyed the Temple of Dagon at Gaza, and was by King BALAS made a Royal Person.

In his 9th and 16th Year Alexander Balas being slain, DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria began to reign.

In his 10th and 17th, or last Year, He was treacherously murdered by Tryphon at Ptolemais.

The Jews Independent of the Gentiles.

3. SIMON the Brother of Jonathan and Maccabaeus began to rule and officiate as Prince, and High Priest of Judea, in the 3<sup>d</sup> Year of DEMETRIUS Nicator King of Syria, when Tryphon, having murdered the Son of Balas, proclaimed himself King of Syria; and SIMON for his successful fight against Tryphon, was by King DEMETRIUS Nicator constituted the Sovereign Prince of Judea.

The Jews now delivered from the Yoke of the Gentiles, let off dating their Contracts by the Years of the Syrian Kings, and began, with the first of SIMON, a New Era for their Deeds, 1 Mac. xiii. 41.

Continuation of TABLE XXXVIII.

back to Rome; only by the Mediation of the Wife of Aristobulus with Gabinius, He prevailed with the Senate by Letters to dismiss her Children, and ARISTOBULUS himself was only kept Prisoner at Rome.

In his 9th Year Alexander the Son of ARISTOBULUS raised 30000 Men, and fought GABINIUS in Judea on his Return from Egypt: but GABINIUS routed him, and slew 10000 of his Men.

In his 10th Year CRASSUS in his March against the Parthians, robbed the Temple of Jerusalem of a Bar of Gold and 10000 Talents: but was next Year slain at Charræ.

In his 12th Year Cassius destroy'd all the Friends of ARISTOBULUS, near the Lake of Gennesareth, and reduced Alexander his Son to Terms of Peace.

In his 13th Year AULETES being dead, CLEOPATRA his lovely Daughter, Queen of Egypt began to reign.

In his 14th Year JULIUS CÆSAR crossed the Rubicon, and began the Roman civil Wars.

In his 15th Year CÆSAR released ARISTOBULUS II. at Rome, and sent him with two Legions to oppose POMPEY; but on his Way He was poison'd by Pompey's Party: and Metellus Scipio, Pompey's Father in Law, Pro Consul of Syria, brought Alexander the Son of ARISTOBULUS to a formal Trial at Antioch, and cut off his Head with an Axe.

In his 16th Year CÆSAR defeated POMPEY in the Battel of Pharsalia.

In his 17th Year CÆSAR on his Return from Egypt thro' Palestine, rejected the Remonstrances of Antigonus the Son of ARISTOBULUS II. abolished the Aristocracy made by Gabinius, decreed the High Priesthood and the Principality of Judea to HYRCANUS II. and his Heirs, and appointed under him Antipater the Idumean to be Procurator of Judea, who had by his Wife Cyprus four Sons, viz. 1. Phasaelus. 2. Herod. 3. Joseph. 4. Pheroras, and a Daughter Salome.

Antipater settled the Civil Government of Judea, exactly as before the Innovations of Gabinius, appointed his eldest Son Phasael Governor of Jerusalem, and his second Son Herod Governor of Galilee, who soon signalized himself in suppressing the free Booters of Galilee, despised the Authority of the Sanhedrim, and got to be Governor of Cæle-Syria.

In his 18th Year CÆSAR made his famous Triumph at Rome four Days, and as High Priest of Rome he reformed the Roman Calendar.

In his 20th Year CÆSAR, at the Request which HYRCANUS sent to Rome, obtained a Decree of the Senate for the repairing of the Walls of Jerusalem, which Antipater forthwith executed, after They had been pulled down by POMPEY 20 Years ago. This Year CÆSAR was murdered at the Foot of POMPEY's Statue.

In his 21st Year Phasaelus the eminent Jew poison'd Antipater the Idumean, tho' Antipater had twice saved him from being put to Death by CASSIUS and Ptolemy: but Cassius gave Herod Leave to revenge his Father's Death, who slew Phasaelus at Tyre.

In his 22<sup>d</sup> Year BRUTUS and CASSIUS were beaten in the Battel of Philippi, by OCTAVIANUS and Mark ANTONY. Mean while the Faction of Phasaelus at Jerusalem, rose in Arms to revenge his Death, and got HYRCANUS in their Interest; but Phasael defeated them, and the Sons of Antipater were reconciled to Hyrcanus by a Proposal of Marriage between Herod and Mariamne. The suppressed Party of the Jews gather'd next under Antigonus the surviving Son of Aristobulus II. but Herod came into Judea, beat them out of the Field, and returned to Jerusalem in Triumph.

In his 23<sup>d</sup> Year ANTONY now came to Syria, rejected the Remonstrances of the Jews against Phasael and Herod, for the good Offices of their Father Antipater, and at the Request of Hyrcanus, ANTONY restored to the Jews the Lands that CASSIUS had taken from them, and set free the Jewish Slaves whom CASSIUS had sold; and made PHASAEI and HEROD both Tetrarchs.

In his 24th Year LYSIANIAS Prince of Chalcis, whose Father PTOLEMY, lately deceas'd, had married Alexandra the Sister of ANTIGONUS, got Pacorus the Son of ORODES King of Parthia, (who with an Army had conquer'd Syria, and now invaded Judea) to send a Party to join ANTIGONUS, who was to give Pacorus 1000 Talents, and 500 Jewish Virgins, when restored to his Father's Throne. ANTIGONUS got his Army into Jerusalem, where a civil War ensued; but being worsted, He took Shelter in the Temple, while Phasael and Herod maintained the Palace. But ANTIGONUS proposed to refer their Differences to Pacorus's Cupbearer, lying without the Walls with a few hundred Men, who being admitted within the City, perswaded Phasael (contrary to Herod's Advice) to go to Barzapharnes the Governor of Syria under Pacorus, promising that he would settle all Matters to his Content, and took HYRCANUS with him. Barzapharnes used them kindly, till the Time he thought the Cupbearer was returned to Jerusalem, and had seized Herod; and then he put them both in Chains.

But Herod having good Intelligence, and fearing the worst, got off with all his Family and Effects before the Cupbearer returned, bravely fought his Way to Massada, a strong Fort on the Lake Asphaltites, where he lodged his Women, and not finding Shelter in Petra, he travelled down to Egypt, where he heard of Phasael's Death: for mean while the Parthians having plundered Jerusalem, set upon the Throne, and in the Office of High Priest.

Antigonus the Son of Aristobulus II. and They delivered up to him HYRCANUS and Phasael in Chains. Phasael knowing his Death was determined, prevented the Executioner Executioner by beating out his Brains against the Prison Wall; but ANTIGONUS only cut off the Ears of Hyrcanus, to render him for ever incapable of officiating as High Priest; and then returned him to the Parthians, who carried him into the East with them, when forced out of Syria by the brave Glentidius this same very Year, ANTIGONUS reign'd and officiated. Mean while Herod sailed from Alexandria to Rome, where he acquainted ANTONY with what had happened in Judea, and requested him to dethrone ANTIGONUS, and inthroned ARISTOBULUS the Brother of Marianne and Son of Alexander, the eldest Son of ARISTOBULUS II. and to make him Procurator under young ARISTOBULUS, as his Father Antipater had been under HYRCANUS.

HEROD created King of Judea at Rome.

But ANTONY did more for him than he expected, for he got OCTAVIANUS to assist him, in recommending him to the Senate, who unanimously voted him KING of Judea, and declared Antigonius an Enemy to Rome. HEROD was conducted to the Capitol by the Consuls and Magistrates, between OCTAVIANUS and ANTONY, where the Decree was lodged among the publick Records, and he was solemnly inaugurated according to the Roman Usage; when All was over at Rome in Seven Days, this new created King returned to his Ships at Brundisium, and landed at Ptolemais in Phenicia, about three Months after he fled from Jerusalem. HEROD soon raised an Army, and by the Help of Glentidius, recovered Galilee and Joppa, relieved Massada, took in Bessa, appeared before the Walls of Jerusalem, and sacked Jericho.

In the 2<sup>d</sup> Year of ANTIGONUS, the Antigonians slew Joseph the Brother of HEROD, near Jericho, in Battel; and in another Battel wounded HEROD: but in a third Battel HEROD gave the Antigonians a total Rout, and slew Pappus their General. In his 3<sup>d</sup> Year HEROD and Sossius the Roman General, laid Siege to Jerusalem, with eleven Legions, and 6000 Horse, besides the Syrian Auxiliaries; and after six Months desperate Resistance, the City was taken on the Calends or first Day of January, in the Year of the Julian Period 4677. See Page 196. When Antigonius surrendered himself to Sossius, who sent him in Chains to ANTONY at Antioch.

Here ends the Reign of the ASMONEANS, that had lasted from the Beginning of the Government of JUDAS Maccabaeus, 129 Years.

The only Remains of that Family was old HYRCANUS, and the two Children of Alexander the Son of ARISTOBULUS II. viz. Aristobulus and his Sister Marianne, all three cut off by King HEROD afterwards. See the Genealogical Table of the ASMONEANS.

KING HEROD, having by the Help of Sossus the Lieutenant of Mark ANTONY, taken Jerusalem the Beginning of this Year of the Julian Period, the Romans filled the City with Blood, and would have laid it waste, if HEROD had not redeemed it by a Sum of Money given to Sossus and his Army. Among the other pious Spectators of these doleful Times, were Zachariah the Priest, and his Wife Elizabeth, (descended from the Relicks of DAVID's Royal Race, HELI and JOSEPH) and Anna the Prophetess, and righteous Simon who had been allured from God, that he should not die before He saw the promised MESSIAH.

As for ANTIGONUS, He prostrated himself at the Feet of Sossus for Compassion, who scorned him for his abject Submission, and sent him Prisoner to ANTONY now come to Antioch. ANTONY would have reserved him for his Triumph, but that the Jews would not own HEROD for their King while Antigonus was alive; and HEROD, by a great Sum bribed ANTONY to arraign this last Asmonæan Prince before a Court, which formally condemned him to be tied to a Stake or Cross, to be whipt severely by the Lictor's Rods, and to have his Head struck off with an Axe, the first King so executed by the Romans.

And now the Sceptre is departed from Judah, and the Law giver from between his Feet, when the Romans gave them Laws, and put the Sword and Sceptre in the Hands of an Idumæan, King HEROD.

HEROD put to Death all the Counsellors of the great Sanhedrim, except Pollio and Samcas, because They had always advised the Jews to surrender and submit to him. The Jewish Writers call them HILLEL and SHAMMAI, the most eminent of their Mishnic Doctors, from SIMON the just to Rabbi JUDAH Hachadosh; thus SIMON the just deliver'd their Traditions to 1. Antigonus of Socho: and He to 2. Joses Ben Joezer, and Joseph Ben Jochanan: and These to 3. Joshuah Ben Perachiah, and Pathan the Arbelite: and These to 4. Simæon Ben Shetach, and Jehudah Ben Tabbai: and These to 5. Shemaiah and Abratior: and These to 6. HILLEL and SHAMMAI. This Pollio or HILLEL became the Pasi or President of the new Sanhedrim, and Samcas or SHAMMAI the Vice President, and They were the chief Teachers in their Schools of Divinity. HILLEL was a Benjamite, but by his Mother descended from Shephariah the Son of King DAVID, by Abital his Wife, and was the most eminent President since SIMON the just; He bred up 1000 Schollars, of whom the most eminent was JONATHAN Ben Uzziel, the Author of the Chaldee Paraphrase upon the Prophets, whose Contemporary ONKELOS made a Chaldee Paraphrase upon the Law. HILLEL was born in Babylonia, and at 40 Years old came to Jerusalem, and after 40 Years more became the President, in which Office he lived 40 Years more, and was very happy in his Offspring, for They held that Office from Father to Son to the Tenth Generation, thus, 1. HILLEL I. begat

- 2. Simæon I. the President, supposed to be the same godly Prophet that took CHRIST in his Arms when first presented in the Temple.
- 3. Samaliri I. the President of the Sanhedrim, when the Apostles were called before the Council, and was the Master of St. PAUL, who lived till the 18th Year before the Destruction of Jerusalem.
- 4. Simæon II. the President, who perished in the Destruction of Jerusalem.
- 5. Samaliri II. the President, after the Dispersion of the Jews from Jerusalem through the Earth.
- 6. Simæon III. the President.
- 7. Judah Hachadosh the President, who composed the Mishna, for which he is highly esteemed by the Jews to this Day
- 8. Samaliri III. the President.
- 9. Judah Gamariel the President.
- 10. Hillel II. the President, who compiled the present Calendar of the Jewish Year.

PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HEROD the Great King of Judea.

ORODES King of Parthia had turned melancholy for the Loss of his brave Son Paropus, slain in Battle by VENTIDIUS, See Page 195. and when recover'd, He fell into a Dropsy, when he began to be perplexed, which of his other 30 Sons He should name his Successor; but unhappily determin'd himself by Seniority, appointing PHRAHATES the eldest and the worst: for first when he got Power, he put to Death those of his Brothers that were born by a Daughter of ANTIOCHUS Caleb King of Damascus; and finding his Father offended, he next gave him Hemlock, and finding that instead of poisoning him, the Hemlock had cured ORODES of his Dropsy, the Parricide caused his Royal Father to be strangled to Death a Bed; and so this wicked Son 15. Artabazes PHRAHATES IV. began to reign alone, during near 41 Years, when at his Death, all the rest of his Brothers, and many of the Nobility, nay and his own Son a fine Youth, fearing the enraged Nobles would set him upon the Throne: upon which many of them fled into Syria, particularly Monases, who prompted ANTONY to War against Phrahates. HEROD, upon the Death of Antigonius, sent to Babylon for Ananelus an obscure Priest, but of the Pontifical Family, and made him High Priest, because his Meanness would keep him from interfering with the Regal Power. Yet the Parthian Tyrant soon releas'd HYRCANUS from his Chains at Seleucia on the Euphrates, and allow'd him to live at full Liberty among the Jews in those Parts, who were more numerous than in Judea, who honour'd him as their King and Hog Priest, and supply'd him with a Royal Maintenance. Mean while Caninius, ANTONY's General having vanquish'd the Albanians and Icerians, and carried Victory with him as far as Mount Caucasus, made his Master's Name terrible; while he was wholly inflav'd to CLEOPATRA, now again with him in Syria, and who influenced him to put many noble Syrians to Death, that she might get their forfeited Estates; particularly Apfantias the Son of PTOLEMY Menezus Prince of Chalcis and Isuraa, on a false Accusation. ANTONY, by the Help of Monases was framing the Parthian War, till Monases was recalled by PHRAHATES: and when ANTONY with 100000 Men could not force the Passes over the Euphrates into Parthia, He marched to the left over Mount Taurus into Armenia, by Advice of ARTABAZES King of Armenia, who had quarrell'd with ARTAVASDES King of Media, and got ANTONY to invade Media in his Way to Parthia: yet tho' Artabazes did not conduct him the shortest Way, but over the Mountains and far about. ANTONY would not go into Winter Quarters on the Borders of Media, as he should have done; but leaving Stratanius with 10000 Men to guard his heavy Carriages, ANTONY march'd forward with his main Army 300 Miles, and laid Siege to Pbraasa (or Praspa) the Capital of Media, tho' without his Train of Artillery: which the Median and Parthian Army perceiving, march'd by him, and destroy'd Stratanius with all his Men and Carriages. Then They harrass'd him till he was forced to raise the Siege, and march back with great Difficulty and continual Dangers; yet he repuls'd the Enemy 18 Times in a March of 300 Miles in 27 Days, and made a glorious Retreat to the Borders of Armenia, tho' with great Loss of Men, by the Hardships of that Winter Campaign, more than by the Sword of the Enemy: nor would He go into Winter Quarters there, but march'd over the Snow a long Way to Artioch, where he brought back not above a Third Part of his Army, having lost twice as many Men as CRA-SUS, tho' the War was not so disgraceful. Mean while OCTAVIANUS and Lepidus had recover'd Sicily, and deprived Sextus Pompeius of all but seven Ships, aboard which he fled into Africa; and Lepidus having arrogated the Success of that War to himself, would have fix'd on Sicily: but OCTAVIANUS having influenced the Army to desert Lepidus, forc'd him to beg his Life upon Condition of retiring to Circei, a small Maritime Town on the Latins, where he ended his Days as a private Gentleman. Upon which the Roman Empire was divided between ANTONY, who had all East of the Adriatick, and OCTAVIANUS, who had all West of it. CLEOPATRA came again to ANTONY at Leucecome near Sidon, and carried him with her down to Egypt, where They spent their Time after the old wicked Manner. Aristobulus the Brother of Mariamne, being the Son of Alexander, the Son of King ARISTOBULUS II his Mother Alexandra the Daughter of King HYRCANUS II, importuned CLEOPATRA and Delius, one of Antony's Favourites, to prevail with King HEROD to depose Ananelus, and to make her Son the High Priest: and HEROD being also rear'd by his beloved Wife Mariamne, the Sister of the late Aristobulus, at last for Peace sake consented to make ARISTOBULUS High Priest, tho' only 17 Years old. But HEROD finding that He and Alexandra had been privately lov'd by CLEOPATRA to visit her in Egypt, with Design to get into ANTONY's Favour, in order to recover the Regal Authority, and were attempting to get thither by a Stratagem, discover'd and prevented it: yet ARISTOBULUS being a mighty handsome Youth, well becoming the Pontifical Robes, admird by all the People at the Feast of Tabernacles, and belov'd as the only male Heir of the Asmonaeon Royal Race, the Tyrant HEROD order'd him to ferice; and while bathing in a Fish-Pond with some of Herod's Attendants, They drown'd him there there, as if done in Play or Sport. But tho' HEROD laboured to get it so believ'd, shed many Tears for him, and gave him a splendid Funeral; yet all People believ'd him a Mock Mourner, and the prime Cause of his Death.

HEROD had by fair Promises lately deceiv'd HYRCANUS from Babylonia, who also long'd to be at home; but tho' HEROD highly honour'd him, calling him Father, and giving him the chief Seat at Feasts, yet would not restore him to the High Priesthood, on Pretence that his Ears were cut off; and therefore made Ananelus High Priest again.

PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia having robbed ARTAVASDES King of Media, of his just Part of the Spoil taken last Year from Statianus, the Mede sent an Embassy to ANTONY offering to join him against the Parthians, who were also embroil'd with Commotions and Rebellions at home, caused by the cruel Tyranny of their King. But tho' ANTONY gladly accepted of the Offer, he had not Resolution to leave CLEOPATRA till needs must, and so took not Occasion by the Forelock; else He had ruin'd the Parthian Kingdom at once. Nay when He had come to Syria to prepare for his March against the Parthians, CLEOPATRA in Egypt hearing that his Wife Octavia was come to Athens in her Way to him, and fearing she would regain her Husband's Love, feign'd herself sick of Love to him, and sent for him to cure her of that Languishment, pretending she could not live without a Sight of him: upon which He foolishly return'd to Alexandria, laid aside his Median Expedition, sent Orders to Octavia to stay at Athens, and squander'd a whole Year in Adultery with CLEOPATRA, as formerly. Mean while

Sextus Pompeius had liv'd quiet at Leucas among the Mitslenians, till he heard of ANTONY's Baffle in Media; when Sextus passed over to the Continent of Asia, raised a little Army, and made several desperate Pushes for the restoring of his Fortunes, till he was defeated and taken by Titius, one of ANTONY's Lieutenants, who put him to Death, contrary to Antony's Orders: for which Titius was abhorred by all the Romans. After this, none mention'd the Parties of Pompey and Caesar, but of ANTONY and OCTAVIANUS.

Alexandra by Letters acquainted CLEOPATRA with the Murder of her Son, and CLEOPATRA prevail'd with ANTONY, now both come into Syria, to cite HEROD before him and answer to the Charge, who by fair Words and great Presents mollify'd ANTONY, and defeated his Enemies. But ANTONY perceiving CLEOPATRA more wanted HEROD's Kingdom than any Thing else, gratify'd her Avarice by giving her Cale-Syria instead of Judea. But if HEROD had been cut off by ANTONY, he had left the Kingdom to his Uncle Joseph, whom he order'd, in that Case, to cut off Mariamne, that Antony might not enjoy her; which being imprudently told to Mariamne by Joseph, she and her Mother were very angry: and upon HEROD's Return in Grandeur, Salome his Sister, and Wife of her Uncle Joseph, for being despised by Mariamne, contrived her Ruin; and at first she fill'd HEROD's Head with Jealousy of Mariamne, as too familiar with Joseph, which HEROD was soon convinced was false and groundless, begg'd her Pardon, and expressed extraordinary Love to her: but upon her intimating to him that he could not love her who had order'd her to be murder'd in case he should die, HEROD's Jealousy returned with Increase, was like to have stabb'd her, forthwith order'd Joseph to be put to Death without an Hearing, and lockt up Alexandra in Chains, as the Spring of all Mischief in his Family. Mean while CLEOPATRA being as covetous as lustful, had obtain'd from ANTONY all Cyrene, Cyprus, Ituræa, Phenicia, and Cale-Syria, with a great Part of Cilicia and Crete, and used all her Wiles to get HEROD's Kingdom, by having him cut off, and Malchus King of Arabia too: but tho' ANTONY would not obey her in This, He quieted her by giving her that Part of Malchus's Kingdom that lies next to Egypt, and the Balsam Gardens of Jericho from Herod's Kingdom.

ANTONY in his March to Armenia, took CLEOPATRA with him as far as the Euphrates; and in her Return she came to Jerusalem, where she was very splendidly entertain'd by HEROD, with whom she pretended to be in Love, but could not draw him into her Share; nay it made him detest her more, and he would have cut her off, if he had not been afraid of Antony's Reprimands: therefore he convey'd her to her Borders, and went to give Orders for the fortifying of Massada, as a Place of Retreat. Mean while

ANTONY sent Artavasdes to Armenia, and raised an Army to

Alexander, the son of Statianus, and the son of Artavasdes King of Media.

Artavasdes King of Armenia was slain in a great Battle, and his Army was carried and led before him as in Roman Triumph.

PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HEROD the Great King of Judea.

Triumphs, and as at Rome the Procession ended at the Temple of Jupiter Capitolinus, so here it ended at the Person of CLEOPATRA, seated on a golden Throne, placed on a Scaffold overlaid with Silver: but the royal Prisoners scorn'd to kneel down to her, tho' pressed to it.

A little after this, ANTONY feasted the Alexandrians, and having called them into the Gymnasium, He from a Throne and Scaffold, as above described, (and CLEOPATRA by him on another) harrangued them, and declared Caesarion, the Son of Cleopatra by JULIUS CESAR, to be King of Egypt and Cyprus in Conjunction with his Mother: and having two Sons and a Daughter by Cleopatra, He gave to Alexander his eldest, all the Countries from the Euphrates to India, when They should be conquer'd: to his Daughter Cleopatra (the twin of Alexander) he gave Cyrene and Lybia; and to his other Son Ptolemy Philadelphus he gave all the Countries from the Euphrates to the Hellefpont, and proclaimed each of them King of Kings, calling also CLEOPATRA Isis, and himself Siris, or the Goddess and the God of Egypt; nay from this Time They both wore the Habits of Heathen Deities. Strange Madness in so great a Man!

ANTONY early in the Spring, marched against the Parthians as far as the Araxes; but he went no farther: for there he was well informed that OCTAVIANUS at Rome, had accused him in several Speeches, both to the Senate and the People, of all his scandalous, perfidious, unjust, and tyrannical Actions, of bringing a Disgrace upon the Roman Name; particularly of his maltreating Octavia for the Sake of a covetous Whore, of declaring CLEOPATRA to have been lawfully married to JULIUS CESAR, and Caesarion to be Julius's lawful Son in Opposition to him OCTAVIANUS, who claimed the Inheritance as the adopted Son; and of many other Particulars, to which ANTONY by his Letters and his Agents recriminated as fast. But the true Cause of this Breach was, that neither of them could be satisfy'd with one Half of the Roman Conquests, each would have all, and so agreed to throw the Dye of War for it. Therefore ANTONY forthwith sent Canidius with 16 Legions into Lesser Asia, and having renewed his League with the King of Media, marched after him, and join'd Canidius at Ephesus, and CLEOPATRA with him, whom his Friends advised to lend back to Alexandria: but she pleaded her furnishing 20000 Talents for the War, as a Reason for her being present in it; tho' her own main Reason was her fear of ANTONY's being reconciled to Octavia upon the Conclusion of the War, whereby she must lose him. From Ephesus he sailed to Samos, and then to Athens, where he spent his Time in pompous Luxury and Madness with CLEOPATRA; yet omitted not to make great Preparations by Sea and Land for the ensuing War; while OCTAVIANUS did the same, and both Parties apply'd to their Friends for Assistance.

Dolus and Menobarbus, the Consuls this Year, declared for ANTONY, and with several other Senators, left Rome, and repaired to him in Greece; and OCTAVIANUS made Proclamation, that all who pleased might freely go after them; whereby the City was rid of Antony's Party: upon which ANTONY, by Advice of his own Senate, declared War against OCTAVIANUS, and sent a Bill of Divorce to Octavia: and if ANTONY had now marched towards Italy he had gain'd his Point, for OCTAVIANUS was not prepared to encounter him; but he indulged his Pleasures with CLEOPATRA at Samos and Athens, and delay'd to begin Action till next Year, which prov'd his Ruin. for many of his Friends deserted him, particularly Plancus and Titius, who being privy to all his Secrets, disclosed them to Octavianus, and inform'd him that ANTONY's mad Will was lodged with the Vestal Virgins at Rome, in Favour of CLEOPATRA and her Children, to the Damage and Dishonour of the Roman State; which Will OCTAVIANUS seiz'd, and read it to the People, whereby all their Hearts were alienated from ANTONY. Mean while

HEROD having prepared an Army, ANTONY sent to him to march against Malchus King of Petrea, for refusing to pay his Tribute to CLEOPATRA, and obtain'd a great Victory over him; but when They fought next, at Cana in Cale-Syria, Athenion CLEOPATRA's General, out of Hatred to HEROD, join'd MALCHUS in the Battel, and overthrew HEROD, who narrowly escap'd. Mean while PHRAHATES laid hold of the Opportunity of the Romans civil Wars to invade Media, restored ARTAXIAS to his Kingdom of Armenia, and seized Media from King ARTAVASDES.

OCTAVIANUS declared War, not against ANTONY, for politic Reasons, but against CLEOPATRA; rendezvoused his Army at Brundisium, of 8000 Foot, and 12000 Horse, and his Fleet of 250 Ships of War; while ANTONY advanced to Corcyra, on the other Side of the Adriatic, with an Army of 10000 Foot, and 12000 Horse, and 500 Ships of War: but the Winter prevented Action: only in the Spring M. Agrippa, sent by OCTAVIANUS with a Squadron, seized many Ships coming loaded from Egypt and Asia, with Provisions for Antony.

OCTAVIANUS, } Roman Power.

PHRAHATES IV. King of Parthia.
CLEOPATRA Queen of Egypt.
HEROD the Great King of Judea.

OCTAVIANUS transported his Army from Brundisium to Epirus; and many of ANTONY's Friends deserting him, because of Cleopatra, ANTONY distressed of the rest, resolved to come to a speedy Decision of the grand Cause of universal Empire; and OCTAVIANUS being as eager for it, the Battel of Actium soon happened. It is a small City on the South Side of the Ambraclian Gulph in Epirus, where ANTONY incamped, and OCTAVIANUS incamped on the other Side, and their Fleets in the Mouth of the Gulph were station'd near them, and within a Mile of each other. Canidius at the Head of ANTONY's Army wisely advis'd him to march into Terrace and Macedon, and try his Fortune in a Land Battel; but CLEOPATRA prevail'd with him to try it in a Sea Fight. Accordingly on the 2<sup>d</sup> of September the Fleets engaged, and Victory was dubious for some Time, till CLEOPATRA frighted, fled out of the Battel with 60 tall Ships of War to Peloponnesus, and ANTONY giving all for lost, fled in a Ship after her, leaving the Victory compleat for OCTAVIANUS.

ANTONY came up with CLEOPATRA, and with her failed to Tanarus very melancholy and furly, yet in three Days she conquer'd him again, and they cohabited as before. From thence ANTONY sent to Canidius to lead the Army thro' Macedon into Asia, where he design'd to renew the War: Canidius marched seven Days, till overtaken by OCTAVIANUS, he fled by Night to ANTONY; and next Day the Army went all over to OCTAVIANUS, except the Auxiliaries, who went home. Mean while

The great Earthquake happening in Judea, that destroyed about 30000 People in the Ruins of their Houses, HEROD sent to the Arabians for Peace; but They thinking him quite ruin'd, slew his Ambassadors, and invaded the Land. Upon which HEROD marched his Army (who had not suffered by the Earthquake, as the Arabians thought) over the Jordan, and having destroy'd the Arabians there, forced them in their Turn to sue for Peace, and HEROD return'd in Triumph to Jerusalem.

From Tanarus CLEOPATRA failed to Alexandria, and got in by putting Crowns on her Ships, as if she had returned with Victory, and forthwith put to Death those of the Nobility that she distrusted: but ANTONY failed to Lybia, where he found Scarpus his General, and all his Army had revolted to OCTAVIANUS's Side: upon which he was difficultly kept from slaying himself.

Then He came to Alexandria, where he found CLEOPATRA engaged in ordering her Ships to be carried over the Isthmus of 70 Miles into the Red Sea, to join her Fleet there, aboard which she would put her Treasure, and sail to some new Habitation, rather than fall into the Hands of OCTAVIANUS: but the Arabians at the Instigation of Quintus Didius, (who had seized Syria for OCTAVIANUS) burnt her Ships in the Red Sea, and broke her Design. ANTONY went not to the Palace, but shut himself up in a private House near the Pharos full of Melancholy; but CLEOPATRA soon decoy'd him to the Palace, where They revelled after the old mad Rate. Mean while OCTAVIANUS, having settled the Affairs of Greater and Lesser Asia, repair'd to Samos and winter'd there, but not long: for in the Midst of Winter He was forced to sail into Italy, to pacify his Soldiers that were going to mutiny for want of Pay; and in 30 Days he returned, before ANTONY and CLEOPATRA knew of his Departure, and prepared for an early Expedition against them.

HEROD King of Judea prepared to meet OCTAVIANUS on the Way, in order to be reconciled to him: for HEROD had faithfully adher'd to ANTONY, to whom, when returned to Egypt, HEROD sent a special Messenger, advising ANTONY to kill CLEOPATRA, and with her Treasure to raise a new Army, promising his faithful Assistance. But when HEROD found his Advice neglected, and saw ANTONY on the Brink of final Destruction, he lodged his charming MARIAMNE, and Alexandra her Mother in the Castle of Alexandrium, with a strong Garrison under Joseph and Sabemus, sent his Mother, Sister, and Kindred to the strong Fort of Massada; and that he and his Family might have no Competitor, He put to Death good old HYRCANUS II. aged 80 Years, for a sham Plot of corresponding with the Arabians; then committed the Government to his Brother Pheroras, ordering him to assume the Royal Dignity, in case he miscarried in his Application to OCTAVIANUS, and to put Mariamne and her Mother to Death; and then went in Magnificence to meet OCTAVIANUS at Rhodes; where laying aside his Diadem, yet otherwise royally apparelled, he frankly owned all he had done for "his good Friend ANTONY; and

"now Antony was lost, He offer'd the same Friendship and Fidelity to OCTAVIANUS, if he would accept of it. This frank and heroical Openness so pleased OCTAVIANUS, that he as frankly accepted of HEROD. Offer'd him to put on his Diadem, and confirmed him in the Kingdom: and after HEROD had done this, he was upon Egypt, HEROD return'd with great Joy; but it was much damp'd by the Grief and Melancholy of his beloved Mariamne, to whom Sabemus had blab'd HEROD's Design of having her out of the way he had miscarried; which made her shew an Aversion to HEROD.

The End of the Grecian Monarchy.

OCTAVIANUS from Rhodes passed thro' Leffer Asia, Syria, and Phenicia down to Egypt: HEROD met him at Ptolemais, presented him with 800 Talents, and furnish'd his Army with Necessaries till They arrived in Egypt. Mean while

ANTONY and CLEOPATRA sent frequent Ambassadors to OCTAVIANUS to sue for Peace on very low Terms, who sent no Answer to ANTONY, but gave good Hopes to CLEOPATRA, designing to have her Person to be led in his Triumph; and tho' his Agents could not persuade her to kill ANTONY, They prevailed with her to betray him in every Step, till she drove him to kill himself. For while he went to secure Peritonium the West Key of Egypt, she order'd Pelusum the East Key to surrender to the Romans without one Blow; and ANTONY finding Cornelius Gallus from Lybia, had seiz'd Peritonium for OCTAVIANUS, was forced to return with the Loss of his Squadron of Ships; and hearing the Romans had got Pelusum, ANTONY hastned to defend Alexandria, routed the Enemies Horse at first, till the Roman Foot advanced, who drove him back into the City with great Loss, and blokaded him. Next Morning early, ANTONY went to the Harbour to get the Fleet ready, and to sail to Spain, where he might renew the War: but before his Face, his Fleet drew up and join'd the Roman Fleet; and when he return'd from the Harbour into the City, found all his Forces, Horse and Foot, had also deserted; and perceived too late that all these Misfortunes were owing to the Treachery of CLEOPATRA, who being justly afraid of him, fled to a strong Tower she had built near the Temple of Isis, as her special Treasury, and being there shut up with a Eumuch and two Maids, caused it to be reported that she was dead there. Upon the News of her Death ANTONY fell upon his Sword, and gave himself a mortal Wound; but soon hearing that CLEOPATRA was still alive, he got himself carried to her Tower, where she and her two Maids drew him up by Ropes, and so the Great MARK Antony died in the Arms of CLEOPATRA his Beloved, on the first of August, Eleven Months after the Battel of Actium. As for Madam, she soon falling into the Power of OCTAVIANUS, and hearing he was in a few Days to send her to Rome to be led in his Triumph, she got an Asp to bite her, and died lethargic, about the 29th of August, aged 39 Years; a Woman of great Parts, could speak many Languages, very beautiful, very artful; but amorous, avaricious, proud and false; who first and last made the valiant and wise ANTONY weak and foolish enough, to the Ruin of them both.

Here ends the Third or Grecian MONARCHY, which had lasted from the founding of Alexandria 302 Years, according to Ptolemy's Canon.
Or from the Death of DARIUS Codomannus, when ALEXANDER the Great reign'd alone, It had lasted 300 Years.

And This last Branch of the GRECIAN Monarchy, the Kingdom of Egypt, had lasted

From the Death of ALEXANDER the Great, when it was founded by PTOLEMY Soter the Son of Lagus,

To the Death of this Queen CLEOPATRA in a lineal Succession, during _____ 294 Years, according to the Philippic Period.

When It was made a Roman Province, and so continued for 670 Years, till taken from the Romans by the Saracens, Anno Domini 641.

And this Year is also the first of Augustus, or of the Roman EMPIRE.

| 1. PTOLEMY Soter the Son of LAGUS seiz'd the Government of Egypt, and ruled there from the Death of ALEXANDER 39 Years: so that this brave and wise Soldier had ROYAL Power before he wore a Crown 19 Years, beginning at ALEXANDER's Death. But according to the Chronological Canon of PTOLEMY the Astronomer, he only began to reign, when, after the Example of ANTIGONUS the new King of Asia. He and SELEUCUS, and CASSANDER and LYSIMACHUS, began to wear a Diadem and Royal Robes, viz. Soter married first CURTIS the Sister of CASSANDER King of Macedon, who bore to him 1. Ptolemy Ceraunus, cut to Pieces by the Gauls, and 2. Megaleger expelled from Macedon. See Page 148. 3. Lysandra, Wife of Agathocles, the Son of LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace. 4. Ptolemaida, the last Wife of DEMETRIUS King of Macedon. Soter married next Berenice, the Widow of one Philip a noble Macedonian, (to whom she had born MAGAS, afterwards King of Lybia, and Antigone the Wife of PYRRHUS King of Epirus) and who bore to Soter 1. Ptolemy Philadelphus. 2. Arsinoe Wife first of LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace, and next, the Wife of Pharnaces. PTOLEMY Soter aged 84 Years died in Peace, the best of all his Race.   | 3681            | 323               | 1                    | 425                   | 19                |               |
| 2. PTOLEMY Philadelphus was made Partner in the Throne near two Years before Soter's Death; married first Arsinoe, Daughter of LYSIMACHUS King of Thrace, who bore to him 1. Ptolemy Evergetes 2. Lysimachus, afterwards put to Death by his Brother Evergetes without Issue. 3. Berenice Wife of ANTIOCHUS Theos King of Syria: but Philadelphus divorced his first Wife, and Married next his own Sister Arsinoe, the Widow of the same LYSIMACHUS; and tho' she bore to him no Child, he was so inamour'd with her Beauty and Wisdom, that, for her Death, He died of Grief, aged 63 Years. | 3. PTOLEMY Evergetes I. married Berenice the Daughter of MAGAS King of Lybia, who bore to him 1. Ptolemy Philopator. 2. Magas, put to Death by his Brother without Issue. 3. Arsinoe. They say he was murder'd by his Son and Successor, viz.  | 3720            | 284               | 40                   | 464                   | 38                | 3757          |
| 4. PTOLEMY Philopator, who having also murder'd his Mother and only Brother, marry'd Arsinoe his only Sister, whom he put to Death for grumbling at his Whoredom and Sodomy; and he died, aged 37 Years, leaving an only Son, viz. | 6. PTOLEMY Philometor began to reign at 6 Years old, under the Guardianship of his Mother Cleopatra, who died in the 7th Year of her Son's Reign. In his 12th Year the Alexandrians made his Brother King, but by the Mediation of Cleopatra their Sister, PTOLEMY Physcon, and his Brother PHILOMETOR reign'd as Partners (till PHYSCON expell'd Philometor) during seven Years, beginning But the Romans, as Arbitrators, appointed PHILOMETOR to reign over Egypt and Cyprus, and PHYSCON over Cyrene and Lybia. Physcon had a Wife and a Son while King of Lybia, but she died, and he cut off his Son by her. Page 169. The Royal Daughters of Egypt came about this Time to be called, every one, CLEOPATRA, as every Son was called PTOLEMY. Upon the Death of Philometor, PTOLEMY Physcon, who had called himself Evergetes II. now reign'd alone King of Egypt, upon his marrying CLEOPATRA the Widow of Philometor, and Sister of them both, who bore to him a Son Memphitis, murder'd by his Father, Page 169. but being weary of her, he divorced her, and married the second Daughter of Philometor, Cleopatra his own Niece, and after He had reign'd 17 Years in Egypt, the Alexandrians expell'd him for his Cruelties, when he fled to Cyprus with his new Cleopatra, and Son Memphitis, and when the People set upon the Throne of Egypt | 3800            | 204               | 120                  | 544                   | 24                | 3823          |

Continuation of TABLE XL

CELENE, slain by Eryphaena her Sister Is. 5. Celene the Wife first of her Brother Lathyrus, next of King GRYPHUS, and then of EUSEBES King of Samaria. Page 174 and 175. She was captivated and slain by King TIGRANES. Page 179. And by a Concubine PHYSCON had his Son PHYSCON, Agree, to whom he left by Will the Kingdom of Cyrene and Lybia, who dying without Issue, left that Kingdom by Will to the Roman Roman. A. M. 3955. Page 174.

PHYSCON by Will left Egypt and Cyprus to his Niece and Widow CLEOPATRA, with a Power in her to chuse either of her Sons to be her Partner: and tho' the design'd it for Alexander, the People prevail'd with her to chuse her eldest Son, viz.

9 PTOLEMY Lathyrus, who called himself Butter, } She by her Authority forc'd him to divorce his Wife and eldest Sister Cleopatra, and to marry his younger Sister
10. CLEOPATRA II his Mother and Partner. } Selene; and the Queen made her younger Son ALEXANDER King of Cyprus. After LATHYRUS had reign'd ten
Years with his Mother, she found Means to make him run his Country, and sent for her Son the King of Cyprus,

II. PTOLEMY Alexander I. who reign'd as his Mother's Partner in Egypt, } Till for plotting his Death Alexander put her to Death, after she had reign'd 28 Years, that while LATHYRUS reign'd King of Cyprus } is, 10 Years with LATHYRUS, and 18 Years with ALEXANDER I.
But the Alexander being in Asia }
The Alexander being in Asia }

But the Alexandrians being enraged at King ALEXANDER for that Fact, expell'd him; and getting a few Ships, He was slain in making a Descent upon Cyprus, the same Year he kill'd his Mother: and the People forthwith sent to Cyprus and restored the elder Brother, viz.

LATHYRUS, who now reign'd alone in Egypt, till he died the common Death of Men; but by Ptolemy the Astronomer, the whole 36 Years from the Death of King PHISCON are assign'd to King LATHYRUS.

LAITHYALS by a Concubine had two Sons, 1. PTOLEMY King of Cyprus, who kill'd himself when Cato belieged him.
2. Ptolemy AULETES.

A. N. the Wife of PTOLEMY Lathyrus (after he had lost Selene) bore to him a Daughter CLEOPATRA Berenice, his only legitimate Child, whom the Alexandrians forthwith set upon her deceas'd Father's Throne.

N. N. the Wife of PTOLEMY Alexander I. bore to him a Son Alexander, educated first at Coos, next under MITHRIDATES the Great King of Pontus, and then under Sylla at Rome, who sent him upon the Death of LATHYRUS, to claim his Right of Succession to the Crown of Egypt: and the Egyptians afraid of Sylla, allow'd his Claim, and having join'd the two Royal Cousins in Marriage, They reign'd together, viz.

12. CLEOPATRA III. call'd Berenice } She had reign'd Six Months before his Arrival, but in Nineteen Days after Marriage He slew her, and reign'd alone, till the People

13. PTOLEMY Alexander II. } She had reign'd six Months before his Arrival, but in Nineteen Days after Marriage He slew her, and reign'd alone, till the People being weary of his Government expell'd him; nor would the Romans restore him, and retiring to Tyre he soon died there without Issue. Upon his Expulsion the Alexandrians call'd to the Throne one of the two Bastard Sons of LATHYRUS, v:z.

14. PTOLEMY AULETES, who reign'd under the Protection of the Romans: for when the Egyptians expell'd him, GABINIUS came and restor'd him. And because Ptolemy the Astronomer in his Chronological Canon, takes no Notice of ALEXANDER II. (tho' mention'd by Cicero and Suetonius) and begins the Reign of AULETES from the Death of his Father LATHYRUS, It is concluded that as his Brother got Cyprus immediately on his Father's Death, so AULETES reign'd in some Part of the Egyptian Empire, while ALEXANDER reign'd at Alexandria.

His Wife V. A. bore to him 1. CLEOPATRA. 2. Trifone led in the Triumphs of JULIUS CESAR, and afterwards put to Death by Mark Antony, at the Intigation of CLEOPATRA her Sister. 3. Ptolemy Dionysius drown'd in the Nile. 4. Another Ptolemy, slain afterwards by Order of his Sister Cleopatra. AULETES at his Death made a Will, whereby he committed his Children to the Care of the Roman Republick, and left his Crown to his eldest Son and eldest Daughter, whom he order'd to be married together, according to the ancient Usage of that Royal Family: and so

15. PTOLOMY Dionysius } He began to reign very young, and she not above 17 Years old: nor were They ever married together, for when he grew up, he refused to and } marry her, rais'd an Army, and would have dethron'd her, if JULIUS CÆSAR had not come to her Relief, just after the Battel of Pharsalia, 16. CLEOPATRA IV. } CÆSAR defeated PTOLOMY, who was drown'd in the Flight, after he had reign'd from his Father's Death four Years.

CLEOPATRA the lovely Queen, now reign'd alone by the Countenance and Authority of JULIUS CÆSAR, who often lay with her while he staid at Alexandria, and to whom she bore a Son called Cæsarion, slain by Order of AUGUSTUS, soon after his Mother's Death.

CLEOPATRA came to Mark ANTONY at Tarsus in Cilicia, and so charm'd him with her Wit and Beauty, that he never came from under her amorous Chains, till They were both ruin'd together: for when AUGUSTUS overcame them in Egypt, ANTONY stab'd himself, and expired in her Arms, and she kill'd herself by a Viper, both for fear of being led in Triumph by AUGUSTUS, after she had reign'd with her eldest Brother 4 Years, and alone 18 Years, in all 22 Years.

This Year is also the first of AUGUSTUS, or of the ROMAN Empire.

This Year is also the first of AUGUSTUS, or of the ROMAN Empire.

Thus, the Grecian Kings of Egypt stand together,

Phryxus was slain by his Sister Helle, and shunning the Treachery of his Step-Mother Ino, he was seen to be carried over the Sea into Asia, on a Ram that had a Golden Fleece, which Ram he stole from Ino: that is, in a Ship whose Name or Ensign was the Ram. Helle being frightened, fell into the Sea called Hellespont from her.

But Phryxus arrived safe at Colchis to King Aetas or Aetes, and there sacrificing the Ram, the King hung up the Golden Fleece in the Temple of Mars; which Fleece Jason afterwards stole away by Medea's Means.

TABLE XLII.

A CHRONOLOGICAL Catalogue of the Kings of Italy, call'd Siculi, Janigenae and ABORIGINES.

GOMER the Son of JAPHET, is said first to have planted Colonies in Italy, after the Dispersion of the Nations from Babel. But the first of the petty Kings in Italy, mention'd in the fabulous or uncertain History of that Country, is AURUNUS.

The first Government.

1. AURUNUS began to reign in the 16th Year of Peregrination, or after Abram left Charran, viz. Several more Kings are mention'd after AURUNUS, viz.

2. Malotages.

3. EVANUS the Husband of CECES, who taught the People Tillage.

4. Several petty Kings.

5. EVRIS drove out the petty Kings.

6. PEPTUNE.

7. LESTRIGO.

8. HERCULES Lybicus.

9. CULCUS.

10. ALTEUS.

11. RITIM or Atlas, or Italus from Spain.

12. JASTUS slain by

13. DARDANUS who fled to Thrace.

14. TYRRHENUS who came from India, and whose Subjects were called Tyrrhenians, now Tuscans.

These seem to be Kings not of one Nation, but of the several various Nations that inhabited Italy, as the Siculi, the Tyrrheni or Tuscans, the Umbri, Samnites, Campani, Apulii, Calabri, Lucenii, Brutii, the Aborigines, Sabines, Hetrurians, and others of less Note, besides the ancient Gauls, who drove the Hetrurians out of Gallia Cisalpina (now Lombardy) and dwelt there among the Ligures and Veneti.

This first Government is supposed to last 470 Years. } In all 580 Years, which added to A. M. 2097
No more Kings are mention'd during 120 Years. } The Year before AURUNUS 580
The Produce is A. M. 2677
The first Year of

The II. Government mention'd in History, viz.

That of the ABORIGINES in Italy, originally Greeks: for APOLLO having married CREUSA Daughter of ERICHSIBEUS King of Athens, she bore to him

1. JANUS, who, not content with ruling in Arcadia, sailed over to Italy with a large Colony of his Oenotrians, and having reduced the ancient Siculi, built the Cities Janiculum and Laurentum in old Latium, a small Country along the Tiber, about 30 Miles long and 16 broad, where He founded a new Kingdom in the last Year of Israel's Servitude under EGLON King of Moab, (Table VIII.) in the 58th Year of TROS King of Troy. But some think this Grecian Colony were Delatigians out of Theffaly.

2. SATURN, being expell'd from Crete by his Son JUPITER, fled into Italy with a Colony of Cretans, who mixing with the others, got SATURN to be King of the Aborigines, In the 9th Year of ENUD the Judge of Israel, and the 5th Year of ILUS King of Troy. Saturn is said to have civilized the People, taught them Agriculture, and coin'd Money, &c. Some think they were first call'd Latins from Latendo or lurking; for that Saturn lay there hid.

3. PICUS, married N. N. began to reign in the 9th Year of Israel's Servitude under JABIN King of the Canaanites, and the 24th of ILUS King of Troy. Diodorus Siculus affirms, that the Rape of Proserpine was in Sicily, which is computed by us to have been in the 24th Year of King Picus.

4. FAUNUS, married Lavinia, who was with Child to HERCULES before she was married to Faunus; which Child was Latinus, the Successor of Faunus and his reputed Son. Faunus began to reign in the 30th Year of DEBORAH's Rule over Israel, and 25th Year of LAOMEDON King of Troy. In his Reign Siculus, the Son of an Italian petty King call'd Italus, led a Colony into the Island Trinacria, (or three corner'd Island) and after him It was call'd Sicily; but before that It was call'd Sicania. Diod. In his 19th Year GIDEON began to rule over Israel, and to rescue them from the Midianites. In his 20th Year EVANDER forsaking his Country of Arcadia in Greece, came into Italy with a good Colony that mixed with the Aborigines, 60 Years before Aeneas began to reign there. Dionys. viz. in the last Year of LAOMEDON King of Troy. In his 25th Year HERCULES waged War in Italy, 55 Years before Aeneas began to reign there, viz. in the 5th Year of PRIAM King of Troy. Dionys. And Hercules left several of his Followers with the Aborigines.

5. LATINUS, married N. N. began to reign in the 25th Year of GIDEON the Judge of Israel, and 23<sup>d</sup> Year of PRIAM King of Troy.

In his 10th Year, or 33<sup>d</sup> Year of PRIAM King of Troy, the Argonauts made their famous Expedition from Greece to Colchis for the Golden Fleece. See the foregoing Table.

In his 20th Year, or 43<sup>d</sup> Year of PRIAM King of Troy, the confederated Greeks besieged Troy.

In his 30th Year, or 53<sup>d</sup> and last Year of King PRIAM, Troy was taken and burnt by the Greeks, when AENEAS left that Country in quest of a new Settlement.

In his 33rd Year, or about three Years after the Fall of Troy, AENEAS at last came into Italy, and soon became a King upon the Death of LATINUS.

Thus the Aborigines reign'd from the first of JANUS, to the last of LATINUS, just And by adding to A. M. 2676. the Year before JANUS began, The said Sum of 148.

The III. Government in Italy, or the Trojan Royal Race descended from

In Virgil's Fragments of Dido's Story it is said, that when Troy was taken, ÆNEAS, with a Band of his Fellow-Citizens, defended bravely one Part of that City, till the Greeks gave them Leave to depart in Safety, with as much of their Goods as each could carry: accordingly all of them carried off Gold and Silver, and other precious Things portable; except ÆNEAS, who only carried off his own old Father Anchises upon his Shoulders: upon which the wondering Greeks generously allow'd him to carry off likewise what Goods he pleas'd: but ÆNEAS only chose his Household Gods; which made the Greeks admire him still more, and gave him Leave to go with his Trojans to what Place he pleas'd.

King ÆNEAS began soon to build the City Lavinium in Honour of his Queen, about 6 Miles East of Laurentum, where he kept his Court; and obliged all his Subjects, both Trojans and Aborigines to be called Latins, in Honour of his Father in Law. But engaging in a War with Mezentius a King of the Hetrurians, He was slain after a short Reign of five Years; tho' some say not above 3 or 4 Years: yet so well belov'd, that his Subjects deified him, and dedicated a Chapel to him under the Title of Jupiter Indiges.

2. ASCANIUS, the Son of Æneas by Creusa his first Wife, was born at TROY, and began to reign at Lavinium in the 2<sup>d</sup> Year of JAIR the Judge of Israel. Table VIII. But Lavinia being left big with Child by Æneas, and being afraid of ASCANIUS, fled to the Woods, and was there deliver'd of a Son, who from thence was call'd SILVIUS. Thirty Years after the Founding of Lavinium, ASCANIUS left it to his Mother in Law and her Son Silvius, and founded Alba Longa about 12 Miles Northward, which he made his Royal Seat during the Remainder of his Reign.

TABLE XLIV.

The IV. Government in Italy, or the Roman Kings from the Founding of Rome by ROMULUS.

ROMULUS and REMUS being 18 Years old, were ambitious to build a City in the Place where They had been educated among the Herdsmen, upon the River Tiber, about 14 Miles North-west of Alba, by NUMITOR's Approbation and Assistance. But They could not agree about the particular Spot of Ground; ROMULUS chusing the Mount Palatin, and REMUS the Mount Aventin: and both contending for Preeminence, their Parties fought for it, and REMUS was slain in Battel. Some say that ROMULUS was provoked much by REMUS, particularly by leaping over his New Wall in Contempt of its lowness. And now ROMULUS being the sole Commander, and proclaim'd King, laid also the Foundation of the Kingdom. The City was founded at the Feast of Palilia, or on the Day observed by the Country Shepherds, to the Honour of the Goddess Palis, on the 12th before the Calends of May, (or 19th of April) in the Year of the Julian Period 3966. in the 4th Year of the VII. Olympiad, or a little before the Beginning of the VIII. Olympiad, according to the secular Games observed by the Romans, and the Reckoning of Fabius Pictor the most ancient Roman Author.

But according to Hiero's Account, the Palilia began five Years before; and therefore many Authors reckon the Era of URBS CONDITA, or the Founding of ROME, to commence five Years sooner. But when we read any Author that reckons from the Varronian Palilia, we may always reduce it to the Fabian Palilia, by subtracting five Years; or may add five Years to the Fabian Account to make it agree with the Varronian: Tho' I think, with Archbishop USHER, that the Fabian Account is true and accurate, and have accordingly followed it in all the Chronology.

In his 2<sup>d</sup> Year, or the 2<sup>d</sup> Year of Rome, SARDANAPALUS King of Niniveh, after he had reign'd 20 Years, being sore press'd by his Brother Arbaces or TIGLATHPULEZER, and Belsus or NABONASSAR, in a Siege of near three Years; and finding no Hope of Relief, set fire to his Palace, and was burnt with his Concubines and Eunuchs, and all his Wealth. The Confederates divided his large Empire between them.

§ NABONASSAR became King of Chaldea during 14 Years. He built the City Babylon.

This is the first Year of his famous Astronomical Era, call'd from him the Era of NABONASSAR, who reign'd

This Era began with the 12th Year of JOTHAM King of Judah, who reign'd in all 16 Years.

But the States of Media, that had also belong'd to Sardanapalus, form'd themselves into an Aristocracy for about 38 Years.

ROMULUS began his Kingdom with only 3000 Foot, and 300 Horsemen, till he set up an Asylum or Sanctuary for all Malefactors and Malecontents; whereby he drew vast Numbers from all the Neighbourhood, whom he divided into three Parts or Tribes, like our Wards, and Each of these into ten Curia or Parishes, and Each Curia into ten Decuria. He appointed a General Assembly call'd Comitia Curiata, and divided the People into Patricians or Nobles, and Plebeians or Commons, and inroll'd a 100 Patricians to be his Council or Senate, call'd Patres conscripti, and appointed a particular Magistrate over the City call'd Præfectus urbis; and having formed the Constitution of King, Senate and People, he chose 300 Celeres: or active Youths for his Life-Guard, with Centurions or Captains of Hundreds, and Tribunes or Colonels, and 12 Lictors or Serjeants to punish Offenders, and execute his Commands, who went before him with Bundles of Rods call'd Fasces, and also Axes, to signify the different Punishments.

He made a Festival to decoy the Women of the Neighbourhood, and at it seiz'd on 683 Virgins for Wives to his Men; which occasion'd a War; but ROMULUS conquer'd his Enemies, and united them to his Kingdom, and made the first Roman Triumph.

ACHAZ King of Judah began to reign during 16 Years.
 But the Sabines highly resented it, and began a War that lasted 6 Years, until a Peace was made upon these Terms, 1. That ROMULUS and TATIUS King of the Sabines should reign jointly at Rome. 2. That the City should be call'd ROME from Romulus, but the People QUIRITES from Cures the native Place of TATIUS. 3. That the Nations of Romans and Sabines should be united. This Union was made.

When 100 Sabine Senators were added to the 100 Roman Senators, and lasted 5 Years, till TATIUS was slain by the Lavinians. Upon the Death of NABONASSAR

NADIUS began to reign at Babylon.

Chinzirus and Bonus began to reign at Babylon.

ROMULUS upon the Death of TATIUS the Sabine, once more sole Monarch of Rome, subdued Fidene, a Town five Miles off Rome, and soon after Cameria an Alban Colony, and then Crustumium: for which he made his second Triumph.

SALMANEZER the Son of Arbaces or TIGLATHPULEZER, began to reign at Niniveh.

The Veientes, one of the 12 Nations of Hetruria, having made War upon ROMULUS in Behalf of the Fidenates, were by him beaten in two Battels; and this Year They enter'd into a League with him for 100 Years, and yielded to him the 7th Part of their Dominions: for which he made his third and last Triumph, when their General, an old Man, was led before him, who in all after Triumphs was personated.

HEZEKIAH the Son of ACHAZ King of Judah began to reign in the last Year of his Father's Reign.

And SABACON or So King of Egypt, also began to reign this same Year, Jugaeus began to reign at Babylon.

MARDOCH EMPADUS, or Merodach Baladan the Son of Belshu or Baladan or NABONASSAR, began to reign at Babylon: while SALMANEZER took Samaria, extirpated the Kingdom of Israel, and carried their last King HOSHEA to Niniveh in Chains.

SEVECHUS or Serbus King of Egypt, began to reign

Candaules King of Lydia being murder'd by Gyges his Slave; GYGES began to reign in his Stead, the lineal Ancestor of CROESUS. Page 89.

SENNACHERIB the Son of Salmanezzer King of Assyria, began to reign at Niniveh.

This Year the Shadow of the SUN went back upon Achaz's Dial 15 Degrees.

ROMULUS having rest from War since the 21st Year of his Reign employ'd his Time in settling the Government upon the surest Foundation, made many wholesome Laws, and after NUMITOR's Death, succeeded to the Latin Kingdom of Alba, which he annexed to Rome, and became a very wise and powerful King: But at last growing tyrannical, the Senators conspired against him, and in the Senate House tore him in Pieces, which They carried out secretly under their Gowns; and persuaded the People to believe He was translated up among the Gods: nay Julius Proculus one of the Senators, swore to them, that ROMULUS had appear'd to him, and told him, That it was the Pleasure of the immortal Gods, to have him continue among Mankind till he had founded a City, whose Empire and Glory should far surpass all Others! and at parting, bid him tell his Subjects, That by their strict Exercise of Temperance and Fortitude, no human Power should ever withstand the Roman Arms; and he would always be a propitious God to them, under the Name of Quirinus.

The Day of his supposed Translation was ever kept as a great Holy Day, and a Temple built for him on one of the seven Hills of Rome, call'd after him Mount Quirinalis. After the Death of ROMULUS.

The Senators ruled Rome during the Interregnum of one Year.

The same Year DEJOCES was chosen King of Media, and began to reign at Ekbatana.

At length the Senators chose

1. NUMA POMPILIUS a noble Sabine, who, with Reluctance, accepted to be King of the Romans, aged 40 Years.

His Wife was Tatia the Daughter of King TATIUS.

The same Year Artabanus King of Babylon began to reign.

| NUMA Pompilius this same Year died in Peace, aged 80 Years, and was buried with Honour in a Stone Coffin under the Hill Janiculum, with his 12 Books in Greek and Latin, (which were found 400 Years afterwards, and burnt by Order of the Senate, who thought those ancient Mysteries unfit for the Populace) after he had compleated in a peaceful Reign what Romulus had begun in War and Bloodshed: for he disbanded the Celeres Guards, built the Temple of Janus, and to the two Flamens or High Priests of Jupiter and Mars, he added a third of Quirinus or Romulus, gave great Privileges to the Vestal Virgins, instituted the Salii or Shield Bearers, and the Feciales or Heralds. He made many good Laws, cultivated the rough Temper of the Romans, and reform'd the Year, dividing it into 12 Months, that was before but of 10 Months. His Religion was much like That of Pythagoras afterwards, and he forbade the Use of Images in Worship, which prevail'd at Rome for 170 Years after him. |       |                                 |                       |                              |                              |                       |                       |                              |                   |                             |

| TULLUS Hostilius, a warlike Prince, renew'd the Celeres Guards, was generous to the poorer Sort of Romans, built his Palace on the Hill Janiculum, and enlarged the City. He gave all over the Kingdom in the 3 rd Year of his Reign, by the famous Combat of the Three Curiatii and the Three Horatii, for which he was triumphed. Having defeated the Fucientes, and the Antates, he made a second Triumph about the 5 th Year, and soon after, he sent Marcus Horatius to demolish Alba, that had stood near 500 Years, brought its Inhabitants to Rome, and made Roman Senators of their Nobility, as the Tullii, Serranii, Quinctii, Gegani, Curatii, and Calpurnii. In the 7 th Year he reduced the Fucientes, and defeated the Sabines, for which he obtain'd his Third Triumph.   |       |                                 |                       |                              |                              |                       |                       |                              |                   |                             |

Continuation of TABLE XLIV.

I forgot to put in the OLYMPIADS at the Beginning of this Table, before the Sheet was cast off, but now I overtake it thus,

1. ROMULUS founded Rome after the first Olympiad 29 Years, or, _____
2. NUMA Pompilius began to reign, _____
3. TULLUS Hostilius began to reign, _____

But all the Remainder of the Reign of TULLUS was consumed in a lingering War with the Latines, till he and all his Family peris'd by Lightning, or rather by a Conspiracy.

King NUMA

Marcus I. a Senator, who was sent to invite NUMA to be King.

Pompilia Wife of Marcus II. a Senator.

4. ANCUS Marcius, call'd Ancus from his crooked Arm, was chosen by the Senate and the People to be King of the Romans: married N. N. _____

CYAXARES I. the Son of Phraortes King of Media, began to reign at Ekbatana. _____

Babopolassar a Babylonian, the General of Chnildanuss, finding his Master indolent, revolted and usurped the Kingdom of Chaldaea, in the 22<sup>d</sup> Year of Chnildanuss, Anno Nabonassari 122. _____

Babopolassar, call'd by some Nebuchadnezzar I. the Father of Nebuchadnezzar the Great, began to reign over Chaldaea at Babylon his native City and Metropolis. While Chnildanuss reign'd at Niniveh: tho' some think he was now slain; because one Saratus is mention'd to have reign'd 14 Years before the Fall of Niniveh: but others think It is only another Name of Chnildanuss. _____

Ancus, call'd Pharaoh Necho, the Son of Psammis King of Egypt, began to reign. _____

Ancus Marcius first triumphed over the Latines, and next over the Fidenates, the Veientes, the Volsci, and the Sabines: was much of the Temper of his Grandfather King Numa; greatly increas'd the City, extended his Dominion to the Sea Side, and at the Mouth of the Tiber built the City Ostia. He liv'd and died in Splendor, leaving two Sons Minors, viz. Ancus and N. N. to the Care of Lucius Tarquinius, whose Father was _____

Damaratus a rich Merchant of Corinth, who fled out of Greece from the Rage of War, and settled in Tarquinia, a Place of Hetruria, where he married a noble Matron, who bore to him a Son call'd _____

Lucumo, who being neglected in his native Country, for being the Son of a Foreigner, his high Spirit could not brook it; but selling his Possessions, came to Rome with all his Wealth, his Wife Tanaquil, and his Followers, about the Middle of Ancus's Reign; Ancus made him free of Rome, and a Senator too, for offering all his Substance to support the publick Good, like a brave Soldier and a wise Counsellor; and by his Liberality he became the Darling of the Populace; for whose Sake he changed his Name to that of a Roman Sound, viz. from Lucumo to Lucius, adding Tarquinius from the Place of his Birth: This Hetrurian or Corinthian, had Ambition and Influence enough to be chosen King. And to _____

5. Lucius Tarquinius Priscus, began to reign King of the Romans, when, to gain the common Peoples Favour, he added to the Senate 100 Plebeians, call'd Patres minorum gentium, or Senators of lesser Families, or of a lower Rank _____

Babopolassar King of Babylon, having, some Time ago, married his eldest Son Nebuchadnezzar to Amitis the Daughter of Prince Assyages the Son of CYAXARES King of Media, got the Medes readily to join him in laying Siege to Niniveh, and took it, slaying Saratus the King, (or Chnildanuss under another Name, as some think) and to gratify the Medes, He utterly destroy'd that ancient City; whereby Babylon became the Metropolis of the whole Assyrian Empire, which was now all subject to King Babopolassar. _____

JOSIAH the good King of Judah, being slain in the Battel of Megiddo, by Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt. _____

Jehoahaz his second Son reign'd at Jerusalem about three Months, till deposed and captivated by King Necho, who set up _____

Jehoiakim the eldest Son of King Josiah, who began to reign, _____

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the Great, the Son of Babopolassar King of Assyria and Chaldaea, began to reign in the Army, as his Father's Partner, according to the Jewish Reckoning; _____

For This is the first Year of the first 70 Years Captivity mention'd by Jeremiah, when King Nebuchadnezzar first took in Jerusalem, made Jehoiakim his Vassal, and sent many Captives to Babylon. _____

Babopolassar his Father died at Babylon this Year, _____

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the Great, King of Assyria and Chaldaea, began to reign alone at Babylon, according to Ptolemy's Canon. _____

Continuation of TABLE XLIV.

| SEAVIUS Tullius, according to Promise, soon divided the Crown Lands among the poorer People; He enlarged the City, taking in the Three other Hills to the four former, viz. the Quirinal, the Viminal, and the Esquiline, and divided the Citizens according to their Wealth into Six Clases, Ranks, or Orders, and 193 Centuries, with the Assembly of Comitia Centuriata, who rais'd Money for the War, by a Census or Tax, or Valuation; and He first stamp'd Money with the Image of a Sheep, whence it was call'd Pecunia. TULLIUS also instituted the Roman Lustrum (a luendo from playing) to be celebrated at the End of every five Years; when, on a certain Day after the Census was made, the Citizens met in Armour in the Campus Martius, in their proper Clais or Century, and by solemn Sacrifices the City was lustrated or expiated. This began in the 12 th Year of his Reign, when the Number of free Citizens were 84700: and he increas'd their Number by making Slaves free (call'd Manumitting) for their Money or Merit. He likewise divided the Territory into 26 Tribes, made many inferior Magistrates, and many good Laws, reduced the Hetrurians to Terms, built two Temples to Fortune, and intended at last to have laid down his Office, and to restore the People to absolute Liberty. He married his two Daughters to Tarquin's two Grandsons, Lucius and Aruns: Lucius was fierce, but his Wife was mild; and Aruns was mild, but his Wife was fierce; therefore Lucius agreed with his Brother's Wife to dispatch their Spouses, and to be married together: which being done, Lucius usurped the Throne of his Grandfather, and slew good old TULLIUS, the best of all the Roman Kings! |   | U. He made a League with the Aequi, and renew'd the League with the Hetrurians. He revived his Grandfather's Design of building the triple Temple to Jupiter, Juno, and Minerva, on the Tarpeian Mount, and in digging for a Foundation found the Head of one Volus, whence it was call'd Capitol, the most stately Edifice of Rome. He bought from a strange Woman the Three Books of the Sibylline Oracles, (who had burnt the other Six, because he would not give her Price for them) and committed them to the Care of two Noblemen.  |   |       |                     |                                  |                 |                             |                             |            |                         |                 |                  |      |

At length while he besieged Ardea the Metropolis of the Rutuli, his Son Sextus ravish'd Lucretia the Wife of Tarquinius Collatinus, the Son of Egerius, the Nephew of PRISCUS: she sent for her Husband and her Father Lucretius, who came from the Army attended with Publius Valerius, and Lucius Junius Brutus; and having requested them to revenge her Wrong, she stabb'd herself before them. Upon which Brutus threw off his Mask of Simplicity, and pressing them to join him, soon shut the City Gates, assembled the Senate, and by a solemn Speech influenced them to demolish Kingly Government, and to banish King TARQUIN with all his Family for ever; which was confirmed by the People, and agreed to by the Army: so that TARQUIN having neither City nor Army on his Side, fled to Hebruria for Shelter.

Rome now had its Dominion extended over most of old Latium, and most of the Sabines Country, a great Part of Hebruria, particularly the Country of the Veientes, the Caretanes, and the Tarquinius, with some small Parts of the Volsce and Aqui: but its whole Territory was not above 40 Miles long, and 30 broad.

But the City was become very large and populous, with many magnificent Structures that portended its future Grandeur.

Thus according to Ensebius, as on Page 104.

TABLE XLV.

The CHRONOLOGY of the Roman REPUBLIC from the Banishment of King TARQUINIUS Superbus and his Family,
To the Creation of Military TRIBUNES, containing 65 Years,

Upon the Expulsion of the Tarquins.

The ROMANS agreed to the Scheme of Government proposed by Lucius Junius Brutus, the Founder of the Commonwealth, viz. by a Senate, and two annual CONSULS that had Regal Power and Royal Robes, Ornaments and Ensigns: and the Senate and People of ROME chose after the Example of the Archons of Athens

Lucius Junius Brutus

Lucius Tarquinius Collatinus,

but this last favouring the Party of the Tarquins too much, laid down, and

VALERIUS POPLICOLA was chosen in his Room.

} the two first CONSULS, while Egypt was subject to the Persian Kings, and Greece flourish'd under several Kings, and powerful Commonwealths, and while Dacia, Illyrium, Germany, Gaul, Spain, Britain, and most other Parts were under many petty Kings, whose History is fabulous or unknown.

This was in the 14th Year of DARIUS Hystaspes King of Persia,
After the Founding of Carthage by Queen DIDO the Tyrian, about 362 Years.

JUNIUS BRUTUS executed his two Sons for joining with other Conspirators to restore King Tarquin, and was next Year slain himself by Aruns the Son of Tarquin, in a Duel before the Armies, but he slew Aruns also; when

POPLICOLA beat the Hetrurian Army that came to restore Tarquin, and for which he had a most solemn Triumph; was call'd Poplicola for his Popularity, and for making Laws in favour of the People. This Year the Capitol was finish'd, and dedicated solemnly by M. HORATIUS the other Consul, and the first League made with the Carthaginians.

PORSENNA an Hetrurian or Tuscan King, in behalf of Tarquin, besieged Rome, and had taken it, but for the Valour of Horatius Cocles. Poplicola drew out and beat Porfenna; but the Siege was carried on till Publius Scaevola attempting, in vain, to kill Porfenna, became acquainted with him, and got him to offer Peace upon the Romans restoring the Lands of the Veientes; which Poplicola accepted.

The Sabines were defeated with the Loss of 13000 Men by M. Valerius the Consul, Brother of Poplicola.

The Sabines and Latines confederated against Rome; when Appius Claudius an eminent Sabine deserted his Nation, and settled at Rome with 5000 Families of his Followers. He was made a Roman Senator, and became the Root of the Claudii. The Sabine Army advancing to Fidene, Poplicola now again Consul defeated them; but soon after his Triumph he died, and was buried at the publick Charge; because He was poor, and much lamented for his Generosity, Courage and Wisdom.

The Sabines this Year came again and besieged Rome, but were totally routed by the Consuls Menenius and Posthumius. And next Year

Cassius and Virginius the Consuls defeated the Sabines, killing 10300, and taking 4000 Prisoners, upon which they sued for Peace.

Tarquin, by the Means of Mamilius Octavius, got the Latines to declare War against Rome, and the City Fidene to revolt; which the Romans forthwith blockaded. Tarquin also sent Emissaries to bribe the poorer Sort of People in Rome into a Revolt for his Restoration: but Salpinius the Consul discover'd it, and cut off the Conspirators; while Fidene was yielded to Largius Flavius.

The 24 Latine Cities, concern'd for the Loss of Fidene, declared War against Rome; and the Roman Senate being distress'd, because the Poor and the Debtors refused to list themselves in the Army, till their Debts were remitted by a Decree, were forced to create a supreme Officer call'd DICTATOR, Magister Populi, and Pacator Maximus, with whom They lodged absolute Power during Six Months only.

The first DICTATOR was made 5 Years before the Tribunes of the People.

LARGIUS FLAVIUS, who chose Sp. Cassius for his Lieutenant or Master of Horse, and appearing with 24 Rods and Axes carried before him, stopp'd the Murmurs of the People, who fearing to lose their Freedom, insisted themselves to the Number of 150700. FLAVIUS, dealing privately with the Latines, obtained a Truce for one Year, and at the End of Six Months laid down his Office.

After the Year of Truce, both Armies took the Field: the Latines were 40000 Foot, and 3000 Horse, under the Command of Titus and Sextus, the two Sons of Tarquin, and Mamilius: The Romans were 24000 Foot, and 1000 Horse, commanded by the DICTATOR Posthumius, Ebutius his Master of Horse, and Virginius the Consul: They fought a bloody Battel, in which the Romans were Conquerors, slaying three fourths of the Enemy, with Mamilius and Sextus. Upon which the Latines retired, the Latines humbly sued for Peace, and old King Tarquin abandon'd by the Sabines, Hetrurians, and Latines, retired to Arifodemas Prince of Cuma in Campania, where he died, aged 50 Years: and POSTHUMIUS laid down his Office of Dictator, after the War was finish'd.

The Courts of Justice being open again, the Processes against Debtors revived, which created a Mutiny among the poor People in the City, and in the Army too. Servilius the Consul was for accommodating it, but the other Consul Appius was much against it; until the Army revolted at Mons Sacer, 3 Miles North of Rome, where the enraged Commons came out and join'd them, and would have overturn'd the Government, if the Senate had not wisely condescended to treat with the People by the Mediation of Menenius the Patrician, who by his Prudence brought them to Temper: only the People by this this Revolt, obtain'd Leave from the Senate to chuse certain Guardians of their Rights, call'd the Tribunes of the People, at the Comitia Centuriata; who were a Curb to the Senate, and made the subsequent Government a Mixture of Aristocracy and Democracy.

The first TRIBUNES of the People were made 42 Years before the Decemviri. They were five, viz. Lucius Junius Brutus, Sicinius Bellulus, the two Licinii, and Icilius Ruge; They and their Successors, while in Office, were constantly to reside at Rome, and be unanimous in their Determinations. The Commons chose also two Aediles to assist their Tribunes: and then They frankly inlisted themselves under the Consul Posthumius against the Volsci: They first took from them two Towns, and laid Siege to their Capital Corioli, which Caius Marcius a valiant Patrician bravely took in, and was thence call'd Coriolanus; and then joining Posthumius, he was the chief Cause of gaining an intire Victory over the Volsci, who now sued for Peace; and the League with the Latines was also renew'd.

A Famine at Rome caus'd the People to be discontented, especially that Coriolanus had advis'd the Senate to keep up the Price of the Corn brought from Sicily; in order to punish the Insolence of the Commons: upon which the Tribunes of the People sent their Aediles to seize him, tried him before the People, and condemn'd him to perpetual Banishment; the first Patrician banish'd by the Commons. This was the same Year that Miltiades beat the Persians in the Battel of Marathon.

Coriolanus went to Antium among the Volsci, was protected by Tullus Attius there, till the Volsci form'd a Pretence for War against the Romans, and made him their General; and he made strange Havock of the Towns belonging to the Romans and Latines, distress'd Lavinium, and pitched within five Miles of Rome, when the Senate and People offer'd to restore him; but he scorn'd it, unless the Volsci had their Towns and Lands restored, and made free of Rome as the Latines were. They sent to him next the Priests and Augurs, and all the Religions; but They could not prevail. Then They sent his Mother Veturia, his Wife Volturnia, his two Children, Valeria the Sister of Poplicola, and many fine Ladies; and after great Importunity, Coriolanus cried out, O Mother you have gain'd the Victory, most fortunate to my Country, but most destructive to my self: for upon his Return, Tullus, thro' Envy, got him cut to Pieces untry'd, tho' much lamented by the Body of the Volsci, and the Roman Women mourn'd for him 10 Months, who for saving their Country had a Temple built for them, dedicated to Woman's Fortune. Upon his Death

The Consul Aquilius overthrew the Hernici, and the other Consul Sicinius overthrew the Volsci, among whom fell the said Tullus their General: and next Year

Consul Virginius defeated the Aequi, and the other Consul Cassius reduced the Volsci to sue for Peace, who granted them to be free of Rome like the Latines.

About this Time ARTABAZUS the eldest Son of Darius Hystaspes (by his first Wife Amisa the Daughter of Gabrias) got from his Father the Regal Government of Pontus; when XERXES, Darius's eldest Son by Atossa the Daughter of CYRUS, got the Succession to the Empire. This ARTABAZUS the first King of Pontus, was the Progenitor of MITHRIDATES the Great.

About the same Time the Government of Cappadocia was erected into a Kingdom, under the Son of Anapba one of the Peers of Persia, who slew Smerdis the Magus.

This Year Darius Hystaspes dying, his Son

XERXES King of Persia, the Grandson of CYRUS by his Mother Atossa, began to reign, Cassius Consul the 3<sup>d</sup> Time, had a View to Sovereignty, recounting in a Speech to the People his many Services to the State, and insinuating the Reasonableness of their continuing the sole Government in his Hands: and in order to gain the People's Favour, He propos'd to divide the conquer'd Countries, and other publick Grounds among the meaner Sort, and brought in the Latines and Hernici to a Share thereof with the old Romans; which ruin'd his Project: for the old Romans influenced the Senate to publish a Resolution for dividing the Lands among the Commons, but excluding all new Allies and Associates, as having no Reason to expect a Share of what was gain'd before their Times.

This was the famous Agrarian Law, that afterwards created much Disturbance; but at present the Promise of it appeas'd the People, and ruin'd Cassius: for next Year

The Quæstors set him a Day to be try'd before the People, for aiming at Sovereignty or Tyranny; when all his Services, his fine Orations, the Intercession of all his Friends and Clients in Mourning, could not prevent his Condemnation; and he was publickly thrown down the Tarpeian Rock! Such was the Enmity of the Romans to Monarchy!

But the Commons soon lamented his Loss, when They could not get the Senate to put the Agrarian Law in Execution; and for five Years running, Rome was in Confusion by the Quarrels of the Tribunes, urging to execute that Law, and of the Consuls declining it.

XERXES march'd into Greece with about five Millions of People to conquer it, but was shamefully beat at the Pass of Thermopyla, and Straits of Salamis this Year; and next Year his General Mardonius was totally routed by the Greeks in the Battel of Plataea.

This Year the Volscians, and other Hætrurians, overcame the Consul Virginius, and would have ruin'd him if Fabius the other Consul had not seasonably come to his Relief: but upon the Romans Retreat, the Volscians march'd to the Walls of Rome, while the City was contending about the Agrarian Law; till the Fabii of the Fabii undertook to defend the Frontiers at their own Cost, and fortified Cæmera.

Seminus the Consul sent the Fabii to sue for Peace, and made a League with them so disadvantageous to Rome, that the Senate deny'd him a Triumphant Entry, and he took Part with the Commons.

The Cæciliæ destroy'd the Fabii out of Grudge, and by an Ambush cut them all off, except one Lad, from whom descended Fabius Maximus: then the Volscians, defeated the Consul Sempronius, routed his Camp, and march'd to Mount Janiculus, within two Miles of Rome; but were a little repulsed by Marcius the other Consul, who not only beat them next Year, when

The Consul Virginius and Sempronius raising Levies, by appealing the poor People with Corn, drew out against the Etrurians, pass'd the River in the Night, and gave them a total Rout. Then Sempronius was rais'd for setting the brave Fabii be cut off. And in two Years

Continuation of TABLE XLV.

The Volentes and Sabines were so overpower'd, that they sued for Peace, after a seven Years War; and giving an Year's Pay to the Roman Army, They obtain'd a Truce for 40 Years.

Cenucius a Tribune boldly set a Day to Manlius and Furius the last Year's Consuls, to answer before the People for not executing the Agrarian Law; but mean while Cenucius died. Upon which the present Consuls Aemilius and Clodius became proud, and offer'd to press Volero for a common Soldier, (who had been once an Officer) and for refusing, order'd him to be scourg'd: but Volero was protected by the Tribunes; and the People, diverted from the Agrarian Law, were busied about Liberty and Privileges.

Volero got Interest to be made a Tribune; and to ballance him, the Senate made Appius Claudius Consul, the Son of Appius, and with him Quintius Capitolinus: Appius by his Heat against the Commons, rais'd almost a civil War; but Quintius by his Moderation prevented it.

Volero, a bold enterprizing Man, got the Assembly of Tribes appointed, call'd Comitia Tributa, wherein each Freeman, rich or poor, had an equal Vote in his own Tribe; and by the majority of the Sentiments of the several Tribes, the Tribunes, the Aediles, the Priests, and other inferior Magistrates were chosen, the Laws call'd Plebiscita were made, Peace was made (but not War) and the Punishment of Misdemeanors determin'd, but not Life and Death. This Law greatly extended the Power of the Commons.

The Comitia Tributa.

Appius marched against the Volsi, but with very bad Success; and next Year having warmly opposed the Agrarian Law, the Tribunes set him a Day to answer for his Life before the People; which he prevented by killing himself.

Mean while Artaxerxes being slain asleep in Bed, by Artabanus and Mithridates his Servants, in the 21st Year of his Reign, ARTAXERXES Longimanus his youngest Son, King of Persia began to reign.

After the Romans had took Antium from the Volsi (a Sea-port 28 Miles South East of Rome) and had reduced them, with the Aequi and Sabines, to Terms of Peace (tho' amidst their own Broils, and one Year under a grievous Plague) the Consuls Columnius and Camerinus, with the young Patricians, opposed the Tribunes that attempted a Law to allow all Citizens an equal Share in the Administration, and to chuse ten Men to write Laws. But during these Convulsions

Perdonius a Sabine with 4000 Men seiz'd the Capitol, getting the Slaves to join them upon a Prospect of Liberty; and the Tribunes getting the Populace to refuse to take Arms, Valerius the Consul promis'd upon Oath to satisfy their Demands when the War was ended: and so by their Assistance he retook the Capitol by Storm, but lost his Life in the Action.

The Tribunes required Claudius the other Consul, to perform the Oath of his decess'd Colleague; but he said, He could do nothing without another Consul: upon the Comitia chose Quintius Cincinnatus, (the Father of Cato, lately run his Country for opposing the Tribunes.) whom the Messengers found at his Plow, and having saluted him as Consul, clothed him with Purple, and carried before him the Ensigns of Magistracy, He left his poor little Field with Regret, and marched to Rome; where he ruled with so much good Conduct, that the Tribunes saw no Need of new Laws; and when he had finish'd his Year, he return'd to his Plow. Yet next Year the Aequi and Volsi revolted under Gracchus Cladius, who blokaded the Roman Army; therefore

Quintius Cincinnatus was again taken from his Plow, and made DICTATOR, who in 14 Days fell upon Cladius, drove him to his Intrenchments, reduced his whole Army to yield at Discretion, and made them all pass under the Jugum (three Spears set up like a Gallows) in Sign of Servitude, and Corbis was deliver'd up: for which Quintius obtain'd a more magnificent Triumph than any before him: but he refused the Senate's Offer of Lands, Plunder, &c. and again return'd to his Plow.

This 7th Year of ARTAXERXES Longimanus, is the first Year of Daniel's 70 Weeks, or 490 Years, reaching to the Death of Messiah the Prince; when also the King, (call'd in holy Scripture Ahasuerus) put the Royal Diadem on the Head of ESTHER.

When the Sabines and Aequi retook Corbis, the Senate could not raise an Army, till they promised to the People to increase the Number of Tribunes to Ten; but the Senate made a Proviso, that They should not chage the same Tribunes twice. Then an Army was rais'd that reduced their Enemies.

But these Ten Tribunes soon became insolent, assembling the Senate by their own Authority, and requiring Mount Aventine, then waste, for the People to build on; which the Senate granted, hoping it would satisfy them; and the City was thereby much increas'd. But next Year

The Commons renew'd their Demand of executing the Agrarian Law, which produced Heats and Blows, nay the Tribunes set a Day to try the Consuls before the People; which They dropt as a dangerous Expedient: yet in a general Assembly convocated by the Tribunes, Siccius Dentatus a brave military Tribune or Colonel, mov'd for the Agrarian Law with much Eloquence; but the Patricians by their Prudence defeated now that Design, which was also diverted by the March of the Aequi as far as Tusculum; against whom

The Consuls led forth the Army, and obtain'd a notable Victory over the Enemy, particularly owing to the gallant Siccius Dentatus, who was put upon the forlorn Hope with a Design to have him slain: but he avenged himself by preventing their Triumph: and next Year

Continuation of TABLE XLV.

Succius being chosen a Tribune of the People, got a Law pass'd in the Comitia Centuriata, that all Magistrates should have Power to punish those who violated their Authority, (which before was the sole Privilege of Consuls) but not by any higher Fine than 2 Oxen or 30 Sheep.

And now the People being pleas'd and more moderate, the whole Body of Rome sent Posthumius, Sulpicius, and Manlius to Athens in great State, to bring from thence a Set of wholesome Laws, for settling the Government and preventing Feuds.

This Year a great Famine and a grievous Plague did great Damage to the City,

When the Ambassadors return'd from Greece, the Tribunes prevail'd that Ten chief Senators should be elected as Law Makers with absolute Power for one Year without Appeal, and that all other Magistracies should be made void till renew'd according to the Laws.

The DECENVIRI.

And so the Comitia Centuriata chose Ten Senators to be the Lawgivers, viz.

1. Appius,
2. Cenucius,

3. Sextius,

5. Posthumius,
6. Sulpicius,
7. Manlius,

the 3 Ambassadors.
8. Julius. 9. Meturius. 10. Horatius, three eminent Senators.

They agreed that only one of them at one Time should have the Consular Ensigns, to which They were to succeed by Turns during the Year: and from the Laws brought from Greece, and their own Usages, They formed Roman Laws ingraven upon Ten Tables of Brass, approved by the Senate and People, and hung up in the Forum. These govern'd well: but the next Set of Decemviri did not, viz.

1. Appius, the most cunning and popular of them, got himself and his Friends next chosen. 2. Fabius a former Consul. 3. Coquellius. 4. Servilius. 5. Metutius. 6. Antonius. 7. Rabulius, all Patricians; and 8. Petilius. 9. Duellius. 10. Oppius, three Plebeians, who made an Appearance with Regal Ensigns, and with Axes as well as Rods. They swore to be unanimous, and to do all Things by virtue of their own Power, without regarding the Senate or People: They became both Legislators and Judges, put many Citizens to Death, confiscated others unjustly by suborning Accusers, corrupted the City, and forced many to run their Country.

Yet They added Two Tables of Laws, which made up the Twelve Tables often mention'd by Roman Authors; and This required the frequent Interpretation of the Learned; which oral Law was afterwards call'd the Civil Law: and besides They had Actions Juris or Law Cases.

The Sacres and Aqui designing to invade the Roman Territories, the Decemviri were forced to call a Senate, where They were bravely opposed by Valerius the Grandson of Poplicola, and Marcus Horatius the Grandson of Poplicola's Colleague, and Claudius the Uncle of Appius, and Siccius Dentatus the Roman Achilles, and by the Body of the People; because of their Tyranny. But Appius rais'd an Army, got the brave Dentatus murder'd, forced Claudius and many more to run their Country; till attempting to abuse the Daughter of Virginus a Plebeian Soldier, the Army revolted, and the People demanded the Restoration of their old Government, which was readily granted by the Senate: and so farewell DECENVIRI, who govern'd not full three Years; for Valerius and Horatius were made Consuls during the Remainder of this Year; who got a Law made, that the Laws enacted in the Comitia Tributa, should have the same Force with the Laws made in the Comitia Centuriata; which was much to the Advantage of the People.

The Tribunes now call'd the Decemviri to account; but Appius was found dead in Prison, and Oppius kill'd himself in Prison, and the other Eight banish'd themselves. The Consuls defeated the Enemy, but the Senate deny'd them their just Triumph: therefore the Consuls with the Tribunes got a Law made to empower the People to grant a Triumph.

The War against the Volsi and Auni could not be vigorously managed; because of the constant Disputes between the Senate and People, till the Enemy had ravaged the Country to the Walls of Rome; when the People, consulting the common Safety, list'd under the Consuls Quintius and Furius, who obtain'd a signal Victory. This Year Schemiah rebuilt the Walls of Jerusalem.

The Commons forced the Senate, while the Enemy was in the Field, to pass two Laws in their Favour, the one was to permit the Marriages of Patricians with Plebeians, and the other that Six Governors should be chosen with Consular Power, Three Patricians and Three Plebeians, to be called Quinary Tribunes, to let the Senate and People know whether They would chuse that or the old Government by Consuls, yet the People chose only three Patricians for their Quinary Tribunes.
